Add Up All the Advantages of SHUR-GAIN HOG CONCENTRATE and the total is BIGGER PROFITS

Hog producers are aware that there is more to hog production than grain feeding alone. Wise farmers have come to recognize the fact that it takes 1,100 lbs. of straight grain to finish a hog in 7½ to 8 months of feeding. But when only 50 lbs. of SHUR-GAIN 41% Hog Concentrate is added to their ration, only 650 lbs. of grain are needed, and hogs finish better, with higher grades in only 5½ to 6 months.

You save weeks of feeding, you save 450 lbs. of grain, and you save many hours of work per hog, by feeding them the Balanced SHUR-GAIN Way. And you'll like the way your hogs grade out. More select grades at marketing mean More Profits for you. For bigger and better profits this year, resolve now to feed the profitable, economical, SHUR-GAIN Way.

Cottam Blood Donor Clinic.

The committee in charge are very happy to announce that, for the present at least, the services of our local Blood Clinic are no longer required. It is gratifying to note that for the nine clinics held at Cottam, 331 individual donors have contributed a total of 1,000 donations, with an average of 112 donors for each clinic. The following donors have nine or more donations to their credit: Hugh Ferguson, Harold Ferguson, Emerson Ruppert, George Ash, Clarence Mitchell, Robert Dalgleish, O. Middleton, E. Roylan, Donald Morrison, Edna Hummer, James Fox and E. J. Riley.

To the donors, doctors, nurses, and other organizations and many others from Cottam, Woodlee, Kingsville, Essex and surrounding districts, who have contributed in any way to the success of the clinic, is extended the hearty appreciation of the committee.

Flavour of Tomatoes Preserved in Canning.

The luscious flavour of tomatoes fresh plucked from the vines is the special pleasure of the home gardener. Capturing and preserving this goodness and storing it away for winter months — this process is the fine art of home canning. Tomatoes are easily canned and a boon for winter meal planning.

Extensive experiments have been carried out by the Consumer Section of the Dominion Department of Agriculture to determine the best methods of preserving flavour, colour and food value. The following recommendations are made as a result of these tests:

Use plain tin cans (not enamel) for tomatoes, as the latter give a product of poor colour, impaired flavour and low vitamin content.

Do not use narrow-necked bottles of the type in which vinegar is sold, for tomato juice. A high rate of spoilage and loss of vitamin content result with these containers.

In filling containers allow ¼ inch headspace at the top of the cans, screw top and spring top sealers, and ½ inch at the top of vacuum type sealers.

Tomatoes — Solid Pack.
Blanch, remove stem end and peel tomatoes. Cut large tomatoes in quarters or leave small ones whole. Pack in clean hot sealers, pressing down until the tomatoes are covered with their own juice. Add ½ teaspoon salt to pint containers, and 1 teaspoon to quart. Partially seal screw top and spring top sealers, and completely seal vacuum type. Using boiling water bath, process pint sealers 35 minutes, quart sealers 40 minutes. Remove immediately from bath. Complete seal on screw and spring top sealers. Allow to cool in an upright position.

For tin cans—Fill cans as above, exhaust and seal. Process 20 ounce tins for 35 minutes and 28 ounce tins for 40 minutes. Remove and cool under cold water.

Whole Tomatoes — Cold Pack.
Blanch, remove stem end and peel tomatoes. Pack in clean hot sealers or tin cans, add ½ teaspoon salt to each pint. Cover with boiling hot tomato juice, prepared from irregular, large or broken tomatoes. Partially seal screw and spring top sealers and completely seal vacuum type and tin cans. Using boiling water bath, process pints and 20 ounce tins for 30 minutes, quarts and 28 ounce tins for 35 minutes. Remove immediately. Complete seal on screw and spring top sealers. Cool glass sealers in upright position away from draughts. Cool tin cans under cold water. Label and store.

Market Low Grade Cattle This Month.

Forecasting record cattle marketing this fall, the Dominion Department of Agriculture requests today called on farmers to prevent congestion in packing plants by marketing their low grade cattle in August. Bulls, dry cows and plain cattle should be marketed in August, and all steers and heifers which have attained good finish by September should then be marketed promptly, says the Department.

By following this marketing plan, farmers will be able to dispose of their old cows of both beef and dairy breeding and younger cattle of undesirable type at more advantageous prices than obtainable on a congested market in such quantities that packing plants could not handle them with the result that some farmers lost money in cattle feed bills and in weight shrinkage.

The Department describes packing plant capacity as sufficient to handle promptly all cattle offered this fall if marketings are as orderly as suggested. Packing plant labour is said to be fully as plentiful as last year and more storage space is now available.

Canned Tomato Juice.

Wash tomatoes, remove stem end, cut into small pieces and boil five minutes in a covered kettle. Press through a sieve keeping the kettle on the stove so the juice will be kept hot. Bring juice to boiling point and quickly pour into clean hot sealers or tin cans. Add ½ teaspoon of salt to each pint container. Partially seal screw and spring top sealers, completely seal vacuum type and tin cans. Process pint and quart sealers and tin cans for 20 minutes in the boiling water bath. Remove from water immediately, complete seal on screw and spring top sealers. Cool in an upright position. Cool tin cans under cold water. Label and store.

"Canadian Homes" Survey.

Canadian farm women are handicapped at every turn in their struggle to keep their families and homes clean. They lack properly equipped bathrooms, toilet and laundry facilities and place three-piece bathrooms, bathtubs, built-in laundry tubs and washing machines high on the list of things they would like most to have.

These findings result from a poll of 200 Canadian homes, 6% of which are in rural areas, 4% in villages and 2% on farms are equipped with stationary or built-in laundry tubs. Number of tubs of any kind in the house is just a point or two higher. That means the majority of Canadian women in all sections of the country do the weekly wash in tubs much like their grandmothers had.

Washing machines are in better supply. Almost seven-tenths of city and town families have them and a slightly greater number in villages. Farms lead with 76%, though naturally the scarcity of electric power results in a much higher proportion of hand-operated machines. Gasoline drives the washing machines in 11% of farm homes.

That few farm people who are without washing machines have separate wringers seems indicated by the figures.

discovery that only one farmhouse in four has a regular bathtub. In cities and towns, where prevalence of plumbing might be expected to show a different picture, almost one family in five is still without a bathtub.

The laundry picture is also challenging. Only 21% of urban homes, 6% in villages and 2% on farms are equipped with stationary or built-in laundry tubs. Number of tubs of any kind in the house is just a point or two higher. That means the majority of Canadian women in all sections of the country do the weekly wash in tubs much like their grandmothers had.

Essex Town Council.

Monday, August 27th.

Council met in regular session, in the Council Chamber, at 8 p.m., with Mayor Francotte, Reeve Doyle and Councillors Chase, Skinner, Cascaden,

Hutchinson and Hines present.

Minutes were read, and on motion of Messrs. Hines and Cascaden, approved.

Mr. Francotte brought to the attention of Mr. Hutchinson, chairman of the Board of Works, the need of a load of calcium chloride to lay the dust on the roads around the cannery factory.

Mr. Hutchinson stated he would look after it at once.

The Clerk read a letter from McNe-in, Gee and O'Connor, of Chatham, solicitors for the Union Gas Co., asking Essex Council to approve of the new gas rates, as settled upon between the committee from the municipalities and the Gas Co. officials, and which is to be taken before the gas referee on September 28th, in Chatham.

Ninety per cent of the municipalities being served had agreed, in writing, to the new rates.

The letter and copy of agreement was referred to the Town Solicitor,

Mr. Geddes.

A circular letter, from general headquarters, Ottawa, was read, re clothing drive for Europe, asking that the Council take matter up, form a committee, and make every attempt to collect all the used clothing possible.

The official dates for the collection is October 1st to 20th.

On motion of Messrs. Hines and Cas-caden, the Mayor and Reeve were empowered to form a committee.

Details, re collection, will be found in the Free Press at a later date.

Mr. Geddes reported on the first meeting re County Equalization before Judge Coughlin, on August 14th. He stated that five municipalities in the County, viz., Sandwich East, Sandwich

West, Riverside, Tecumseh and La

Salle, had appealed against their as-essment. The adjourned meeting will be held on September 11th and 12th before Judge A. J. Gordon. He also expected that J. P. Coombe, of the Department of Municipal Affairs, Toronto, would be present and possibly settle the appeal without going through court. The last time he had attended, on behalf of the town, the case lasted six weeks, and costs run into the thousands.

Mr. Geddes was empowered to act for the town on September 11th and 12th, and report to Council.

Mr. Skinner and Mr. Cascaden reported on request of the local Legion, re closing of street through their property.

FAREWELL SERVICES AT TRINITY CHURCH BY REV. R. H. PARR.

Capacity congregations greeted Rev.

R. H. Parr, minister in charge for the past four years and eight months, at both services in Trinity United Church

Sunday.

Mr. Parr, who will leave Tuesday to assume the pastorate of the United Church at Essex, delivered his farewell message at the morning service, speaking on the subject "A Minister's Farewell." He spoke with much feeling, which was very evident was shared by the congregation.

This service was marked by the presentation of four $100 Victory Bonds to Mr. and Mrs. Parr in recognition of their services during the time they have been in Ingersoll.

The address accompanying the presentation was read by A. F. Carr on behalf of Dr. H. B. McKay, secretary of the session, who is ill, and was as follows:

"Rev. Harold and Mrs. Parr:

"During the past few weeks many of your friends have taken the opportunity to express their personal regrets over your departure from Ingersoll.

This morning, we as a congregation, wish to bid you an official farewell.

"During the past four and one half years, Mrs. Parr and yourself have served this congregation well and faithfully; more could not be said of anyone. While you have been fully aware that your pastorate here was to be of a temporary nature, you did not allow this fact to lessen your interest in all phases of the church work. Your efforts have been ceaseless and untiring. If any fault might be found it would be with your unwillingness to spare yourselves. We know that our minister, Major C. D.

Daniel, appreciates fully the work you have done.

"Not in this congregation alone will your absence be felt. In the town of Ingersoll you will be greatly missed because of the practical nature of your Christian ideals. Any movement for the improvement of conditions in the community always had your active and loyal support.

"To impress upon you, Mr. Parr, the sincerity and depth of our feelings, we ask you to accept this gift. It has been purchased by the voluntary contributions of your friends and expresses a tangible way our thankfulness to you and Mrs. Parr for all you have meant to us. On behalf of this congregation, the community and Major C. D. Daniel, we wish your every success in your new charge. May God continue to bless you and yours with health and happiness."

By Joseph Lister Rutledge.

The sense of shock that fell on the Canadian public at the announcement of the overwhelming defeat of the Churchill "caretaker government" is a tribute to a man rather than the evidence of careful observation. Winston Churchill had become a heroic tradition and it was difficult to dissociate the gallantly aggressive figure that held such a place in public affection from a government that, it is now evident, had public support only as one of war's grim necessities. There having been no election in Britain for a matter of ten years, neither the Conservative government nor the Coalition government that succeeded it could have been known to have the support of the people.

These past ten years have been dramatic changes in the whole world's thinking that those who did not foresee the triumph of the Allies failed to assess. Germany adopted National Socialism in the innocent belief that it was pure socialism. In the United States the Hoover Rightists gave way to the New Deal and to President Roosevelt's policy of being "a little left of center." In Britain the Beveridge plan, fostered by a Liberal, and the severe taxation of wealth were accepted without too general a recognition that they were the beginning of a widespread social revolution. In Canada such an indication as the Family Allowances Act, a radical social reform estimated to cost almost as much as the federal government's total pre-war outlay, was accepted by the people who would have nothing to do with the C. C. F. program.

This was the writing on the wall for anyone who cared to read. It is perhaps fortunate that the forces of Labor did not invoke political changes before V-E day. They would probably have been as successful then as now. As it was, the magnificent prestige of Churchill remained as a factor in ultimate victory, and Labor gave the best evidence of good judgment and a sense of responsibility. As a result, Britain has been left with a government that, whatever may be the varying opinions, is the strongest possible government to meet the tremendous problems of internal and international policy, because it is in key with the times and with the will of the vast majority of the people.

Though this is a new government it is not a government that is lacking in political maturity, as the record of its leaders has shown. It has advantages and disadvantages. There is the loss of the ripe experience of Churchill and Eden in international dealings. There is the danger that in the flush of triumph Labor may move too far and too fast in effecting social reforms. It may be too drastic and precipitous in its attempts to control capital and industry.

But these assumptions are largely offset by the fact that the Labor Party in Britain is no young radical group. It has many men of mature judgment and wide political experience. It has perhaps an unequalled chance of successful co-operation with Russia, on which so much depends. It has an intimate interest in implementing social and economic and political reforms, and in modernizing industry to enable Britain to compete for world markets. No Labor government can escape the necessity of assuring jobs. Taking one thing with another, perhaps this government has a greater opportunity to help implement the principles of the Atlantic Charter than any other—and that is the best hope for enduring peace.—Liberty Magazine.

Proso Millet as Emergency Feed.

Millet particularly the early proso types, are excellent emergency or supplementary grain crops. Frequently when oat or barley crops fail and a feed shortage is indicated, a proso millet such as Crown (a Canadian variety produced by the Dominion Experimental Farms Service) can be seeded as late as the first week in July and yields up to 35 bushels of grain obtained. The seed of both the proso and foxtail millets is well suited to livestock feeding, particularly if it is ground and used with the regular protein supplements. It has a composition similar to oats and is almost equal to barley in feeding value.

The varieties of millets grown in Eastern Canada may be divided into two general groups—hay millets and grain millets. Hay millets include the foxtail types, and also panicle millet which is neither foxtail nor grain but is related to barnyard grass. The foxtail millets are characterized by erect slender stems which grow from 2½ to 5 feet in height and bear broad flat leaves. The seeds are borne in a rather dense cylindrical spike.

The grain millets, generally called proso or bloom corn millets, are distinguished from the foxtail millets by having a panicle type head. Proso has coarse stems and is not as leafy as the foxtail. The stems are from 2 to 5 feet high. The seed is larger and is not as tightly held as in the foxtail millets.

Let us learn of the real and eternal, and prepare for the reign of Spirit, the kingdom of heaven—the reign and rule of universal harmony, which cannot be lost nor remain forever unseen.—Mary Baker Eddy.

Civilian Footwear.

Full leather soles may now be used in the repairing of all types of civilian footwear, according to announcement by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. An improving supply of sole leather is responsible for the revision of the regulations which since May 1943 has restricted the use of full leather soles in the repairing of children's shoes to size three, loggers' and cowboy shoes.

Certified Raspberry Canes Wanted.

With an increased interest in raspberry growing in Ontario, the use of certified raspberry planting stock for setting out new plantations is essential to profitable production. This is still the most practical and economical method of controlling the virus diseases, mosaic and leaf curl, both of which reduce yields and adversely affect the vigour and life of the plants.

Unfortunately, the supply of certified cane promises to be short of the demand, unless additional sources of supply can be found. In this connection, canes arising from young non-fruiting plantations found free or relatively free from virus diseases are eligible for certification. Growers with a supply of such canes are invited to make early application to the Dominion Laboratory of Plant Pathology at St. Catharines, Ont., for the free inspection service. If inspection requirements are fulfilled, they will be provided with a certificate and the canes may be disposed of as certified planting stock to which official inspection tags can be attached.

The inspection service which is carried on during the latter part of August and early September is also available, on application, to any grower interested in obtaining information relative to raspberry diseases. Knowledge concerning diseases of raspberries is an important aid to profitable production.

Meat Conservation and Rationing.

Even if farmers market their less desirable and off-grade cattle earlier than usual, Canada will not be able to achieve her current undertaking through the combined Food Board in supplying meat to the United Kingdom and the liberated countries of Europe, according to Dr. G. S. H. Barton, deputy minister of agriculture in a joint statement issued by his department and the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Unless Canadian cattle are marketed in an orderly manner, Canada will not be doing her full share in preventing starvation in Europe, the announcement warns and stresses that livestock slaughter control regulations now in effect "are absolutely essential if equitable distribution of domestic supplies is to be achieved and if the highest possible volume of meat for overseas shipment is to be provided." Slaughter controls have been effected to accomplish three major purposes.

1. To establish quotas on domestic slaughtering so that just sufficient meat is retained within this country to satisfy the needs of the domestic consumer nation, which is approximately two pounds per person per week, carcass weight.

2. To direct a sufficient volume of livestock through inspected killing establishments so that Canada's meat shipments to starving Europeans and Great Britain, through the Combined Food Board, may reach the highest possible volume.

3. To protect the Canadian price ceiling regulations by withholding from domestic slaughter, all meat supplies in excess of domestic needs and in so doing minimize the threat of black markets.

Seventy per cent of the world's supply of asbestos, the non-inflammable mineral of a thousand uses is produced in Canada.

Notice to Creditors.

In the Matter of the Estate of Janet Myer, late of the Township of Maidstone, in the County of Essex, Spinster, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given that all creditors and others having claims or demands against the estate of the said Janet Myer, who died on or about the 12th day of April, 1945, are required, on or before the 18th day of September, 1945, to send by post prepaid, or deliver to the undersigned their names, addresses and descriptions, the full details of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them.

AND TAKE NOTICE that after the last mentioned date the Executors of the last Will and Testament of the said deceased will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which they shall then have had notice, and that the said Executors will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof to any person or persons of whose claims notice shall not have been received by them at the time of such distribution.

Facing Forward.

Parliament Hill in the nation's Capital presents a beautiful and inspiring sight in the golden sunshine of August's closing days. Especially at noon hour, with the light glancing from the many-faceted buildings of Venetian-Gothic design, with the first post-war trickle of American tourists preserving their admiration of the scene in snapshots, with the colorful clusters of civil servant girls eating their lunch on the grass, and with young men in uniform recently returned from the war sauntering happily in the very heart of their homeland, Parliament Hill is a sight worth seeing.

Indeed, to be in the nation's Capital today, with the war over and with Canada facing forward energetically and courageously, may be considered a privilege. There is a hope in the very air which borders on fruitful excitement.

Controls Save Money.

An indication of the dynamic nature of unfolding events has been the rescinding of a number of wartime orders, particularly those respecting the supply of certain commodities. Nevertheless, the Government remains firm in its plan to convert industry as rapidly as possible and with as little temporary unemployment as possible, controls which have prevented inflation during the war so as to prevent inflation during the peace.

Not enough publicity has been given to the success of the Government in this field, a success which has been of profound practical benefit to every Canadian.

If prices during this war had risen only as rapidly as they did in the last war, prices in Canada today would be at least 40 per cent higher than they are now. That is an arresting fact. Moreover, the efficiency of the price control system has enabled the Government to fight this war at a tremendous saving to the people of Canada.

mendous saving to the people of Canada. If prices had been 40 per cent higher, during the past year alone the Government, which spent well over $5,000,000,000 on the war, would have spent at least $6,000,000,000. In other words, without price control the Government would have had to find a billion dollars more revenue through taxes.

The very practical war benefits to Canada of the price control system is certain evidence that this system will be retained until its work has been done.

The 1945 Budget.

The anticipation is that the Budget Speech will be delivered early in the parliamentary session opening September 6th. The Government has already taken many steps in the direction of lower trade barriers. A year ago the special 10 per cent excise tax and the duty was removed from farm implements and cream separators. Later the excise tax on imported coal was lifted. And this spring the tax was lifted from producers' machinery and equipment, and from building materials.

Although demobilization and the re-establishment of the members of our Armed Forces is an expensive business, the Government is nevertheless expected to fulfill its promise of lower taxes on the smaller incomes. It is possible that the "normal tax" may be removed from the smaller income brackets, leaving untouched the graduated tax.

Since the cancellation of war contracts will have the effect of cutting off excess profits from many large industries, there is a possibility that the War Excess Profits Tax may be abolished.

There is a feeling current that this tax, which is now at the rate of 100 per cent and only partly refundable, discourages the expansion of business. Accordingly, the reduction or abolition of the tax should help to provide more jobs by enabling business to invest its surplus earnings in larger plants or in modernizing of existing plants.

Export Plans.

Another important feature of the 1945 budget will be the provision for expanding the Government's power to finance exports.

Under the Export Credit Insurance Act it is now possible for the Government to loan $100,000,000 to foreign governments who will use the money to purchase goods in Canada. This sum is felt to be inadequate since a large part of it has already been used for loans to Czechoslovakia and Holland, and therefore a notable expansion of this loaning power will be asked of Parliament.

The effect of this will be a rapid expansion of Canada's exports of peace-time goods, keeping factories active and keeping the farms and other suppliers of raw materials fully occupied in meeting the demands of the factories.

This trade program is immediately beneficial and should also have far-reaching helpful results, establishing made-in-Canada goods in foreign countries in such a way that they will be wanted long after this transition period is closed.

CCF, Pow-Wow.

Leaders of the CCF National Campaign are slated to meet in Ottawa September 7th, 8th and 9th, and there is already much speculation about what the pow-wow will consider pertinent to the discussion. It can be confidently predicted that it should replace its democratic Council will discuss, among other things, the political situation in terms of the 1945 General Election, and that plans for shoring up the CCF program will be dedicated.

A recent editorial in The Canadian Forum, official mouthpiece of the CCF, indicates the line. It is The Forum's

Creep Feeding for Young Pigs

Pigs given access to a grain mixture prior to weaning time suffer little in the way of set-back when weaned, says C. H. Anderson, Supervisor of Illustration Stations, Beaverlodge, Alta. At the station all small pigs are creep fed as soon as they show interest in whole food, usually at from two to three weeks of age.

A creep may be operated in a corner of the pen, leaving an opening of six inches at the bottom, and a small gate in and out, while the sow is excluded. If a sow's pen is not large enough to permit the erection of a screen some arrangement should be made to do this.

Anderson indicates, however, that a change in CCF policy is desirable, and it is suggested that it should abandon plans and the rationing of the older parties, which lost so many votes on June 11th, discussion. It can be confidently predicted that it should replace its democratic Council will discuss, among other things, the political situation in terms of the 1945 General Election, and that plans for shoring up the CCF program will be dedicated.

little pigs run out into the alleyway so that they may be fed the grain mixture in a small trough out of reach of the sow.

The mixture fed at the station is one part coarsely ground wheat with 2 parts of cheap milk powder. If sufficient oats are available they may be used in place of wheat. If shorts are available, a small part of it may be fed with a feed of molasses and soap. Shorts are valuable because of the low fibre content. A professional supervision will prove a valuable addition to the grain in order to eliminate and grow in the younger pigs.

THE WARTIME PRICES AND TRADE BOARD

FARMERS' BULLETIN

HUNGRY EUROPE NEEDS MEAT

The shortage of food in liberated Europe is desperate. Meat is one of the most critical needs.

As a great food-producing nation, Canada must, can—and will—help to meet this emergency.

That is why slaughtering has been placed under strict control.

That is why ration coupons will soon be used again by Canadians to buy meat.

There is only one objective:—To reduce meat consumption in Canada in order to provide direct aid for the hungry peoples of Europe.

Slaughter Control

Farmers who slaughter meat for their own or their farmer neighbor's use are required to submit monthly reports (Form RB-61) and to surrender coupons for the meat they use and sell.

Any excess of meat over the farmer's or his neighbor's needs may be sold only to the holder of a regular slaughter permit.

The minimum amount which a farmer may sell to such a permit holder is one quarter of beef or half a hog carcass. Sheep, lambs or calves slaughtered by a farmer for his own or his neighbor's use may not be sold into the meat trade.

Locker Operators

Under the meat rationing regulations, locker operators are required to submit a list of their patrons to the nearest Ration Branch Office.

A supply of Consumer Declaration forms is being forwarded to each locker operator who will, in turn, distribute them to his patrons. The patron is responsible for completing the form and filing it with the Ration Branch Office.

Consumers must surrender coupons for all meat held in lockers over and above 4 lbs. for each person in the household at a rate of 2 lbs. per coupon. However, no more than 50% of the "M" coupons in the ration books of the consumer and his household need be surrendered.

MEAT RATIONING FACTS

Amount of Ration will be roughly 2 lbs. (carcass weight) per person, per week. Rationed Meats. All cooked, canned, fancy and "red" meats. Unrationed Meats—beef brain, head, tail, blood, tripe; calf brain, head; pork brain, head, tail, pigfeet, spare ribs; lamb brain, head, tail, fries; poultry, game and fish (canned or fresh). Coupons—brown "M" coupons in Ration Book No. 5. One coupon will become valid each week. Coupon Values—Group "A", 1 lb. per coupon; Group "B", 1½ lbs. per coupon; Group "C", 2 lbs. per coupon; Group "D", 2½ lbs. per coupon; Group "E", 3 lbs. per coupon. Tokens. Tokens, eight of which are equivalent to one coupon, will be used as coupon change. Farmers must turn in to their Local Ration Boards a coupon for each 4 lbs. of meat (carcass weight) they use in their households from their own slaughtering. So that they may buy other meats from their butchers, no more than one-half of the valid coupons in the hands of the farmer and his household need be surrendered. Farmers who sell meat to a neighbour farmer must collect coupons at the rate of 4 lbs. (carcass weight) per coupon.	Amount of Ration will be roughly 2 lbs. (carcass weight) per person, per week. —The Wilson-Russell Evening Auxiliary will meet on Thursday evening next, September 6th, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Blight. Those assisting are Miss Alice Mennill and Mrs. Albert Inkster. The program will be in charge of Mrs. W. Lumley and Mrs. H. Felstead.

—Misses Betty, Kay, Babs and Bessie O'Halloran spent Wednesday at Mrs. Thos. Lane's cottage in Leamington.

—Mr. and Mrs. Art Bowditch, and Mrs. James Phillips were guests on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Johnston at their cottage at Linden Beach.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of P.O. William Billing, who was killed in action while on Mediterranean service, August 31st, 1944.

There is a mother and dad who miss you sadly.
And find the time long since you went.
And think of you daily and hourly
But try to be brave and content.
But the tears that we shed in silence
And we breathe a sigh of regret,
For you were ours, and we remember Though all the world forgets.
Your memory is as dear today
As in the hour you passed away.
—Sadly missed by mother, Dad, brother and sisters.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Harold Malott, killed in action in France, on August 28th, 1944.

Those whom we love, go out of sight,
But never out of mind;
They are cherished in the hearts,
Of those they leave behind.
—Ever remembered by mother, dad, Marjorie, Alice, Annie and Charles.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear father and mother, Robert W. Ellis, who passed away September 6th, 1926; and Mrs. Mary Jane Ellis, who passed away August 28th, 1940.

Not dead to us who loved them,
Not lost, but gone before;
They live with us in memory,
And will forevermore.
—Fondly remembered by their family.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Mary Anne Price, who passed away one year ago today, September 2nd, 1944.

A beautiful memory of one so dear,
We cherish still, with love sincere,
And one that we will never forget.
We miss her love, her cheery ways,
We miss her when we need a friend.
On her we always could depend.

—Sadly missed by daughter Lucy, and husband and granddaughter Laurena.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of a dear mother-in-law and grandmother, Mary Anne Price, who passed away one year ago today, September 2nd, 1944.

Dear Grandma you are not forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more,
Still in memory you are with us
As you always were before.

—Fondly remembered by daughter-in-law Laurena, and grandchildren, Delores, Eleanor and William.

Speedy Tenderness.
The tougher cuts of meat, normally require long slow cooking to make them tender. If time is a factor, grind these cuts or pound them well with the edge of a plate. Either treatment breaks down connective tissues and gives tenderness with shortened cooking.

TO THE CANADIAN PUBLIC
WE SAY

Thank You

DURING the war, so happily ended, the Canadian National Railways, as Canada's greatest transportation system, had a gigantic task to do.

Our ability to fulfill this duty to the credit and satisfaction of the Nation is due, not only to the skill, devotion and zeal of those who are our workers, but in large measure to the Canadian Public who, by their generous responses to appeals for help and their uncomplaining acceptances of restrictions and controls, lightened our burden.

We wish to thank the Canadian Public sincerely for their help—the millions of passengers who used our trains and steamships, the shippers of freight and express, the guests in our hotels, the patrons of our telegraph and other services, and the unnumbered citizens who refrained from travelling needlessly as their contribution to the common cause.

The surrender of the last enemy has ended the fighting but it has not ended the war job of the Canadian National Railways. The men and women in the Services have to be brought home without delay and for that purpose we shall continue to employ all our available passenger equipment. Millions of tons of materials must be transported for industrial reconstruction.

So in saying "Thank You" we express the hope that in carrying out these and other extensions of our war job, we may continue to enjoy the understanding of the Canadian Public.

Housing and Family Life.

By Lewis Milligan.
Housing is the most urgent structural need of the people of Canada. The need is not merely to provide places in which people can eat and sleep, but to provide homes in which families can be raised in privacy, decency and independence. Family life is the foundation of our democratic social order, and no amount of State paternalism towards what are degradingly called the "common people" can take its place.

The saying, "The Englishman's home is his castle," is no exaggeration, for the homes of England and of Canada are sacred against invasion by the State so long as they are conducted lawfully. When the State steps in and assumes any part of the responsibility of parenthood, the status of the home and the stamina and liberty of citizenship are undermined. That has been demonstrated by ancient as well as modern history. In sparta the State gradually took over the care of all the children, and family life was destroyed. The emphasis was placed on the community, with communal kitchens and eating places. Although they became a strong and courageous people under this communistic discipline, the Spartans made no progress and they finally suffered extinction.

There has been a serious breaking up of home life in Canada as well as all other countries during these years of war. Everybody has been overworked and has had little time or inclination to settle down to home life. Fathers have gone to the war and mothers gone to work in factories, in many cases to the neglect of their homes and of children. Eating-out has become a common practice with a large number of people, and there has been an increase in boarding houses and rented rooms, which are merely sleeping places.

This situation has been aggravated by the lack of individual housing accommodation. Now that the war is over and our soldiers are returning to civilian life, and our women to domestic duties, there is an immediate necessity for the construction of homes in all parts of Canada. Gray Turgeon, former M.P., who was chairman of the House of Commons Committee on Reconstruction and Re-establishment, says that these homes must first of all be for returning veterans and then for the public generally. He declares that the situation is "tragic" for these men coming back after years of service overseas. One of the immediate problems, he says, is "the absolute shortage of manpower both for actual construction and for the making of materials." The situation is made more serious because the lumber industry is largely geared to export trade rather than to domestic requirements. There is, he says, a "highly organized high pressure demand that the federal government become the landlord of what is called the 'low income' group."

Mr. Turgeon says that this latter is bitterly resisted by every labor union in Canada. "The acceptance of this so-called remedy for 'low-income' is a negation of all the basic traditions of labor organizations," says Mr. Turgeon. "If this proposed policy were accepted by the people of Canada, then the general taxpayer would be paying a part of the proper wages of industry. An industrial magnate, who wished to defraud his employees, would have his profits materially increased; workmen would lose their independence, and the foundation spirit of labor organizations would be destroyed."

The House of Commons Committee recommended "the complete eradication of an industrial condition which creates a 'low-income' group of people, whose remuneration makes it impossible for them to have decent, healthy home conditions without government assistance." Mr. Turgeon suggests that tax on incomes over $1,000 or $1,200 be abolished, and thus increase the wages of the low-income group by the same amount. He contends that the responsibility for action in ensuring adequate housing accommodation should be laid on the municipal authorities who are intimately acquainted with the local situation.

Livestock Poisoning.

Most cases of livestock poisoning can be traced to the careless handling of poison mixtures used on fruit trees and vegetables. These poisons may contain arsenic, sulphur, nicotine or borax, and each may be harmful whether eaten directly or as a contaminant in pasture or hay crops, says F. A. Herman, chemist in charge of the Chemical Laboratory, located at the Dominion Experimental Station, Kentville, N.S.

All cases of suspected poisoning should be reported immediately to a competent veterinarian who can diagnose the probable poison and recommend the correct treatment. As it is not always possible to obtain a veterinarian in a short description of the chief symptoms may be helpful to farmers. Symptoms of arsenic poisoning vary depending on whether it is a very severe, severe or chronic case of poisoning. In very severe cases death may occur within 24 hours. In less severe cases the chief symptoms may be diarrhoea, marked fall in the milk production, loss of appetite, weakness or paralysis of the hind quarters, muscular tremors or spasms, inflammation of the roof of the mouth and even what looks like jaundice. The urine may be dark brown in color. Chronic poisoning is generally a result of the animal eating small quantities of arsenic over a prolonged period. It may result, however, from one large dose because of the relative insolubility of the arsenicals. The symptoms vary from sickness and loss of appetite to a paralysis of the limbs. The treatment for arsenic poisoning should be left to a competent veterinarian. If one is not readily available some success may be obtained by administering freshly prepared iron hydroxide.

The real job for the farmer, however, is to make sure the live stock have no access to any poison, and if poisoning is suspected make a careful survey of the farm to see what the cause of poisoning is and remove it completely. Sick animals should be kept warm and given an appetizing diet.

Five New Varieties of Raspberries.

Among the many contributions to the fruit growing industry of Canada, made by the scientists of the Horticultural Division, Dominion Experimental Farms Service, in producing new fruits to suit the climatic conditions in Canada, there are five notable new varieties of raspberries which have been proving their worth since their introduction two years ago. These are Gatineau, Madawaska, Ottawa, Rideau and Trent. Gatineau and Trent were introduced because of their earliness, says Dr. A. W. S. Hunter, of the Division of Horticulture, and Madawaska because of its fine canning quality, winter hardiness, and earliness. This variety was first introduced as a canning berry, but since its introduction it has appeared to be so good in every respect that it may become the leader of the Ottawa varieties. It does not become dull and unattractive like some dark varieties when offered as fresh fruit.

Gatineau is the earliest ripening variety grown in Ottawa, and has been rated highly as an early berry in Ontario — in the Ottawa and Niagara districts where its earliness has outweighed its tendency to crumble a little. Outside Ontario, where earliness is not so important, its dark color and not too firm fruit have been against it.

Trent, although two or three days later than Gatineau, produces a good crop in the first week of the raspberry season. Because of its earliness, its attractive appearance and winter hardiness it has shown up well in all parts of Canada. It also appears to be very resistant to mosaic, a plant disease which is an important feature.

The variety Ottawa so far looks promising in parts of British Columbia, Ontario, New Brunswick, and Nova Scotia as a mid-season berry. It is resistant to the disease known as anthracnose but is susceptible to yellow rust and powdery mildew. Rideau variety is a medium red, very firm, long-pointed berry and is the handsomest of the varieties developed at the Central Experimental Farm. It is not quite as hardy as might be desired for some localities, but it has shown up very well in parts of Ontario, in the Maritimes, and in Minnesota and Wisconsin. Rideau can be picked without crumbling in the pink, ripe stage, an important feature when being shipped to distant markets. Another notable feature is that the fruit falls to the ground when fully ripe, which prevents the picking of over-ripe berries that were missed at the previous picking.

Canadian Movies Help Rural Schools.

Rural school inspectors and teachers have an ally in the National Film Board. Many small schools with no projection equipment of their own now have showings of films on social studies, science and natural history and other subjects each month, when the Film Board field representative arrives on his regular visit to their community.

Films on the geographical features, natural resources, and industries of Canada as well as of countries in other parts of the world have helped to make geography a favorite subject while those on the rotation of the earth have aided teachers in explaining the wind belts and the change of seasons. Pictures on nutrition have proved effective in persuading school children to drink plenty of milk and eat more vegetables.

Teachers frequently base lessons on films for essays, the drafting of maps and posters on films of special interest, which have been shown to the pupils. Models of totem poles and style threshers, or Dutch villages, have been made by children after seeing the originals on the screen. Pupils in the higher grades at some schools take full charge of the showings and conduct debates on the subject of one of Color in Home of the Future.

On Ava Road in Cedarville, close to Toronto, is rising the "workingman's lifetime home" under the auspices of the Workers' Educational Association—a home of the future, color-scheme to meet requirements of the Reconstruction period.

Colors which include a feeling of rest predominate in the decoration designed by Gustav Hahn, R.C.A., O.S.A., of the Ontario Academy of Art, for the new home of seven rooms. In choosing his colors, Mr. Hahn has worked on the modern painting rule that furnishings, rather than the walls or ceilings of a home, should provide the color motif of each room.

"Strong colors do not form a background for anything," says Mr. Hahn. "Walls and ceilings should be neutral in color. Pottery, furniture, rugs and the different complexes of people in a room will provide its color."

"A bedroom, for instance, should never be in strong color. Light shades of color give an illusion of space, strong colors make one feel hemmed in, give one a sense of claustrophobia."

Mr. Hahn suggests that a bedroom with a north exposure should be finished in warm paint shades, light colors with a yellowish base and a touch of red. A room with a southern exposure, inclined to be hot in summer, would be finished in cool colors such as blue or green.

The front door of the model workman's home in Cedarville will be finished in a dull, dark green "because it won't show marks nearly as much as a light-colored door," says Mr. Hahn.

The short hallway will be in buff or dull gold. The living room will have walls of a soft grey-green, with the ceilings a much lighter shade of the same color to give the illusion of added height. Baseboards and window sills will be in cream, while the floor color will be supplied by the blue-black marble fireplace and by drapes and furniture coverings.

The dinette which opens off the living room will be furnished in the same colors as the living room, conforming with modern practice of guarding against color clashes between rooms which are readily visible, one from the other. The kitchen will be in cream or rust.

The ground floor bedroom, which looks out towards the west and north, is to be finished in a warm bronze tone. One upstairs bedroom will be painted in a warm peach shade, while the third room—with a warmer exposure—will be finished in a light cooling blue-green. In each case the ceiling will be in lighter tones of the same color as on the walls.

The color scheme of the model home provides a number of interesting ideas that many home owners may take advantage of in their own homes. For the benefit of amateur painters starting any such project, here are a few tips—some of which may be new and others are generally well known but which bear repeating because of their fundamental importance.

Use a good quality paint—cheap paints never pay.

Use a good quality brush—the same thing applies.

Thin paint only according to directions from the manufacturer—don't upset his carefully worked out formula.

by "stretching" paint through the addition of oil.

Stir the paint thoroughly. That's an obvious one, but it's surprising how many people ignore it.

Make sure the surface to be painted is dry and absolutely free of dirt or grease.

Make your coatings light. Two light coats are infinitely better than one heavy one.

Let each coat dry thoroughly before applying the next one.

Use a specially prepared undercoating for the first coat if you are covering a surface not previously painted. You'll get a better-looking, longer-lasting job.

Plan Now for Seed for Crops in 1946.

Though some of the 1945 crops have been harvested and others are getting the harvest, it is not too early to begin planning for the 1946 crop. Fine good seed is one of the best ways of lowering the cost of production. There are several factors, such as the size of the farm, the type of crops, the method of harvesting, storage, cleaning, grading, and so on, that must be considered in planning for the 1946 crop.

Grain intended for seed should be well ripened previous to cutting. It should be stored under dry conditions. Excessive moisture will cause germination to deteriorate.

All seed requires a thorough cleaning and grading to remove weed seed, chaff and other matter. It should be stored in a cool, dry place, and should be well protected from rodents and other pests. There is a definite relationship between the quality of the seed and the size and yield of the young plants produced.

Sowing seed infested with weed seed is not profitable. A survey of the seed oats sown by a number of farmers showed a weed content as high as 2.20 per cent of seed weight. This means that 10 or 15 per cent of the weight of seed sown was weed seed. The cost of removing these impurities is a relatively small item in the total seed cost, but to do so will pay high dividends.

The cost of removing these impurities is a relatively small item in the total seed cost, but to do so will pay high dividends.

The only dependable way of assuring the germination of seed is by taking a sample and testing it. It can either be tested at home or sent to the nearest Dominion Seed Analysis Laboratory and for a small fee will be checked.

Discing such as smuts cause substantial losses every year. Loose and covered smuts of oats, covered smut of wheat and barley can be controlled by seed treatment.

The choice of the proper variety is important. Best returns will be realized by using a pure variety. New and better varieties are being continually released. It is to the farmer's advantage to keep in touch with the nearest representative of the Dominion or Provincial Department of Agriculture for the latest information.

Domestic Broom Token of Security.

By Edna Jacques.
Ever since the first woman fastened a few twigs together and bound them to a stick to sweep out her cave, a broom has been part of every home on earth. Without it a woman is lost. It is her favourite weapon. With it she will tackle anything from a barn cat to a robber, head off the cow or chase the neighbour's chickens home. A broom is an everyday symbol of home security.

In one blitzed town a couple of miles behind the advancing Allied army, an old woman was seen crawling out from a cellar and although her home was a heap of rubble, she got her broom and swept off the doorstep making a little clean place to begin life anew. To her the broom meant protection.

When war broke out Canada grabbed another kind of weapon for home security—Price Control. The Wartime Prices and Trade Board was set up on September 3rd, 1939—"To provide safeguards under war conditions against any undue enhancement in the prices of food fuel and other necessities of life and to ensure an adequate supply and equitable distribution of such commodities."

It was a weapon, stout and strong to guard Canadian homes although at first its broad powers were held in reserve.

In the spring and summer of 1941, however, although at first its broad powers were held in reserve.

In the spring and summer of 1941, however, an accelerating rise in prices became apparent. From April 1st to August 1st, 1941, the cost of living index rose by 5.1 points.

In the next seven months the cost of living rose as much as it had in the previous 20 months. The inflationary spiral was getting underway.

In December 1941, an overall price ceiling was clamped on based on September 15th to October 11th, 1941, prices and from that date until the present the cost of living index has risen only 3 points.

The Canadian housewife has reason to be proud of the protection given to her way of life. In no other country in the world has the cost of living been kept as low as in Canada since war broke out. Here is the cost of living index from a few other countries: Turkey, 442; Peru, 173; Ireland, 171; U.S.A., 128; Chile, 239; Mexico, 210.

Your Support IS VITAL TO RATIONING Mr. and Mrs. Farmer

With other groups, you play a part so that everyone gets a fair share

The FARMER

Under the rationing regulations, you are asked to collect and turn in the coupons you acquire against the use and sale of butter and, when meat rationing is introduced again, of meat; and the coupons you get from the sale of honey and rationed maple products. So that you may buy other meats from your butcher, from the sale of one-half of the valid coupons in your ration book and in those of your household need be no more than one-half of the valid coupons which should be surrendered. To make it easy to send in coupons, you are provided with RB-61 envelopes which should be forwarded once a month to your Local Ration Board. No postage is required.

The RETAILER

The retailer also plays a part. He must obtain coupons or other valid ration documents against every sale he makes of rationed foods—butter, sugar, preserves and, when meat rationing becomes effective again, meat. Otherwise, he cannot replenish his stocks. He must paste all coupons on gummed sheets and endorse each sheet with his name and address. If his monthly food sales total $2,500 or more, he is required to operate a ration coupon bank account. He must also give valid ration documents or a ration cheque to his supplier for every purchase he makes of a rationed food.

The HOUSEWIFE

The housewife, too, has rationing work to do. She must know the validity and expiry dates of butter, sugar, preserves and, later, meat coupons so that she can make supplies of these foods last. She must know the coupon values of all rationed preserves and meats. She has to understand the sugar alternative of the preserves coupon in order to do as much home canning as possible and still have coupons for honey, syrups and other preserves. She must guard family ration books carefully and give up coupons for every purchase she makes of a rationed food.

RATIONING is your assurance of a fair share. It is a protection against waste... shortage... inflation.

That is why farmers are asked to continue to collect and turn in coupons to their Local Ration Boards - once a month - in the RB-61 envelope.

Dominion Stores Report Wins Highest Praise.

For the distinction and modern note employed by Dominion Stores Limited, in the preparation of its 1944 Annual Report, this company was given a "Highest Merit Award" citation in this year's annual survey of stockholder annual reports, by the "Financial World" of New York.

This citation appeared in a recent issue of the "Financial World" certifying that the Company's 1944 financial statement was judged as "among the most modern from the standpoint of content, typography and format of the annual reports examined during 1945."

Ladino Clover.

Ladino clover is comparatively a newcomer to Canadian agriculture. It was introduced from Europe during recent years and is rapidly gaining in popularity as a hay and pasture legume in eastern Canada, says Dr. T. M. Stevenson, Dominion Agronomist, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

In appearance the Ladino variety is typical of the Dutch white and wild white clovers, except that the plant is larger in all its parts. The stems are longer and stouter, the leaves are broader and the flower heads larger. Consequently when grown in mixture with timothy or other tall-growing grass, Ladino grows as tall as ascle or red clover. It grows well in areas where ordinary white clover is well adapted, and at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, has proved to be equal in hardiness to the best varieties of wild white clover.

Experiments conducted at the Division of Forage Plants, Ottawa, show that while Ladino clover is not quite as well adapted to permanent pasture as well as white clover under continuous grazing, it is particularly valuable in hay-pasture mixtures. When it was used to replace ascle clover in the ordinary timothy, red clover, ascle mixture, increases in yield from 15 to 28 per cent were recorded in both hay and pasture tests.

Do We Pray?

The Lord's Prayer is found in the sixth chapter of Matthew. It begins, "Our Father which art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven."

Christ Jesus said (Luke 17:21), "The kingdom of God is within you." This kingdom, then, must lie within our spiritual comprehension. It must be our spiritual understanding of God, divine Mind. The ideas, or angels, that come to us from this ever-present Mind comfort us. They calm, strengthen, inspire, and guide us.

There have been many times when individuals in the face of great dangers have found safety and refuge through prayer. The scriptural assurance is that "the effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16). On page 559 of "Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, she writes: "The 'still small voice' of spirit, gentle thought reaches over continents and oceans to the globe's remotest bound."

Now is the time to watch and pray—to watch our thoughts to be sure they are not warring, spiteful, or deceitful, but forgiving, loving, and honest; to pray with the spiritual understanding which knows our heavenly Father gives us all that He has, even before we ask. Now is the time to speak of good and realize its actuality, presence, and activity, its power to transform and heal.

Answer to prayer is unavoidable. It is assured, and cannot be set aside or made void. Therefore let us heed well how we pray. Let us not be dismayed at evil, and let us expect an answer to our prayers. We cannot expect too largely from divine Mind. And with all our praying let us so desire holiness and so grow in spiritual understanding that we shall rise to the leading heights of the prayer our Master taught.—Christian Science Monitor.

Hydro Inaugurates School for Linemen.

Will Aid Rehabilitation of Service Men and Provide Trained Personnel For Post-War Projects.

An important rehabilitation plan, designed to speed the return of hundreds of service men to civilian life and, at the same time, make available a corps of trained personnel required to launch Hydro's five-year rural electrification project, has been announced by Dr. Thomas H. Hogg, chairman of The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario.

On September 4th, this plan becomes effective with the opening of the commission's School for the training of linemen. Located on the site of the York transformer station on Royal York Road, Toronto, this school, which comes under the direction of the commission's personnel department, headed by Willis MacLachlan, will be under the immediate supervision of S. K. Cheney, with K. W. MacDermott acting as chief instructor.

Present plans indicate that approximately 50 students will be trained every three months, or some 200 students each year, to fill positions as linemen required to meet the needs of the commission's post-war plans which include the five-year rural electrification programme, announced recently by Hon. George H. Chalmers, vice-chairman of the Commission, and involving the building of over 7,000 miles of new rural distribution line.

Hydro municipalities throughout Ontario, through the Ontario Municipal Electric Association, headed by W. Ross Strike, former mayor of Bowmanville and now a member of the Hydro Commission, have had an active role in planning the new plan into effect. Both the Association and the Commission, it is pointed out, recognized the need for such a school where linemen could be trained for commission service and also for positions with local Hydro utilities. At the same time, the Department of Veterans' Affairs is co-operating closely in the development of the plan.

The commission indicated that this school would be the largest of its kind in Canada and that it was highly probable its facilities would be extended to include training in other trades associated with the operation of Hydro.

The present buildings, although of a temporary character, are completely equipped. In addition to the school proper, here will be sleeping and dining accommodation for the students and instructors. Present facilities in the school include all the tools used in line work.

The course is one in which the emphasis is definitely on the practical work which will be supplemented by lectures and visual educational methods involving the use of sound pictures. In this way, men who are "green" at the start will, at the close of the course, be thoroughly familiar with the most modern methods of line construction, the theory of electricity and safety practices. Students who pass the examination will then be ready to take positions as junior linemen.

The men who direct the operations of the school are specially fitted for the work, the supervisory and teaching personnel having had years of experience in many phases of Hydro work, while they have been specially trained for their new tasks.

For the most part, students will come from the ranks of returning service men. To qualify for enrollment, a student must have a minimum of two years' high school education, be physically fit and have a liking for outdoor work.

Breeders for Shell Strength.

The importance of trying in every way to improve the quality of shell strength is shown in the fact that the greatest single loss factor in exports to Britain of shell eggs has been that of breakage, says B. F. Cheney, Head Poultryman, Dominion Experimental Station, Kentville, N.S.

Shell strength, like egg numbers, is affected by so many factors such as feeding and environment, that it is difficult to determine the exact influence of heredity. However, enough information is available to show that shell strength is very important and can be used to improve the general level of poultry flocks by assisting in obtaining: 1. Improved hatchability; 2. Lower chick mortality; 3. Fewer chicks in pecking; 4. Improved egg quality.

The specific gravity test applied to eggs for incubation has been largely used to date for this work, and will satisfy the small flock owner. The salt solution should be made up to a strength that will eliminate, by floating, approximately 15 per cent of eggs tested. Cows should be taken to see that eggs are well rinsed off in lukewarm water after testing.

At the Kentville Station an apparatus has been devised, known as a penetrometer, which directly determines the shell strength, but this apparatus has not yet been commercialized.

The Cold Storage Act which is administered by the Dairy Products Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture, may authorize financial assistance under certain conditions with respect to providing facilities for the proper storing and handling of perishable food products. The benefits, as provided by the Act, are available to anyone in Canada, and the products stored may be for export, the domestic markets, or for provincial or local trade.

Consumer Ceiling Prices for Peaches, Pears and Plums.

Consumer ceiling prices for peaches, pears and plums in Western Ontario are announced by W. Harold McPhillips, prices and supply representative. They vary for different grades and according to different sections in which charges permitted by the regulations.

The complete list includes: If peaches are sold by shippers and growers and are not transported more than 15 miles from the farm or shipping point the ceiling prices in all parts of Western Ontario are: 6 quart leno baskets selects and grade one $1.07; other grades, 84c. Six quart open baskets No. 1 grade 92c, other grades 75c; 11 quart No. 1 and select flat, $1.69; 11 quart leno No. 1 and select $1.79.

Retailers to consumers—Owen Sound and Windsor, 6 quart leno No. 1 Kieffers, 78c; other varieties $1.09; 6 quart leno, all other grades Kieffers, No. 1 Kieffers, $1.13, other varieties $1.67; 11 quart other grades Kieffers, 89c, other varieties $1.28.

Sales by retailers to consumers: 6 quart leno No. 1 Kieffers, 74c, all other varieties, $1.06; 6 quart leno or open, all other grades or ungraded Kieffers, 60c; all other varieties, 82c; 11 quart flat No. 1 Kieffers, $1.02; all other varieties, $1.56; 11 quart flat or open any other grade or ungraded Kieffers, 79c; all other varieties $1.18.

In all ranks of the Canadian Army, university and college students are now eligible for immediate discharge provided the university has accepted their application.

To All Blood Donors Thank You

2,347,000 blood donations were made in Canada, 1,423,000 in Ontario, through the volunteer Blood Donor Service of the Canadian Red Cross Society since the first clinics were established in January, 1940. The lives of hundreds in the army, the navy and the air force were saved through this service.

This record was only made possible through your donations of blood. We wish to thank you sincerely for your generous help at a time when the need was so great. Special thanks are also given to the doctors, nurses, transport drivers and all other volunteers who gave so generously of their time and talents.

The Volunteer Blood Donor Service is now closed as a war measure. A new challenge is presented, however, for many deaths occur in Canadian hospitals each year for lack of an adequate transfusion service.

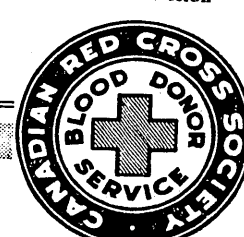

To meet this need, the Red Cross is making a survey with a view to providing all Canadian hospitals with blood for transfusion purposes. To our thanks, then, we add an invitation to help us as we continue our humanitarian work. When the time comes, and plans are ready, announcements will be duly made.

Value of the Herd Sire.

The success or failure of any cattle breeder is largely determined by the bulls used. This does not mean that the owner of a few registered cows of medium quality should scour the country for a $1,000 bull, but if improvement is to be effected the bull used must be superior to the cows.

However, 20 calves at a $50 difference means that the good bull has made for his owner $1,000 more than the inferior bull could have done. Double the number of calves for a 40-chance. In the meantime many owners of good herds, large and small, will be purchasing bulls which may either improve or damage their herds.

If there is any sort of yardstick by which to determine the price a breeder can afford to pay for a herd sire, it is the number and general type of the cows to be bred. A real good bull will sire a calf worth more than a calf from the same cow by a medium or poor bull (and many registered bulls are of the latter class). The difference in value of such a calf at 12 or 18 months may easily be $50 in an average pure bred herd and in special herds $100 or more.

As the price does not always indicate the value of a bull and as so much depends upon a wise selection, an inexperienced breeder might do well to solicit the help of two or three honest friends qualified to assist in selecting a herd sire.

Whey, formerly used as swine-feed, is now being employed in Canada as a source of milk sugar for the manufacture of penicillin.

FO. Stanley James Queen, who was previously reported missing on July 6th last year, is now reported killed in action over Sira Court, France, according to information received by his wife, the former Stella Stitt, of Windsor, residing at 1816 Ouellette avenue. Born in Essex, Ont., FO. Queen lived most of his life here and at Paquette. He enlisted in August, 1942, and was posted overseas in July, 1943. He was a veteran of more than 30 bombing missions with the famed Tiger Squadron. He received his training at Hagersville and Trenton, Ont., and at McDonald Field, Man. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Queen, of Essex. A sister, Mrs. Donald Kealey, resides in Colchester North.

Brinacombe-McDougall

An interesting wedding took place at the Manse, Bloomfield, at 7 o'clock in the evening of August 27th, when Eleanor Dorothy McDougall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fraser McDougall, Bloomfield, became the bride of LAC. Kenneth Arthur Brinacombe, RCAP, son of Mr. G. R. Brinacombe, of Essex, Ont. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ira McDonald. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in her floor-length gown of white sheer with three-quarter length veil. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Peggy McDonald, who wore a floor-length dress of aqua sheer with matching veil and carried a bouquet of mixed summer flowers. The bride's mother wore a crepe dress with navy accessories and a corsage of sweet peas. The best man was LAC. Brinacombe, RCAP, a brother of the groom, who is stationed on the East Coast. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for immediate relatives and friends. The bride's table was centered with a beautiful three-tier wedding cake which was surmounted by a miniature bride and groom. Assisting in serving were Miss Elizabeth McDougall and Miss Emma Lewis. The following morning the happy young couple left by plane on a honeymoon trip. For travelling the bride wore a lime green suit with brown accessories. They will reside in Windsor, Ont., where the groom is stationed. Before her marriage, Mrs. Brinacombe was a popular member of the staff of the groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls and the bride's gift to the groom was a signet ring. The bride's gift to the bridesmaid was a sterling silver bracelet and the groom's gift to the best man was a leather bliffo.—Summerside Reporter.

More Home from Overseas.

Several more of our local young people have either arrived home or reached Canada from overseas this week. Among them are C.S.M. Bill Bryden, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bryden; Lieut. Agnes Conroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Conroy, of town; Arch Taylor, son of Jack Taylor; Geo. Deveau, son of Ben Deveau; R.Q.M.S. Bill Hunter, son of H. A. Hunter; Orde Ruston, son of Frank Ruston.

George Bedell Passes.

George Edwin Bedell, well-known farmer of Gosfield North Township, passed away in Grace Hospital, Windsor, on Tuesday, September 4th, as a result of head injuries suffered on his farm, on Saturday, August 25th.

Deceased was riding on a load of oat sheaves when a sudden gust of wind blew part of the load over and he fell to the ground, landing on the side of his head.

He was born in Gosfield North, on December 18th, 1872, a son of the late Peter Bedell and Helen McCarthy, and had farmed all his life. He never married.

Surviving are a brother Harry and a sister Annie, of Gosfield North, and a brother Ernest, of Detroit.

Funeral services were held from the Hicks & Son Funeral Home, on Thursday, September 6th, with interment in Cottam cemetery.

Celebrate 45th Wedding Anniversary.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hahn, on Saturday, September 1st, the occasion being their 45th wedding anniversary. A chicken supper was served at 6 and a winter roast, with ice cream, cake and pop, near midnight.

Those present, besides their three children, Lac, Bud Hahn, of Niagara Falls, Alvin Hahn and his family, and their daughter Nora (Mrs. O. Westlake), and her family, of Riverside, were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Campbell, Edna and Jack; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henricks, Anson Toffelmire and children, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wright and Danny, and Miss E. Bannister.

Mr. and Mrs. Hahn received many lovely gifts as remembrances of the occasion and all left wishing them many more years of happiness.

The S. A. Home Front Appeal

The Salvation Army's annual appeal to the citizens of Canada for their financial support began last Monday, September 10th. The objective for Essex and vicinity is $1,800, and we feel confident that once more you will give generously to this important cause.

J. A. Dowdell, public school principal, has again accepted chairmanship of the drive and A. L. Soley has agreed to take over the treasurer's duties, as he has done for several years past. All members of the canvassing committee have willingly taken on the job again so when they come to see you meet them with a smile and give as you have always done — willingly and liberally. If, by any chance, no one calls on you for your donation, leave it with the Imperial Bank. If you are at the Imperial Bank, if there is any doubt in your mind that this cause deserves your utmost support, be sure to speak to some Salvationist about it. As in war so in peace, the "Army" is ready to serve in any way to help meet the spiritual needs of all people everywhere.

Essex Public School.

The Essex Public School opened for the fall term with an enrolment of 243, an increase of nine over a year ago. Alexander Dubs, of Thamesville, is the new member of the staff of eight teachers. In addition to his regular work, Mr. Dubs teaches music throughout the school.

Most favourable comments are expressed by students and callers regarding the fluorescent lighting, while the Radio-Electric has notified the principal that the public address system is held up for probably three weeks due to the inability of the Northern Electric to provide the enclosure for the equipment, which is now at hand. The citizens of the town are asked to reserve Friday, September 21st, for attendance at the annual Field Day, at the Fair Grounds. The pupils are practising, having been organized and assisting for their events. The Board of Education are financing the prizes as heretofore.

Essex Public School.

Following are the beginners at the Essex Public School—Linda Mae Adams, Cecil Baldwin, Newton Barneval, Donald Batten, Jean Birch, Robert Boultinghouse, Darwin Brown, Gary Brown, Robert Brown, Jackie Coulter, John Crittenden, Richard Deveau, Carol Ellis, John Garinger, Patsy Hines, Betty Lippert, Shirley Quirk, Joanne Maedel, Donna Mae McLonon, Wallace Mills, Kenneth Pickle, Marion Ann Smith, Shirley May Welsh, Catherine Wilson.

Help to bring New Hope to Shattered Lives

In its homes, hospitals and hostels for men, women and children who have fallen prey to mischance or human frailty, the Salvation Army brings new hope to the despairing and restores shattered lives. Your dollars are needed to make this work possible. Give generously.

Former Essex Lady Passes.

Mrs. Marie Gertrude Kennedy, a former resident of Essex, passed away at her home, in Leamington, on Tuesday, September 4th, after a nine months' illness.

Deceased was born in Leamington, on April 4th, 1890, a daughter of the late John Veto and Sarah Riley. She had resided in the United States for years, coming to Essex 8 years ago and after living here five years, moved back to Leamington.

Surviving are two daughters, Frances (Mrs. Carl Sweet) of North Ridge, and Miss Pauline, at home.

Funeral services were held from the Hicks & Son Funeral Home, Essex, thence to Holy Name Church at 9. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Maidstone Cross.

R. J. Goslin Passes.

Robert James Goslin, former well-known Essex resident, passed away, quite suddenly, on Tuesday, at the home of his daughter Mae (Mrs. Jarrett) in Detroit. He would have been 83 years of age in November.

The late Mr. Goslin first worked in Essex as a butcher for the late J. M. Hicks, he then opened a shop of his own in a building where H. R. Johnston's insurance office now stands, selling same to Wall Bros.; next he operated a livery stable in town, selling out to Roy Alexander, and went back to farming in Gosfield North. His first farm was on the North Malden Road, in Colchester North, about 2 miles west of Essex. He was well known for years throughout the province as a breeder of high-class Percherons.

Surviving, besides his daughter Mae, are five sons, William D., Charles, George and Colin, of Detroit, and Willard J., of South Woodside.

Funeral services were held this (Thursday) afternoon from the home of his son Willard, South Woodside, with burial in Cottam cemetery.

Essex Blood Donor Clinic.

On behalf of the committee in charge of the Essex Blood Donor Clinic, I wish to convey sincere thanks and appreciation to the citizens of the Town of Essex and the surrounding townships who, during the war made almost 1,200 blood donations. I would also express thanks and appreciation to all those who so willingly gave their services as doctors, nurses, aids, technicians, clerks, hostesses, and those who supplied food and beverages, and to the ladies' organizations of the different churches, for a job well done. Ten clinics were held, with an average of 117 per clinic. Four hundred persons gave blood donations from one to ten times.

Special mention should be made of George Coleman, Ruth Coleman, Henry Seguin, Harry Rhoads, Charles Robinson, Albert Gulliver and Percy Lee who donated blood at each of the ten clinics.

The greatest joy, I am sure, we all get at this time is in knowing that thousands of lives have been saved by the blood plasma sent from Canada. Again thanking you, one and all, on behalf of the committee,
A. E. BENSON,
Chairman Blood Donor Clinic.

Pleasure — and Grocery Business.

By Joseph Lister Rutledge.

A small item in the news of a week or two past stands out with a significance quite beyond the importance of the simple fact it records. The item is dated at Kingston, Ontario, and it tells of the retirement of John Marshall, after fifty-two years in the grocery business. "If conditions had been half way normal, I wouldn't be retiring today," Mr. Marshall declared. "But after spending many sleepless nights worrying about the help shortage, the shortage of merchandise, and especially the ration coupons, I finally decided there was no pleasure any more in the grocery business."

Undoubtedly there will be tens of thousands of merchants and manufacturers and executives who will sympathize and will echo the sentiment as applied to their own businesses. There is no little pleasure in it any more. That is a serious matter, for when a man can find no pleasure, no excitement, no doing in his daily task, something is seriously wrong. John Marshall isn't the only one who has found that the misery that has been imposed on business and industry has outweighed the old excitement that once was a part of it. It has shown itself in lesser degrees in many other lines of business, and some of the men in charge are unwilling to continue to change the slogan, "The customer is always right," that added so many amenities to business. The motto is being changed. The motto is now, "The customer is always right, but you show there's a limit to that, as a pleasant surprise, and the business is saved."

It is not the merchant or the manufacturer who alone is suffering. The customer is suffering too. Perhaps there is a bit of war psychosis, war weariness, but for the people in their human way, cannot continue to live under a plan of uncomplimentary rationing. But whatever the reason, the results are patent. Growing suspicion and antagonism and irritation that have been building up since the war began, are now being poured out in a flood of anger and hate. Let us have done with any other way as soon as may be. Let us capture something of the pleasure of doing business. That is the way of enterprise and progress. Liberty Magazine.

Colchester North Council.

Saturday, September 1st. Council met in regular session, with all members present.

Minutes of last meeting were read and on motion, adopted as read.

Charles Arps addressed Council re bridge over the South Townline drain as not being sufficient to carry the water.

H. C. Neice-Paquette, that Mr. Foote look after Charles Arps' request for a bridge, with power to act.—Car.

Wm. White filed notice for the repairs and otherwise improvement of the 7th Con. East, so as to give satisfactory outlet for the water from his farm.

On motion of Messrs. Paquette and H. C. Neice, the notice of repair and improvement to the 7th Con. East filed by Wm. White be accepted and the Engineer be ordered on, with power to vary assessment if deemed necessary by him.—Car.

The matter of appointing a solicitor for the township was discussed.

On motion of Messrs. Foote and H. C. Neice, that Roscoe Rodd be appointed township solicitor.—Car.

Frank Padovan, contractor, addressed Council re payment of work on the McKee drain. On motion, Mr. Padovan was paid $807.76 for part ditching and $15 for moving fence.—Car.

Everett Cowan filed a tender on the Talbot Road South drain for $1,150 for excavation and $100 for brushing and grubbing.

Waldon Foote, that Everett Cowan's tender for the South Talbot Road drain be accepted.—Car.

Reverend Neice addressed Council re appeals against the County Equalized assessment and matter of defending the township in this case.

Waldon Foote, that Reverend Neice and County Assessor, S. F. Sweet, attend to the matter.—Car.

Marshall saw it. The pleasure of doing a thousand and one other business, and as many manufacturing enterprises. Regulation has done its work. Obviously some regulation was necessary, and possibly still is, but it is destructive. We know that it is easier to impose controls than to withdraw them, for their administration, quite naturally, has an interest in perpetuating itself. But arbitrary control flies in the face of our whole democratic thinking. We are free people, obeying compulsion. Let us have done with any other way as soon as may be. Let us capture something of the pleasure of doing business. That is the way of enterprise and progress. Liberty Magazine.

the Case of Appeals in Sandwich and be authorized to defend the Township in matter of county assessment.—Car.

Correspondence was read and dealt with accordingly.

Harry Dumouchelle addressed Council re payment for earth on land and moving fence on LaPointe drain. On motion Mr. Dumouchelle was paid.

Roy Alexander addressed Council re spraying of sow thistle in the township and the matter of cutting other noxious weeds.

On motion, the following accounts were paid—Oscar Martin, cash relief, $14; Provincial Treasurer of Ontario, insulins for patients, $1.74; Ontario Municipal Board, law costs on Talbot Road South drain, $5; Roy Alexander, weed control, $57.60; Alvin Meloche, sprayer and repairs, $7.55; Milford Shepley, crock for LaPointe drain, $34; Canadian Bank of Commerce, coupons payable, $81.74; M. N. Rounding, part salary, $29; Collector of Arrears, $30.51; Colchester North Telephone System, $300.00; Harry Dumouchelle, moving fence $12, earth on land $15; D. S. Kowley, part salary $40, B. M. & D. $2; Frank Padovan, part ditching $807.76, moving fence $15, on McKee drain; C. B. Allison, to pay Court of Revision, Talbot Road South drain, $21.

On motion, Council adjourned.

Gosfield North Council.

Monday, September 3rd. Council met in regular session, also as Court of Revision on drainage Bylaw No. 273, with all members present.

Notice from Wilbur Haggins to have the Upcott drain from the 8th Con. north, repaired at the same time as the rest of the drain was being repaired, it being rumoured that Gosfield South Council was about to abandon the repair of this drain at this time. This was true, but it was agreed that the outlet should be cleaned when the balance of the drain was being done.

R. Ramsay asked what progress was being made for repair of the Marsh road drain, and was told the Engineer had promised to have the report ready for this meeting, but as yet had not presented it.

Harry Morris also asked if any progress had been made on the Goodbourn Award drain and was told the survey had been made and the report promised some time ago, but as yet had not been presented.

The Clerk also reported a telephone call from F. R. Gregory inquiring if any and what action had been taken on his notice to have the Cameron & Curry drain repaired.

Cecil Stobbs asked Council for the usual grant for the Leamington Fair. After some discussion, it was moved by Mr. Tully, that no grant be given. Moved in amendment by Mr. Newman, seconded by Mr. Stevenson, that $25 be given. Motion carried. Mr. Tully and Mr. Ash voting nay.

Harry Newman asked for the support of the Council in his effort to procure an open ditch along the west and north side of the Belle River road, from the Ross Road to near the blind line of lot 270, this being a county road.

After discussion of the notice from F. R. Gregory to repair the Cameron and Curry drain, it was moved by the Clerk, seconded by Mr. Law, that the Clerk notify C. B. Allison that if he cannot make an immediate survey of the said drain and have the report ready to present to Council by October 1st next, that the Council will endeavor to secure the services of another engineer.—Car.

The Clerk reported the village trustees had asked that a 15 mill assessment be made on the building assessment in the village in 1945. He had prepared a Bylaw to provide for same, and on motion said Bylaw was read a first, second and third time, and finally passed.

Letter from F. B. Geddes that there was an error in the description of the land conveyed to W. Stuart Mossion, in 1930, and asked Council to execute a correcting conveyance. Bylaw 918, authorizing Council to execute the said conveyance was read a first, second and third time, and finally passed.

At the Court of Revision on Drainage Bylaw 273, there were no appeals. Moved by Mr. Tully, seconded by Mr. Law, that Drainage Bylaw No. 273 be confirmed and Court of Revision be closed.—Car.

Bylaw No. 273 was then read a second and third time and finally passed. It was decided that the regular meetings of Council will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and on the first Monday in the month, as usual, until further notice.

The following accounts were considered and passed: Voucher No. 8, for road maintenance, $536.67; S. H. Wyatt, allowances on Bylaw 273, $20, on Edgar Wilcox Award $9, on Martinson Award $9; Cottam Mercantile Co., $24; Philpott's Bakery, $6; D. F. Goslin, work on County assessment, $51; Frank Thompson, repair of access bridge, $4; Leamington Fair Board, $25.

Telephone accounts—May Hill, operator, $49.16; Orpha Stotts, $49.16; Nellie Crumh, $36.87; Nina Scratch, $36.87; H. Sweetman, $127.84; Receiver-General, income tax, $9.71; R. H. Millen, gas and oil, $8.10; Northern Electric Co., materials, $124.42; Automatic Electric, $9.39; gas bills, July and August, $1; Hydro, $2.62.

Meeting then adjourned.

The Ninth Victory Loan.

Honorable J. L. Hsley, Minister of Finance, announced this week that the minimum objective for the Ninth Victory Loan, which opens on October 22nd, has been set at $1,500,000,000, of which $800,000,000 is the minimum objective for sales to individuals. This is an increase of $125,000,000 over the individual objective for the Eighth Victory Loan. Because final victory will mean a material reduction in Canada's war costs, he said, it is possible for the Ninth Victory Loan to meet Canada's borrowing needs for a twelve month period.

YOU AND COMPANY—you and that family you work and plan for! A small boy you'd like to send to college—a little girl who's going to have "the very best her old Dad can give her!" It's the most important thing in the world, isn't it—planning for their future! And NOW is the time to make sure those plans come true by putting up a strong, steady fight against inflation!

You and all of us must fight for that future by fighting to keep Canada's dollar sound. Unless we can keep that dollar worth a full dollar, You & Co.—along with the rest of Canada—will face inflation! That's why it's important NOW—more than ever now—to fight for a dollar that's worth a dollar.

Why NOW especially? Because now civilian goods are scarce, and money is plentiful. Now is the time to FIGHT to maintain price controls and price ceilings. We must support and urge the support of rationing. We must buy only what we need, and only at fair markets.

If we do this, we can make plans for the future as part of a Nation that is economically sound. If we don't, we're going to find some day that our dollar will buy only a quarter's worth of goods. And that means that dollar is only worth a quarter. This is inflation!

Up to now, Canada's controls have really worked. We've been able to prevent inflation. But we must fight now to keep those controls working, until the supply of civilian goods can come up to the demand! What happened after the last war must not happen again! For the sake of our children, for our returned soldiers, for ourselves let's keep up the fight against inflation.

Make this Pledge Today!

I pledge myself to do my part in fighting inflation:

By observing rationing and avoiding black markets in any shape or form.

By respecting price controls and other anti-inflation measures, and refraining from careless and unnecessary buying. I will not buy two where one will do, nor will I buy a "new" where an "old" will do.

By buying Victory Bonds and War Savings Stamps, supporting taxation and abiding by all such measures which will lower the cost of living and help keep prices at a normal level.

Q.—Why is liver included in the list of rationed meat?

A.—Because meat is rationed to cut down the meat consumption so all meats are rationed. Liver comes in the list of "fancy meats" and many of the fancy meats are used in the making of tinned meats for shipment overseas.

VICTORY.

By Ed. Byrne. V stands for our brave veterans. That laid the Japs and Nazis low. It also stands for the valor. Those fine young men did show.

I stands for our invocation. Wherein we did humbly ask The help of Almighty God To finish up this task.

C is for the great candor. They showed in this fight. In proving to the world Right is always might.

T is for the tortures. Those brave lads went through. Even giving up their lives For folks like me and you.

O is for the obligations. We owe to every service man. For the great job they did In Europe and Japan.

R stands for the remorse. For those lying over there. And also should remind us To say for them a prayer.

Y is for the youngsters. That in hospitals now lie. To ease those aches and pains We pray to God on high.

Put them all together. And you can plainly see It spells what they have won. Complete and lasting VICTORY.

Education Week.

Teachers in Canada through their professional association, The Canadian Teachers' Federation, annually sponsor Education Week. During that period it has been our custom to try to acquaint the citizens of Canada with the educational program of each province and Canada as a whole.

As teachers, we realize that the education of our future citizens rests not alone with the school but also with the Home, the Church, and the Press. Each has a definite part to play if it is our wish that the future citizens be worthy of our Canada.

It will be theirs to guide our nation and guard our civilization. It is essential then that they be people of trained intelligence and properly developed character.

The themes for each day are as follows: Sunday, November 11th—"Education Emphasizes Spiritual Values."

Monday, November 12th—"Education Builds Unity and National Responsibility."

Tuesday, November 13th—"The Home and the School as Partners in Education."

Wednesday, November 14th—"Education Prepares Youth for the Work-a-day World."

Thursday, November 15th—"Education Promotes National Health."

Friday, November 16th—"Education is Preparation for the Full Life."

Others Are Asking?

Q.—What coupons are going to be used for the purchase of meat when it is rationed? Where do I get my tokens?

A.—The brown M coupons in your present ration book are for meat. You will obtain meat tokens from your butcher if your meat purchased is not the full amount allowed by the number of coupons you present.

Q.—May I use tokens in any butcher shop?

A.—Yes. Meat tokens are good for the purchase of meat in any place in Canada.

Q.—I have found it difficult to obtain laundry soap. Can you tell me if this shortage will continue long?

A.—Increased supplies will be on the market in a short time following instructions which direct soap manufacturers to several million pounds more of laundry soap.

Q.—Can a landlord charge $2.50 monthly far water in addition to the rent?

A.—If the water rates were charged the tenant when the rent was frozen or fixed, the landlord may still demand that the tenant pay it. However, if the rent included the water charges when the rent was frozen, it may not be charged now.

Q.—Will you please tell me the ceiling price of Spy apples picked up at the orchard?

A.—Prices vary according to the grade and the pack as well as the class of customers buying, that is whether or not he is a wholesaler, retailer or consumer. If you will give us further details of the grade of apples and quantity purchased and the class of buyer we will give you the ceiling price.

Q.—What exemption do I get for meat I have stored in a locker?

A.—The exemption is four pounds of meat for every member of your family. Over that amount you are required to surrender one coupon for every two pounds of meat. This must be surrendered at the time you send in the declaration you receive from the management of the cold storage establishment where you own a locker. You will have to surrender only up to 50 per cent of the total meat coupons in ration books held by your household.

Questions on any regulations of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board will be answered if submitted to the Information Branch, Wartime Prices and Trade Board, Federal Building, London, Ontario.

THE TREADMARK OF SAFETY FOR 37 CONSECUTIVE YEARS

It's your safety we mean, when we speak of the Treadmark of Safety. The basic pattern of the Goodyear diamond tread has remained the same year after year... unchanged for 37 years. Other tread designs are always changing... always "startling", always "marvellous"... but never quite good enough to survive. The simple truth is that no tire maker... not even Goodyear... has been able to improve the non-skid safety and traction efficiency of that basic diamond-block pattern. The diamond tread continues through the law of "Survival of the Fittest".

Of course, there have been changes in detail to meet progressive changes in motoring conditions; but the basic diamond-block design survives... and wherever you have seen it, you have seen the mark of a Goodyear tire.

The diamond tread is only one of many reasons why now, as for 30 years, "More People Ride on Goodyear Tires Than On Any Other Kind".

THE DIAMOND TREAD GRIPS MORE SECURELY IN ALL DIRECTIONS

FORWARD EDGES "brake" against road for quick stops on slippery pavements.

SIDE EDGES check side-slip on crowned roads and soft shoulders.

SIDE EDGES resist fender skids when you brake in emergencies.

REAR EDGES act like cleats for quicker starting; help to prevent spinning in mud and snow.

Your Goodyear dealer not only will keep your present tires in service... he also will advise you promptly when you become eligible for new tires. See him... regularly.

RUSCOMB

Honouring Mrs. Delbert Brown, on Thursday afternoon of last week, Mrs. C. A. York entertained her choir members, of which Mrs. Brown has been a faithful member for many years.

The afternoon was spent in cards, followed by a sumptuous dinner served by the hostess. The table was lovely with white daffodils, yellow satin damask linen table cloth, centred with a low basket of colored asters. Later all assembled in the den where, on behalf of the choir, Mrs. J. M. Pemberton read a suitable address, and Mrs. W. H. Knister presented Mrs. Brown with a lovely glass rose bowl, supported by a fancy plastic holder, resting on a blue bevelled mirror.

Mrs. Brown warmly thanked Mrs. York and choir. Mrs. Brown's sister, Mrs. Kennedy, of Electric, Ont., was a specially invited guest.

The Veterans' Affairs Department will reimburse compensation boards and employers liable for the cost of medical treatment arising from industrial accidents to disabled veterans.

Home Front Appeal.

This is the second week of the Salvation Army's Home Front Appeal. Have you made your contribution to this worthy cause? Be sure to leave your gift with the campaign treasurer, A. L. Sonley, at the Imperial Bank, J. A. Dowsell, campaign chairman, wishes to thank the canvassers who are doing such a worthy task. Endeavour to make all returns to the treasurer by next week at the latest. The quota for Essex and district is $1,800. We need your support.

Essex Public School.

The residents of Essex are invited to the annual public school Field Day, at the Fair Grounds, on Friday, September 21st. The pupils will assemble at the public school at 1.30, and will proceed to the Fair Grounds as organized by heights. The program will begin on arrival, at 2 p.m. All pupils know their own events since regular rehearsals are in progress. The Board of Education has provided the ordinary cash prizes, and a corps of officials will see that there will be no loss of time in putting on the program. The citizens are asked to support this worthy project with their attendance. Given good weather, the co-operation of staff and pupils, the school officials and ratepayers, we should have an afternoon long to be remembered.

George W. Rounding Passes.

George W. Rounding, a lifelong resident of this district, passed away at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Vincent McCullough, in town, on Saturday, following an illness of only a few days.

Deceased, who farmed all his life until retiring about ten days ago, was born in Alisa Craig, on May 24th, 1861, and came to Essex County as a small boy.

Surviving are three sons, Milford N. and Frank, of Colchester Home, and Norman R., of Windsor, and three daughters, Lulu (Mrs. Fred Toffin) of Windsor; Ethel (Mrs. Frank Triplet) of Flint, and Violet (Mrs. Lansing) of Essex.

Funeral services were held from Hicks & Son Funeral Home, Essex, on Monday, in charge of Rev. Stephen Dunk, with interment in Greenhill cemetery, Kingsville. The pallbearers were Thomas, Marwood and Jun. Rounding, Charles Grainger, William Triplet and Ern McCullum.

Pelee Island Pheasant Shoot

Set for Nov. 1 and 2.

The Pelee Island annual pheasant shoot will be held on November 1st and 2nd this year, Hon. George A. Barr, minister of game and fisheries, announced this week.

The number of permits to be issued has been restricted to 800 for which a $5 fee will be charged. The permits are being issued by Thomas Pegg, Scudder, and allow each to kill five birds, four of which must be cocks.

If dogs are taken to the island, the owner must have a veterinarian's certificate that the animal is free from rabies. The certificate must be dated not more than ten days prior to entering the island.

Open seasons will be held in Essex and Kent counties on the same dates with a bag limit of three birds daily.

Ministerial Association.

The Essex and Vicinity Ministerial Association had their first fall meeting on Tuesday, September 11th, at the United Church parsonage, Cottam.

Rev. R. Harold Parr, incoming pastor of Essex United, was given a warm welcome, and spoke to the group, using the proverb, "Whom the gods would destroy they make mad with power." He emphasized that the duty of a minister of the Gospel is not to publicly criticize someone else, but to preach Christ and the gospel of love.

In the election of officers for the 1945-46 season Rev. Nelson Scottour of Woodlee, was chosen president; Rev. J. Harold Parr, vice-president, and Capt. Carter re-elected secretary-treasurer. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 9th, in Maidstone parsonage, through the kind invitation of Rev. James.

P.L.T. SGT. GLENN ADAMS.

Hold Memorial Service.

Gesto United Church was filled to capacity, on Sunday afternoon, at a memorial service held there in memory of the late Glen Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Prosper Adams, who while a member of the R. C. A. F. was reported missing on September 27th, 1944, and who is now officially presumed dead.

The services were conducted by Rev. Stephen Dunk, assisted by Harold Neice, Reeve of Colchester North and members of the Capt. Brian Branch of the Canadian Legion of Essex.

Deceased, who had lived in the Gesto district for about ten years prior to enlisting in the R.C.A.F., was born in Newcastle, Penn., on October 14th, 1922.

Surviving are his widow (nee Doris Boultonhouse) and a daughter, Linda, of Essex; his parents, and four brothers, Ralph, of the R.C.N.V.R.; Dale, of the U. S. Navy; Keith and Neil at home, and a baby sister, Unid.

Scratch-Totten Nuptials.

A quiet yet lovely wedding ceremony was solemnized at the Essex United Church parsonage, on Saturday, September 15th, when Dorothy Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Totten of Essex, was united in marriage to A. B. Elmer William Scratch, of the R.C.N.V.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Solonis Scratch, of Blytheswood. The Rev. Harold Parr, officiated.

The bride was lovely in a floor-length white chiffon gown with inserts of white lace. Her sweetheart neck-line was gracefully adorned with pearls, while her long full sleeves extended into ivory points over her hands. Her beautifully embroidered fingertip veil extended from a tiara of pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, with daintily tied in tiny white bows.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Murney Mainprize, of Windsor, her only attendant, wore a lovely blue taffeta gown crowned with a shoulder-length veil of blue tulle and carried a shower bouquet of pink chrysanthemums.

The groom was attended by his brother, Eric Scratch, of Blytheswood. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, for the members of the immediate families.

Awards to Essex Grads.

The Minister of Education has announced the awards of Dominion-Provincial scholarships for the academic year 1945-46.

The distribution of the awards in Ontario is to counties on the basis of population and high school enrolment.

Essex County, including Windsor, is allotted a maximum of six university scholarships, four Normal School scholarships, and seven towards attendance in Grade XIII of high schools and colleges. Each is based on the student's record of the previous year.

Three Essex High graduates have merited such distinction:

Maxwell J. Gulliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gulliver, of Essex, will register in Arts at the University of Toronto, on a $400 award.

Elaine M. Hutchins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Hutchins, of Gosfield North, and W. Howard Killick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Killick, of Sandwich South, both enrolled in London Normal School, will receive each $250.

Ernest A. BenetEAU Passes.

Ernest A. BenetEAU, aged 29, of Martin Lane, River Canard, died at his home Friday night after a short illness.

Mr. BenetEAU was born in Liverpool, Ontario, but had lived in Sandwich for eight years. He was employed as a machinist at Kelsey Wheel.

He is survived by his widow, Cecile Drouillard BenetEAU; two children, Dolores and Donald, at home; his father, Louis BenetEAU, of Anderdon Township; three sisters, Mrs. Earl Pulleyblank, of Essex; Miss Marie BenetEAU, of Windsor; and Mrs. Stanley Drouillard, of Sandwich East; and a brother John, of Auld.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

S. A. Home Front Appeal.

Public approval is being sought for its programme by the Salvation Army in its annual Home Front Appeal, and we hope to receive that approval in the practical form of funds to continue our work through 1946. The almost universal appeal of our efforts is proven by the fact that practically every city, town and village in Canada and the United States willingly assists in this great social service. In Canada this work embraces 83 institutions and 1,134 centres of work and employs full time 872 officers and employees, besides those occupied in auxiliary services. It covers Canada from Dawson Creek on the Alaska Highway to Newfoundland and Bermuda.

Making Better People for a Better World is the slogan which has been adopted for the 1945 Appeal and it fully explains the Army's deep conviction that the world can be made better only by raising the standard of the individual.

In a recent statement our Canadian leader, Commissioner Benjamin Ormes, said "There are more victories to be won in peace than there are in war. The cessation of general warfare has not brought Utopia. The change-over of the domestic economy of Canada from war to peace will be far more difficult than was the change-over from peace to war production. The demands on the Salvation Army for counsel and assistance are increasing in relation to their return. Salvation Army War Services supervisors served with the troops overseas and the men are turning to the Salvation Army here at home for help in problems beyond the scope of Government rehabilitation officials arrange ments. The transition from army to civilian life is a crucial period for these men. Numbers have returned and will return uncertain about the future, undecided as to what to do, where to go. For guidance and help many are coming to our rehabilitation officers. There are ahead of us increasing problems on the civilian front with war industries shutting down and disturbance in the lives of so many, brought about by new conditions of employment or by unemployment. Back of these new demands, he continued, are the great number of human reclamation and upbuilding services the Salvation Army has embarked upon in the past sixty years and continues to carry on. This is a campaign in which there has been no truce and in which there can be no cessation of effort."

To carry on its activities in Canada, the Salvation Army is embarking on this appeal for $1,500,000. We heartily appreciate your generous assistance in the past and feel confident that once more you will gladly do your share in securing this quota.

Treasurer's Sale of Land for Taxes.

TOWNSHIP OF MAIDSTONE.

TO WHOM: BY VIRTUE OF A WARRANT under the hand of the Reeve of the Township of Maidstone, and the seal of the said Township, bearing date the 6th day of August, 1945, commanding me to levy upon certain lands for arrears of taxes and charges thereon, I hereby give notice that unless such arrears and charges are sooner paid I shall proceed to sell by Public Auction the said lands, or as much thereof as may be necessary to discharge the said arrears and charges thereon, at the Township Hall, in the Township of Maidstone, at ten (10) o'clock a.m. on MONDAY, THE 3rd DAY OF DECEMBER, 1945.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that, if necessary, an adjourned sale will be held on the 10th day of December, 1945, at the same place, at ten (10) o'clock a.m., and notice is hereby given that the Municipality of the Township of Maidstone intends to purchase any of the lands that will not sell for the amount of taxes and charges against them.

The list of lands for sale has been published in the Ontario Gazette, September 1st, 1945.

Copies of the list may be obtained at the Treasurer's office.

Dated at Maidstone Township this 25th day of August 1945.

PUCE

(Crowded out last week)

Messrs. Moss Archibald, of Tecumseh, and Joseph Stone, of Riverside, were guests at the Archibald Home-stead recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Bradley and children, Marjorie and Patrick, and Gerald (twins), who had returned to Detroit for the re-opening of school last Wednesday, spent the week-end at their lakeside home, Emery's Corner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. O'Loughlin and children, who spent the summer at their new lakeside home, have returned to Detroit.

Mrs. Stanley Major visited in Detroit, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Urbin and children, of Detroit, visited Mr. Urbin's brother, Frank Merskin, recently.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the entertainment at the Firemen's Field Day, at Jackson Park, Windsor, and the entertainment at Belle River Lakeside Park, over the Labor Day week-end. The yachts and cabin cruisers, from Detroit and Windsor, anchor in the Belle River Harbor over that week-end were worth seeing.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Coles and daughter Penelope, of Detroit, were recent guests of Mrs. Cole's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bryant, and brother, Roland Bryant.

Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Girard and family have returned to Windsor after spending the summer at their lakeside home here.

Stoker Petty Officer Bruce Wintemute received his honorable discharge, on Wednesday, from the Royal Canadian Navy. A veteran of over five and a half years' service, Petty Officer Wintemute saw service on destroyers, corvettes and mine sweepers. He and his mother are moving into the home they recently purchased from Mrs. Frank Palmer, at Puce.

Slaughter Quota Lifted.

The slaughter quota on beef cattle has been lifted, according to an announcement of the regional foods officer of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Because of the current heavy runs of cattle, the slaughter quota on cattle has been temporarily removed. The Board will re-impose the slaughter quota if it appears that more cattle are being slaughtered than the ration demand requires.

It was pointed out, however, that each permit holder will be required to make weekly reports to the Board showing all animals killed.

The quota was not removed on hogs.

More Tires — But!

Canada's rubber industry is hoping for a production program that will turn out 240,000 tires a month during 1946 — 50 per cent above the level of 1939 — providing no material shortages or disruptions due to labour disturbances upset the schedule, reports The Financial Post's Ottawa correspondent.

What that means to the Canadian motorist is this: If he has any reasonable claim to being an essential driver (during 1946) he will get all the tires he needs.

If everything goes well, there should be about two tires available for each of the 400,000 non-priority cars over the year.

Meanwhile, advises The Post, tires for your car are still scarce and are likely to remain scarce for some months.

The immediate shortage is due to disappointing tire production during July and August. One plant was out of production for the entire month of August due to strike conditions. Others ran short even after liberal allowance for holiday interference.

eager to telephone home

Every returning troopship is packed with sons and husbands yearning for the first opportunity to telephone the glad news "I'm nearly home"—and to hear again familiar voices. Meanwhile, all across Canada, thousands are waiting for these calls as they never waited before. The veteran may have only a few minutes to call between trains. Help us to avoid disappointing him.

Wreckers Tie Loop Series with 1-0 Win.

The American Auto Wreckers tied their two out of three games, semi-final series with Local 195, on Sunday, by blanking the defending champion club 1-0, at Wigle Park, Windsor, as the two teams continued their fight to see who will meet Wednesday night in the Essex County Baseball League final.

Both Jimmy Dumeah and Gordie Wright had four-hitters when the dust had cleared, but Wright was charged with the defeat while Dumeah got the victory.

In the second inning, the Auto Wreckers loaded the bases on a single and a stolen base by Malott, a walk to Symonds and an error by Carriere which allowed Nantais to get on. Wright forced Malott at the plate. Boyce to Herbert and Symonds was tagged trying to score on a short passed ball to end the threat.

The Wreckers, however, came through in the fourth frame when Jack Perry got on through an error by Boyce, stole second and scored from there on Symonds' blooper to left.

In the ninth, Local 195 got a man on third base when English was safe on a cheap infield hit but was forced at second when McKee tried to sacrifice. McKee then went to third on a wild pitch and went to third when Boyce grounded out. Carriere was called out on strikes to end the game, leaving McKee stranded.

Good Hurling. Dumeah retired the first twelve men in the game in order before Jim Carriere got the first hit of the game off him in the fifth frame.

In the sixth a smart double play by Wright, Boyce and McKee worked Pitcher Wright out of a hole while Tidman contributed a nice running catch of Wright's fly to left centre in the fifth.

With Gene Goyeau tossing three-hit ball, the Tecumseh Indians bounced back into the running of the Intermediate "A" O.B.A. playoffs by defeating Dresden 3 to 0, at Tecumseh, on Sunday.

Hurler's Duel.

This contest, despite the score, was featured by a pitching battle between Goyeau and Bill Fisher, of the visitors. Goyeau, while giving up his three blows walked but one man and fanned nine. Fisher gave up but eight safeties and one walk while striking out four.

The Tec scored the first and winning run in the very first frame. Izzy Robinet, first up, walked. Jerry Craig singled him to second. Cecilie forced Craig at second, with Robinet taking third on the play. It was here that Robinet pulled off some smart base-running by stealing home while first baseman Chase was holding the ball.

Double trouble.

The Indians made things secure in the third frame, when they tallied twice more. Robinet, first up, singled. Craig sacrificed him to second; Jerry Cecilie then smashed out a long triple to deep left center, scoring Robinet and he scored himself when Hal Jackson fled deep to centre. The lone Dresden scoring threat came in the fourth frame when Goyeau hit Packard and walked Peters and moved both runners along with a wild pitch. However he got the next three batters in a row without as much as a long fly or a base hit.

Eddie Bruneteau and Robinet, of the winners, each pulled off some swell catches of hard-hit balls from Dresden batters. There were no errors in this contest. Robinet led the batters on both teams with a perfect day at the plate, three for three.

Others Are Asking?

From what has the slaughter quota been removed?

A—The slaughter quota has been temporarily removed from beef cattle. It is still on hogs and never was on veal or lambs.

Q—If I do not buy my meat from a butcher but purchase it from a neighbouring farmer, do I have to give coupons for it?

A—Yes. You must surrender coupons to the farmer from whom you purchase meat. You will have to surrender to him one coupon for every four pounds of meat.

Q—My son has returned from overseas. He was in the butcher business before he went overseas. Can he get meat in order to set up in business again?

A—If he were the owner of a meat business in Canada he will be given a quota in proportion to his business for a stated period, before enlisting. It will, of course, be necessary for him to have a W.P.T.B. license before he starts in any business again.

Meat Allocations.

Answering various complaints regarding meat rationing and quotas, Donald Gordon, chairman of the War-time Prices and Trade Board, and Dr. G. S. H. Barton, deputy minister of Agriculture, and Canada's representative on the Combined Foods Board, have issued information regarding commitments to Europe and the United Kingdom.

Mr. Gordon said first that there is not a vestige of truth in the statement that rationing will cause meat waste or that it will be responsible for livestock being held, unsold, in the stockyards.

"It has been suggested," said Dr. Barton, "that Canada may be attempting to supply too large a share of the meat being supplied to European countries."

"Under the allocations made by the Combined Food Board for the third quarter of this year France will be given approximately 61 million pounds of which Canada is expected to supply approximately 1.4 millions. Belgium 41 millions with 3.8 millions from Canada, Netherlands 52½ millions with 4½ millions from Canada or a total of less than 14 millions or six per cent from Canada."

Dr. Barton pointed out that the third quarter of the year is Canada's lightest marketing period for livestock. The fourth quarter, is one of the heaviest marketing periods and in this quarter Canada is expected to supply a total of 42 millions or 18 per cent of the total allocated to Europe.

Harrow Nine Seizes Lead.

Harrow took the lead as the North Essex Baseball League final opened at Harrow on Sunday. The Harrow lads nipped Kingsville 8-7 in a real thriller.

Big Day at Plate.

The winners played a very bad game as well, making it no less than nine errors, but 14 hits at the plate more than made up for these mishaps. The winning tally was scored in the eighth inning when McKee, who had replaced Wright catching for the home lads, slapped out a long home-run to deep left field.

Beard and Butler also homered in this contest. Benton was top hitter of the game with four for five, while Webster, Clark and Beard all went two for four.

Thanks, Doc.

I went to see the doctor.
I was feeling rather ill.
After doc looked me over.
Said you better make your will.

You are eating far too much.
I'm afraid you have the gout.
Better see your local dentist.
And have your teeth pulled out.

I then took out my dentures.
Laid them gently on his desk.
Put them back in, doc ordered.
What you need's a real good rest.

I took two weeks' vacation.
Got a cottage on the lake.
What I went through up there
A young man's health would break.

I went to see my doc again
And this is what he said:
You better see an undertaker.
I really think you're dead."

ED. BYRNE.

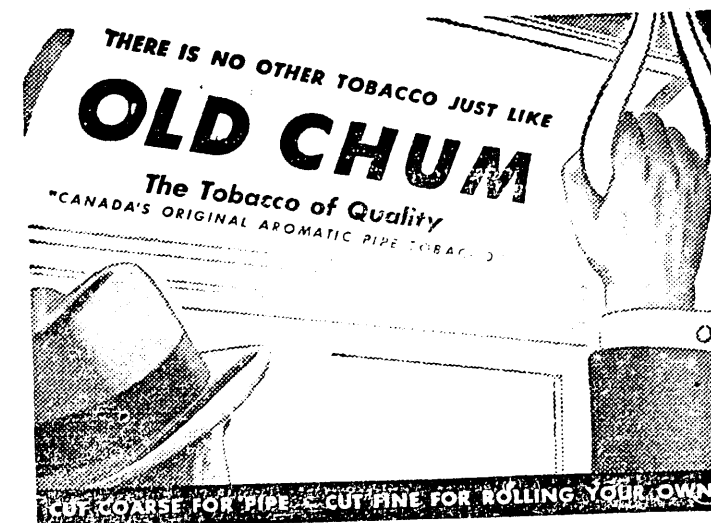

I got myself a ticket.
Up to heaven did I go.
St. Peter gave me a transfer
And sent me down below.

When I arrived down there
The Imps did start to shout.
Sent for old man Satan.
Who promptly kicked me out.

I couldn't get into heaven.
They kicked me out of H—
So it is up to the doctor.
To try and make me well.

Doc really can do it.
Of that I have no fear.
For he put me on a diet.
Of cottage cheese and beer.

If that diet doesn't work.
And I don't feel so frisky.
Doc said that I should take
A little shot of whisky.

RATIONED MEAT IN LOCKERS

must be declared

All consumers who store rationed meat in lockers must declare in writing to the nearest Ration Branch Office the quantity of rationed meat they had in storage on September 10, 1945

Rationed meats include all cooked, canned, fancy and "red" meats. For a full list of rationed meats, see the Consumer Meat Coupon Value Chart. Copies are available at all Ration Branch Offices.

COUPONS MUST BE SURRENDERED FOR STORED MEAT

Consumers must surrender coupons for all meat held in lockers over and above 4 lbs. for each person in the household at a rate of 2 lbs. per coupon. However, no more than one-half of the "M" coupons in the ration books of the consumer and his household need be surrendered.

Market Your Grains Through Hogs

If you have plentiful grain this year, it will pay you to investigate all means of marketing that grain, to pay you the best returns for your labour.

Consider these figures:

1. Only 650 lbs. of grain are required with 50 lbs. of SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate, to build a 200 lb. hog.
2. With hog prices currently at $18.00 for an A. your hog is worth $28.80 (dressing out 160 lbs.) plus a $4.00 bonus, or a total of $32.80. If you paid $8.00 for the weanling pig, and 50 lbs. of SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate cost you $1.88 — you clear $22.92 for your grain, or $70.52 per ton.

Balance your home-grown grains with SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate.

United Church Notes.

Sunday, September 23rd, will be observed as Rally Sunday in the United Church, with service in the church at 10:45 a.m. Percy P. McCullum, of Windsor, will be the guest speaker. There will also be a service of infant baptism, conducted by the pastor. Please note, the Sunday School will not assemble down stairs.

Arrangements have been completed for the Harvest Thanksgiving services on Sunday, September 30th. Rev. F. M. Ward, B.A., B.D., will be the guest speaker at the morning service, 10:45 a.m., and Rev. J. T. Flemming, B.A., B.D., at the evening service, 7:30 p.m.

Rev. S. R. Johnston is attending Victoria College Alumni in Toronto, September 15th to 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Piper, of Amherstburg, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mahor.

Jack Fox, of the R.C.A.F., spent Sunday in Detroit.

Cottam-Gosfield North Red Cross.

Fortteen ladies met in the work room, quilting being done as well as cutting out of 7-year-old boys' shorts and girls' jumpers. We have considerable material on hand and do need more. Meetings every Tuesday.

On Friday evening, September 21st, at 8:30 p.m. in the United Church, under the auspices of the Mission Circle, a social gathering was held. Mrs. B. B. B. was the hostess. The evening was very enjoyable and many thanks are due to the ladies who assisted in the service.

INMAN

Sympathy is extended all relatives and friends in the death of Robert Goslin, on Tuesday, last, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gerald Jarrett, of Detroit. The funeral was held at the home of his youngest son, Willard, on Thursday afternoon, with burial in the family plot at Cottam. Six grandchildren acted as pallbearers.

We are pleased to report Glen Pettapiece, recovering from an operation on his nose last Wednesday, at Grace Hospital, Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Pettapiece and daughters, Dolores and Donna, spent several days recently at Mr. Small's cottage at Cedar Isle.

James Merritt and Wilbert, John Merritt and Ercell, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Motley, of Pontiac, Mich.

Mrs. Murray Upcott returned home on Wednesday from Grace Hospital, Windsor, but the baby was not released till Sunday. Callers on Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Pettapiece, of Leamington; Mr. and Mrs. William Lloyd, of Chatham; Mr. and Mrs. Orlin Osborn, of Cottam; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Smith and daughter, of Cedar Beach.

ELM GROVE

One of the most popular meetings of the Maple Leaf Branch of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. T. H. Hutson, on September 12th. It was Grandmother's Day and no matter if she was 82 she insisted that she play hostess to the Institute, of which she has been a member for about 40 years.

This grand old lady was born in London, England, married in Wales, and 53 years ago, came to Canada with her husband (now deceased) and two children. She has lived in Essex County ever since, where her graciousness and charm have won her a host of friends. She has 7 children, 21 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren, and the birthday greeting cards showed they are remembered. One of the highlights of the occasion was a cablegram received from her grandson, Lae, Philip, Fields, overseas almost three years, and now stationed at New Guinea.

Her granddaughter Dorothy, charming in a black two-piece dress, receiving the guests.

Chie and lovely in a white and black frock, Grandma Hutson made an ideal hostess. As the ladies sang "Happy Birthday" around a prettily appointed table laid with a beautiful lace cloth, centred with a birthday cake, flanked by burning white tapers, this dear member cut her birthday cake.

Delicious refreshments were also served by her three daughters, Mesdames Alton Johnston, Josee Reeb, of Elm Grove, and Mrs. Philip Fields, of Windsor, and her granddaughter, poured tea.

Twenty-seven partook of this birthday luncheon and wished Mrs. Hutson many more happy birthday celebrations.

An outstanding event of this meeting was a "What's New" demonstration by Mrs. C. W. Wadsworth, who presented a variety of new fashions as a birthday gift to Mrs. Hutson. The guests were very interested in the new fashions and many thanks are due to Mrs. Wadsworth for her contribution.

Mrs. Lawrence White and Mrs. John Guin were chosen to represent the Elm Grove Branch at the District Training School. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Bessie Kay, of Ridgeville, on September 27th. The topic for the evening will be "Thanksgiving" and the committee will be very glad to have all members and friends present.

Two papers will be given. The first, "The History of the Elm Grove Branch," by Mrs. Bessie Kay, and the second, "The History of the Elm Grove Branch," by Mrs. Bessie Kay. The evening was very enjoyable and many thanks are due to the ladies who assisted in the service.

On Friday evening, September 21st, at 8:30 p.m. in the United Church, under the auspices of the Mission Circle, a social gathering was held. Mrs. B. B. B. was the hostess. The evening was very enjoyable and many thanks are due to the ladies who assisted in the service.

BETHEL UNITED CHURCH ELFORD, ONT. 60th ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 23rd, 1945

REV. STEPHEN T. DUNK, Minister.

REV. STANLEY SWEETMAN,
Guest Minister.

Bethel Church—1885-1945

Our forefathers, in the pioneer days, felt the need of a place for Divine Worship in this community. By their faith and perseverance they were able to dedicate the present church for that purpose, in September of 1885. Rev. C. W. Bristol was the first minister. Since that time we have had the following ministers and probationers:

- REV. R. A. HOWEY.
REV. F. M. HAWLEY.
MR. J. A. SNELL.
MR. C. F. CLARK.
MR. C. W. KENNEDY.
MR. D. TRIMBLE.
MR. J. C. REID.
REV. W. E. MILLSON.
REV. O. F. CHITTICK.
REV. M. R. KELLAM.
REV. DAVID HICKS.
REV. J. F. REYCRRAFT.
REV. W. E. DONNELLY.
- REV. A. E. MILLSON.
REV. G. BARNARD.
REV. JOSEPH JONES.
REV. P. H. LAWSON.
REV. T. C. WILKINSON.
REV. S. J. MATHERS.
REV. J. L. FOSTER.
REV. E. E. BEACON.
REV. HUGH MOORHOUSE.
REV. E. J. WOLLAND.

On April 3rd, 1883, at a meeting held in the school-house, under the supervision of Rev. W. H. Spargo, it was decided to build a church. At this meeting Mr. William Elford was appointed chairman of the building committee and Mr. James Salter, secretary.

In the minute book of the organization it is recorded that, on April 4th, 1883, Rev. W. H. Spargo was paid $2.50 for registering the deed of land for the church. A great deal of the timber used for the church, as well as the labour, was donated by the following persons: Messrs. Elford, Mulcaster, Sweetman, Salter, Taylor, Deacon, Thomas, Leeming, Balkwell, Quick, McBeth, Chapman, Colenutt, Mason and Buckingham.

The work thus begun was the means of two of our young men answering the call, and have gone into the ministry — the late Rev. Lewis Thomas, and Rev. Stanley Sweetman, now of Glencoe, Ont.

We shall resolve, on this Anniversary occasion, to continue the work that our forefathers so nobly began. Faith of our fathers, living still.

In spite of dungeon, fire and sword,
O how our hearts beat high with joy,
When ere we hear that glorious word,
Faith of our fathers, holy faith,
We will be true to Thee 'till death.

Rev. Stanley M. Sweetman, of Glencoe, will preach the Diamond Jubilee services at Bethel United Church, on the Gesto charge, on Sunday, September 23rd, at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m.

Mr. Sweetman is the son of Michael Sweetman and Elizabeth Elford, and grandson of William Sweetman and William Elford, pioneers who settled in this district in 1870.

Maj. E. Broom at Cottam Club

Major E. Broom, of London, was the guest speaker at the Cottam Rotary Club dinner last Friday night. Rotarian J. C. Montgomery, in introducing the speaker, said he was born in Plymouth, England, coming to Canada in 1922 and except for eight years spent in Bermuda, he has lived in Canada ever since.

Major and Mrs. Broom were responsible for the institution of a juvenile court and the building of redemptive homes for wayward boys and girls. Britain's oldest colony, until recently, was far behind in this respect and he said "it was a common thing for boys and girls in their teens to be put in prison for minor offences."

Rotarian Alvin Raymont conveyed the thanks of the club to the speaker for his instructive and entertaining lecture.

President Earl J. Pratt was in charge and asked for a generous response to the clothing for Britain campaign for which the whole Township of Gosfield North will be canvassed.

North Ridge

Mrs. Walter Russell is on the sick list.

Mrs. James A. Fox spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Rainbow, at St. Thomas.

Mrs. S. Carther, of Belleville, is visiting this week with her sister, Mrs. L. Burling.

The federal government will develop and beautify Ottawa and Hull as Canada's national memorial to those whose sacrificed their lives in World War II. Premier King received permission from General de Gaulle during his recent visit for the release of Jacques Greber, noted Paris architect, who will undertake the work.

Another Big Duel.

The nightcap which opened the final was one big battle. Hank Biasatti and Bob Churchill were the opposing hurlers and both were hot. Biasatti, while giving up nine hits, struck out 11 and walked none. Churchill allowed but six blows while fanning four and walking one.

The Wreckers drew first blood by scoring one run in the third frame. Biasatti opened with a single to left and stole second. Churchill shrilled to deep short and when Russ Egan threw wild to first, Biasatti scored. Biasatti made out for his error in the very next frame, however, because after Russell had started to slide he slipped out a long home run to deep right.

The Automen led the count in the fifth frame on a double by Churchill and a single by Biasatti. After this the game was a very fast affair with the Automen leading 2-0 in the sixth frame.

The Cold Storage Act.

The Cold Storage Act which is administered by the Dairy Products Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture, may authorize financial assistance under certain conditions with respect to providing facilities for the proper storing and handling of perishable food products. The benefits, as provided by the Act, are available to anyone in Canada, and the products stored may be for export, the domestic markets, or for provincial or local trade.

Gobble Hoppers.

During the early fall months when grasshoppers are sluggish and other foods are scarce, ruckey riggers in districts where the insects are numerous should take precautions to protect their birds from consuming large quantities that may be injurious. A recent report cites heavy losses in a turkey flock due to grasshopper gorging. Post-mortem examination showed that the digestive tract of the grasshoppers caused intense inflammation of the bowels and even punctured the walls of the intestines. Within limits, grasshoppers are good protein feed. However, during the early fall, turkey flocks should be given a heavy mash feed in the early morning in the area where grasshoppers are overplentiful.

Automen Defeat Local 195.

Sunday's Essex County Baseball League doubleheader at Wigle Park didn't do just what the Executive of the league wanted it to do but it provided the fans with some really great baseball. The first game of the twin bill saw the American Auto Wreckers eliminate Local 195 by blanking them 6-0 in the third and deciding game of the best two out of three semi-final series. The nightcap which was hoped to get the loop final underway just produced a tie as the Auto Wreckers and Woodbine Lunch went 11 innings to a 2-2 draw. This second tilt was called because of darkness.

Pitching Feud.

The opener of the doubleheader produced a mound duel as Jimmy Dumeah and Godie Wright clashed. The blond hurler for the Auto Wreckers tossed a beautiful game to come out on the winner over Wright who despite the score, was very tough. Each hurler allowed seven hits with Dumeah giving up but one blow until the seventh frame. Dumeah walked two and struck out five while Wright walked none and fanned three.

The Automen opened the scoring in the second inning with a tallies which proved to be the winning ones. Jack Parry singled to right and was sacrificed to second by Malott. Russ Nantais doubled to left centre scoring Parry and scored himself when the Symonds singled to centre. They added three unearned markers in the fifth. Dumeah struck out and when the low pitch got passed catcher English, Dumeah reached first. Bill Hollins was safe on Boyce's error. Dumeah hit one through Carriere scoring Dumeah and sending Hodgins to third. Dumeah went to third and Hodgins scored when McKee let Monard's bunt go through his legs for an error. Dumeah scored as Parry fled deep to centre.

Double Trouble.

The sixth and final Wrecker game came across in the eighth when Monard and Parry slugged out successive doubles. The Unionists tried hard to count in the ninth frame but some skill ball playing on the part of the Automen stopped them cold. Carriere and English hit singles. Pat Cipparoni also singled and when Carriere tried to score, he was out at the plate on a perfect throw from Hodgins to Malott. English took third on the play. With Dunn at bat, Cipparoni broke for second and he was trapped. Here English broke for home but he was out. Monard to Malott. Dunn ended the inning by popping out.

Monard started at second for the winners, making several nifty plays. Brackell were the top fielders for the Unionists.

Others Are Asking?

Q.—Would you tell me if there is a ceiling price on tractors?
 A.—There is no ceiling price on used tractors, but there is a ceiling price on tractors when new. These are set by the Board for a manufacturer. If you contact the manufacturer and are still in doubt as to whether or not you are being charged correctly, send the full details with your name and address to the Wartime Prices and Trade Board and the price will be checked for you.

I understand I will be able to get more sugar in September. Are there more coupons due?
 A.—When the cut in the sugar ration came into force it was decided as September is a big canning month the ration would not be cut for this month. As a result two coupons for sugar, 62 and 64, became valid on September 20th.

Q.—I need a new pump, do I have to get a permit to buy one?
 A.—If it is a power pump you need, you will receive a permit for the purchase of one. They are still rationed. However, all hand pumps have been taken off the list of rationed commodities.

Q.—How do I get canned milk for my baby's formula?
 A.—Apply at your local ration board for your baby's ration book and extra coupons if needed for canned milk for the formula.

Loans to Farmers Under New Act.

D. M. McKee, Administrator of the Farm Implement Loans Act, has announced that the first million dollars in loans has been made by the chartered banks to farmers under this new Dominion legislation.

Loans for water supply dug-outs in Alberta, pre-fabricated houses in Saskatchewan, and tobacco kilns in Ontario, are illustrative of the wide variety of uses which farmers are making of this Act.

While the greatest number of loans have been made by banks so far for the purchase of farm implements, loans for the construction, repair and improvement of buildings are in demand and show every indication that they will be made in greater numbers as soon as material and labour become more generally available.

Q.—We are going over to the States for a visit. May we take some butter with us?
 A.—Yes, if you have obtained the butter with ration coupons in Canada and you do not intend to take any large amount. If the customs official considers that you are taking more than your reasonable needs of any rationed food ration points will be demanded.

ISN'T IT THE TRUTH?

Harrow Leads in Playdowns.

Harrow took a one-game lead in its intermediate "O.R.A." series with Leamington, on Friday last, winning 7-5, at Harrow Park. The second game was played at Leamington yesterday. The first game had been scheduled originally for Leamington last Wednesday but was called off due to wet grounds.

Takes Early Lead.

Harrow took a two-run lead in the first inning on two hits and a walk. Leamington scored in the third on two errors and an infield out and then took the lead in the fifth with two runs from two hits and an error only to have Harrow tie the score in its half of the fifth.

Harrow's big inning was the sixth when the victors showed across four runs on five hits, two of them triples. Leamington threatened in the first half of the ninth, getting two runs on a walk, singles and an error.

Ration Coupon Due Dates.

Coupons now valid are butter 116 to 123; sugar, 46 to 64; preserves, 33 to 57 and P1 to P17; meat, M1 to M4. Each "M" coupon equals 8 tokens; either or both may be used in the purchase of meat.

Restrictions on Manufacture of Luggage.

Restrictions on the manufacture of luggage and small leather goods will be lifted October 1st, according to W. Harold McPhillips, price and supply representative for Western Ontario. Mr. McPhillips warned that although restrictions were lifted it did not mean that there would be any quantity of luggage for some time. Price ceilings will still be maintained on all luggage and small leather goods, he said.

In all instances where our experience of the past has been extensive and uniform, our judgment as to the future amounts to moral certainty.—James Beattie.

THE Electric METER Is for Your Protection

EVEN though your Hydro makes electricity available to you in Ontario at a very low cost, it is important that you pay only for the amount of power that you actually use. The electric meter on duty in your home, is your protection against paying for more than you consume.

Every one of some 800,000 meters in Ontario is tested and certified by a Dominion Government inspector at regular intervals to assure complete accuracy. Electric meters are among the finest of jewelled precision instruments—as constantly true as the finest watch.

For your protection, Hydro installs a separate meter, exclusively for your own household.

Having a meter of your own is the only possible way to be sure that you only pay for the electricity which you use. Imagine buying food from a merchant who weighs several people's orders at the same time, and splits the cost evenly regardless of the size of the order! You want your order weighed individually when you buy food. When you use electricity your meter assures accurate individual measurement.

Low cost Hydro service in Ontario offers amazing comforts and conveniences. For your protection... so that you will pay for only the amount of Hydro you actually use, a Government Inspected Meter is installed for your own household exclusively.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES.

By Dean Wilson.
Already there are signs along Parliament Hill that the first session of the 20th Parliament will be far more exciting and more productive of news than it has been true even of some wartime sessions. With peace an actuality, with the opposition much stronger, and with problems of post-war reconstruction growing almost by the hour, it is evident in well-informed quarters in this capital that debates will be assuming a far greater general interest, especially since private members will be able to get more opportunities for debate and work as wartime emergencies will not prevail to give the "green light" to the government forces.

However, the Government forces will have the support of at least 129 members in the House of Commons. The official opposition, Progressive Conservatives, under their new leader in Parliament as well as outside, Hon. John Bracken, who, though leader of the party since 1940, is in the House of Commons for the first time, is expected to provide considerable interest not merely on account of the increased strength of their group, which has risen from 29 in the 19th Parliament to 67 in the 20th Parliament, but due to experienced parliamentarians in their top ranks, including Gordon Graydon, formerly acting House leader and now desk mate of the new leader, Hon. Grote Stirling; Hon. Dr. Herbert Bruce; G. Russell Boucher, R. H. Harris, Tommy Church, Howard Green, John Diefenbaker, John T. Hackett and others, all powerful speakers and men of experience in the ways of Parliament. The C.C.F. group, under the astute leadership of M. J. Coldwell, will have 28 members instead of 10, with one of their group, Mrs. Gladys Strum, who defeated former Defence Minister McNaughton in Qu'Appelle, being the only woman member in Parliament. Hon. Solon Low, former Alberta Minister, is the new leader of the 13-member Social Credit group and much more is predicted for this group in this new session. The "People's CCF," etc. All in all, close to 100 new faces will be seen in this first session's membership and everything points to a gathering productive of excitement as well as the old political debates of peace time as hints backstage suggests that much pent-up political energy is now ready for expression.

There is no more recruiting in the old-fashioned manner for Canada's armed forces and this is raising the issue about the probable size or extent of this nation's army, navy and air force, with these future plans being very much in the mind of men both inside and outside Parliament, though departmental estimates in Parliament may settle the issue as defence ministers reveal their needs. However, it is said in the capital that there is little doubt now that Canada's armed forces in the immediate future will not sink as low in numbers as in the pre-war days when there were only about 1,700 in the navy at one time, 4,500 in army and less than 4,000 in the air force. Of course, the wartime size of Canada's armed forces will be diminished rapidly from its peak figures of over 90,000 for the navy, 480,000 for the army and over 200,000 for the air force, with the exact extent of such forces being dependent on the probable contributions of Canada to the world's police force or military power of the United Nations amongst other considerations.

Following in the wake of changes in the employment situation across Canada as a result of the end of the war, inquiries in Ottawa have emphasized that there is an earnest intention on the part of the authorities in this capital to eliminate all possible regulations or formalities affecting labour and its employment so that wartime regimentation may not exist any longer than absolutely essential in the public interest. Indeed, it is claimed that Canada, in this respect, was better prepared for the sudden and unexpected end of the Pacific war than many other nations so that the free movement of labour was in a much better position in this country than in many others.

In face of the nation-wide publicity which has been given to plans of creating a very powerful radio station, complete with television and frequency modulation-in-Quebec, together with putting into practice the Quebec Radio Bureau Act as a purely provincial radio system there, yet information in Ottawa seems to indicate that no new private radio station operating license has been issued by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, with the additional remark that legal questions are involved before any such plan can be carried out by any provincial authority. Indeed, there is a view that the "Quebec Radio Bureau Act," establishing a purely provincial radio system, may be beyond the jurisdiction of the Province of Quebec since in 1932 there was a ruling of the Privy Council in London, England, Canada's highest court of justice, that control of radio was entirely within the jurisdiction of the Federal Parliament in Ottawa.

At least for the present time, a report in this capital hints that the important wartime Combined Production

Parliamentary Punches.

With the new parliament not yet two weeks old, the exchange of verbal punches across the floor of the Commons has been more than usually lively, but nobody has landed any very hefty blows. The opposition keeps insisting that the Government has not gone far enough with its re-conversion program, and the Government, after pointing out that Canada's activities in this direction are far in other countries, mildly asks the opposition for a few useful suggestions. At this point, the Tories, the C.C.F.s and the Social Creditors — who during the recent election preened themselves for their forward-looking and idealistic policies — look at the lofty ceiling of the Green Room and assume a very hurt air.

One member of the opposition even went so far as to say that it was not the function of an Opposition to give suggestions!

The exchange of verbal fistfights began on the very first day, when Opposition Leader Bracken suggested that the British policy of retaining one Speaker from Parliament might well be the practice adopted in Canada.

In the next breath Mr. Bracken said that the Canadian practice of alternating a French Speaker with an English Speaker was good.

Of course, these two practices obviously clash, but Mr. Bracken did not say that. Prime Minister King, bringing to Mr. Bracken's attention, had the unpleasant experience of Mr. Bracken denying his first suggestion.

An unusual feature of this exchange was the strange Ottawa Journal reporting, which omitted any reference to Mr. Bracken's endorsement of British practice. Thus making it appear that Mr. King was wrong.

Actually, Mr. Bracken did not see fit to have any Speaker for many Parliaments. It would not be possible to alternate from French to English speaking incumbents.

This exchange may be indicative of the tone of the forthcoming session.

Labour Leads Off.

Most dramatic non-parliamentary episode of the past week was the Labour "march" on the capital. About 250 leaders invaded Parliament Hill one morning, eager to press the Government into action of any sort, of benefit to the men they represented.

In due course the representatives of the delegates were met by the Prime Minister and five members of the Cabinet.

The behind-closed-doors interview took a bit of the steam out of the lobbyists, for they found that the picture was not only far more complicated than they had expected, but that also the Government's activities show every indication of achieving the desired results.

Penicillin.

By Order in Council (Canada Gazette August 4th) all preparations for injections purporting to contain penicillin or its derivatives, must be marked with the potency of the penicillin on the labels. On all preparations put up in capsules, tablets, pills, cachets, lozenges or other similar dosages, the penicillin content must be stated.

The objective is specifically to maintain the purchasing power of the people, and generally to see that the living level is always in the process of rising.

Blustering criticism of governments and sly needling of politicians are not the ways to achieve results. General goals must be decided upon first, and then the steps necessary to arrive at such goals must be worked out. They can only be worked out by pooling ideas, exchanging experiences, and tolerantly realizing that no faction or element or group in Canada's national economy can have everything it wants at the time it wants it.

Trade and Life.
What happened behind the closed doors of that Cabinet-Labour delegation meeting is still a secret, but some information is available. Broadly speaking, Canada's "prosperity" during the war years has been due not so much to our activities within the country, as to the expression of those activities in terms of export of weapons — in other words, in terms of trade, even though the trade was in something which was ultimately to be destroyed. Accordingly, if we wish peacetime prosperity, we must also find the expression of that in terms of trade. We must export.

This means that prosperity within the country is not to be won entirely by our own efforts. We cannot live ourselves into prosperity by pulling on our shoe-laces.

Inner circles hint that the Labour delegates were told quite specifically that Canadian prosperity is related very closely to conditions in other countries, and full employment in Canada depends very much on what Canada can get in the way of orders from Europe and Asia.

There is much evidence that the government has tried to create a demand for Canadian products in other parts of the world. At one level there is our expanded Trade Commissioner set-up; at another level there is the legislation insuring payments to exporters, even though the individuals in other countries ordering goods should ultimately default, and at still another level there is the legislation enabling Canada to lend money to foreign countries to purchase Canadian goods. This all creates a demand for Canadian goods so that employment can be kept up.

But if anyone had an idea that the transition from war to peace was going to be as smooth as a roller bearing, they can be disabused. Nothing in the world can prevent temporary dislocation in certain Canadian industries.

The mechanics of conversion take time, and the real problem is to shorten that time as much as possible.

Peach Brown Rot.

Brown rot of peaches has been shown by the Botany and Plant Pathology Division, Science Service, Dominion Department of Agriculture, to be dependent upon weather conditions, and progress has been made in tracing the source of infectious diseases of stone fruits.

Restrictions on Conventions and Travel Lifted.

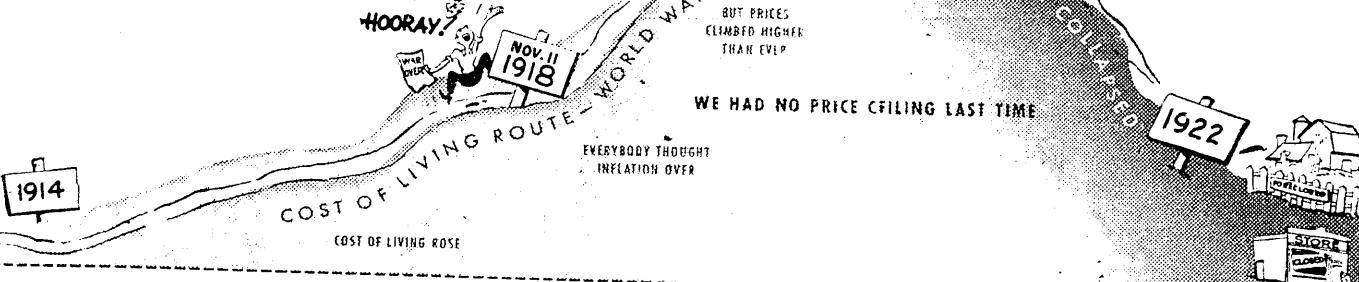

The ban on travel and convention gatherings which was imposed last June, will be lifted November 1st, according to an announcement by W. Harold McPhillips, prices and supply representative of the Prices Board for Western Ontario.

Mr. McPhillips said it was expected the heavy travel would continue through October, but after that the normal season fall off would occur.

Experience is victor, never the vanquished, and out of defeat comes the secret of victory. That tomorrow starts from today and is one day beyond it, robes the future with hopes rainbow hues.—Mary Baker Eddy.

We had it before...
LET'S NOT HAVE IT AGAIN!

The Worst Inflation came after the last war
NOW is the Real Testing time ...

Victory has been won on the battle front—but we must not relax our efforts if we are to continue to avoid the evils of inflation and deflation.

We are rapidly moving towards the day when shortages will be overcome—but reconversion takes time.

The danger of inflation, and its black shadow—deflation—will last as long as goods are not enough to meet demands.

The ending of the war brings the temptation to scramble for things we've been without, and to offer to pay any price to get them.

That's the way inflation gets started. Inflation with its soaring cost of living is bad enough.

But inflation is always followed by deflation with its falling prices, bankrupt businesses, unemployment and distress. Deflation would be a calamity that would involve every man, woman and child in Canada.

The only controls that are being maintained are those that aid the production of needed supplies and their speedy and fair distribution to the public, and which prevent an inflationary price rise.

As soon as conditions warrant, these will be dropped.

Until industry gets back to normal production, price ceilings, rationing and some controls are a necessary safeguard for everyone of us.

Keep them working.

IT'S YOUR JOB AND YOUR SAVINGS THAT ARE AT STAKE

This advertisement is one of a series being issued by the Government of Canada to emphasize the importance of preventing a further increase in the cost of living now and deflation and unemployment later.

Public School Field Day.

Good weather, eager contestants, and efficient officials, made the annual Field Day, on Friday, an unqualified success.

The prize money, provided by the Board of Education, was supplemented by generous donations by Don Wilson and Charles Maedel, while many parents made refreshments possible by their contributions of sugar. Ora Lonsberry was conspicuous by his absence from the megaphone, but Percy Lee assumed that responsibility, while D. Martin acted as starter and Messrs. Whealen, Harrow and Inspector Pierce performed the exacting duties of judging. Three teachers pinned ribbons on the winners, as K. E. Brett kept the records and L. W. Allison paid the cash prizes.

A limited amount of refreshments was made possible by the co-operation of A. C. Ransom, Chas. Maedel and the Essex Daily.

A fine spirit of sportsmanship prevailed throughout the afternoon. The most exciting event was the shuttle relay race, in which most of the grades were represented by ten pupils, five of whom were stationed at each end of the course. The winners were ascertained by elimination.

There was a good representation of parents, whose presence made no small contribution to the joy of the youngsters.

Essex — Old Timers Tie.

The 1945 edition of the Essex hall team found the Old Timers hard nuts to crack, on Monday afternoon, and were lucky to get a 2-2 tie, in 5 innings, all of which was played in a light drizzle. It was decided to arrange a game some Sunday in October.

The old timers played good ball in the field, Max Miller making two nice catches in center, while Eddie Hines getting two for two. The star for Essex was Lepain, who cut two clean singles and robbed Ralph Totten of at least a triple by a swell running catch of his line drive to right.

THE CHALLENGE

OF AN EMPTY PLATE*

S AND TRADE BOARD

In most liberated European countries, there is a desperate shortage of meat.

As a great food-producing nation, Canada must, can—and will—help to meet the emergency.

The job will not be finished at the year's end. Food scarcities in Europe will continue until the next harvest.

This year, Europe is relying on Canada for a minimum of 78 million pounds of beef, pork and canned meat.

Up to the end of August, only 479 million pounds had been sent.

How soon can we bridge the gap?

Livestock marketings are normally at their heaviest in the last four months of the year.

If we are to help feed the hungry peoples of devastated Europe, this is the time to make our greatest effort.

To do our part, we must reduce our own consumption of meat and also assure that everyone in Canada gets a fair share.

That is why rationing is necessary.

MEAT RATIONING ADDS TO EVERYONE'S WORK

The producer who slaughters, the retailer who sells, the consumer who buys and eats—they all play a vital part.

AS A CONSUMER, HERE IS HOW YOU CAN CO-OPERATE

1. Try to plan your meat purchases before leaving home by determining what cuts you intend to buy and their approximate weights.
2. Make sure you have enough valid coupons and tokens to cover your proposed purchases by referring to the Consumer Coupon Value Chart and the Coupon and Token Calculator. Copies may be obtained from your Local Ration Board or Ration Branch.
3. Know the dates your "M" coupons become valid.
4. Do not buy more meat than you really need.
5. Avoid shopping at rush hours.
6. Be patient. Remember—your butcher may have inexperienced help.

Boy Scouts and Wolf Cubs Make Plans For Big Drive

APPLE DAY — OCTOBER 13th.

We hope that the objective of $200.00 will be reached this year. This year's campaign bears the motto "at least a dime this time," and there is very good reason for its connection with the Apple Drive. Scout officials have found the cost of the good apples they give to every buyer is much higher than in previous years. In fact, the Scouts are paying nearly five cents for every apple, so if contributors drop a nickel into the box on Apple Day, Saturday, October 13th, they will only be paying the cost of the apple, and not helping one penny to the support of this worthy organization.

This is the only time we ask real support from every citizen in the Town of Essex and Cottam, and by doing this we will try and give to the town and village the best citizens for the future.

So, on Saturday, October 13th, folks, when a Wolf Cub or Boy Scout meets you on the street or calls at your home, don't turn him down.

Boat of Thanks.

In the present floods, the Maple Row Ferry Company has been forced out of business by competition from the new drain, which is almost completed, after fighting a losing battle for the past decade. However, the new launch, Stick-in-the-Mud III, did a roaring business all over town on Monday night, on its farewell run before being disposed of by the War Assets Corporation.

Bermuda Beauties.

A fair crowd of brave citizens splashed their way through mud and water to the Salvation Army Citadel last Monday night, to enjoy an illustrated lecture about the Atlantic island of Bermuda. The speaker was Major E. Brom, now superintendent of the S. A. Boys' Home in London, who spent some eight years of service down in that beautiful paradise. The vivid colours, the exquisite formations of limestone in the Leamington caves, the breath-taking beauty of the flowers and trees all spoke of God's love and power. But those present learned also that sin had blighted the lives of many of the people and extensive efforts of the Salvation Army to help these to see and experience that life can be beautiful, just as their surroundings, through the love and power of Jesus Christ. Members of the Essex United Young People's Union, with their pastor, were welcome visitors for the evening. The Essex Rotary Club also enjoyed the Major's talk and pictures at their regular dinner meeting.

Young People's Notes.

This week's meeting was in charge of the Culture department, so, after meeting at the church, the Young People went, in a body, to see the pictures at the Salvation Army. These pictures were interesting and educational and enjoyed by everyone. After returning to the church a short business session was held to review plans for Novelty Night.
Next Monday evening will be a rehearsal for "Novelty Night," so all members are requested to be on hand. Be sure to bring a musical instrument and let's have all your tickets sold by Monday. See you then.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear mother, Elizabeth Richardson (formerly Mrs. Alex Myers) who passed away one year ago, October 1st, 1944.

Our mother we loved passed away. One long year ago today.
Fondly loved, and deeply mourned.
The dearest mother this world could hold.

We often sit and think of her,
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.
And we wonder why she had to die
Without a chance to say goodbye.

—Lovingly remembered by son Carl, daughter-in-law Grace and grandsons Dennis and Bobby.

Among the Churches.

Every member of Essex United and all the friends of the church are asked to set aside this day to meditate on the many blessings God has given to the people of our Nation. It is not too much to attend services on Thanksgiving Sunday, 11:30 a.m., subject, "Too Much Religion When a Boy." Hear this answer to the man who made this excuse for not going to church.

First Baptist Church.
Sunday, October 7th: 7:00 anniversary services will be held in our church this Sunday. Rev. J. Nelson Bedford, new president of the London Bible Institute, will be the guest speaker. This speaker comes with the highest recommendation of some of the most trustworthy leaders of the Christian realm. "Thoroughly sound in evangelical teaching, with a genial and wholesome disposition that has won the hearts of all who have come under his influence. A graduate of Houghton College, Moody Bible Institute and Eastern Baptist Seminary, with years of experience in responsible positions of Christian service. You will have a rich spiritual feast when you worship with us this Sunday. Attention: The new memorial sign will be dedicated this Sunday morning after the worship service. A short open-air service of approximately ten minutes. Be sure to see it illuminated at the evening service, 10 a.m., Sunday School; 11 a.m., Morning Service; 12 noon, Dedication service; 7:30 p.m., Evening Service. Special offering to cover taxes and cost of new roof on north side of church building.

The Salvation Army.
Thanksgiving Sunday, of all days in the year, is a day when we should attend God's House, and more especially this year as the dawn of peace has broken through the dark clouds of war. The doors of the Army Citadel on Arthur street are open to all, and inside you will find a warm welcome. With us join us next Sunday, at 11:30 a.m., 7:30 p.m., 7:30 p.m. The message of the morning meeting will be entitled, "Spiritual Stocktaking," while the evening meeting will take the form of a Harvest Festival Altar Service. A special offering will be received as an expression of gratitude to God for His blessing in the past year. Young people, remember Sunday School at 10:30 a.m. with the lesson, "The Persecuted Persevered." Acts 1:1-23 and text to learn, Matthew 5:19. "Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake; for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven." Open air meetings will be held at 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m., also prayer meeting at 10 a.m., COMING, October 14th—Essex Corps Diamond Jubilee. Lieut. Colonel and Mrs. Carter, of Toronto, will conduct special meetings: 10:30 a.m., in the United Church; 7:30 p.m., in the S. A. Citadel. 3 p.m., in the Baptist Church, an "Hour of Praise," sacred music and song rendered by Windsor Citadel Songsters, who will also provide music at other meetings.

Market Your Grains Through Hogs

If you have plentiful grain this year, it will pay you to investigate all means of marketing that grain, to pay you the best returns for your labour.

Consider these figures:

1. Only 650 lbs. of grain are required with 50 lbs. of SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate, to build a 200 lb. hog.
2. With hog prices currently at $18.00 for an A. your hog is worth $28.80 (dressing out 160 lbs.) plus a $4.00 bonus, or a total of $32.80. If you paid $8.00 for the weaning pig, and 50 lbs. of SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate cost you $1.88 — you clear $22.92 for your grain, or $70.52 per ton.

Balance your home-grown grains with SBUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate.

Fire Prevention Week.

Week of October 7 to 13.

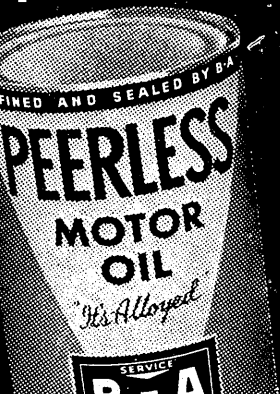

For the first time in six long years, Fire Prevention Week will be observed under peace-time instead of war-time conditions. During that period, the world has seen the use of fire as a major weapon of war. It was the endeavour of both sides to reduce the other side's ability to wage war by the destruction of fire of his war plants and at the same time every effort was made in the homeland to prevent such destruction. In the end, the Allies by reason of vastly superior war materials, won out.

But have we won the fight against the fire demon here at home? Recent holocausts have indicated that we have not. The desecration by fire of one of the Great Lakes passenger boats, the burning of a famous Muskoka resort, and the near annihilation of that great Eastern Canadian port of Halifax show us very forcibly that as a nation we have not yet learned to be careful with fire. The fact that there was so small a loss of life in the Halifax explosions — one fatality — is indeed a very fortunate circumstance. There could have been many more.

In spite of the efforts of fire prevention and fire protection officials throughout Canada, fire losses jumped from slightly more than 24½ million dollars in 1939 to over 40 million dollars in 1944. It is quite true that the values at risk in 1939 but it is also a fact that every effort was being put forth to conserve our resources for the war. In spite of those efforts, this country saw a mounting fire loss year after year. Now that hostilities have ended, let us hope that there will not be a repetition of events following the last great war when between 1919 and 1922 fire losses jumped from 25 millions to 54 millions in property damage alone.

There seems to be a general feeling that now that the war is over, something akin to Utopia will be reached. We may not exactly attain that goal and we certainly will not if we permit life and property to be destroyed at the appalling rate which has been reached in recent years. It would seem that the world is waiting to make a fresh start in many phases of its existence. Fire Prevention Week this year offers an excellent opportunity to intensify our efforts in the prevention of fire in our homes, schools, places of business and factories. It only remains for us to keep in mind that we are going to be careful of fire from now on, remembering that fully 80% of our fires are due to carelessness and remembering also that it is our patriotic duty to prevent fires.

Fire Prevention Week.

Week of October 7th to 13th.

Fire Prevention on the Farm.

Today the whole world is clamouring for food. The war has left food stocks in liberated countries in a very exhausted condition and Canada, along with other United Nations, is expected to provide its share of the world's bread basket. Food cannot be supplied from the ruins of burned barns. It may be of interest to know that farm fire losses amounted to over $3,000,000 in Canada last year in nearly 2,500 fires and that during the last 10 years such losses amounted to nearly $29,000,000 in 41,000 fires. Every effort is being made by the government to harvest this year's crops by the use of members of the armed services to make up for the manpower shortage on our farms. Why then permit these precious crops to go up in smoke?

Records show that there are eight major causes of farm fires. These may be listed as follows: defective chimneys and flues, sparks on combustible roofs, lighting, spontaneous ignition, matches, gasoline or kerosene, heating equipment and electrical wiring. Threshing operations are another hazard. All these causes may be eliminated by the application of ordinary fire prevention principles.

Much can be done to reduce the hazards of a conflagration by proper construction and proper spacing of farm buildings. Farmers as a rule being pretty well isolated should provide some form of fire protection in the way of pails or barrels of water, hand pumps, extinguishers and ladders.

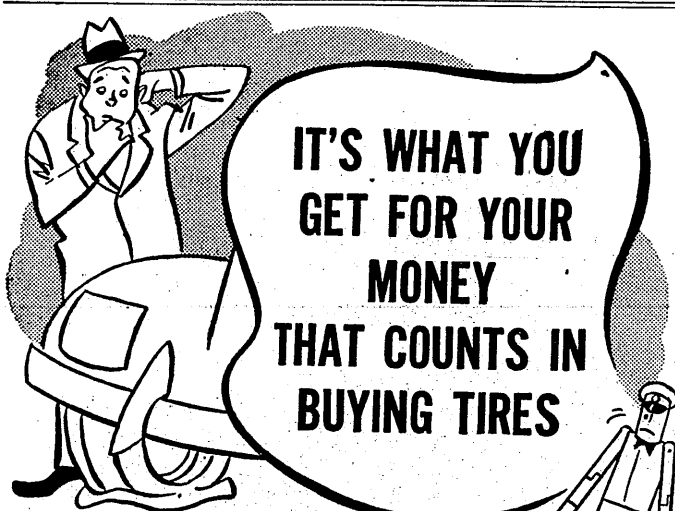

There is, too, a growing tendency toward the provision of fire protection on a community basis. This may be accomplished by either the establishment of a rural fire department or by entering into an agreement for protection on a fee basis with a neighbouring town or city.

In any event, if we are to fulfill our responsibility of helping to feed the world and at the same time providing sufficient for our own needs, we should take no chances whatever with fire on our farms.

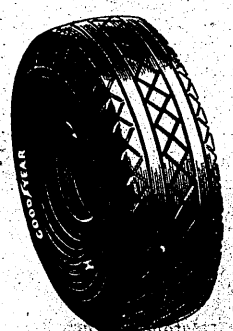

Ninety Scouts from fourteen Scout Troops in Kitchener and North Waterloo, in Ontario, recently added 5,000 trees to their Scout Forest in Erasmus Township. The Scout Association purchased the land and is reforesting it over a period of years with the co-operation of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests.

Weak Bee Colonies.

Where the beekeeper has a few colonies too weak for successful wintering and headed by young queens that he does not wish to destroy, the following plan of wintering has proved successful, says C. B. Gooderham, Dominion Apiarist. Around the end of September, remove five of the lightest combs from the other five frames and push the other five frames to one side of the hive, thus forcing the bees to cluster on these combs. Two days later, place a tight-fitting division board in the centre of half the hives and bring the combs and the bees from the other hives and place them on the opposite side of the division boards. Thus in each hive, there will be two weak colonies. Provision must be made for a double entrance. The main advantage of this method is to have a number of spare queens to replace any that may be failing or are lost.

50,000 More Men Wanted in Woods.

Owing to the extra demands for forest products, special emphasis has been placed on the appeal of the Minister of Labour for 50,000 additional men to reinforce those now engaged in operations in the woods. Every man on the farms who can be spared after the harvest has been finished is required, and men in the cities are to be canvassed. This year the woods operations are of more national and international importance than ever. With an adequate force of workers on the woods all over Canada, home building in the Dominion will be helped next year to a large extent by the cut of sawlogs in the woods during the coming winter.

The pulp and paper industry, which fulfils the very important function of producing paper for Canada's great export trade and also for home consumption, will require a heavy cut of pulpwood, while the reconstruction of Britain and Continental Europe will call for huge quantities of lumber, and Canada is expected to meet a large part of these demands.

Fodder by Coupons.

As a result of the recent severe drought, Australia is rationing fodder by a scheme which involves the use of coupons for purchase and transport. Dairy cows as well as horses are included. Only horses classified in the priority categories of essential services will benefit by this new plan. The scheme applies only to certain metropolitan areas and is under the control of the Director of Emergency Road Transport, acting for the Minister of Agriculture. In country districts outside the specified areas, horses, eligible under the priorities, are supervised through the War Agricultural Committee.

Treasurer's Sale of Land for Taxes.

TOWNSHIP OF MAIDSTONE.

To Wit:

BY VIRTUE OF A WARRANT under the hand of the Reeve of the Township of Maidstone, and the seal of the said Township, bearing date the 6th day of August, 1945, commanding me to levy upon certain lands for arrears of taxes and charges thereon, I hereby give notice that unless such arrears and charges are sooner paid I shall proceed to sell by Public Auction the said lands, or as much thereof as may be necessary to discharge the said arrears and charges thereon, at the Township Hall, in the Township of Maidstone, at ten (10) o'clock a.m. on MONDAY, THE 3rd DAY OF DECEMBER, 1945.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that, if necessary, an adjourned sale will be held on the 10th day of December, 1945, at the same place, at ten (10) o'clock a.m., and notice is hereby given that the Municipality of the Township of Maidstone intends to purchase any of the lands that will not sell for the amount of taxes and charges against them.

The list of lands for sale has been published in the Ontario Gazette, September 1st, 1945.

Copies of the list may be obtained at the Treasurer's office.
Dated at Maidstone, Township this 28th day of August 1945.

MAXIME ROBILARD,
Treasurer Maidstone Township.

This Bulletin Will be Useful Just Now.

In the household storage of garden fruits and vegetables, the question of arranging a suitable place is an important one. In an ordinary house, a storage room may be partitioned off in the basement, care being taken that it is as far from the furnace as possible. Because the main object is to protect the vegetables from high temperature and loss of moisture during the storage period, the materials used in the construction of the partition need not be expensive. Ordinary lumber or insulation board will do. It is desirable to have a window in the outside wall of the house for ventilation and temperature control, which may also be aided by the door of the partition being opened or shut as required.

An earth floor in the storage space is best, but as nearly all of the floors of house cellars are made of concrete, a covering of sand of three or four inches in the partitioned part will make a good substitute. The vegetables may be placed in bins or crates made of lumber slats one inch thick by four inches wide, placed half an inch apart to ensure circulation of air. The temperature of the store room should be kept as close as possible to 35 degrees F. and not higher than 38 degrees.

However, many things have to be done before storage. First of all, when harvesting, careful handling is necessary. To store bruised or damaged fruits or vegetables is to court disaster, because they may infect the nearby vegetables and perhaps the whole lot in storage. For the harvesting of the vegetables to be stored, a fine day should be chosen and the vegetables allowed to remain on the ground until dry and the operation should be delayed as late in the season as possible. Where necessary, tops should be cut off at an angle to prevent excessive moisture through the leaves. Beets, carrots, swede turnips, and parsnips should have their tops cut off to within half an inch of the shoulders of the vegetables. Further information may be found in publication No. 743 (Farmer's Bulletin 113) on "Construction and Operation of a House Storage for Fruits and Vegetables." A copy may be obtained by writing to the Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

"Experience"

Treasurer's Sale of Land for Taxes.

TOWNSHIP OF SANDWICH SOUTH.

To Wit:

BY VIRTUE OF A WARRANT under the hand of the Reeve of the Township of Sandwich South, and the seal of the said Township, bearing date the 6th day of August, 1945, and to me directed, commanding me to levy upon the lands hereinafter described for the arrears of taxes respectively due thereon, together with all costs incurred, I hereby give notice that pursuant to The Assessment act, Revised Statutes of Ontario, 1937, and amendments thereto, I shall on MONDAY, THE 3rd DAY OF DECEMBER, 1945, at the hour of 3 o'clock in the afternoon, at the Township Hall, Oldcastle, in the Township of Sandwich South, in the County of Essex, proceed to sell so much of the said lands as may be necessary for the payment of said arrears and charges thereon, unless such arrears have been sooner paid.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that the Municipality of Sandwich South, at the adjourned sale to be held at the same time and place, on Saturday, December 15th, 1945, intends to purchase any of the said lands that will not bring the amount of taxes and costs listed against them.

Published in the Ontario Gazette, September 1st, October 6th and November 3rd, 1945.

Copies of the list may be obtained at the Treasurer's office at Maidstone, Ontario.
Dated at Maidstone this 20th day of August, 1945.

Treasurer of Sandwich South,

Used Truck Parts to Make 2-ton Trailer.

Suggestions in regard to selecting and assembling used truck parts and tires for the construction of a two-ton farm trailer tractor, together with a plan and specifications of the machine, are given in agricultural engineering circular No. 13 by J. M. Armstrong and E. C. Bain, of the Field Husbandry Division, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. A two-ton tractor trailer built according to the plan and specifications given has been in service for several years. This trailer has been loaded frequently in excess of three tons without any evidence of structural weakness in the framing or axle, and there has been no noticeable wear on the tires at tractor speeds.

Detailed information is contained in the suggestions which deal fully with the selecting and fitting the front axle from 1½ or 2-ton used truck for a 2-ton capacity trailer; the frame made with an inverted front axle; the hitch frame made of 4" pipe welded together in the form of a Y; the hitch lock, brakes, and platform, together with all the necessary measurements of the axle assembly, main frame, hitch frame (pipe), alternate hitch frame (channel), hitch lock, and platform. A copy of the circular may be obtained by writing to Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Guard Against Polio Menace.

If the trend of previous years runs true to form, an upsurge in poliomyelitis or infantile paralysis can be expected during the latter half of the summer. It is a disease all mothers dread, for as yet no vaccine or toxin has been discovered that will minimize children from infection.

The Department of National Health and Welfare says that all parents can do when poliomyelitis occurs in their community is to reduce contact with strangers. This means the avoidance of unnecessary travel and visiting.

The virus which causes the disease is present in the discharge from the nose and throat and from the bowels of the patient. Healthy people may also carry the virus and are just as liable to spread the disease as anyone who is ill. There is no evidence that biting insects transmit the disease but it is known that flies may become contaminated with material containing the virus and thus act as carriers of the infection; therefore the home, and especially the kitchen, should be well screened and kept as free from flies as possible.

It is recommended that nose and throat operations on children be postponed during the prevalence of the disease. All children with fever or other definite signs of illness should be kept in bed until a diagnosis can be made by a doctor.

Ration Coupon Due Dates.

Coupons now valid are sugar, 46 to 64; butter, 116 to 125; preserves, 33 to 57 and P1 to P17; meat, M1 to M6.

To Represent Junior Farmers at World Meeting.

Harry Laidlaw, of Norval, Ontario, president of the Ontario Junior Farmers' Association, has been unanimously selected by the directors of the Association as a delegate to represent the farm youth of Canada at the World Youth Conference which is to be held in London, England, from October 31st to November 7th. This Conference is being held under the auspices of the World Youth Council, an international body organized as a result of an International Youth Conference held in London in 1942. This Council is now representative of the youth movements of 46 different countries.

All phases of youth activity are included in the agenda for the World Youth Conference, and a wide range of Canadian Youth groups is interested in having Canada represented by its full allotment of ten delegates. The Canadian Federation of Agriculture has indicated that it will name the Ontario Junior Farmers' nominee as its representative at the Conference, so that Mr. Laidlaw will be representing the farm youth of the Dominion at this important gathering.

Junior Farmers Field Day Plan to be Expanded.

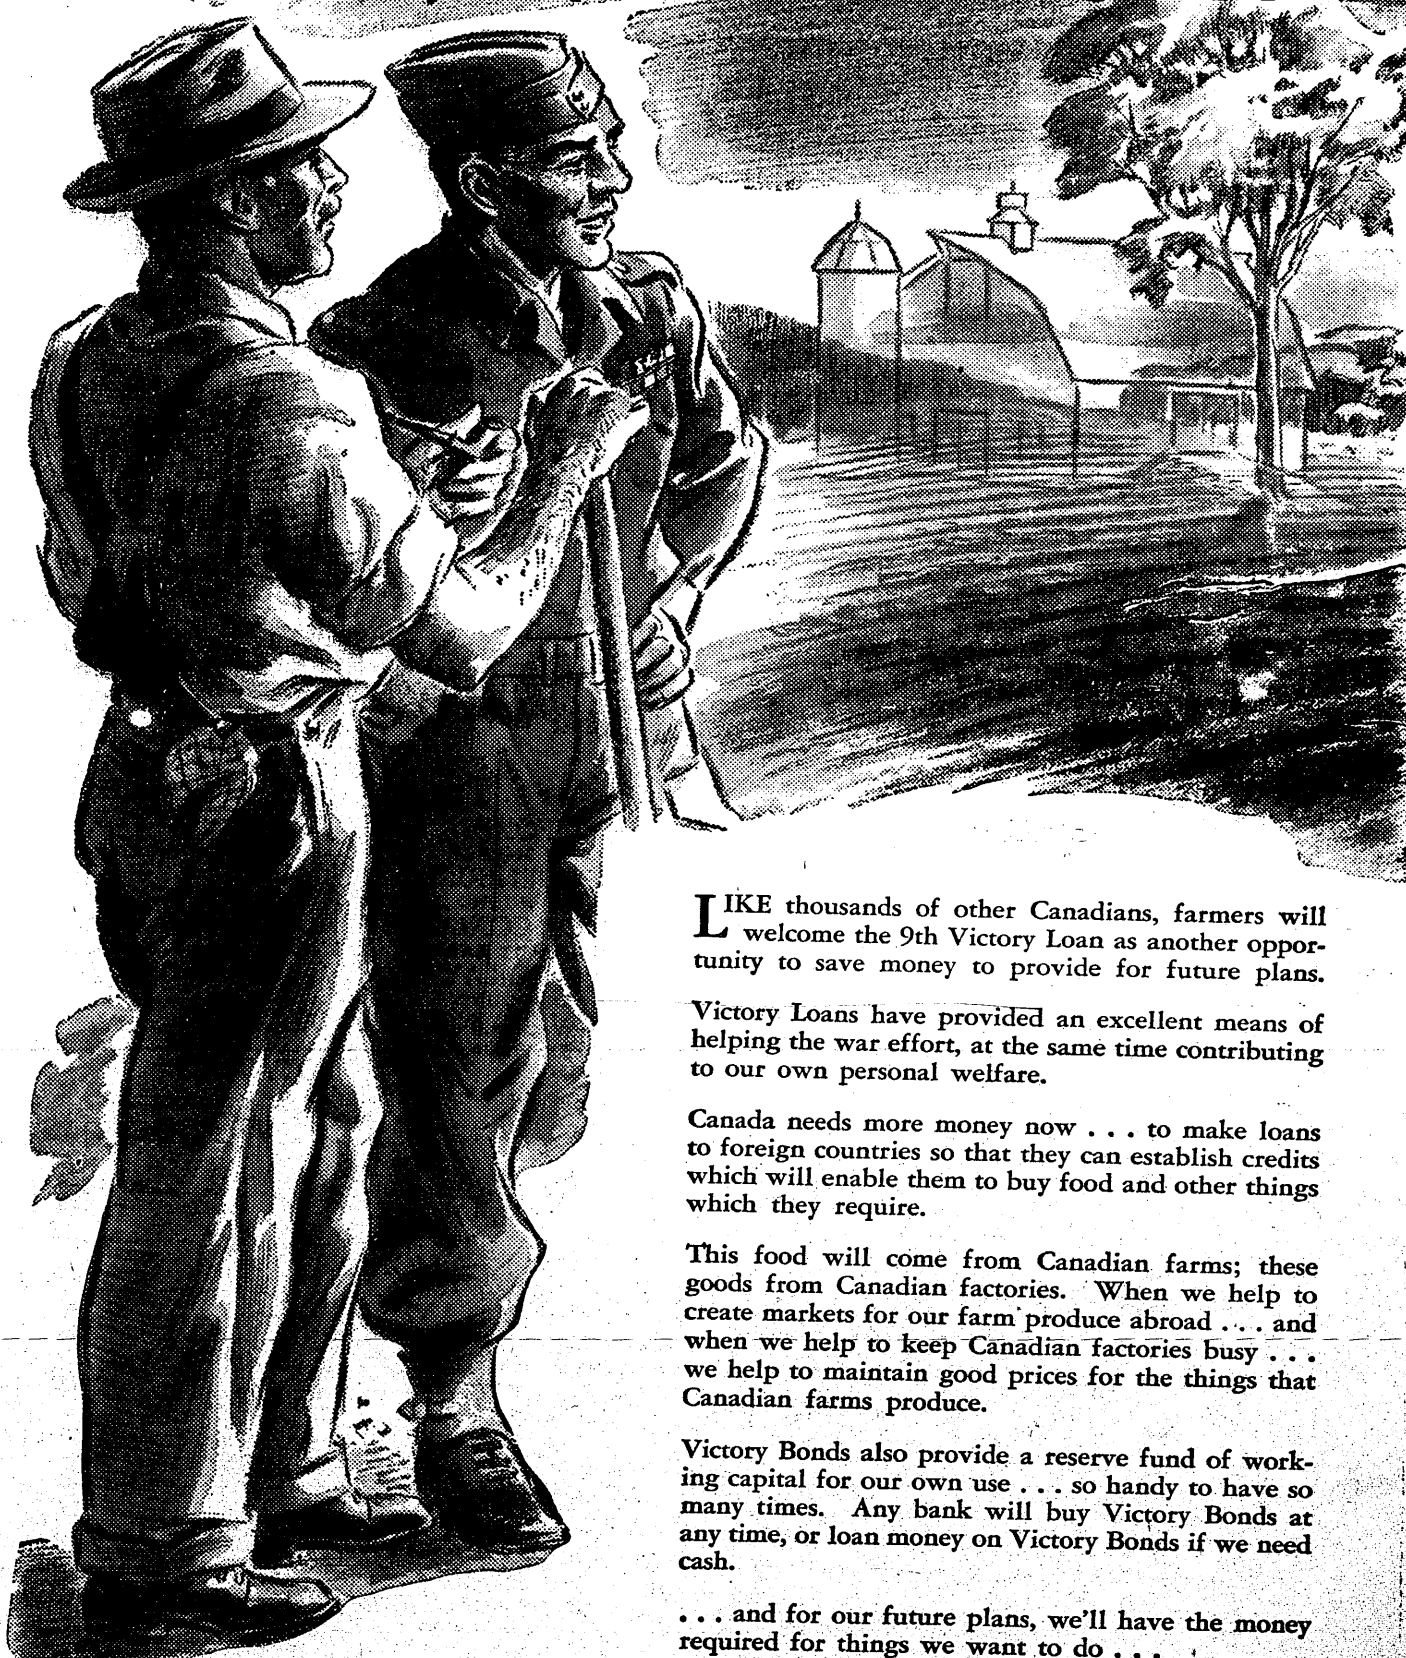

Having made an outstanding success of two Junior Farmer Field Days held at Kemptville and Guelph in 1945, the Ontario Junior Farmer Association plans to broaden its activities in the field of sport and athletics in 1946.

At an executive meeting held in Toronto this week it was decided to hold four regional field days next summer, and there is a possibility that the winning softball teams and athletes in these regional meetings will come together for Provincial championship finals at some central point. The four regional meetings will be held at Kemptville, Presquille Park, Guelph and Ridgeway, and in addition to boys' and girls' softball tournaments, will include a program of track and field athletics.

The Junior Farmer Association, in planning next summer's activities, is planning to have an important part in arranging events for the Canadian National Exhibition when it is revived, probably in 1947. It is hoped that in that year regional sports and athletic meetings will be held at several points in Ontario, and the finals for the Provincial championships being held at the Canadian National Exhibition as part of the programme for the Junior Farmer Day, if the co-operation of the C.N.F. management can be secured.

WE'LL HAVE THE MONEY to pay the BILLS

LIKE thousands of other Canadians, farmers will welcome the 9th Victory Loan as another opportunity to save money to provide for future plans.

Victory Loans have provided an excellent means of helping the war effort, at the same time contributing to our own personal welfare.

Canada needs more money now . . . to make loans to foreign countries so that they can establish credits which will enable them to buy food and other things which they require.

This food will come from Canadian farms; these goods from Canadian factories. When we help to create markets for our farm produce abroad . . . and when we help to keep Canadian factories busy . . . we help to maintain good prices for the things that Canadian farms produce.

Victory Bonds also provide a reserve fund of working capital for our own use . . . so handy to have so many times. Any bank will buy Victory Bonds at any time, or loan money on Victory Bonds if we need cash.

. . . and for our future plans, we'll have the money required for things we want to do . . .

Get ready to buy more Victory Bonds this Fall. Buy double this time—the same rate of savings as in previous loans will pay for twice as many bonds over the 12 month period.

NATIONAL WAR FINANCE COMMITTEE

Farmers Can Buy Victory Bonds On Convenient Deferred Payments Through Any Bank

. . . just sign a short form letter which Victory Loan Salesmen carry (banks have copies) ordering the Bank to buy Victory Bonds for you. Pay $50 when ordering and the balance at any time during the next 12 months. The interest the bonds earn pays the interest on the bank loan.

SOUTH WOODSLEE

Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. John Brooker were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dodge and daughter, of Windsor. Mr. and Mrs. George Blake moved to Windsor on Friday.

Mrs. Stanley Allison and Mrs. Harry Hyland and daughter, of Windsor, were weekend guests of Mrs. M. W. Wright and Jean.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Holman spent a couple of days the past week in Rodney.

For an evening of frivolous fun and good entertainment, plan now to attend NOVELTY NIGHT, sponsored by the young people in Essex, United Church, on Monday, October 15th, at 8 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Dunphy, of Westmoreland avenue, in Leamington, will be at home to their friends and neighbours, on Sunday, October 14th, from 2 to 5 p. m., and from 7 to 9 p. m., the occasion being their golden wedding anniversary.

Two splendid services were held at Ruscomb last Sunday, with Rev. S. Dink, of Gesta, in the morning, and Rev. P. Ward in the evening. The church was filled at both services, and the special thank offering was the largest on record. Here's a challenge to Woodsee and we know you'll measure up.

On Monday evening the Thanksgiving supper at Ruscomb was a great success, more than $250 being taken in. The entertainment was enjoyed by all and the ladies wish to express their thanks to all who helped to make both the Sunday services and the supper very successful.

Woodsee, W. M. S. will meet on Thursday, October 26th, at 2:30 p. m. in Woodsee Church for their thank offering. When Mrs. Ashton of Ottawa Falls, Ontario, will be the guest speaker. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Mrs. Jane McKee, a patient in the hospital, is improving rapidly. She is expected to be home in a few days.

Frank Kirby of Rocky Mountain House, Alta., called on T. P. Hooker this week. Mr. Kirby is a neighbour of Mr. Hooker's father, Stanley.

United Church Notes.

Sunday, October 14th: Services will be closed at Ruscomb owing to the Special Harvest Home services at Woodsee Church, with Rev. Dr. A. E. Thomson as special speaker. Rev. Thomson was minister on this field some 28 years ago and we know that as many as possible will want to hear him and have the pleasure of meeting him again. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. We would ask our people to rally to the evening service. We are taking Dr. Thomson away from his church in Windsor for the day. We owe it to him to give him a good response, not only at the morning service but the evening as well. Make a special effort to be present at both services. On Tuesday evening the members of the W. A. and ladies of the church will hold their Harvest Home supper, followed by a good program. During the concert hour gifts to our boys will be presented on behalf of the church and Dr. Thomson will speak immediately after. We will especially ask that all the returned men be present as well as the boys who have been in training in Canada and are now released. Admission, Adults $1.00; children 50c.

National Clothing Collection.

A stirring appeal for generous support for the National Clothing Collection, sponsored by the Canadian United Allied Relief Fund, which takes place from October 1st to October 20th, is made by Philon A. Philon, Charge d'Affaires of the Royal Greek Legation, Ottawa. He says that this clothing drive will be the main source of supply for the millions of men, women and children who have been through unspeakable suffering during the long years of ruthless occupation and are without shelter, without clothing, often barefoot.

"This is not just another drive," stated Mr. Philon. "These people have fought their warlike soldiers on the front line. Through relentless resistance, through underground activities, victory has been made possible. In my own country, Greece, a million and a half people are without shelter because their homes have been burned, bombed or wantonly destroyed, together with all their belongings, for the only reason that they refused to accept the yoke of the invader and fought for their liberation. Over three million lack clothing and shoes. Materials for clothing are unobtainable in spite of all efforts of the relief organizations. Under these conditions only used clothing will meet the needs."

"I am quite sure that everybody has a suit to spare, a pair of shoes or some warm underwear. Would you not give one of your garments to a needy brother?"

"These are the people who now find themselves without clothing and shoes, shivering at the approach of winter."

These people have seen their parents, their brothers and their children executed and deported because they gave assistance to Allied soldiers, to Allied airmen, hiding them in their homes in spite of the death penalty imposed upon them. These people are proud people — they are not beggars. They will accept with gratitude your contribution in alleviating their suffering but are not begging for it. It is up to you, their allies, to do what your conscience and your faith in brotherhood will inspire you.

"This is just another drive. It is an opportunity for you all, free men who have not suffered the abominable evils of seeing your country occupied and destroyed by the enemy. Do your part freely as members of the same family of free men who know, without any compulsion, how to take decisions and assume responsibilities."

"Canada has given through her fighting boys a wonderful example of gallantry and fortitude. Your boys, your brothers, your loved ones — ask them what they have seen, what they have witnessed, and I am quite sure that all your hear from them would be of great inspiration and that the National Clothing Collection will be in Canada an unprecedented success as an expression of Canada's sense of fraternal solidarity to the freedom loving peoples and to the cause of liberty."

To most men experience is like the stern light of a ship, which illumine the track it has passed. —Coleridge.

Nor deem the irrevocable Past, As wholly wasted, wholly vain, If, rising on its wrecks, at last To something nobler we attain. —Longfellow.

Though War Over Sugar Still Short.

Now that surrender terms are being signed with Japan, hopes are entertained for the removal of more controls and rationing restrictions. However, sugar rationing is expected to remain in force for at least another year and the most optimistic do not look for normal productions until 1947.

Reports from large sugar producing areas are not at all bright for next year. For instance, Cuba sees no increase because of unfavourable weather and, what they claim "the discouraging purchasing contract" recently offered by the U. S. The Philippines, where many factories were destroyed, except only a partial crop which will provide no sugar for export. Hawaii is suffering its third year of drought. Last year's sugar beet crop in France practically rotted for the lack of coal to process it — the same fuel shortage exists this year. Russia has new processing methods but it will take years before the many sugar factories, destroyed by the Germans, can be restored.

Thus, it can be seen that the vitally needed increase in sugar production will have to come from those countries untouched by war. England is growing more sugar beets than before the war, so Canada and the United States are the only two countries in the allied sugar pool able to increase production in 1946. Canada, this year, could process in its factories 100,000,000 pounds of beet sugar more than it will produce.

Army Red Shield Women's Auxiliary.

A report on the war effort of the Salvation Army Red Shield Women's Auxiliary shows that articles of a retail value conservatively estimated at $2,250,000, were sent overseas. There are 1,500 groups across Canada, made up of approximately 50,000 women, engaged in this work.

Because the need for clothing in devastated Europe is still desperate, the Salvation Army plans to continue this work for a year or more, according to Mrs. Lt.-Col. Florence E. Dray, recently appointed National R.S.W.A. secretary.

More than $1,000,000 articles made up of clothing for bomb victims, for infants and for soldiers and sailors were sent overseas by the R.S.W.A. during the war.

The greater part were made by R. S. W. A. groups from new material. Service wool for comforts for the armed forces was largely supplied by the Government. This is no longer being provided. Also, a number of excellent quality articles of children's clothing were made over by group members and from good used material.

"Reports from Europe tell of widespread suffering through lack of clothing," said Mrs. Dray. "Over there it is the poor who suffer most. Where there is rationing, the poor have the same number of coupons as better off people but they are unable to buy the quality so their clothes do not last. All the articles we send are given away to those in need."

Red Shield Women's Auxiliary groups are actively supporting the National Clothing Drive and all used clothing received during this drive will be turned over.

Made from Wood, Shimmery Rayon Resumes Peace Role

After playing a vital but prosaic role in war, rayon, the silk made from wood, has resumed its glamor and brilliant hues to provide beauty and charm to people at peace. Wood pulp is processed in rayon plants (at left) into gossamer yarn which is woven (centre) into cloth for the manufacture of a variety of articles including dresses, gloves, hosiery and hats (right). Upholstery of lasting beauty is also made from rayon.

Women's Opinions of Meat Tokens.

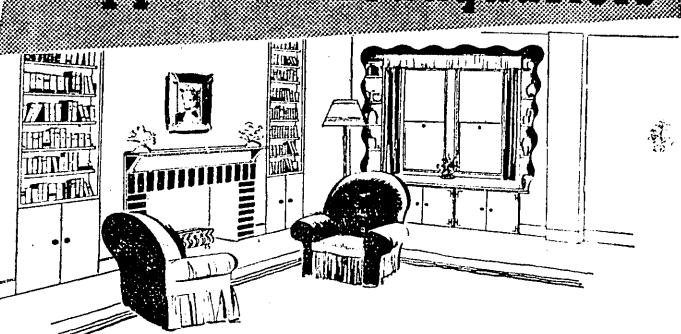

The women are finding meat tokens a boon to aid in the buying of meat according to Mrs. J. D. Detwiler, chairman of the Consumer Branch committee for Western Ontario. These tokens enable small families to buy sufficient quantities of meat without feeling they are expending too much of the coupon for purchases, Mrs. Detwiler said.

Any woman who fails to make use of these tokens is only cheating herself and family out of her rightful quota of meat. She is able to budget her meat supply for the week to the very best advantage, and is rapidly becoming familiar with the approximate amounts of meat she can obtain for various numbers of tokens.

There is another advantage to taking the coupon for purchases, Mrs. Detwiler pointed out.

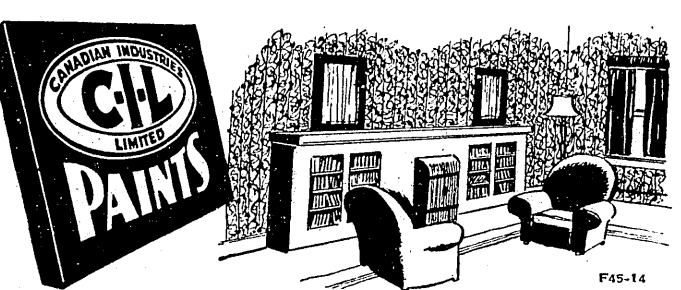

ons that makes visiting even with meat rationing no embarrassment to the guest and no trial to the hostess. When visiting for a week-end now a few tokens can be taken along and left with the hostess. In this way one feels forced to give upon one's weekend visit and yet the visitor will be relieved that she can in some measure compensate her hostess for using the meat from her own limited ration. Mrs. Detwiler pointed out.

Essex I. O. D. E. Meet.

The needs of the Sanatorium for tubercular patients at Windsor, were explained by Mrs. Gordon Wickett, president of the Sanatorium Committee, at the October meeting of the Col. Talbot of Essex Chapter, held at the residence of Mrs. Everett Richardson, on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Wickett, who has given years of excellent service in support of the Sanatorium, told the members that this hospital is the only hospital in Canada entirely run by women and supported by the I.O.D.E. When the I.O.D.E. was first organized in the county, the members decided to build a hospital at Union-on-the-Lake for tubercular patients. This building was destroyed by fire in 1913 and the present hospital in Windsor was erected to take care of the growing need for a sanatorium.

For the past few years the sanatorium has operated in the red and there is urgent need of increased support for the work from all chapters of the I.O.D.E. organization. While the Ontario Government makes a liberal grant on a per patient basis, this is not sufficient to cover operating expenses, Mrs. Wickett explained. Operative methods of treatment which cut in half the time spent in the San by the patient, has been very successful, she said.

Mrs. Wickett also stressed the need of a teacher for school age patients who were able to receive education but were missing years of school because there was no teacher for this purpose.

Melba Billing provided a delightful interlude of music by two piano instrumentals, "Gavotte," from the French suite by Bach and "Rhapsody," by Eckstein.

In appreciation of several years as regent of Col. Talbot Chapter, Mrs. W. O. Laing, who is leaving town, was presented with a gift, Mrs. Geo. R. Weller making the presentation.

After a short business meeting, conducted by Mrs. A. H. McLaughlin, Vice-Regent, tea was served by the hostess, Mrs. O. H. Bricker won the mystery box.

Manchester-Rieve Nuptials.

Dahlias, chrysanthemums, asters and burning tapers formed the setting in Epworth United Church, Kingsville, on Saturday, at 3 p.m., for the marriage of Onnelme Marguerite, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rieve, of Kingsville, and Harry Manchester, of Leamington, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jason Manchester, of Essex. The Rev. J. T. Flemming officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of eggshell satin, made with a fitted bodice, a sweet heart neckline, and a very full skirt extending into a train. Her long sleeves of Grecian lace ended in points on her hands, and her embroidered veil fell in graceful folds from an embroidered tiara trimmed with orange blossoms, and extended over the train of her gown. She carried white chrysanthemums and her only ornament was a necklace of her grandmother's pearls.

Mrs. Ross Rieve, sister-in-law of the bride, as matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of dusty blue brocade sheer. Her three-quarter-length veil of matching illusion was caught to her head in a braided coronet, and she carried a shower bouquet of deep pink chrysanthemums.

Miss Marjorie and Miss Marjorie Newman, nieces of the groom, as junior bridesmaids, were gowned alike in dusty pink moire and wore matching ruffled headresses trimmed with small pink flowers. They carried yellow chrysanthemums.

Garnet Stevenson, of Cottam, assisted the groom as best man, and the ushers were Ross Rieve, brother of the bride, and Wilfred Sycamore, of Windsor.

The wedding music was played by Miss Marjorie Allen, while Miss Mary Lewis sang "O Promise Me" and "Yours Is My Heart Alone."

A reception followed in the church hall for 75 guests. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake in a bed of tulle dotted with pink and white asters flanked by burning tapers. Mrs. Rieve chose for her daughter's wedding, a fuchsia, crepe dress, black accessories and corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Alton Newman, sister of the groom, chose a black crepe dress, black accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Manchester left on a motor trip east, the bride travelling in a blue two-piece wool dressmaker suit, with a matching top coat and wearing brown accessories and a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums.

Upon their return they will reside in Leamington.

Mr. Manchester recently returned from overseas after being over there for five years, having been a prisoner of war after Dieppe.

Super-Gray Nuptials.

At a lovely fall wedding, in Temple Baptist Church, Windsor, Miss Mary Florence Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin B. Gray, of Hall avenue, Windsor, became the bride of M. Sgt. Bruce Raymond Soper, recently discharged from the U. S. Army Air Force after serving in the European theatre of operations, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Soper, of Ottawa street, Windsor. The Rev. L. J. Pyne, assisted by the Rev. H. R. Nobles, performed the ceremony, in a setting of glad-oli, with burning cathedral tapers casting a soft glow over all.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in traditional white satin, the bodice styled with a sweetheart neckline and fastened down the back with self-covered buttons from neck to hemline. The long sleeves formed points over her hands. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was held in a coronet of white net, and she carried an arm bouquet of white baby chrysanthemums and roses. She wore pearls, the gift of the groom.

Mrs. Chester Stotts, as her sister's matron of honour, wore a floor-length gown, the bodice of black velvet scalloped onto the full skirt of aquamarine net-over-taffeta. Her shoulder-length veil of aquamarine net was held in a band of yellow chrysanthemums and she carried an arm bouquet of the same flowers.

Miss Bette Hyttenrauch in blue and Miss Elaine Burke, in pink, as bridesmaids, were gowned identically to the matron of honour. Their shoulder-length veils, matching their gowns, were held in bands of bronze chrysanthemums, and they carried arm bouquets of the flowers.

Neil Soper assisted his brother as best man and Dwight Soper, another brother of the groom, and Cpl. Donald Gray, brother of the bride, were ushers. Mrs. Pyne, wearing a black velvet gown, sang "O Promise Me," and "Because" during the signing of the register, accompanied by Hugh Soper, another brother of the groom, who played the wedding music.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gray, Jefferson Boulevard, Riverside, where the bride's table was centred with the three-tiered wedding cake in a bed of bronze chrysanthemums, flanked by burning white candles. The table was laid with an attractive ecru lace cloth.

Mrs. Gray chose for her daughter's wedding a black frock, fashioned with an aquamarine yoke, sequin-trimmed. She wore a black sequin hat and pink roses. Mrs. Soper, mother of the groom, wore a brown crepe frock, with brown and gold accessories and yellow chrysanthemums.

Later M. Sgt. and Mrs. Soper left on a motor trip east, the bride travelling in a pastel blue gabardine suit, with a white parachute silk blouse sent from Germany, and black accessories, and corsage of baby mums and roses. Upon their return they will reside in Windsor.

Canada's Greatest Victory Loan Opens on Monday

Canada's Ninth Victory Loan will be launched next Monday, October 22nd. J. R. Morris, K.C., Leamington, will again be chairman of the Essex County campaign, and C. G. Fletcher, K.C., of Leamington, and Achille Mousseau, of Woodslee, vice-chairman. Mayor P. H. Fader, of Leamington, will be in charge of the Public Relations section of the county, and Angus McKenney, of Essex, will be chairman of the Agricultural Sales. George R. Weller, of Essex, is to be chairman of the General Sales section, C. S. Bennett, of the H. J. Heinz Co., of Canada, will again be chairman of the Pay Roll Savings section and Frank R. Bear, of Stokely-Van Camp of Essex, will be chairman of the Group Pay Roll section.

The general sales objective for the county has been set at $3,350,000, the highest of any Victory Loan to date. The objective of Pay Roll Savings is $250,000, and the Special Names objective is $500,000.

The County, as in the past, has been broken up into fourteen separate canvassing districts. Following is a list of the different districts, showing the district chairmen and the objective set for each area:

Sandwich West and La Salle, A. A. Marentette, $175,000; Sandwich South, J. G. Hennin, $30,000; Maidstone Twp. and St. Clair Beach, Achille Mousseau, $175,000; Belle River and Rochester Township, Alfred D. Lalonde, $125,000; Comber and Tilbury North and West, F/Lt. E. C. Ainslie, D.F.C., A.F.C., $125,000; Amherstburg, Maiden and Anderson, Elwood MacDonald, $410,000; Town of Essex, George R. Weller, $250,000; Colchester North, M. N. Rounding, $50,000; Harrow and Colchester South, Dr. E. A. Carr, $230,000; Cottam and Gosfield North, John C. Montgomery, $120,000; Kingsville and Gosfield South, Kenneth Rae, $455,000; Merea Township, Ray Young, $430,000; Pelee Island, Henry Rahm, $55,000; Town of Leamington, Fred Mayhew, $650,000.

Essex County, as a whole, has a very vital part to play in the post-war loan. Never during the war years was there a stronger reason for supporting the Victory Loan Campaign, because our military forces in occupied countries must be maintained; our fighting men

Ration Coupon Due Dates.

Coupons now valid are sugar 45 to 65; butter 116 to 126; preserves, 33 to 57; P1 to P19; meat, M1 to M7.

Sugar Rations for Discharged Personnel.

All service personnel whose application for ration books is dated on or before October 31st may obtain the twenty coupons for sugar for rationing, according to an announcement of W. Harold McPhillips, prices and supply representative for Western Ontario. Further than this, Mr. McPhillips said that all ration books issued to discharged men and women after October 31st and up to December 31st of this year should contain ten extra preserves coupons for sugar for rationing. This would be over and above the current preserves coupons which would be in the book.

Offer Free Plans for Root Cellar.

Although there are many effective ways of storing root crops on the farm, the root cellar has proved one of the best, particularly in districts where low temperatures are common. A root cellar is not costly to build, and what only there is will soon be repaid in the saving of roots and vegetables from loss and waste through moisture and decay. Only lumber and materials at hand may be utilized.

To the farmer who has a root cellar, the time has come once more to make certain that the ventilating system will be in working order during the coming winter. To the farmer who has not a root cellar and is thinking of making one, the Dominion Department of Agriculture has made available publication 708 entitled "A Practical Root Cellar." In it are specifications of plans for a farm root cellar, ground floor and front elevations, together with information and directions as to material, location, temperature, humidity, and ventilation. A copy may be obtained by writing to Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES.

By Dean Wilson.

It can be reported that the principal topic of conversation both inside the House of Commons and outside where ever members happen to congregate seems to be this country's annual financial statement which Canada's Minister of Finance, Hon. J. L. Isley, has had to prepare in a manner that would attempt to satisfy as many people as possible, though it must be admitted that to please all taxpayers would be an impossibility under present conditions. Nevertheless, it is held in Ottawa that no official document could stress more at this time the fact that changes in the world are bound to affect the general economic conditions not merely of this nation in her dealings with other nations but the particular economic fate of the individual in this country. In short, everyone in Canada will be affected directly or indirectly by the developments on the international scene in peacetime as in wartime.

Far too many people in Canada, it appears from information in Ottawa, seem to be under the wrong impression what the actual cessation of actual hostilities has brought in its wake or what is meant by peacetime under present world conditions which are not normal by any stretch even of the imagination.

"I think it is essential at the beginning to realize that war expenditures proper must continue for some time after the actual end of hostilities," said in part the Canadian Minister of Finance, Hon. J. L. Isley, in a speech in Parliament. This is an extremely important statement because it infers clearly that while the actual fighting has stopped, yet an estimate of the probable income as well as expenditure of Canada for the following year of so-called peacetime will reflect anything but normal conditions. There are still very large bills to be paid for Canada's armed forces at home or abroad and these must be provided with pay, allowances, shelter, food, clothing and other supplies, especially for the forces of occupation of enemy territories. There are still very large bills to be paid for the process of demobilization of forces in gratuities, re-establishment credits, etc. There are still very large bills to be paid on account of the sudden termination of the war production schedule in reimbursing contractors for costs which they had incurred or for cancelled contracts. There are still very large bills to be financed for more indirect costs of the war, such as, for instance, the costs of subsidies and the expenditures to keep away inflation, with other huge bills being incurred in settlement of outstanding countries, particularly the United Kingdom and the United States.

Therefore, though this country is gradually returning to what may be termed a peacetime position, yet Canada will not reach a normal peacetime situation for some months, at least, with very heavy expenditures likely to continue with these affecting the nation's economy as well as that of the individual within it on account of many uncertain amounts involved and unforeseen contingencies anticipated. Indeed, the number and amounts of a substantial continuing costs of the war in the figures showing the Federal Government's expenditures until March 31st, 1946, as revealed in the official financial statement to the Minister of Finance in Ottawa, are most impressive to any veteran observer of national affairs in Ottawa.

Indicative of this fact, are the amounts needed for the armed services, such as $1,063,170,527 for the army, $299,528,667 for the navy, $908,457,116 for the air force, and $16,998,878 for sundry services. Likewise, there are other signs of the war in the requirements of $30,000,000 for repatriation of prisoners of war, $16,100,000 for Administration of War-time Prices and Trade Board, $100,000,000 for Commodity Prices Stabilization Corporation, $282,000,000 for the Department of Munitions and Supply, $449,699 for the National War Labour Board and Regional Boards, $245,706 for the Canadian Postal Corps, $5,724,714 for Increased Activities of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police due to the war and Security Control Service, $796,000 for the War-time Information Board, $640,092 for Rehabilitation Committee, $71,703,051 for the Veterans Affairs Department, and many others.

In conclusion, these facts emphasize that peace prevails but it cannot be reported that, in so far as Canada's annual financial statement is concerned, actual normal conditions of peacetime exist, with the latter not likely to be forthcoming for some months, at least, if not longer, since the general economic conditions in the world are directly affecting this nation's economy, this in turn producing effects in the economic affairs of the individuals within Canada.

Though plans for a conference of the Senate and House of Commons in Ottawa for the purpose of increasing the usefulness of the Senate have been suggested in Parliament, yet Canada's acting Prime Minister, Hon. J. L. Isley, has rejected the idea on the ground that the Speakers of the Senate and the House of Commons are in consultation continuously on the operations or functions of the Upper and Lower Chambers so that there appeared to be no need for such a conference. However, it may be reported at this time that, particularly throughout the war period, the Canadian Senate seemed to be doing remarkably little, though the Senate did not do much even before the war. During the war, legislative action involved considerable questions pertaining to the raising of money, and, since the Senate could not originate such legislation, its operations decreased rapidly. Indeed, the lack of work of the Senate has been and is a topic of much conversation backstage in Ottawa, with some changes being inevitable sooner or later in the Upper Chambers' functions.

With no less than a record number of 84 veterans amongst the Members of Canada's 20th Parliament, there is no doubt that the interests of these former members of the nation's fighting forces will be well protected in the composition of the special committee of Parliament which is being set up to look after all phases of veterans' affairs. In fact, the actual choice of members of this special veterans' committee of Parliament will be a most difficult task due to the unusually large number of men available for the assignment amongst the membership of the House of Commons. In any case, it is recognized in Ottawa that veterans' affairs will be well watched. When the question of the establishment of this special committee was raised in the House of Commons, Veterans Affairs Minister Mackenzie stressed that similar bodies in the last Parliament had carried on without a tinge of partisanship and in close co-operation. In other words, it is hoped that the special veterans' committee of this 20th Parliament is facing a tremendous task, considering the numerous patterns of its operations, orders-in-councils, Pensions Act, preference for veterans in the Civil Service, veterans in Parliament, aside from the type of these highly qualified representatives, is an assurance of the very best interests of veterans far beyond any previous deeds in other Parliaments or in other countries.

"When I see how long it takes to get something done that everybody wants done, I wonder if the mothers who are used to making quick decisions every day, could not do better," said in part Mrs. Gladys Strum, only woman member of Canada's Parliament. In the course of a speech in the capital where she stated that she wished there were more women in Parliament not because they are better than men but, she felt, that they certainly couldn't be any worse. . . . Notwithstanding the story that British wives of Canadian servicemen discharged from the forces were "penalized" abroad, yet it is indicated in Ottawa that an Order-in-Council had paid clearly and specifically that payments of dependents' allowances should be continued during the interval until transportation to Canada had been arranged so that, when a serviceman has been discharged and application for transportation requested, allowances are continued until dicting the "peniless" angle of the story about British brides of Canadian servicemen. . . . "War with Russia is not inevitable and I don't think we should even think of it. An understanding with Russia is not only possible but certain each other," said the leader of the C.C.F., M. J. Coldwell, M.P., in Ottawa, with the remark that he had had personal experiences or knowledge about Soviet Russia during his close contact with the delegates where Mr. Caldwell was one of Canada's most prominent representatives. Such optimism exists apparently in Ottawa regarding railway affairs. (Reproduction prohibited, 1945, Fed. in the coming year of 1946 that it is a Feature Syndicate).

Letter from Overseas.

The following interesting letter was received by Mrs. Hunter Harrow, from their son Dave, of the R.C.A.F.:

October 1st, 1945.

Dear Mom and the Rest—I have letters from all of you and if I get time I will answer them all separately. I am so sorry I have not written before, but we have been on an India trip for the last eleven days. I wrote you one letter in Lydda but I don't know if it will reach you okay or not.

It is sure nice to be back in England again because it was a little too warm along the route. In the city of Karachi (India) things seem to be in a bad state. Cows are sacred and therefore roam the streets at will. There is no end of beggars crawling along the streets and women with babies in arms going around with a cup for money. Young boys and men try to sell knives, etc., along the streets. They ask 22 pence and you can get them down to six without any trouble. Bootblacks put stuff on your shoes and then try to get you to put some red stuff on your shoes. If you don't let them shine your shoes, at all the time and it does not cool down in the evening. You have to be very careful what you eat too, or you find yourself with a case of dysentery.

We stopped one day at Lydda (Palestine) so we hitch hiked into Jerusalem for the day. We went through the old city and saw where Christ was crucified and we were in the Holy Sepulchre. We saw the walling wall where people were crying and bowing in reverence. We saw some paper in the cracks and the guide said that people wrote on some paper and stuck it in the wall as a message to God. The walling wall is the only wall which is left of the Castle of Solomon.

We spent one day in Castle Benito, so went into Tripoli for the day. We ate in the Officers' Club there and the meal was really good. We had an egg on beefsteak with canned peas and potatoes.

We arrived here last night and we are leaving again on Monday. We are off till Saturday morning, so I think I will go to London for a couple of days.

So long for now. Love, DAVE.

Corn Controls Removed.

The freezing order on the sale of corn which was imposed last July has been lifted, according to the regional foods office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. The sale of corn in Ontario and Quebec elevators or held by processors in these provinces will now be permitted.

By lifting the restrictions, remaining stocks of the 1944 corn may now be distributed to food processors through normal channels. . . . hoped that an announcement will be made at about the start of the year of a lifting of restrictions on reduced railway fares. This has become known in this capital. . . . After serving in the ranks of the public service for almost a quarter of a century, Stanley G. Nelson has been appointed in Ottawa as a Civil Service Commissioner, this causing Canada's Civil Service Commission to be composed now of an all non-political body since none of the others were political appointees. . . . The chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, Don Gordon, has had a taste of housing problems himself since it can be reported from Ottawa that he himself has sold his fine home in the Capital's exclusive section of Rockcliffe and moved into a modest apartment. . . . According to H. A. Glover, representing United States bituminous coal operators, if Canada produced no coal and trebled her consumption, it would not result in a price increase. He made this assertion in Ottawa, where he explained that there was been competition in the United States for the Canadian coal.

Such optimism exists apparently in Ottawa regarding railway affairs. (Reproduction prohibited, 1945, Fed. in the coming year of 1946 that it is a Feature Syndicate).

Sound at Heart.

The other day an observer in England remarked, "The British came out of the war tired, cross and impoverished."

He was referring to the people of the British Isles.

If he were doing his observing here he might use a current wise crack and say, "The Canadians came out of the war tired, cross, period."

Such an observation might be justified. Located far from the scenes of battle, Canadian homes, factories, public services, remained intact throughout the war. Thus this country was able to satisfy the demands of a war-hungry machine. And in so doing Canadian citizens earned money on a scale never equalled here before. Right now, in addition to holding several billion dollars worth of Victory Bonds, Canadian citizens have a total in savings banks accounts which is the highest in the history of Canada.

A critic might label us "cross and tired." But if he really knew us, he would not describe us as ungrateful or selfish.

Confirmation of our true national spirit will be forthcoming in the Ninth Victory Loan campaign. To provide for the civil re-establishment of our men who fought and to provide at least a little of the goods which impoverished people across the Atlantic must have to survive, our people will buy bonds as enthusiastically in the Ninth campaign as they did in the previous eight Victory Loan campaigns.

Banquet at 7 p.m. and reception at 8.30 p.m. A good program is assured and we expect O. E. Fleming, of Windsor, who travelled extensively overseas as Can. Legion Auxiliary Officer during the war, to be our guest speaker. A real treat is in store for all who come out to welcome our boys home.

Bonus Amicus Club Plans Tea

Mrs. Richard Ruston opened her home to the Bonus Amicus Club for its October meeting, which took the form of a Halloween party. Mrs. Albert Olaf presiding for the business session, and arrangements were made for a contribution tea at the church, on November 7th. Mrs. Earl Stowe led the devotional period, and Mrs. Lawrence Armstrong gave an interesting talk on the life of Madame Chiang Kai-Shek.

Mrs. Arthur Ruston was elected president of the club following the resignation of Mrs. Olaf, who is moving to Windsor, and Mrs. Clifford Rice was elected first vice-president. Costumes were judged, and the prize was awarded to Mrs. Ray Robinson, dressed as a baby.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Preedy, of Canfield, Ont., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Miller.

Mrs. Roy Woolley, of Mt. Clemens, Mich., is a guest this week at the home of her brother, C. R. Allison.

Services on Sunday at the following hour: 10 a.m.; Woodslee, 11 a.m., to which all people are invited. Please remember Sunday school and Children's Story Hour.

Woodslee Harvest Home Services on Sunday, October 14th, were well attended, with the church being filled to capacity in the morning, and a good congregation at night. Rev. Dr. A. E. Thomson, gave two earnest and thought-provoking messages. On Tuesday evening Woodslee enjoyed one of its most successful suppers. The crowds were good and about $340 was taken in. The concert was one of the best, being put on by Misses Karr and Corbin, of Detroit, and Mr. Tarleton and his choir boys from Windsor. Mr. Tarleton is the choir leader of St. Mary's Anglican Church, Walkerville. Mr. C. R. May, along with Mr. and Mrs. Whyton, of Windsor, were also among the artists. One interesting item of the program was the presentation of gifts to the boys on behalf of the returned men. The following receiving gifts: Returned men—W. Dewhurst, R. C. Mansell, Otis Vetter, Donald Ebbinghaus, William Stow, John Levy, Ray Tarleton, Jim Allison, Charles Holt, Ralph Baker, Albert Olaf, Bert Myles, Dale Smith. Boys who were in service in Canada—Clifford Ruston, Earl Montgomery, Arthur Totten, W. Vollans, Burns Hedge, Harold Hedge. After the presentation Rev. Harold Parr, United Church minister, gave a very stimulating and forceful message on how to treat the returned man and also referred to the responsibility resting upon them as well as upon the civilian in building a new and better world.

Harvest Home Services and supper will go down in the history of the church as one of the most successful events for many a year. The president, Mrs. C. Roberts, on behalf of the W. A. V., wishes to say thank you to all who cooperated in such a splendid way and worked so hard during the supper hours.

Harrow Defeats Thornbury.

Harrow drew first blood Sunday as the O.B.A. Intermediate "B" final series got under way against Thornbury, at Harrow. The game, witnessed by a very large crowd, was won by a 2-1 score, as Harrow's Gordie Wright and Thornbury's "Smoky" Smith teamed up in a real pitcher's battle.

Hurlers Plenty Tough. Neither hurler walked a man and both struck out 13. Smith gave up six hits to Wright's eight. There was no scoring until the eighth inning when all of the game's runs were scored, three, all unearned.

With two out, Thornbury counted its only tally. Fawcett was safe at first when Webster missed Wright's throw of his roller to the mound. Fawcett stole second and scored when Cornwell dropped May's fly to left.

Harrow won the game in the bottom half of the eighth, when Wright was safe at first on Loughheed's error. Sinasac forced him at second, Fawcett to left, McKenzie singled to left, took second on a passed ball. Herd, batted for Cornwell and popped into the hands of the plate. Sinasac scored on the play and McKenzie took third. McKenzie attempted to steal home on the first pitch and when Smith dropped the ball, he was safe at the plate with the winning marker.

The second game of the best two out of three games series was played in Thornbury on Wednesday.

MAIDSTONE

The losing side of the penny contest of the Maidstone Women's Institute, will tender the winners a Halloween party at the home of Mrs. J. E. Kerr, in Maidstone, on Friday evening, October 26th, at 8.30 p.m. Please come in costume, and come for a good time.

There was a splendid attendance at the regular meeting of the Maidstone W. I. held recently at the home of Mrs. Charles Simpkins, with the president, Mrs. J. W. Simpson, presiding. Interesting reports were given by the various committees and two new members were welcomed. During the summer months the ladies have been busy preparing for a bazaar which, as in other years, will be held in Essex Public Library. This year the date is Saturday afternoon, November 17th. Mrs. Simpson's side won the penny contest, and the losing side, with Mrs. Keith Howard, as leader, are planning a Halloween party, details of which will be announced later. Following the meeting a delicious lunch was served, and a social half hour enjoyed. Those assisting the hostess were Mrs. Bill Wilson and Mrs. Garnet Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lawhead, son of H. C. Lawhead and the late Mrs. Lawhead, returned home from overseas on Labour Day, and last week received his honourable discharge at London. He enlisted in December, 1941, going overseas in May, 1942. In March 1944 he married Maria Fellowes, in Glasgow, Scotland, who hasn't arrived in Canada as yet. Mr. Lawhead went to France in 1944, serving with the Canadian 4th Division in the 5th Anti-Tank Regiment, Royal Canadian Artillery. In January 1945 he was wounded by an aerial buzz bomb. After being hospitalized a number of days he again rejoined his unit, serving in Germany until late February, when he was wounded a second time by a sniper's bullet, through the left shoulder, and left V-E day. He visited Scotland on leave in May and returned to the Canadian army in Holland, receiving his draft for Canada in July and arriving in Windsor September 3rd, 1945.

Mr. and Mrs. William Troy are enjoying a vacation in London and Strathroy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson and son, of Windsor, were recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Blanchard.

Mrs. Henry Vixior, who underwent a serious operation at Grace Hospital, Windsor, the latter part of last week, is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Reanne moved last week to East Windsor.

Mrs. Ruth Martin motored here from Toledo and spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Mary Martin, and her brother Daniel.

Don't forget the annual chicken supper of St. Simon and Jude Church, Belle River, on Thursday, October 25th. Supper will be served at the Wellington Hotel, from 5 p.m. until all guests are taken care of. Tickets $1.00.

Al. Riley, of Detroit, recently purchased the lake front home of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Caswell.

Hold Joint Meeting. A joint meeting of the W. M. S. and Ladies' Association of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Puce, was held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Hoffstedter.

Mrs. Crozier opened with hymn 374, Miss Cora Ruth leading in prayer, then all repeated the Lord's Prayer. Hymn 553, then a prayer by Mrs. Stanley Major. Mrs. William Wallace had the Bible reading, 1st Chronicles, verses 23 to 24. Miss Bella Innis had the offering prayer.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Tom Groves, on November 8th, with Major, the Rev. A. B. Ransom as speaker.

A Mission Band rally is to be held at St. Andrew's Church, Windsor, on October 27th, at 7 p.m.

Mrs. Samuel Hamilton and Mrs. Gordon Hoffstedter are the nominating committee at the November meeting for election of officers for 1946.

Boy Killed by Truck.

One of three boys who were struck by a pickup truck on Walker road, Windsor, late Saturday night, Bernard Drouillard, aged 15, of McGregor, died enroute to Hotel Dieu Hospital, Windsor.

Francis Morency, one of his two chums, was taken to the hospital with a double fracture of the pelvis and other injuries. The third boy, Norman Meloche, aged 12, suffered multiple small cuts to the head but was released by the hospital.

Wilbert Smith Passes.

Wilbert Smith, aged 65, passed away at his late home on the North Rear Road, Gosfield North Township, today (Thursday) at 11 a.m., following a week's illness. He had not, however, been in good health for some years.

Deceased, who had farmed all his life, is survived by six children, Harrison, of Detroit; Iva (Mrs. George Welton), of Colchester North; Irene (Mrs. Don Cook) of Leamington; Alta (Mrs. Howard Myles) and Gladys (Mrs. Harry Kreuter) at home, and Harriett (Mrs. Allan Leal) of Windsor; also a brother Delmar, of Winnipeg, Man., and two sisters, Mrs. Earl Whittle and Mrs. Gordon Whittle, both of Leamington.

Resting at his late residence, where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Burial will be in North Ridge cemetery.

PAQUETTE

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwards desire to express their sincere thanks to the Ladies' Guild of St. Stephen's church for their kindly donation of fruit. We are happy to say Mr. Edwards is improving after his recent serious accident.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holden. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Webster were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Webster, Windsor.

Twenty-one ladies were present at the regular meeting of the Ladies' Guild of the Church of the Redeemer, held at the home of Mrs. Howard Holden, on Thursday afternoon, October 11th.

The meeting took the form of a "Brush Tea" with Mrs. Colley, of Windsor, demonstrating the merits of "Wear Ever" brushes. The hostess served a delicious lunch at the close.

At Roseland Hall, on Friday evening, October 26th, the members of St. Stephen's parish are sponsoring a Welcome Home party in honour of a number of their boys and girls who have served with the Armed Forces. Progressive euchre starts at 8.15, followed by lunch and dancing. Come and bring your friends.

Final arrangements were completed by Redeemer V.A., at the home of Miss Eunice Vollans, on Thursday last, for their social evening, to be held in the Orange Hall, on Tuesday evening, October 23rd. Respective committees were named to take care of novelty table, program, lunch and cleaning the hall. Although Mr. Dunn, the guest speaker, is leaving this district to accept a position in Toronto, he has assured us he will be present. The public is very cordially invited. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess to eighteen members and three guests to close the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Edwards attended the wedding of Miss Shirley Lewis and Bruce Thibodeau, in Sacred Heart Church, Windsor, on Saturday morning, and the reception following at the Beach Grove Country Club.

Deepest sympathy is extended Mr. and Mrs. Norman Drouillard and family, of McGregor, on the sudden death of a beloved son and brother, Bernard.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Golden, of Amherstburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lounsbrough, at the supper hour on Friday.

Hours of Work and Vacations with Pay Act, 1944

The Industry and Labour Board which administers The Hours of Work and Vacations with Pay Act, considers, in view of the termination of hostilities and the cancellation of war production, the acute manpower shortage which existed during the war years will be minimized, therefore the postponement as to working hours previously provided shall be cancelled and effective November 1st, 1945, the working hours of an employee in any industrial undertaking shall not exceed forty-eight (48) in the week.

1. Regulation 4 of Ontario Regulations 8/44 is amended by adding thereto the following subregulation:

(1a.) Notwithstanding the provisions of subregulation 1, an employer may adopt one or more overtime work periods in his industrial undertaking between the 1st day of November 1945 and the 31st day of December 1945 without a consent in writing of the Board, but the overtime shall not exceed thirty hours in the aggregate.

When will I get NEW TIRES?

... AND WILL THEY STAND UP?

A definite "yes" is Firestone's answer to the second question. Wilbur Shaw, the famous race driver, proved it when he drove Firestone tires 500 miles at an average speed of 100.34 miles per hour over the Indianapolis Speedway—equal to 50,000 miles of ordinary driving.

WHEN you can buy new tires depends largely on UNRULY demands and rationing authorities. But you can be sure that once Firestone is given the go-ahead signal our full production will be devoted to your needs. In the meantime, your nearby Firestone Dealer will gladly do everything he can to help make your tires last. See him today.

Former Essex Man Killed.

Daniel R. Stevens, aged 26 years, died shortly after midnight Saturday, in Metropolitan Hospital, Windsor, to where he had been rushed by ambulance following an auto accident in which he suffered a fractured skull.

Dan, who had been living with his wife and children in Windsor the past four years, lived in the brick house next to Dr. Brien's, in town, with his mother and sisters, for two or three years prior to moving to the city.

Surviving are his widow, Dorothy, and two young daughters, Joan and Victoria; his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Stevens, of Belle River, and five sisters, Mrs. George Goodman, of Detroit; Mrs. John Jackson and Mrs. Thomas Nicholson, of Hamilton; Mrs. Jessie Goltman and Mrs. Garth Lea, of Belle River.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday from the James H. Sutton Funeral Home, Windsor, conducted by Rev. H. R. Bell, with interment in Windsor Grove cemetery.

E. E. Featherstone Dies.

Elmer E. Featherstone, aged 63 years, of 274 Giles Blvd. East, Windsor, passed away on Saturday, in Hotel Dieu, Windsor, to where he had been removed on Wednesday previous, after being seized with a stroke.

Deceased was born in Hornby, Ont., and after graduating from the Ontario College of Pharmacy, owned and operated a drug store in Essex about 40 years ago, the same one now owned by S. H. Sadler, but which was then in a building standing where A. McBrien's store now is situated. He had lived in Windsor only four years, moving there from Toronto, after travelling for over 25 years for wholesale drug firms.

Surviving are his widow, the former Grace Green, daughter of Mrs. S. J. B. Green, of town, and the late Mr. Green; two sons, Brodie, of Creemore, Ont., and John, of Malartic, Ont., and two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Munroe, of Toronto, and Mrs. Marjory Hunter, of Kitchener.

A funeral service was held at the James H. Sutton Funeral Home, Windsor, on Sunday evening, conducted by Rev. H. M. Paulin. The remains were then shipped to Hornby, where services were held on Monday afternoon, with burial in the church cemetery.

Essex County Campaign Off to a Good Start.

J. R. Morris, K.C., chairman of Essex County Victory Loan Committee, has announced to the Free Press that the returns for the first three days of the loan were the greatest of any Victory loan to date. This is Essex County's greatest loan and Essex County should meet it in a big way. Quite properly this is described as a Victory Loan, stated Mr. Morris, and if the Dominion total hoped for, of $2,000,000,000, is even larger, there is compensation in the fact that it will be the only appeal for the next 12 months, as compared with the semi-annual loans of war years.

There is so much to be done; things which are almost as essential to the future as the winning of the war itself. Thousands of fighting men are still overseas. All must be brought home. Mr. Morris continued, Essex County has been asked to subscribe as a minimum on general canvass $3,350,000 in the 9th loan. The loan must succeed and the executive committee at Leamington feel quite confident that the residents of the county will buy even more freely than in the previous campaigns.

The Town of Essex, Colchester North Twp., Gosfield North, Colchester North, Cottam, St. Clair Beach and Maidstone Township are off to a good start. The results for the first three days are very gratifying to headquarters. Everything we have heard from the organization in the early days of the campaign confirms the belief that the 9th loan will be the outstanding performance in a series of accomplishments. The realization that the 9th loan will provide funds for the constructive purposes of peace rather than the destruction of war has resulted in wide public acceptance. It is also clear that Canadians are determined to prove their gratitude for the cessation of battle.

Citizens of the town of Essex, Colchester North Township, Gosfield North, Cottam, St. Clair Beach and Maidstone Township should crown their long record of successes with the greatest achievement of them all. Individual salesmen have reported many people doubling their purchases. Individuals should get out their wallets and pens and give unstinted financial support to Canada's 9th Victory Loan as the Bonds you buy are signposts along the road to a happier and better future.

Francis R. Gregory, of Leamington, has purchased $25,000 of the 9th Victory Loan.

W. L. Clark, of Leamington, has supported the 9th Victory Loan by subscribing to $60,000 of the new bonds.

Linton-Ellwood Nuptials.

With tall cathedral tapers casting a soft glow over a lovely setting of white chrysanthemums in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Windsor, on Saturday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. H. M. Paulin united in marriage Miss Margaret Elizabeth Ellwood, of Windsor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Ross Ellwood, of Toronto, formerly of London, to William Douglas Linton, recently returned from overseas, where he served as flight lieutenant in the R.C.A.F., son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Linton, of Essex.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gown in white tulle, fashioned with long sleeves tapering into points on her hands, a molded bodice, long, with a sweetheart neckline, and a full skirt extending into a short train, with a bustle effect. Her long veil, an heirloom of her father, edged in lace, fell from a circle of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, chrysanthemums and bouvardia and wore the bridegroom's gift, a string of pearls.

Miss Joan Linton, the bridegroom's sister, as maid of honour, chose aquamarine tulle, floor-length, with a full net overskirt, wore a matching calot and carried bronze chrysanthemums.

Jack Sadler, of Essex, was best man, and Harold MacAdams, of Sarnia, and Arthur McKibbin, of Toronto, were ushers.

A reception at the Manor followed. Mrs. Ellwood chose for her daughter's wedding a Queen's blue crepe dress with black accessories, and a corsage of Lester Hibbert roses. Mrs. Linton, the groom's mother, was dressed in grey crepe, a black hat and red roses.

The bride and bridegroom left later by plane for a wedding trip east, the bride travelling in a fuchsia wool dress with a hat of fuchsia and gray feathers, and a gray topcoat. They will reside in Essex.

The bride is a graduate of Victoria Hospital, London, and the University of Western Ontario.

W. M. S. Sectional Rally at Maidstone.

With their slogan "Forward Together Now" as their watchword, the Women's Missionary Societies of Essex Presbyterial of the United Church met in Maidstone United Church, on Thursday, October 18th, with a large representation from all parts of the county. The devotional exercises for both morning and afternoon sessions were conducted by Mrs. H. Childs, of London, president of London Conference Branch, the morning subject being "The Bible and Missions," and the afternoon, "The Christian Church Consecrated to Service." Mrs. Childs, who is an exceedingly able and fluent speaker, brought to her hearers a great spiritual uplift. "The Bible," she said, "is a missionary book from cover to cover and no one can believe in God and not want to share Him."

A special speaker in the afternoon was Rev. J. T. Flemming, M.A., B.D., of Kingsville who having spent several years as a missionary in Honan, China, and also Formosa and the Canadian West, was able to speak first-hand about the work of the church in these areas. "Christianity is a World Crusade," he said, "and now, more than ever before, the Christian church is called to action."

The Young People's Department of the Presbyterial was ably presented by a panel discussion, in which the following took part: Mrs. G. E. Ashton, of Windsor; Miss E. Hayne, of Windsor; Miss J. H. McQuat, of Cottam, and Mrs. Alvin Raymond, of North Ridge. The Supply work was reported by the Secretary, Mrs. R. S. Bearso, of Windsor, who stated that a total of 1890 lbs. of supplies had been sent to various parts of Canada to assist in mission work. Very interesting reports of the Conference Branch Convention held earlier in the year at Stratford, were given by the delegates, Mrs. E. D. Arner, Harrow, and Mrs. D. R. Jones, Cottam.

Christian Stewardship was brought to the attention of the meeting in a short playlet, directed by Mrs. J. S. Foster, of Cottam. There is no dearth of good literature to help those engaged in missionary work, as evidenced by the great array of books and leaflets on display at the front of the church under the supervision of Mrs. Russell Raymond, Literary secretary.

All People's Mission, Windsor, was represented by the two Mission workers, Miss Adsett and Miss Staples, the latter a former missionary to Japan, who stated that already the doors of Japan are opening and the missionaries are now making plans to return to that country. Other phases of the work presented were: The Missionary Monthly, by Miss Gladys Cox, of Leamington; Associate Helpers, by Mrs. McBride, of Malden; and Christian Citizenship, by Mrs. J. W. Jackson, of Windsor. An interesting and helpful part of the program was "Adventures in the Hymnary," by Mrs. B. Neale, of Gesto.

A hearty vote of thanks was voiced by the Presbyterial president, Mrs. J. C. Pennington, to the Maidstone ladies for their gracious hospitality.

As a fitting conclusion to the day's deliberations, Mrs. Childs, in her closing address on "How Our Society Functions," challenged the women to still greater endeavour. "God is opening doors so fast," she said, "are we going to be able to enter?"

Dinnerware

Come in and see our grand selection of English and Canadian Dinnerware, in services for six, eight and twelve. A few new patterns have just arrived this week. There is an exceptionally gay breakfast set for six called "Garden Spray," which has a large, bright spray of roses and blue flowers perfectly set off by a pure white background and fluted edges. This truly interesting design in the modern manner makes a service you'll be proud to own, and it's only $8.95. We have other dinnerware from $7.95 to $35.00.

The GospelHouse of the Air.

Rev. Reuben A. Houseal is well known to those readers of this column who attended last summer's sessions at Keewahdin Bible Conference. Ever since Houseal's arrival in Port Huron last June he has worked as an assistant to Rev. Ernest Kuhnle, Dr. Kuhnle founded Faith Missionary Church over 35 years ago and still continues as pastor. Since the closing of the summer season Houseal has been laying plans for a radio station hook-up over which to broadcast the Gospel.

REV. REUBEN A. HOUSEAL.

Originally coming from York, Penn., he served as pastor of Bethany Community Church, of Dayton, Ohio, over a period of three years, 1937-40. Prior to the Ohio pastorate he attended three institutions of learning preparatory to the ministry in Philadelphia, Penn., The Bible Institute of Pennsylvania, The Episcopal Arts College of the Fair County of Pennsylvania and The Episcopal Episcopal Theological Seminary.

From June of 1941 until his coming to Michigan, Rev. Houseal served as pastor of Olive Branch Congregational Church at St. Louis, Mo. On Sunday, May 17th, 1942, he inaugurated a series of Sunday evening radio programs of an hour duration. This broadcast was known as The GospelHouse of the Air. This radio ministry is a copyrighted and registered feature with federal recognition as a non-profit organization for the purpose of broad-

Don't Delay Orders for Fertilizers.

Though the war is over there is not much possibility of improvement in connection with the supply and delivery of fertilizer materials for some time to come, the Dominion Department of Agriculture has announced.

With a very heavy demand for fertilizers in Canada, the United States, and from some European countries which must increase food production in order to overcome the serious shortages, the supply is below what is required. At the same time the shortage of box cars is acute. Meanwhile, fertilizer manufacturers in Canada continue to receive their materials in monthly shipments and to keep the plants operating at capacity the finished product must move out from the plants to farmers as quickly as possible.

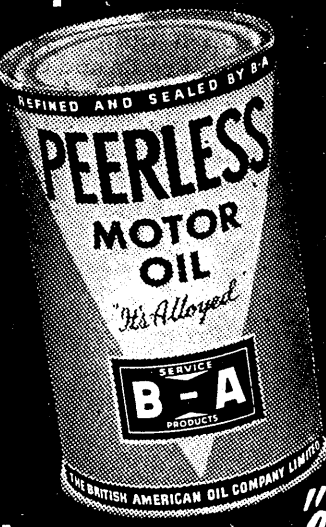

All this means that again this year farmers are urged to place their orders for whatever fertilizers they will require for 1946 as soon as possible, and be ready to take delivery during the months of November, December and January. If a lot of fertilizer is not moved during these months, manufacturers will be unable to meet the demand next year.

The Department says that a farmer can keep most fertilizers indefinitely in fair condition providing they are stored in a dry cool place, not over a stable or on a cement floor. A wood floor covered with alfalfa hay and not piled against a wall is a good place.

casting the Gospel via religious services over the radio. It does not represent any denomination nor does it represent any individual church as such. Its scope is Transdenominational, i.e., people of all the denominations and those of the non-denominational groups take part in the programs. Seeking a larger and more effective field for his radio ministry, Rev. Houseal has brought The GospelHouse of the Air to Michigan.

Beginning on Sunday afternoon, October 21st, The GospelHouse of the Air will be produced by its founder and director from the auditorium of Faith Missionary Church, on Baldwin Avenue at Kirby, in the city of Detroit. This new series of the GLHA will be heard every Sunday afternoon at 5 to 6 o'clock over three radio stations: WJLB (1190 kc.), WJLS (1450 kc.) and Detroit's Frequency Modulation Station WLOU (44.9 mc.).

Emergency Shelter Officers.

The emergency shelter regulations have been extended to include the whole of Canada, according to an announcement by W. Harold McPhillips, prices and supply representative of the Prices Board for Western Ontario. At the same time it was ruled permits to move would no longer be necessary.

The change has been made necessary because of the thousands of returning service personnel and the thousands of men and women formerly employed in war industries who will have to find living quarters in almost all the towns and cities across Canada.

Referring to the expansion from seven cities in Canada to the whole of the Dominion Donald Gordon, chairman of the Prices Board, says, "The housing problem can no longer be localized in a few centres, it is now a national problem."

Fred J. Waud, of London, has been appointed as emergency shelter officer for the Western Ontario region, Mr. McPhillips said. His duties will be to act as liaison officer for the Department of Reconstruction, to actively operate to see that all vacant houses in this region are put to use, and that all available buildings under control of the Army, Government, or the Municipality are used for shelter purposes where necessary. He will work in close co-operation with the municipal authorities, Canadian Legion, and Labour groups.

A Message TO FARMERS from a Farmer

H. H. Hannam is President and Managing Director of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture. In a message addressed to farmers, Mr. Hannam says:

"The farmer who is wise will look ahead and plan carefully.

"And in these years when prices and returns are more satisfactory than they have been, when labor is scarce, when farm machinery is restricted, when building materials are not readily available, a good course to follow would be that of putting a substantial share of the year's earnings into sound securities such as Victory Bonds. These reserves will not only provide a measure of insurance against difficulties in less favorable years, but at such time when supplies are favorable and costs will probably be lower, their purchasing power will be greater and return from them correspondingly increased.

"We believe this is good planning from the farmer's standpoint. At the same time, it is the very best of planning from the standpoint of the Nation."

FARMERS CAN BUY VICTORY BONDS on convenient deferred payments THROUGH ANY BANK

... just sign a short form letter which Victory Loan Salesmen carry (banks have copies) ordering the bank to buy Victory Bonds for you. Pay 5% when ordering and the balance at any time during the next 12 months. The interest the bonds earn pays the interest on the bank loan.

HE'S COMING HOME...

NO NEED to tell him how eager we are to welcome him back.

NO NEED to remind him that Canada's plans for his welfare are as far-reaching and generous as any in the world.

BUT THERE IS NEED to prove that now, with the life-and-death struggle ended, we are as determined and wholehearted as ever in our resolve to give him the best break in the world.

HE WILL BE WATCHING the outcome of this Ninth Loan Drive. He knows that on it depends the success of our plans for his rehabilitation and employment.

There can be only one answer. And that is the overwhelming support, by every Canadian, of Canada's Greatest Victory Loan.

The Woodslee Young People's Union has an invitation to a Halloween party in the Sandwich United Church, on Monday evening, October 29th. Transportation will be provided from the church basement at 50 cents each.

The more the merrier, so make it a date to meet at the church before 8 o'clock.

Maidstone-Recher Red Cross. The regular meeting was held on Tuesday, with only six ladies present. The ladies started to quilt a quilt on which tickets are being sold. This quilt will be drawn for around the first of November. We need all the help of our quilters to finish these in time so we will meet next Tuesday, October 30th, to quilt. Won't you come and bring a lady to quilt with you. Please send in the name and address of any boy who will be overseas in Christmas. Anyone who has any money to put in the collection boxes may bring it in at our next meeting. We need cash on some money. Please offer to take some sewing to do. Plan to quilt the day, October 30th.

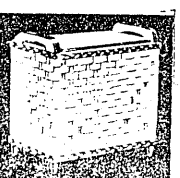

Regular meeting of the Women's Association will be held in the church basement on Thursday, November 1st, 7:30 p.m. All members are urged to be present. Visitors welcome.

Farm Broadcasts. "How Important is Agriculture in Canada?" will be discussed in the first broadcast of National Farm Radio Forum for the 1945-46 program, on Monday, October 29th, at 8:30 p.m. over CKLW, Windsor.

The Woodslee Junior Farmers invite every one interested to join them at their first meeting of the season, in the North Woodslee school hall, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Broadcast, discussion, entertainment, lunch. Come out and let us help you get a Forum in your neighbourhood.

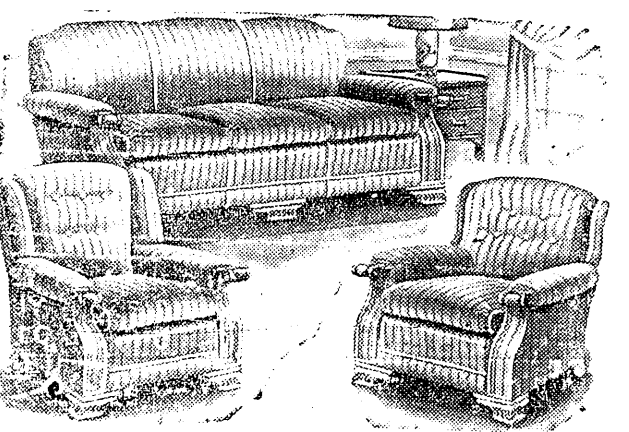

Don't miss the Old Tyme Halloween dance, this Friday evening, October 26th, in the North Woodslee school hall.

United Church Notes. Services at Resonance to a music. Woodlee, 11 a.m., with Sunday school and church story hour as usual. The boys and girls love the story hour. Parents, don't disappoint them, come along with them to the church service. We all have within us a little plant called the soul, which needs watering once a week. The call comes to all young people to join in the great crusade of our church along with others, for Christ and His Kingdom — more especially is this a call to a new dedication to the things of God.

On Sunday morning your minister will tell you the Why and How of this crusade. We want all people to be informed. You filled the church on Harvest Home Sunday, let's do it again on Sunday.

A hearty invitation is extended to our returned men to worship with us. The children's story for Sunday will be The Origin of Halloween.

High School Notes.

The fall season for girls' sports is in full swing, between the two houses — Reds and Golds. During P. T. periods the individual classes play softball against each other, and points are given to the winning team. At the end of the term these points will be added together and the house with the most points will be the winner.

Miss Murphy has written to some of the girls' teams in Windsor, requesting them to book a game with us as soon as possible. We are hoping that these games will put us in shape for our own series after Christmas.

We wish to thank Mr. Ashton for his donation of $10 to the Athletic Association.

The basketball games in the house league will get under way this week. Two teams from the Red House, captained by Alan MacGirr and Frank Rigar, will play a series with two Gold teams, captained by Frank Rigar and Norbert LeBoeuf.

As a result of the field day the Reds have 223 points, as compared with 190 for the Golds. The Golds expect to even the score in basketball, where 5 points for a win and three for a tie are awarded for every game and the league winners can pick up 25 points.

Both the girls' and boys' squads are starting basketball practice this week, in preparation for the county interschool league. The players on the boys' house teams follow:

Reds — F. Kigar, G. Reeb, C. Chodola, J. Orton, F. Steed, A. MacGirr, K. Orton, F. Kendrick, I. Ross, D. Queen.

Golds — F. Raymond, E. Paschian, D. Wagner, M. Rothe, R. Mulheisen, N. LeBoeuf, P. Tuite, B. Cascardi, A. Fair, B. Raymond.

The staff and students of E. H. S. wish to express their appreciation to their friends for the financial success of the refreshment booth at the County Field Day meet. Free use of the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Skinner enabled the girls to prepare a delicious lunch. Mr. Ashton's gift to the girls further swelled the grand total of their funds to fifty-one dollars. This money is used exclusively for purchasing athletic equipment.

Don't miss the Old Tyme Halloween dance, this Friday evening, October 26th, in the North Woodslee school hall.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear husband and father, William Hubert Harrison, who passed away five years ago, October 23rd, 1940.

God knew that you were suffering.

He knew you were in pain.

He knew you never would get better in this world again.

He saw the road was getting rough.

The hill was hard to climb.

So he closed your weary eyelids

And whispered, "Peace be thine."

And while he lies in perfect sleep,

His memory we shall always keep.

—Fondly remembered by his loving wife, children and grandchildren.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of John Eldred

Robson, who passed away two years ago, October 28th, 1943.

He is gone, but not forgotten.

And as dawn another year.

In our lonely hours of thinking

Thoughts of him are always near.

Days of sadness will come o'er us.

Friends may think the wound is healed.

But they little know the sorrow

That lies within the heart concealed.

—Sadly missed by father, brothers and sisters.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Howard Conceare, who passed away one year ago,

October 25th, 1944.

Happy and smiling, always content.

Loved and respected wherever he went.

Always thoughtful, willing and kind.

Beautiful memories he left behind.

—Fondly remembered by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear darling daughter, Doreen McDowell, who passed away one year ago, October

26th, 1944.

Deep in our hearts lies a picture.

Of a loved one gone to rest.

In memory's frame we shall keep it.

Because she was one of the best.

—Always remembered by her aunts and uncles.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear darling daughter, Doreen McDowell, who passed away one year ago, October

26th, 1944.

At night the silent stars look down

On a grave not far from here.

Where sleeps the one we can't forget.

And always loved so dear.

The dearest girl this world could hold.

The cheeriest smile and heart of gold.

To those who know her, all will know.

How much we lost one year ago.

—Ever remembered by Mamma,

Daddy, Ronnie and Grandpa.

Lion of the Tribe of Judah!

You gave your life for each of us. But by your death, won glory. And still you are in reach of us. In all your heavenly glory. You leadeth us along God's way. Of righteousness so fair. O Son of God forever stay And hear our earnest prayer.

Chorus

You'll end all strife, all storms at sea For you are Lord and King. To Thee the world shall bend the knee. To Thee their homage bring.

Chorus

Though storms still rage on land and sea. Your Might and Light give cheer. Oh Lord, o'er us thy presence be We pray that you stay near. Give us not foaming seas nor tides. But Living Waters pure. Our souls, refreshed, our faith abides: Through prayers our sick, you cure.

Chorus

In sunny lands, your angels spread. Midst thieves and selfish foes. Such harvests rare and Living Bread. Our cup of joy o'erflows. Upon your loving ones you send The spirit's anointing oil. O Lord, we cannot comprehend. We pilgrims of the soil.

Chorus

There is no secret thought, nor sin. This man can hide. You see us all without within. Oh Lord be Thou our guide. Teach us the Laws of God and Thee. Not earthly wealth, we crave; Expose the cant of Pharisee. Oh save us from their grave.

"... and someday, WE'LL take a trip!"

SOMEWHERE in the back of your mind, there's that urge to go places. Right now it must be filed under "Future" but it's part of us as Canadians to want to discover for ourselves what the rest of the world is like—to plan for that "some day," when we'll take a trip! That's why it must be part of our planning now, to make sure such pleasant things as trips are possible in the post-war world. And they'll be possible only if we fight against inflation—fight now to keep Canada's dollar worth a full dollar!

Why is NOW so important? Because NOW civilian goods are scarce, money is plentiful. NOW is the time we must guard against paying more than things are worth—against black markets—against buying more than we need, or goods we don't need!

NOW is the time we must support rationing and price controls! Up to the present, we've kept our dollar sound. And we can continue to do so if we keep up a strong, steady fight against inflation!

If we fail in this fight, prices will rise. Wages will never quite catch up. Soon you'll pay, perhaps a dollar for a quarter's worth of goods! And that means your dollar is worth only a quarter! That's inflation.

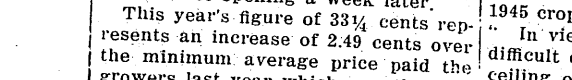

And after inflation, comes depression. Depression means neither you nor anyone else in Canada will have trips. You'll be lucky if you have a job! So, for our own sakes, for the sake of returned men, for our children, let's never relax our struggle to keep Canada's dollar worth a full dollar!

Published by THE BREWING INDUSTRY (ONTARIO) to reveal the dangers of inflation.

Make this Pledge Today!

I pledge myself to do my part in fighting inflation:

- By observing rationing and avoiding black markets in any shape or form.
- By respecting price controls and other anti-inflation measures, and refraining from careless and unnecessary buying. I will not buy two where one will do, nor will I buy a "new" where an "old" will do.
- By buying Victory Bonds and War Savings Stamps, supporting taxation and abiding by all such measures by which the cost of living and help keep prices at a normal level.

Flue Cured Price 33 1/4 Cents.

The price fixing committee of the board of directors of the Ontario Flue Cured Tobacco Marketing Association agreed last week on 33 1/4 cents as the minimum average price of the 1945 flue cured tobacco crop which in Ontario is estimated at approximately 74,876,000 pounds. This is the highest minimum average price set since the board was first formed in 1934.

Ratified at Ottawa.

Following the meeting of the price fixing committee, the agreed figure was ratified by David Sim, of Ottawa, tobacco administrator of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. The board of directors will continue their session for the purpose of completing final details in connection with the operation and opening of the market. It is expected that the market in the Delhi district will open on or before October 30th, with the market in the Essex district opening a week later.

This year's figure of 33 1/4 cents represents an increase of 2.49 cents over the minimum average price paid the growers last year which was the first year in the history of the industry that the price fixing committee failed to reach an agreement, the result of which the market opened without any agreed minimum average price.

This year's price is also an increase of three and a quarter cents over that of 1943, when the minimum average price was 30 cents. With an estimated production of 74,876,040 pounds of tobacco this year, the growers will realize about $24,896,000 from the crop this year, which is about $800,000 less than last year. The acreage this year in 1944 to 72,345 acres, but on account of poor weather conditions the average yield per acre decreased from 1,206 pounds last year to 1,033 this year, with the result that the total production is about 8,500,000 pounds less than last year.

Statement Issued.

Following is the statement issued by Chairman Archie Leitch, following the meeting: "The price fixing committee has agreed upon 33 1/4 cents as the minimum average price for the 1945 crop.

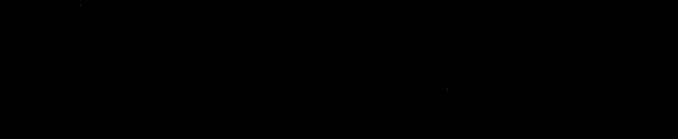

In view of all circumstances, most difficult of which was the retail price ceiling on tobacco in consequence of which many of the manufacturers in the industry who use this tobacco are in a difficult situation, the price can be considered a reasonable compromise and a solution of many difficulties in the industry at the present time.

"It is fully expected that this price is sufficiently large enough to call out a considerable increase in tobacco acreage to be planted next spring.

The growers would be well advised to commence stripping their tobacco immediately in order that the processing plants will not have any interruption in their operations after they have once started.

"The market in the Delhi district will open on or before October 30, while the market in the Essex district will open a week later."

COURT OF REVISION ON ASSESSMENT ROLL.

Monday, October 29th, 1945, on which 1946 taxes are levied, was held in the Council Chamber, at 8 p.m., with Messrs. A. E. Benson, L. W. Allison and James R. Linton present. All members subscribed to their oath of office, and Dr. Benson was appointed chairman.

The Clerk reported five appeals received, from Hector Leboeuf, Mildred McArragher, Mrs. Bellamy, Mrs. Elizabeth Dennis and the British-American Oil Company, all of which were confirmed, with the exception of Mrs. Dennis, which was reduced $100 on building. An amicable division was made in Naylor Lumber Co., the original assessment of $600 being divided $188 to Naylor Lumber Company and $412 to Essex Farmers Limited.

Following is a recapitulation of the roll for 1945:

Mrs. William Boggs Passes.

Mrs. William Boggs, aged 78 years, a lifelong resident of Maidstone Township, passed away at the home of her son, William J. Boggs, No. 3 Highway, at North Ridge, about 10 o'clock this (Thursday) morning, after a lengthy illness.

Deceased, whose maiden name was McMurrin, is survived by three sons, David, of Roseland; Wm. J. of North Ridge, and Joseph, of Sandwich South, and a brother, James McMurrin, at present of Detroit, but formerly of South Woodlee. Her husband predeceased her 19 years ago.

Funeral services will be held from the home of her son, William J., at North Ridge, on Saturday, at 2:30 p.m. Interment will be in Jarrett cemetery, South Woodlee.

Kingsville Wins Protest.

Kingsville ball team won their protest of the game won by Harrow, on Sunday, October 21st, and the game, which is the final for the league championship, will be replayed, at Kingsville this Sunday, at 2 p.m.

The grounds that the game was ordered replayed by the County League Commissioner, Charles Masdel, was a base runner, of Harrow, who was on second, ran in front of the Kingsville shortstop and blocked his view, so that he missed a ground ball hit by a Harrow player, and the visitors went on to score three runs. The rule book states that a base runner must run behind the fielder if the fielder is on the base line.

Interdenominational.

This Sunday, November 4th, at 9 p.m., in Essex United Church, young people of the district will meet for the first Interdenominational Fireside of the season. Elaine Myers will be the chairwoman. Ethel Eede will speak, giving her impressions of a young people's Ecumenical Conference held this summer at Whitby, Ontario; Norma Hill has the story of a well-known hymn to tell; Weldon Findlay is to be the song leader, and Lella Kendrick special soloist. You will enjoy this hour of fellowship. Can we count on seeing you there?

Patrice Gagnon Dies.

Patrice Gagnon, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxine Gagnon, of McGregor, passed away on Friday. Funeral services were held from the family home on Monday morning to St. Clement R. C. church, and burial was in the church cemetery.

Surviving, besides his parents, are six brothers, Adelard, Philias, George, Edmond, Ambroise, of McGregor; and Antoine, of Jacques, Ont.; also eight sisters, Alma, at home; Marie (Mrs. Arthur Labonte) of Comber; Adele (Mrs. Alphonse Levesque), Sister Ste. Urban, Sister Rosaline, and Lina (Mrs. Ben Meloche) all of Windsor; George, and Helen (Mrs. Norman Amlin) of Auld.

Crusade for Christ Rally.

An important rally to stimulate the "Crusade for Christ and His Kingdom" will be held in Cottam United Church, on Wednesday, November 7th, at 8 p.m. This is one of a series of rallies throughout Essex Presbytery and includes the following charges: Essex, Kingsville, Comber, Woodlee, Maidstone and Gesto. Rev. Gordon Lapp, of Toronto, will be the speaker. Three discussion groups will follow: Men's Organizations, Women's Organizations and Youth Organizations.

Mr. Lapp will lead the Youth and J. A. Dowdell, of Essex, and Mrs. C. D. Farquharson, of Comber, have been asked to lead the others. The church is calling:

"Rise up, O men of God!
The Church for you doth wait.
Rise up and make her great."
Her strength unequal to her task:

Remember the date and place —
Wednesday, November 7th, in Cottam United Church.

Pioneer Passes.

In the passing of Eugene A. Sullivan, a lifelong resident of Sandwich Township, in Hotel Dieu, Windsor, on Monday evening, after being confined to the hospital the past three months with a broken leg, the County of Essex lost one of its oldest citizens.

Mr. Sullivan was born in Sandwich, South Township, in 1855, a son of the late Daniel Sullivan and Mary Ann McCarthy, both of whom were pioneer settlers of the township. His wife, whose maiden name was Annie Sullivan, predeceased him some years ago. Surviving are five sons, John, at home; Ray, of Detroit; Lt. Col. Eugene Sullivan, in England; Joseph, of Sarnia, and Sgt. Gerald Sullivan, in the South Pacific; two daughters, Mrs. Clarence Moran and Mrs. Pauline Meloche, both of Detroit, and a brother John, of California.

Funeral services were held from the Janisse Bros. Funeral Home, Windsor, on Wednesday morning, at 8 o'clock, thence to St. Mary's Church, Maidstone, at 9 o'clock. Burial was in the church cemetery, the pallbearers being Frank Moran, P. Meloche, Nelson Shuttleworth, G. McCarthy, Geo. Sexton and Jos. Turton.

Miss Phyllis Sweet Passes.

Miss Phyllis Gertrude Sweet, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Sweet, of Gesto, passed away on Friday of last week. Death was due to a heart condition from which she suffered since a small child. She had worked until just recently at the Essex Dairies.

Surviving, besides her parents, are three brothers, Gur. Lawrence, of the Canadian Army, recently returned home from overseas; Jack, of the R. C. A. F., overseas, and William, at home.

Funeral services were held from the Hicks & Son Funeral Home, Essex, on Monday, in charge of Rev. S. Dunk. Burial was in North Ridge cemetery.

TOWN OF ESSEX.

Notice of Intention to Redeem Certain New Debentures.

To the holders of certain new debentures of the Town of Essex, issued under Bylaw No. 1045 of the Town of Essex, which mature in the years 1946 to 1950 inclusive.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Corporation of the Town of Essex intends to and will, on the 31st day of December, 1945, redeem all outstanding New Debentures issued under Bylaw No. 1045, passed on the 24th day of March, 1941, which mature in the years 1946 to 1950, inclusive, as hereinafter set forth, by payment to the holders thereof, at the face value of the said New Debentures to be so redeemed and accrued interest thereon to the 31st day of December, 1945, on which date interest will cease to accrue. Payment will be made at the Imperial Bank of Canada, Essex, Ontario, upon surrender of the New Debentures to be so redeemed, together with all unpaid coupons thereon.

The said New Debentures to be so redeemed are $22,719.93 in aggregate principal amount, and are a portion of a larger principal amount of New Debentures, dated the 31st day of November, 1940, which were issued pursuant to said Bylaw No. 1045, passed on the 24th day of March, 1941, as provided for in plan of refunding of the said Town of Essex referred to in and confirmed by an Order of the Ontario Municipal Board, dated the 3rd day of February, 1941.

The said new debentures to be so redeemed are as follows: Series A—Nos. 514-20; 558-18; 656-12; 660-12; 699-10; 702-10; 760-9; 764-3; 803-6; 804-6; 807-6; 821-5; 828-5; 829-5; 830-5; 830-5A; 831-5; 859-3; 869-3; 869-3; 880-5; 880-6; 887-2; 866-29; 566-30; 721-11; 721-11A; 730-10.

Series B—Nos. B6; B7; B8; B9; B10; B11; B12.

Dated at Essex, Ontario, this 24th day of October, 1945.

SIDNEY FRANKCOTTIE, Mayor.
K. E. BRETT, Clerk.

Reason enough?

EVEN if there were no other reason for buying all the bonds you can in the 9th Victory Loan, it should be reason enough that men wounded and disabled in action must continue to have the best of care.

Our debt to them is but one of Canada's obligations to all who served, and are still serving, in the armed forces.

Investing our money is after all a small way of repaying a debt which cannot be measured in money. But it is concrete evidence we recognize the debt and that we will not fail to meet the obligation it brings us.

Put all you can into the 9th Victory Loan. Set your personal objective higher to reach and pass the higher objective of the loan.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES.

By Dean Wilson.

It must be emphasized in the strongest possible terms that the official statement about the size of Canada's army, navy and air force for the ensuing two-year "interim" period before the conclusive peacetime establishments are settled is not necessarily the absolute "final" peacetime scope of this nation's defence forces since the present unsettled state of world affairs may bring possible changes in any such future plans. This is stressed here on account of many false impressions which seem to prevail in Canada about these reports from Ottawa where it has been suggested that Canada's so-called postwar air force will be composed of between 15,000 to 20,000 men in 10 squadrons, her army of about 20,000 men in addition to a large reserve force, and a navy of about 10,000 men in possibly 20 ships. Prior to the last war, Canada's air force had less than 4,000 men with an auxiliary of 1,000 and no reserve, her navy had less than 2,000 in five ships, and her army was very small. But the main point to bear in mind is that the plans already reported and which have been anxiously awaited are only tentative postwar estimates so that world affairs alone will be the actual determining factors of the eventual peacetime set-up of this nation's armed forces in the future.

It is not often that an observer can see in this session of Parliament members of the Liberal, Progressive-Conservative, C.C.F., Social Credit, parties and other groups vote together in favour of a resolution proposed by a private member. However, this is something which happened in the House of Commons when the proposal was made that the Government should make the fullest possible use of the harbour and port facilities at Churchill and at the end of the Hudson Bay Railway of management of the control of the port to a joint board appointed by the governments of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. Members of various political parties or groups combined to support this proposal and in the minority vote against it, though it was supported by many Liberals and Conservatives as well as others, were National Revenue Minister McCann, Parliamentary Assistant to the Finance Minister, R. W. Mayhew, Parliamentary Assistant to the Defence Minister, W. C. Macdonald, and other Liberals, Transport Minister Cheyney, and Reconstruction, Howe, who had constructed the grain elevator at Churchill in 1935, before entering politics as a private engineer, had done its best to promote the greater use of Churchill and the Hudson Bay Railway, with the information being disclosed that early in the last war sailings from this route were discontinued after a torpedo had sunk a ship available to use it frequently. Then, again, it was revealed that in 1944, the railway's deficit was no less than $623,847. In general, views were expressed that the necessary steps ought to be taken to bring more goods from abroad through Churchill in order to develop it and as early as 1947 there were reports that Churchill could be made an all-year port as well as other reports that a bushel of wheat from Churchill could be shipped for a total cost of 25.29 cents to Liverpool as compared with 25.25 cents via Montreal or door of Canada. It was claimed in Parliament, with the majority of the members supporting every possible development of its harbour and port facilities.

The United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization's meeting in recent occasions when signal honors were paid to Canada as a nation amongst the nations of the world. This organization, UNFAO, born at Hot Springs, Va., in 1943, was the first body brought into actual operations by the United Nations since the war and its meeting in Canada has been mentioned upon everywhere throughout the world. But there are others, Canada has been requested to attend the first meeting of the Far Eastern Advisory Commission concerning postwar control of Japan; a Canadian has acted as chairman of the second meeting of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration. There have been other signs in Ottawa lately of Canada's growing prestige and position in world affairs, though it must be confessed that these reports have not always been properly understood by the man-in-the-street in Canada.

A hint has been given in Ottawa that there will be a continuation of controls for some time anyhow in order to fight any inflationary tendencies which may arise after World War II. In the words of the "National Emergency Powers Act" presented in Parliament by the Government through Justice Minister St. Laurent. This Act is to run for one year only unless it is extended by Parliament and it is similar in some way to the War Measures Act, though, of course, considerably different in its much more limited scope. In any case, it is aimed as a means for fighting any inflationary tendencies in Canada during the present period after the war.

DISCHARGED PERSONNEL MAY RETURN TO OLD JOBS

The Reinstatement in Civil Employment Act, passed by Parliament in 1942, sets forth conditions under which employers MUST REINSTATE their former employees in their employment after discharge.

This Act and its Regulations are administered by the Dominion Minister of Labour, through the National Employment Service. Reinstatement Officers are available in the National Employment Offices to answer inquiries, and assist in adjusting cases.

Employees—either men or women—are to be reinstated if:

1. The employee has been discharged on the basis of a conviction for a crime or offence which is not a bar to reinstatement.
2. The employee has been discharged on the basis of a conviction for a crime or offence which is a bar to reinstatement, but the employee has been pardoned or the conviction has been set aside.
3. The employee has been discharged on the basis of a conviction for a crime or offence which is a bar to reinstatement, but the employee has been pardoned or the conviction has been set aside, and the employee has been found to be a suitable person for reinstatement.

Provision may be made for extension of time if the employee is unable to return to work within the specified time limit. In this event, the employer must be advised within the 3 or 4 months, as the case may be.

The following points in the legislation are also important:

1. An employer who has discharged an employee on the basis of a conviction for a crime or offence which is a bar to reinstatement, must advise the National Employment Service of the discharge within 3 or 4 months, as the case may be.
2. The National Employment Service will advise the employer of the employee's status and the conditions for reinstatement.
3. Discharged personnel who cannot perform their former duties are to be reinstated in the most suitable employment available at which they are capable of working.
4. If an employer discharges a reinstated employee within 6 months, he must be able to prove in court that he had reasonable cause for so doing.

ALL EX-SERVICE MEN AND WOMEN ARE URGED TO USE THE FACILITIES OF THE NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT SERVICE WHEN LOOKING FOR WORK.

Goose Season Opens Nov. 1st.

On Thursday morning, November 1st, goose shooting opened in Essex County, and while Jack Miner, who started his sanctuary in 1904, passed on to his heavenly reward, on November 3rd of last year, his three sons are actively carrying on. There seems to be as many Canada geese in the county as ever to be seen. Jasper Miner, who has full charge of the sanctuary, has banded 330 thus far this year. All Jack Miner's sons are asking in the full co-operation of the sportsmen in respecting the boundary lines, and are asking the hunters to help enforce the law respecting these boundaries, because one man coming in off the highway can spoil it for all the rest. The Order-in-Council states "No person shall enter in pursuit of game." The sanctuary is bounded on west by the McCain Sideroad, on the north by the 4th Concession Road, on the east by Division Road and on the south by the Second Concession Road.

First Baptist Church. Sunday, November 4th: Some one has said that "The corner stone of character is Jesus Christ." This is true for history of the past, as well as recent, proves that the world's finest characters have been, or are, Christians. Gladstone, Livingstone, Newton, Moody, Spurgeon, our present king and Queen, Montgomery, who turned the tide of war at El Alemeln, Gen. Dobbie, defender of Malta, and a host of others of the world's truly great. We are interested in the development of the character of our boys and girls. We endeavour to bring them into personal relationship with Jesus Christ, that in the years to come, being Christians, you will have every reason to be proud of them. No one with understanding will question the value of the Sunday school to mould good citizens, and this being true, why not that your children secure all this type of training possible? We have classes for all ages, with experienced teachers in all classes. You, too, will enjoy the adult Bible class. Why not come with your children? Sunday School, 10 a.m.; Morning Service at 11, message, "Our Lord's Return"; Evening Evangelistic service, 7:30, commencing with a good sing inspiration. Message, "Rahab." You will enjoy the friendliness of our "Home-like Church." Put it to the test this Sunday. Remember the "Happy Hour" for boys and girls, Friday evening, 7:30. Lantern slides.

THANK YOU.

To all who in any way helped to make our Novelty Night such a unique success, the Young People of Essex United Church say "Thanks a Million." About 250 people were on hand Monday night to voice, in loud bellows of happy hilarity, their approval of what was truly "the best show since the Gay Nineties."

If you missed this opportunity for an evening of super-duper entertainment, ask your neighbours about it; they were there. Then, next year, when a new and different edition of Novelty Night is presented, be sure to get your tickets early.

Red Cross Notes.

Red Cross headquarters has notified us of a very urgent call for a large shipment of hospital supplies for China, and heart-breaking appeals for clothing for children and infants. In the misplaced personal group alone there are some 500,000 very young children who do not even know their names, or to what country they belong. Clothing made by well as people seek to locate here on account of water and sewage. Mr. McGuire outlined the fact that other centres have gone ahead and benefited by new industries. Mr. McGuire stated that he had approached Mr. Clark, M.P. for Essex South as regards this project and that he was very favourably inclined to the idea. Mr. Stokely, of Stokely-Van Camp Co., expressed himself at the meeting emphasizing the dire need for water and of the poor supply and improper sewerage. He emphasized the fact that they only lease the property and that they would like to expand but they cannot do so without water, hinting that if water was not available here they would be forced to locate where water is sufficient and sewage better. Mr. Stokely, like many others, likes Essex and the community. The project outlined by Mr. McGuire would mean a great deal to Essex and also to the country as a whole. New industries that locate elsewhere — Chatham, St. Thomas, etc. — would possibly locate in Essex and be an asset to the community, but with no water supply, do not even consider Essex.

It is tragic that the council and business people did not attend this meeting, when it was so much to their interest and the community.

Will "Post War expansion" let Essex be a ghost town or will this project be shoved through and Essex advance to a major place of importance, asked Mr. McGuire.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1945.

Is Our Victory a Hedged Bet?

Joseph Lister Rutledge.

It is easy to work for victory because there is such a dramatic positiveness about it. It is not quite so easy to carry our enthusiasm and devotion into the days where victory is an accomplished fact. What we have struggled for is ours, and it is all too easy to assume that our obligation is satisfied. But victory will be an empty word unless a real peace succeeds it, and peace has its own costs.

Peace is not just the end of fighting. It is a world made safe, made generous, made whole again, and that is everybody's business. And that entails obligations, and obligations have a way of crystallizing themselves into terms of money. Not because money is the best alternative, but because it is so often the only one to which we can put our hands. We can't give back life to the dead or make the maimed whole. We can't return the years of youth squandered in the grim ordeal of war. We can't offset the tragedy that has laid its appalling shadow on so many million homes. We can only give something instead. For most of us that "something instead" means that though we can't return the lost lives, the lost years, the full possession of health, we can see that the handicap shall be made as little as we can make it. That means money, money for hospitalization, for rehabilitation, grants, for reestablishment credits, and for what small compensations are in our power to give.

But it goes beyond that, because in our lifetime the world has no narrower than it is all our parish. Famine and misery and desperation have a long reach, and if the hunger and misery of the world is left to fester, what becomes of the beautiful life and the security we have promised for ourselves? We are a small people living in a sprawling country of unbelievable resources, but we can consume our wheat and gold and iron, and timber by ourselves? We know we can't; we know that markets are essential to our well-being as a nation. We know that we must trade with other peoples, friendly peoples. And that again means money, money to feed and clothe the people in those markets that are vital to us, money for credits so that people benefit of almost everything may have something wherewith to trade so that they may be restored, good friends and good customers.

It is not too unselfish a program, we benefit. After all, we are not giving. We are only loaning — loaning that the people to whom we owe a debt — the boys who died at Dieppe, who were tortured in Hong Kong, who suffered in the dreadful march through Italy, or whose blood reddened the waters of the Scheldt — and all those who gave of their youth and their health — shall be paid as we promised them they should be paid.

Farm Fire Protection.

National fire prevention week was observed two weeks ago, but on the farm we must keep in mind that every day in the year is fire prevention day. We have learned from bitter experience that we can't set aside just one week of the year as clean-up week for fire hazards. Most of the information in the papers during the special week was devoted to city homes and buildings. The majority of fires do occur in the cities but farms are more vulnerable owing to the distance from fire fighting equipment.

It has been told that a gallon of coal oil, under certain conditions, has an equal explosive force to one full ton of dynamite — a staggering thought. I have never seen a morning fire lit with a stick of dynamite but we have all seen it done with coal oil and then the container left carelessly around the house. In spite of the fact that this very thing has caused families and homes to be wiped out, you still see persons throwing coal oil on kindling, a quick fire, with the same reckless abandon you or I would use throwing on water to put a fire out. Occasionally some one picks up the gasoline can by mistake and tosses some of the contents on a slow burning fire. Funeral notices follow shortly after.

Reports of fires in kitchens, houses, sheds, barns and creameries can often be traced to hastily improvised chimneys and stove piping. The stove may have been put in for just a few days use but, without proper insulation or space between hot pipes and

In the face of these things, it isn't enough to say that now that victory has been secured the "spending spree" should stop. We've all said it, and maybe it is well we should. But this is a different issue and the issues should not be confused. This is not a matter of petty politics, something that we can deal with in private because that we can deal with in private because we may have grown impatient with controls and maybe critical of Government. Supporting the Ninth Victory Loan isn't a matter of our prejudices or preferences. It is a matter of the credit of Canada. Will we keep our promises, and not hedge on them, now that victory is in our hands—Liberty Magazine.

All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them.—Matthew 7:12.

walls, a fire can result. A house chimney fire, due to dirty chimneys, is not as serious to the house as it is to barns, standing grain crops or hay stacks which may be ignited by sparks.

Lightning Fires.

Most farms have adequate lightning protection but there is still an odd one where a barbed wire fence has been strung to the corner of a barn and not properly grounded. This fence can then gather a bolt of lightning in the field and direct it right to the barn where it will heartily consume building, stored crops and stock. The main barn is not the only one that requires lightning arresters, the granaries, tool sheds and machinery shelters also contain plenty of material a fire could soon destroy.

Every farmer is essentially a fireman — he has to be. The farm is usually too far removed from fire brigades to depend on them for protection. There isn't a farmer who could afford to have his own glistening red fire truck parked in the front yard, nor is there one who can afford not to have some fire fighting equipment. Ladders, axes and pails should always be kept in handy places. Portable fire extinguishers can now be purchased and should be hung near any vulnerable places. Remember — and paint this equipment red and insist that it be used as fire equipment and nothing else. A red bucket full of accumulated trash thrown on a fire is never as effective as a bucket of sand or water.

Valuable Facts.

The Advanced Registry for Pure Bred Swine of the Live Stock and Poultry Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture, provides for the recording and performance of pure bred sows through testing their progeny, and involves the recording of all necessary information during feeding and finishing periods, and similar necessary facts respecting the carcass. The supervision is carried out either at the breeder's premises or in government-owned pig testing stations. The utilization of the information obtained through this service has become an important factor in the development of constructive breeding programs by the individual breeders in the improvement of Canadian bacon for export.

Letter from French Indo-China.

On October 9th, 1945, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall received a letter from their daughter, Mrs. Jean Fune, of French Indo-China. We quote from the letter as follows:

Hanoi, French Indo-China.
Dear Folks—We sent a short note a few days ago and hope that before long you will receive it. Now we are writing a longer letter. Did you receive the letter last spring? We did not have long to enjoy our home — in fact we were not really unpacked before we were packing again and on the road, but with our baggage left behind. We remained in custody from the 25th of March until the 19th of April. When we arrived here, after three nights of travel in the back of an open truck. We had three valises and one bag with us. George lost his kit bag — some of his best things were in it. Here we were received as refugees at the parsonage of the French Church. We had one room downstairs. It seemed so odd to have to leave dishes, bedding, etc., next to everything. Even gifts of clothing were much appreciated.

A little later Jean was asked to carry on the pastor's work. At that time we were given the adjoining room (diningroom). There are more French Protestants in Hanoi than ever before because those of all Tonkin are here. There is much visiting to be done. Then he has the Y. P.'s Bible class on Thursday morning here at the church. Another one in the afternoon for those of the other side of the city. There is also the Thursday school for the children. Along with this Jean is chaplain. Now there is much visiting at the hospital. He doesn't preach every Sunday. Mr. Bois and a layman help, but there are other week-day services and all these things keep him busy. With the heat, the work and all, he has lost 12 kg.

Living is extremely expensive here even more so than the south. We have been able to borrow money to make both ends meet and are learning new ways of economizing every day. We miss our books — John hasn't a single sermon note nor Bible Study after 20 years in the ministry — not a manuscript in Thal, Thomson Bible, Scofield Bible, Dixon Bible, Matthew Henry, Cruden's Concordance, etc. all gone, even my address book and the mission account book. But we are very fortunate in comparison with others. How our sympathy goes out to those who have lost their loved ones. There are several very sad cases in the congregation. There are many people ready to go to France on the first boat. Of course, we are the instructions of the Mission. We don't feel free to rush off like that. There are many odds and ends relating to the work which must be picked up again. We would hope to visit our workers or at least that Jean can, and that he can try to find a few pages of our many years of labor. Please pray that we may be very definitely guided in regards to this. We have my English Bible, Jean's French Bible, and his Annamese Bible.

How are all of you? I just dare not ask for you one by one. Write us the news.

As for our children, who are no longer babies, Esther, 3 years old, sings much. She sings the tune well, but if she doesn't know all the words she sings la-la and the last word of each line, she is 38½ inches tall, is in better health than she was, but is full of mischief, so quick. Neither of them sleep enough.

George, 7½ years old, is 55 inches tall. His schooling is surely suffering. He seemed to be doing so well when we were studying at home before going to Xiong Khouang. His lessons are in French. He is growing so fast that he is tired most of the time. We are looking forward to the time when civilians will be able to buy foreign products such as butter, oatmeal, cheese, and milk. Oranges have just begun. They are still very dear, but we are surely glad to be able to give the children orange juice. It has been difficult to make the milk enough since we left our cow (fresh a month before).

Now I must close, write as soon as possible. We thank everyone of you for your prayers. We need them so much — we have been saved from many things. Hitherto God has helped us and He is still with us. Praise His Name.

Love to all.

Myrtle, Jean, George and Esther Fune.

Poultry Fattening.

During the past 13 years, nearly two thousand market cockerels have been fattened on different rations at the Dominion Experimental Farm, Brandon, Man. A convenient and satisfactory ration for us on most farms may be made up of equal parts of ground wheat, oats and barley. The standard practice for feeding birds to be fattened is to mix the meals with liquid, either water or milk, twelve hours before feeding and give the mixture to the birds in the form of a batter. The feed is given twice daily and only as much will be readily consumed in 15 minutes. During warm weather, water may be supplied at mid-day. It is a good precaution to dust the birds with insect (house) powder at the beginning of the fattening period. Three weeks of confined feeding will produce a good finish on well grown birds.

The Ninth Victory Loan.

"We are greatly impressed and cheered by the splendid way Ninth Loan Victory Bond sales are going in the various areas where crop failures have left farmers and fruit growers in a far more favourable position," said a spokes man for the General Sales section of the National War Finance Committee over the week-end.

"Both in the several eastern areas where apple crops have been total or near failures and in the western areas where wheat crops have gone the same way, sales results so far indicate great interest in Victory Bonds," he continued. "The reason for this, in spite of the tremendous handicap suffered by crop losses, would seem to be this: the past experience of both farmers and orchardists is that having a reserve of Victory Bonds has left them in better shape to sustain such blows of fortune. Now, therefore, they readily accept the additional sacrifice necessary to purchase Victory Bonds as usual, in order to have a reserve against the future."

Nova Scotia General Sales Committee reports that, especially in rural areas, there is practically no demand whatever for $50 bonds. Apparently because of the two-in-one feature, whereby a $100 Bond costs no more by weekly payments than a $50 Bond did during the six-month loans, most applications are for $100 and up.

The Home Coming.

By Ed. Byrne.

Many a soldier's mother is as happy as can be. Their sons are coming home from far across the sea.

As the boys come home, After long gruesome years, Their homes will be so happy 'They'll be shedding no more tears.

'Tis good to see the reunions Of happy sons and mothers, But you cannot help thinking Of those other sons and brothers.

They have sacrificed their all, Their young lives did give, That the peoples of the world Might in peace and comfort live.

Each boy that does return Will each day say a prayer For a comrade and a buddy That's left lying over there.

Minerals and Vitamins.

Minerals and vitamins are also important in winter pig feeding. The cereal grains are low in calcium (lime) hence the big need in pig rations is for lime or calcium supplements. Skim milk, buttermilk, commercial concentrate and tankage are well supplied with calcium. Lacking these additional materials, calcium in the form of high-calcium limestone should be added to the grain mixture at the rate of one pound limestone to 100 pounds of grain. Stiffness and crippling commonly develop if vitamin D is not supplied and a lack of Vitamin A may result in a lack of resistance to disease. Mixing one teaspoonful of a standard feeding oil in the feed daily for each pig will insure an adequate supply of both vitamins. The oil should be given until the pigs reach a weight of 100 to 110 pounds.

Need of Proteins in Feeding Hogs.

The cereal grains, oats, barley and wheat are all too low in the quantity and quality of the proteins to make a well-balanced ration. Because of their palatability and the relatively large content of high quality proteins, skim milk or buttermilk as they come from the separator or churn are valuable feeds for hogs. However, abrupt changes from one to the other or from sweet skim milk to sour skim milk or vice versa should be avoided. When skim milk or buttermilk is scarce the results in fall pig raising may prove disappointing unless a substitute is provided. In the absence of milk, tankage or a mixed commercial protein concentrate should be included in the meal mixture. For greatest economy the tankage or commercial concentrate used in the feed should be supplied generously at the start and gradually reduced. Results of a large number of experiments conducted at the Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe, Alta., with respect to the feeding of tankage to market hogs indicate that for pigs from weaning, 100 pounds the grains should be supplemented with 8 to 12 per cent tankage, preferably the higher level, immediately after weaning and 4 to 6 per cent tankage from 100 pounds until the pigs reach the ideal market weight of 200 pounds. If commercial concentrate is used, it should be fed according to the recommendations of the manufacturer. The addition of supplements greatly in excess of the recommendations, or improper mixing may lead to digestive troubles.

Essex Holsteins Compete at Stratford.

Considering that this was their first venture into the tough competition that has to be faced in a show of this calibre, Essex breeders did very well when they showed their cattle at the Regional Championship Holstein Show held October 8th at Stratford. Henry I. Smith, of Comber, exhibited the 3rd prize heifer calf, Pauline Fingender Snow, in an exceptionally fine class of 39 animals. Amherstburg Daisy, owned by Harry Newman & Sons, Cotnam, placed third in a class of 33 two-year-old heifers. Hugh A. Lee, of Wheatley, had the 6th prize senior yearling heifer, Thomas Mills, also of Wheatley, won 8th prize on his three-year-old heifer, Samuel Bail-largen & Sons, Tecumseh, had the 10th prize junior get-of-sire, in the County Herd Competition, Essex was 7th. The winner was Oxford.

A total of 228 head were shown by 71 exhibitors from 10 counties at this championship show, making it the largest Holstein Show on the continent this year. The quality, too, was excellent. Judge J. M. Fraser, Streetsville, Ont., found his Grand and Reserve Grand Champion females in the aged cow class. The champion was Glen Allen Aggie Colantha, owned by Inman Thompson, St. Paul's Station, and the Reserve, Forest Lee Pleasant Kornlyke, shown by L. W. Snively, Springfield. The Grand Champion Bull was Montvic Rag Apple Sovereign, pointed owned by T. R. Dent and Clark E. Brown, Woodstock, and the Reserve Grand Champion, Eaton Hall Chieftain Payne, the property of John Older, Thamesford. W. G. Whitney, Milverton, had the Junior Champion bull and Lorne B. Reid, Ripley, the Reserve; while Smith Haven Farm, Woodstock, brought out the Junior Champion female and Gordon W. Smith, Milverton the Reserve Junior Champion.

NOTICE TO ALL HOG PRODUCERS IN County Essex

HOG MARKETING SCHEME UNDER CONSIDERATION

A proposed Hog Marketing Scheme for Ontario, under the Farm Products Control Act, has been submitted to the Farm Products Control Board by the Ontario Hog Producers Association.

Before the Board will consider recommending the scheme, it must be satisfied that a fair representation of the Hog Producers are in favour of its adoption. In order to obtain the recorded views of the Producers, a vote by ballot is being taken on the question.....

"ARE YOU IN FAVOUR OF THE PROPOSED ONTARIO HOG PRODUCERS MARKETING SCHEME BEING BROUGHT INTO FORCE IN ONTARIO?"

ANGUS MCKENNEY
Essex, Ontario

ALL HOG PRODUCERS ARE URGENTLY REQUESTED TO REGISTER, TO ATTEND THE MEETING IN THEIR AREA AND TO VOTE!

ONTARIO FARM PRODUCTS CONTROL BOARD

ALL PRODUCERS MUST REGISTER

Only Hog Producers who are registered for the purpose with their own County Agricultural Representative will be entitled to vote on the scheme. All Hog Producers are therefore urged to register at once by mail or in person at their County Agricultural Representative's office in order to be eligible to vote. When registering by mail, please forward name, address and township.

PUBLIC MEETING TO BE HELD

Town Hall, Essex
Wednesday, Nov. 14
At 8 p.m.

At this meeting the scheme will be explained fully and questions answered. Ballots will be supplied at the meeting to producers who have registered, so that they may vote then. Registrations will be accepted at the meeting and also for ten days after it. All producers who are registered will receive ballots, either at the Agricultural Representative's office, at the meeting or by mail. Copies of the proposed scheme may be secured at the Agricultural Representative's office or at the public meeting.

All ballots must be returned to the Agricultural Representative before December 8, 1945. Any ballots received after that date will not be recorded.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1945.

Q.—I am going to start selling milk. do I have to report this to the Board or register in the way I do for butter?

A.—There are no regulations of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board in regard to whom you may sell the milk but there is a maximum selling price. Farmers do not have to register milk sales with the ration board.

Q.—My daughter is going away to school. The landlady where she boards insists on taking all the coupons out of her book as they come due, which leaves none for me when she returns for week-ends, which she does every week-end. Is this right?

A.—There is no ruling of the Board which covers this. Your daughter will have to make arrangements with her landlady, perhaps there could be some arrangement made whereby she could have a coupon of one or another of the foods when she has taken enough meals away from her boarding house to allow for this.

Letter from Overseas.

The following letter, from Cpl. W. Denison, of the U. S. Army, was received by Miss Mabel Dennison, of Cottam:

September 22nd, 1945.
Dear Mable, Fay and Leone (Judy can't read yet)—How are all you brats getting along? Going to school yet? Bing Crosby is crooning a sharp number on the radio here, almost 11 o'clock, and I am thinking seriously of going to bed.

However, if you would like to hear something about travelling about all over the place, just lend an ear.

Personally, I have been lucky beyond my usual good fortune. We never got into any place where we were in any more danger than at home in a rocking chair. For that I am very thankful. I keep my nose clean, so to speak, next year at this time I should be a happy civilian.

If you can follow this my slang, etc., I will give you a blow by blow description of getting shipped overseas. Going to New York, Camp Shanks, we went by train, day coaches, with all our equipment carried individually like a pack mule. At Camp Shanks we got last-minute physical, new gas masks, shots for a couple of European diseases and tetanus for lock jaw. We were there long enough for one eight hour pass, riding the Eighth Avenue subway and going up and down Broadway. You probably heard of Eighth Avenue and Broadway, all the famous night clubs, etc. Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe, Stage Door Canteen, Child's, Jack Dempsey's Bar, and dozens of others. Incidentally, Donald and I had two dates in eight hours and was lost in the Eighth Avenue Subway for at least two.

After boat drill for emergency getting off the ship, we got on the Uruguay, a big tub that was once a luxury liner between New York and South America. After fourteen days on the very rough Atlantic, we disembarked at Southampton, England. It was pretty cold in England, but when we got set up we had a pretty good time there. After a troop ship ride on an English boat to LeHavre, we took on L.C.I. up the Seine River to Camp Twenty Grand. After a few days there we moved to Belgium. We were living pretty smooth there, in castles. Even up at King Leopold's summer castle with the 15th army headquarters, that is in the Ardennes forest, where the von Runstedt drive was stopped. The remains of many tanks and other wrecked equipment were strewn over the countryside all the way through France to Germany.

In Germany we picked up everything that we could lay our hands on. Where the crossing of the Rhine, at Remagen, was pulled we found plates and things on the table in the houses where the people had left tout suite. Even the pen I am writing with was lifted in Germany. After spending a couple of months in the Rhineland we conveyed from Neidbrunn south Belgium, Luxembourg, France till we arrived in the land of the Riviera, Southern France. We were at P.B.S. staging area in France for three or four weeks swimming in the Mediterranean and exploring Marseilles and other towns and cities.

We spent forty-one days at sea coming to Manila. Incidentally, we went through the Panama, something I will never forget. It is really something of an engineering miracle. The boat was the General Waigle, a navy transport built at the New Jersey shipyards in 1940. There was approximately five thousand troops aboard, exclusive of the crew of navy Coast Guard and Marine Guards. It was a good trip, but too long. We stopped twice in seventeen thousand miles, once at Panama and once in the Marshall Islands, "a sand bar in the middle of the Pacific." Do you know what the word "Pacific" means? It means "calm." Parts of the Pacific are like one big mirror, and the glare from the sun is blinding. The sunsets and sunrises are very beautiful in the Pacific. We watched the flying fish and the other strange ocean fish, for it seemed an eternity.

From Manila we unloaded from the ship in L.C.I.'s with full battle equipment. We had been taking adabrine, the malaria preventative, for two weeks before we landed. We took a train over a hundred miles to Northern Luzon, to San Fernando, La Union, Philippine Islands. We are now on beach waiting shipment to either Japan or home. It isn't so bad here now, we have two good radio stations on Luzon, and the weather is quite comfortable here close to the ocean. There is an outside screen for movies and a Red Cross for coffee and doughnuts very close. We take the auxiliary tanks from P 38's and make boats to go sailing over the surf of the Linguayen Gulf. If I can avoid Malaria, hook worm and jungle not things will be fine. That shouldn't be too hard, they spray the whole area with C47's. It is quite a sight to see those big planes slipping the tree tops spraying bugaboos.

My little brown Philippine girl friend does my laundry, brings me bananas and fresh flowers.

I forgot to tell you about the amphitheatre in Marseilles, its capacity was something like fifteen or twenty thousand. Built in a natural valley of rock. They had everything from Mickey Rooney to Yasha Heigh's and Russian folk songs to French ballet and general French shows — ou la la.

If you have any doubt about the people back there having a good life, the next fact related should remove all doubt. From the time we hit France we saw people lined up to get the garbage from the mess hall. They would eat it like dogs with their hands. Some kids in Europe never had an orange in their whole life until the Allied landings. The grown people would fight for an orange. When we landed we threw them off the boat to the docks and watched the scramble. Cigarettes were selling for as high as 250 francs or $5.00 a package. In Belgium and Germany you had much the same case. However, the Germans, as usual, got off the easiest as they had all the food in Germany, and made good use of synthetic and dehydrated food. Even here the food problem is bad. Garbage in New Guinea went over good with the natives and some here. Fish and rice are the most widely used food here, not any too palatable, would you say?

The Japs even took the cocoanuts when they were here. They figured on living on the resources of the land and sent some rice, etc., to Japan. The Philippines suffered while the Japs got fat on rice and carabon. They say here if the Japs saw a little kid they would call to him, and if he ran they would either shoot or bayonet him, and so on.

I hope you get something from my personal opinions and things I have seen. I trust these facts do not bore you.

It is getting late and the bugs are devouring me badly, so hoping to see you all soon, will say adios for now. Take good care of yourselves. Love

HERBERT.

Restrictions Lifted on Long Dresses.

The feminine half of the world may now indulge their fancies for long dresses, if they wish, because the Wartime Prices and Trade Board have lifted restrictions on the manufacture of wedding gowns, dinner and evening dresses, and evening skirts, according to W. Harold McPhillips, prices and supply representative for Western Ontario.

In 1942 the Board prohibited the manufacture of any long dresses. Now the cancellation of these regulations brings the Canadian regulations in line with the United States.

Mr. McPhillips warned, however, that the lifting of the restrictions did not mean that long dresses would be immediately available. This will depend on the amount of materials that will be available for this purpose.

THE WARTIME PRICES AND TRADE BOARD

FARMERS' BULLETIN

FARM MACHINERY OFF RATION LIST

All rationing controls have been removed from sales of farm machinery, and restrictions on the production or importation of such machinery have been lifted.

Price controls remain. Generally, maximum price for farm implements is the price at which such items sold during the basic period, August 15—September 11, 1941. Quoted prices do not include cost of delivery to the purchaser.

Under Consumers' Credit Order No. 225, section 10, terms of sale for farm machinery are: 1/3 of quoted price paid in cash; the balance of the credit price to be paid within two years of the date of the contract in stated amounts at specified dates. Any allowance for a trade-in is to be deducted from the unpaid balance.

Despite the lifting of production restrictions, it is expected that the shortage of components such as malleable castings and sheet steel will limit the maximum output of farm implements during the year July 1, 1945, to June 30, 1946, to a 24% increase (on tonnage basis) over the output in the preceding 12 months.

Farmers' Poultry Prices

Farmers selling all types of poultry, except turkeys, direct to consumers are permitted a 25% markup over the wholesale ceiling prices established for the zone in which they are located. Turkey producers are allowed a 20% markup over the wholesale level.

Potato Storage Allowance
(Order A-1560 now in effect)

A storage allowance of 5c per 75-lb. bag of potatoes and 7c per 100-lb. bag is allowed on November 1. Another 5c per 75-lb. bag and 6c per 100-lb. bag may be added on December 1, and another 5c per 75-lb. bag and 7c per 100-lb. bag on January 1, 1946. There will be no storage adjustment for February but monthly increases will be resumed on March 1.

FARMERS' RATION COUPONS

Coupons covering farmer sales or farm household consumption of meat and butter, and sales of preserves must be forwarded to Local Ration Boards in primary producers' envelopes (RB-61). Reports for November should reach the Local Ration Boards not later than December 10.

Following are the valid coupon dates for November:

	MEAT	BUTTER	SUGAR	PRESERVES
November 1.....	M 9	128	..	..
" 8.....	M 10	..	..	..
" 15.....	M 11	129	66, 67	P 20, 21
" 22.....	M 12	130	..	..
" 29.....	M 13	131	..	..

Farmers are required to send in "M" coupons to the Local Ration Board for meat they consume, and meat they sell to farmer neighbours at the rate of 4 lbs. per coupon. Farmers who slaughter meat need not turn in at the end of the month more than half the valid meat coupons in the ration books of their household. Farmers who purchase meat from other farmers must surrender to the selling farmer one meat coupon for every 4 lbs. of meat purchased, even if this means surrendering coupons not yet valid.

FARM SLAUGHTERERS

Farmers who slaughter for their own household consumption or for the consumption of their farmer neighbours, are not required to hold a slaughter permit. Any excess of farm slaughtered meat over the farmer's or his neighbour's needs may be sold only to the holder of a regular slaughter permit in quantities not less than a quarter of Beef or a side of Pork. Sheep, lamb or calves slaughtered by the farmer for his own or his neighbours' use may not be sold into the meat trade.

Licensed slaughterer's quotas for cattle have been temporarily suspended and until further notice a licensed slaughterer may slaughter all the cattle needed for his requirements.

Rationing is your assurance of a fair share. It is a protection against waste... shortages... inflation. That is why farmers are asked to continue to collect and turn in coupons to their Local Ration Boards—once a month—in the RB-61 envelope.

For further information apply to the nearest office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

SHUR-GAIN FEEDS

Put Emphasis On Quality!!

Never has the quality of feeds been as important as it is now.

Today, when every dozen of eggs, every gallon of milk and every side of bacon produced plays such a vital and essential part in our great peacetime feeding program, it is extremely important that you buy and feed the best of top quality feeds — feeds that can and do produce satisfactory results.

9th Victory Loan Progressing Favorably.

Returns for the 9th Victory Loan in the County of Essex are running far ahead of those for the similar period in the 8th Loan, with sales to the 8th day of canvassing totalling $1,300,200 compared with $870,300 for the same day last year.

There is still a considerable sum to be raised before the county reaches its minimum objective of $3,350,000, but confidence runs high at campaign headquarters.

The Town of Essex has an objective of $250,000, and has subscribed $83,300 or 33.3% of its objective.

Colchester North Township has taken in $22,950 or 36.7% of its objective. Gosfield North and Cottam, with an objective of $120,000, have bought $36,950 or 30.8%.

H. J. Heinz Co. of Canada, Limited, have invested $300,000 in the 1% Bonds, due 1950, comprising one of the securities available in the 9th Loan; and the County of Essex has purchased $50,000 in the 9th Victory Loan.

It has also been announced that Wasco Valve Seat Limited, employees have duplicated their earlier performance by purchases of 9th Victory Loan Bonds in amounts greater than ever before. Naylor Lumber Co. Ltd. has also done the same, which is a creditable showing in giving the lead to so many other organizations.

Contributions by company employees of all the industries and firms throughout the county are running high, and in most cases greatly exceed the totals invested in the 8th Loan.

This will be the last opportunity to purchase Victory Bonds, and as there is no further opportunity to make investments in such high grade securities for another year, the public is investing heavily to make sure of obtaining 3% returns on their money while the security is still available.

ELFORD

The Junior Bible class will be with-drawn this month, to enable the members to attend the "Crusade for Christ" meeting of Cottam, on same night.

Robert Hurley Dies.

Robert Hurley, aged 64, died Wednesday in Metropolitan Hospital, Windsor, from injuries suffered in an auto accident on Walker Road, near the Airport, on Saturday night.

Deceased was born in Sandwich South Township, and had lived there all his life, owning and operating a service station at the corner of the 8th Concession and No. 98 Highway, at the time of his death.

Surviving are two brothers, John and Edward, both of Sandwich South.

Essex Gives Generously.

The National Clothing drive for the town closed November 5th, and was a decided success. Mayor Francotte, assisted by Wm. Truesdale, Supt. of the Water Works, and Wm. Crozier, Art Husey and Stew Kennedy, had over 3 tons of clothes to box and deliver to the C. N. R. depot in Windsor.

To those who made this possible, offer our sincere thanks. Special thanks to Charles Maedel for donation of 47 boxes in which clothing was packed.

Open season for black or grey squirrels has been declared by the Ontario department of game and fisheries on November 15th and 17th in that part of Ontario lying south of the French and Mattawawa rivers and Lake Nipissing, including Essex and Kent counties.

The quota for this open season must not exceed five squirrels taken or killed per day.

More hunters than has ever been noted before took part in the pleasant shoot in Essex and Kent counties and the estimated number of game. It has been reported however, that few hunters got their quota of birds because of the general scarceness in these two counties.

Mullins-Collins Nuptials.

St. John's Church, Woodstock, Tuesday morning, at 9 o'clock high mass, the marriage of Miss Rita Mullins, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mullins, of Woodstock, to Tech. Sgt. Charles V. Collins, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Collins, of Maidstone, was solemnized by Rev. E. G. Doe.

Assisting the bride and groom were Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Trader, of Detroit. The ushers were Don Mullins and Jerome Collins.

A breakfast of beautiful appointment was served at the Norton-Palmer Hotel, Windsor, after the ceremony, to the immediate families of the bride and groom.

Tech. Sgt. and Mrs. Collins left by train for California, where the groom is stationed. They will remain there a month, when Mr. Collins will receive his discharge from the army, after which they will return to Detroit where Mr. Collins will resume his studies at the University of Detroit.

New Telephone Directory.

Some 42,000 copies of the new telephone directory for Windsor and vicinity, are now being distributed, about 750 of them being assigned for subscribers in Essex.

Among the names with the most listings in the Essex section, the Sweets lead with 11, followed by the Smiths with nine and the Shepleys with eight. Then come Naylor and Meloche with seven each.

In the Windsor section, the Big Four are Smith, Brown, Wilson and Taylor, in that order.

According to W. H. Patterson, Bell Telephone manager in this area, the new book contains nearly 8,200 listings, new and changed since the last issue, including a number in the Essex section.

"It is important to consult the new directory carefully before placing calls, and to bring desk lists and memo pads up to date," Mr. Patterson said. "Avoiding unnecessary calls to wrong numbers helps us to serve you better."

It is hoped that on receiving the new books, telephone users will contribute the old ones to the regular salvage collection, paper being still in great demand.

Mrs. S. A. McKenzie, of Port Erie, sister of the bride, and Mrs. James C. Groom, the bride's grandmother, of Niagara Falls, Ont., were present at the wedding of Miss Edythe Victoria Jones, in Walkerville, on November 2nd, and are spending a few days in Essex as guests of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Jones.

On Saturday evening, November 3rd, a gala party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Smith, of Irter, Mrs. Wanda Pizer, who left on Tuesday to join her husband, Piz. Sgt. Jack Pizer, R.C.A.F., in Nova Scotia. She received many beautiful gifts.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. Bradford, J. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kalman, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gosling, Mrs. E. McEwan, Mrs. M. Hill, all of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Srauly Kaitz, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Loucks; Tech. Sgt. Ken Gardner, John Hinda, Marion MacLean, Eddie Belesky, Helen Brown, Carl Loucks, Eleanor Lee, Alice Laramie, Ellen Smith.

Mrs. Alphonse Seguin Dies.

Mrs. Rose Seguin, wife of Alphonse Seguin, of Tecumseh, passed away on Friday, at the Essex County Sanatorium.

Funeral services were held from the Janisse Bros. Funeral Home, at 8:15 on Monday morning, to St. Anne's Church, Tecumseh, at 10, with burial in the church cemetery.

Surviving besides her husband, are four sons, Gerald, Robert, William and Russell; her mother, Mrs. Anne Maitre, of Tecumseh, and five sisters, Mrs. Clarence Petz and Mrs. Alphonse Hebert, of Tecumseh; Mrs. Nellie McPharlin, of Pleasant Park Central, Maidstone Township; Mrs. James Byrne, of Woodstock, and Mrs. John O'Rilly, of Windsor.

Langlois-McLellan Wedding.

The marriage is announced of Miss Alma Irene McLellan, of Bruce avenue, Windsor, formerly of Essex, and the late Mr. McLellan, to Leo Victor Langlois, son of Edmond Langlois, of Bruce avenue, and the late Mrs. Langlois, the ceremony having taken place on October 27th, in the rectory of Holy Name of Mary Church, with the Rev. J. A. Rooney officiating, before the immediate families.

The bride was smart in a street length dress of pink wool, and wore ice blue ostrich tips in her hair, and a corsage of pale blue baby chrysanthemums and pink roses. Miss Waltha McLellan, as maid of honour, wore aqua wool, street-length, with a fuchsia hat and bronze baby chrysanthemums and talisman roses. Michael Kossiak was best man.

A small reception at the home of the bride's mother followed, the bride's table being laid with a lace cloth and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake in a bed of white tulle sprinkled with baby chrysanthemums.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Langlois left for a short trip, on their return from which they will take up residence on Cameron avenue, Windsor.

Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Sexton celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Monday, when they attended a high mass of Thanksgiving at St. Mary's Church, sung by their pastor, Rev. Fr. J. P. Gleeson, followed by a dinner at their home, on No. 3 Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Sexton (nee Annie Cox) were married at St. Paul's Church, Grosse Pointe, Mich., on November 5th, 1895, coming to their new home on Talbot Road, where they have since resided. Their hosts of friends offer hearty congratulations and best wishes to them on this happy occasion.

On Sunday they entertained at F'mery's Hotel, near Belle River, at a dinner. A U' table of beautiful appointments of gold and white, with a profusion of flowers, made a pretty setting, where their family enjoyed a gala day. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. (Lydia Cox) Wm. Beaupre of Grosse Pointe; the groomsmen and bridesmaid; Rev. Fr. Clarence Dorsey, a cousin of Adrian, Mich., who asked the blessing and benediction; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strech (Ethel Cox) of Grosse Pointe, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. John McCann, of Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kavanagh, George Sexton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Sexton and children, Bob Sexton, Miss Mildred Sexton, Paul, Agnes, Marion and Bernard Sexton, all of Maidstone; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sexton and daughters Patsy Ann, Joan and Mary Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sexton, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. John Morneau and children, Jackie, Jerry and Jimmie of Riverside; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sexton and daughter Susanne, Stanley Sexton, of Maidstone, and Mr. and Mrs. Blake Estabrooke and sons Gary and Jimmie, of Windsor.

In the evening many friends called to offer felicitations and Mr. and Mrs. Sexton received many beautiful gifts and many cards and congratulations.

Eli Jackson Passes.

Eli Jackson, a resident of Cottam district since 1911, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Andrew Neville, on Friday, following a lengthy illness.

Deceased was born in Kent County, on February 21st, 1873, a son of the late Andrew Jackson and Mary Shippey. After farming for years, he was a rural route mail carrier until forced to retire in 1937.

Surviving are a daughter Verda (Mrs. Andrew Neville); two brothers, Wheeler, of Aylmer, and Edwin, of Drake, Sask.; and four sisters, Mrs. G. H. Snyder, of Windsor; Mrs. E. Yingling, of Muskegon, Mich.; Mrs. George Higgs and Mrs. Orrie Rawlins, of Aylmer. His wife predeceased him a number of years ago.

Funeral services, in charge of Rev. Stan Johnston, and officers of Enterprise Lodge, I.O.O.F., were held, on Sunday, at 2:30 p.m., from the Higgs & Son Funeral Home, Essex, with burial in North Ridge cemetery. Mrs. Fred Gorday was soloist and the pallbearers were Elton Flint, Allan Dewhirst, Norman Bunn, Ernest Taylor, Lee Dennison and Roy Alexander.

EVEN if there were no other reason for buying all the bonds you can in the 9th Victory Loan, it should be reason enough that men wounded and disabled in action must continue to have the best of care.

Our debt to them is but one of Canada's obligations to all who served, and are still serving, in the armed forces.

Investing our money is after all a small way of repaying a debt which cannot be measured in money. But it is concrete evidence we recognize the debt and that we will not fail to meet the obligation it brings us.

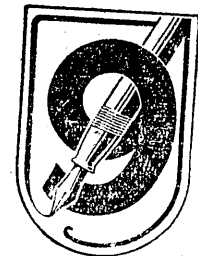

Put all you can into the 9th Victory Loan. Set your personal objective higher to reach and pass the higher objective of the loan.

Truth Still Heals.

What a wondrous atmosphere of comfort and hope must have pervaded the room where Peter's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever as Christ Jesus entered on that Sabbath day long ago! For we read in the fourth chapter of Luke that "he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her," and immediately she arose and ministered unto them" (Luke 4:39). No long period of recuperation here. No material remedy given; no fever crisis. How did the Master heal the fever so that it left her immediately?

Most of us have felt the longing at times to experience that divine healing power. Perhaps we have, rather hopelessly, associated it only with Jesus' Brief career, and never thought of it as a present possibility for ourselves. Possibly that is because we have considered

Poultry Cost Records.

Both at the Central Farm, Ottawa, and in every other Dominion Experimental Farm, accurate cost accounts are kept on all poultry operations, with the result that figures are available for incubation, brooding, rearing, egg production, and fattening costs, under the varied conditions met with in different parts of the country.
Problems of marketing of eggs and stock of all kinds are given due consideration, particularly in so far as preparation for market is concerned.
The figures are at the disposal of farmers and poultry keepers at all times.

Sale of DDT.

Board restrictions on the sale and use of DDT, nicotine and rotenone have been lifted, according to an announcement of the War-time Prices and Trade Board.
These insecticides have been previously under Board restrictions and have been previously under Board restrictions, and have been made available for civilian use.

Quality Poultry.

By trapnesting, pedigree breeding, progeny testing, and individual and family selection, poultry flocks of high quality have been built by the Poultry Division, Experimental Farms Service, at Ottawa and branch farms throughout Canada. Breeding stock of this quality is distributed every year among farmers and poultry keepers at reasonable prices and gradually the quality of poultry in Canada is being improved.

Helpful Information Feeding Fall Pigs.

The ability to raise fall pigs is the final test of the successful hog feeder.
Damp quarters, over-crowding and the feeding of unbalanced rations are the usual causes of failure with fall litters.
As pigs will withstand cold much better than they do dampness, dry, roomy well-bedded quarters which are free from draughts and well-ventilated are a necessity if fall pigs are to make the best use of feed consumed, says H. E.
Wilson, Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe, Alberta, where hog raising is a special study.

Suitable supplementary feeds along with the grain is probably the most important item in successful winter pig production. In planning feed mixtures for winter pigs it is well to keep in mind that the pig fed during the winter months is for the most part grown under conditions which deprive it of the use of green forage and contact with the soil. Consequently as the fall farrowed pig cannot help to balance its own ration feeds rich in protein, minerals and vitamins must be added to farm grains to get the best results. Grain by itself, is not sufficient to develop and bring a hog to market requirements economically. An intelligent choice of feeds is required if the growing and fattening of swine is to be profitable.

End War Control of Milk and Cream Sales.

An announcement of interest to milk and cream producers and the trade is in the statement that another wartime control will be lifted at the end of last month, when the Agricultural Food Board removes its stabilization restrictions on the purchase and sale of milk and cream. Beginning November 1st, farmers will be free to sell these products to any creamery, condensed, cheese factory or dairy and the trade will be free to buy, subject to provincial regulations, from any producer.

The Board was authorized to impose the restrictions two years ago to ensure creameries sufficient cream to maintain the butter ration and cheese cottonies sufficient milk to fill the cheese contract and necessary diversion of milk from one use to another.
Now at the close of a favourable season for milk production it is apparent that cheese requirements can be met and with the quantity of milk now going into various products more or less in line with the demand for these products, the emergency regulations appear no longer necessary, said the Board.

The Board warned, however, that farmers should continue selling cream or milk to their regular buyers until the end of the month in order to continue receiving the producers' subsidies on milk and butterfat.

gineer, Department of Public Works,
Ottawa, at the office of the District
Engineer, Dominion Public Building, London, Ont., and at the Post Office at Kingsville, Ont.

Tenders will not be considered unless made on printed forms supplied by the Department and in accordance with conditions set forth therein.
Each tender must be accompanied by a certified cheque on a chartered bank in Canada, payable to the order of the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, equal to 10 per cent of the amount of the tender, or Banker Bonds of the Dominion of Canada or of the Canadian National Railway Company and its constituent companies, unconditionally guaranteed as to principal and interest by the Dominion of Canada, or the aforementioned bonds and a certified cheque if required to make up an odd amount.

Note: The Department will supply blueprints and specification of the work on deposit of a sum of $10.00, in the form of a certified bank cheque payable to the order of the Minister of Public Works. The deposit will be released on the return of the blueprints and specification within a month from the date of receipt of tenders. If not returned within that period the deposit will be forfeited.

Ottawa, October 26, 1945.

Ration Books for Babies.

Ration books which will be issued to immigrants or new born babies will not contain the full year's quota of extra coupons for sugar for canning, according to the regional ration office of the War-time Prices and Trade Board.
October 31st was the last day that new applicants could obtain the extra sugar for canning coupons. The exception to this is in the case of discharged service personnel. Ration books for these men or women will contain ten extra coupons which will be good for five pounds of sugar.

Hello, Home-makers! This year we have good reason to be truly thankful on Thanksgiving Day. The scarcity of luxury food items need not imperil the success of your dinner. Good food will cook with satisfaction everyone.
May we suggest a typical menu for you.

ROAST TURKEY.
Stuff the bird with ample tasty dressing (four quarts for a 14-lb. bird).
Place bird on one side of breast in roasting pan. Do not add any water.
Roast in a pre-heated electric oven of 325 degrees, allowing 20 minutes per lb. When bird is half cooked turn baste and sprinkle with salt. Cover during latter part of cooking period with lid or moist paper.

RELISH TRAYS.
Matchlike strips of yellow turnips.
Sliced radishes radishes cooked in thin chutney sauce. Sliced cucumbers dipped in spiced beet juice. Green tomatoes and sautéed in dripping.

GEORGIAN SWEET POTATOES.
Cook 2 lb. sweet potatoes for 20 mins. Drain, peel and mash. Add 1 tablespoon baking fat, 4 tablespoons molasses, salt and hot milk and beat smooth. Put in a casserole and heat in hot electric oven for 10 minutes.

SAVOURY ONIONS.
5 large onions, 1 tablespoon chopped green pepper, 1/2 cup grated old cheese, salt and pepper. Place the peeled onions in greased baking dish and add the listed ingredients. Cook in pre-heated oven of 350 degrees for 40 minutes, or in a double boiler on top electric element.

PUMPKIN PIE.
1 1/2 cups steamed and sieved pumpkin; 3/4 cup brown sugar; 1 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon; 1/2 teaspoon ginger; pinch of salt; 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract. Beat the mixture thoroughly and when cool add 2 well beaten eggs.
Line an extra deep 8-inch pie tin with pie crust; leave a fluted edge. Pour in the pumpkin to the top of the crust.
It will shrink in baking. Bake in a hot oven 475 degrees F. 10 minutes; reduce heat to 350 degrees F. and continue baking another half hour or until a golden brown.

TAKE A TIP.
1. Cut squares of fresh hot ginger bread and place on individual serving plates. Place a teaspoonful of hot or cold fresh applesauce on top and serve.

2. To make sure meringues do not become watery, roll sugar fine and sift small quantities into egg whites which have been beaten to frothy stages. Beat only until mixture will stand in "beaks."

3. Cut slices of bread into shapes and toast slowly to tempt children who are convalescing.

4. For a Fruit Delight moisten 1 package of gelatin; mash a banana and add to gelatin; stir in 2 cups of hot fruit juice and place pieces of cubed fruit in mould when partially set.

THE QUESTION BOX.
Mrs. B. G. asks: Can you make a cottage pudding without sugar?
Answer: You can make a feathery plain cottage pudding without sugar with a fruit juice sauce thickened with cornstarch and sweetened while hot with sugar substitute. Do not add too much (1/4 grain tablet for 1 teaspoon sugar).

Mrs. D. M. asks: How do you prevent cauliflower from turning grey?
Answer: Prepare and soak in cold water to draw out any insects. Cook whole in a small quantity of rapid boiling salted water for 25 minutes only — or in small flowerets for 10 minutes.

Mrs. S. N. says: Applesauce turns brown if it is cooked in a tarnished saucepan.

FARM FOR SALE.

Some Experimental Results Do not Crowd Evergreen Trees From the Apiary.

Numerous projects have been conducted in the apiary at the Dominion Experimental Farm, Brandon, Man., since 1935. Colonies on scales, from May until the end of September have shown that the major honeyflow from sweet clover has shifted from July and August to the latter part of June, July and early August. Hourly weighings during July, August and September, have demonstrated that a colony may show a gain of 3 1/2 pounds in one hour and 26 1/2 pounds over a twenty-four hour period, states E. Braun, Dominion Experimental Farm, Brandon, Man.

By Dean Wilson

Under these circumstances, it can be reported that there is much pre-arrangement among members of Parliament and just those Senators who are not fully in accord with this granting of an increase of $2,000 a year to members and many members feel that this increase has been long overdue. Incidentally discussion about such an increase being meant for the people's representatives has been heard in Quebec since in Ottawa for at least 10 or 12 years, though it has come into the open only recently, particularly as the costs of living in this capital during the war has risen sharply.

Not a day goes by without reports that here or there a new party has been formed, or that a new group of people has been organized. In fact, the number of such groups is increasing rapidly. The fact that the number of such groups is increasing rapidly is a sign of the vitality of the party system in this country. It is a sign that the people are interested in the affairs of their country and are willing to take part in the government. It is a sign that the party system is still a part of the life of the people and is still a part of the government.

Canada's progress in air transportation is so great that it is not in the least an exaggeration, it is hinted in well-informed quarters in Ottawa, to report that this nation's leadership in this respect is such that her reputation among other countries in this field of commercial aviation has been recognized as one of the world's foremost air transport organizations, especially through the advances made by the Government-owned Trans-Canada Air Lines whose capitalization is being increased almost five times over. Indeed, the Trans-Canada Air Lines will start a regular trans-Atlantic service "before many weeks," it is hinted, though up to now such a service was conducted on a non-commercial basis for the government only.

The Deputy Minister of the Department of Veterans' Affairs, W. S. Woods has revealed in Ottawa, that the deadline for war service gratuities has been set as March 31st, 1946, with this information being disclosed as he stated Notwithstanding the fact that the Federal Government has been asked to rescind its prohibition of advertising of alcoholic beverages, including such recommendation of a change from a newspaper association, yet the Government has not as yet returned a direct answer to this question can be found in support that when the Wartime Alcoholic Beverage Order was last reviewed not many weeks ago, it had been decided in Ottawa to continue for the time being the prohibition of advertising alcoholic beverages, it is pointed out that the Wartime Alcoholic Beverages Order was originally passed under the War Measures Act, and though the war is over, yet similar power for at least a year, yet possessed by the government to continue the ban under the present Provisional Emergency Powers Act if and when such a policy should be decided again, such advertising at this time.

The forecast has been made in an extremely reliable source in Ottawa that there will be a considerable effort soon to bring into existence an adjustment of salaries in this country in order that Canada may retain as well as attract to its public service the best professional men available in comparison with the higher salaries paid in other countries. Finding the United States on Parliament Hill lately that following the end of the war, the best technical or professional talents in Canada may go elsewhere, a forecast is very important in emphasizing that the authorities in Ottawa are giving this matter serious attention.

An impressive National Remembrance Day ceremony will take place in Parliament Hill in Ottawa on November 11th, at 11 o'clock with veterans of World War I and II marching in the parade and services. . . . This is courage and determination. A veteran of his war Rudy Lefasse, who lost both of his legs in Holland is not only working regularly as a receptionist at the rehabilitation branch of the Department of Veterans' Affairs in Ottawa, but he is attending steadily night classes in this capital in a school for higher commercial studies. . . . The 1934 time chairman of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, A. Davidson, a Scot, who will be getting $15,000 a year. In the next three years he will be having the most important public relations job at the disposal of the Federal Government, in a comparatively young man, 40 years of age, being rather slight and soft-spoken, with his efforts in this job bound to be watched with considerable interest by veteran observers. Though the railways of this period during the war, yet it is not over the "boom" conditions to continue for a very long time. The president of the C. N. R. has indicated that this line will have probably an increased surplus this year as a recession from the high wartime activity is anticipated, predicting that there may be a net revenue in 1945 of about $200,000,000 as compared with $600,000,000 in 1944. . . . When the first serious occurs of the United Nations World Security Organization at London, England, on December 1, we will be concerned mainly with organizational work. This has become known in Ottawa. . . . It has been emphasized in this capital that Newfoundland considered to be "overseas" for the purpose of interpretations of the War Service Grants Act in the payments of discharge benefits since this avoid much misunderstanding and over some of the questions asked at this point. . . . G. Russell Bennett for Carleton, raised a popular question in Parliament when he referred to know the Government's intentions in regard to married men who wished to continue in the peace-time armed forces of Canada and if they would get immediately their remunishment as well as rehabilitation credits to use for their homes or on land, Defence Minister, Hon. Douglas Young, both replied that this was a good point since a married man or any man who wanted to remain in the so-called interim or permanent force did not lose benefits, though it was true that these would be delayed . . . However, the Minister indicated that the point raised by Mr. Bouché would be referred to the appropriate committee. (Reproduction prohibited, 1945, Federal Features Syndicate).

Q.—Some one told me it was quite in keeping with the regulations to make long dresses for girls who are going to be bridesmaids.

A.—It is quite correct that you may now make long dresses for bridesmaids. The restrictions on the making of long dresses were removed the 1st of October.

A.—The ceiling price on grade "A" eggs in Western Ontario region is 56 cents a dozen.

Q.—I want to buy a car and I don't want to pay too much for it, how do I find out what the selling price is?

A. Contact the nearest official of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. If you give them the details of the car, including the extras that go with it, they will give you the selling price that may be charged.

A. —Two sugar coupons become due in November, 66 and 67 on Thursday, the 15th of November.

Q.—How many rationed supplies should I be given for 12 men for two meals when they do thirty acres of treshing?

A.—For this number of men for two meals you are allowed two preserve coupons, two butter and two meat coupons.

Q.—The owner of a house is repairing it with the permission of his tenant, who is moving out shortly, having bought another house. Is it necessary for the owner to give notice to a sub-tenant who is renting two rooms without the previous knowledge of the owner? This sub-tenant is holding over for repairs. The owner plans to live in the house himself.

— The owner does not have to give notice to the sub-tenant. The sub-tenant of any housing accommodation will have in respect of the tenant the same rights and obligations as the tenant has in respect to the landlord. The sub-tenant may remain in occupation after the date of the termination of the lease to the tenant, unless he has entered into separate negotiations with the landlord.

Does the price of potatoes incline sometime soon?
The maximum price on potatoes was 5 cents a seventy-five pound bag on November 1st.

--Do we need special permission from the WPTB to sell handicraft articles such as hand knitted garments, aprons at a church bazaar?

--No. Special permission is not needed to sell any handicraft articles if they are being sold for charitable purposes such as a bazaar.

-One month ago I bought some starch in a grocery store. This when I went to the same store some more he said I would have something else with it. Should I do this?

-That is what is called a conditional sale and is not allowed. Even if you buy two or more articles offered for sale, as you suggest, a person must still be able to purchase these articles separately if so

New Worm Remedy
It's an ill wind — the same one that has blown from the East and during the war years, the tropical ill winds have blown many natural aids our way. New sprays to kill weeds, new sprays for insects and now, as reported in the current issue of C.I.L. Oval, a new remedy called phenothiazine has been developed to kill worms in sheep.
Following the Allied victory in North Africa, this drug was made available in large quantities to that theater. It was free some 2,000,000 sheep from the scourge of the roundworm, the tapeworm, the lungworm, the nodular and other dangerous worms. This made the drug much more useful to our armies in the desert than to the civilian population, saving a large amount of money.

Single Dose Effective
The United States Department of Agriculture calls this phenomenon "the nearest approach to the worm remover yet discovered." A single trial dose administered to a stunted, unthrifty pig, removed more than 750 nodular worms. The first time any drug given him had proved effective against worms. After further experiments, worm infested sheep, cattle, horses and other animals, the agent stated that "phenothiazine moves more kinds of worms from the kinds of animals than any known drug."

G. L. Duffin Night.

Teachers of Essex County are sponsoring a testimonial banquet to Gordon L. Duffin, on Friday, November 16th, at 6:30, in the Sunday School room of the United Church. Until recently Mr. Duffin was public school inspector of the county, with its 245 classrooms, the teachers of which are recognizing his outstanding services to our schools, both elementary and secondary.

In addition, members of the Education Board of Examiners, the Board of Education, the Church Boards, the Trustees and Rectors Association, and the Service Clubs with which Mr. Duffin has been associated, will participate in this banquet, which will take the form of a turkey dinner, provided by the ladies of the church.

Mr. Duffin, for a decade, was principal of the Amherstburg Public School. In June, 1941, he was appointed I. P. S. of South Essex schools. When Mr. Duffin relinquished that position in North Essex, Mr. Duffin assumed the responsibility for the entire county. Much of his time has been devoted to organizing Township Boards and enlarged High School districts for Essex County. So conspicuous was his success that the Department of Education has requested Mr. Duffin to carry on this work in other counties, with headquarters in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Duffin, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Duffin, of Thorndale, will be the guests at this complimentary dinner at the United Church this coming Friday, at 6:30.

Essex Town Council.

Wednesday, November 14th.

A special meeting of Essex Town Council was held in the Council Chamber at 8 p.m., with Mayor Francotte, Reeve Irwin and Councillors Cascarden, Shaw and Hines present.

Bylaw No. 1116, re Municipal Elections for 1946, was read and passed.

Council adjourned.

Mills-Quick Nuptials.

Chrysanthemums and palms formed the setting in Essex Pentecostal Church Saturday, November 3rd, at 2 p.m., for the marriage of Miss Edith Jane Quick, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Quick, of Concession 9, Gosfield North, and Clayton Gerald Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills, of Essex. The Rev. Earl Williams officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white satin with lace inserts, made with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves which formed points over her hands. Her fingertip veil was held to her head in a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried red roses and her only ornament was a gold locket, the gift of the groom.

Miss Joyce Quick, of Leamington, cousin of the bride, as maid of honour, was dressed in white sheer, lace-trimmed, and carried pink and white carnations. Miss Bernice Sova, of Windsor, bridesmaid, wore a gown identical to that of the maid of honour, but of pink sheer. Both wore floral headdress and carried pink and white carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by Arlie Knight, of Woodlee, and Robert Delicate, of Windsor. The ushers were Harvey Mossop, of Cottam and Clayton Cooke, of Gesto.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. Cooke, and before the ceremony Mrs. Earl Williams sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden", and during the signing of the register, "Because."

A reception followed at the home of the bride for 120 guests, the bride's table being centred with a four-tiered wedding cake and vases of yellow and white chrysanthemums. Miss Shirley Armstrong, Miss Hazel Ives, Miss Lulla Ecker and Miss Betty and Miss Norma Breen serving.

Mrs. Quick chose for her daughter's wedding a two-piece mauve dress with a hat to match, and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Mills wore a two-piece dress of black and floral crepe, a black hat and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills left on a motor trip east, the bride travelling in a rose suit with a lime green chesterfield coat, and black accessories.

After November 10th, Mr. and Mrs. Mills will be at home to their friends at Laird and Day streets, in Essex.

1946 Nominations to be Held November 23rd.

Essex Council some months ago passed a bylaw moving the annual Municipal nomination election dates ahead so that our nomination to elect a Mayor, Reeve, six Councillors, a member of Essex Police Trustees Commission, for two years, and two members for each of Ward 1 and Ward 2, will be held next Friday evening in the town hall, from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock. Election date is Friday, November 23rd. Due to the fact that the Essex High School Board is a legally dissolved and a public school board must now be formed with representatives from each ward to elect one of the two years, but at a meeting of the board on the 14th, it was decided by lot or otherwise, which ward from each ward will represent that from 1947 on only three members, each ward, will be elected.

The new board for each school district is made up of representatives of the public and separate school members, the Town Council appoints one, the public and separate school Boards each one. Each township is included in the district has a representative on the board and County Council appoints one to three members, making a board of nine to 11 members.

William D. Walker Killed.

The people of the Village of South Woodlee received a severe shock on Tuesday morning at 7:15, when it was learned that William D. Walker, M. C. R. fast eastbound freight train, and instantly killed William D. Walker, well-known village resident at the Main street crossing.

Mr. Walker had been to post office for the morning mail and was so preoccupied reading his mail, while walking towards home, that he utterly failed to see the approaching train. A witness of the sad affair states that the victim evidently saw or heard the train at the last second as he made a vain attempt to jump to safety, but was too late.

Deceased, who was in his 71st year, is survived by his widow, and a son, Ed., of Windsor, who had spent a couple of afternoons with his father, on Monday afternoon.

Funeral services were held this (Thursday) afternoon from the family home to the Woodlee United Church, with burial taking place in Jarrett cemetery.

Albert M. Smith Passes.

Albert Mahlon Smith died at his home, 1114 Central avenue, Windsor, on Sunday, in his 76th year.

Born in Wentworth County, Mr. Smith moved to Windsor 18 years ago from Woodlee, prior to which he resided in Essex. He was a member of the Church of Christ, Scientist.

The funeral was held from the James H. Sutton Funeral Home, 937 Ouellette avenue, Windsor, on Wednesday at 2:45 p.m., with Reader Carl Eberts officiating, and burial was in Cottam cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Martha; one daughter, Miss Norma E. Smith, at home; one son, M. Clayton Smith, in the Canadian Army; one foster son, Daniel A. Dewhurst, Windsor; three sisters, Mrs. Charles Richards, Mrs. Walter Edwards and Mrs. A. Heigle, all of Hamilton; one brother, Anson Smith, of Leamington.

Henry Chambers Dies in B.C.

Henry Chambers, aged 63, of Oak Bay, Vancouver Island, former well-known Windsor businessman and Essex resident, died on Friday morning of last week, in Oak Bay. Burial was in Vancouver.

Born in Wood Green, London, England, Mr. Chambers settled in Windsor 31 years ago and was employed on the staff of the old Windsor Record and later worked for the Curtis Printing Company.

He went overseas in August, 1916, with the Canadian Army Medical Corps, and after serving with the 15th Canadian Army Hospital from 1916 to 1919, returned to Windsor and was employed by the Herald Press.

In 1920 he purchased the Commercial Press Company, Limited, and operated it until two years ago, at which time he sold the business because of ill-health, and moved to Vancouver 18 months ago.

Mr. Chambers was a member of the Canadian Legion, Branch 143; the St. John Ambulance Brigade; the Sons of the Sea; the Beach Grove Golf and Country Club; the Windsor Lions Club; Beber Sanatorium, No. 6, A.M., O.S.; a past vice-president of the Windsor Advertising and Sales Club, and a past Grand of the Sandwich Lodge, No. 454, I.O.O.F.

Surviving are his widow, Gwen; two daughters, Doris Henrietta Hewitt, of Remington Park, and Betty, of Vancouver; three sisters, Mrs. Daisy Drake, Violet and Mary, in England; three brothers, Arthur, Yukon Territory; George, of Los Angeles, and Fred, of London, England.

Essex Rotary Club will raffie off their house, at the keno, on Friday night, December 14th, in the Essex Motor Sales' new building, next to the Essex High School.

GAMMON-LEFEVRE NUPTIALS.

In a setting of palms and baskets of yellow and white chrysanthemums a very pretty wedding was solemnized in candlelight in Cottam United Church on Monday evening at 7:30, when Rev. Stanley R. Johnston united in marriage Miss Frances Jane Lefevre, elder daughter of Mrs. Elva Lefevre and the late Ernest E. Lefevre, and Pte. Murray A. Gammon, of the R.C.I.C., son of Russell Gammon, of Essex and the late Mrs. Gammon.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her brother, Whitney, late of the R.C.N.V.R., was charming in a white lace floor-length gown with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves, which formed points over her hands. Her fingertip veil was caught to her head by a shirred halo. She carried red roses and wore a string of pearls as her only ornament.

Her matron of honour, Mrs. Clifford Stockwell, was attractively dressed in pink lace floor-length gown, also with sweetheart neckline and wore a pink lace Juliet cap and silver slippers. Her bouquet was of yellow roses.

The groom's attendant was his brother, Loyal Gammon. The ushers were Ernest Gammon, of Essex, and William Gammon, of Windsor, brothers of the groom; Kenneth Dewhurst, of South Woodlee, and Lewis Barlow, of Essex.

Before the ceremony Miss Roberta Higgins sang "O Promise Me" and during the signing of the register "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Edison Squires played the wedding music.

A reception followed the ceremony in the schoolroom of the church, which was attractively decorated in pink and white and baskets of chrysanthemums, for 50 guests. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. Misses Erna Flint, Orpha Stotts, Isabel Montgomery and Roberta Higgins served. Following the ceremony the bride and groom left for a short trip, the bride travelling in a blue suit with black accessories.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lefevre chose a two-piece dress of teal blue with black hat and accessories, and her corsage was of pink carnations.

Mrs. Orams Dies at 71.

Prominent for nearly half a century in Salvation Army work in several countries, Mrs. Abbie Black Oram, aged 71, wife of Commissioner Benjamin Oram, territorial commander for Canada, Newfoundland and Bermuda died Saturday in Grace Hospital, Toronto. She had been ill for some time.

Born in New Zealand, Mrs. Oram received her education in Tasmania and for a time taught school. Impressed by the work of the Salvation Army, she enlisted in its ranks and received her commission in 1896.

Mrs. Oram was married in 1903 and continued to assist her husband in his work as well as engaging in special work for the National Council of Women, serving on the Film Censorship Board and acting as justice of the peace in New South Wales.

Mrs. Oram accompanied her husband on a mission to North China, where he was in command of Army Japanese Balloons Landed in Canada.

Rural areas of the Western Provinces, small towns and villages situated in the vast wooded regions of British Columbia and the expansive wheat-lands of the Prairies, might have faced disaster from fires, had the Japanese been able to continue the war and their incendiary bomb attacks by balloon on Canada. It may now be disclosed.

The bombs, first of which were discovered at Minton, Sask., early in January of this year, cascaded down in unknown quantities from the Pacific coast to the western Ontario border. Had these fiery loads not been smothered in the snowy vastness of the West, it is feared some rich areas would have fallen prey to this ingenious method of warfare.

About 50 per cent of British Columbia land is heavily forested, including the most valuable wood tracts in the country. Approximately one-half of the bombs which might fall in Western Canada would land in wooded areas.

Some of the bombs were of the high explosive type; but any which were detonated fell in open country and no material damage or loss of life occurred. The latest recovery of parts of the balloons were at McBride, B.C., on August 4th. To date more than 250 recoveries have been made.

Possible death lurks in these areas in the form of unexploded anti-personnel and incendiary canisters dropped from these balloons which were believed to have originated in Japan. This menace to the camper, trapper or resident in rural areas of the West may remain for some time.

The self-destructing mechanism on many of the balloons did not function and the picnic containers, designed to explode the paper balloon or "chander" can be just as dangerous as the unexploded bombs.

Although no definite clue has been unearthed as to the object of these attacks, it is believed the Japs eventually hoped to gain information on weather conditions, prevailing wind currents and behaviour of their balloons for future systematized flights.

Research experts, inter-service bomb disposal squads, Air Force personnel, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, civil rangers, Indian trappers and forest rangers, joined as a co-operative force to comb the great hinterlands of the West to recover and render the missile harmless. By "plant" dog team, pack horse, and motor they gathered detail on what is described as the Japanese "silent V-weapon."

RCAP pilots were successful in shooting down several of the balloons. An insight into the valuable part played by this branch of the armed services is described in one report.

A balloon was sighted by an RCAP crew, drifting towards Coal Harbour, B.C., in March. The crew forced it down intact using the slipstream of the aircraft as a steering guide. When it caught in a 200-foot tree, dynamite was used to bring it down.

The balloons, constructed of tough paper, 33 feet in diameter and carrying 15,000 cubic feet of hydrogen gas, were designed to operate at a height of nearly five miles and to stay aloft for about one week.

This was done by an ingenious system of dropping ballast whenever the balloon dropped below its operational height. If the balloons went too high, gas was automatically released from the balloon. The mechanism, with its battery and aneroid barometer, was so arranged to release the bombs after all ballast had been dropped. Faulty mechanism prevented the self-destructing device operating and some balloons were recovered intact.

Lieut. Commander E. L. Borradaile, former C. P. R. steamship employee in the Orient service, Officer Commanding the Inter-Service Bomb Disposal Centre, at Ottawa, proved his efficiency as a bomb disposal expert when he was rushed to Minton, Sask., to dismantle the bombs and organize his unit to track down and conduct research on this method of attack.

Although no loss of life is attributed to the balloons in Canada, bomb disposal experts consider it a matter that a picnic container did not explode when opened by civilians at Provost, Alta. The lid of the tin had been opened by a hot poker.

Bomb disposal experts also ran across cases where Indians had undertaken to break down the bombs. They found the balloons excellent material for tepees and boots and the "chandelier" a source of material to make various gadgets.

Melvin Kline, of Wimborne, Alta., actually saw one of the balloons fall. It landed about 100 yards from his farmhouse. The explosion was not great but flames leaped 20 feet in the air for two minutes following the detonation. The bomb made a crater six feet in diameter and penetrated to a depth of seven feet.

Essex Ministerial Association.

"THE WAY."

Have you ever driven a car at night over the highways of our Ontario? If so you will especially appreciate that white ribbon marking the middle of the road, which unrolls in the gloom of the headlights. You need not worry about surrounding darkness, follow the line. The darker the night the greater the need for the white line. Our Bible is just such another "white line" on the road of life. Today clouds of war, bereavement, disappointment and wickedness darken our path, but God's Word shows us the way. Listen to a young man talking to Jesus:

"Good Master, what shall I do, that I may have eternal life?"

"Why callest thou me good?" Jesus replied. "There is none good but one, that is God; but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments."

He said and then followed very carefully and then replied, "All these things have I kept from my youth up; what lack I yet?"

Jesus said to him, "If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come and follow me."

But when the young man heard that, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

This young friend of ours had at the disposal of his wealth all the things this earth could offer to satisfy him, but still there was a void within that could not be filled. He heard of this great Teacher and Healer, Jesus, and he came enquiring of Him personally.

"Good Master, I am rich, I am powerful, but what must I do to have eternal life of which you talk? I need something deeper, something vital."

Gently, rebuking the egotistical "What must I do," Jesus reminded him that there is none good but one, that is God. But in answer to your question for help, let us enter into life keep the commandments.

"All these have I kept," replied the young man as Jesus enumerated the second part of the ten commandments. "But what do I lack. There is still something missing."

O how that young man knew he needed something more, but he was trying to find it within himself and his possessions.

Jesus felt this attitude and offered a remedy.

a remedy. "Sell all you have and give to the poor. Forget about yourself, open your heart to the troubles and needs of the world around. Then you are following me. Then you are living for others and can start to understand the things of God."

Jesus could not point to the concrete work of Good Friday and Easter Morn'g. He said "Follow Me, and you will have eternal life. I imagine had the young man obeyed he would have seen God's plan worked out at his own. Same that you tell in the Philippian jailer (Acts 16:31) after a lifetime of disappointment and emptiness. "What must I do to be saved?"

He asked of Paul. "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved." And later to the Ephesians Paul said, "By Grace are ye saved through Faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; it does not work by law, but by grace."

Have you been trying, independent of God, to work out a way of peace and happiness. Remember Salvation is not of works, but of grace. Have you as this young man, failed to find a source to satisfy a deep longing of your soul for something real, something of value that counts not only in this world, but with God in eternity? Have you found that there is only passing satisfaction in the pleasures offered on every hand? That after all they do not help you to face life's problems and heartaches with strength and confidence.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1945.

TOWN and VICINITY

—Mrs. J. B. Fellows, of Boston, Mass., is visiting her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Brien.

The annual Christmas entertainment will be held on Wednesday, December 19th, at 8 p.m.

—Essex Baptist Church Sunday School Christmas entertainment will be held on Tuesday evening, December 18th.

Remember November 22nd is the date set for the annual Chicken Supper and Bazaar, at Cottam United Church — 5.30 until all are served. Watch the bills for particulars of program. Plan to come.

—The cabinet of the Interdenominational Fireside will meet to plan the next meeting, on Sunday, November 18th, at 9 p.m., in the Essex United Church. Be sure your representative is present.

—Essex Rotary Club will raffie off their house, at the keno, on Friday night, December 14th, in the Essex Motor Sales' new building, next to the Essex High School.

—Sgt. John L. Batten, of Detroit, a former pupil of the Essex public school, renewed acquaintances here on Friday. Sgt. Batten has returned recently from the Philippines after five years of service in the American army.

—We heartily approve of the suggestion made at the Memorial Service, on Sunday last, that the cenotaph, erected in sacred memory of those who fell in the Great War of 1914-18, be regarded by our rising generation as a holy place rather than a play-ground — a place of leisure rather than one of noise.

—Group meetings of the Women's Association will be held on Wednesday, November 21st, at the following homes: At 3 o'clock, No. 2, Mrs. Ellen Sonley; No. 4, Mrs. Lawrence Allison; No. 1, at Mrs. Gladys Naylor's. Thursday evening, 8 o'clock, husbands invited. Don't forget the Bazaar, to be held Friday, November 23rd, in basement of the LIBRARY, sponsored by Group No. 3.

—The management and staff of the local Imperial Bank honoured Miss Tena McCulloch at a lovely party, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sonley, on Thursday evening of last week. During the evening the guest of honour, who recently resigned her position on the staff of the local bank, after 22 years of service, was presented with a gift on behalf of the staff, by Mr. Sonley.

The November meeting of the Wilton-Russell Evening Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Raymond Reeb, with thirty members present. An interesting missionary program had been arranged by Mrs. Lauretta Price and Mrs. Clair Tully. Passages of scripture were read by Miss M. Miller and Mrs. H. McLennan. Portions of the study books "Angola in Africa," and "Currie in Chissamba," were capably reviewed by Mrs. Margaret Parrough, Mrs. Bari Wright and Miss I. Quigley. Miss Alice Mennill, vice-president, presided over the business. Reports of the Section Rally held at Maidstone United Church, were given by Mrs. W. E. Beaman and Miss M. McArragher. The hostess, assisted by Miss M. Miller and Miss M. McArragher, served a dainty lunch.

—Circle No. 3 of the W. A. of Essex United Church will hold a Bazaar in the basement of the Public Library, on Friday, November 23rd, from 2 until 5.30 p.m. There will be a White Elephant booth, an Apron Booth and Baby Booth. Articles for sale will include crib quilts, large quilts, pyjamas, pillow slips and toys. A ten cent tea will be served.

Couple Wed at Double-Ring Ceremony.

Before an altar of white chrysanthemums, at a candle light service, in Essex United Church, on Saturday, November 3rd, the Rev. R. H. Parr united in marriage Blene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Townsend, to John Rathbone, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rathbone, of Windsor, at a double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a floor-length gown of white Duchess satin, made in princess style with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves, which ended in points of bridal illusion, was held to her head in a cap and veil of white roses centred by an orchid.

Mrs. J. W. Henderson, matron of honour, wore a floor-length gown of white chiffon. Her head-dress, blue ostrich plume tips and matching velvet bows. Her gloves were of the same blue, and she carried white chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Catherine Tuttle and Miss Ruth Maddams, wore gowns of white chiffon, made identically to that of the maid of honour. Their headdresses and accessories being fuchsia in colour. They also carried white chrysanthemums.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. J. W. Elsiey, and the soloist was Mrs. Betty Zurburg, of London and Windsor, who sang "Unh! and "At Dawning."

D. Wilson, of Ingersoll, assisted the bridegroom as best man, and the ushers were T. Strickland, A. H. Davidson and Lieut. T. B. Robinson, all of Toronto, and D. W. Southurst, of Windsor.

A reception for seventy-five guests followed at "Towns House," Essex, where a three-tiered wedding cake centred the bride's table, with burning tapers at either end. Tea was poured by Mrs. G. I. Geddes, sister of the bride, and Mrs. J. Henderson, aunt of the groom. Assisting as waitresses were Misses Ruby Simpson, Shirley Robinson and Shirley Webster, and Mrs. Robert Taylor.

Mrs. Townsend chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of black and fuchsia, with matching fuchsia accessories, and wore a corsage of dark red roses. Mrs. Rathbone chose navy blue with white accessories and wore a corsage of white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Rathbone left for Calgary, where they will reside, the bride travelling in a princess dress, with hat and gloves of chausseuse, and a fur coat with orchid corsage.

The best man and ushers were overseas with the groom when he was in South Africa as Flight Lieutenant with the R.C.A.F.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of my dear husband, Oscar Patterson, who left us four years ago, November 15th, 1941.

How sweet their memory still.
But death has left a loneliness
None but Christ can fill.

How sweetly they are singing,
Could we hear the choirs ringing.
Let us keep looking unto Jesus,
Author and finisher of our faith;
Heb. 12:2.

—Ever remembered by his wife and children.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Frank Buhler, who passed away one year ago, November 17th, 1944.

Today recalls sad memories
Of a dear one gone to rest;
And the ones who think of him today
Are the ones who loved him best.

We mourn for him in silence,
No eyes can see us weep.
But many a silent tear is shed
While others are asleep.

—Sadly missed by his wife and family.

Card of Thanks—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Neville wish to express their sincere appreciation to neighbours, relatives and friends for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy shown them in their recent bereavement in the loss of a loving father. Special thanks to Rev. S. R. Johnston, Mrs. Fred Gordy and Mrs. Newman for their services at the funeral; Enterprise Lodge, No. 218, Essex, and to those who sent floral tributes and loaned cars, and to all kind neighbours and friends, we thank you.

British Salvation Army work in British Honduras, which is in the Central American mainland. Everyone is invited to come and enjoy this outstanding missionary's message.

A Cake

Lover's Dream

By Frances Lee Barton

HERE'S a cake recipe for those who love good cake.

You can practically forget rationing when you start mixing your ingredients, but you'll never forget this cake, once you have tried it, or placed it before your friends. It's really "super special."

Delicate Chocolate Sponge Cake
¾ cup sifted cake flour; ¼ teaspoon double-acting baking powder; ¼ teaspoon salt; 4 eggs; ¾ cup sifted sugar; 1 teaspoon vanilla.

2 squares unsweetened chocolate; 2 tablespoons sugar; ¼ teaspoon soda; 3 tablespoons cold water.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Place eggs in deep bowl, add ¾ cup sugar and beat with rotary egg beater until very thick and light. Add flour all at once, stirring well. Add vanilla. Melt chocolate over boiling water. Remove from heat and add immediately 2 tablespoons sugar, soda, and cold water. Stir until thick and light, then fold quickly into batter until mixture is completely blended. Bake in "un-greased 8½ inch tube pan in slow oven (325° F.) 50 minutes, or until done.

MILLINERY.
Have your old hat reblocked and re-trimmed. Hats made to order.

INA GOULD.
At Mr. Stimers' residence, Cameron avenue. Afternoons from 2 to 5, except Thursday.

Please call at west side door.

Ontario Brewers' Association Formed.

Brewing companies, operating in Ontario, have formed the Ontario Brewers' Association with head office in Toronto.

As in other industries, the brewing business evidently recognizes the need for co-operative action in meeting post-war problems. Studies are to be made of manufacturing methods, rehabilitation plans and other matters that affect the industry collectively.

The directors are: John Ryan, Soo Falls Brewing Company, Ltd.; D. C. Betts, Canadian Breweries Ltd.; Hugh A. Mackenzie, John Labatt Limited; J. C. Cushing, National Breweries Ltd.; Montreal; W. P. Renaud, Blue Top Brewing Company Ltd.; E. H. Bentz, Lake of the Woods Brewing Company, Ltd.; F. S. Molson, Molson's Brewery Ltd., Montreal; secretary-treasurer, J. L. Percy.

In a concentration camp near Pekanbaru, Netherlands, East Indies, Dutch women had to capture rats to feed their children.

Do Not Create Henhouse Slums.

Overcrowding of poultry is the source of many evils. Chilled, damp and ill at ease, poultry obliged to pass the winter in a congested, poorly ventilated henhouse soon lost their resistance to disease. In their weakened condition, they are increasingly prone to be attacked by parasites.

When weak they will probably go hungry. In an overcrowded henhouse there is rarely enough space for every bird at the mash hopper where only the hardiest can find room for their beaks. Consequently, feather picking and even cannibalism become more prevalent.

Yet even the worst laying house can be improved by the admission of more sunlight and by better ventilation and insulation. For every 50 hens, there should be at least 10 feet of feed hoppers.

To be comfortable and healthy, each bird requires from 3½ to 4 square feet of floor space, which should be planned before winter begins. If the present laying house is not large enough to allow this space for each bird, then winter fewer birds. Cut out the weaklings and retain only the healthy layers. The healthy layers make money and they make more when they are housed comfortably.

Farm Mechanism.

I am not quite old enough to successfully spin a long yarn about the way we used to cut grain by hand before the days of the binder and threshing machine. That was too long ago but there is a similar development taking place right now that I will be able to tell my grandchildren and make them gasp to think that we ever did this work by hand. It took a full demonstration of mechanical topping, lifting and loading a field of sugar beets to convince me that the day of hand topping and pitching beets is almost gone. A large group of us witnessed this crop being harvested and loaded without a beet being touched by human hands. I say human hands because the machines were operating as though they had hands themselves.

Two Harvester Types. We were told that the two beet harvesters being tested that day were the only ones in Ontario and were operated by the Agricultural Research Department of the Sugar Company. One type topped the beet in the ground and then lifted and piled it in one neat windrow and the tops in another. Only one row was done at a time but the beets from six rows were all piled in one windrow. The second machine was a little more complicated, lifting the beet first, then grasping it by the tops and passing it through the revolving knives. The same machine then elevated the beet from the knives into an accompanying truck. We, through the machine that topped the beets in the ground was doing a better job because its windrow of beets looked just like hand work. The demonstration would have been enough but they pulled still another stunt from their bag of tricks. This one was a loader that lifted the windrowed beets into a rather fast moving truck. Nothing very new about this loader we thought, but that was before we saw the rate it was getting the beets into the truck — one ton a minute.

Three Acres a Day. The harvester we saw was easily able to do three acres of beets per day, but since the demonstration I have read that they that they do more than that in California. In that state, however, the fields are larger, with very headlands, and harvesters are very common, in fact, three-quarters of the acreage is done with beet combines. In Alberta, where loaders have been common for years, they are now using several harvesters. The Alberta picture I saw were mostly of the machine that tops the beets before lifting.

It is only fair to say that while these implements were doing remarkable work, there are still some improvements to be made. It is only a matter of time until they will be as common as grain binders but machine-ery, even only officials are very cautious with their boasts of what can be expected. They are letting the work the machine will do be its own advertiser and believe me, those long and neat piles of well topped beets sold me.

Foundations of Civilization.

By Joseph Lister Rutledge.

One thing this generation should know beyond any question, one thing that should have burned itself into our consciousness through bitter and tragic knowledge that education can be a great determiner of action, an overwhelming force for evil or for good.

Once we used to believe that education was a great blessing; now we know that is not necessarily so. We have seen how Hitler's Youth, schooled in a corrupt vision, continued to believe in that vision in the face of a mounting world of evidence that the vision was destructive and debased. More recently we have learned how the training of Japanese youth conditioned them for war, training them to be efficient in its arts, deluding them into a fanatical belief that war was a virtue.

Great and far reaching as was the damage done by this training, it is only part of the score. Even the dreadful toll of human suffering and death and destruction is not the whole of it. The false doctrine that deluded the youth of Germany and Japan have set their mark upon a world, disturbing the minds of whole peoples and sowing disillusionment and uncertainty and confusion where, more than ever, we need clear and enlightened thinking. The evidence of this confused thinking is all about us. We see it in the people who are falling back on the catchword "propaganda" because they are tired of facing the horrors of war and in their bankrupt thinking they have no outlet but denial. We see it in the age-old arguments that one class or one group of people — the profiteers, the warmongers, the armament makers — are responsible for all our troubles. As if history ever simplified itself like that!

We see it in the tendency of men and nations to return to their old rivalries because they have not found courage enough convictions to direct them to new paths. You see it in the tacit unwillingness of men to recognize that world revolution is a fact, that we cannot move back to the comfortable familiarity of days past, but must move forward to a future that is in our own untutored hands. In the face of this world-wide devastation and of the dislocations in lands that have not felt the actual impact of war, it is not hard to understand the troubled and bewildered thinking that has resulted, or to realize that humanity must find a new set of values on which to base its thinking or sink into chaos, the only alternative.

Twice in a generation the world has faced the tragedy of war. Sober men, noting its mounting ferocity, have doubted whether the world would survive another such conflict. Yet another war there will be unless there is some change in the hearts of men. And it seems that the best and most hopeful answer we can find is that we must substitute for the kind of education that can lead only to war, the kind of education that leads to peace. Nazi Germany, and Fascist Italy, and Japan with its emperor worship, all taught a deification of the state to which all religions and all educational processes should subscribe. The weakness of their cause was that it was bankrupt in those spiritual values out of which spring the ideals of peace on earth and good will to men. The purpose of the Educational West, on which we are entering is to reassert these values, for on them alone can be

Ontario Hydro and the War.

The people of Ontario can take pride in the growth and achievement of the Provincial Hydro-Electric Power Commission which has just issued its 36th annual report. The war years have been great years for Hydro — great in responsibility, great in accomplishment. In only one respect has Hydro failed. It does not now and never has lived up to the slogan that was the battle cry of its founders: "Power at Cost."

From the standpoint of any business man taxes are necessarily part of his costs of operations. Hydro pays no taxes. It does not contribute from its earnings to the support of municipal, provincial or federal governments. It has not contributed to the costs of war. And because it has paid no taxes during the past five years of peak war-time demand, it faces the future with such a strong financial position that it is without parallel in Canadian business.

This is not a situation of which the people of Ontario can be proud. It is not cause for self-satisfaction and complacency. The present excessively strong financial position of the Commission is due to the fact that when Hydro was founded many of our present taxes were not in effect. Hydro's exemption from taxation then permitted no substantial saving. Today that exemption is worth millions each year, millions that taxpayers in Ontario and all other provinces must pay.

With a tight monopoly on the supply of hydro-electric power in Ontario the Commission could not fail to be the beneficiary of the great wartime power demand. In the fiscal year ended October 31st, 1944, the total revenue of the commission was 57 per cent higher than in the pre-war year ended October 31st, 1939. Not operating profit, before provision for reserves, shows an increase of 229 per cent and most of this gain went into provision for reserves for renewals, for contingencies and for stabilization of rates by over $53,800,000 or 99 per cent, in addition sinking fund reserves for retirement of bonded indebtedness was increased by $27,247,000 or 51 per cent.

In large part, the Commission's reserves represent federal and municipal taxes which would have been included in the cost of operations and would have been paid had the Commission's properties and business been privately owned. As it is the Commission has profited from the war to an extent that would not be permitted any privately-owned corporation and the pride of the people of Ontario in their publicly owned power commission must be tempered by such a situation.

Founded the concepts of justice and fair, brotherhood and good will on which the peace and permanence of our civilization depend — Liberty Magazine.

Christmas Supplies.

Canadian children may well stand in round-eyed wonder at the display of Christmas toys this year. According to the supply division of the War-time Prices and Trade Board the supply picture of toys this Christmas time seems a bright one. True, many of them are made of wood including everything from rocking horses to stuffed animals have produced many sizes and kinds. There are panda bears, dogs, cats, and many animals which would be difficult to name. Of course there are some metal toys, too, more than there have been for some time. The selection includes trains, automobiles, and many other mechanical toys. From a nation which a few years ago imported almost all of her toys, Canada in two years has become fairly self-sufficient in providing toys for her three million children.

Christmas decorations will be available this Christmas. There are plenty of plain red and green candles, and many kinds of Christmas holders for them. There are glass balls, Christmas crackers, and other types of Christmas tree decorations to be had. Christmas cards are no longer restricted as to sizes and subjects, but are still under the maximum prices of 25 cents except in cases where an extra charge is allowed for printing the names and addresses on the "Personal" type of card. Ribbons and seals for gay Christmas parcels will be plentiful, and although fancy papers will be rather scarce, greens, reds and whites will be in plentiful supply.

In checking what was available in foods for Christmas the regional foods office of the Prices Board said that delicacies such as raisins, some nuts including filberts, walnuts, almonds and peanuts would be in the stores for Christmas. There are some cranberries and a plentiful supply of citrus fruits. Turkeys are expected to be in as good supply as last year with the prices the same. Other fowl is also expected to be plentiful. It is the very essence of love, of nobleness, of greatness, to be willing to suffer for the good of others — Spencer.

GOODYEAR LIFEGUARDS ARE BACK!

Off the market during the war, this original, proven safety-tube is now being produced again

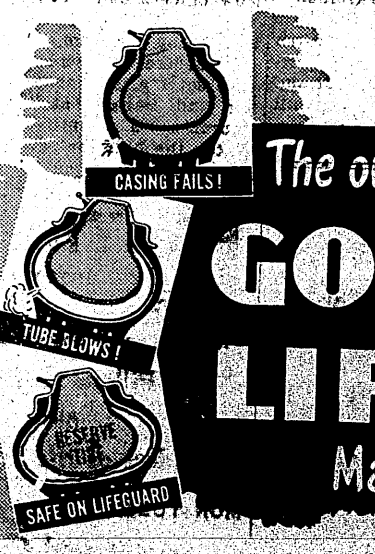

* WHAT A LIFEGUARD IS

A LifeGuard is a reserve two-ply tire built inside a tough, durable tube. LifeGuards replace ordinary inner tubes. Fit any make of tire. If a tire blows, the LifeGuard holds air long enough to bring the car to a safe, smooth stop... prevents that sickening, weaving moment of lost control that so often leads to disastrous blowout accidents.

Many a motorist owes his life to the fact that he replaced his ordinary inner tubes with Goodyear LifeGuards. Off the market during the war, LifeGuards are again in production at the Goodyear factory. The demand is great! To get these proven safety tubes for your car... see your Goodyear dealer right away... ask him to reserve a set for you.

Especially if you must drive on thin-worn tires for a while longer, make them safe from blow-out dangers with LifeGuards. In any case, insist on LifeGuards for your new car. YOU CAN'T BUY BETTER PROTECTION TO SAVE YOUR LIFE.

Education and the School.

That the influence of the school on the welfare of the nation is of paramount importance needs little proof — the rise of Nazism in two short decades could only have been accomplished by complete party control over the German schools. Older Germans weep, for the most part, only lukewarm generation whose early life was surrounded by and saturated with its noble teachings who became then zealots and barbarians. If we turn to Italy we find the same story in the rise of Fascism. On the other hand the school system of Sweden, Denmark, and England shows what beneficial results can be obtained by wise use of school time.

Up to the opening of the war Secondary School education in the small community was limited, by financial considerations if not by law, to purely academic lines and the student was made to fit the education rather than the education fit the student. This condition was accepted because many people had the idea that an education should give training to make a living. In this view lies in the inherent weakness that while it gives to students who will proceed to University and Normal the complete foundation which require it gives to the boy who will return to the farm, or go to shop or the trades, little more than an ability to use figures, to use reasonably correct English and to live more or less amicably with his fellow citizens.

It is thus clearly apparent that we have been educating for the fifteen per cent rather than the eighty-five per cent, and that the boy or girl who is not getting all that it is possible to give.

A consideration of several possible vocations will give an idea of this condition. That the farmer must be a specialist in several fields is a fact of which most of us generally lose sight. He must know stock, soil conservation, rotation of crops, care and repair of machinery, marketing, simple carpentry and such thousands and other details which make up a successful farmer's life. At present, unless we send the boy away to Agricultural College almost all of his knowledge comes from what he has learned by living on a farm, and if the farm has been run on haphazard lines his chances of success certainly are not as bright as they could be. Added to this handicap is the fact that school has a tendency to wear the boy away from farm life.

In the case of the girls, a large number, will, we hope, marry and become housewives and mothers; but are we willing to assume that there is nothing new under the sun as far as home-making is concerned? Is there no challenge to improve the home, to make it more attractive, a place in which to relax and live rather than a halfway station from which to leave by the earliest possible train. Also, what about the girl who wants to get into the business world? Must she, at considerable expense, be forced to go to some private school or business college which is better equipped than the school in her home town?

Since 1941 the Ontario Department of Education has taken a realistic view of these problems, has broken with tradition, and has enlarged the scope of the curriculum. It has increased grants on education to such an extent that the rural student can now be given the same educational advantages as the student in the urban centre. If we do not prepare to grasp the opportunity when it is offered we are arbitrarily denying our children the chance to develop more fully the talent which is latent in every normal youngster.

Remember November 22nd is the date set for the annual Chicken Supper and Bazaar, at Cottam United Church — 5.30 until all are served. Watch the bills for particulars of program. Plan to come.

Grand total		$5,920,200

$5,920,200 is Essex County Loan Total.

When the 9th Victory Loan closed Saturday night at Essex County headquarters, J. R. Morris, K.C., chairman for the county outside of the City of Windsor, announced with pride that the total for the general canvass was $5,059,900 or 151.3 per cent of its objective, which was originally set at $3,350,000.

Grand Total $5,920,200. To the $5,059,900 in the general canvass will be added $269,800 in the payroll savings section and $600,000 in the special names section for a grand total of $5,920,200.

Mr. Morris pointed out that at the beginning of the campaign the objective looked unreasonably high for a rural community but as the days rolled past investments in this the last Victory Loan mounted up the snowball proportions. As soon as the $2,250,000 mark was reached Mr. Morris, on behalf of the county, accepted an honor objective of $4,000,000 and when that was passed the same day he raised the objective to $4,500,000 and then threw up his hands in dismay as this figure was topped and said he didn't really know where the avalanche of investment would end.

Not only did the county do a magnificent job as a whole, but Mr. Morris feels that credit must also be given to the Town of Essex which raised $403,600 or 161.5 percent of its objective, and this for a town of 1,800 is something of which to feel very proud. It was a remarkable feat and ranks beside the town of Leamington which raised $1,150,600 exclusive of payroll savings, with a population less than 6,000. This is 177 percent of the objective. Leamington's original objective was $650,000.

The plaque for the best urban results was presented to Fred Mayhew who has given his wholehearted efforts to so many Victory Loans as being the chairman of Leamington. Mr. Mayhew in accepting the plaque on behalf of the Town of Leamington paid a very nice tribute to the returned men who in this loan have spent 100 per cent of their time in the canvass and who have turned in such an excellent performance.

The canvassing district of Kingsville and Gosfield North Township turned in 158.6 percent of its objective for a total of $737,750 with a population of 5,000. Harrow and Colchester South Township were presented with a plaque for the best rural result as they raised $536,750 or 158.0 percent of their objective, which amounted to $339,000.

All parts of the county passed their objectives, with Comber and Tilbury North and West townships making 142.4 per cent of its objective. P.L. C. Ainslie, D.F.C., A.F.C., who was given leave of absence from the R. C. A. F. for the period of the loan most ably piloted his team to a smashing victory.

Belle River and Rochester Township came through with a remarkable performance, raising 136.6 percent of its objective or $170,850 when they were only asked for $125,000. Sandwich and LaSalle produced $250,000 or 143.1 percent of their $175,000 objective. Mr. Morris said that he has personally spoken to as many of the canvassers as possible but wishes to extend his thanks and congratulations to all of them and to all those who made this loan a success with their unstinted efforts.

Payroll Savings. The following payroll savings section employees achieved their objective during the Ninth Victory Loan:

with purchases as shown: Brunner Mond Canada Ltd., $58,600; Calvert Distillers Canada Ltd., $36,150; Canadian Steel Corp., $55,400; H. J. Heinz Co. of Canada Ltd., $20,100; Stokely-Van Camp of Canada Ltd., $7,050.

Group payroll section employees in Essex are listed below, with purchases shown in parenthesis: Essex Board of Education, $5,500 ($6,000); Essex Dairies, $2,400 ($6,850); Essex Farmers, $8,300 ($8,500); Naylor Lumber Company, $2,200 ($3,150); Philpott's Bakery, $8,600 ($10,450); Wasco Valve Seat Company, $3,300 ($5,700).

Gordon L. Duffin Banquet.

The complimentary banquet, given in honour of Gordon L. Duffin, until recently senior inspector of Public Schools in Essex County, now a member of the staff of the Ontario Department of Education, and held in the basement of Essex United Church, on Friday evening, was a huge success, there being over 300 friends of the honoured guest to sit down to the banquet table and partake of a splendid turkey dinner, served by the W. A. of the church.

J. A. Dowdwell, chairman of the evening's program, introduced those at the head table, on the platform: Mr. and Mrs. Gordon L. Duffin and daughter Dorothy; Mr. Duffin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Duffin, of Thorndale, Ont.; Mr. Pierce, Mr. Duffin's successor as I.P.S., and Mrs. Pierce, and Mrs.
J. A. Dowdwell.

Following a sing-song, led by Allan
Buchanan, the chairman had all stand, with bowed heads, for a minute's silence in memory of the late Dr. Grier, Senior Inspector of Elementary Schools for the Province of Ontario, who had passed away, suddenly, on the Sunday previous, of a heart attack. He had been expected to be the guest speaker for the evening.

Mr. Dowdwell stated that few men had risen as rapidly in his chosen profession as had our honoured guest.
He had started at the bottom as a teacher in Riversdale, then was principal at Amherstburg Public School for some years, when he became inspector of Public Schools for South Essex. In January, 1944, upon the retirement of D. M. Eagle, as I.P.S. for North Essex, he was made senior inspector for all the county outside the City of Windsor, with 245 teachers under his jurisdiction. Now he has been called into the Department at Toronto.

D. M. Eagle, on being called to speak for the inspectors present, Mr.
Davidson, Inspector of Windsor, Pullic Schools; Mr. Sherrin, Separate School Inspector, and Mr. McWilliams, superintendent of Sandwich East Schools, congratulated those in charge for the splendid evening, and assured all that the honour of the evening had been selected to take on the important work being entrusted to him because of his sterling character. He was a man who was a good thinker, a man of perseverance and, above all, a man who put his church and religious duties, first and foremost, in fact he was a natural leader, stating here that it is lack of proper leadership both by the Ford Company officials and by the Union officers, that has caused the present strike in Windsor, who he is now in his 66th year. He also stated that he had found Mr. Duffin very adept at giving encouragement to his teachers when it was earned, a fine gesture, advising his pupils when they have done a good job, they would find teaching a much more pleasant and the pupils much easier to control.

Mr. Pierce
Mr. Pierce stated that while I have known Gordon only a short time, I predict a brilliant future for him. He has laid a great foundation in Essex County for him and Mr. McMullen to work on, and he learns by working six days and sometimes six nights, for weeks at a time.

Mr. Sider
Speaking for twelve members of the County's Entrance Board, past and present, Mr. Sider, Principal of Amherstburg High School, told of how Mr. Duffin had given his best to the town of Amherstburg, the ten years he had been principal of their Public Schools, and his many friends, especially Mr. Duffin, who was the first to help in any worthy cause and was the leader in forming the County Library Organization.

J. C. Montgomery
J. C. Montgomery, president of the Essex County Trustees' and Ratepayers' Association, spoke briefly of the past Public School Inspectors of his time, Messrs. D. A. Maxwell, Bowden and Minkler. He stated that Gosfield North was the first township in the County to buy a bus for school transportation and gave Mr. Duffin credit for the splendid work he has accomplished in the county.

County Warden
Leo Sylvester, Warden of Essex County Council, of which six were present, spoke glowingly of Mr. Duffin's outstanding services to the county in the formation of Township School Boards and High School Districts. He wished the honoured guest every success for, he stated, "your success is our success."

W. E. Beaman, as representative of the Essex Rotary Club; Hunter Harrow, for the Essex Board of Education, and J. L. Naylor, for the Essex United Church Board, all spoke highly of Mr. Duffin, Mr. Naylor stating that Duffin would never be back to Essex.
Rev. Mr. Fleming, of Kingsville, his former pastor, told of him being a great church worker, and how he and his congregation at Kingsville will never forget him and his family.

Mr. Duffin was presented with a lovely old knitting of a winter scene, while Mrs. Duffin was the recipient of a beautiful basket of fall flowers. Mrs.
Lindsay, principal of the Ridge school, at Leamington, made an outstanding presentation address, with Mr. Mc-Williams and Miss Bennie making the presentations.

Don Elsley Marries.

At a very quiet wedding, in Strath-roy, on Thursday afternoon of last week, Cpl. (W.D.) Lorna Patricia Duf-fin, of the R.C.A.F., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Duffin, of Regina, Sask., became the bride of F/O Donald
C. Elsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W.
Elsley, of Essex.

The wedding vows were read by Rev.
J. B. Champion, grandfather of the groom, before just immediate relatives.
After the ceremony the young couple left on a wedding trip to the brides home in Regina. On their return they will reside in Stamford Center, Niagara Falls, where Don will re-enter the employ of the Imperial Bank.

Mr. Duffin, after giving full credit for what success he has made of his work to Mrs. Duffin, his parents and his many friends, especially Mr.
Horton and Miss Richards, whom he taught under at Riversdale, stated that it wasn't Gordon Duffin who had put over the Township School Boards and the High School Districts, but the Township School Trustees and the members of Essex County Council, who had given of their time and endorsed the situation and then made their decisions. "There is no greater calling than the teaching profession," he stated.

He explained his work, saying he was Assistant Superintendent of Elementary Education one week and of Secondary Education the next. "The work of setting up larger High School Districts in the province has been figured to take ten years, but at the present rate, with Western Ontario practically solid now, it will be finished in 18 months," he said. In giving same data on High School education, he stated that only 3% of all urban children further their education in High School, while only 1 1/2% of rural children go to High School. It was the hope of the Department of Education, now that the province of educational costs, to have all High Schools a composite school, which will have five different courses — Academic,
Home Economics, Commercial, Manual Training and Agriculture. He predicted the teaching of agriculture alone will benefit the farming communities of the Province, by many times the extra money spent in education, within the next 25 years.

He told of how a child, in Russia, if he or she show the ability, is given their education right through university at absolutely no expense for the schooling, and made the prediction that within 5 years Ontario would have the best secondary school system in Canada.

Beet Men Get $750,000.

First Payment to Sugar-Beet Growers For 1945 Now in Mail.

This week, sugar beet growers of Southwestern Ontario will receive three-quarters of a million dollars as an initial payment for this year's crop of beets. Cheques for this payment are in the mails today. Sugar company officials explain that this is just a preliminary payment on the tonnage of beets delivered before October 31st. At that date, it was reported, not more than half of the total crop had been delivered to Ontario's two large sugar factories at Chatham and Wallaceburg. The Wallaceburg factory is idle this year but as a convenience to growers, beet deliveries were accepted at that point and later shipped to Chatham. The bonus of 75c per ton is also paid to all farmers delivering their crops direct to the Wallaceburg plant.

This first beet growers' payment is on the basis of the guaranteed price of $9.00 per ton of beets delivered at the factories, $8.25 at outside points. The initial payment for November deliveries, it was explained, will be made by December 15th, and the bonus for sugar content paid after all deliveries are completed and the molasses and dried beet pulp are disposed of to the best advantage possible under government control.

Sugar company officials expressed satisfaction with the harvest of beets this fall. Despite a very disagreeable spring, the 17,000 acres of crop are showing good average tonnage and a sugar content which may yet come up to the Ontario average of 17 per cent. These results are remarkable considering that two-thirds of the crop was planted four to six weeks later than the normal planting season. Company officials speak highly of the assistance that had been given by the German prisoners and military authorities in taking off this crop.

The average this year was far below Ontario's capacity and will produce about 100,000 tons of beets, sufficient for only a partial season's operation of one of the large factories. However, the high quality of the crop this year, even with small average, will produce some 15 million pounds of tables.

The Ontario Government subsidy of $15.50 per ton of beets was included in the first payment. This assistance placed the price paid for beets well on a parity with government fostered crops of this district and without the Ontario government's help, not one acre of beets would have been planted this year, according to sources in close touch with the problem. The Ontario subsidy thus provided 45 million pounds of sugar for Canada in 1945 which otherwise would have been missing.

Still True.

Men praise the beauty of Nature, but it is much safer to rely on her advice, which is rarely fails to reward us for our care to receive our greatest blessing. We work hard to grow our crops, and instead of cultivating well a little, we find the soil is not what it should be. This is the time for the farmer to take a little time to think of the future of his soil. The Ontario Soil Conservation Society is now holding a series of lectures in the various districts of the province, and it is a good idea to attend one of these lectures. The lectures are free, and the speakers are experts in the field of soil conservation. The lectures will be held in the following districts: Chatham, Wallaceburg, and London. The dates of the lectures are as follows: Chatham, November 24th; Wallaceburg, November 25th; London, November 26th. The lectures will be held at the following locations: Chatham, at the Chatham Public Hall; Wallaceburg, at the Wallaceburg Public Hall; London, at the London Public Hall. The lectures will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The speakers are: Mr. J. H. B. Smith, of the Ontario Soil Conservation Society; Mr. J. H. B. Smith, of the Ontario Soil Conservation Society; Mr. J. H. B. Smith, of the Ontario Soil Conservation Society. The lectures are free, and the speakers are experts in the field of soil conservation. Lime for Sick Soil.

It is claimed and with considerable justification, a woman's work is never done! But we insist, neither is a man's. If you are a farmer, you know that a busy summer and a particularly difficult fall and now, instead of resting after the crops are off, we have to start work on the soil for next spring's seeding. Fall plowing is in evidence everywhere and it is a treat to see so many making valuable use of our native manure. Especially noticeable, however, was the fact that there were not very many using lime which is an excellent medicine for acid soils. Naturally, all soils do not require lime but if you notice a drop in alfalfa or clover yields this year, it could be a strong indication that the land needs a good application of lime. Other warnings are seen in increased wireworm infestation or too many thriving acid-loving weeds. A friend of mine experienced heavy losses in his cash crops from wireworms, but his fields of them with lime, giving the sand knolls an extra dose.

Apply in Fall.

Lime is often broadcast in the spring and mixed in by discs and harrows when working the soil for seedling or even put on after seeding but fall applications have been just as satisfactory. The lime will do its work regardless of when it is used so we can do it when it best fits in with other work. I usually

An Outlook for Essex County Farmers.

By C. W. Jessop.

Scanning over magazine, both written by these of Canadian and U. S. writers of best authority, a reader often finds food for thought, thoughts that if made a reality and put into the right hands, could benefit many. An article recently delivered into, in the November issue of "Modern Digest," titled "Co-Op's Are Here to Stay," is a very smart and up-to-date piece of literature. This article, written for the benefit of farmers and Co-Op. employees, if taken seriously, is of great value to farmers and the many Co-Op's that dot our fair Essex County. Here, at an article that is rich in thought if farmers could just use a little imagination. It is not wild fiction, but facts presented that are true and with solid background.

By the Co-Op system in many parts of the United States it has worked for the benefit of the farmer to raise the standard of living in his community. The farmer is the only person who benefits from its profits. The Co-Op is the combined efforts of farmers who are its members, not a few, but hundreds, throughout the country. This system is the smartest way of doing business with an agricultural background. There are some ten or twelve different Co-Op's in the County of Essex, who have gained the respect of farmers in the Sunshine County over a period of twenty years or more, but they are not solidly backed by its farmers. Possibly only a minority of the farmers in each locality are members of its organization. Farmers do not have to scan very far into the future to see the vast difference different Co-Op's could be to the buying and selling power of the farmer if they were to aid in their amalgamation, and buy and sell on Co-Op basis.

There is no reason why farmers cannot do their business on this plan in Essex County, when it has proven a success in at least ten or eleven nations of the world. Every product he produces could be bought and sold on that plan to his own advantage and reap him profits and returns for more than at the present time. If these Essex County farmers were to place themselves solidly behind the different Co-Op's in the county they would find a trend of farming and marketing that could not be beaten anywhere in the world. Farmers who have done that in the U. S. have found produce and the best information available at reasonable and sound prices that is not equaled by any other form of business.

Farmers would find they would have more weight in the say of their own government and would be in a position to demand instead of receive beat-down and discouraged by high party political red tape. This is not blating trade union, but a trend to the way of doing business that is coming world-wide for the farmer who has been degraded by the middleman, who has only exploited and degraded his freedom. This is the chance for the farmer to raise the quality of one of Canada's finest national resources by the hand of the farmer himself.

The farmer is the Co-Op. employee and every move he makes is to his advantage not his or their own selfish interest. This is the time for the farmer in the world of today to streamline his way of doing business and set up something that will give him a big voice in his way of life.

Don't forget the graduation exercises in St. John's parish hall, next Thursday evening, November 29th, starting at 8 p.m. Besides the graduation, a play will be presented, and there will be a special speaker. The public is cordially invited.

Maidstone-Rochester Red Cross.

The regular meeting was held on Tuesday with a good attendance. A number of ladies came in the morning and had dinner at noon. They spent the time cutting out material for trousers and bumpers. The following articles were shipped: 5 turtle-neck sweaters, 3 caps, 5 pair grey socks, 1 pair white socks, 5 quilts, 6 dozen napkins.

Mrs. Helen Roberts was the lucky winner of the quilt on which chances have been sold. The proceeds were $41.25. Mrs. Archie Miller donated the quilt. Entire proceeds were used to help out the Christmas boxes to our boys and girls. The next meeting will be held in two weeks, Tuesday, December 1st.

United Church Notes.

Services at Ruscomb and Woodlee on Sunday at the regular hours, with Sunday School and Children's story hour at both churches. We invite you to worship with us. "Don't be a man without a church." Today, regardless of the non-Christian influences at work in the world, we still can know, with our Lord, that we are on the winning side. Sermon topic: "Stand Up on Thy Feet."

The regular W. M. S. meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles Roberts, on Thursday, November 29th, at 2.30 p.m. All ladies are cordially invited.

Woodlee Christmas entertainment will be held in the church on December 20th.

Our community was shocked during the past week to learn of the sudden death of William Walker, whose death came due to heart failure. The sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved families.

Woodlee Young People will meet at 8.15 p.m. on Monday evening, in the church parlor. All young people are welcome. We would also be glad to see and welcome some of our former members.

PUCE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bliss Wolfe have returned from a sojourn in New York.

Mrs. A. Sodagran, of Saginaw, Mich., and her sister, Mrs. A. Oakes, have returned from Fall River, Mass., where they were called because of the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Wall-brank.

Raymond F. Stover was among the former pupils who attended the recent 50th anniversary celebration at Cambridge Avenue School, Windsor, the past week.

Among those who contributed to the splendid music recital given by the St. Joseph's School of Music in the Puce River Hall, Sunday evening, were Thelma Godby and Neil Addison, of this locality.

Miss Jothel Sodagran, of Detroit, visited her cousin, Miss Barbara Oakes, the latter part of the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patilio visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Uch, in Windsor, on Sunday.

A joint meeting of the Ladies' Association and the W. M. S. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Puce, was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas Groves, on November 8th, at 2.30 p.m. Mrs. Crozier, the president, opened with hymn 417; prayer was then offered by Mrs. John Smith; Bible reading, 23rd Psalm, by Mrs. G. Grievies.

Mrs. Sophia Hamer and Mrs. Crozier reported making 21 calls for Welcome and Welfare. The next meeting is to be a pot-luck dinner, to be held at the home of John Smith; also the Mystery Pal party. The feature of the evening was an interesting talk, "Your Missionary Society," by the Rev. Mr. Ransom, stressing our abundant wealth and our duty to foreign missions and to our homes. The great gift we can bestow on any nation is introducing the religion of Jesus through ourselves.

Hymn 422 was sung, with Mr. Ransom giving the closing prayer. Mrs. Groves served a delicious luncheon, assisted by Mrs. Samuel Hamilton. Election of officers for 1946 was as follows: President, Mrs. John Crozier; vice-president, Mrs. Wm. Wallace; secretary and press secretary, Mrs. Everett Hicks; treasurer, Mrs. Sophia Hamer; Home Helpers, Mrs. Alfred Lettler; Literary, Library and Glad Tidings, Mrs. Harry Axford; Welcome, Welfare, Mrs. Annie White; Minute and Mrs. Crozier; Supply secretary, Mrs. Clifford Reid; Mission Band, Mrs. Crozier; assistants, Miss Catherine Dickerson and Mrs. Tom Addison.

MAIDSTONE CROSS

Penny Sale.

Penny Sale, St. Mary's parish hall, Maidstone, on Sunday, November 25th. Special prizes, enjoyable time. Joan Walker, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Walker, was the lucky winner, on ticket 167, of the lovely hand-made rug raffled by the Maidstone Women's Institute. Mrs. John E. Kerr sold the ticket.

November 25th is the date of the big evening for the Penny Sale, sponsored by the Young Ladies' Sodality in St. Mary's parish hall, at 8 p.m. Euchre will also be played before the drawings. Come out and enjoy the evening.

Mrs. John Chittle entertained delightfully, at her home, with a miscellaneous shower, on Thursday evening, for her daughter, Miss Rosemary, whose wedding will be an event at St. Mary's Church, December 1st. Nine tables of bunco were enjoyed and lovely prizes went to Mrs. D. J. McLean, Miss Donna O'Neill and Mrs. Colcho of Windsor. Tally prizes to Donna O'Neill and Miss Walker. A lovely luncheon was enjoyed by the guests and Rosemary received many beautiful gifts. Rosemary has asked her sister, Bernadette, Miss Marcelle Lepain, Ursula Hayes and Miss Du-larne to be her bridesmaids. Mrs. Thomas Chittle, the popular bride-elect's aunt, will entertain for about forty relatives at a shower, on Sunday evening.

Mrs. D. J. McLean spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. A. C. McPharlin, and family, in Detroit.

Mrs. Vincent McCloskey and Bob Flood are progressing favourably from dog bites.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Little entertained a few relatives and friends on their 17th wedding anniversary, on November 15th.

Frank Kane spent a few days last week with his father, Bernard Kane, in Detroit.

Sandwich South Red Cross will sponsor a party soon for the return of men of the township and will present the clasps with each man's crest of the service he was discharged from. Kindly supply names of these "Vets" to Mrs. Frank John.

Welcome home to Johnnie John, of Windsor, formerly of here, who arrived home on Wednesday from overseas service.

Your Heart Right.

By J. N. Sceviour.

You need not worry, need not fret

About the other fellow yet.

His problem he can better solve

If you your fears will now dissolve.

So stop this moment and resolve

To keep your own heart right.

"Relieve yourself of anxious thought

For worry always comes to naught

Just keep your own heart right.

Cease thinking of another's sin —

What he has done or where he been;

He'll have a better chance to win:

Just keep your own heart right.

Within your heart there's mighty power

To change all things this very hour;

So keep your own heart right.

If on the truth your heart you place

Your friend will win out in the race.

And he his God can better face:

So keep your own heart right.

Keeping right is a hard job — the hardest in the world, but it is become such a complex piece of machinery

it is difficult to understand its different parts and their usefulness.

It is the perfect working of all parts which produces the real results.

The failure of one part interferes with all the other parts. When all parts are more or less out of order the confusion is terrific.

Just now the world seems to be full of old ill-running machinery. Worn cogs, loose belts, flattened wheels and bent shafts are the order of the day.

The scrap heaps are waiting to receive which is long overdue. The nations are in the same fix. Many refuse to keep things running on the old schedule and by the old methods. The armies and navies slipped a lot of old ill-will cogs but many more need to be slipped before we have order out of chaos. Secret diplomacy, racial jealousy are a bit twisted. Public debts and unemployment are out of gear. Governments never know when they will receive their death warrants.

In the midst of all this there is a tiny desire to get things right. There is a general conviction that there is a right which may be attained and if there is, it is the duty of all to determinedly join in the great search.

The hope of success lies in the rightness of our own hearts, a right heart is a precious treasure — it brings joy to the owner, help to men and glory to God.

How is your heart today?

BEHIND THE HEADLINES.

By Dean Wilson.

It is no secret on Parliament Hill that there has been considerable concern in various quarters of the government about the progress of the present session so that it has been no surprise to well-informed observers that strenuous efforts have been made lately to speed up its progress. With a report in Ottawa, indicating that the Acting Prime Minister, Mr. Mackenzie King, together with Hon. John Bracken, M. J. Coldwell, and Solon Low, have discussed the ways and means to speed up the current session's work. Moves in this direction have consisted of sittings on Mornings and Wednesday night; there have been careful surveys of the twenty-one legislative pieces on the order paper or in preparation so that an examination of the session in 1946; some sort of "rationing" of the speech-making has been hinted behind the scenes. Meanwhile, it is to be noted that the Government placed a motion on the order paper for the creation of a special committee of eleven members including Speaker Fauteux of the House of Commons to review the rules and standing orders of Parliament in order to simplify, to accelerate and to expedite the business of the House of Commons.

A spokesman for the Federal Government disclosed in this capital that a vast sum of money has been spent and sums almost as great may be still necessary, with this Minister drawing attention to the $5,495,000,000 set out in the recent budget as essential for the immediate future and emphasizing that about $2,500,000,000 of the amount would be spent in the first few months of the coming year, including $2,500,000,000 to be used in war expenditures and demobilization alone. "We will not cut the task of repatriation of our troops and have established them in civilian life," said in part this spokesman. Moreover, he pointed out that inflation was still a danger facing the people of Canada and it would persist in being a danger for some time to come on account of the vast amount of money in circulation. Canada must continue to control prices until complete conversion from wartime economy has taken place," he put forth his belief.

In a 50-page motion picture report tabled in Ottawa, the effects of cartels agreed upon on various articles required or shipped by Canada were disclosed, with some of the results of these cartels being detrimental and others being beneficial. It was claimed. This report stated in part: "Any such balancing of national advantage and disadvantage, however, misleading, Canada has a more serious interest in the totality of cartelization than in the mere sum of the effects of particular cartels. For cartel agreements are one important part of a network of restrictive practices, private and governmental, which spread over the world in the period between the two world wars. The interest of Canada in the revival of trade and in the adoption of policies of expansion transcends any such balancing of possible advantage and disadvantage." Then at another point, it is added that "Cartels are part of a network of restrictive trade practices prejudicial to Canada's welfare, dependent as she is upon a revival of world trade." The report also called for the creation of a United Nations organization to curb cartels and reviewed cartel abuses between 1919 and 1939 showing how international arrangements affected commodities which Canada needed or shipped.

Canada has now a mission to look after not only her military but her civil interests in Germany since this task, it is indicated in Ottawa, has been given Major-General Maurice Pope who has been given the acting rank of Lieutenant-General and who has been appointed to hear this important mission to conquered Germany. Major-General Pope was extremely well known in the capital throughout World War II not merely as a good administrator but as the military adviser to the head of the Canadian government, Prime Minister Mackenzie King, with the closing part of the war finding him as the secretary of the war committee of the Federal Cabinet. Likewise, he has served in important capacities both inside and outside of Canada for the Defence Department. In his new assignment as chief of this military as well as civil mission in Germany, he will be aided by military officers and officials of the Department of External Affairs.

Information has been disclosed in Ottawa that the expenditures incurred on the work of the National Research Council in 1944-45 was $6,535,561.26 as compared with $5,069,839.41 for the previous year, stressing in no uncertain manner that the cost of the operations of this extremely useful organization has not been as high as some rumours would seem to insinuate, especially in view of the nation-wide talk about the value of research efforts in every-day affairs of our time.

During the course of paying a tribute to the retiring director in chief and the public relations officer of the armed services, Canada's Minister of National Defence, Hon. Douglas Abbott, made the declaration in Ottawa that the public relations office of the defence departments must be continued. "Of course the free press, radio and films, I think I may say," said in part the Minister, "the press is the most important. If you want to sell a policy of government to the public you must have the support of the press." He emphasized that an effective defence service is dependent upon adequate appropriations and secured by convincing a majority of the people of Canada of the need for such services.

On two occasions on the same day, motions were made by members in Parliament for the production, in one case, of all communications between the Commodities Prices Stabilization Corporation Limited, and a retired investigator during a certain period, and in another case, for the production of all correspondence between the Commodities Prices Stabilization Corporation Limited and the enforcement administrator of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board from August 1st, 1944, to the present time. However, in both cases, it was made clear on behalf of the Government that "the communications asked for were inter-departmental correspondence, confidential, privileged and not producible in the House," with the spokesman for the Government insisting that it was not in the public interest to produce such materials. In the first case, it was explained that "it would be impossible to get satisfactory reports from government officials if their communications with their superior officers were subject to production in Parliament," adding that official reports would lose a large part of their value if such were the case." In the second case, it was indicated that "the corporation has been regarded as an agency of the WPTB and of the government so that such inter-departmental correspondence could not be produced."

In view of the nation-wide shortages in merchandise, the government has been asked if any steps have been taken or are being taken to prevent manufacturers from holding goods off the Canadian market until January 1st, when the 40 per cent reduction in the excess profits tax takes place. In answer, the Minister of Finance, Hon. J. L. Halsey, has declared: "Under the provisions of Order-in-Council P.C. 8528 of November 1st, 1944, as amended, establishing the Wartime Prices and Trade Board regulations, it is an offence against the regulations for any person to withhold from sale any goods required for the ordinary purposes of his business. Through regular investigations and enforcement procedure, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board takes all reasonable steps to enforce the regulations." Then that, if any specific instances of the withholding from sale of goods in Canada beyond the amount reasonably required for the ordinary purposes of business were reported either to the Wartime Prices and Trade Board or himself, these would be thoroughly investigated.

"Because of the great war potential of uranium pitchblende deposits, the governments concerned do not con- sider it to be in the public interest to give any information on the location of such deposits in Canada," said in part Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Reconstruction, in telling a member of an explanation, though the Minister insisted that such information might be given to the member privately, if he wished. A hint of things to come in Ottawa has been dropped with the disclosure that the retired women in the government's services by returned service personnel may be near since a questionnaire has been circulated in this capital seeking such information indirectly. Also that professional, scientific and technical personnel in the public service may be offered more money in order to prevent any wholesale loss of such personnel to private industry in Canada or United States as it is known that many of these able personnel in this country are not contented with their present earnings here. An Order-in-Council has been passed in Ottawa assuring members of the Inter- statement in their civilian positions after discharge. The new Dominion statistician, Herbert Marshall, has been connected with the Dominion Bureau of Statistics in Ottawa since 1922.

Some Useful Hints on Gladiolus Corms.

In harvesting gladiolus corms, particular care should be taken to protect them from becoming infested with the gladiolus thrips which at this time of the year readily migrates to the corms from the tops, says Alan G. Duxton, Entomological Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture. This can be done in a number of ways, but probably the best method is to cut off the stems at the ground level first and remove the leaves and dried spikes to a safe distance from the bed. The corms can be dug later and at once Calories Lost in Substitutes for Sweetening.

Many queries concerning the use of substitutes in these sugar-short days have been made recently by Canadian housewives. Sugar has been a household problem and the housewife applies her ingenuity in force when she hits upon a possible substitute. However, the housewife is also intelligent; she wants to be sure of the merits of the substitutes she discovers. Take saccharin, for instance. What are the facts about it?

The Washington Post decided to ask the Food and Drug Administration. They submitted this question — "Is it wise to use saccharin in foods prepared for the person in normal health?" On July 31st of this year, the Post published this reply under the name of Betty Miles. — "It is not wise to use saccharin in cooking." In support of their conclusion, the Food Administration says, "Saccharin, a coal-tar product, has absolutely no food value. Sugar has a high caloric or food value. Hence sugar contributes to the quality of the food as well as sweetens it; when saccharin replaces sugar in cooking, it is obvious that a reduction in the food value of the product ensues; sweetening may have been accomplished, but the calories lost by the absence of sugar are not replaced."

Dr. Daniel L. Sackinger, U. S. Deputy Commissioner of Health, paralleled that stated above. Saccharin for sweetening beverage? Yes. For baking and canning? No. And the Bureau of Human Nutrition and Home Economics states that cooking with saccharin brings out a bitter flavour. The same thing applies if used in canning and they conclude their version of the subject with the statement that "the purity of the product determines the degree of sweetness."

NOTICE!

TAKE NOTICE that the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the Town of Essex intends to pass a bylaw, at a special meeting, at 8 p.m., on the 10th day of December, 1945, to provide for the stopping up, sale and conveying to Alex M. Michael, of the Town of Essex, Merchant, of part of an alleyway and part of a street, in the Town of Essex, as follows:

(1) Part of the alleyway adjoining the southerly limit of lot number 132, according to registered plan number 176, more particularly described as follows: Commencing at the point of intersection of the southerly limit of said lot 132 with the southerly limit of Wilson avenue. Thence westerly along the southerly limit of Wilson avenue, a distance of 6 feet. Thence southeasterly and parallel to the southerly limit of said lot 132 to a point 8 feet southeasterly of the production northeasterly of the limit between lots 23 and 24, plan 176. Thence northeasterly parallel to the last mentioned limit and the production thereof to the southerly limit of lot 132. Thence northeasterly along the last mentioned limit to the place of beginning.

(2) Part of Fox street, more particularly described as follows: Commencing at the point of intersection of the westerly limit of Fox street with the southerly limit of Wilson avenue. Thence southerly along the westerly limit of Fox street to its intersection with the southerly limit of lot 132, plan 176. Thence easterly and parallel to the southerly limit of Wilson avenue a distance of 4 feet. Thence northerly and parallel to the westerly limit of Fox street to the production easterly of the southerly limit of Wilson avenue. Thence westerly along the said production of the southerly limit of Wilson avenue a distance of 4 feet to the place of beginning.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that the town council will, at such meeting, hear any person who claims that his lands will be prejudicially affected by such bylaw and who applies to be heard.

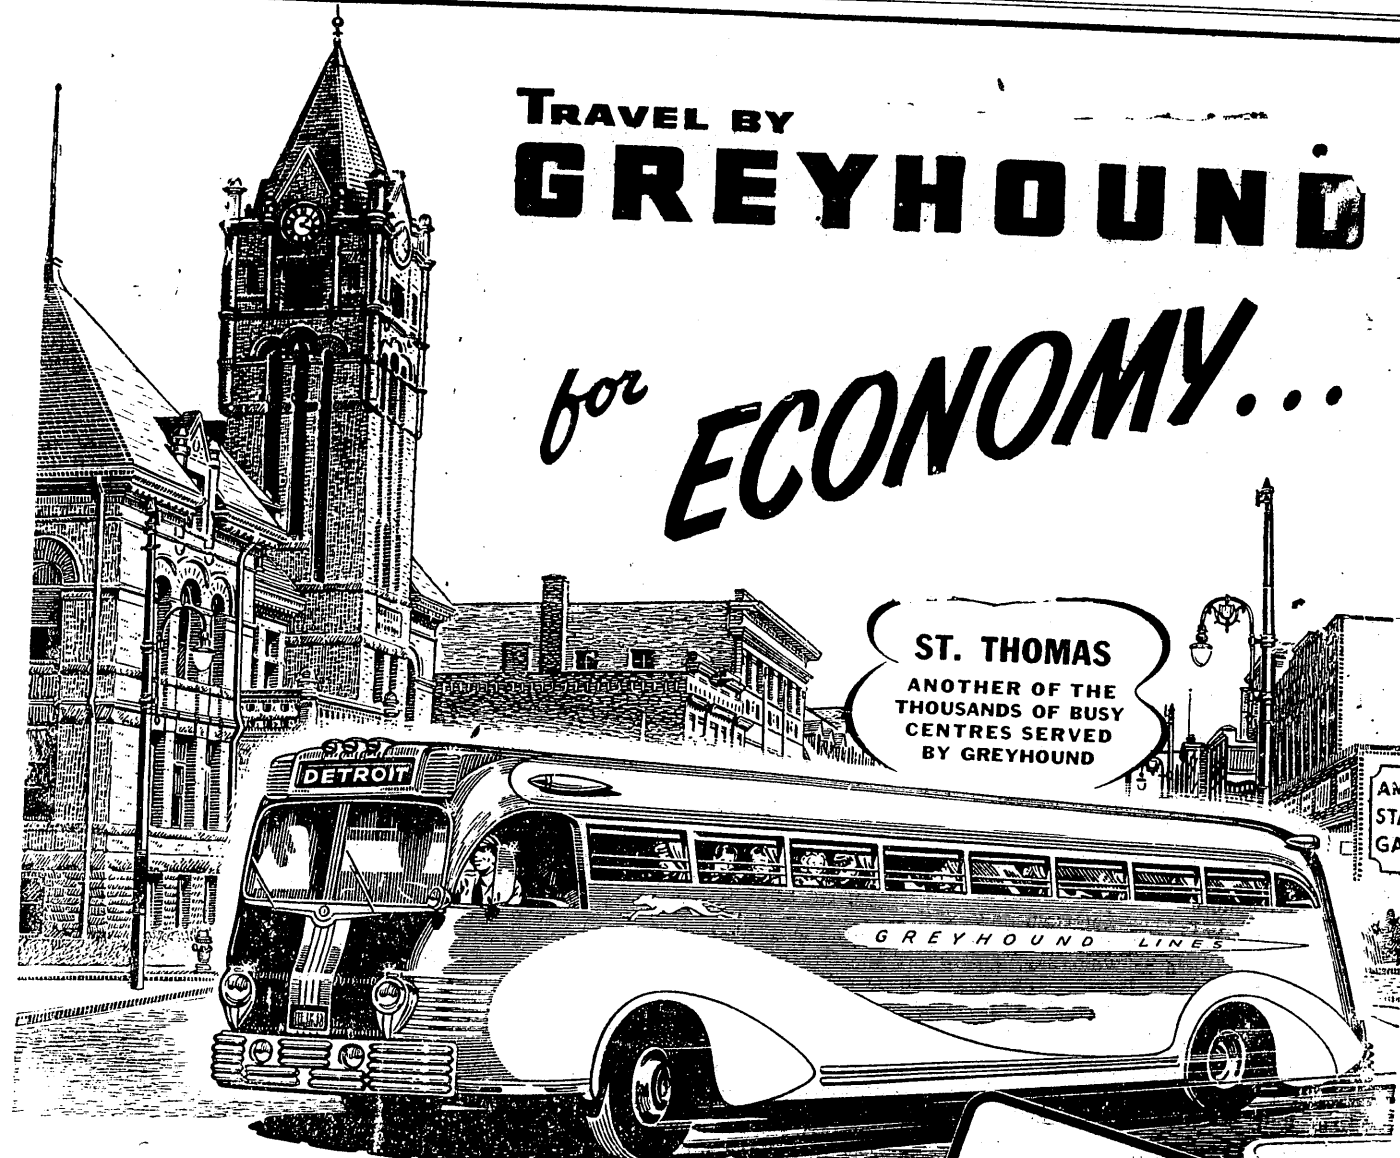

Dated at Essex, Ontario, this 7th day of November, 1945.

K. E. BRETT, Town Clerk

transferred to suitable racks in a good building for drying. As the gladiolus thrips is not able to hibernate successfully out of doors, it is important that none of the insects be carried into storage on the corms. If this is done, the thrips will multiply in storage and, unless carefully treated, will be carried out to the field the following spring to contaminate the new crop. After drying, a sound plan is to separate the different varieties and store them in stout paper bags. This will be found convenient where treatment with naphthalene flakes is to follow, as the flakes can be dusted into the bags when the time for treatment comes, and the tops closed by tying them with a piece of string. The corms should be stored in a cool place as possible, so long as the temperature is not allowed to drop below 32 degrees F. If the temperature can be kept below 40 degrees F. during the winter months all stages of the gladiolus thrips will be killed which makes subsequent treatment unnecessary. This is one of the simplest methods of control available and is now practised by many commercial growers. Taking these precautions will mean better blooms of what is regarded as one of the most beautiful of flowers and will help prevent the spread of one of the most serious threats to gladioli.

World Shipping Promises to be Post-War Headache.

"If there is one sphere more than another in which Canada is brought into direct contact with the world, it is in shipping, and world shipping promises to be a No. 1 post-war headache," says the August Monthly Letter of The Royal Bank of Canada.

Some of the questions in people's minds are as to whether the great war can be utilized in peacetime; what merchant fleet tonnage built during the war is to happen to the huge shipbuilding industry; how can the conflicting interests of nations in sea-borne trade be reconciled?

Most of the solutions, says the article, are wrapped up in the answer to the question: "What is to become of the world trade?" The Atlantic Charter and the Lend-Lease agreements show that Britain and the United States at least are cognizant of the need to eliminate trade barriers. At the same time the shipping business is vital to a number of countries because of their need for foreign exchange. "Before the war, British Empire ships transported two-fifths of the world's sea-borne trade, and the earnings of these ships abroad paid for more than 10 per cent of Britain's merchandise imports. Conversely, though other nations' ships carried more of the United States' foreign commerce than did American ships, the United States did not need to lose any supposed loss on shipping was made up by increased ability of the foreign countries to buy American goods."

As to shipbuilding, the Letter remarks, "The world has built up facilities for constructing many more vessels than can be used. Even if the normal 20-year life-span of vessels should be shortened by a third, construction for replacement, providing constant efficiency improvements for a world merchant fleet of 60 million tons, would not amount to more than 5 million tons a year. And this, declares an article published under auspices of Yale Institute, would still leave about half of the building facilities unused." But, "overshadowing the question of surplus tonnage is the problem of its distribution among the nations. Nationalism is strong in regard to shipping, and has been encouraged by some governments because of the importance of ships in defense. There are national shipyards, national fleets and national lines. But nationalism in this, as in other spheres, can be carried to excess that becomes dangerous. It prompts nations to look on the shipping side of their own projects, setting up unrealistic aims which can be provocative of international misunderstanding."

Speaking of the outlook for Britain whose flag has flown on every sea for centuries, the article comments, "The British government has followed a policy toward the shipping industry involving minimum control and subsidization. It has relied upon the self-regulation of the industry in national and in trade organizations. The Chamber of Shipping, most influential of shipping trade organizations, asks transfer to private ownership of all vessels built by the government during the war, and declares strongly: "Great Britain must be prepared to require that the peace settlement should include effective guarantees against the renewal of the race in subsidies which marked the pre-war period."

The United States has won a unique position as a result of the war, being in possession of a total tonnage greater than that owned by all the allied powers before the war started. The Letter continues: "Admiral Horthy, Viceroy of the United States Maritime Commission, has declared in favour of a United States merchant fleet of 15 to 20 million deadweight tons, routes with as little American competition as possible, and with greater development of tramp business. 'We have,' he said, 'no ambition to hog the seas. All we ask is that our legitimate requirements be accepted by our friends abroad.'"

It has been pointed out that the operations of American ships have been consistently more costly than those of other nations. If, as suggested by some, the United States is to have a merchant marine carrying half or more of its foreign trade, it must be supported by large sums raised from taxation. Suppose, one writer said recently, the fleet is to be set at 20 million tons, the cost in operating subsidies alone would range between $200 million and $300 million a year. Those opposed to subsidization declare that a fleet which is heavily supported by public funds, whether for construction or operation, links the government with trade and brings it into conflict with other governments."

Recalling that by the third quarter of the 19th century Canada was fourth among the ship-owning nations of the world, The Royal Bank article traces the decline of Canadian shipping interests due to advent of steel ships and then goes on to say: "Canada will probably emerge from this war with a merchant fleet of more than 300 ocean-going ships, in addition to her lake, river and coastal fleet. Before the war she had only 37 ocean-going ships, a total of 275,000 tons. That Canada ranked fourth or fifth in world trade."

"In this world war, Canada has risen from practically zero to third place among the ship-building nations of the world. Her record in building merchant ships will hold a place of honour in the history of the national war effort."

"The demands of war have provided Canada with a shipbuilding industry, and the question uppermost in the minds of all connected with it is its future. Conscious of the great part her Navy played in this world war, and of the contribution made to the United Nations' cause by Canada's production of freighters, it is not likely that Canadians will return to the apathy which marked public regard of shipbuilding and shipping before the war. If Canadian shipping companies can render service at reasonable costs in competition with foreign lines, and if other governments refrain from subsidizing in an intertemporal way, there seems no reason to suppose that Canadian firms could not be successful."

Canada is very well supplied with efficiently organized ports; it has a good network of railway and inland shipping connections, all prepared to handle a large volume of ocean-borne traffic. The Letter concludes: "Enough has been said about the problems of re-organizing the shipping industry for peacetime to indicate the need of energetic and wise effort. It should be clear, also, that Canada cannot act unilaterally in the building or operation of her merchant marine. It should be the central aim of peace-loving peoples and governments to restore the market places of the world, freed from the insecurity of government control, the authority of monopolies, the embarrassment of exchange limitations, and all the other things which interfere with international commerce. While removal of state control over trade and shipping is not likely so long as urgent tasks of war, relief and repatriation remain to be accomplished, the health of shipping requires that the normal process of world trade and sea transport shall be restored and encouraged to expand with the least delay."

Clean-up of Garden Will Destroy Insects.

Most insects hibernate out-of-doors in one stage of development or another. In the Canadian climate, protection of some sort is essential to enable them to survive the sub-zero temperatures. In some cases this protection is provided by the insects themselves and takes the form of thicker masses, woolly coats (on caterpillars) and so on, says Alan G. Duxton, Division of Entomology, Dominion Department of Agriculture.

In many instances, however, the insects must rely on insulating materials quite apart from their own bodies, and probably the most common of these is plant refuse, such as coverings of dead leaves, masses of withered grass near the ground surface, hollow stems of plants or piles of refuse found in or near cultivated fields or gardens. When winter approaches, insects seek cover beneath these as a protection from the cold. Some species are far-sighted enough to lay their eggs or spin up their cocoons on garden plants, depending on these to provide suitable cover when they will and die down in the autumn.

The careful gardener takes advantage of this habit on the part of insects to reduce their numbers and limit the insects which will emerge the following spring. By raking up and burning all dead leaves, old grass, weeds and other sources of shelter, a large percentage of insects hibernating in the garden will be at once destroyed or will die of exposure during the autumn, winter, or early spring months. Burning over grassland and weedy areas adjacent to the garden exterminates caterpillars, and some adult forms, such as butterflies and beetles. All of which will be found helpful. If this practice is neglected, a large proportion of the insects which inhabit the garden in the fall will pass through the winter successfully to emerge in the spring to seriously damage the new crops when they are sown through the soil. Garden sanitation is one of the most important steps in insect control and will pay large dividends if carefully carried out.

Clean Houses for Poultry Pay.

Sanitation is one of the most important factors governing successful poultry production. It is a waste of time and money to grow good, healthy chickens out on clean land and later put them into winter quarters in a filthy pen, or even just a dirty pen. Well cleaned houses will pay good returns, says M. H. Jenkins, Dominion Experimental Farm, Nappan, N.S.

The usual time of cleaning the laying house at Nappan is in August or early September. After the older birds have been removed from the laying house, all feed and feeding equipment, roosts, nests and nest boxes, dropping boards, as well as the litter are removed from the house. A thorough brushing of ceilings, walls and floors is made to remove all loose particles of dust and dirt. Then the walls and floors are thoroughly soaked and scrubbed with hot water in which creolin or lye solution has been used. This is done with a stiff broom so as to get into the cracks and crevices of the walls and floors. Following the scrubbing the whole building is given a thorough hosing to remove all particles of dirt and filth. All doors and windows are opened in order to permit the pen to dry out thoroughly. While the pen is drying, the equipment which has been moved out into the open is brushed and and then thoroughly scrubbed and hosed, using a disinfectant solution in the scrubbing. After the pen and equipment are dry, the latter is put back in place and fresh litter is put in. This makes a nice, clean pen for winter quarters for the laying stock. Either creolin or lye may be used. Care should be taken not to get it on the body or on the clothes. At Nappan one pound of lye to 3 gallons of water is used. When creolin is used the mixture is one-half pint to 12 quarts of water. Both solutions have given excellent results. If this practice is followed yearly there will be fewer colds and diseases among the poultry flock.

Court of Revision on Assessment Roll.

TOWNSHIP OF SANDWICH SOUTH. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the first sittings of the Court of Revision on the assessment roll for the Township of Sandwich South for the year 1946, will be held at the Town Hall, Oldcastle, at the hour of 4 o'clock in the afternoon, on MONDAY, DECEMBER 3rd, 1945. All persons having business at said Court TAKE NOTICE and govern themselves accordingly. JOHN McALIFFE.

Poultry Houses.

The varied climatic conditions throughout Canada demand poultry houses adaptable to the region. Dominion Experimental Farms Service, has gathered an immense amount of information and each Experimental Farm throughout the Dominion is in a position not only to give advice as to the best type of housing and equipment for local conditions but also to supply practical plans for building.

Clash of Minds in Politics.

By Lewis Milligan. This would be a flat and monotonous world if we all thought and acted alike, and the Creator evidently never intended us to be so. He would have populated the earth with a species of human ants. As it is, He has made us all different and endowed us with intelligence, emotions and individual will power. The clash of minds in politics, and even in religion, is a healthy condition; it saves us from stagnation, and it makes for progress.

This mutual antagonism, indeed, is strictly in accordance with the laws of nature and of the universe. Gravitation would crush this planet and all upon it to a dead mass if it were not for the centrifugal force which opposes it. Between these two forces the earth is maintained in a free state of variability and order, which are necessary for the production and preservation of life.

In politics we have the same two opposing forces which, while they are antagonistic, are in reality co-operative in maintaining the balance of society. The revolutionists may be said to be the explosive force, and the conservatives the force of gravitation. When either one gets full control there is social chaos or social stagnation. I was impressed with this thought recently while reading Macaulay's essay on Milton, in which he described the opposing political and religious elements which took part in the Cromwellian Revolution. There were the Roundheads on the one hand and the Cavaliers on the other, and these two parties personified in Cromwell and King Charles I. Macaulay was to present a fair picture of the Royalists, who were the conservatives of their day. He condemns alike the tyranny of the King and the excesses of revolutionists. He praises the sincerity and high principles of Cromwell and his Puritans, and then turning to the defenders of the monarchy he says:

"Our Royalist countrymen were not heartless, dangle courtiers, bowing at every step, and simpering at every word. They were not mere machines for destruction, dressed in uniforms, caned into skill, intoxicated into valor, defending without love, destroying without hatred. There was a freedom in their subservience, a nobleness in their very degradation. The sentiment of individual independence was strong within them. They were indeed misled, but by no false or selfish motive. Compassion and romantic hope, the prejudices of childhood, and the venerable names of history threw over them a spell. . . . It was not for a treacherous king or an intolerant church that they fought, but for the old banner which had waved in so many battles over the heads of their fathers, and for the altars at which they had received the hands of their brides. Though nothing could be more erroneous than their political opinions, they possessed, in a far greater degree than their adversaries, those qualities which are the grace of private life. With many of the vices of the Round Table, they also had many of its virtues, courtesy, generosity, veracity, tenderness, and respect for women. They had far more both of profound and polite learning than the Puritans. Their manners were more engaging. Their tempers more amiable, their tastes more elegant, and their house holds more cheerful."

Macaulay goes on to say that Milton did not strictly belong to either side, that he was neither a Puritan nor a Royalist, but in his character combined the nobler qualities of every party in harmonious union. This, Macaulay points out, is shown in his poetry and in his prose writings. "Hating tyranny with perfect hatred, he had nevertheless all the estimable and ornamental qualities which were almost entirely monopolized by the party of the tyrant," says Macaulay.

There is no comparison between the social conditions in which we live today and those which prevailed in England under Charles I, and there is no need for extreme revolutionary parties. We have representative government and a social order that allows freedom of speech, and even permits anyone to criticize or condemn the order of things to his heart's content. But the true balance of a democracy is maintained by sane and tolerant political opposition.

NEW STREAMLINED STATION: In contrast to the familiar frame buildings of the past, this new station at Pendleton, Ont., stressing modern lines and a bright interior, is a forerunner of what smaller stations on the Canadian Pacific Railway may look like when building restrictions are eased. Three other new C.P.R. stations in Ontario—at Leaside, Marathon and Whitefish Falls—are included in the program of experiment to develop a model as part of an over-all improvement plan.

Useful Hints on Care of House Plants.

In the care of house plants in the winter time, the chief points to consider are atmosphere, heat, drainage, drafts, and the varying effects of sunlight on the different plants. A dry atmosphere is to be avoided because it not only stunts the plants but helps to increase certain insect pests, such as red spider and thrips. Moisture in the air around the plants may be increased by standing the pots in shallow trays filled with pebbles, gravel or moss and keeping them moist. Normal moisture is also dependent on good drainage. This can best be arranged by using soil in the pot that will allow both air and water to pass through easily. A mixture of two parts good garden loam soil, one part rotted manure, and one part sand will generally fulfill the soil requirements of potted plants. To prevent the surface of the soil from caking and thus prevent the access of air, stir the surface gently from time to time. Further drainage may be obtained by placing pebbles or small stones or broken parts of an old pot at the bottom of the pot, so as to help draw off excess water.

The placing of the plants to their best advantage calls for some consideration. All plants will not flourish anywhere, and care should be taken to put the plant where it will stand in a draft. Concerning sunlight, different plants apparently have different preferences. For example, ferns should not be placed in direct sunlight but where there is an abundance of light all around. On the other hand, flowering plants as a rule require a lot of sunlight they can get, particularly in winter time. Foliage plants can thrive all right in dim light but in winter time they should be placed in direct sunlight.

However, the great secret of having fresh-looking plants in the home in winter is to avoid the over-heating of rooms. It is a good plan to commence the winter care of the plants as soon as the heat is turned on in the fall. Now-house plants have been killed by heat than by cold. Plants should never be placed too near radiators. The ideal temperature for house plants is about 65 degrees, or better still from 60 to 65 degrees F., three degrees less than the recommended house temperature from the health point of view. If one desires to have the plants in the living rooms, the best thing to do is to keep the rooms as cool as possible consistent with personal comfort. Many, or large plants should not be kept in bedrooms, particularly at night, or for preference none at all in winter when all the windows are closed.

100 MILES per HOUR on FIRESTONE SYNTHETICS

BECAUSE OF THESE FIRESTONE EXTRA VALUES—

Yes, you can be sure of Firestone tires standing up to any practical speed you will ever travel. Wilbur Shaw, the famous race driver, definitely proved that for you in an actual speedway test.

- Shaw drove for 500 miles at an average speed of 100 miles per hour—on the straightaways he hit 135 miles per hour.
- Not a skid or blowout occurred in this gruelling test—equal to 50,000 miles of ordinary driving.

You may never want to drive at 100 miles per hour but it's mighty comforting to know your Firestone tires have the reserve strength and stamina to stand up to any demand you could ever make of them. When you are able to buy tires insist on having Firestone DeLuxe Champion tires on your car.

On Monday night the E. H. S. girls' basketball team journeyed to Windsor to play a game with a team from Walkerville Collegiate. It was a good game, although at the end of the game Walkerville was leading 22 points to 11.

We have planned several games with the Windsor schools before Christmas, hoping to give Essex sufficient practice before our own series begins, after the holidays.

Friday night the senior girls played the junior girls. The game was exciting from start to finish, but the senior girls were victorious by a wide margin.

During the month of November basketball competition between the Red and Golds has been carried on. The captains of the Red teams are Frank Kiger and Alan MacGill, and for the Golds, Frank Raymond and Norbert Lehoucq.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hess have purchased a home on Chatham street west, in Windsor, and have moved to same. The Women's Institute held their regular meeting in the town hall, on Wednesday afternoon, with Mrs. Chas. Billing, the president, in charge. The meeting was opened by singing the Institute ode, followed by recitation of the Lord's Prayer. After the roll call the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Mrs. S. J. Ash gave a report on what the committee had done in regard to the crosses for the cemetery. It was decided to have white marble and it was left to the committee to go ahead with the work. Mrs. Charles Scarlett reported that 122 boxes had been packed and sent to boys who are still overseas. A committee of Mesdames Chas. Scarlett, M. McLeod, Wm. Crossley, John Burns, and Wesley McLeod was appointed to arrange for a party in the hall early in December, to raise funds for the Institute. The meeting closed by singing God Save the King.

The annual Christmas entertainment will be held in the church on Thursday evening, December 20th.

Circle No. 2 of the North Ridge W. B. A. will hold a Bake Goods Sale and Bazaar, in O. A. Whitall's Implement Shop, on Saturday, December 1st, starting at 10 a.m.

Education and High School.

As has been pointed out Secondary School education in Ontario prior to 1944 had reached its limit. Since education was, in the last analysis, paid for by property tax, the rural High School district with its limited assessment base was hard put to maintain even a bare minimum of Secondary education; the urban district on the other hand, with its huge assessment, could institute whatever additional educational facilities it chose. Thus it was seen that as far as equal educational opportunity was concerned, the principle was largely a myth. Obviously since every citizen who bought the products of the city factory, whether farm machinery, electrical equipment, or clothing was helping to pay for the up-to-date city school, it was not fair that the man who owned no real estate, even though he had a large personal income or a fortune in stocks and bonds, made little or no contribution toward the cost of educating his own children.

In 1944 the Provincial Government, with this state of affairs in mind, enacted legislation transferring 50% of the overall cost of public education from the field of municipal taxation to that of provincial taxation. Of course some of the more affluent districts do not receive a full 50% of their costs, but many of the less favoured districts actually receive an even greater percentage. In the case of Essex High School district the portion of the cost paid for out of provincial revenues is 75% of all authorized expenditures up to a maximum of approximately $54,000.

Another factor contributing to the betterment of the High School situation is the creation of the new Essex High School District. As will be recalled, during the year 1944 a survey of Secondary School education in Essex County was conducted by the Ontario Department of Education. Some rather startling injustices were unearthed and the findings of the Commission, together with certain suggestions for remedial action were forwarded to the Essex County Council. The outcome of the matter was that in June of this year the County Council enacted a group of bylaws setting up a number of High School districts in the County of Essex. Essex High School district, which up to that time had simply meant the municipality of the Town of Essex, now consists of the Town of Essex and the Townships of Colchester North, Gosfield North, two-thirds of Malden and one-third of Sandwich South. Formerly the assessment of the district was $1,440,818, now stands at $7,468,666. Of course this does not mean that the county did not previously contribute the cost of the education of those of its students who attended the Essex High School, but it had no equity in the school building and its representatives made up slightly less than a third of the Board of Education. Another point was that the county grant did not come in until the end of the year and during the intervening period the town had to underwrite the cost as well as pay (without refund) the debentures covering the cost of building and site.

It will doubtless be argued in some quarters that this new structure and these enlarged grants are simply an invitation to irresponsible and even vicious extravagance; nothing could be farther from the truth. All the expenditures of the High Schools are scrutinized and checked by officials of the Ontario Department of Education and any Board which launches an extravagant program will be sharply checked.

One other point must be borne in mind; other schools are enthusiastically embracing the opportunity to make a better Canada through the better education which has thus been made possible. If we do less we are arbitrarily denying our children the opportunities which are their right. We are not saving money, we are in effect making a present of it to some other High School district.

We must make the school a gateway to life, not consider it a place to park youngsters so that they won't be in the way at home.

Letter from Ottawa Re Water.

Ed. Hines Jr., local Water Commissioner, is in receipt of a letter from Department of Reconstruction, which indicates that the efforts of the town to secure Dominion assistance in the bringing of water from the lake may finally be bearing fruit.

A definite appropriation still awaits the outcome of the Dominion-Provincial conference, the letter states, but assurance is given that the matter will be given full attention by the Department as soon as possible.

The town's proposals have also been submitted to all appropriate departments of the Dominion Government, which is expected will also help share the expense of the project.

The letter from the Department of Reconstruction follows:

Ottawa, November 28th.

Office of the Deputy Minister.

Mr. Edward E. Hines Jr.,

Water Comm., Town of Essex.

Essex, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Hines—This will acknowledge receipt of a very full brief in connection with the request for Dominion aid for the proposed water system of the Town of Essex, submitted by the Water Commission, together with the report prepared by Messrs. Newman & Armstrong.

As this is one of a number of similar projects which must await the outcome of the Dominion-Provincial Conference the matter will have to be considered at a later date. However you have our assurance that this matter will receive our best attention.

Yours sincerely,

L. J. HAWDEN,

Secretary to Deputy Minister.

Housing.

The following is an article by Gray Turgeon, chairman of the House of Commons Committee on Reconstruction and Re-establishment of Parliament, in his report of 1942-43.

The need of housing and the resulting public disturbance are such that nothing can now be considered except positive, explicit action that will immediately bring about construction of homes in all parts of Canada. These homes must first of all be for returning veterans and then for the public generally. So far as is possible consistent with the demand for speed, the houses built must be of various types suitable to the needs and the tastes of those who will pay for them through buying or renting.

There are several outstanding features of the housing situation and consequent discussion.

1. The dreadful scarcity of homes which besides the ordinary need creates a tragic situation for veterans coming back after years of service overseas.

2. The absolute shortage of manpower both for actual construction and for the making of materials. This feature is made more serious by the fact that the Canadian lumber industry is largely geared to export trade rather than to domestic requirements.

3. The insistent, evidently organized and high pressured demand that the national government become the landlord of what is called "with apparent willingness" for private acceptance of the condition of the "low income" group.

4. The absolute lack of both land and financial power of municipal authorities to take part in this or any other scheme for making low income housing available to the people.

5. The general feeling of the public that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people, and that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people.

6. The general feeling of the public that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people, and that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people.

7. The general feeling of the public that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people, and that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people.

8. The general feeling of the public that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people, and that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people.

9. The general feeling of the public that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people, and that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people.

10. The general feeling of the public that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people, and that the government should be responsible for the housing of the people.

I'll Get That Guy Some Day!

I guess I'm getting old.
My hair is turning white.
My eyes are getting dim.
I cannot see just right.

My face is getting wrinkled,
My teeth are falling out,
And I have noticed lately,
I'm getting pretty stout.

The old pump isn't working
Just as freely as it should,
But I take a little shot, and Right away feel pretty good.

In church one Sunday morning
I couldn't stand on my feet.
Along came an undertaker,
And dragged me from the seat.

He thought he had a customer,
But I decided not to go.
Wasn't sure I'd get to heaven,
And wouldn't like it down below.

He paid no attention to me.
When I was young and well,
But was right there to grab me
The moment that I fell.
He was greatly disappointed
When he saw I was O.K.
But I know that he was thinking
I'll get that guy some day.

NOTICE!

TAKE NOTICE that the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the Town of Essex intends to pass a bylaw, at a special meeting, at 8 p.m., on the 10th day of December, 1945, to provide for the stopping up, sale and conveying to Alex M. Michael, of the Town of Essex, Merchant, of part of an alleyway and part of a street in the Town of Essex, as follows:

1. Part of the alleyway adjoining the southwesterly limit of lot number 122 according to registered plan number 122, more particularly described as follows: Commencing at the point of intersection of the southwesterly limit of said lot 122 with the southerly limit of Wilson Avenue. Thence westerly along the southerly limit of Wilson Avenue a distance of 6 feet. Thence southeasterly and parallel to the southwesterly limit of said lot 122 to a point 8 feet southeasterly of the production northeasterly of the limit between lots 23 and 21, plan 176. Thence northeasterly parallel to the last mentioned limit and the production thereof to the southwesterly limit of lot 132. Thence northwesterly along the last mentioned limit to the place of beginning.

2. Part of Fox Street, more particularly described as follows: Commencing at the point of intersection of the westerly limit of Fox Street with the southerly limit of Wilson Avenue. Thence southerly along the westerly limit of Fox Street to its intersection with the southwesterly limit of lot 122, plan 176. Thence easterly and parallel to the southerly limit of Wilson Avenue a distance of 1 foot. Thence northerly and parallel to the westerly limit of Fox Street to the production easterly of the southerly limit of Wilson Avenue. Thence westerly along the said production of the southerly limit of Wilson Avenue a distance of 1 foot to the place of beginning.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that the town council will, at such meeting, hear any person who claims that his lands will be prejudicially affected by such bylaw and who applies to be heard.

tives must have municipal authorities present as advisers, or in some other way must take every possible step to see that municipal views receive consideration.

Municipalities must be put into position where they can deal adequately with housing and particularly with that part of the housing controversy that arises around the question of help to "low-income" groups.

"Canadian Homes" Survey.

Houses crammed end to end in poorly planned ribbon development deprive householders of sunlight rooms. Over a quarter of the homes in the cities and small towns of Ontario need artificial light in some room of the house during the daytime. On farms one would expect spacious surroundings to allow sunlight indoors. Surprisingly, therefore, is finding that 11% of Ontario farmhouses need lights on during the day. Clustered outbuildings added to the main building are reported as the reason.

But in the matter of cooking equipment Ontario housewives are better off than their Canadian sisters elsewhere. Even so there is still plenty of sales opportunity for manufacturers of this equipment. Almost one in seven city women, nearly half of village women and two-thirds of farm women must still stand over hot stoves burning coal, wood or oil every time they cook. In the winter many of them cook on the stoves which are still relied on to heat their homes.

Analyzing the findings of the "Canadian Homes" Survey by the five main geographic regions, Lever Brothers Limited have revealed how living conditions in moderate and low-cost homes compare with each other in different parts of Canada and with the country as a whole.

"Food, clothing, and shelter, the three basic needs of every human being — should be available to everyone, at a price which they can afford to pay and of a standard which makes for healthy, happy, comfortable living," said C. A. Massey, Lever President, speaking to the Kiwanis Club of Montreal, Tuesday.

Women researchers visited homes throughout Ontario and the rest of Canada and interviewed housewives to find out how their homes meet basic household needs in terms of Shelter, Fooding and Clothing. They found that Ontario houses are amongst the poorest planned in Canada from the standpoint of getting sunshine indoors. Equal to the national average of 27% of Canadian city homes which need artificially lighted rooms during the day, Ontario city figures are exceeded only by Quebec with 39%. In small towns (29%) and on farms (11%) Ontario figures for gloomy rooms are the worst in Canada, and exceed the all-Canada average by 12% and 4% respectively.

All but 1% of Ontario city people have running water laid on in their homes. Less well off and 8% worse than the national average are small town homes, with 39% deficiency. Half of all Ontario farms are similarly handicapped, although they outdo their fellow Canadians, two-thirds of whom must pump water from a well, stream or other primitive source.

The hot water necessary for so many household tasks is not always conveniently obtainable from taps. More people have it when winter furnaces are lit. In summer time, just over a third of Ontario city people have plentiful supplies at all times. Another 42% have it by lighting gas, electric or coal heaters, and 19% must heat it in kettles or other containers on top of the stove. This inconvenient method is also used by 69% of small town people and by 80% of farmers' wives.

In the matter of bathroom equipment, this province is a little better than average. Regular bathtubs are lacked by 13% of Ontario city people, by 60% of small town folk, and by 66% of farmers. The comparable national shortage is 18%, 54% and 75%. Wash basins, the other most common bathroom piece, are to be found in four out of five city homes, almost half the small town homes, and almost a third of farm homes. Showers are rare amongst the homes surveyed and in Ontario they seem to be no more popular than in any other part of Canada.

The prevalence of unhealthy and outmoded outside toilets in rural areas is well known. In cities, where crowded living conditions would tend to multiply their effects, a national average of 4% moderate and low-cost homes are still dependent on these antiquated and unsanitary things. More significant are the Lever regional figures which show that Quebec alone has succeeded in banishing them from her cities. Next best is British Columbia with 27%, followed by Ontario with 27%. Worst of all are Prairie cities (15%) with the Maritimes' 10% a little better, though still bad enough.

Overcrowding, which is Canada's worst housing headache, has not missed Ontario. Aggravating it are boarders, lodgers and hired help, who live in one out of every five city homes, every eighth village home and more than a quarter of farm houses. To add to the crush, near relatives — married daughters, sons, parents, granddaughters, etc., are living with 9% of city families, 7% of village families and 18% of farm families. This overcrowding is not all due to wartime shifts in population, as investigators found no surplus of living accommodation anywhere in Canada.

A result of this congestion is to be found in the number of Ontario people who report they have no bedrooms to sleep in. In Ontario cities 11%, in village 12% and on farms 2% have to bed down in living rooms, dining-rooms, kitchens, or anywhere a cot or a couch can be made up.

For a great many foods cooling is just as important as heating is for others. Ontario leads all other regions in ownership of refrigeration facilities. Grouping mechanical and ice refrigerators together, Lever's found that 93% of urban dwellers, three-quarters of non-farm rural people, and almost half the farmers questioned have such equipment.

Washing machines — more plentiful in Canada than in any other country — are in better supply in Ontario than in most other provinces. Laundry tubs — the stationary, built-in kind — are missing from three-quarters of city homes, nine-tenths of village homes, and farm homes don't have any. Most of these women use the less convenient movable metal kind that have to be lugged around, filled by hand and tipped or baled out after each rinsing.

In a general observation of the state of Ontario house interiors, Lever investigators found that more than half are cracked, discoloured and in need of paint, paper and general refitting. More than one in every eight houses in Ontario cities and small towns are so run down that only major repairs or replacements will restore the original appearance of walls, floors and ceilings. In equally unsatisfactory condition are almost a quarter of Ontario farm houses.

Carnauba Palm a Valuable Wax.

From the semi-arid northeastern area of Brazil comes the world's entire supply of the world's most valuable wax, the product of the Carnauba palm tree. The uses of Carnauba wax are many. It goes into plastic acid for gunpowder, lipstick, sealing material for dry-cell batteries, and is used in the manufacture of floor, shoe and furniture polishes, gramophone records, sound film, electric insulators, soap, candles, lubricating oil and carbon paper. The wax is also used for waterproofing paper, cardboard, textiles, and industrial machinery, and in the manufacture of various solvents and ointments, artificial fruit, plasters, matches, cable coverings, paints, and varnishes. A coating of the wax on cables aeroplanes to increase their speed. Because carnauba wax has three times the viscosity of beeswax, it is used to harden beeswax, ceresin, and paraffin.

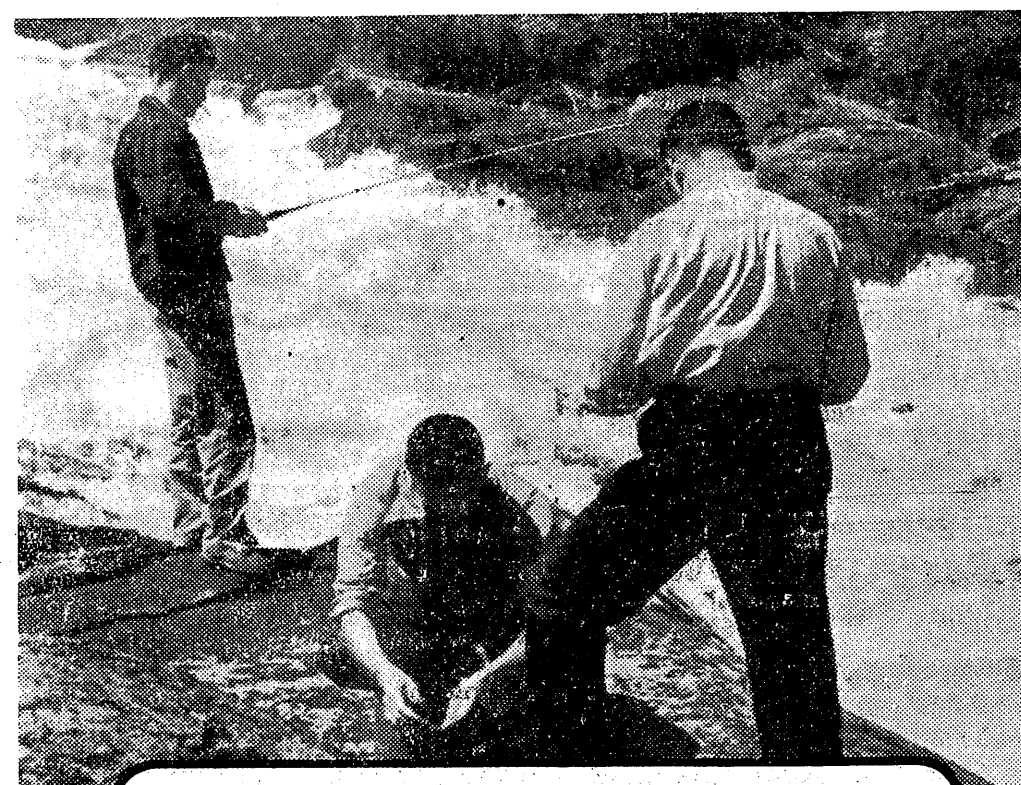

The value of the carnauba palm, however, is not limited to wax. The trunk provides rural housing materials, furniture, pillars, fences, bridges, and fuel for industrial use. From the leaves are made baskets, thatch roofs, hats, ropes, mats, and other woven products. The sap provides a wholesome taro, a cake-like drink. Young shoots are used as a palmito cabbage and the heart of the young palm makes a starch, similar to manioc (cassava) flour. From the pitch comes a coke-like drink. Stalks and other residue provide cattle fodder.

The wax comes from the serried, fan-like leaves, radiating from the crown of the tree. Giving the appearance of a coating of dust, the wax forms during the dry season, preventing excessive evaporation from the tree. Drought increases the yield of wax, but severe drought over a period of years may kill the tree. Young trees begin to produce wax after eight or ten years.

For them... A REAL HOLIDAY!

1. Find out all about what your neighbourhood offers, and become a booster.
2. Write your friends in the States about Ontario... show them when they come you're really proud of it.
3. Try to make any visitor glad he came.
4. Take time to give requested information fully and graciously.
5. In business dealings, remember our reputation for courtesy and fairness depends on you.
6. To sum it up, follow the "Golden Rule."

Those who deal directly with tourists, such as hotelkeepers, guides, know what visitors appreciate. They might suggest:

IT'S EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS... it's good business!

Worth his weight in gold! Actually, the Province of Ontario, in pre-war years, profited to almost the same extent from tourist business as it did from the much publicized gold mining industry. It is up to each of us individually to see that this business goes on growing.

This diagram, based on figures supplied by the Hotel Association, shows how everyone benefits from the Ontario tourist income. Every tourist dollar is shared this way: 1. Hotels; 2. Retail stores; 3. Restaurants; 4. Taxes, etc; 5. Amusements; 6. Garages.

"Let's make sure they always come back!"

Windsor Girl to be Engineer.
Miss Barbara J. Totten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Totten, 2461 Lincoln Road, Windsor, is enrolled as a junior in the college of engineering of the Detroit Institute of Technology, following in her father's footsteps, for he is an air-conditioning engineer.

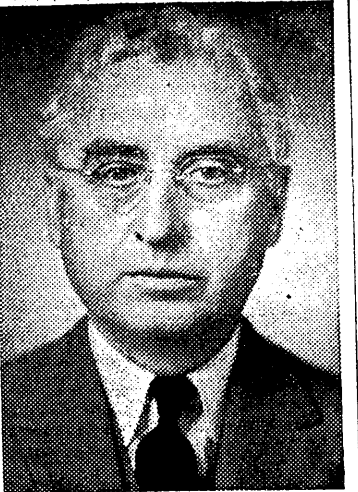

Barbara has the distinction of being the only co-ed in the junior engineering class at Tech. She formerly attended Queen's, in Kingston.
Miss Totten is particularly interested in mechanical designing, and discovers the theory that women have little place in engineering by having an outstanding scholastic record.

Barbara is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Totten.

F. D. Honor Passes at 66.

Francis Douglas Honor, aged 66, prominent Windsor businessman, died at his home, 1524 Victoria avenue, recently, following a lengthy illness. Mr. Honor was a lawn bowling enthusiast and was one of the men responsible for bringing hockey to Windsor as a major sport.

Mr. Honor moved to Windsor 33 years ago and established the Windsor City Dairy, Limited, which business he continued until 1930, when the dairy was purchased by the Borden Company.

Mr. Honor was born in Malden Township, a son of Edward M. Honor and Mary Austin. The Honor and Austin families were both old Essex County families, established three generations ago. Mr. Honor attended public school in Malden and high school at Essex.

Thirty-eight years ago Mr. Honor married Mary Norma Kemp, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. David A. Kemp, of Amherstburg.

Several years before the present Windsor Arena was built, Mr. Honor organized a hockey team, sponsored by his dairy, and he brought a number of well-known hockey players to the city. It was the first taste of professional hockey Windsor had had and the city liked it, with the result that the Arena was erected a few years later.

Ardent Bowler.

Mr. Honor was district chairman of the Provincial Lawn Bowling Association for many years, until he had to give up the sport because of his health two years ago.

A Liberal, Mr. Honor was always greatly interested in politics but he did not offer himself for public office at any time. He was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and of the Masonic Order.

Surviving are his widow, Mary Norma, at home; one daughter, Mrs. Frances Norma Eymann, of Detroit; one son, Douglas Kemp Honor; and three grandchildren.

Burial was in Victoria Memorial Park.

Research reveals that the general reactions of the human body slow down or speed up, depending upon what color the person is looking at. While blue is a relaxing color, red makes the body tense and responses with red are about 12 per cent quicker than with green.

Kimberley and District Memorial Society Purchase Bonds Totalling $25,000.00.

Kimberley, B. C. went well over the top in Canada's Ninth Victory Loan. The big event occurred on Saturday, when the city's quota of $385,000 was passed after only 11 days canvassing.

Memorial Society Big Purchaser. One of the big subscribers of the recent loan was Kimberley and District Memorial Society who purchased $25,000 worth of bonds, thus ensuring the prize money for the big drawing that will take place at a later date.

Officers of the Memorial Society are steadily increasing and the future is extremely bright.

Now that the prize money has been assured all that remains is for a sum of money to be accumulated for the erection of a Memorial Hall for our returned war veterans and other civic improvements and the big drawing will take place when lucky ticket holders will be presented with $25,000.

MAIDSTONE CROSS

Sympathy to Mrs. John Moynahan, of Windsor, in the loss of her daughter Mabel (Mrs. Morkin) of Detroit, who passed away last week.

Sincere sympathy to the family of the late Ernest O'Neil, of Windsor, who was born here and lived here until about four years ago, and who died suddenly early Sunday morning at his new home. His many friends here offer sympathy to his wife, seven sons and brother Art, and sisters, as Mr. O'Neil was one of the most highly respected farmers of this locality.

A sudden flood is laid up with a badly sprained knee and leg, the result of riding his bike.

Mrs. Thomas Chittie entertained delightfully for her niece and god-child, Miss Rosemary Chittie, on Sunday afternoon, at her home on No. 31 Highway. Bingo was enjoyed and many gifts were won by one thirty-two guests.

Door prizes went to Mrs. Ed. Gaudin, of Woodslee, and Miss Gaudin, of Detroit. A delicious buffet luncheon was served by the hostess and Rosemary received many beautiful gifts. The bride-to-be will be married at 10 a.m. on December 1st, at St. Mary's Church.

Wilfred Collins has received his discharge from the army.

The Young Ladies' Sodality was a big success, with a large crowd in attendance, and the proceeds much higher than expected. Prizes for entire canvasses went to Miss Clara McLean, Mrs. John E. Sexton, Mrs. Mike John, Paul Gaur, Joseph White and Clifford McGuire.

Miss Loyola Beahan, ex-prosecutor, assisted by Michael Collins, distributed the prizes, the lucky numbers being drawn by Pat Flood. Some of the prize winners were Stanley Eyraud, Mrs. N. J. Kavanagh, Mrs. Jack McAuliffe, Mrs. Ralph Sexton, Mary M. Kane, Evelyn Hayes, Mrs. Ed. Sexton, Loyola Beahan, Jeanne Markham, Mrs. Markham, Dorothy John, Bob Kettles, Mrs. Russell, Harold Mahou, Mrs. Fred Austin, Mrs. George Walker, Mrs. Joe Turton, Mrs. Albert Huneau, Odella Deehan, Tommie Sheahan, Jr., Sharon McAuliffe, Mrs. Jacob Dahl, Agnes Mullins, Orley Boggs, John Hennessy, Mrs. Con. Beahan, Theresa Wilkes, Clara McLean, Patricia Quinn, Ursula Hayes, Mrs. E. St. Louis, Adelaide Kavanagh, Julia Beahan, Tommie Kavanagh, Mrs. John McAuliffe, and Mrs. James B. Walker. These prizes were donated by the Sodality.

Gerald McCloskey, recently discharged from the Army, will go to London on Thursday to the military hospital for further treatments for his leg injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bachmeier, of Point Pelee, were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Little.

Sympathy to Maurice Mullins in the death of his sister, Mrs. Mary Byrne, aged 91 years, of Rochester Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Halford and family, of Elizabeth and Barbara, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. McPharlin and family, of Detroit, visited with their father, I. Halford, and the Johnnie Walker family, on American Thanksgiving.

Miss Jean Randall, of Detroit, spent Sunday with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Walker.

Helps Put 9th Victory Loan Over the Top.

Kimberley and District Memorial Society Purchase Bonds Totalling $25,000.00.

Kimberley, B. C. went well over the top in Canada's Ninth Victory Loan. The big event occurred on Saturday, when the city's quota of $385,000 was passed after only 11 days canvassing.

Memorial Society Big Purchaser. One of the big subscribers of the recent loan was Kimberley and District Memorial Society who purchased $25,000 worth of bonds, thus ensuring the prize money for the big drawing that will take place at a later date.

Officers of the Memorial Society are steadily increasing and the future is extremely bright.

Now that the prize money has been assured all that remains is for a sum of money to be accumulated for the erection of a Memorial Hall for our returned war veterans and other civic improvements and the big drawing will take place when lucky ticket holders will be presented with $25,000.

MAIDSTONE

A successful bazaar and tea was held on Saturday, November 17th, by the Maidstone W. L. in the Essex Public Library. The door prize was won by Mrs. Keith Howard and Miss Joanne Walker, of Maidstone, held the lucky number on the rug.

A delightful entertainment will be held in Wesley United Church on Friday, December 14th, at 8 p.m., when the Elmstead school will give the play, "When Santa Forgot the Smiths."

The Maidstone Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Keith Howard, Talbot road, on Wednesday, December 6th, at 2.30 o'clock. This will be the Christmas meeting, roll call will be answered by an exchange of Christmas gifts. Everybody welcome.

The Woman's Association of the Maidstone church honoured the homecoming vets at a dinner, in the church hall. The congregation was invited to be on hand to make it a real homecoming. After dinner was served, and loved, Mrs. Cecil Wright played while John Graham led in a sing-song.

Mr. James, as chairman, gave a few words of welcome. Piano solo by Mrs. Wright; an address by Fred Little; reading by Mrs. Cunningham; an address by Stan Welsh; reading by Mrs. V. Little. Mr. James then asked if any of the boys would give a few words, and the boys joined in. He also gave a few of his poems that he had written while serving overseas.

John Graham gave a few musical selections on the accordion. The party closed with everyone joining in on "God Save the King." The honoured guests were Arnold Axel, Russell Farough, Cecil Don and Clarence Wright, John Kerr, Dick Little, Ross Maddams, Wm. Purvis, R. C. Flood, Sam Eldridge, Eric McPhail, Ralph Dawson and W. Johnson.

Story of Jacques 1157J Hybrid Seed Corn.

Last year our Department of Agriculture tested the Jacques 1157J Hybrid along with about seventy other well known Hybrids. These test plots were at Woodslee, Malden, Paquette, Ridgeway and Guelph.

Jacques 1157J was first in its class at Woodslee, with a yield of 88.6 shell-bushels of 15% moisture corn, also first in its class in the Malden Test with a yield of 86.7 shell-bushels of 15% moisture corn. It was also first in Ridgeway showing a yield of 72.9 shell-bushels of 15% moisture corn, and third in its class in Guelph showing a yield of 91.24 shell-bushels of 15% moisture corn.

Our Department saw fit, after testing this Jacques 1157J Hybrid, to accept it as being a recommended Hybrid Seed Corn, for Ontario and especially so for Essex and Kent Counties.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES.

By Dean Wilson.

Behind the current financial and jurisdictional issues facing the Federal Government in this postwar period, including incidentally a meeting in this capital of the coordinating committee of the Dominion-Provincial Conference on Reconstruction, there is evidence in Ottawa that the minds of many leaders across Canada at this moment are occupied with considering ways and means to provide suitable jobs for the growing list of men and women who are expected to require such employment in the coming months, especially in 1946. In other words it is felt in well-informed circles along Parliament Hill that the Canadian plans of reconstruction should be properly balanced in regard to stabilizing unemployment in this country through public projects as well as private enterprise so that both may be timed in the right manner. Since a high level of income and employment is being sought in Canada at this time, "courage and vigor" should characterize the efforts in providing jobs for job-seekers, by public projects as well as private enterprise, with this being the exact expression used by a senior member of the Federal Cabinet in Ottawa in discussing postwar programmes of public works. This means, it is claimed, that if private enterprise cannot provide such jobs now, it is time to bring in the aid of public works in order to give such employment.

In view of the nationwide wave of violent crimes sweeping across this country like a wild fire, it can be reported that the Government has disclosed in Ottawa that it plans to establish a commission to examine some of the penal reforms suggested by a Royal Commission in the year 1929, though such action awaited only the end of the war and it would have been taken earlier if conditions had permitted. In fact, a bill to amend the Penitentiaries Act has already been presented in Parliament with the Minister of Justice, Hon. Louis St. Laurent, stating that he would not have the time to investigate the recommendations so that a full-time man was required and the latter would probably have to study the penal systems in other countries, such as the United States and Great Britain, as well as Canada before suggesting suitable changes to add to the Canadian penal system. Indeed, the Minister himself confessed that there was need for improvement in the Canadian system, especially for those Canadians who have "fallen by the wayside."

"The Canadian rehabilitation programme is the most complete of any yet formed by Allied countries. It is not charity, it teaches self-service, and it is designed to help a veteran help himself." These were the words stated by an official rehabilitation liaison officer in Ottawa, who was a counsellor with the armed forces personnel prior to his discharge. After explaining the workings of the Canadian government's legislation for rehabilitation and the official program designed to rehabilitate men and women into the economic as well as social life, he criticized those in Canada who look isolated individual cases of misbehaviour since leaving the armed forces, stressing in no uncertain language that these were very few in number in comparison with those who have accomplished a splendid job of rehabilitation.

The Minister for Air, Hon. Colin Gibson, has indicated in Ottawa that a special committee will start reviewing over eight thousand applications already received for enlistment in Canada's permanent air force and this operation will continue about the 1st of December, insinuating at the same time that a recruiting campaign may be made early in the new year of 1946 and inferring that there are plenty of chances for men in the RCAF, especially for younger men. In the RCAF, was definitely ready to offer a part of all the chances to those men who have served in World War II. In addition, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and his assertions were greeted with loud applause from the other Members present in the House of Commons during a debate on the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. Since Canadian tanners' products to the extent of 20 per cent will be free from their quotas whereas in the past such tanners had to turn over 100 per cent of their products in the direction indicated by the Government, it is believed in well-informed quarters in Ottawa that it is quite possible now that better shoes and greater quantities may be the result, if proper labour can be obtained to work in the Canadian tanneries in sufficient numbers to meet the needs.

Following the great events which have occurred since he left Ottawa, including his longest absence from any session since 1919, the careful joint declaration of policy on atomic energy for war as well as peace by United States, Great Britain and Canada, and the visit to this capital by Prime Minister Atlee, Premier King's return has been marked by strong reactions in Ottawa that something concrete has been accomplished and far-reaching decisions have been made during recent weeks in order to bring about some settlement of present world disturbances which seem to continue as an aftermath of World War II. Indeed, it is common talk now on Parliament Hill that coming weeks may be crucial weeks in formulating world policies and important news may be imminent.

There are predictions in the capital that the heated dispute started by Finance Minister Isley, as spokesman for the Government, when he declared that the government derived its authority from the Crown and it was not delegated to it by Parliament, though he admitted that the government was responsible to Parliament, will not die a natural death and it will be heard about for a long time to come, especially since this declaration was hotly disputed by the leader of the Official Opposition, Hon. John Bracken and the leader of the C.C.F., M. J. Coldwell. The latter two protesting loudly against this viewpoint. It started when a request was made for the production of correspondence exchanged between officials of the Crown. Mr. Isley, usually calm, disclosed great anger and delivered his lecture, at times, in a shout as he argued that the time of Parliament was taken up with "an apparent attempt to govern rather than legislate" on frequent occasions. However, Mr. Bracken insisted that he did not have to apologize for questioning government expenditures and despite technicalities the representatives of the people were entitled to know what was going on. Mr. Coldwell also disputed the Government's stand with among other arguments, stating: "I declare that that authority is derived from the people." The Government was answerable to the elected representatives of the people, he claimed, and not to the Crown or its representatives.

When Prime Minister Atlee came to this capital and he showed all signs of great anxiety to return home, it was obvious to well-informed observers here why because it is known that his Labor Government in Britain is faced with an unprecedented task of major legislation in this session. The ambitious program of the new Labor Government in the United Kingdom includes history-making legislation to nationalize the Bank of England, a bill to take over the coal mines, remarkable plans for social insurance as well as state medical services, schemes to nationalize Empire cable systems, inland transport, electricity and gas enterprises, and numerous other undertakings. "It is the maintaining of victory and the winning of it which is really difficult," said in Ottawa, Canada's Minister for Air, Hon. Colin Gibson. "Canada is looking to its war veterans to provide leadership and experience for its reserve forces which can rapidly be expanded should the necessity again arise." With the departure of Col. Robert McDougall, C.M.G., D.S.O., until recently Deputy Minister of National Defence in Ottawa, it can be reported that he originally came to this capital for "only a couple of months" of service in 1939 but circumstances caused him to be retained here for over six years. Likewise, it may be noted that one of the greatest recognized authorities in Canada on the resources and development of the Canadian Northwest Territories, Dr. Chas. Camsell, Deputy Minister of Mines and Resources, has had his term of office extended for another period until the end of December, though he will be 70 years of age on February 8th, 1946. His services have been found so essential by the Government that again and again extensions have been made in his case in order that he may be enabled to serve in Ottawa. "We would have a healthier, happier, more comfortable country to live in were the wartime trend of people from the rural parts of Canada to the war industries in the cities reversed," declared in part Ralph M. Warren, Member of Parliament for Renfrew North, and his assertions were greeted with loud applause from the other Members present in the House of Commons during a debate on the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. Since Canadian tanners' products to the extent of 20 per cent will be free from their quotas whereas in the past such tanners had to turn over 100 per cent of their products in the direction indicated by the Government, it is believed in well-informed quarters in Ottawa that it is quite possible now that better shoes and greater quantities may be the result, if proper labour can be obtained to work in the Canadian tanneries in sufficient numbers to meet the needs.

Curbing Mice in the Orchard.

Tree losses from mice injury have been higher than usual particularly in Central Canada this year. Injury from mice generally occurs in November and again in March. Control measures should, therefore, be begun previous to November and March, says D. S. Blair, Division of Horticulture, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

Clean cultivation will do more to discourage mice than any other method of control because without grasses, sedges and other vegetation upon which to feed, the mice will leave an orchard. If the orchard is under the clean cultivation system of culture, there is little danger of injury from mice. If the trees are growing in a permanent sod certain precautions must be exercised. The removal of the sod for a width of 1½ feet around the trunk before late September is effective. It is best to fill the trench caused by the removal of the sod with a coarse sand, cinders or crushed stone to prevent the grass from growing up again and to act as a permanent protector. A small mound of soil or coal ashes packed to a depth of six inches around the trunk of the tree, when properly done, will often prevent injury and even snow tramped firmly around the trunk after each snow fall has been effective as it prevents the mice from working in beneath the snow.

For young trees wire guards give good protection against mice injury. The wire guard should be one-quarter inch mesh, galvanized, eighteen inches wide and from eighteen to twenty-four inches high. Rolls of wire of desired height may be purchased and cut to proper width or the guards ready for use may be bought from a wire manufacturer. The bottom of the guard should be inserted into the ground to a depth of from two to three inches to prevent the mice tunnelling under the barrier. Each fall the wire guards should be checked because a few may have been disturbed during the summer. The wire protector will give protection to a young tree during the summer. The wire protector will give protection to a young tree for seven or eight years, following which it can be removed and used on younger trees.

Supplementary to the methods already mentioned, an annual clean-up of the mice by use of poison baits should be a regular orchard operation. If there are too many fallen apples in the orchard in late fall, probably the most efficient poison bait is the apple containing poison. However, if drops are plentiful and the temperature is below freezing grain baits are likely to prove more attractive to mice. The poisons used in poison baits are either strychnine, zinc phosphide or white arsenic. Zinc phosphide when used in natural baits is not as attractive as when mixed with saccharine, but to get an effective mix the two have to be put through a micronizing process. The United States Fish and Wildlife Department have a process for mixing this material and they are now offering it for sale to growers in the United States. This poison is being handled by local co-operatives and spray dealers in Canada and sold under the name of United States Fish and Wildlife Rodenticide. The following baits have been very effective at Ottawa:

Apple bait treated with United States Fish and Wildlife Rodenticide. The bait is prepared as follows: Cut up good firm apples into half-inch cubes and dust these evenly with the rodenticide, which is supplied in a shaker-top can, which contains enough for ten quarts of bait. The bait should be stirred until an even light coating is obtained. The use of one level teaspoonful per quart of cut bait is the proper amount. The mixing of the poison with the apple bait must be done with extreme caution and at no time should the hands come in contact with the poison. All utensils used should be thoroughly washed after preparation is completed. A honey pail is a convenient means of carrying the bait in the orchard. The operation of placing the bait should be carried out

Fall Plowing.
Last week I mentioned the benefits of using liberal quantities of lime at time of fall plowing. Much to my surprise a friend wrote to say he wasn't sold on fall plowing. However, after talking to him we both agreed he was right in his case alone because his soils were exceptionally light and loose, with a strong tendency to run together. On his farm it would be better to plow in the early spring and avoid wind and water erosion difficulties.

In all other cases, providing moisture conditions are right, the sooner stubble is plowed the better. Tests show that more plant food is returned to the soil by so doing than where the field is allowed to lie idle. In addition, weed seed development is headed off. This is of prime importance in weed control during the second year.

Controls Weeds.
Let's see how this works. Many of us probably have wondered why the first year's crop after grain is free from weeds, and the second year's crop is full of them for no apparent reason. Here is the answer. It has long been known that weed seeds will lie dormant for many years if buried in the ground. Consequently, when stubble is left and the weeds mature, the weed seeds are turned under when the field is finally plowed. The first year they are covered up and cannot germinate. But the next time the field is plowed, they are brought to the surface again and growth begins, and the field the second year is fouled with weeds.

Discing Helps.
If the ground is too dry to plow immediately after grain harvest, the thing to do is to go over the field with a field cultivator or disc as soon as possible. This has a triple action. First, it cuts up stubble and undergrowth. This hastens its decomposition after it is plowed under, and in addition checks maturing weeds. Second, it germinates any weed or grain seeds that may already be on the ground. This is especially important where the grain shatters in harvesting. It not only cleans our volunteer grain but results in a certain amount of growth before plowing which puts some green manure into the soil. Third, it mellowes the surface from 3 to 5 inches, which decreases the thickness of clods turned up by late plowing and lessens the draft on the plow. If a wet spring comes in 1946 don't let it catch you unprepared. Spring gladdens the heart of the farmer whose seed is in, but are a headache to the farmer who waits day after day to get his plow into a muddy field.

Ration Coupon Due Dates.

Food coupons now valid are sugar, 14 to 67; butter, 114 to 131; preserves, 33 to 57 and P1 to P21; meat, M1 to M13.

Father, we thank Thee that Thy light and Thy love reach earth, open the prison to them that are bound, console the innocent, and throw wide the gates of heaven. — Mary Baker Eddy.

In a systematic way by following up each row of trees, lifting the mulch at intervals, and examining the ground underneath carefully for mouse trails. When trails or runways are found, a hole of bait is placed in it by means of a long handle fork or a steel wire sharpened at one end with a loop for a handle at the other end. Care is taken to place the mulch back over the trail after the bait is placed. The number of placements about a tree depends entirely on the number of trails or the infestation. If the mouse population is high, at least four baits are placed per tree. Where possible it is preferable to place the bait early in the day, since the afternoon is the most active part of the day for field mice.

Green bait treated with strychnine: Mix one level teaspoonful of laundry starch in ¼ teaspoon of cold water; stir this into ¾ pint of boiling water to make a clear paste. Mix 1 ounce of strychnine sulphate (not strychnine alkaloid) with 1 ounce of baking soda and stir this into the hot starch paste to make a smooth creamy mass free from lumps. Stir in a ¼ pint of heavy corn syrup and 1 tablespoonful of glycerine or liquid petrolatum. When this is well mixed pour it over 3 quarts of rolled oats from which the fine particles have been screened out. Mix thoroughly until all the lumps are broken up and the poison is thoroughly mixed with the rolled oats.

Some growers find difficulty in getting a thorough mixture with the above. Wheat, although not as palatable to the mice as rolled oats, may be substituted, using 12 pounds. Mix thoroughly until every grain is coated.

Transparent Cellophane.

After December 1st plain transparent cellophane may be used in unrestricted quantities for all types of packaging, according to W. Harold McPhillips, prices and supply representative for the Western Ontario region of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. Moisture proof cellophane, however, will remain under control for the time being as moisture proof film for packaging is at the time required in even greater quantities than during the war.

The Housing Campaign.

A statement recently by Mr. Pulleyblank, chairman of the Essex Citizens Committee to the effect that there is provision under Wartime Prices and Trade Board shelter regulations for a short term tenancy of five months or less in which the non-eviction clauses of the shelter regulations do not apply is a wonderful argument in favour of making unused space available to veterans.

There is a natural tendency on the part of most home owners and householders to resist about sacrificing the privacy of their homes. Although actually the only tenant who enjoys protection is a satisfactory tenant, the hesitancy, perhaps materially is increased by a widespread belief that it is not possible to evict an unsatisfactory or objectionable tenant under Wartime Prices and Trade Board regulations. Mr. Pulleyblank's announcement should do away with much of that hesitancy.

The short term tenancies are covered by section 13 of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board Order No. 294. This section says "The landlord may recover possession of the accommodation in accordance with the law of the province in which it is situated if the tenant is in possession under a lease for a term certain of five months or less made on or after October 1st, 1943, provided that this clause shall only apply to the first such lease made in any period of twelve months."

In layman's language this means that people who have unused space can rent it to a veteran for a period of five months or less and if the veteran is unsatisfactory he has no protection under the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. If the tenant is, however, satisfactory the landlord can continue the lease at his own discretion and, of course, then the property would come under the normal renting regulations.

The main point of the announcement is that there is machinery by which public-spirited citizens can help in the emergency without taking undue risk. Many veterans given five months temporary accommodation will be able to find a more permanent solution to their housing problems. In any event, if the people of Essex respond to this appeal, it will provide veterans with shelter over the hard months of our Canadian winter.

Meatless Day Restrictions Laxed for Holidays

Meatless day restrictions set aside for Christmas and New Year's days, which fall this year on the regular meatless Tuesday, Harold McPhillips, prices and supply representative for the Western Ontario region of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, announced that the amount of meat consumed on these two days was so small that the annoyance by the regulation being made would be greater than the saving would warrant.

Turkey Prices.

Wholesale prices and prices may be asked by primary producers are announced by the foods of the regional office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. These are according to the grades listed under the Federal Livestock Products Act for the Western Ontario region. The wholesale price for young turkeys, delivered to the place of business, and retail, which may be charged by producers for turkeys loose are as follows:

Wholesale prices, special grade a pound, A grade 37½¢ per pound, 35¢ a pound; C grade a pound.

The wholesale ceiling price is 3¢ a pound less and some 4¢ pound less.

Primary producer prices for special grade 47¢ per pound, 45¢ per pound, B grade, 43¢ per pound, 39¢ per pound.

Meatless Day Restrictions Relaxed for Holidays.

Meatless day restrictions will be set aside for Christmas and New Year's days, which fall this year on the regular meatless Tuesdays. W. Harold McPhillips, prices and supply representative for the Western Ontario region of the Prices Board, said in making the announcement that the amount of meat consumed other than fowl on these two days was relatively so small that the annoyance caused by the regulation being maintained would be greater than the small saving would warrant.

Turkey Prices.

Wholesale prices and prices that may be asked by primary producers are announced by the foods division of the regional office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. These prices are according to the grade established under the Federal Livestock and Livestock Products Acts and are for the Western Ontario region.

The wholesale price for young hens and toms, delivered to the buyer's place of business, and retail prices which may be charged by primary producers for turkeys loose packed are as follows:

Wholesale prices, special grade 38½¢ a pound; A grade 37½¢ a pound; B grade, 35½¢ a pound; C grade, 33½¢ a pound.

The wholesale ceiling price on old hens is 3¢ a pound less and on old toms 4¢ pound less.

Primary producer prices to consumer for special grade 47¢ pound; A grade 45¢ pound; B grade, 43¢ pound; C grade, 39¢ pound.

Maidstone Council.

Monday, November 5th. Council met this day pursuant to adjournment, with all members present. The minutes of the last meeting were read, and on motion of Messrs. McMurren and Walstedt, adopted as read.

Council sat as a court of revision on 1946 assessment roll. The following appeals were received and dealt with: John Anton, assessment too high and out of proportion to actual value. Dismissed.

Martin Gallagher could see no reason for increase in assessment over last year. Dismissed.

Lawrence St. Pierre, assessment for buildings too high, 2 barns removed from land and house of no value. Reduced $180.

Mrs. Roy Brown, assessment should not be classed as a good residential site, owing to proximity of hotel, dance hall and bowling alley. Dismissed.

John Gooden, assessment should not have been increased. Dismissed.

Ralph Smith appealed against all his lands being assessed to separate schools. Tenant filed notice that he was supporter of separate schools and, according to the School Act, is the person who determines whether the taxes shall be applied to public or separate schools.

Gerald Hulet assessed for lot 18, plan 1320, not the owner. Assessment amended and the owner of said lot assessed therefor.

The acreage of s e p lot 6, W.P.C., was increased from 68½ acres to 72½ acres.

Margaret Beaton was assessed as owner of lot 38, east of Alexander avenue.

Beruf Lourain was assessed as owner of lots 32, 33, 34, 35 and 36, east of Alexander avenue.

Denis St. Pierre appealed against his acreage of 37 acres as his farm only contained 28 acres. Acreage reduced to 28 acres.

Moved by Mr. Huneau, seconded by Mr. Plante, that assessment roll, as now amended, be confirmed and court close.—Car.

Court of Revision on the 4th Concession Drain south of the Malden Road. Milton Seymour's assessment too high as compared with assessments of Michener Central Railway Co., Jas. Hicks, R. W. Hyland and Soldier Settlement Board.

William J. Baillargeon, assessment too high as compared with assessments against James Hicks and R. W. Hyland.

Frank Hicks, assessed for more acreage for outlet liability than can use the drain for outlet.

Milton Seymour's assessment for outlet liability reduced $7.75; Wm. J. Baillargeon's assessment for outlet liability reduced $11; Frank Hicks' assessment reduced $18 for benefit and $7.50 for outlet liability.

Moved by Mr. McMurren, seconded by Mr. Walstedt, that assessments 4th Concession drain, South Malden Road as now amended, be confirmed, and Court close.—Car.

Court of Revision on center of 7th Concession Drain:

Alex McDowell, farm all tiled and drains to 8th Con. road. Drain should not be assessed for outlet liability.

Charles Maitre, only a very small portion of his lands drain into this drain.

Duncan McRae, owner of n ¼ e ½ lot 15, Con. 7, was present and offered to assume $35 additional assessment and requested that Charles Maitre's assessment be reduced $35 and the said amount be added to his assessment, which the Council agreed to. Alex McDowell's assessment for outlet liability was reduced $35 and assessment against s ¼ e ½ lot 16, Con. 7, J. W. Kerr & Sons, owners, was increased $35 for outlet liability.

Moved by Mr. Plante, seconded by Mr. McMurren, that assessments of 7th Concession Center Line Drain, as amended, be confirmed, and Court close.—Car.

Frank Padovan submitted a tender for the construction of the 7th Con. Center Line drain for the sum of $1,150.00.

Moved by Mr. Plante, seconded by Mr. Walstedt, that the tender of Frank Padovan for the construction of the 7th Con. Center Line drain for the sum of $1,150 be accepted.—Car.

Council adjourned to meet Saturday, December 15th, at 10 a.m.

Others Are Asking?

Q.—As a primary producer selling turkeys on the market, what price can I charge for grade A turkeys?

A.—The maximum price that may be charged by a primary producer when selling his turkeys at retail for grade A is 45 cents a pound in this region.

Q.—Where do I apply for a permit to buy a new car?

A.—You apply to the nearest office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. Permits are given on a priority system.

Q.—I thought all clothing should have a special label with a WPTB number on it. I bought two sweaters the other day and they had no labels of any kind on them, except the price tag.

A.—All sweaters must have a label giving either the Board number or the trade mark of the manufacturer, with the size and style of the garment marked on the label. If you will send the name of the store from which you made your purchase to the office of Trade Board, this matter will be checked.

Is it Possible to Pray?

John Zoller, the writer of this article, can be heard each Sunday morning over Station WJR, at 11.30.

Are you one of the many that have been puzzled about the possibility of prayer? Have you been asking yourself some questions—Will it do me any good to pray? How may I know there is One who will hear and answer? What proof can there be that God actually exists?

Pull up your chair and get comfortable, and I'll try to answer your questions. Let's not just theorize, but let's face the facts as they are. You want help and I want to help you.

Two men were walking by a lighted church into which people were entering, evidently for the mid-week prayer meeting. Pointing to the open door, one of them said to the other, "Do you believe in prayer?" "Yes," said the other rather hesitatingly. "I think prayer is a good thing for those who actually believe in it. But whether there is One at the end of the line who hears and answers is something I'm not sure about."

"It seems to me," said the first speaker, "that your position is that of a man who believes in the prayer but not in the answer."

Is this YOUR idea of prayer? What is prayer, anyway? The poet describes it in these words:

"Prayer is the soul's sincere desire, uttered or unexpressed. The motion of a hidden fire that trembles in the breast."

The Basis of Prayer.

In all true prayer two persons are involved—yourself and God. You say "Yes, I know this, but how may I know that God is at the other end of the line?"

One thing is certain—there is no use praying if you do not believe in the existence of God. Your belief must be more than a mere "I hope He is there," or an idea that He is some kind of a force or an essence. Such praying would be as futile as shooting at a star, expecting to make a hit.

God's word says that "He that cometh to God MUST believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him" (Hebrews 11:6). You must believe in God as a person. One who can and will hear your prayer.

A busy mother one day went to her room at twilight, her mind intent on a long letter that she needed to write. She sat down at her desk and wrote page after page of note paper. Presently she heard a little sigh. Turning her head she saw her little son curled up in a large arm chair.

"Why, sonnie, how long have you been here?" she asked. "All the time, Mummy," the little fellow answered, "but you have been too busy to notice."

Isn't this the way with many of us? God is at the other end of the line! But we haven't taken time to realize this truth. HE IS THERE, not an impersonal something, neither is He nature, but God is a person, for we know that He has personality. You know that you exist, that you have the power of thought. Who created you, anyway? Surely you do not believe that you just happened!

Paley's argument applies here: "A design infers a designer." God's handiwork is seen everywhere. His universe is so vast, and run with such perfect precision that it is beyond our comprehension. The discovery of the power of the atom brings to us, with striking force, the truth of this fact. This designing and regulating mind which controls the universe, is God. He is the One to whom you pray. He is the One who will hear your prayer. Do you know that He has a greater interest in you than He has in the material world in which you live?

"Oh," you say, "if I could only see God then I would be satisfied." Listen to me, you do not need to see God to be convinced that He is on the other end of the line! You have, no doubt, time and again watched the delicate needle of the compass swing back to its pole. It does this because all over the earth unseen magnetic currents converge toward an unseen magnetic center in the far north.

No matter where ships or planes may travel, they are directed by that little needle which follows the pull of those magnetic currents toward the pole. All the sciences of navigation and measurement are based upon this pull. And yet no man ever lived who stepped foot upon this pole or saw it with naked eye. Think how unreasonable it would be to say that the magnetic pole was not there because no man ever saw it! Yet it is as unreasonable to deny the fact of prayer-answering God, simply because you cannot see Him.

You have within you that pull which is in your nature. Nothing this earth has will satisfy the deepest longings of your heart, but God. Just as the earth needs the sun for light and life, even so this pull of your heart for God was PUT THERE BY GOD, that He might supply your need. This proves the possibility of prayer. Is it not reasonable that God and yourself have communion together? What is this but prayer?

When I was in Washington, D.C., I visited the famous Washington Monument. As I looked up its slant sides, I seemed to touch the sky with my vision. I say I only seemed to do this, for all I did was to look in that direction. But the sky was up. And we know that far above the monument those lines reach an apex, and only one of them continued on would strike the sky.

Even so, realizing the pull within Contests Planned for Rural Youth.

At a joint meeting of the executive of the Ontario Junior Farmers' Association and the Junior Directors of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, plans were made for a Provincial Conference of young people to be held coincident with the annual convention of the Federation of Agriculture in Toronto, on January 9th, 10th and 11th of next year. The young people's conference will be held on the opening day of the convention, and will have as its climax a Provincial Rural Youth Public Speaking and Amateur Entertainment Contest. As a preliminary to the provincial finals in these contests, a series of elimination contests will be held throughout the Province. The sixteen districts into which the Junior Farmer Association is divided will each have an elimination series, with the Junior Farmer Director in each district responsible for the arrangements. The winners in these district contests will be further narrowed down in five zone contests, the Province having been divided into five zones for this series. This will leave the five zone winners as the finalists in the Public Speaking Contest, and the first and second place entries in the amateur entertainment competitions will appear in the finals in Toronto.

In addition to these contests as an evening feature, a full day's program of addresses and discussions of Junior Farmer problems is being arranged for the Conference.

In addition to this meeting in Toronto, it is likely that an Eastern Ontario Junior Farmer Conference will be held at the Cornwall Agricultural School during the week between Christmas and New Year's, and that a joint annual meeting and conference of Junior Farmers will be held at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, during Easter week if the necessary arrangements for accommodation can be made.

Winter Overhaul of Farm Machinery.

Late fall and winter are generally the most convenient times to adjust and repair agricultural machinery, and much reconditioning can be done with tools available on the farm. Repairs that cannot be done on farm should be taken to the blacksmith or other repairman as early as possible, so that the work of the repairman may be evenly distributed throughout the winter. After the fall work on the farm has been completed, many farmers make a point of drawing up a list of parts of machinery which should be repaired, and in the case of parts that cannot be repaired but happen to be available under present conditions, orders are placed well in advance of actual need, so that in the event of the delays the parts may be on hand when wanted.

In overhauling machinery, all bearings, axles, and similar parts subject to wear should be taken apart and examined carefully. Parts that are not likely to work well for another season should be replaced, if possible. Other parts should be thoroughly cleaned, care being taken to see that the lubricating parts are working well. Parts that work in the ground, such as cultivators, shovels and discs, should be checked and those that are cracked or badly worn should be replaced. Other parts may require sharpening to ensure best results for the following season.

The protection of farm machinery during the winter time is not always a simple matter. Most farms have room for the storage of machinery but often it may be difficult to house heavy machinery. However, if machines have to be left in the open, the extra care necessary in finding efficient means of protection against the weather will add years of usefulness to the machines.

It has been found that when the odour of fresh paint is objectionable—as it is to some people—it can largely be avoided by the use of charcoal. For each room, a paper bag holding a pound or two of charcoal is hung in the centre of the room. It absorbs the odour.

my own heart, which only God can satisfy, and facing the facts of trend, direction, and convergence which I have given you, you must admit that there are possibilities of prayer, from these proofs, which cannot be ignored.

Let me add one final word. Begin praying today. The way of access to God is through Christ who said "No man cometh unto the Father but by me" (John 14:6). Christ has a personal interest in you! He died for you. He made every provision for you. God WILL hear your prayer if you ask in the name of Christ, in faith believing.

Ask, and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

For everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened."—Matthew 7:7-8.

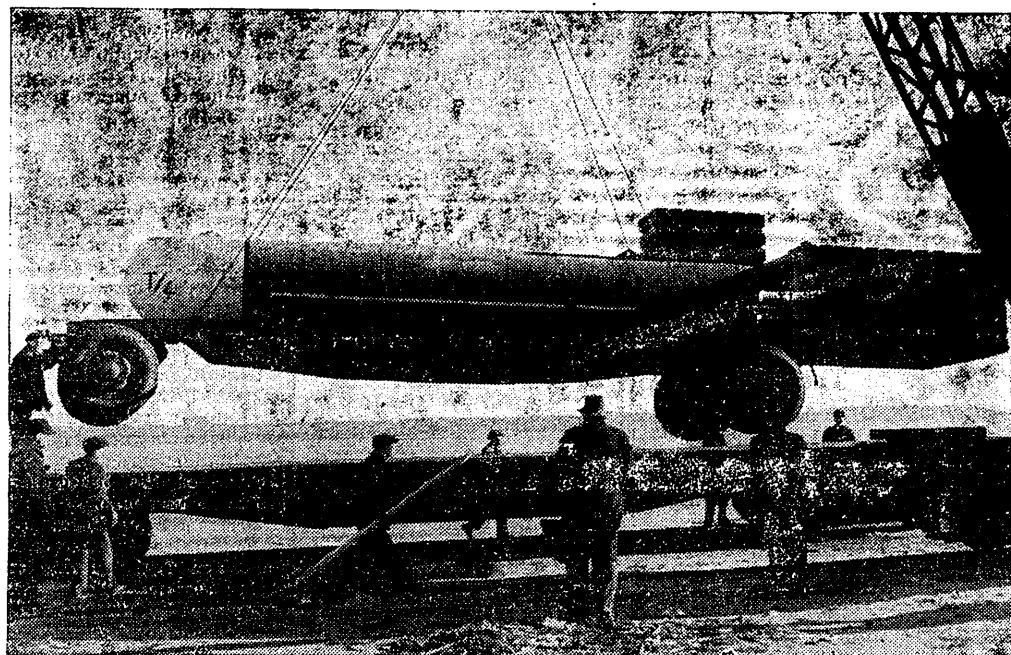

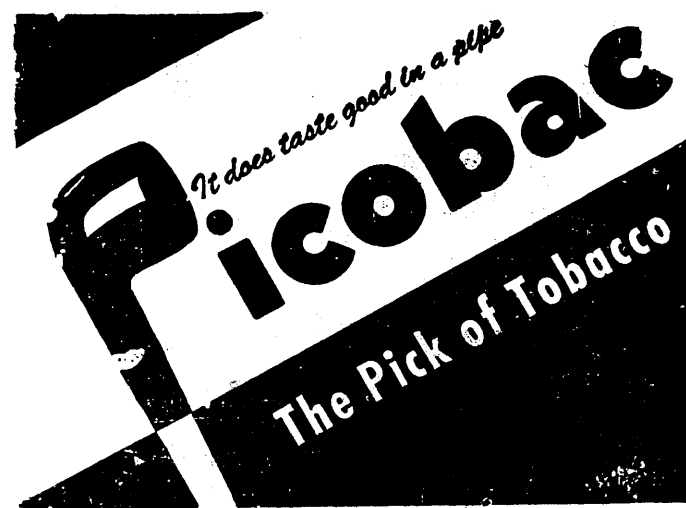

Do you agree with me that prayer is a possibility? Will you organize a prayer meeting in your home and begin to pray for a spiritual awakening? To receive a handbook telling you how to do this, address a letter to John Zoller, Box 717, Detroit 32, Michigan.

Maximum Price of Pipe Tobacco.

Maximum prices affecting the sale of the 1945 crop of raw leaf pipe tobacco have been announced, according to W. Harold McPhillips, prices and supply representative for the Western Ontario region of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

This order reduced the number of grades from three to two and reallocated the varieties of tobacco as between the types, large pipe tobacco and aromatic pipe tobacco. This was done to simplify pricing within the trade and to provide for the more orderly marketing of various grades and types of Canadian raw leaf tobacco when sold in bulk.

Packers are now required to submit statistics as to the types, quantities, and prices of their purchases and sales of Canadian raw leaf tobacco, once a month to the administration.

ENEMY WEAPON: A German one-man submarine, the first to arrive in Canada, is pictured being carefully loaded on a Canadian Pacific flatcar at Montreal, for shipment to Ottawa after its arrival in the Dutch ship Blommersdyk. Along with an extensive collection of captured enemy weapons it will be used for research purposes and later will form part of Canada's projected World War II museum. Experience gained through war years in handling cumbersome munitions shipments ("high and wide" loads to the railroads) enables the C.P.R. to transport safely these prized trophies of war.

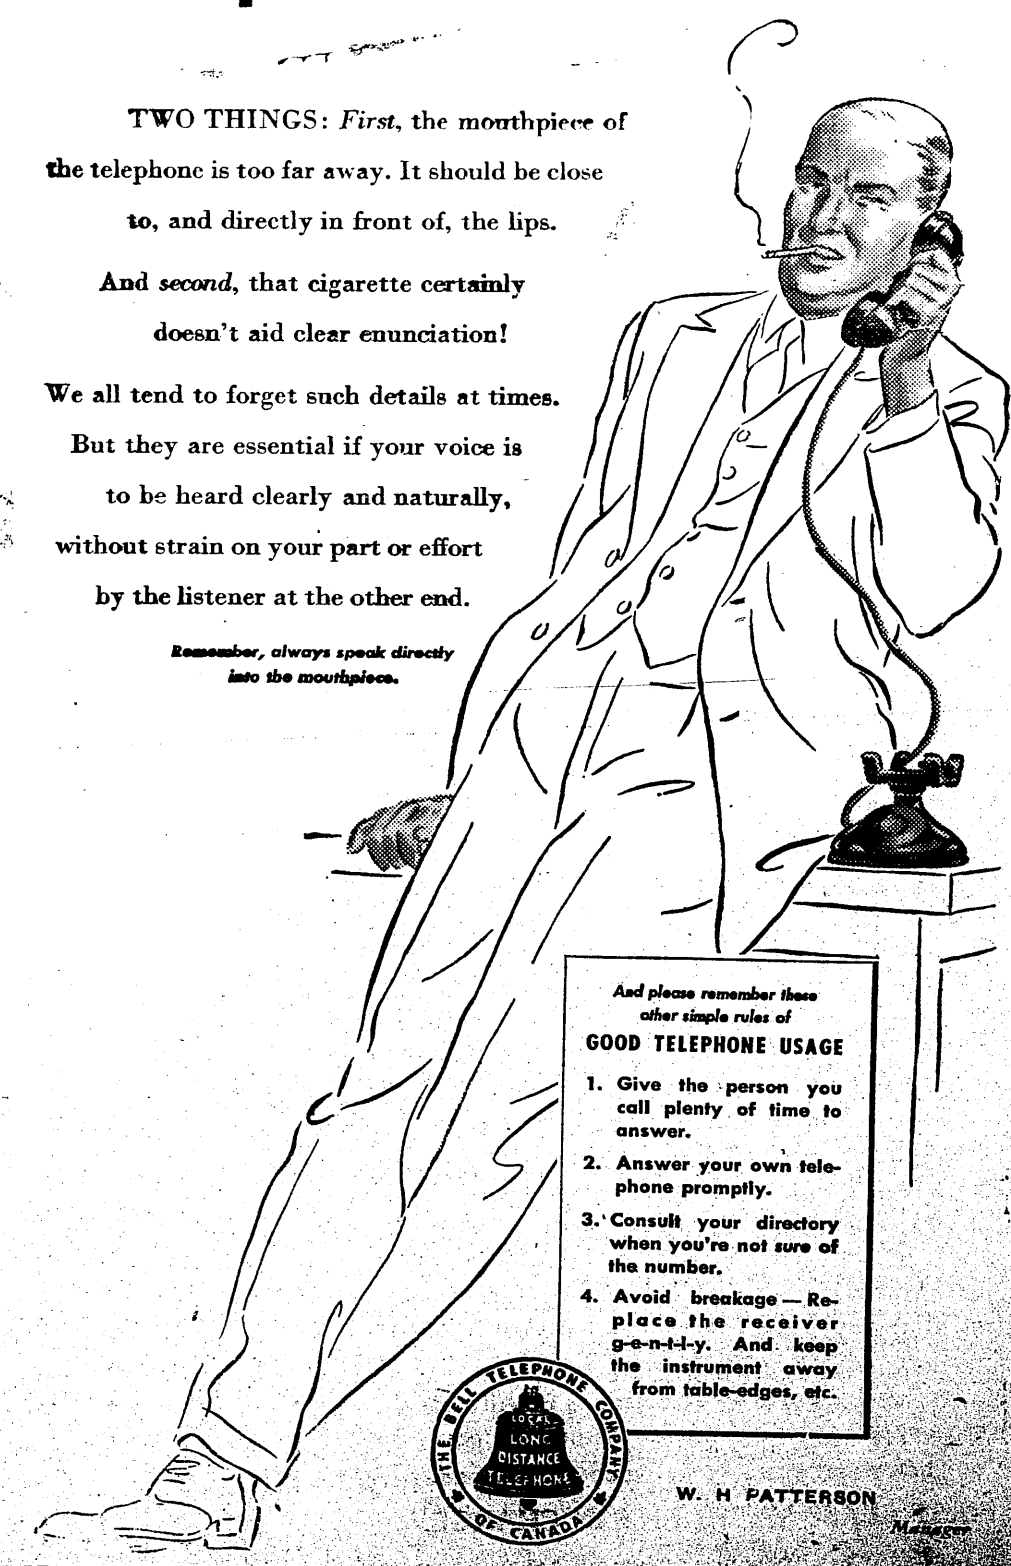

What's wrong with this picture?

TWO THINGS: First, the mouthpiece of the telephone is too far away. It should be close to, and directly in front of, the lips.

And second, that cigarette certainly doesn't aid clear enunciation!

We all tend to forget such details at times. But they are essential if your voice is to be heard clearly and naturally, without strain on your part or effort by the listener at the other end.

Remember, always speak directly into the mouthpiece.

And please remember these other simple rules of GOOD TELEPHONE USAGE

1. Give the person you call plenty of time to answer.
2. Answer your own telephone promptly.
3. Consult your directory when you're not sure of the number.
4. Avoid breakage—Replace the receiver gently. And keep the instrument away from table-edges, etc.

A son, the late Carter Ratcliff, of the R.C.A.F., was killed on active service in World War II.

Baniff-Holman Nuptials.

On Saturday, November 17th, at the home of Mrs. Wellington Holmes, Comber, the marriage was solemnized of her daughter, Miss Mary Alice Holmes, and Harold Hayes Baniff, foster-son of Mrs. W. J. Campbell and the late Mr. Campbell, of Gesto, the Rev. F. V. Wachling, of Essex, officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Walter Holmes, was lovely in a floor-length white sheer gown. Her finger-tip veil was held to her head with a halo of white flowers, and she carried a white Bible topped with pink carnations and white mums. She wore pearls, the gift of the groom. Miss Elizabeth Schneikart, as her only attendant, wore powder blue net over tulle. Her hairdress was of matching net and she carried yellow citysantemums. Douglas Holmes, brother of the bride, assisted the groom as best man.

Miss Margaret Macklem sang "Because" before the ceremony, and "I Love You Truly" during the signing of the register. The wedding music was played by Miss Marian Damm.

The bride's mother wore mauve with mauve accessories, and a corsage of yellow mums. The groom's mother wore a tailored black suit with midnight blue accessories and a corsage of white mums.

A reception for the family following the ceremony, with a tiered wedding cake centred with a tiered wedding cake flanked by burning white tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Baniff will reside in Leamington.

The Bible — There It Stands.

By Rev. Fred Wakeling.
Century follows century — there it stands.

Empires rise, fall, and are forgotten — there it stands.

Dynasty succeeds dynasty — there it stands.

Kings are crowned and uncrowned — there it stands.

Emperors decree it's extermination — there it stands.

Despised and torn to pieces — there it stands.

Storms of hate swirl around it — there it stands.

Atheists rail against it — there it stands.

Agnostics smile cynically — there it stands.

Profane prayerless punsters caricature it — there it stands.

Belief abandons it — there it stands.

Higher critics deny it's claim to inspiration — there it stands.

Thunderbolts of wrath smite it — there it stands.

An avill that has broken a million hammers — there it stands.

The flames are kindled about it — there it stands.

The arrows of hate are discharged against it — there it stands.

Radicalism rants and raves about it — there it stands.

Foss of Sophistry conceal it temporarily — there it stands.

The tooth of time gnaws but makes no dent in it — there it stands.

Infidels predict its abandonment — there it stands.

Modernism tries to explain it away — there it stands.

Laughed at by cynophants and scorned by scoffers — there it stands.

Free thinkers deride it — there it stands.

Twelve of folly denounce it — there it stands.

When childhood needs a standard of start — there it stands.

Youth calls for a beacon light — there it stands.

Sorrow calls for consolation — there it stands.

Weakness searches for sources of power — there it stands.

Old age calls for an upholding staff — there it stands.

The weary seek refuge and rest — there it stands.

The hungry souls call for bread — there it stands.

The thirsty pilgrim yearns for refreshing water — there it stands.

Do the overwhelmed cry for relief — there it stands.

Do the lost seek salvation? — there it stands — the BIBLE.

Local Girl Wins Scholarship.

Miss Joy Tully, who graduated from the Essex High School in June, has been notified that she is the winner of the first Carter Scholarship for the County of Essex, including the City of Windsor. Miss Tully won this enviable distinction when she passed with first class honours in all ten papers which she wrote in the June Departmental examinations.

Memorial Held for Soldier.

An impressive memorial service for the late Pte. Hubert J. Boultinghouse was held in the United Church Sunday morning, with the church filled to capacity.

The Legion and the Sunday school class, of which Pte. Boultinghouse had long been a member, sat in a body, as did the members of the Colchester North Council.

The musical part of the service consisted of favourite hymns, a quartet composed of Misses Margaret and Beatrice Bennett and Jean and Marian McIlwain, who sang "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer," and a solo "Sometime We'll Understand," by Murray Kennedy.

Emerson Neice unveiled a picture of Pte. Boultinghouse, after which Bill Neaylor sounded "Last Post," and "Reveille," while a minute of silence was observed.

Representing the Legion, Frank Talbot, a veteran of the last two wars, spoke a few words.

Rev. R. H. Parr chose as his text, "Out of the Great Tribulation," and urged that the veterans who were still living could best help to end all wars by building a likeness of the Kingdom of God.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Roe and family, of Woodstock, were week-end guests and Allen Barless, of Toronto, a guest during the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McBeth.

S. S. No. 12, Gosfield North, will hold their Christmas concert on Wednesday, December 19th, at 8 p.m. Everybody welcome.

The people of this community were shocked, on Thursday last week, to hear of the death, on Wednesday, at Clawson, Mich., of Mrs. Edwin Parker, formerly Martha Mulcaster, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mulcaster, of Gosfield North. She was instantly killed when struck by a city bus she intended to take to Royal Oak, to attend a prayer meeting.

It was raining at the time, and evidently the bus driver did not see her, as he failed to stop. Funeral services were held at Spillier's Funeral Home, in Royal Oak, and interment took place at North Ridge cemetery, on Tuesday, November 27th. Besides her husband she is survived by Mrs. Iva Vrick, of Highland Park, Mich.; Roy, of Santiago, Cal.; Mrs. Georgia Andrews, of Florida; Edsell, of California, and Bernard, now in Tokyo; also the following sisters, Florence (Mrs. L. J. Smith) of Essex; Bessie (Mrs. Malcolm Barr) of Walaka Lake, Fla.; Myrtle (Mrs. Harry Wellinger) of Jackson, Mich.; and a brother, Albert Mulcaster, of Gosfield North.

Inspector Honoured.

Public School Inspector, R. A. Pierce, was the guest of honour, on Saturday, at the Diet Kitchen on Bay street, Toronto, at a dinner, sponsored by the principal of the schools of East York where he was the business administrator for a number of years prior to his recent appointment as senior Inspector of Essex County Elementary Schools.

His popularity in his former position is attested by substantial gifts from his board, his principals and by his former teachers, who in turn presented a walnut desk and chair, a sterling silver tray, of grape design, and an attractive wrist watch, suitably engraved. Our congratulations to Mr. Pierce.

Mrs. Joseph Calhoun Passes.

The community was grieved to hear of the death of one of their old residents, in the person of Mrs. Joseph Calhoun, who passed away at the family home, Malden Road, Colchester North, at 4:30 on Sunday, December 2nd, in her 78th year.

Deceased's maiden name was Victoria Russell, eldest daughter of the late Z. J. and Martha Russell, and was born in Kent County, near Charing Cross, on April 13th, 1868. The family moved from Kent County to what was known as the Barrett farm, on the Malden Road, in Colchester North, near Gesto, where she was married to Joseph Calhoun 55 years ago, April 23rd. They lived on the groom's farm in Kent County, for ten years. After selling their farm they moved to Gesto 45 years ago, where they have resided ever since. Born to this union were Wynna and Stella (Mrs. Clarence Colenutt) both of Colchester North, and Ralph, of Leamington. A son, Harold, passed away in his 5th year.

Besides her husband and children she leaves to mourn her loss twenty grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren.

Mrs. Calhoun was a life long member of Gesto United Church, of which she took an active part.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Colenutt, thence to Gesto United Church, conducted by Rev. Stephen Dunk, the pallbearers being six grandchildren, Gerald, Max and Ray Calhoun, Keith and Bob Colenutt, and Jack Buhler. Interment was in North Ridge cemetery.

Mrs. Elida Brough Dies.

Funeral services were held from the Hicks & Son Funeral Home, on Monday afternoon, for Mrs. Elida Brough, who had passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Almer Doan, Albert street, Essex, on Saturday, following a lingering illness. The services were in charge of Rev. E. C. Williams, of the Essex Gospel Tabernacle, and burial was in North Ridge cemetery, the pallbearers, all nephews, being Clarence, Leslie and Clifford Harrison, and Stanley and Gordon Doan.

Deceased was born in the County of Peel, on September 23rd, 1883, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harrison. She came to Essex with her parents, as a baby, and after spending her childhood days in town, went, when a young lady, to Detroit, where she lived until about six months ago.

Surviving are three brothers, Herman Harrison, C.O.P., Essex; Joseph and Arch Harrison, of Essex; and two sisters, Agnes (Mrs. Almer Doan) of Essex, and Adeline (Mrs. Ben Pete) of Detroit. Her husband and two brothers, William and Robert, predeceased her.

Mrs. Mabel Boggs as chaplain, Mrs. Ellen Thomas as warder, J. Roy Johnston as sentinel, Mrs. Carson Yorke, as organist, and Mrs. Margaret Steed as soloist.

Guests were present from Leamington and Tilbury.

The retiring matron, Mrs. Bessie Detwiler received her jewel from Mrs. Mabel McDonald, past matron, and William Knister, retiring patron, was presented with his jewel by Fred Butts.

The officers installed were: Mrs. Ethel Wilson, Worthy Matron; Carson Yorke, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Marjorie Croft, Assoc. Matron; Fred Butts, Assoc. Patron; Mrs. Margaret Steed, secretary; Mrs. Eva Lonsberry, treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Farough, conductress; Mrs. Eva Whitall, Assoc. chaplain; Mrs. Mabel McDonald, Marshall; Mrs. Pearl Knister, organist; Mrs. Nesta Wass, Adah; Mrs. Hilda Matlack, Ruth; Mrs. Irene Kenyon, Esther; Mrs. Nellie Hill, Martha; Mrs. Madeline Burling, Electa; Mrs. Mary Sheffield, Warder; Earl Pulleyblank, sentinel.

The retiring Matron, Mrs. Bessie Detwiler, and the newly-installed matron, Mrs. Ethel Wilson, received many lovely gifts.

A delicious lunch was served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Irene Kenyon, and her capable committee.

Mrs. Frances L. Brett Passes.

The people of Essex learned with regret, on Saturday, that one of its oldest and most highly respected residents, Mrs. Frances L. Brett, widow of the late R. R. Brett, had passed away suddenly, in Hotel Deon, Windsor, shortly before noon. She had been removed to the hospital, by ambulance, on the Tuesday previous, for treatment for a diabetic condition, from which she had suffered for close onto twenty years. Death was due, however, to a coronary thrombosis.

Born near Pontiac, Mich., September 17th, 1865, a daughter of the late Eli Roberts and Maria Quance, both natives of New York State, she married her late husband on June 14th, 1893, in Charlotte, Mich., and started house-keeping in Amherstburg, where her husband was a member of the staff of the Echo. In June of 1896 they moved to Essex, and had resided here ever since.

For years deceased was quite prominent socially in town. She was a member of St. Paul's Anglican Church and a past president of the Women's Guild of the church. A charter member of Ambassador Rebekah Lodge; a charter member of Col. Talbot of Essex Chapter, I.O.D.E., and was for many years on the Nothern Allowance and Old Age Pension Board for the county.

Surviving are two daughters, Elaine (Mrs. A. G. Cascadden) of Essex, and Mrs. Lillian Hannan, of Detroit; and three sons, Kenneth E. and Douglas B. of Essex, and Marwood R. of Niagara Falls, N.Y. Mr. Brett passed away in October, 1937, and a son, R. R. Brett Jr., a veteran of World War I, passed on, in August 1940. She was the last of a family of nine.

Funeral services, in charge of Rev. J. H. Whealen, assisted by Rev. Jos. Tully, of St. Stephen's, were held from her late home, Alice street, on Tuesday afternoon, with interment in Greenlawn Mausoleum. A service by the officers of Ambassador Rebekah Lodge, was held on Monday evening. The pallbearers were J. A. Nightingale, Geo. R. Weller, Clair Tully, Robert M. Bryden, J. M. Shaw and A. L. Sonley.

Mrs. Elida Brough Dies.

Funeral services were held from the Hicks & Son Funeral Home, on Monday afternoon, for Mrs. Elida Brough, who had passed away at the home of her sister, Mrs. Almer Doan, Albert street, Essex, on Saturday, following a lingering illness. The services were in charge of Rev. E. C. Williams, of the Essex Gospel Tabernacle, and burial was in North Ridge cemetery, the pallbearers, all nephews, being Clarence, Leslie and Clifford Harrison, and Stanley and Gordon Doan.

Zettel-Wright Nuptials.

Before an altar banked with autumn white mums, in St. Anthony's Church, Harrow, the Rev. M. Durand united in marriage Vera Kathleen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Wright, of Essex, and Mrs. Alexander Zettel, of Maryhill, Ont.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, and was lovely in white satin and net, with sweetheart neckline bouffant skirt and finger-tip veil of net with heart-shaped embroidered headpiece. She wore a single strand of pearls, and carried a bouquet of white mums and fern, with a bow of white satin ribbon and long white streamers.

Miss Genevieve Goyer, as her only attendant, was gowned identically in pink satin with net and a matching veil, and carried yellow mums with pink satin bow and streamers.

Matthew Zettel assisted his brother as best man, John Zettel and Donald Wright were ushers. During the ceremony Miss Mary Brown sang "Agnes Dei" and "Sweet Sacrament Divine."

A wedding breakfast was served at Loucks' restaurant, Essex, for thirty friends and relatives.

Dinner was at the home of the bride's parents for fifty relatives and friends, the bride's table being centred with a three-tiered wedding cake with a miniature bride and groom on the top and vases of small white mums on either side and white candles in crystal candelabra. In the evening a reception for 100 people was held, the young couple receiving many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Zettel left later for Toronto, Kitchener and other points east, the bride travelling in a rose-wood wool suit with black accessories and a white fur coat.

Out-of-town guests were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Zettel, and four brothers, of Kitchener; Mrs. Charles Biddis, of Chatham; the bride's grandmother, Mrs. George Moon, of Chatham; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sanderson, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Henrickson and Mr. and Mrs. Rennie and daughter Mabel, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Mayhew and Mrs. Mary Campbell, of Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. Garant and Irene, Clarence, Ted and Lawrence Garant, and Miss Anna Hisey, of Leamington.

The bride's mother wore black tulle and mauve, and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother wore black with pink lace trimming, and a corsage of white carnations.

On their return from their honeymoon the young couple will reside in Harrow.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES.

By Dean Wilson.

These three letters, N.E.P. have heard more in discussions both inside the House of Commons and outside in the lobbies than anything else lately, though these letters simply represent "National Emergency News" Act by which the federal government has endeavored to continue some how and with modifications the operations of the War Measures Act by conferring in council powers upon the governor in council during the national emergency following the war. In short, as one prominent spokesman for the Government explained it in Parliament in arguing for the two main principles, he declared in part: "The first principle has to do with the temporary distribution of the legislative powers as between parliament and the provincial legislatures. The second principle deals with the distribution of legislative functions as between parliament and the governor in council in connection with temporary emergency conditions. These are two quite different questions, but both fall to be decided as a consequence of the view which it may be proper to take of the same set of facts. Are we still in a condition of national emergency?" Moreover, it may be added at this time that when the steering committee or the co-ordinating committee of the Dominion-Provincial Conference had held its important meetings in this capital, attended by all the nine Provincial Premiers and representatives of the Federal Government, various stories were told on Parliament Hill about the reactions of these representatives of the Provincial Governments to this now famous "N. E. P." Act, though in general there seemed to be no strong opposition to certain essential continuation of anti-inflation controls, but some extremely wide-sweeping powers were quite unpopular, with adjustments appearing advisable in the view of observers.

Party leaders and whips in Parliament have been showing some real Christmas spirit this year in their desperate drive to close up for the holidays and it has been no simple, nor easy assignment on account of the talkative proceedings as well as a heavy program, though now it can be told that this drive for more speed in Parliament has been relatively successful, especially since Premier King told the Parliament that some measures, such as the Citizenship Act, the proposed Extradition Treaty and the proposed United States, etc., would have to await the 1946 session. Other matters, such as the Exports Credit Act and the British Woods Finance Arrangements, etc., would be handled in this session. Then again, another story has been circulating now, that when the Parliament will meet in 1946, a somewhat similar effort may be made to bring about all-party cooperation in "resembling" proceedings so that it may be possible to end the last session before it runs into the intense heat of the capital next summer, if conditions will warrant and allow such a conclusion.

In view of the removal of meat rationing in the United States and its continuation in Canada, there is considerable interest in Ottawa about the like effects of this situation since both countries are committed to help each other since meat rationing went back into effect in this country only last September, admittedly in the most of obvious protests not only from the trade across this nation, but from those on other directions. "The United States," in effect, less than two years ago, has been able to move from a position of meat supplies, now abundant, to a position of meat rationing and still be able to maintain a high standard of living. We are convinced how, even if Canada were to export meat, without any export between our food and fifty per cent of our food, we could not only maintain a high standard of living, but also be able to export meat and maintain a high standard of living.

Meanwhile, the latest information in this capital has disclosed that the total of Canadian meats exported in October, 1945, amounted to $9,948,000, as compared with $7,221,000 in October, 1944, with the exports of meat for the next ten months of 1945 having been $129,497,000 and $165,366,000 for the same monthly period of 1944. Likewise, this latest report shows that Canada's exports of hams, shoulders, and sides in October, 1945, amounted to $1,546,000 as compared with $3,895,000 in October, 1944, with shipments for the first ten months of the current year having been valued at $82,633,000 as compared with $130,452,000 for the same period of last year. These figures are stressed in this capital as speaking louder than mere arguments for or against policy itself.

While some may argue that the majority should or should not agree to set up a divorce court system in Quebec for the convenience of the minority in that province, yet this year, as in others, it is evident that opinions in Ottawa differ sharply on this matter, judging by the reactions in Parliament when it gave thought to 62 divorce bills as approved by the Senate indicated that for the Government that Quebec divorces should be handled by the Exchequer Court in Ottawa or elsewhere outside Quebec may not be practicable. Likewise, a French-Canadian Minister of the Cabinet declared that it might be unwise for Parliament to impose a divorce court on Quebec Province since it would be repugnant to the majority of the people of that old province because of their well-known views against divorce. Then again, other speakers remarked that since Quebec alone was without a divorce system in its courts, this was not satisfactory in the manner in which numerous divorces are rushed through the House of Commons after previously being passed by the Senate, though others work in divorces was "very carefully" done and very judiciously handled by experienced men. "Nevertheless, in face of these heated disputes about the origin of numerous divorces in Quebec each year without a distinct court in that province to handle same, no better method seems to be at hand, with would be getting worse rather than better in the near future on account of the many hasty marriages contracted during the war."

The only woman member of Parliament has come forth with a request that the Federal Government should make plans to bring refugee children to Canada in order to save these little victims from the terrible chaotic conditions prevalent in Europe this winter. However, Premier King himself rose to answer her, though the woman member, Mrs. Gladys Strum, had asked this question of the Minister of National Health and Welfare, Hon. Brooke Claxton, with the head of the possible to exaggerate the conditions this winter in Europe due to the lack of food, clothes, shelter, etc. But, stated Premier King, who had used the word "appalling" in referring to European conditions, the Canadian Government would have to consider the problem with great care because it regarded the present time, the repatriation of service personnel from overseas as its great task, stressing that was the limiting factor in considering what might be done in the line of carrying out that proposed by the only member of the House of Commons.

There is no general amnesty in prospect for deserters from the Canadian forces or delinquents who failed to report for army service. This has been made clear in Ottawa where it has been pointed out that it was not considered in the interests of discipline in the services that there should be a change of policy at this time. . . . Jacques Grellet, famous town-planner who has been given the job of creating a master plan for developing Canada's capital, has returned to France for a short holiday after spending several hectic weeks in Ottawa where he consulted hundreds of officials and others, and worked like a beaver. He is expected to come back to Canada in January. . . . It may not be generally known, but there is a woman in Ottawa, Mrs. Janet Forrest, who started a fund in this capital during the war for the purpose of sending cigarettes to the men and women of the armed forces and the so-called "Pay Day Parade of Dinners" from November 1941 until "V-J" Day was responsible for sending about 5,000,000 cigarettes overseas, during the war without a single dime being spent on overhead expenses. . . . "The atomic bomb is a sword of Damocles. It is a shot in the arm we needed. It tells us 'You are good or you're going to hell.' These words were said in Ottawa by the Boy Scout Commissioner, John A. Styles, who has just come back from overseas. . . . A total of $11,566,953 has been paid to 18,542 Canadian Army ex-service personnel applicants for war service gratuities during September and this was brought to $67,295,572 the total gratuities paid to the end of September, according to the latest report in this capital. . . . The home of the Irish High Commissioner to Canada, Hon. John J. Hearn, who has been away on state business, was broken into in Ottawa by an unknown housebreaker and considerable damage was done to several priceless antique pieces of furniture in his beautiful house. . . . Defence Minister, Ottawa that by March or April, 1946, the army's repatriation from Europe of occupation troops.

Prices of Oranges.

Canadian ceiling prices on oranges which have formerly been imported under O. P. A. ceilings will now be stabilized in line with the level of prices in the United States at November 15th, according to the regional trade office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

This new order has been necessitated because the O. P. A. ceilings have recently been taken off all citrus fruits on November 15th. The American prices rose as much as four and five dollars a case when the ceilings were lifted. However, the foods division pointed out that the rise in prices was mostly on the larger sized oranges, and that there had been very little increase in the price of the smaller oranges.

Education and the High School

Article 3.

Having covered the broad outlines of the new system of Provincial grants we must now ascertain the effect these will have on the individual taxpayer's pocket. The case quoted below will illustrate the sharp contrast in the two systems.

In 1930 the operating costs (not including debt service) were $23,629.93 and the cost was apportioned as shown—Essex Town, $8,370.00; Essex County, $11,383.24; Provincial grant, $2,349.00.

Had the new system been in force the apportionment would have been: Essex Town, $1,139.55; Essex County, $4,867.33; Provincial grant, $17,622.45. The figure $54,000 has been quoted as the appropriate maximum upon which grants of the scale previously mentioned will be paid. This figure is arrived at by multiplying the number of students in attendance in any one year by 200, this being the average cost per pupil per year in Ontario Secondary Schools. It must be added that this sum is to cover both operational costs and capital expenditures.

As soon as the local High School is able to furnish the broader curriculum it is probable that the overall cost per year will lie between $40,000 and $50,000. At $40,000 per year the cost to the Town of Essex would be $1,929.36 and if the figure is $50,000 the cost to Essex would be $2,411.50. This means that the High School rate will lie between 1½ and 2 mills. The Department is especially anxious to integrate agriculture departments in the rural High School districts and in order to achieve that end are prepared to pay 100% of the cost of building the agricultural classroom together with 100% of the cost of equipment purchased in the first two years. After this period the High School will revert to the scale of other High School expenditures.

To sum up, it may be thought that the costs in connection with the new programme will be excessive, experience shows that this is a short-sighted view. Actually New Zealand, South Africa and several other countries have already embraced state financed education with very gratifying results and with costs which compare very favourably with our own. On the other hand portions of the United States have smaller fiscal units than our own and as will be remembered, in the recent depression many schools were closed for lack of funds and the youngsters were left to mark time. A prisoner in one of our penal per year; it is certainly a better plan to spend such money to educate the boy in such a way as to make him a self-respecting law-abiding citizen than to make him fend for himself by legal or illegal means, also it is more economical.

Finally, we must realize that education won't wait and the boy or girl who doesn't get an education at the proper time rarely obtains it later on. Our ex-service men who by their experience have learned the value of education in great and increasing numbers. If it's a good thing for them isn't it just as good for the youngsters who will be the citizens of the next generation. The opportunity is there for us to grasp, are we going to take advantage of it?

The Legion's Call for Total Victory.

In 1941, when the fate of civilization was hanging in the balance, we addressed to the Prime Minister of Canada, "The Legion's Call for Total War," urging the immediate, complete and scientific mobilization of all our resources — spiritual, intellectual, financial, agricultural, industrial. Many of its proposals were afterwards carried out by the government.

We now address ourselves to the people of Canada because Total Victory is still to be won. Victory in the home, over everything that weakens and divides the nation. The things that weaken can be found in everyone; every Canadian, therefore, can start accepting his responsibility. Our greatest task lies ahead. Total victory demands a total effort for a new world, worthy of the sacrifice our comrades have made. We, as veterans, believe that we must fight for this new world here in Canada.

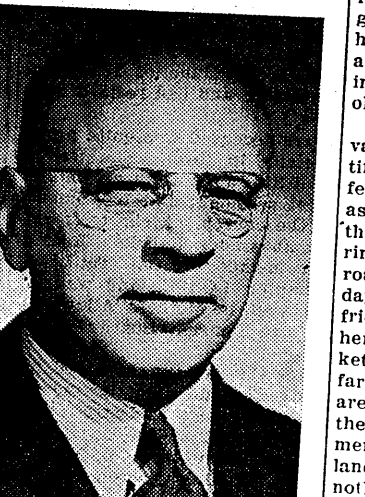

The Legion issues this Call for Total Victory in the name of the hundreds of thousands of Canadian men and women who, in past wars and in the war just ended, have served their King and Country. As Canadians and members of the British Empire Service League, we are proud of the role played by the British Commonwealth and Empire in the struggle for freedom and pledge ourselves to do our part in creating the great moral forces required for Total Victory.

After the First Great War most of us felt that our efforts were finished with the winning of the war. Now we know that the job is not over because military victory has been achieved. Forces of good and evil arrayed against each other. For Canada, having won the war of arms, has still to achieve the ideals of peace. Total Victory will come only when these ideals have been achieved.

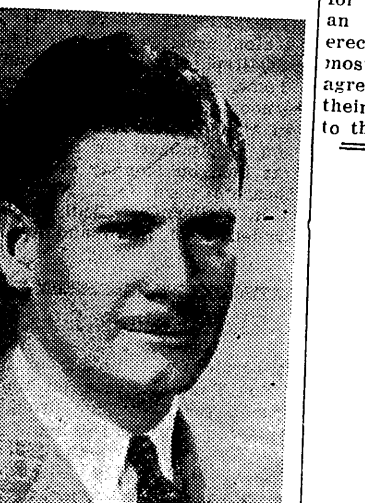

Our fathers, inspired by a vision of Canada devoted to the service of God, chose as their motto, "He shall have dominion from sea to sea." This is the heritage we have received, and on this heritage we must build our nation.

A Correction.

In an article entitled "Curbing Rabbits in the Orchard," which appeared in a recent issue of the Free Press, written by D. S. Blair, Division of Horticulture, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, it was stated that good results had been obtained in Ontario by painting fruit trees with a resin-alcohol solution. This repellent is easily prepared by dissolving 12 lb. of lump resin, finely broken, in 4 gallons of cheap alcohol. This should have read 1 gallon of cheap alcohol.

The children of our country, who are its greatest potential wealth, must grow up in this fighting faith. They will then respond to the challenge to make their country great. This purpose will give them the incentive to learn the dignity of work, the value of a task well done and the dynamic qualities of teamwork. Only this can national unity be achieved.

Hundreds of thousands of houses will need to be built. Yet homes are more than houses, and Canadians have the challenging task of creating the kind of homes and family life that will make this nation strong, clean, united. To build the Canada we want is an enterprise which requires the work of all. It will need the combined qualities of teamwork. Only this can management and labour, freed from the menace of fear and greed.

Made rich by the special gifts of every race within it, Canada will then demonstrate its answers to the chaos of conflicting races which, throughout history, has challenged the peace of the world. Thus will Canada fulfill the vision of our King who said: "With God's grace, you may yet become the example which all the world will follow."

In the faith that the people of Canada are with us, we issue this Call to Action for Total Victory.

STOP'N TALK CROP

with Filmore Binns

Farming Roadside.

Never a day passes without our papers publishing accounts of some new and startling agricultural development. Many of these innovations we are told, are the direct result of wartime research. First, it's a chemical that kills things we don't like, then it's another chemical that aids the growth of things we do like. To handle these larger crops, we visualize a wave of mechanization that is building up and may, in a few years, revolutionize many present methods. Our country has always been in the vanguard of progress and will continue to be but we still maintain one feature that dates the age of our farms as readily as the picture of grandmother in her hoop skirts. I am referring to the fences we have along the roadsides and between fields. The days when "good fences made good friends" disappeared with the age of herding cattle, hogs and sheep to market along the road allowances. Now, far from being necessary, these fences are even a hindrance. They prevent the best operation of powered equipment in the field to say nothing of the land they cut off and leave to produce nothing better than a crop of weeds.

Increases Acreage.
If a field is temporarily being used for pasture, a fence is necessary but an inexpensive electric one can be erected quickly and satisfactorily. In most other cases though, you will agree that no fence is required and their removal would add many acres to the size of the field actually sown to crop. This adds to the profit and value of any farm. The ease with which a tractor and implement can be most apparent to the man who has been "rasslin'" one at the end of each row trying to avoid getting tangled in a mess of barbed wire. Some fences along the road are just high enough to peer, in lordly fashion, over the heavy growth of weeds they gather. These weed beds steal many dollars from the value of every crop nearby by sending out new seed to cause more work and less crop for the farmer. Removing the roadside fence wouldn't matter for they are the homes of insects just waiting for the crops to get to the right stage before they attack it.

Improves Appearance.

The advantages of farming the roadside are not the farmers' alone. The improvement will be noted and appreciated by neighbours and the many people who enjoy a trip along a road flanked with well-tended crops instead of unsightly weeds. We soon expect a heavy increase in the numbers of visitors to our county and we should present them with a new and better picture. A picture of our usual good crops of course, but now, good crops that extend to the roadside and are not bordered by the ugly growth of weeds that the old fashioned fences caused. Yes, our farms will be ready for the post-war mechanization and improvement era we have been promised.

THEIR ROAD TO Enjoyment

Two million or more motorists from the States visit us each year . . . thousands for the sheer beauty of our countryside. Let's see to it that our hospitality matches the perfection of our lakes and hills.

WHAT CAN I DO?

The answer is—plenty! Here are some of the things anybody can do. The suggestions come from a well-known Ontario hotelman.

1. Find out all about what your own neighbourhood offers and become a booster.
2. Write your friends in the States about Ontario, show them when they come that you're really proud of your province.
3. Try to make all our visitors glad they came, and be really enthusiastic about it.
4. If they ask for information or directions, take time to answer them fully and graciously.
5. In any business dealings you may have with them, remember Canada's reputation for courtesy and fairness depends on you.
6. To sum it all up, just follow the "Golden Rule!"

IT'S EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS . . . it's good business!

Worth his weight in gold! Actually, the Province of Ontario, in pre-war years, profited to almost the extent from tourist business as it did from the gold mining industry. It is up to each of us to see that this business goes on growing.

This diagram, based on figures supplied by the Hotel Association, shows how everyone benefits from the Ontario tourist dollar. Every tourist dollar is shared this way: 1. Hotels; 2. Retail stores; 3. Restaurants; 4. Taxes, etc.; 5. Amusements; 6. Garages.

It works both ways! They treat us royally when we visit them . . . we can't do less than return the compliment. Remember that it costs money to take a holiday, so let's see they get a good return for every penny they spend in Canada.

A Farmer's Wife Looks at Strikes.

By R. J. Deachman.

There appeared recently in the Canadian Countryman, a farm journal published in Toronto, a letter from Mrs. William Schrag, of Zurich, Huron County, a letter which expresses the farm attitude to strikes more clearly than anything else I have heard or read this year. Here it is:

"It seems that all we hear about these days is strikes! Strikes! and more strikes! 'More pay for less work!' I often wonder what all these strikers think (I doubt if they think much, or deeply) when they vote to strike for their demands. Do they honestly believe their action justified? Do they really think they are getting less than their share of the income of the nation as a whole? Do they foresee the result of their demands, if met, upon the economic life of the country? Or are they determined to get all they can at the present moment, regardless?"

"Apparently the only large group in the country not in a striking mood is the farm population. The farmer seems to be satisfied. He is enjoying a position of economic parity — a position in which his returns for a 12-hour day (plus the hours contributed by his wife and children) are equal to the returns of the industrial laborer for his 8-hour day."

"Let us assume that all these groups have a moral right to a 30% wage increase and a 40 hour week. Do they not concede to all the non-striking groups the same right? Let us be fair and square and increase the income of every person in the country by 30% and cut their working hours to 40 per week. Are we any better off? Even a moron could see that we would be in a worse position. Our export trade would suffer if all prices were increased by 30%. The non-farming population would most certainly be half-starved if the farmer worked 40 hours per week instead of the 100 hours which he (and his family) spent on the farm at present."

"If industry were able, by more efficient management — up to date machinery — increased output, etc., to offer a pay increase, it would be much better and fairer to reduce the price of all manufactured articles, thus benefiting the consumer. That would be helping every man, woman and child in the country. If a product is lowered in price, the demand for it is increased, exports are increased, and the entire industry stimulated."

"With prices, as a result of free competition becoming lower and lower, all workers would enjoy a continuously rising standard of living even though their money wages remained at a stationary level."

"Wouldn't that be a happy situation? In conclusion, will say I am against the 'closed shop' — for free trade, and believe that if all people practised true Christianity, the world would enjoy a continually expanding prosperity such as is impossible for the imagination to conceive."

"Christianity."

A wise man will always be a Christian, because the perfection of wisdom is to know where lies tranquility of mind, and how to attain it, which Christianity teaches.—Lander.

JAMES MUIR.

Assistant General Manager for the past ten years, who succeeds Mr. Dobson as General Manager of the bank.

SYDNEY G. DOBSON.

Vice-president and General Manager of The Royal Bank of Canada, whose appointment as Executive Vice President is announced.

BURNHAM L. MITCHELL.

Of Toronto, newly appointed Director and Vice President of the Royal Bank, has been Assistant General Manager since 1935. He will continue to make his headquarters in Toronto.

Royal Bank Appointments.

The appointment of Sydney G. Dobson, as executive vice president of The Royal Bank of Canada was announced by the Board of Directors this week. The board also announced the appointment of Burnham L. Mitchell as a Director and Vice President and James Muir as General Manager.

Mr. Dobson, who has been General Manager of the Royal Bank since 1934, first entered the banking business in his native town of Sydney, N.S., as a junior in the local branch. In the ensuing years he gained a comprehensive knowledge of Canadian banking and conditions through service from Halifax to Vancouver. In 1910 he assumed his first branch management at Sydney, N.S. Later he became assistant manager of Montreal branch, manager at Vancouver, and acting supervisor at Winnipeg. In 1919 he was promoted to general inspector at Montreal. Mr. Dobson's appointment as assistant general manager followed in 1922 and in 1934 he was made general manager. He became a director of the bank in 1939 and vice president three years later. Mr. Dobson served as president of the Canadian Bankers Association in 1937-38.

Burnham L. Mitchell, since 1935 assistant general manager of the bank at Toronto, becomes a director and vice-president following a long and extensive career with the bank in many parts of Canada and Newfoundland. He is a native of Merigonish, N.S., and gained his first banking experience in New Glasgow Branch, later he became accountant at Halifax and in 1913 was transferred to St. John's, Newfoundland, where he became manager in 1915. Between 1919 and 1929 he served successively as manager at Halifax, Vancouver and Toronto. In 1934 he was promoted to Supervisor of Ontario branches and the following year was appointed assistant General Manager. He will continue to make his headquarters in Toronto.

James Muir, the new general manager, has been a banker since boyhood and brings to his new post a wide background of banking experience gained in Britain, Canada and the United States. A native of Scotland, he served his apprenticeship with the Commercial Bank of Scotland and later served with the Chartered Bank of India at its Head Office in London. Mr. Muir joined the Royal Bank of Canada at Moose Jaw in 1912 and after serving in various branches and in the Inspector's Department at Winnipeg, was transferred to Head Office in 1917. Later he was appointed inspector in the supervisor's department, Winnipeg, and in 1925 went to the bank's New York office, where for three years he served as assistant supervisor of the bank's business in Central and South America. He returned to Canada in 1928 to become manager of Winnipeg branch and his appointment as general inspector in Montreal followed three years later. Mr. Muir was appointed assistant general manager in 1935.

He who shall introduce into public affairs the principles of primitive Christianity will change the face of the world.—Benjamin Franklin.

Preserves Coupons.

Instead of one sugar coupon and two preserves coupons becoming valid during December, four preserves coupons will be declared valid, according to the regional ration office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

This means that P22, P23, P24, and P25 will become valid Tuesday, December 20th. These may be used for either preserves or sugar. Each coupon entitles you to one-half pound of sugar.

THE ESSEX FREE PRESS, ESSEX, ONTARIO.

A Warning to Veterans.

It has been noted that veterans, in increasing numbers, are interested in purchasing small businesses of various natures and are making applications to use their re-establishment credit to assist them in these ventures.

A Re-establishment Credit Advisory Committee has been established under authority of the Department of Veterans Affairs, to assist veterans in Western Ontario with information and advice in connection with the various businesses which they propose to buy.

Unfortunately, however, veterans enter into agreements for business purchases and pay out, in many cases, substantial sums of money on account of such purchases, before applying to the Department of Veterans Affairs for the use of their credit and/or for advice concerning the businesses in question.

It may turn out that, either by reason of the veteran's lack of experience or by reason of the nature or condition of the business, the venture is either definitely unprofitable from the point of view of the veteran, or at least of very questionable value.

Where the veteran has already committed himself and paid over money, the committee can give very little assistance which they otherwise could if he had applied to the Department before obligating himself.

The function of the committee is not only to consider the value of the business in question and its suitability for the particular veteran, but also to advise him generally in every way in which he makes any commitment or pays over any cash, and in is therefore urged that all Counsellors and others who are advising veterans, as to their civil re-establishment give the widest possible publicity to the existence of this committee and urge, by all means available to them, to:

1. Consult the committee, through their local Welfare Officer or the permanent Secretary of their local rehabilitation committee, before signing any agreement, paying over any money, or obligating themselves in any way in the purchase of a business, and;
2. That they apply to such welfare officer or the permanent secretary of their local rehabilitation committee to assist them in making out their applications for use of their credit in a business purchase.

The committee sits, weekly, at the offices of the Department of Veterans Affairs, General Products Building, 343 Richmond street, London, Ontario, to consider applications as they come in, and veterans are furnished with Travel Warrants to enable them to be present when their applications are heard, and to get such information and advice as the Committee is in a position to give them at first hand, and to ask any questions they may desire of the committee.

The committee is composed of prominent businessmen who are contributing their time and experience, and, in addition, they are empowered to call upon a panel comprised of business professionals men with long and successful experience in the various trades, businesses and professions with which applications may be concerned.

For further information in connection with the Re-establishment Credit Advisory Committee, application should be made to "The Secretary Re-establishment Credit Advisory Committee," district "E," 343 Richmond Street, London, Ontario.

Helps Put 9th Victory Loan Over the Top.

Kimberley and District Memorial Society Purchase Bonds Totalling $25,000.00.

Kimberley, B. C., went well over the top in Canada's Ninth Victory Loan. The big event occurred on Saturday, when the city's quota of $355,000 was passed after only 14 days canvassing.

Memorial Society B.C. Purchases. One of the big subscribers of the recent loan was Kimberley and District Memorial Society who purchased $25,000 worth of bonds, thus ensuring the prize money for the big drawing that will take place at a later date. Officers of the Memorial Society report that the number of subscribers are steadily increasing and the future is extremely bright.

Now that the prize money has been assured all that remains is for a sum of money to be accumulated for the erection of a Memorial Hall for our returned war veterans and other civic improvements and the big drawing will take place when lucky ticket holders will be presented with $25,000. 48-2t

A special meeting of the Woodslee Branch of the Essex County Sportsmen's Association will be held in the Union Hall, on Monday, December 10th, at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

D. WEAVER, Sec'y Treas. Arley Knight is visiting the next three weeks with relatives at Dunnville and Selkirk.

James H. McHugh, of the U. S. Navy Seabees, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McHugh, recently returned from the South Pacific.

Christmas concert and Christmas tree, in St. John's parish hall, on Friday evening, December 14th, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Don Walker and two children, of Thorold, are visiting with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Miller.

Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Vickard were their daughter, Mrs. Fraser McClung, and her husband, and Melvina Mann and Lyle Jones, all of Watford.

A card party and dance, sponsored by St. John's C. W. L. will be held at North Woodslee hall, on Thursday, December 13th. Cards start at 8.30 p.m. Pfc. Jack Kigar home.

Pfc. Jack Kigar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Kigar, who was attached to the U. S. Marine Corps, was given an honourable discharge at Great Lakes, Ill., and has returned home. He has been in service the past three years and overseas in the Pacific for twenty months. He wears the American theatre ribbon, Presidential Citation, Good Conduct and Victory Ribbon, and the Purple Heart.

An open meeting will be held in the Union Hall, South Woodslee, on Tuesday, December 11th, at 8.30 p.m., for the purpose of forming a Citizens' Association, which is suggested to replace the present Patriotic Association. Everybody welcome. Come out and let us have your ideas.

There are only 12 paid-up members of the Woodslee Public Library so far this year. If there are not at least 35 paid-up members by December 21st the Department of Education will not consider it worth while and we will be forced to close.

Mrs. Teeter, Mrs. Bruce Beam and son Bob, formerly of Essex, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swayze, prior to moving to Simcoe on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hull and Miss Dorothy Hull, of Detroit, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Vetter and daughter, of Tecumseh, spent the weekend at the home of Andrew Vetter.

The many friends of Mrs. Percy Weaver will be sorry to hear that she is back in Grace Hospital.

James McMurrin is in a serious condition at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. Simon, in Detroit.

Mrs. Charles Roberts entertained the members of the Women's Missionary Society for their November meeting with Mrs. Nelson Scoville, president in the chair. The worship service was conducted by the president, assisted by Mrs. John Begbie, the theme of which was "Peace Through Christ." An appeal was made for Christmas gifts for the All People's Mission, which is being introduced in the new book on Africa, "Crisis of Civilization" and reviewed the first of the supplementary study book "New World." Mrs. John Wilcox presided at the piano.

The regular meeting was held on Tuesday, with a good attendance. A quilt was pulled during the day and a shipment of 50 girls' vests were made. Ladies' Next Monday we are going to cut out layettes. Come and bring a bit of luck. We will begin sewing brought in. Remember, Monday, December 10th, and bring along a lady with you.

The Bonus Amusement Club held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Lucy Dewhurst, in Essex, on November 20th, the new president, Verna Ruston, presiding. Hilda Armstrong introduced Mrs. Greta Simon, who gave a splendid talk on "The Value of Sunday School." A poem was read by Frances Weaver. The next meeting is to be at the home of Ola Trimble, and there will be election of officers. It was decided to have a Christmas party sometime between Christmas and New Year. The meeting closed with hymn and prayer, and a social hour was enjoyed in games. A lovely lunch was served by the hostess.

At the November meeting of the Women's Institute a vote of appreciation was extended to Frank Paisley for the splendid care he has given Jarrett cemetery this year. Topic of the day was taken by Mrs. Seivour, peace convener, on "How we should treat our enemies." Mrs. A. Dodson, of Comber, gave a report on the conference recently held at London. The December Institute meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 12th, one week earlier. Roll call, "A suggestion for Christmas Gift." Legislation, Mrs. John Wilcox; Christmas poem, Miss Ethel Plant; practical ideas, Mrs. L. Brooks; and Mrs. D. Montgomery.

Services at Ruscomb, on Sunday, at the usual hours, with Sunday school sessions and Junior Church, to which all our people are invited. Christmas messages and hymns each Sunday. We ask our people to make this a great church month by being present at every service, thus preparing our hearts for Christmas Day. Topic for Sunday, "Everybody's Baby."

GESTO

Fern Lincoln, of Detroit, and Mrs. Ken Amos spent the weekend at their parents' home here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Campbell received word, on Saturday, that their son, Pte. A. K. Campbell, will arrive home from overseas the last of this week, after four years of service.

L.A.W. Irene Coleman leaves today (Thursday) for Lachine, Que., after attending the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. J. W. Calhoun.

Graduation Exercises.

Graduation exercises at St. John's High School began on Thursday morning, November 29th, with a High Mass in the parish church, after which the members of the Sodality served breakfast in the club room, which was artistically decorated in the school colours, blue and gold.

Thursday evening the graduation exercises were presented. After two choral numbers, Rev. E. G. Doe conducted diplomas upon Miss Marjorie Castanier, the class valedictorian; Miss Alice Mulhall, Miss Carol Mulhall, Miss Elizabeth Castanier, Thomas Mooney, Paul Mooney and James Byrne.

The chairman, Patrick Byrne, introduced the guest speaker, H. J. Payette, B.A., Separate School Inspector, who gave a very inspirational talk to the students, reminding them of the necessity of developing qualities of leadership, good citizenship and loyalty to flag and country.

An interesting comedy, "Merry Molly Malone," featured Lawrence Mousseau, Irene Mullins, Evelyn Chelmer, Elizabeth Murphy, Dolores Sedman, Wilfred Tracey and Gerald Puertch. The play was well received and followed by a display of physical training, eurythmics and dancing and the program was climaxed by an impressive patriotic drill, "The Flags of the Nations."

Friday evening, in the Parish Hall, there was a graduates' dance, under the auspices of the C. Y. O.

Trimble-Dresser Nuptials.

The wedding was solemnized, at the United Church Parsonage, Cottam, on Saturday afternoon, November 24th, by Rev. Stanley R. Johnston, of Miss Jean Marie Dresser, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burbridge Dresser, of London, and Donald Wallace Trimble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Trimble, of the 11th Concession, Gosfield North.

The bride, who entered the drawing room on the arm of her father, was charming in a white satin gown styled with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and a very full skirt. Her double tulle fingertip veil was held to her head by a heart-shaped halo studded with seed pearls. She wore a gold locket and chain, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss June Dresser, of London, the bride's only sister, was maid of honour, and Miss Helen Margaret Trimble, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns made with tulle, the heart neckline and fitted bodice, the motif of honour in blue and the pink carnations. They wore matching headbands with heart-shaped halos.

The bridegroom was assisted by his cousin, Harry Trimble, of South Woodslee. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Stanley R. Johnston. A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dresser, 24th Concession, Gosfield North, with whom she made her home. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered wedding cake bedded in white chrysanthemums and flanked by white papers. Miss Beth Dresser, Miss Shirley Hope, Miss Joan McLean and Miss Doris Baker served.

Following the reception the bride and groom left on a motor trip east, the bride travelling in a pale blue fur collar and black hat with white veils. On their return they will reside on the 11th Concession, Gosfield North, on the groom's farm.

On Monday the young people met for their weekly meeting, with 28 in attendance. The recreation was in charge of Lloyd Dewhurst, while Miss Ethel Allison was in charge of the program, which consisted of Christmas hymns and a Christmas story entitled "The Fourth Wise Man."

It was planned to hold a social during the Christmas holidays, also in the New Year to have the Y. F. U. Crusade Committee visit the group. Arrangements were made to canvass for the Christmas Observer, and our young people will be going out shortly for this purpose.

On Monday evening next the regular meeting of the Y. F. U. there will be a program of colored slides entitled "Your Church at Work." This will be an open meeting to which all our people are invited. Come out and see your church at work.

On Sunday evening, in Ruscomb church, the above program of slides will be shown, service beginning at 7.45.

On Christmas Sunday there will be the morning service, at Woodslee, 11 a.m., while at Ruscomb there will be a morning and evening service. The morning service beginning at 9.45 and a candle lighting service at 7.30 p.m. If you forgot your Bible Society envelope on Sunday last, please bring them along to the service on Sunday. Thank you.

Woodslee Christmas entertainment, December 20th; Ruscomb, December 21st.

The annual meeting of Redeemer of Mrs. Hugh White, at the home decided to change the branch from a girls auxiliary to a senior W. A. A cordial invitation is extended to all ladies in the parish to attend the meetings or join us in W. A. work. An election of officers for the ensuing year was conducted by Rev. Joseph Tully, the being as follows:

Honorary president, Mrs. Jos. Tully; president, Mrs. Walter O'Neill; vice-president, Mrs. Russell Pettipiece; secretary, Mrs. Harry Pettipiece; treasurer, Mrs. Henry Hartley; Dorcas secretary, to be elected next meeting; literary secretary, Miss Young. In a few well-chosen words, Mr. Tully wished every success in the work for the coming year. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, which brought the meeting to a close.

The card party and dance, sponsored by the Victory Club, was well attended last Friday evening. Prizes for eucure went to Mrs. Hugh O'Neill, Mrs. Arthur Essery, Orville Farough and Vern Kim. After lunch dancing was enjoyed.

Funeral services for the late Ernest O'Neill, aged 60 years, who died suddenly of a heart attack early Sunday morning, November 25th, at his home, 21 Josephine avenue, Windsor, were held in the Sutton Funeral Home, in Windsor, last Wednesday afternoon, at St. Stephen's Church, in charge of Rev. R. Charles Brown and the Rev. Francis Watts, of All Saints' Church, Windsor. Interment was in St. Stephen's cemetery, the pallbearers being Huggard, Sandy O'Neill, Eugene O'Neill and E. F. Holden. The funeral was largely attended and the floral tributes were many and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which deceased was held.

Pte. Russell O'Neill is a patient in the military hospital, London, with a septic throat.

Garnet Webster spent the weekend in Detroit, the guest of Robert Gunn. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Webster were guests of Mrs. Janie Holden on Sunday.

Miss G. Bailey, of Windsor, and Edmund Holmwood were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller at the supper hour, Sunday evening.

Gordon Edwards is confined to his bed with sciatica.

On Saturday afternoon, December 22nd, a Christmas party for the Sunday school scholars of the church of the Redeemer will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter O'Neill.

Deepest sympathy is extended the bereaved family in the death of their dear mother.

Drouillard-Deehan Wedding.

At an impressive double-ring ceremony, recently, in St. Mary's Church, Maldstone, Rev. Fr. Gleason united in marriage Mary Agnes Deehan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Deehan, of Maldstone, to Arsene Joseph Drouillard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Drouillard, of McGregor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in an ivory brocade satin gown, styled with a sweetheart neckline, a fitted bodice, long sleeves forming points over her wrists and a full skirt. Her fingertip veil was held by a matching satin braid and topped with ostrich tips. She carried a white walsal covered with white baby chrysanthemums from which extended satin streamers tied with the same.

Miss Odella Deehan, sister of the bride, was lovely in a long blue gown with matching headress similar to that of the bride's and carried yellow lard, the groom's brother, acted as best man. Mose Suzor and Theodore Deehan were ushers.

Miss Angela Bondy sang "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother," "O Lord I Am Not Worthy," and "Ave Maria." Miss Vera Deehan played the wedding music. Mr. Deehan chose for her daughter's wedding a wine coloured dress and matching hat, with a corsage of white roses.

Mrs. Drouillard was dressed in a gold and black crepe ensemble with black accessories and a corsage of yellow mums.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Drouillard left for Montreal and other eastern points, suit, watching that of the groom's, with pink accessories, over which she wore her muskrat coat. On their return they will reside in McGregor.

Essex Bible Society.

Essex Protestant churches are issuing a call to their members and adherents to attend a special Essex Bible Service, on Sunday morning, conducted by the minister, under the auspices of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

Europe is experiencing two phases of hunger — physical and spiritual. The nations of the Western Hemisphere are endeavouring to satisfy the need, while the Bible Societies of Sweden, United States and Britain are pooling their resources to meet the gigantic demands of the latter.

Sixty million copies of the Word of God, printed in ninety languages, is the quota for the coming year, now that paper from Sweden is available. The local branch of the Bible Society last year forwarded a little in excess of $200 to London headquarters, and due to the requirements of the hour, a substantial increase in giving to the laudable work is desired. So let's rally to our churches on Sunday morning, December 9th, and place a special contribution in the special envelope for Bible purposes at one of some subsequent service. The officers of the Essex branch for this year are: President, Russell Damm; vice-president, George How and resident ministers; secretary, J. A. Dowsell.

St. Paul's Guild Annual Bazaar.

Attend St. Paul's Guild annual bazaar and solve your Christmas shopping problems. It is to be staged in the parish hall, on Friday, December 7th. The doors will open at 3 p.m. and what an array upon which to feast your eyes. Aprons to please the busy housewife; fancy work of all kinds; knitting bags; towels; pillow cases; pot holders; luncheon cloths, and handkerchiefs.

Mothers will be delighted with the attractive articles for the two to six year olds, and baby has not been forgotten, as there are hand-knitted booties, sweaters and bonnets for the wee ones. The stuffed animals, so popular last year, are better than ever and will bring a Christmas thrill to many a small child. Doll clothes to outfit the favourite dolly or a new doll dressed by hand, will bring joy to the heart of any little girl.

Something new is the Little Red Book Store, with books and magazines of all kinds, school supplies and stationery. The trinket table will be laden with surprises and many mysterious things may be found at the White Elephant Table.

Stop at the Snack Bar and refresh yourself with a toothsome delicacy and buy an ornament for your Christmas tree.

The Mother's Union will have their table with jams, jellies, pickles, as well as a collection of hand-made articles.

An exhibition of ancient and modern art has been arranged by one of our members, and we advise you not to miss this cultural display.

Supper will be served, as usual, from 5.30 to 7 o'clock. It's just 40c for adults and 25c for children, so come along and bring the family.

Notice to Creditors.

In the Matter of the Estate of George Edwin Bedell, late of the Township of Gosfield North, in the County of Essex, farmer, deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given that all creditors and others having claims or demands against the estate of the said George Edwin Bedell, who died on or about the 4th day of September, 1945, are required on or before the 8th day of January, 1946, to send by post prepaid, or deliver to Raymond William Wilcox, No. 3443 Turner Road, Sub. 12, Windsor, Ontario, the administrator of the estate of the said deceased, their names, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them.

AND TAKE NOTICE, that after the last mentioned date, the said administrator will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased among the parties entitled thereto, having regard only to the claims of which he shall then have notice, and that the said administrator will not be liable for the said assets or any part thereof to any person or persons of whose claims notice shall not have been received by him at the time of such distribution.

Cities of Refuge.

To whom do you turn when you are in trouble, or bothered, or anxious? I presume that Numbers would be the last Book in the Bible to which you would be apt to turn for a chapter of devotional reading. Yet in the 35th chapter you are arrested by the words, "Cities shall ye have for refuge." Among the forty-eight cities provided for the Levites, six were on the east and three on the west of Jordan, thus making them easily accessible to all.

In those days, if a life was taken, relative to seek the blood of the slayer. He owed this to his brother, his community and his God. There were evil deeds, Action was immediate and sometimes the innocent suffered. In the desire to uphold the family honour and tradition the pursuit of the criminal was swift and unrelenting. There was no organization to deal with crime. Hence, these cities were the first step in reform. If the suspected one could reach one of these cities, he was safe until his trial. If proved innocent he was free but must remain in the city until the death of the High Priest.

Many a human soul today badly needs a city of refuge. With David like a dove, for then I had wings and be at rest." The men in the forest had little privacy. The prisoners of war were never alone. Many homes, callings and environments afford little opportunity for meditation. For such God has provided — cities of refuge.

Mark you — there are wrong paths to escape. Many turn to pleasure, lust, mammon, or intoxicating liquor to escape the stern realities. A certain Englishman, usually a sober, industrious citizen, occasionally went on a prolonged drunken escapade. When asked about it, he gave this reply: "It's the shortest road out of Manchester." God has provided many cities of refuge — let me suggest four.

PRAYER — In facing the real issues of life PRE-PRAYEREDNESS IS PRE-PAREDNESS. Unfortunately we have often made this the last resort when it might have been the first. We have suffered needlessly. Note that, in the ancient cities of refuge, all were admitted, without questioning, the child, the stranger and the fugitive, fleeing for life, pursued by the avenger reaching the gate. Think of his relief, "Him that cometh unto Me, I will in no wise cast out."

There is, therefore, now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus. This great city of refuge is open to all, and equally accessible. GOD'S WORD. In our day the ability to read makes roads to the city of refuge. What a refuge is found in good reading. We can hold communion with the great souls of all ages. What a pity that the Bible is sometimes a neglected book, buried under inferior reading matter. G. B. Keenleyside summarized it thus, "This wonderful book, with its sixty-six books, its fifty authors, its long purview, contains the most thrilling dramas, the most absorbing ethics, the loftiest eloquence, the model laws, the highest ethical teaching, the purest spiritual ideals, and the ever-enduring concepts."

THE HOLY SUPPER is kept indeed. In what we share with another's need. Not what we give but what we share. For the gift without the giver is bare. Who give himself with his gift feeds these — Himself, his hungering neighbour and Me."

GOD, IN PERSONAL EXPERIENCE. The guilty one, fleeing to the City of Refuge, was very conscious of a definite adversary. Are we not much the same? We are pursued by the accusing voice of conscience. Paul said, "The good that I would I do not; the evil that I would not, that I do." The stern justice of God follows us. "Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." The clear word of God speaks, "The wages of sin is death." Fear, pride, defeat, guilt, hatred, jealousy — Satan — all are pursuing us. But — remember, if we have an ADVOCATE, we also have an ADVOCATE. The ceaseless guest is the burden of Francis Thompson's greatest poem, "The Hound of Heaven." It was the product of his own personal experience. He had been lost and was found. It was the epic of a love that would not let him go. It is a comfort thought that in our escape from sin we are ushered into the arms of God — "The eternal God is our refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms."

tion of the one wise and true God, eternal and invisible, all loving all powerful, ever present. And yet though written throughout twenty centuries, by over two score different authors, with all shades of temperament, all grades of learning and all classes of mentality, the Book records from first to last just one great event — the mission of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. The core of the Book is the Life of Jesus. All that goes before it but records the preparation that God was making to send Jesus into the world. All that follows is but a record of His church, when that church was true to her King and obeyed His commands. "There is not a single problem, perplexity, or heartache that can come to you which has not been met and dealt with effectively in the Bible."

THE CHURCH. Every human soul desires and needs fellowship. Jesus called the twelve, "that they might be with Him." There is no one on earth in his right mind, that does not crave at times above everything else some kindred spirit in whom they can trust and confide and by whom they will be understood. William Morris said, "The lack of Fellowship is Hell." The finest fellowship on earth is Christian Fellowship. There are many other institutions, fraternities and clubs but they are all limited. The only unlimited fellowship is in the world in Christ's name. In it is creative power and energy. It is dynamic. It fills the only hope of peace and good-will. There are individuals outside organized religion who are Christian at the outstanding Christians of the ages have been fed by the ministrations of the church.

The Holy Supper is kept indeed, what we share with another's need, at what we give but what we share in the gift without the giver is bare, no give himself with his gift feeds himself, his hungering neighbour and Me."

First Baptist Church.
Sunday, December 9th: "A good investment — is time spent in God's house." The average man believes in the blessing of the church to the community — then let him be consistent and attend personally. We sincerely believe that attendance with your friends in our home-like church will be of great blessing to you. Our services are happy, hopeful, helpful. COME! This will be BIBLE SOCIETY SUNDAY. A special offering will be received in Sunday school and at both services for this great work. Bibles sent to occupied countries now are the best insurance against your boy being sent there to fight, within a few short years. Which shall it be, Bibles now, or our boys later? We want your boys to be spared the horror of another war. Come with your family to Sunday school at 10 a.m., stay for the morning service at 11. The pastor's subject will be "The Inspiration of the Bible." Evening Evangelistic service at 7.30. Message, "The Day." Christmas program, Tuesday, December 18th. New Canadian program, Friday, December 21st.

The Salvation Army.
The Young People will take prominent part in the meetings this Sunday at the Army. Musical numbers, short talks and vigorous leadership. Corps Cadet Marion Barnewall will deliver the Bible message in the night meeting, Corps Cadet Donna Cunningham and Pat Kennedy will relate the biographies of two outstanding converts, Ross and Merle Damm, will play an instrumental duet. You are welcome to both morning (11 o'clock) and evening (7.30 o'clock) meetings, also to Sunday school at 2 o'clock. The lesson on shows the story of "Tim Canell of the Marines." How God gives power and love to those who accept Christ. Read 1 Cor. 9:24-27. Text to learn (2 Timothy 1:7 RV). "For God gave us not a spirit of fearfulness; but of power and love and discipline." British Labor and Russia

By Lewis Milligan.
Admiration for the heroic part played by Russia in the war had much to do with the result of the British general election, and it has contributed to the popularity of Socialism in other parts of the world. But there is a strange contradiction about the extreme swing by British labor to Socialism, as it is represented by Soviet Russia.

If there is one thing that organized labor insists upon it is freedom—freedom to bargain with employers and to strike and refuse to work if its demands are not conceded; freedom from any form of dictatorship. The rejection of Mr. Churchill by the Labor Party may be explained by the fear that he had become too powerful and might develop into a dictator in the post-war period.

Assuming that there were just grounds for such fear, what explanation is there for the Labor Party's admiration for Mr. Stalin, who is the sole remaining absolute dictator—and that in a Socialist Republic? In Russia there are no labor unions, no bargaining, no strikes or freedom to refuse to work, and no one dare breathe a word of criticism or question any act or order of Mr. Stalin.

The Russian people, of course, may be quite satisfied with that kind of government, and its success bears out the assertion that some form of dictatorship is essential to the administration of a Socialist State. Mr. Churchill himself has expressed his admiration for Mr. Stalin's leadership in the war, but he warned the British people during the election that adopting a social system that would subject them to perpetual dictatorship.

However good such a system might be for the Russian people in their process of revolution from an autocratic feudalism under the Czar, it does not follow that it would be good for or even be tolerated by the freedom-loving British people. There is no comparison between the social conditions and standards of living in socialist Russia and those of Britain—much less of Canada and the United States. When this fact is pointed out, the advocates of Socialism reply: "But look at the advances made in Russia since the revolution in the past twenty-five years!"

We are told that illiteracy among the common people of Russia, which was practically universal under the Czar, has now been reduced to a comparatively small percentage. Industry has also made great strides.

Granting all this and more, the common people of Russia have still a long way to go before they attain to the general level of culture and high standards of living enjoyed by the working people of democratic countries. A recent visitor to Russia declared that he found "abysmal ignorance," even among the better educated people in that country, regarding the social and political life in Canada and the United States. He stated that the "news" in the Russian press consists chiefly of official statements of the government, and that the only advertisements carried were those inviting the people to invest their savings in government securities. He suggested, by the way, that soap advertisements might improve the Soviet experiment.

We can sincerely admire and praise the Russians for what they have done in the war, and for what they have accomplished in social, economic and industrial affairs, but in doing so we need not despise our own accomplishments or exaggerate the faults of our highly developed democratic system. The people of Great Britain would be the very last to submit a dictator, and the labor unions would no more stand for a Stalin than they would for a Hitler in England.

But there is a danger that British labor has set out on a path that might lead to at least party dictatorship. Speaking in London after the election, Morrison said: "It is not enough to win one election. We have to win them all for ever." This statement was received with great cheers. But "for ever" is a long time, and Mr. Churchill and many of his predecessors know that there is no perpetual lease of power for any political party in Britain. The old parties may change, yielding place to new, and Freedom fulfils itself in many ways, lest one good party should corrupt the State.

*Q.—My landlady refuses to paper two rooms in the house in which I am living or do any repairs. I have been living in this house for nineteen months, the paper is falling off in some places. Can I compel her to paper?

A.—There are no regulations of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board that can make a landlord paper the rooms. However, if the failure to repair results in a lessening of the accommodation to the tenant he can make application for a reduction of the rent.

The Change in Mr. Coldwell

By R. J. Deachman.

M. J. Coldwell has written a book "Left Turn, Canada"—I hope to review it later. To the book there is a preface. Eric Estorick is the author. Rarely has the writer of a preface dealt more lovingly with his subject. Here we see Mr. Coldwell, the great planner, as he would like to be, and planned to say there are in it some things with which I am in accord—more with which I am not.

It seems that in the North Grey election campaign an anonymous informant came to Mr. Coldwell and told him the story of the soldiers who pitched their rifles away, or was it their kilts? He asked for details. His informant promised. Mr. Estorick suggests that the party might have gained temporarily from using this story, but truth must prevail. Mr. Coldwell refused to use it. I am delighted. Often have I searched for kind things to say of Mr. Coldwell, it is good to have another item to add to the list.

In his trip to Europe, Mr. Coldwell heard gossip to the effect that the Dieppe raid had no chance of success because the attackers lacked proper air and sea protection. This, too, might have made capital but the C.C.F. decided not to air the criticisms on the war effort.

There were other reasons. This was a planned attack. There were two methods of approach. The attackers hoped for surprise, luck was against them. If it had succeeded those who were profusely, they were being praised. No great war is ever fought without failures. The failures point to better ways. But it would scarcely have been a part of wisdom for the C.C.F., the party which planned to take no active participation in the war, to come out in condemnation of bearing the burden of the greatest conflict this world has ever witnessed. In these two items, the leadership of Mr. Coldwell was wise. He may even have learned the lesson that definite planning of world affairs is a task of tremendous difficulty. We shall have to be tolerant of our planners. They will make amazing blunders and, at times, do incalculable harm. Mr. Coldwell is beginning to realize this, a fellow feeling makes him wondrous kind.

From the White House.
Mr. Estorick has discovered, in his hero, a marked resemblance to Woodrow Wilson, in his voice he finds something in D. Roosevelt. What's coming over us in Canada? A few weeks ago we were asked to believe that John Bracken bore a close resemblance to Abraham Lincoln. Not to be outdone, Mr. Estorick finds his hero looking and speaking like two former presidents of the U.S.A. We may find any day that Prime Minister Mackenzie King looks like Benjamin Franklin. Is nature tired? All these years she has presented us with an infinite variety of faces and figures, especially the latter, then she goes off on a holiday and sends us duplicates from the past. Pickups from the family album, reproductions of Presidents or near-presidents for the convenient use of Canadian statesmen and near-statesmen.

Here is the position of the C.C.F. as expressed by Mr. Coldwell at the opening of the war:
"Canada should be prepared to defend her own shores, but her assistance overseas should be limited to economic aid and must not include conscription of manpower or the sending of any expeditionary force."
(Hansard, page 55, Sept. 9, 1939).

Has it Changed?
This is the policy which would have been followed if Mr. Coldwell had been in power. It would have been paralyzing in its influence. From 1939 to December 7th, 1941, the struggle went on in the United States between intervention and isolation. If Canada had remained aloof we would have been a tower of strength to the isolationists. Our attitude would have shocked the people of Britain, fighting with their backs to the wall. What would have happened if socialism in Britain had followed the course of Socialism in Canada? The results of such action might have been appalling. Mr. Coldwell now begins to realize the truth. I quoted his previous stand, page 55, Hansard, September 9th, 1939. By strange coincidence I find on page 55 of his new book, as if in mockery of his former views, these words:
"Few Canadians can be found now who will deny that, for better or worse, Canada has been drawn into the vortex of international affairs. For numerous ties—cultural, political and economic—bind Canada to the world community of nations. In this modern world, isolationism is not a policy at all, either good or bad, but a myth."

Here's evidence of a change of heart. For six long years Mr. Coldwell followed a myth and took his party with him—he is back now—welcome home to the realm of realities.

The Armed Services themselves and the Department of Labour have also done much work along the same line. Rehabilitation Training—Employers' Opportunity.

An important phase of the Rehabilitation program is the rehabilitation training plan, operated jointly by the Dominion and the Provinces. Apprenticeship, trade training in classes and training on the job, all come under this plan.

Escape.

While waiting for a bus at a busy traffic intersection, the writer watched a pigeon busily searching for its food. When the traffic stopped, the pigeon darted into the middle of the thoroughfare and hurriedly pecked grain from the asphalt. So absorbed did it become in satisfying its hunger, it did not seem as the traffic started again. But as the cars thudded past, the bird more spread its wings and lifted itself to a place of safety. It was this fact that particularly interested in the writer—that the pigeon had within itself the ability to rise out of a precarious position.

Many today ask: "Where can I find safety? How can I escape the brutality and horror of war, pain and distress?" Is it not by rising in spirit above the conditions which seem so oppressive and painful? In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy the reader is shown the sure way of escape. There we read (p. 242): "There is but one way to heaven, harmony, and Christ in divine Science shows us this way. It is to know no other reality—life than good, God and His reflection, and to rise superior to the so-called pain and pleasure of the senses."

Perhaps when one begins to make an effort to rise superior to the conditions of mortality to which he seems committed, the process does not seem so easy as the pigeon's rise to safety. The young student in his first attempts. However, when he gains a clearer idea of himself as the child of God, the reflection or expression of Mind, Love, Principle, the rising to divine heights becomes easier. Faithful endeavour and confidence in God's great love for all His children make for success in rising above the difficulties of this human experience.

Truly, as Mrs. Eddy writes in "Science and Health" (p. 243), "Truth, Life and Love are a law of annihilation to everything unlike themselves, because they declare nothing except God."—Christian Science Monitor.

After reading the doctrines of Plato, Socrates, or Aristotle, we feel that the specific difference between their words and Christ's is the difference between an inquiry and a revelation.—Joseph Parker.

Handicapped Veterans.
Then there is the handicapped veteran—he has a special appeal to our consideration. What we must keep in mind is that the handicapped man as an employee is not a liability; more often than not he is a better than average worker. He has proven so in our war plants during the past five years.

An employer should give consideration to engaging the war pensioner, partly as a patriotic duty; but once employed I am sure the pensioner will prove his efficiency and faithfulness. To co-operate with employers the Dominion Government pays workmen's compensation for pensioners with disabilities of over twenty-five percent.

Appeal to Employers and Unions.
I ask employers and trade unions to give careful thought to this question of rehabilitation. The Dominion Government, as an employer, is giving veterans a preference in appointments.

The problem involved in the employment of veterans is great, but it offers rich rewards. A brighter, a better Canada for all will follow if we all do our share to make a success of a task which means so much individually and nationally.

The National Film Board has produced a full-length film "This is Canada," for national distribution, to tell Canada's story to other countries.

This Month's STAR RECIPE

By BETTY BARCLAY
This month's "Star" recipe is chosen particularly for those who once opened a can of peaches, plums or pears for dessert. The point system makes these canned fruits a luxury today, except for the home canner.

So here's a wartime dessert that contains your fruit, and also the valuable whole grain cereal nourishment so needed in wartime meals. It is indeed entitled to my "STAR".

Baked Apple Pudding
1/2 cup wheat-meal
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
4 cups apple slices
2 1/2 cups milk
Mix cereal, butter, and salt. Mix brown sugar and cinnamon. Range 1 cup apples, 1/2 of buttered cereal, and 2 tablespoons brown sugar-cinnamon mixture in layers in greased casserole. Repeat, making 3 layers. Top with remaining 1 cup apples. Add milk and sprinkle with remaining brown sugar-cinnamon mixture. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 1 hour and 15 minutes, or until apples are tender. Serve hot or cold with cream. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Paint Protects Farm Property and Machinery.

Don't put it off, put it on." might well be the slogan of many a farmer in regard to paint, for there can be no doubt that a great many farm buildings in Canada are sadly in need of paint.

There are, actually, very few farmers who do not realize the protection which paint gives against decay, rot, rust, disease-germs, lice and mites. The trouble is that most of them have been so busy during the last few years that they just haven't found time to maintain their property in the best way possible. Producing record crops without an unparalleled shortage of help hasn't left much spare time for painting.

Now, however, much of the paint work can't be put off any longer without serious damage to thousands of farm buildings in Canada. Prices are stronger and yields have been generally good in the last few years, but property decay can eat up a lot of the profit unless it is checked. There is no better way to invest part of the increased earnings than to spend it in protecting investments in the form of farm buildings and equipment of all kinds.

Every tractor operator knows that continued operation of the motor depends on that thin film of oil between the piston and the cylinder wall. He knows that when the oil is worn out, the cylinder and piston will be quickly and surely damaged, perhaps beyond repair.

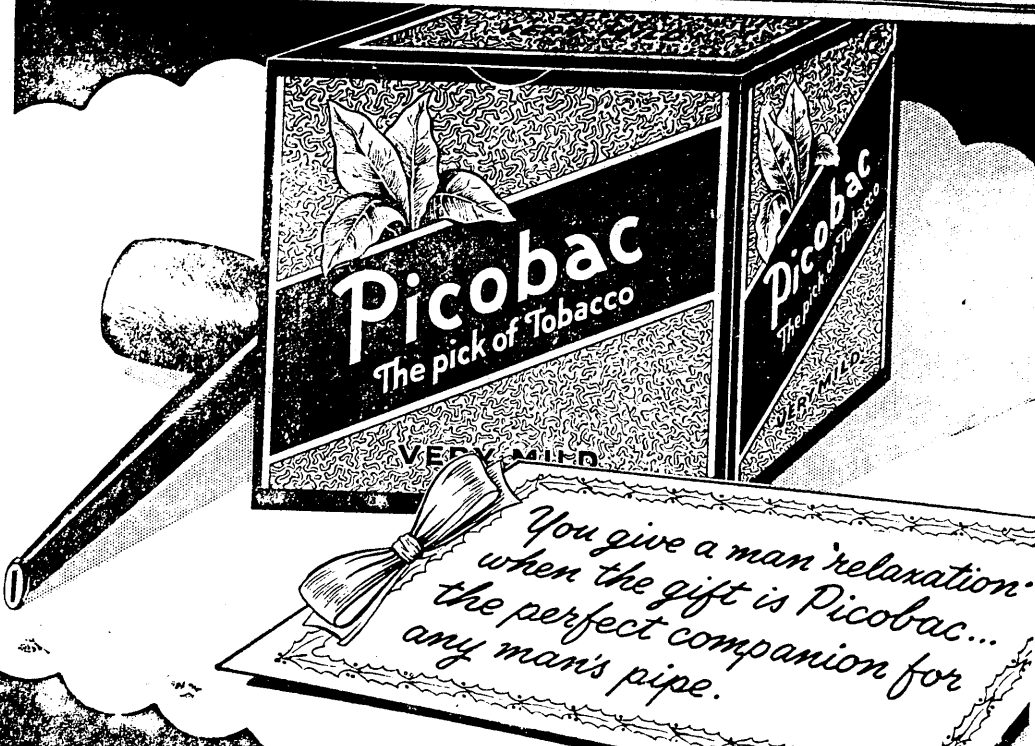

Paint is to the house or barn what oil is to the motor. The thin film of paint reduces the wear that comes from exposure to the sun, wind, dust, rain, snow, heat and cold. A building without that protective film will not be destroyed as quickly as an oil-starved motor, but the damage will be just as sure and just as costly even if it does take longer.

Painting is a job that can be done a little at a time throughout the fall months, by many members of the family, for the actual painting can be spread over a considerable period of time. A half day this week, a couple of hours next week, sandwiched in between chores and jobs that must be done on schedule. If you buy the paint now, while the need for it is firmly in your mind, there is little doubt but that you will find the time to apply it during the fall.

And speaking of buying paint, there is no such thing as quality paint at a bargain price. Actually, no paint is expensive unless—no paint, that is, except the so-called "cheap" paint. It is that cheap stuff that really is most expensive, because it doesn't stand up and do the protective job it is supposed to do, so you either have to repaint sooner or lose the protection that you tried to give your building by painting them.

The farmer whose time and work are valuable just can't afford to buy "cheap" paint. And the farmer who values his property just can't afford not to paint.

It takes more than bricks!

SOMEDAY THAT DREAM home will be yours—if you are willing to fight for it today! Bricks may build a house, but to build a home you need more than bricks! You need security—a job—a future! And these depend on a Canadian dollar that will always buy a full dollar's worth of goods—a steady, sound dollar that's not pulled down to half its value by inflation! That's why it's necessary NOW—more than ever now—for all of us to fight and work to keep that dollar worth a dollar!

Why is it so important NOW? Because now is the time civilian goods are scarce, and money is plentiful. NOW is the time we must guard against paying MORE than things are worth... or buying things we don't really need. We must support rationing, observe price ceilings, and avoid black markets. If we do this, we can keep prices from shooting sky high. If we don't, some day we'll be paying a dollar for fifty cents' worth of goods. This means your dollars—those dollars you've saved to buy your home—will only be worth fifty cents! This is inflation!

And after inflation comes depression! We know what happened after the last war! It mustn't be allowed to happen again. That's why, for our own sakes, and for the sake of the returned men to whom we owe a job, a future, a home of their own—we must make sure Canada's dollar remains steady. We must keep up a constant fight against our country's enemy—inflation!

Published by THE BREWING INDUSTRY (ONTARIO) to reveal the dangers of inflation.

Make this Pledge Today!

I pledge myself to do my part in fighting inflation:

By observing rationing and avoiding black markets in any shape or form.

By respecting price controls and other anti-inflation measures, and refraining from careless and unnecessary buying. I will not buy two where one will do, nor will I buy a "new" where an "old" will do.

By buying Victory Bonds, supporting taxation and saving by all such measures which will lower the cost of living and help keep prices at a normal level.

Cpl. Vincent A. Carroll, a native of Saskatchewan, but a resident of Cottam, where he made his home with his sister, Mrs. Ross Smith, and her family, when he enlisted in the "Military Medal" in recognition of his gallantry on the field of battle.
Cpl. Vincent went overseas in 1941 with the South Saskatchewan Regiment, and has seen service in France, Belgium and Holland, where he suffered wounds. He is at present, with the Army of Occupation in Germany.
His mother received the following letter from the Department of National Defense, Ottawa: "It is with much pleasure that I write you on behalf of the Minister of National Defence and members of the Army Council to congratulate you on the award to your son, Cpl. Vincent A. Carroll, of the Military Medal in recognition of gallant and distinguished services in the field." The letter was signed by Major General A. E. Walford.

Mrs. Orton, W. I. Speaker.

Mrs. Stanley Orton, of Ruthven, the district president of the Women's Institutes, was guest speaker at November meeting of the Cottam Junior Institute, for which Mrs. Wallace Stockwell, Talbot street, opened her home. Mrs. Orton gave an account of the recent Women's Institute convention in London.

Fourteen members responded to the roll call by stating how personally expressed. The theme of the meeting was "Personality," and the topic taken by Miss Isabel Montgomery. The lunch convener was Miss Roberta Haggins and Miss Helen Jones. The December meeting will take the form of a Christmas party on Friday, December 28th, when Mr. Geraldine Carleton, of North Ridge, as hostess.

Laboratory at Essex to Test Milk.

Announcement was made at a directors' meeting of the Essex County Milk Producers' Association by M. C. Dalton, president, that a milk testing laboratory would be set up in connection with the Agricultural Representative's Association, Essex, where members of the Association might bring samples of milk to be tested for butterfat. In addition, the laboratory would be available for the use of the Ontario Department of Agriculture check testers in connection with their work in the county.

Mr. Dalton further informed the Directors that the Producers' Association was co-operating on an equal basis with the Agricultural Representative's office in connection with a project to be known as the Essex County Dairy Farm and Herd Improvement Plan. Under this plan, it is hoped to produce high quality milk with fewer cows by eliminating low producers and low testing individuals, giving closer study to pasture and crop rotations, balanced rations and cost accounting as they affect milk production.

The services of A. Burrell, a graduate of the O.A.C., with ten years' experience in the operation of a dairy farm since graduation, have been secured to operate the testing laboratory and supervise general field work. Direction of the work will be in the hands of the executive committee of the Association, M. C. Dalton, John R. Shuel, W. McCormick, John Walstead, R. Benetueau, Angus McKenney, and A. Burrell, with a junior committee made up as follows: C. Scratch, C. Morris, S. Pinsonneault and H. Bondy.

North Ridge

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Gould, Murray and Joan, spent Saturday of last week at Mr. and Mrs. B. Fisher's, in Windsor.

Due to the postponement this week of the W. A. meeting, it will be held on Wednesday, December 12th, in the church.

Dorothy McCreery returned home last week, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Joseph McMaster, of Saranac Lake, N.Y., whom Dorothy had been visiting for the past several weeks. Norman Russell, of the Merchant Marines, spent a few days last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Russell.

Gifts Collected for North.

White Gift services were a feature of the regular unified services at the Cottam and Albion United Churches on Sunday, at 10:45 and 2 p.m. Rev. Stanley R. Johnston spoke on the subject, "Christians Working Together in the Community."

Mrs. Stanley Knight, assistant Sunday school superintendent, conducted the White Gift Service at Cottam, with Garnet Malott operating the lantern for the singing of the Christmas carols, and Mrs. J. S. Foster at the piano.
At Albion Gerald Carder, assistant Sunday school superintendent, conducted the White Gift service, with the dedicatory prayer at both churches was offered by Mr. Johnston. The many lovely gifts presented will be sent to Northern Ontario to provide Christmas cheer for underprivileged Sunday school children there.

Hockey Notes.

On Tuesday, November 27th, the flashy Cottam Aces took the lead over the Amherstburg-Anderson team by a score of 6 to 1. The Cottam Aces, without a doubt, are better this season than they were last, they certainly proved it by beating Amherstburg by such a score. Last season Amherstburg really had Cottam worried at times, although the Aces always won, but only by a squeeze play and a very close score. The Aces, as a whole, are in better shape and by the addition of several new players are considered much stronger.

The Aces took the lead as soon as they went on the ice. A newcomer, Jim Salisbury, star forward, shot in the first two goals, assisted by Jim and Bud Mower. The Burg boys came back with a lucky goal by L. Bondy. From then on the Aces were masters. Jim Mower slipped in the third goal, single-handed. Mac Wigle also single-handed flashed in the fourth. Bud Mower slipped in the fifth goal from the assist by brother Jim, and Mac Wigle slipped in the sixth and last goal.
Earl Mower, for the Aces, certainly did a grand job of goaltending, and is considered one of the best in the league.

Coach Marty Young feels that the Aces should keep their lead without any trouble, and go through the schedule with no losses.
Roseland defeated Essex by a score of 4 to 0.
The line-ups:
Cottam Aces—Goal, E. Mower; forwards, J. Salisbury, J. Mower, B. Mower; alternates, O. Middleton, M. Wigle, W. Gordon, M. Vance, D. Dresser, E. Tiffin, L. Bailey; defence L. Pettapiece, H. Ferguson; alternates, J. Lewis, H. Allen, G. Pettapiece.
Amherstburg—Goal, M. Bondy; forwards, A. Jones; forwards, H. Thrasher, H. Hutchins, G. Golden, L. Jones, L. Bondy; defence, I. Jones, A. Beaudoin; alternates, E. Whalen, M. Bondy.

Celebrates 93rd Birthday.

Mrs. Mary Rogers, a resident of Essex for over 40 years, quietly celebrated her 93rd birthday over the weekend. She has been making her home with Mrs. C. M. Johnston, on Arthur avenue, since selling her own home a year or so ago.

Mrs. Rogers keeps in excellent health, goes to church regularly, twice on Sundays, and attends prayer meeting during the week. She does her own work, sews, crochets, knits and writes her own letters.

Loses Husband.

Elihu A. Brabant, 39 years old, of Detroit, died suddenly of a cerebral hemorrhage, early Wednesday morning of last week, while shaving, before going to his daily work. Deceased is fairly well known in town, where he was a frequent visitor, having married Miss Hazel Nesbit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Nesbit, who survives, with his mother, Mrs. Brabant, of Walkerville.

To Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary.

Many of the older residents of Essex will be interested to know that Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Massey, of 404 Bedford Park avenue, Toronto, are celebrating their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Christmas Day. There will be a family dinner at the home, followed in the evening by a reception at the residence of their youngest daughter Margaret, at 395 Orchard Drive, Toronto, when they will be at home to their friends.

Mr. Massey retired from the principalship of the Essex High School in 1918, to assume a like position in the Collegiate at Weyburn, Sask. Later the family returned to Essex County when Mr. Massey became the principal of the Kingsville High School. Their friends in Essex join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Massey many more years of wedded happiness.

Knight-Lesperance Wedding.

The United Church parsonage, South Woodlee, on Saturday evening, was the scene of a quiet but lovely wedding, when Rev. J. N. Sevier united in marriage Earl Knight, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Knight, of Woodlee, and Miss Grace Lesperance, of South Woodlee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lesperance, of Elmstead. The young couple were attended by Walter Stowe, of South Woodlee, and friends of the bride and groom. After returning from their honeymoon in Northern Ontario, they will reside in Woodlee.

Rotary Scout Meeting.

Harry Firth, field commissioner of the Boy Scouts for Western Ontario, was guest speaker at the annual Scout night of the Cottam Rotary Club. Scout Leader Ted Strickland, and the Cottam Troop, were guests. After the first aid demonstration of first aid work, Mr. Strickland gave an account of camp life at Rock Glen, near Arkona, where Essex and Kent County Scouts camped together last summer. He presented Patrol Leader Jack Pratt with a silver cup won by his Hawthorn patrol. He also presented service badges to the other Scouts.

Harry Firth, introduced by Rotarian Arthur Coote, chairman of the Scout Committee, congratulated Scout Leader Alan MacGill who recently won the silver arrowhead, while Donald and Bronson Pickett each received awards for 100 hours services rendered in Red Cross and salvage work.

On the subject "Scouting," the speaker quoted Baden Powell, founder of the Boy Scout movement, as saying "a nation owes its success, not so much to strength of armaments, as to the character of its citizens." He pointed out that Baden Powell lived two lives, a military life, from which he retired at 51 with the highest rank in the British Army. The rest of his life was devoted to his hobby — boys. During the South African War he had watched the Boy Scouts and developed the Boy Scout movement on the principle of the patrol system.

The speaker urged the Scouts to be active. He said, "it allowed to become a passive instead of an active participant the Scout loses the training of character. Don't sit on the sidelines. The seventy odd proficiency badges which may be won represent the rudiments of life's professions, and many have found their life work in winning them."

The Scouts were congratulated on the success of their annual apple day when they raised over $80. Jack Pratt receiving a prize for having sold the most apples, and Harold Scratch for being the best decorator. They were also thanked for having conducted the sale of poppies on Poppy Day, the receipts being $79.33, more than double the quota allotted to them.

On behalf of the Rotary Club, John C. Montgomery, organizer for the Home Front Appeal of the Salvation Army, presented Captain John Carter, of Essex, with a cheque for $500, the result of the canvas made by the Rotarians.

President Earl Pratt presided and thanked the guest speaker.

Old Resident Passes.

The County of Essex lost another of its real old settlers, on Wednesday, the prison of John Albert Sweetman, who passed away at the home of his son, Herman. He was 87 years of age.

Surviving are five children, Rosa (Mrs. George Wood) Ferndale, Mich.; Lottie (Mrs. Ed. Chapman) of Anderson; Gordon, of Detroit; Herman, of (Kingsville) North, and Asa, of Essex; also a brother George, of Kingsville, and a sister, Mrs. Henrietta Lansing of Windsor.

Resting at the Hicks & Son Funeral Home, Essex, from where services will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, December 15th, with burial taking place in Greenhill cemetery, Kingsville.

Alvin Raymont Passes.

The people of this district were shocked, on Tuesday, when they learned that Walter Alvin Raymont, of North Ridge, had passed away suddenly at his home, from a cerebral hemorrhage, shortly before 9 o'clock that morning. He had not been in real good health for some time, being under the doctor's care for high blood pressure.

Deceased was born in Gosfield North Township, on December 15th, 1896, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Raymont, and has resided in the township all his life.

Surviving are his widow (nee Gladys Lossing), four sons, Charles, Frank, William and Robert; his parents and three brothers, Russell, Donald and Roy, all of Gosfield North.

Funeral services, in charge of Rev. S. Dunk, assisted by Rev. Dr. Paulin, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Windsor, were held on Thursday, with burial in North Ridge cemetery.

Old Essex Resident Dies.

Wesley Wolfe, aged 76 years, passed away at his home in Ridgetown, on Thursday of last week. Funeral services were held on Saturday, with interment in Evergreen cemetery, Ridgetown.

Deceased, eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Wolfe, resided in Essex about 45 years ago.

Surviving are his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Frank Cieska, of Staples, and Mrs. Frank Goslin, of Highgate; also two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Gillanders, of Leamington, and Mrs. Martha Fields, of Detroit, and a brother Joseph Wolfe, of Essex.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wolfe and their daughter, Mrs. J. L. Pitt, of Detroit, attended the funeral.

Flint-Kiss Nuptials.

At a quiet ceremony in the United Church parsonage, Cottam, on Saturday afternoon, the Rev. Stanley R. Johnston united in marriage Miss Mary Margaret Kiss, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kiss, of Kingsville, and Elmer Ray Flint, twin son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ray Flint, of Cottam.

The bride wore a coral pink wool suit with a white fur collar, black accessories, and a corsage of red carnations.

Miss Ann Marko, as her attendant, wore a brown suit with a white pin stripe, brown accessories and a corsage of bronze chrysanthemums.

Mr. Andy Little, of Kingsville, was best man.

Following a motor trip east, Mr. and Mrs. Flint will reside in Kingsville.

Burley Tobacco Prices.

The price of Burley tobacco, 1945 crop, was set at a meeting of the Ontario Burley Tobacco Marketing Board for 100 hours services rendered in Red Cross and salvage work.

On the subject "Scouting," the speaker quoted Baden Powell, founder of the Boy Scout movement, as saying "a nation owes its success, not so much to strength of armaments, as to the character of its citizens." He pointed out that Baden Powell lived two lives, a military life, from which he retired at 51 with the highest rank in the British Army. The rest of his life was devoted to his hobby — boys. During the South African War he had watched the Boy Scouts and developed the Boy Scout movement on the principle of the patrol system.

On behalf of the Rotary Club, John C. Montgomery, organizer for the Home Front Appeal of the Salvation Army, presented Captain John Carter, of Essex, with a cheque for $500, the result of the canvas made by the Rotarians.

President Earl Pratt presided and thanked the guest speaker.

"Plain Hard Work" Called Reason for It.

(Windsor Daily Star)

One of the few members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps to be invested as a Member of the British Empire WOI (regimental sergeant major) Geraldine McClelland, is home after three years and two months overseas, and is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley, McClelland, of Cottam.

WO. McClelland when questioned about, receiving the M.B.E., said it was "for loyalty and devotion to duty and for plain hard work." She served as a disciplinary officer while overseas, 5th, 1942, after a most enjoyable trip on the Queen Elizabeth, landing at Greenock in Scotland. From there I was sent to London, where the black-out was definitely black, although it was the ease-off after the blitz of '41. The balloons were up and the anti-aircraft barrage was very effective at that time. Later came the buzz bombs. We were billeted in requisitioned homes of people who had left London because of the blitz. On some of the raids we had windows broken, and the plaster fell too on our closest

"I was stationed in London until May 9th, two days after V-E Day, and while there I was responsible for the actions of the girls in four companies. 24 hours a day.

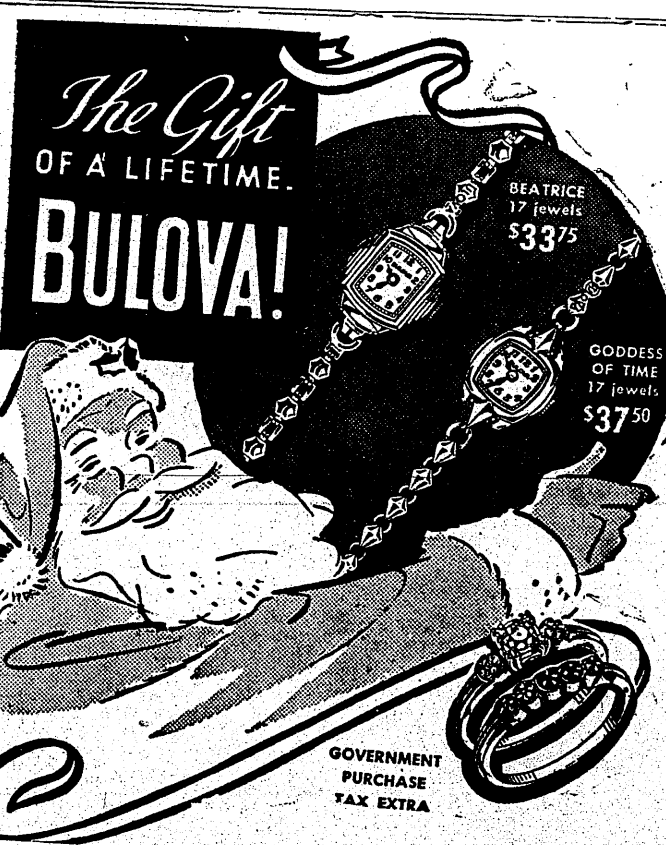

"V-E Day in London was overpowering. It lasted for three days and there were thousands and thousands of people in the streets. Once you got into a crowd you just had to go with it. On V-E Day itself I went cycling with a group of other Wacs, through Downing street and Trafalgar Square, and saw the King and Queen and the Princesses on the balcony at Buckingham Palace.

"On May 9th I was ordered to Holland as assistant military manager of the C.W.A.C. Hotel in Amsterdam. During my time in Holland I toured a great deal. I also went with friends to Oldenburg and Aurich in Germany and 'jeeped' it from Amsterdam to Paris, stopping off in Brussels. We visited the Hague and saw the Peace Palace, which is simply beautiful. We stood on the Canadian soil at Vimy and saw the memorial erected for the Canadians." WO. McClelland recalled.

WO. McClelland said the food they got overseas was good, but there was not much variety and it was very starchy. "What meat did they have?" Well, just don't mention mutton to WO. McClelland.

She said that she found the English people reserved but that "once you get to know them they are very hospitable and completely charming. As I didn't know any of the languages spoken, I didn't mingle with the people on the continent and really don't know very much about them."

There are just two words with which WO. McClelland described being back in Canada. "It's marvelous." Her mother, laughingly confessed that her daughter's first words after greetings had been exchanged were "I want a banana." Next on the list of "silly" missed edibles were "hot dogs."

JOHN A. MARSH.

Later special assistant to the Minister, Department of Munitions and Supply, has been appointed Commissioner of the Ontario Division, Canadian Red Cross Society.

Gosfield North Council.

Monday, December 3rd. Regular meeting of Council, with all members present; also Court of Revision on Drainage Bylaw No. 274, for repair of the Cameron and Curry drain.

Minutes of the previous meeting read and adopted, on motion of Messrs. Newman and Stevenson.

Communication from R. A. Pierce, Inspector of Public Schools, as to procedure in election of school trustees for the Gosfield North Township school area.

From the Clerk of Gosfield South, stating that his engineer had been notified to make a survey for repair of the south part of the Centre branch drain from the sixth concessions road to a sufficient outlet.

The Clerk reported receiving the report for the repair of the west end of the Old No. 5 drain, from C. B. Allison, on November 19th, 1945. Total estimated cost is $3,169.75. All the interested ratepayers had been notified meeting at 2 o'clock p.m. The Clerk then read the report.

Moved by Mr. Tully, seconded by Mr. Newman, the report be adopted and Bylaw No. 276 far carrying out its provisions be read a first time.—Car.

Bylaw 276 was then read a first time and provisionally adopted, the Clerk to have copies of the bylaw printed and served on the ratepayers. Court of Revision on said Bylaw to be on Monday, January 14th, 1946, at 4 o'clock p.m.

Court of Revision on Drainage Bylaw No. 274, for repair of the Cameron and Curry drain convened, the Clerk reporting no appeals.

Moved by Mr. Law, seconded by Mr. Newman, that the assessments on Bylaw No. 274 be confirmed and Court of Revision close.—Car.

Drainage Bylaw No. 274 was given second and third readings and finally passed.

The Clerk stated that Everett Cowan, who had been awarded the contract for repair of the Cameron and Curry drain, had signed his contract, to commence work on same on or before December 15th, 1945, weather permitting.

Bylaw providing for nomination of Councillors and School Trustees, on Monday, December 31st, at 1 o'clock p.m., was read the necessary times and passed.

Bylaw No. 919, granting a tile loan to Russell Montgomery, of $1,500, on the w. 1/2 lot 6, in the 6th Con., and imposing a rate for a term of ten years, was given three readings and passed.

A request from the trustees of the public schools of the township for a meeting of the trustees, the members of the council and the Inspector, for Thursday evening, December 6th, was approved.

The following accounts were approved and ordered paid:

Meeting adjourned.

Although India has harvested a good crop in 1945, imports from Canada have been necessary in order to meet requirements.

Veterans' Skills.

Canada's men and women in the armed forces have acquired new skills during the time they have served their country, and these new skills are going to contribute materially in the task of reconstruction that lies ahead. And that is where the Royal Commission on Veterans' Qualifications comes into Canada's rehabilitation setup. For it is the important task of the commission to see that the very most of these skills are made use of.

There is also the problem of re-educating educational courses taken by men and women while with the service which are directly useful to those intending to pursue further studies after discharge. These courses will not be overlooked by the commission for, in fact, the commission will also confer with university and educational authorities on the subject of their recognition.

The commission, under the chairmanship of Col. Wilfred Bovey of Montreal, is now busily engaged in examining the problems and possibilities of utilizing the craftsmanship of these men and women who are leaving the services for peacetime pursuits.

As chairman of the committee on Education, R.E.S.L., Col. Bovey brings to his job a wide background of the subject. Other members serving with him are: D. S. Lyons, vice-president of the International Association of Machinists, Montreal; Stuart R. Ross, of the Windsor Vocational School staff; J. C. G. Herwig, Canadian Legion, Ottawa; F. W. Smelts, Regional Director of Selective Service, Vancouver; and Hector Dagnis, Regional Director of Selective Service, Montreal.

Hon. Humphrey Mitchell, Minister of Labour, well aware that the commission faces a task which is a very important cog in the machinery of re-establishment and rehabilitation says: "It would be a definite loss to Canada and to Canadian industry, and in many cases a tragedy to the individual, if upon re-entering industry proper account were not taken of this vocational training while with the armed forces."

While headquarters of the commission are in Montreal, it is holding meetings at various points across Canada. While in provincial capitals it will confer with governments of the province and also educational authorities. Hearings are scheduled, or have already taken place at Toronto, Vancouver, and Victoria, Edmonton, Regina, Winnipeg, Quebec City, Charlottetown, Halifax and Fredericton.

The co-operation of trade unions and other groups with a responsibility or interest in the returning servicemen has been urged, and has been forthcoming.

Several interim recommendations of the Commission have already been announced by Mr. Mitchell. One of these preliminary recommendations asked that the Department of Veterans' Affairs at once take advantage of the new system of re-education centres established by the Department of Labour of the Province of Quebec. This was complied with.

After observing that the practice varies as among the navy, army and air force, the commission has also recommended the issue of special documents upon discharge to all members of the armed forces indicating occupational and educational standing obtained while in the services.

In this respect, the three defence departments have already undertaken the preparation of reports in covering all types of instruction given within the forces. One highly qualified officer from each service has been assigned to the commission as a technical advisor.

The commission also recommends that, through the use of Canadian Legion Text Books, by correspondence and in classes, those in the forces both overseas and in Canada should be assisted in acquiring matriculation or university entrance academic standing.

Another recommendation asks that the Dominion Government start an aerial survey of Canada, and that the attention of the universities be directed to the desirability of establishing courses leading to the preparatory requirements necessary for clinical and engineering photographers. It also recommends that a combined school be established by the three armed services with the object of training:

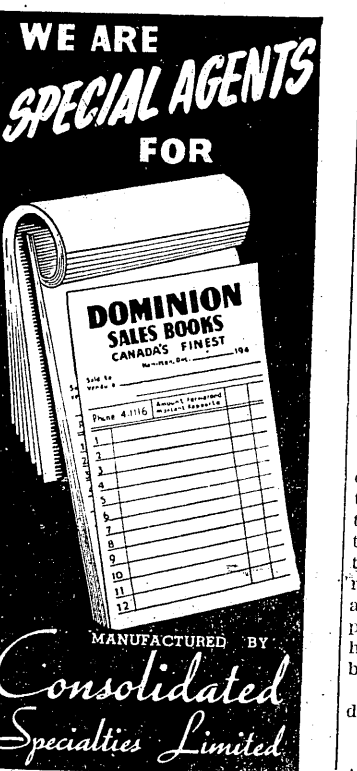

(a) Engineering and clinical photographers, if required; (b) personnel in the services who would benefit by further training and might be subsequently employed in governmental activities.

Eying a present, and probable past shortage of teachers in the Dominion, the commission suggests that the training of selected instructional personnel from the three armed services. This, it also points out, offers work opportunities for veterans.

Impressed with the avenues of employment offered by industry in Canada to those especially fitted for personnel work, the commission suggests that many will be found among officers and other ranks of the services who have special aptitude for jobs of this kind. These persons, it is stated, should be given helpful advice in regard to personal work by counselors who are themselves veterans. The commission has recommended that universities be invited to set up courses whereby the men picked for personnel work may be made acquainted with civil requirements including modern theory and practice.

The commission has made several further recommendations which are now before the government.

This, then, is a concrete start toward a goal of making the widest possible use of the very large amount of useful experience that servicemen have gained in this war. As the commission holds further meetings in Montreal and various other parts of the Dominion there is no doubt that ways and means will be found to make the fullest use in peacetime of opportunities that have been developed in war.

Few Closed Shops.

Union shop contracts are effective in about 10% of Canadian plants turning out iron and steel products. The Financial Post reports. Out of 336 establishments, employing 239,249 workers, 34 have a union shop and eight a closed shop. Maintenance of membership clauses in 36 plants affect 11,132 or 4.6% of all iron and steel workers.

Common Abnormalities in Pigs.

Four common abnormalities in pigs cause financial losses to commercial producers and to the pure breeder, says R. M. Hopper, Dominion Experimental Farm, Brandon, Man. The most common of these is known as chryptorchidism. This abnormality in male pigs causes one testicle to be retained in the body cavity, hence only one is found in the scrotum at the time castration normally takes place. The carcasses of chryptorchid or "ridge line" pigs cannot be used in export shipments of bacon and are discounted up to eight dollars depending upon the weight of the retained testicle. The second common abnormality is cryptorchidism, either in the frequency of strictures in the intestines of ruptured pigs, death losses are usually high. Normal carcasses from such pigs are not discounted from rail graded. Hermaphrodites or double-sexed pigs are less common but sufficiently numerous to cause loss. Rudimentary or inverted nipples, a physical abnormality among swine, the number of pigs that can be nursed by a sow is limited by the number of her normal functioning teats.

The exact way in which the different abnormalities are inherited is so far not fully understood. There is, however, evidence to show that all four abnormalities are hereditary and can only be eliminated by careful selection of breeding stock. Breeders should aim to eliminate from their herds all litters that include abnormal pigs, as well as the sire and dams that produced them.

Purchasers of breeding stock should fully investigate the whole litter from which the selection is made. Both boars and gilts should be selected only from sound litters. An examination should be made of the gilts as well as the dam to determine if the tests are normal in shape and number. It is only by continuous and rigid selection can the herd be kept free from abnormalities. Breeders of pure bred pigs should not use in their own herds, nor offer for sale, breeding stock from litters that include abnormal pigs.

Notice to Creditors.

IN THE MATTER of the Estate of John W. Murphy, late of the City of Detroit, in the County of Wayne State of Michigan, Retired Foreman, deceased.

Notice is hereby given in pursuance of Section 51, Chapter 165, R.S.O. 1937, to all persons having any claims against the estate of John W. Get Your Christmas Ads. In EarlyOne Crust Pies.

"Most people like pies." When the crust is tender and flaky and the filling luscious and fruity or rich and creamy, pie is the first choice of desserts.

The home economists of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture, say that we can still enjoy pie for dessert while keeping the fat supply in mind. If one crust pies are served,

A pie is still a pie when it has only one crust. It doesn't matter whether it is of the deep dish type with a generous amount of fruit in the bottom, or an English tart with a bottom crust only and a small amount of fruit.

There is also a wide choice of custardy, one crust pies . . . some with uncooked filling in uncooked pastry and everything baked together . . . others with fillings cooked then poured into pre-cooked shells.

DEEP DISH PLUM PIE.

1 quart fruit (canned without Sugar)

1/2 teaspoon salt

1/2 cup sugar

1/2 cup flour

1 teaspoon almond extract

1 tablespoon fat

Pastry

*Drain fruit, heat syrup to boiling. Mix salt, sugar and flour. Stir slowly into boiling syrup. Place drained fruit in a deep baking dish. Pour thickened syrup over fruit. Dot with fat. Roll out plain pastry to 1/8-inch thickness, make several slits in the centre. Fit pastry over the fruit, press down well over the edges of the baking dish. Cut and flute the edges. Bake 20 minutes in a hot oven, 425 degrees F. Six servings.

RAISIN PUMPKIN PIE.

1/2 cup raisins

1 1/2 cups cooked pumpkin

2 eggs

1/2 cup sugar

1/2 teaspoon salt

2 teaspoons cinnamon

1/2 teaspoon ginger

2 tablespoons molasses

1 cup milk

Pastry

Wash and chop raisins, combine with pumpkin. Add sugar, salt, spices and molasses to eggs. Beat well, add to pumpkin. Then add milk, blend thoroughly. Line a 9-inch pie pan with pastry. Pour in filling. Bake in a hot oven, 425 degrees F. for 10 minutes. Lower the heat to 350 degrees F. and continue baking 30 minutes, or until filling is set.

TWO—One Crust Pies.

POTATO CUSTARD.

1 cup mashed potatoes

1 tablespoon butter

1/2 cup milk

1/2 cup sugar

2 egg yolks

1/2 teaspoon lemon extract

1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract

2 egg whites

Add butter and milk to mashed potatoes. Beat until light. Add sugar to egg yolks, beat until thick and light. Add to potato, blend well. Add flavouring, then fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a nine-inch pie pan, lined with pastry. Bake in a hot oven, 425 degrees F. for 10 minutes. Lower the heat and continue baking at 350 degrees F. for 30 minutes, or until filling is set.

—Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Welsh will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Sunday, December 23rd, with open house from 3 to 6 and 7 to 9, at their home on Talbot Road.

—Trimble-Pratt Motors, of Windsor, are having a new building constructed, on No. 3 Highway, about two miles north of Essex. The structure is to be 59 ft. x 75 ft., and will be used as an assembly and sales service plant for Allis-Chalmers Farm Equipment. It is expected it will be ready for occupancy in a couple of months.

—The newly-formed Woodlee and vicinity Citizens' Association, the old Woodlee-Ruscomb Patriotic Association will sponsor a keno, in the I. O. O. F. hall, Woodlee, the first week in January. Watch Free Press for date.

Monday, December 17th, is the day set for St. Paul's Sunday school entertainment. There will be numbers by each of the different classes. The second act of the play, "The Bird's Christmas Carol," will be repeated and Santa Claus will appear as hearty and jovial as ever to distribute the gifts. All are welcome. The admission is 25c and 10c.

Thanks!

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Foster Murray Newman, who was killed in Belgium one year ago, December 16th, 1944.

Those whom we love, go out of sight, But never out of mind; They are cherished in the hearts, Of those they leave behind.

—Sadly missed by his aunts, uncles and cousins.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Foster Murray Newman, who was killed in Belgium one year ago, December 16th, 1944.

The depths of sorrow we cannot tell, Of the loss of one we loved so well, And while he sleeps a peaceful sleep, His memory we shall always keep.

—Fondly remembered by grandpa and grandma Newman.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Stephen who passed away on your 33rd birthday, December 16th, 1944.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last, The world's weary troubles and trials are past, In silence he suffered, in patience he bore, Till God called him home to suffer no more.

—Sadly missed by wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our only son and brother, Murray Foster Newman, P.I.G.M.N., killed in Belgium, one year ago, December 16th, 1944.

Peaceful be thy sleep, dear son, It is sweet to breathe thy name; In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same.

Off we think of you, dear son, And our hearts are filled with pain; Oh, this would be a heaven, Could we hear your voice again.

You are gone, but never forgotten, Never shall your memory fade; Sweetest thoughts shall ever linger Around the grave where you are laid.

—lovingly remembered by mother, dad and Lella.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Mary Trewin, who passed away six years ago, December 12th, 1939.

Oh how oft she comes before us, Her dear face so sweet and true, Resting now in peace with Jesus, Loving hearts still long for you.

—Ever remembered by her two daughters, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Tofflemire and families.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Murray Newman, who was killed in Belgium on December 16th, 1944, while on Active Service.

Till the sands of the desert grow cold, And the mystery of heaven unfold, We will remember you.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelly, Isabelle, Bob, Andy and Dave (overseas).

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear son and brother Thomas L. Quick, who was killed in Italy, December 18th, 1943.

We are thinking of you today, Tom, Just thinking of you in the past; Keeping you in our memory, Just as we saw you last.

Happy, smiling, always content, Loved and respected wherever you went; Always thoughtful, generous and kind, These are the memories you left behind.

You are safe in the arms of Jesus, From peril and danger apart; But may you never know the aching grief That forever is in our hearts.

—Always remembered by mother, dad, Carson, Herman and Mabel.

When Turkeys Lay.

It is believed by some breeders that turkey hens will commence to lay earlier in the spring if they are housed in warmer buildings during extremely severe weather, and especially from February 1st onwards. At no time should turkeys be housed with chickens, because chickens are carriers of blackhead disease although the chickens themselves are seldom affected by it.

Strikes Show Union's New Goal.

Commenting editorially on the General Motors strike in U. S. The Financial Post states that labor's newest demand from business is a direct share in profits. The editorial goes on to say:

"Not only in the G. M. strike but in other disputes across the continent, labor leaders are turning to corporations for balance sheets as a source of ammunition for the fray. To that, labor employers reply that this is a demand that the company 'relinquish its right to manage the business,' that it is 'unjustified' by management."

From Washington comes word that the administration tends to be favorable to labor's newest claim.

"The working out of that wage philosophy is going to be interesting indeed."

What wages does organized labor consider it should have for those who produce goods and services? What will be a fair wage for the man who thinks up a new profit-making scheme, who goes through the costly job of converting that idea into a living, producing entity, providing real work and real pay envelopes for his fellow citizens? Does labor suppose there is some inexhaustible store of government funds which can be used to create jobs if individual job-makers do not provide enough employment, or if they decide the wages which labor would allow them make the effort, the risk and the strain unattractive?

Others Are Asking?

Q. We are living in our own home but have a sub-tenant upstairs. I want to know if I can give them notice to vacate in the spring as I very much want the use of my whole house. There isn't a separate entrance and it is becoming very inconvenient to have tenants upstairs.

A. Accommodation rented in this manner is considered housing accommodation and notice to vacate cannot be given unless the tenants are considered as bona fide tenants and not mere sub-tenants. In such case you can apply to the judge through the office of the W.P.T.B. for an order compelling the accommodation from the provisions of part 2 of the act.

Q. I am selling a group of ten turkeys for a club to give as prizes. Am I allowed to sell these at the prices I can sell as a primary produce to a club?

A. Unless you are delivering the turkeys to the consumer you must sell them at the maximum which can be obtained for the grade of turkeys in the market.

Q. I have a small garden and I am growing various vegetables. I am wondering if I can sell these at the prices I can sell as a primary produce to a club?

A. Unless you are delivering the vegetables to the consumer you must sell them at the maximum which can be obtained for the grade of vegetables in the market.

Commercial Pepper.

Peppercorns and black and white peppers which make up the great bulk of the pepper of commerce are all derived from one species of climbing plant which originally was a native of the Malay Archipelago, Indo-China, and Southern India. The peppercorns are the berries. The black and white pepper peppers are the same when ground, with the difference that to make white pepper, the peppercorns are first deprived of their outer skin by steeping them in water for several days. The biggest supplies of pepper come from Java, Siam, and French Indo-China, hence recent scarcity in Canada and other countries as a result of the war.

Care of Machinery When Not in Use.

Here are some general rules for the care of machinery when not in use: Protect polished surfaces from rust by covering with a heavy body grease. Protect against wind and weather by adequate painting. Remove and dry storage canvas, rubber belts, and rubber tires, unless the machine is properly housed. Where tires are left on the machine being stored for long periods, the load should be removed from the tires. Support all working parts away from the ground. Protect machinery from live stock and poultry. Drain radiators, fuel tanks, and carburetors, and cover motor openings against moisture and dust.

Culture of the Navy Blueberry.

The native low-bush blueberry, under systematic management, has become an important source of income in many localities of Eastern Canada and the crop is now counted in millions of pounds, says E. L. Eaton, Assistant in Blueberry and Cranberry Investigations, Dominion Experimental Station, Kentville, N.S.

Thriving, as it does, on soils that are too light or too stony for profitable yields of grain, roots or vegetables, this deservedly popular wild fruit now ranks as a major cash crop and meets a ready demand both fresh and when processed.

The usual cultural practice is to divide the area in three, and burn one third each year. The burning is done in early spring before growth starts and while snow fingers in the woods as a fire protection. Where there is not enough natural cover to carry off the straw or meadow hay is scattered over the previous fall. The burning is really a pruning operation and at the same time checks some of the insect and disease pests. Other shrubs of the blueberry plants a larger share of moisture and sunshine. Once started, the blueberry plants gradually spread under this treatment and yields of fifty bushels per acre are common while crops as high as a hundred bushels per acre have been recorded.

So far all the commercial areas have come into blueberries by natural means, and the conditions which are suitable for the blueberries are also suitable for many of the other plants. However, it is a slow one and it is many years, even on the best blueberry soils, before a field is fully covered.

There is an urgent need for information that will cut short the time needed to establish a blueberry field; that permit the growing of a field of blueberries without bringing in woods of the same time, for establishment fields contain only blue and not the good looking of blue and black fruit.

Many Cattle Dips.

At the most, sheep are dipped twice a year in Canada. In the Republic of Colombia, South America, if cattle on the lower elevations of the country are not dipped every two or three weeks they run the risk of dying from the attacks of ticks or what is called Texas fever.

Dehorning Cattle.

The annual loss to the cattle industry in Canada due to horns has been estimated at well over a million dollars. Dehorning of cattle is of great economic importance, and is a matter to which every cattleman should give serious consideration. Horns on cattle not only make their handling more difficult, but they account for injuries, which, on dressed carcasses, can be seen as large bruises, necessitating trimming and loss.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1945.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES.

By Dean Wilson.

Though some time has passed since nine Provincial Premiers and Prime Minister King, together with some of their senior Ministers both Provincial and Federal, had conferred in Ottawa in relative secrecy, yet the efforts of these leaders to bring about a co-ordination of postwar economic and financial undertakings of government are hinted backstage in this capital to be so important that plans now in the making may be a surprisingly beneficial "new deal" for this country. However, it is also hinted that these efforts started in the conference room number 497 of Parliament in Ottawa by these ten Premiers, continued by the economic committee representing each government on December 4th and other activities pertaining to the next meeting of the ten heads of government planned for January 28th, 1946, may prove to move at a slower pace than it is generally anticipated as complete details are examined and decided to give this nation a "new deal." It is reported in Ottawa that each wartime budget had brought sharp increases and this has implied now, in the post-war period, the need or urgent provisions of adjustment in the tax system to meet the new requirements as well as provide, perhaps, for aftermaths of a serious nature, with many people in high places not ruling out completely the possibilities of unemployment problems making their appearance in various spots throughout Canada.

There is no doubt that the heavy drain on the resources of the average Canadian taxpayer during the war had been accepted as unavoidable and produced considerable relief wherever possible in order to help the Federal Government to finance their effort. But things are likely to be quite different in the future and everyone seems anxious now to meet just such changes since there is a steadily growing feeling in officialdom that the dangers of a disturbed peace may not be so much hazardous than those perils of war.

"The work of reconstruction is by its very nature a major undertaking which will require the concerted action of the Federal Government, the Governments of the Provinces, the Municipal authorities, industry, labour, agriculture, and the other economic groups in our society," said in part a spokesman of the Federal Government in Ottawa. "Such concerted action will be possible only if each of the government authorities and each of the various economic groups assumes its appropriate responsibilities and only if programmes which may be initiated by them is a complete co-ordination of the Dominion Government, the Governments of the Provinces and the Municipalities."

Meanwhile, the smiles of the experts and others working in preparation for the next meeting of the Nine Provincial Premiers and Prime Minister King, scheduled for Ottawa on January 28th, 1946, indicate a hopeful omen for the "new deal" for Canada, though this is usually not accompanied with more details for unofficial inquirers.

Loans made under the Farm Improvement Loans Act of Canada have amounted to $2,911,223.82 up to the latest report on October 31st, 1945. This has been revealed in the capital where it has been reported that 3,669 loans have been made in the following provinces: Alberta, 1,335 and $698,527.52; Manitoba, 664 and $474,559.59; Ontario, 507 and $77,317.83; Quebec, 136 and $36,209.75; British Columbia, 110 and $77,317.83; New Brunswick, 29 and $26,437.20; Nova Scotia, 35 and $20,698.40; and Prince Edward Island, 17 and $6,228.50.

The War Assets Corporation, which has become popularly known as the "WAC," has more than doubled its sales of materials decided as surplus by the Government, during the past four months and there has been a view that its staff may have to be raised to 4,000 as soon as this is possible. This has been disclosed in Ottawa by the head of the WAC, though the head of this organization, J. H. Berry, could not estimate the exact total number of personnel which would be finally needed for this body which is charged with the responsibility of disposing of surplus government assets. At the last official report, the WAC had a staff of about 2,600. Moreover, it may be revealed that executive salaries paid within this body, it has been reported in Ottawa, run from $15,000 for J. H. Berry, its president, to $5,000 for T. McKenzie, Director of Personnel, with other salaries including $9,600 to H. R. Malley, vice-president for supply; $3,000 for F. O.

Peterson, vice-president and secretary; $3,000 for L. A. Brooks, comptroller, and an amount not to exceed $10,000 in fees to G. H. S. Dinmore, director of the lands and buildings department.

Canada's civil service has been very much in the news and this has been a cause of much gossip along Parliament Hill, especially since it is no secret that many returning veterans are interested in getting such jobs. One way that it was a fairly general rule, if not a general rule, that appointments of employees to Crown Corporations or Companies were not made by the Civil Service Commission. Another report indicated that there were strong protests against the low salaries being paid to many civil servants in Ottawa, though these protests were, of course, not official and merely in whispers, particularly since a breakdown had been made of average salaries in lower classifications based on a recent disclosure in Parliament. Still another story was that out of about 300,000 odd employees in the Civil Service, both permanent and temporary, some 6,000 received war duty supplements, thus creating much dissatisfaction amongst other civil servants who have felt that they, too, had rendered such extra service without getting such additional bonus.

Statistics have been released in Ottawa showing that no less than 92 per cent of women drawing re-establishment credits in the latest official report of such matters used them to buy furniture and household equipment and to repair and purchase homes in Canada. This report found that 83 per cent of the 355 women successfully setting their credits during the month of October, 1945, spent $225,575 on furniture and household equipment, with a total of 1266 Canadian women receiving money drawn $128,332 for this purpose by the end of October out of $151,975 approved for all purposes by the re-establishment credit division of the Veterans' Department for 1483 ex-service women.

A total of 2,263 National Resources Mobilization Act personnel have been sentenced as defaulters and these include 829 deserters or persons absent without leave sentenced by the army as well as 51 for air force, with on in Ottawa in the report. "Rout-rot" of the Queen Elizabeth to New York, instead of Halifax, during the winter months, will not in any way reduce the number of Canadian Service men being repatriated in the coming months," said Defence Minister Douglas Abbott, in making an emphatic explanation in this capital about the change.

The principal chaplain to the Canadian Armed Forces at the outbreak of the second World War and latterly head of the Royal Canadian Navy's Protestant chaplaincy service has left the naval service. He was the Rt. Rev. G. A. Wells, C.M.G., V.D., M.A., D.D., and he was extremely popular in this capital. This is the information that the permanent Royal Canadian Air Force will be provided with Canadian jet-propelled aircraft for certain units. The aircraft and the engines will be designed and built in Canada. . . . The death of William Foran in Ottawa recalls that he was one of the pioneers in the organization of the present Civil Service of Canada where he worked for a great many years as secretary. . . . Canadian Ambassadors to Soviet Russia, Argentina, Belgium, Greece, Peru and China receive an annual salary of $10,000. This has been made known in Ottawa where it has also been shown that the salaries of other top ranking representatives of this country get such salaries as the Minister to Cuba, E. Vaillan court, 10,000; Canadian High Commissioner to Dublin, Ireland, J. W. Kearney, $7,500; Canadian Consul-General in New York, H. G. Scully, $9,000. . . . The expansion of the important work of the Department of Veterans' Affairs in Ottawa has proceeded at such a pace that the Minister of this department, Hon. Ian Mackenzie, said in this capital that "for the past year I have been pressing to have a new veterans' building in Ottawa," adding that "it is about our first necessity," and stressing that there should be an administration building that in Washington. . . . Likewise, it has become known that the Public Works Minister, Hon. Alton Jones, has disclosed that plans are already in the making for the erection in Ottawa of a new building for the National Film Board this emphasizing the growing operations of this body. . . . An Order-in-Council has brought forth the fact that volunteers for the interim armed forces of Canada will not be punished for their actions causing disqualifying discharges in the service by the loss of benefits which they have won as a result of their active service in World War II so that these persons will not be affected by anything arising out of their service subsequent to September 1st, 1945. Regardless of his discharge from the interim forces, the serviceman is to be considered as having been honorably discharged from the active force as of that date. This answers a question which has been asked frequently in Ottawa.

Graybeard Laws.

By Joseph Lister Rutledge.

Laws, like people and nations, grow old. Like people and nations, they do not always improve in the process. There are laws, of course, that are founded on basic things, the "Thou shalt nots," where we are all in accord. But as society has grown more complex, its laws have had to reach beyond the basic facts into matters where opinion was not necessarily at one. Because of these individual factors that complicate the making of laws, it is obvious that the most careful consideration and preparation is necessary to discover the essentials and to so present them as to win the support of the people. It is not wholly surprising, then, that the making of a financial inspiration of thirty years ago, born in conflict and struggling to meet an immediate and pressing need, should be a shining example of unity and inexpressible lawmaking.

Because of the fervor of the moment, because the imposts did not those in the upper income tax groups, it was accepted without outright opposition by a minority who understood the necessities and accepted it as a form of taxation as good as any. The haphazard character of this legislation became more noticeable as successive finance ministers drew more heavily from this newly tapped reservoir represented by personal income and business profits. Thirty years of cobbling to make an outdated creation of yesterday meets the needs of today did nothing to make it either intelligible or acceptable. It attempts to fit the law to changed conditions resulting in innumerable discretionary powers being granted the administrators of the law, until these powers, in their indefiniteness, almost overshadow the small definiteness of the law itself.

As an example, a situation that is common in almost any group of people. It is the case of the average citizen making his dispirited way through this jumble of uncertainties. We can assume his essentially honest intent to do neither himself nor the income-tax department any injustice. A year or so later, however, after these discretionary powers have finally set in motion, the citizen finds that, according to official judgment, he has been wrong and now owes a substantial sum for which he has made no provision. As if that were not bad enough, he discovers also that, while he has reported by the date required, officialdom, doubtless of necessity, taken its own time in exercising these discretionary judgments and he now faces a penalty for a period of delay over which he had not the slightest control.

With business, it is the same story—delay and uncertainty makes it impossible to make provision for what may happen. The problem faced by business was not a matter of tax alone. That could be borne, but not to know what the tax might be took from management the essential facts of business course.

It would seem that giving discretionary power to interpret the acts to the officials who administer them is like permitting a judge to formulate the law as he sits in judgment on a case. That no one would impugn the good intent of these administrators does not alter the fact that arbitrary powers are operating to breed uncertainty and antagonism while we are doing a rehabilitate these laws.—Liberty Magazine.

Roquefort Legend.

The Roquefort type of cheese is now made in many parts of the world but it is named for a cave in France where it is supposed to have originated. The story is that a shepherd boy, tending his flock in the vicinity of Roquefort caves placed his lunch of barley bread and native cheese in a cool of one of the caves until noontime. However, his flock wandered afar and several weeks passed before it returned to the spot. Remembering the lunch, the shepherd was surprised to find the barley bread covered with black mould and the cheese variegated with veined green mould. He tasted the cheese and, finding it delicious, placed the lunch he was carrying that day in the cave for further investigation.

His discovery was noted by the Conques monks of that region and they are given the credit for developing Roquefort cheese through the use of mould from this cave.

Reflection on the Windsor Strike.

By Lewis Milligan.

During the past six years the people of Canada and the United States have enjoyed a full measure of peace and prosperity, while the people in the war zones have lived in a perpetual state of fear, have been blasted out of their homes and have suffered privations in many cases to the point of starvation and death. Now that the world war is over and peace has returned to those war-smitten countries, a reaction seems to have set in on this continent, and we have changed from a state of wartime peace to one of peacetime labor war.

These were my first reflections on entering the strike-smitten City of Windsor. There were, of course, no signs of physical warfare, for the residential and business sections of the city were quite peaceful and things seemed to be going on as usual. But I came into contact with people in various walks of life I felt that they were living in a state of extreme tension. The strike had been on for nearly three months. It had been entered into by the men with enthusiasm and confidence in a quick victory for their union. But as the weeks and months passed by and one conference after another had failed to bring about a peaceful settlement, a tense feeling of hope-deferred and of the futility of the strike prevailed.

Clarence Ford Heads Essex Holstein Club.

Clarence Ford of Comber, was chosen as the 1945 president of the Essex Holstein Club at a meeting of the executive held December 4th immediately following the annual meeting of the club at which the following directors were elected: M. C. Dalton, Kingsville; Thomas M. McLeod, Wood; Raymond Bonstetter, Amherstburg; Hector Bondy, River; Thomas McLeod, Comber; Clarence Ford and Charles Elliott, Comber; Alton Muleaster, Essex; Charles Dismore, Woodlee; Harry Newman, Comber; and Russell Simon, Ruscomb.

The annual meeting was held in the Agricultural Office, Essex, and was presided over by Mr. Ford.

Western Ontario Holstein fieldman J. E. Terry, Lambeth, congratulated the club on the excellent progress made this year, remarking particularly on the fine showing made at the Regional Championship Show at Stratford. This was the first year an exhibit was present from Essex at this event.

It was decided to hold the annual banquet in February, also to hold a Barn Meeting at the home of Benetue Bros., Amherstburg, both dates to be decided later.

I took the bus to No. 1 Ford plant, where there had been riotous scenes some weeks before, but I found the streets around deserted except for about 25 pickets milling two abreast in a close circle at the main entrance. A larger group was circling about the entrance of the Power House. A bleak wind was blowing from the river and the men were hunched up with the cold. I felt sorry for them and I was reminded of much larger groups of unemployed men gathered day after day outside the plants and employment offices in Toronto during the depression years. But here the situation was reversed, for instead of seeking jobs these men were there to prevent the work of a great industry from being carried on.

A strike is thus a self-imposed period of unemployment. It is a planned and organized local depression, Windsor was hit hard during the Great Depression. A reminder of that miserable period of unemployment appeared in a daily feature column of the Windsor Star, entitled "Bygone Days," in which were quoted excerpts from the news columns of that paper in former years. This was from the Star of November 30th, 1930:

"Plans were being made for the establishment of an old clothes bureau in East Windsor for the relief of the needy and jobless."

That was fifteen years ago. There were no strikes in those days; there were no work or wages to strike over. Today there is more work at higher wages than ever. The people do not need an old clothes bureau, but thousands of men are jobless and families have been impoverished by the strike. Hard-earned savings have been spent, grocery bills have been run up, and business is said to have fallen off 50 per cent in many instances. During the "hungry thirties" it was said that we had "scarcity amid plenty," and as a result of the strike there was abundance of work and wages amid an organized scarcity of labor. It has been well said that "the people have short memories."

Union leaders can surely think out some other way of improving the working conditions and raising the wages of their members without putting them out of work and rendering them wageless—to say nothing of the injury to local business and the disrupting of industry in general. Strikes may have been necessary in the early days of the struggle for the rights of labor and union recognition, but there is little in the present day demands of labor immediately affecting the interests of the workers that could not be settled by negotiation. A strike is usually settled by that means eventually, so why should the workers and their families and the community be made to suffer in the meantime.

LET'S SEE THEY HAVE Fun!

Literally hundreds of enthusiastic skiers come from the States every year. Expert or novice, they really can have fun on Ontario's ski trails. And we certainly want to make sure they do!

1. Find out all about what your neighbourhood offers, and become a booster.
2. Write your friends in the States about Ontario... show them when they come you're really proud of it.
3. Try to make any visitor glad he came.
4. Take time to give requested information fully and graciously.
5. In business, remember Canada's reputation for courtesy and fairness depends on you.
6. To sum it up, follow the "Golden Rule."

IT'S EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS... it's good business!

Worth his weight in gold! The Province of Ontario profited to almost the same extent from tourist business as it did from the gold mining industry. It is up to each of us to see that it goes on growing.

We All Share! Yes, everyone benefits from Ontario's tourist business. This diagram shows it clearly. Aside from hospitality, it's good business to make all our visitors from the United States feel at home.

It works both ways! They treat us royally when we visit them... we can't do less than return the compliment. Remember that it costs money to take a holiday... so let's see they get a good return for every penny they spend.

Let's make sure they always come back!

Hahn-Bannister Nuptials.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the United Church parsonage, in Maldstone, when Raymond (Bud) Hahn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hahn, was united in marriage to Edith Louise Bannister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
P. E. James, on Wednesday, December
12th.

The bride chose as her wedding apparel a pastel blue dress with hat to match, and wore elbow length white silk gloves and brown suede shoes, also a single strand of pearls and a corsage of red roses.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Helen Jones, wore a pastel pink dress on the occasion of the wedding, and carried a corsage of pink carnations. The best man was Loe, Robert Dickie, of Lachine, Que.

Both the groom and best man were in airforce apparel with buttonholes to match the bride and bridesmaid's flowers.

A lovely wedding dinner was served at the bride's home in the afternoon to the bride and groom's parents and the wedding party.

A reception was held in the Essex Town Hall, in the evening, with about one hundred guests present.

The young couple received many lovely gifts and have taken up residence in Windsor.

Koehler-Ferguson Wedding.

At a quiet ceremony, in the First Lutheran Church, on the afternoon of Saturday, December 15th, Rev. H. J.
Storm united in marriage Miss Helen Louise Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Ferguson, of Tullis, Sask., and Ernest Koehler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Koehler, of Maidstone.

The young couple were attended by Miss Charlotte Koehler, sister of the groom, and Mike Kokoval, of Essex.
The wedding supper and reception was held at the home of the groom, with relatives and a few friends attending. The bride's parents journeyed from Saskatchewan for the wedding.

Interdenominational.

vation Army Citadel, Rev. R. Harold Parr will speak. Come to God's house to meditate on His goodness in the past and to consider how better you can return His love in the future. Everyone welcome.

The Miracle of Christmas.

By Rev. R. H. Parr.
And she brought forth her first born Son and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger. Luke 2:7.

In all the history of humanity, there has not been a more beautiful story ever told, and vibrating with so great a truth for mankind than the story of the Birth of Christ. The story is simple and yet so profound that it catches the imagination and spirit of all who believe in the miracle of Christmas. Matthew and Luke tell the story of the Birth of Jesus in the little town of Bethlehem. They picture the shepherds watching their flocks by night, when suddenly there appeared the Angels of God bearing the glad news. "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour which is Christ the Lord." Almost at the same time the three wisemen from the East saw the star in the sky and sent their gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh. The two shepherds and the wisemen beheld the Miracle of Christmas.

The miracle of the birth of Christ still grips the hearts of all people of the Christian world at this Yuletide season. It is a season of preparation.
Purchases of lovely remembrances and loved ones on Christmas morning.
The spirit of good will is being manifested in the most unexpected places.
This good will is the thing that makes Christmas so worthwhile. People are standing, because they are touched in a greater or lesser degree by the spirit of the living Christ in the world.
Truly, the morning of December 25th will be the great dawn of human exultation if we accept as our own gift the grace of God through our Lord Jesus Christ.

For many this Christmas will be the first family re-union in the last six years. Our sons and daughters have returned from active service and they will gather with their loved ones on this first Christmas at home.
There ought to be many pauses in the day's celebration to thank God for the victory that has been given to our Empire. We ought to rejoice that the war is over and that our loved ones are home with us. There ought to be in each heart the high resolve that we shall so live that the power to peace and good-will shall come to pass in the world over. We ought to recognize that only the power of Love as revealed through Christ can save the world. Only then shall we witness the true miracle of Christmas.

There are many homes in Canada where there will be one or more vacant chairs. Loved ones who have away from Canada will never return to us. With a heart filled with understanding, I can only say to these sorrowing people, that Christmas may have a much deeper meaning to you than mere festivities. You can reverently go back in spirit to the little town of Bethlehem and you may thank God for the gift of the Son of His love.
Was it not our Christ who gave himself on the Cross, not only to save us from our sins, but to give us a great hope in the resurrection of our loved ones? He lived and died and rose again to become the living Christ who stands by with breaking heart to comfort all the lonely hearts. Lean on Him and you, too, shall behold the miracle of Christmas.

Last of all, we ought to bring our gold and frankincense and myrrh and Child. This is the gift of a fully dedicated life to his cause. This means our wealth, our love, our service, brought to Christ in the spirit of holy consecration. Then and only then shall we understand the full meaning of life and the purpose of God. Believe me, the real miracle of Christ-

The wise men from the East adored
The Infant Jesus as their Lord.
Brought gifts to Him, their King.
Jesus, grant us Thy light that we Thy way may find, and unto Thee
Our hearts, our all, a tribute bring.

John Sweetman Laid to Rest.

Funeral services for the late John Sweetman were held on Saturday afternoon, from the Hicks & Son Funeral Home, in charge of Rev. Stephen Dunk, of Elford United Church. Mrs.
Albert Elford was soloist, accompanied by Capt. Carter, of the Essex Salvation Army, at the organ. Burial was in Greenhill cemetery, Kingsville, the palbearers being John Workman, Ed.
Quick, Albert Elford, Harry Dumou-relle, Noble Claphy and Corn Taylor.

The late Mr. Sweetman was the last of the original settlers at Elford, moving there from Skugog Island, moving with his parents, 76 years ago. For years he owned and operated a saw mill on the 9th Con. of Colchester;
he also owned and operated the Elford store and was the district postmaster.
He helped cut the present townline road through the bush from Elford to Essex.

Alvin Rayment Laid to Rest.

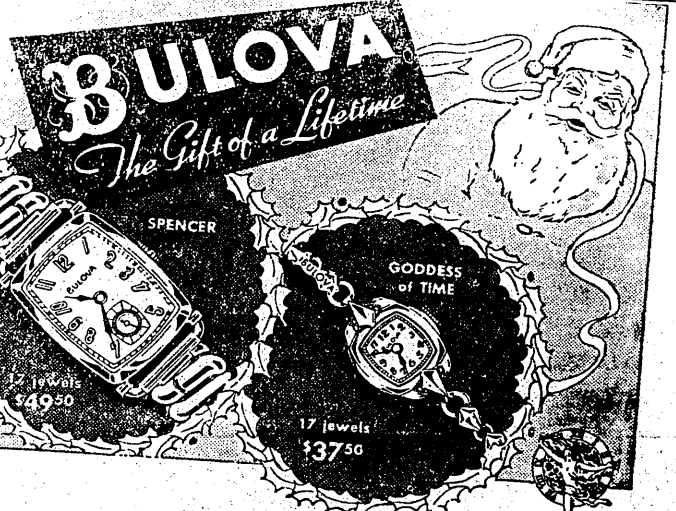

Funeral services for the late W.
Alvin Rayment, were held from the North Ridge United Church, on Thursday afternoon of last week, in charge of Rev. Stephen Dunk, assisted by Rev. Dr. Paulin, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Windsor. Mrs. H.
Manningham was the soloist.
The members of Cottam Rotary Club, of which deceased was a member, acted as honorary palbearers, while the active palbearers were Donald Taylor, Harry Atton, George Brinacombe, Glen McGreery, Harry Webster and Wm. Arnold.
Burial was in the family plot at North Ridge cemetery.

Dear Sir—Well, here is a few lines from an old home town boy who is looking forward to another Christmas away from home. But there is nobody to blame but myself for being away from home this Christmas because I could have come home with the First Division when they left Holland, but I joined the Canadian Occupational Force for a period of two years. By the way it looks as though they will break up the Canadian Occupational Force before 1947, so I expect to be home for next Christmas.

I would like to thank J. S. Linton and also all the women of Essex who are engaged in the Red Cross work.
I have been receiving parcels and letters from them for the last three years. At the present time I am serving with the Cameron Highlanders, of Ottawa (M.6) and I find the unit a pretty fair regiment.
My real idea of these few lines is to let you know that I have not forgotten my friends in the old home town, especially at Christmas, so I will close for now. Wishing all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I am
Yours truly,
PTE. R. M. VOAKES.

CHRISTMAS — 1945.

By Ed. Byrne.
On this happy Christmas day,
The anniversary of Christ's birth,
Must surely be a day of joy
In heaven and on earth.

He was the Son of God,
Who made this great universe,
Since mere man took it over
This world has gotten worse.

Man-made wars have been fought,
But how many have been won,
No sooner has one war ended
Than a greater one has begun.

Now that World War II is over,
We hope to have lasting peace,
But how can that possibly happen
If our faith in God does cease.

Man perhaps can win a victory,
But a just peace he cannot win,
Unless he turns to Almighty God
And turns his back on sin.
In Church this Christmas morning,
Before the Infant Jesus There,
For a just and lasting peace
Let us kneel and say a prayer

Light of Religion.
Light is sown for the righteous, and placeness for the upright in heart—
Psalms 97:11.

For them...
A REAL HOLIDAY!

In one year, 73,000 angling permits were bought by our friends from the States. And we have always done our part to see that they enjoyed themselves. When they return, let's give them a great welcome!

IT'S EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS... It's good business!

Ontario profits almost as much from tourist business as from gold mining.
It's up to us to keep this business growing.
"Let's make sure they always come back!"

Not Permitted Under Regulations.

Suckling pigs, a delicacy on many Canadian Christmas menus in normal times are not yet permitted under existing regulations, the Western Ontario Regional offices of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has reminded the slaughterers. A statement issued by food authorities of the Board draws attention to the regulation that "the slaughtering at any time of hogs weighing less than 100 pounds live weight by any person who holds a permit for slaughtering is prohibited and a person who owns, operates or is in charge of an abattoir or other slaughtering place must not allow the slaughter of such hogs to take place on those premises." Since suckling pigs are below this weight they may not be slaughtered.

Soybeans for Protein and Oil.

The soybean continues to occupy a place of increasing prominence in Canadian agriculture. While the chief interest centres in those districts where soybeans are grown successfully, the large number of uses for which they are adapted has created a generally widespread interest in this crop, says C. W. Owen, Dominion Experimental Station, Harrow, Ont.

One reason for the current attitude towards soybeans is the fact that it is a centuries-old Oriental crop successfully transplanted to North America. Another is that soybeans are proving to be a valuable factor in both the agriculture and industry of the North American continent. Where soybeans can be grown the soybean fits very well into the agriculture of the district, having a general favourable effect upon soils and providing a crop which may be utilized on the farm or marketed as a cash crop.

As a crop for farm consumption the main value of the soybean is found in its high protein content of about 35 per cent. Since the majority of cereal grain crops are high in carbhydrate content, the addition of protein is usually necessary to balance the rations fed to livestock. In this respect the soybean serves a useful purpose.
In addition the soybean may also be harvested as a fodder, thus producing a leguminous hay of good feed value.

When soybeans are marketed they are usually processed by extracting the valuable vegetable oil from the seed. This oil is utilized either in shortenings, soaps, salad oils, paints, or in any other ways. During wartime, sources of vegetable oils were an item of great importance and the soybean played a valued role in this respect. The remaining soybean oil meal residue left after oil extraction contains a valuable high protein content. This soybean of meal is particularly important in livestock feeds and to a lesser extent in human foods.

The meal enters industry and is found in such articles as vegetable caseln, paints, paper sizing, adhesives, synthetic plastics and textiles.

It is mind, after all, which does the work of the world.—Channing.

Materially minded men and women don't really unite; only through spiritual unity can people progress.—Lady Astor.

He who sees most clearly and unlightens other minds most readily, keeps his own lamp trimmed and burning.—Mary Baker Eddy.

CHRISTMAS is only a few days away.
Long Distance calling will be heavier than ever this year. On long calls—especially to Western Canada, the Maritimes and why not do so now?

We will do our best whenever you call,

Wishing You a Merry Christmas

On this glorious day we want to express our sincere thanks for your patronage during the past year; we wish each and every one of you Christmas cheer unlimited, and bright and shining fulfillment of your hope in 1946!

ART WARD.

The Yuletide comes this year as a welcome carrier of good cheer. It is our fervent Christmas prayer that the coming year will bring to all the world peace for all time.

MOORE'S DEPT. STORE.

On this most joyous occasion we want to pause for just a moment to wish you holiday cheer and to extend our hope for a lasting Peace.

GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL.

Christmas comes but once a year. Carry on its glorious spirit in the traditional Canadian way, even though loved ones may still be far cheer by saying "Merry Christmas" to one and all.

WILLIAM BIGLEY.

The Yuletide season is here once again. In wishing you a Merry Christmas we want to express our thanks for your patronage in the past year, and the hope that we may serve you again in the year to come.

GLADYS NAYLOR.

The joy, the spirit, the happiness of an old-fashioned Christmas is just about the best wish we know of to extend to you this Peace-time Christmas season.

R. S. MALOTT.

It is only fitting on this Christmas that we go to church and thank the Almighty for the Victory and Freedom He has granted us.

A. C. RANSOM.

The wreath in the window — the snow covered pines — the laughter of little children — so symbolic of the traditional Canadian Christmas! Let us keep it so always by doing our share to preserve peace and happiness.

ED. BELESKY.

In the true Canadian Christmas Spirit, we wish you Yuletide happiness.

ROBERTS BROS.

As we pray in our churches thankful prayers for the Victory we have won — let us offer prayers of hope and guidance for peace and happiness eternal on the earth.

MAEDEL'S BEVERAGES.

The thoughts we'd like to tuck into your mail box this Christmas encompasses a multitude of good wishes for a happy holiday and successful New Year.

RIO THEATRE.

Because it is impossible to reach our many friends individually, we are taking this means of sending our message of good cheer. A Merry Christmas to one and all!

WASCO VALVE SEAT CO.

"Joy to the world, the Lord has come." Truly this Christmas, God has blessed the earth with His Presence in leading us on to Victory we have won. May He continue to guide us in keeping the peace for ever and ever.

ESSEX FARMERS LIMITED.

No matter which way we try to say it, the good old fashioned "Merry Christmas" expresses most adequately what we mean.

WORKMAN'S RESTAURANT.

YOUR friends in town aren't too busy to pause and wish you well this Yuletide season! Here are their greetings, warm and sincere: some amusing, some built around a lasting Peace. All are heartfelt, and you will want to read them, to the last word. For they are in the traditional spirit of Christmas — merry, old-fashioned and true!

Our hopes for complete Victory and a lasting Peace are as bright as this Christmas day as the lights that sparkle on your tree!

ABERDEEN HOTEL.

May you know traditional joys wherever you may be on this Christmas day, and may you enjoy peace and happiness in the years to come.

BUHLER'S MEAT MARKET.

To one and all go our sincerest wishes for a Christmas of good cheer a glorious year and "Peace on Earth—Good Will to Men" for many years to come.

DON WILSON.
B.A. Station.

Ring our sweet bells — ring out in exultation! For on this glorious Christmas day we have much to be grateful for.

A. MICHAEL & STAFF.

A joyous holiday to one and all. Our hearts are overbrimming with happy thoughts for you and yours. Merry Christmas!

LEN BLACK
Massey-Harris Dealer.

From every Church steeple the bells will ring out. And in them will echo our wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

COWLEY'S FLOWERS.

Let our hearts sing out. Christmas cheer is here again. We join with you in making this a happy holiday.

BACKUS SIMON.

Christmas carols float through the air: hearts are light and gay. We wish you the Merriest Christmas possible.

JOHNSTON BROS.

To our friends here at home and to all men and women still in uniform, we wish from the depths of our hearts all the things you so richly deserve!

LOUCK'S RESTAURANT.

Santa comes to you this year with bundles of good cheer. The very best wishes to each and everyone. All good things to you and yours.

CRISPY CRUST BAKERY.

We've a full box of Christmas wishes for you — happiness, health and the best of New Years to follow.

JACK HUGGARD.
Case Implements.

No matter how we try to say it, we find the old fashioned way the best. A Merry Christmas to one and all.

O. A. WHITTAL & SON
McCormick-Deering Agents.

Bounteous greetings for the Yuletide season. To one and all we want to extend our sincerest wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

STEDMAN'S STORE.
Manager and Staff.

May each and every one of you enjoy this Christmas day to its fullest. A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

E. D. MARTIN.

To you and yours go our heartiest wishes for a very Merry Christmas and a glorious New Year. May all your dreams come true this Yuletide season.

S. L. KENNEDY.

Joyous are the reunions this Christmas. Our blessings and sincerest wishes for the maximum of happiness in the years to come.

J. C. LINTON.

Joyous Christmas Greetings and our best wishes for a year of happiness, health and prosperity.

JOHN THOMAS.

Our prayers for Victory were answered. Let us thank God this Christmas for Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men.

ESSEX DAIRIES.
Management and Staff.

During this Happy Season, we wish to extend our sincerest thanks to you for your patronage and wish you a very Merry Christmas.

PARKER'S SERVICE.

The bells of peace ring out on Christmas morning to you this season. Let us wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

JACQUES Proven HYBRID 1157J

- A Phenomenal yield in its maturity!
- Makes a long, rugged ear that picks easy!
- Makes very large, mellow-starch kernels that put meat on livestock fast!
- Stands up and holds ears through harvest!

NOW 1157J YIELDS IN COMPARISON WITH OTHER HYBRIDS

In a typical test plot, 1157J was compared with 35 other popular hybrids of well-known brands. It yielded 89.53 bushels per acre and tested 22.4% moisture at harvest. The plot average was 67.42 bushels per acre and 23.4% moisture. Jacques 1157J yielded 22 bushels more than the plot average and the corn was drier!

Jacques Proven Hybrid 1157J is sweeping the country! Demand for it is growing by leaps and bounds! See us right away to make sure you will get your supply for 1946 planting. Don't delay.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our brother, Pte. Floyd Lambier, killed in action, in Italy, on December 23rd, 1943. We do not know the pain he bore. We did not see him die. We only know he passed away. Without a last goodbye.

Our hearts still ache with sadness. Our eyes shed many a tear. God only knows how we miss him At the end of the second sad year.

Sadly missed by his brothers and Sisters.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Pte. Floyd Lambier, of the Essex Scottish Regiment, killed in action, in Italy, on December 23rd, 1943.

He sleeps not in his native land. But 'neath a foreign sky. Gone from those who loved him most. In a hero's grave he lies.

Sleep on, dear son, in thy faroff grave. A grave we may never see. But as long as life and memory lasts We will remember thee.

Sadly missed by mom, dad and Dorothy.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. A. E. Wismer, who passed away three years ago, December 21st, 1942.

December comes with deep regret. A month we will never forget; Till memory fades and life departs. She will live forever in our hearts.

As long as we live we shall cherish her name.

In memory we see her, ever the same. Still in our hearts she is living yet. For we love her too deeply to ever forget.

—Always remembered by Lulu and Nellie.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Clara Jane Farough, who passed away one year ago, December 22nd, 1944.

Dear mother, you are not forgotten. Though on earth you are no more. Still in memory you are with us. As you always were before.

—Lovingly remembered by daughters, son, and their families.

Card of Thanks.

RAYMONT—We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement, and also to thank them for the beautiful floral offerings. Special thanks to Rev. Stephen Dunk, Dr. Paulin, Mrs. Monningham, Mrs. Bernard Neale, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Atton and Cottam Rotary Club.—Mrs. Alvin Raymond and family.

Card of Thanks.—The family of the late John Sweetman wish to thank all relatives and friends for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy shown them in their recent bereavement; special thanks to Rev. Stephen Dunk, Mrs. Albert Elford and Capt. Carter, for their services at the funeral, and to all those who sent flowers or loaned cars.

Christmas Suggestions.

The outburst of Christmas cheer, the chiming of the bells, the worship, the feast, the fun and all that goes to make a Merry Christmas, are customs inherited from a long line of ancestors and from many countries. Warm hospitality at this season is a tradition of long standing, so we gather our families, our friends, and those for whom we are making Christmas, to share the happiness of the day.

The home economists of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture, offer a few suggestions to simplify some of the homemakers' problems.

In keeping with the Christmas colour scheme the salad should be red. The choice is between cranberries, tomato juice and beets. A jellied salad will be the easiest to prepare and serve, since it requires only garnishing with greens and dressing at the last minute.

Dessert will probably be plum pudding or mince pie, but it is wise to have an alternative dessert for the children and those who may have already indulged rather heartily in the first course. An old-time home-made vanilla custard ice cream served with a red fruit sauce is just right. If the ice cream cannot be made at home, it may be purchased the day before Christmas if the weather is cold enough to keep it outdoors, or there is either suitable storage.

JELLIED BEET RING.

1 tablespoon gelatine
1 cup cold water
1 cup juice from canned beets or water
2 tablespoons light corn syrup
1 tablespoon salt
3 tablespoons prepared horse radish
1/2 cup vinegar
1 cup diced cooked beets

Soak gelatine in cold water for 5 minutes. Bring beet juice or water to boiling point. Add soaked gelatine and stir until dissolved. Add corn syrup, salt, horseradish and vinegar. Chill. When mixture begins to thicken, stir in celery and beets. Pour into a moistened ring mould and chill until firm. Unmould on salad greens and fill centre with cabbage salad. Six servings.

MINCEMEAT UPSIDE DOWN PUDDING.

This pudding requires more mince-meat than pie, therefore is luscious and juicy but easy on the shortening.
1 1/2 cups sifted pastry flour or 1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons shortening
1/4 cup granulated sugar
1 egg, well beaten
1/2 cup milk

Sift together the dry ingredients. Cream the shortening slightly, add sugar and egg. Blend well. Add dry ingredients alternately with milk, to make a rather thin drop batter. Decorate the bottom of a well greased pudding mould with a few toasted almonds. Spread with a generous layer of mince-meat. Fill mould no more than two-thirds full with batter. Cover and steam over rapidly boiling water, about 1 1/2 hours. Turn out and serve hot with hard sauce or a hot pudding sauce. Six servings.

COLD "PLUM" PUDDING.

2 tablespoons gelatine
1/2 cup cold water
1 1/2 cups boiling water
1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup dry bread crumbs
1 tablespoon granulated sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon ground cloves
1 orange, juice and grated rind
1 lemon, juice and grated rind
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup raisins
1/2 cup citron or mixed peel

Dissolve gelatine in cold water. Add boiling water, brown sugar and salt. Let it stand until partially set. Melt butter, add crumbs and granulated sugar. Stir over low heat until well browned. Beat jelly until light. Add other ingredients, pour into a greased mould—Chill until set. Six servings. Serve with foamy or custard sauce.

Q.—What is the ceiling price on white turnips.

A.—In Western Ontario the ceiling price on white turnips washed or unwashed is six cents a pound, for unwashed or unwaxed it is five cents a pound.

Shortening and Lard.

In an effort to help out with the preparations for Christmas and holiday dinners, an increase of approximately one and one-quarter million pounds of shortening will be distributed throughout Canada this week. Fairbairn distributed throughout the country this means an increase of approximately one-tenth of a pound per person, but the short world supply of fats and oils will not permit any additional allowance. Wartime Prices and Trade Board officials point out, stating that the additional amount falls short of meeting current demand. In the first week of January an additional supply of lard will be made available following its purchase in the United States by the Commodity Prices and Stabilization Corporation in a further effort to relieve the shortage of edible fats in this country.

Ration Coupon Due Dates.

Coupons now valid are sugar 46 to 67; butter, 116 to 134; preserves, 33 to 57 and P1 to P25; meat 1 to 16. The extra P24 and P25 may be used for one-half pound of sugar each.

(October 31st, 1945)

"The main Shear outcrops for a total distance of 300 feet and was 25 feet in width dipping steeply under the Tundra. Neither walls were exposed in a trench blasted into and across the outcrop. A cross section of the trench East of the outcrop showed the following: 12 feet of highly mineralized sheared and schistified volcanic rocks; 8 1/2 feet of high-temperature blue Quartz well mineralized; needles of Tourmaline disseminated throughout the Quartz. In numerous places across the broken face of the vein very fine visible free gold was noticed. The balance of the outcrop exposed was made up of well mineralized Chlorite Schists. The main sulphides in this zone are Arsenopyrite and Pyrite and they are known to have a high gold content.

"After carefully examining the Salerno Claims (Salmita) the writer is of the opinion that the two outstanding discoveries made in the main Shear Zone can be developed into commercial orebodies. It is, therefore, recommended that preparations be undertaken immediately to put into effect a prospecting and drilling program to prove up these Zones.

"This property definitely warrants the expenditure outlined above and the writer is confident that the results of the foregoing program will be such that the next step in development will be the sinking of a shaft and the bringing of this property into production."

"The property (Salmita) is underlain by rocks of both sedimentary and volcanic origin. The contact between which strikes in a northwesterly direction traversing the long axis of the property across nine claims. The contact zone is marked by intensive shearing, within which mineralized quartz is noted to occur.

"Showing No. 1 occurs near the south end of the property. Total width of quartz exposed, and uncovered by scraping away the moss, is 9". A few shallow pop holes were blasted into the quartz which allowed the taking of two chip samples.

"Sample No. 628 was cut across 2 1/2" of blue quartz well mineralized with arsenopyrite — this assayed 0.93 oz. Gold ($35.34).

"At a point 27'0" along the strike to the northwest, a second sample, No. 629, was chipped across 6" of similarly well mineralized quartz which ran 0.27 oz. Gold ($10.05). This the 28" section sampled by No. 628, which gives a total width of 9" of quartz. Rhynolite, which forms the west wall of the quartz, is well schistified and shows evidence of mineralization by rusty oxidation of its surface."

Others Are Asking?

Q.—I am going to sell my car and truck. Where can I determine the proper ceiling prices? Is it sufficient to consult a dealer?

A.—The proper procedure is to go to the nearest Wartime Prices and Trade Board office and submit a full description of the car and truck, including accessories, such as heater, radio or other equipment. You will then be given the legal ceiling price. If you cannot visit the Board office you may send a description by mail. Information is not given by phone. Prices received from the dealer are the dealer's ceilings and differ from those in effect for sales between individuals.

Q.—My grocer will not sell me cat-soup unless I buy mustard. My friends tell me this is illegal. Are they correct?

A.—Yes. This is a conditional sale which, under wartime regulations, is illegal. We suggest you advise your grocer of this ruling and if he persists in his present attitude you should report the matter to the nearest office of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Q.—Is cranberry sauce rationed?
A.—Yes. Under present regulations one preserves coupon is good for 12 fluid ounces of cranberry sauce.

Quality You'll Enjoy "SALADA" TEA

Rationing Simplified.

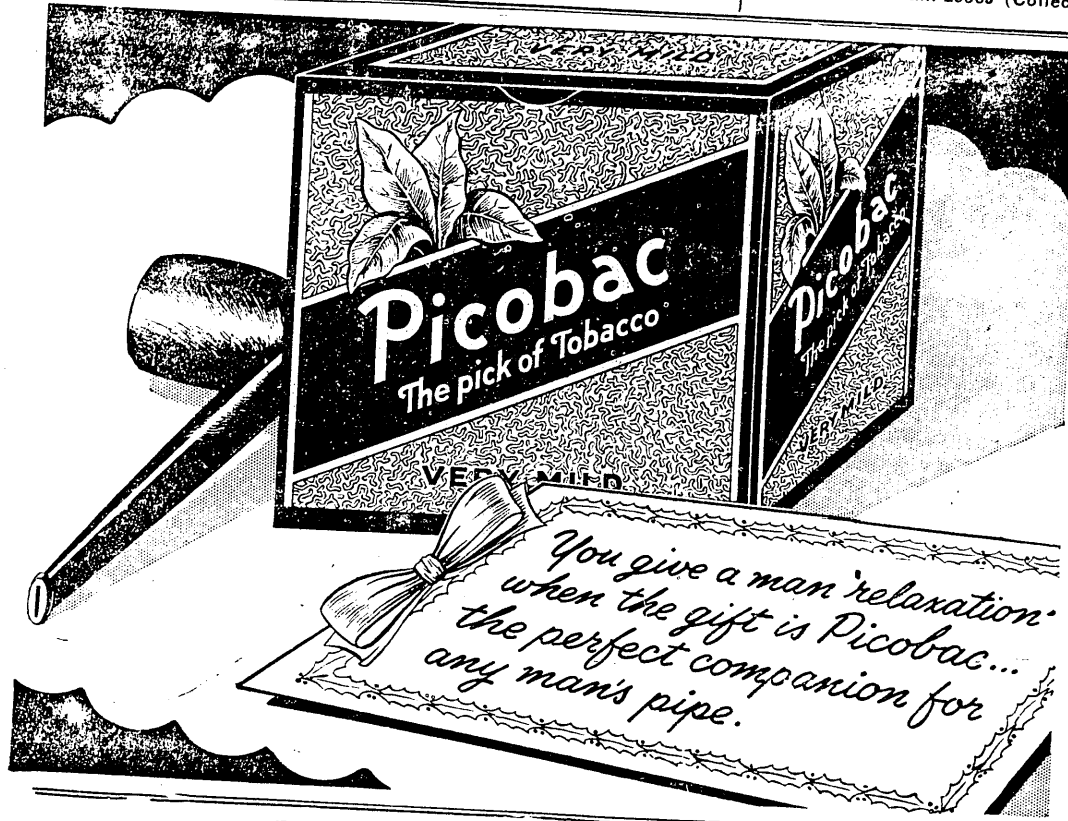

Effective January 1st pink coupons in ration book five will be used for the purchase of sugar and preserves, under the new simplification plan announced by the Ration Administration. While the value of the coupons will be doubled consumers will not receive any increase in ration allowances since two coupons will become valid each month instead of the present four of the separate sugar and preserves coupons. In the new year the coupon may be used for the purchase of any one of one pound of sugar, 24 ounces of jam, jelly, marmalade, four pounds of honey, 30 ounces corn or table syrup, 80 ounces of molasses, 40 ounces of canned fruit, two pounds honey butter, 48 ounces maple syrup, four pounds of maple sugar. The allotment of sugar for home canning will be the same in 1946 as this year. Coupons good for the purchase of 10 pounds of sugar for canning may be used for preserves if desired.

HE'D LIKE TO KNOW YOU personally

The service you receive from your bank is rendered so quietly and efficiently that the human values behind it may not have occurred to you.

Think, for instance, of the confidence you rest in your branch bank manager, perhaps without even knowing him well personally. You ought to know him better. By depositing your money in his branch, you made him and his staff the custodians of your account and the transactions relating to it. You hold him in high trust, knowing that your private affairs will be kept private.

You will find your bank manager a trained man who has come up through the ranks, and who will be glad to discuss your financial needs with you and to inform you as to the appropriate service his bank can render.

Should you desire a personal loan to meet some unexpected expense, talk it over with him. You can depend on receiving courteous, understanding and friendly consideration. Small loans are just one of the services your bank provides. You may be surprised to learn of many other services available for your use.

WRIGLEY'S

Many Uses for Soybeans.

The soybean continues to occupy a place of increasing prominence in Canadian agriculture. While the chief interest centres in those districts where soybeans are grown successfully, the large number of uses for which they are adapted has created a generally widespread interest in this crop, states C. W. Owen, Dominion Experimental Station, Harrow.

Good Sor Solis.
One reason for the current attitude toward soybeans is the fact that it is a centuries-old Oriental crop successfully transplanted to North America. Another is that soybeans are proving to be a valuable factor in both the agriculture and industry of the North American continent. Where soybeans can be grown they fit well into the agriculture of the district having a generally favourable effect upon soils and providing a crop which may either be utilized on the farm or marketed as a cash crop.

As a crop for farm consumption the main value of the soybean is found in its high protein content of about 35 per cent. Since the majority of cereal grain crops are high in carbohydrate content, the addition of protein is usually necessary to balance the rations fed to livestock. In this respect the soybean serves a useful purpose. In addition the soybean may also be harvested as a fodder crop, thus producing a leguminous hay of good feed value.

Oils Extracted.

When soybeans are marketed they are usually processed by extracting the valuable vegetable oil from the seed. This oil is utilized in shortening, soaps, salad oils and paints. During wartime, sources of vegetable oils were an item of great importance and the soybean played a valued role in this respect. The remaining soybean oil meal residue left after oil extraction contains a valuable high protein content. This meal is particularly important in livestock feeds and to a lesser extent in human foods. The meal enters industry and is found valuable in such articles as vegetable casing paints, paper sizing, adhesives, synthetic plastics and textiles.

Dad is home again!

Christmas candles will burn brighter this year and Christmas turkeys have a new and special flavour for the thousands of Canadians who will be sitting down to their first Christmas dinner with the family circle complete. And many a childish face will glow in the candlelight because "dad" takes his place at the head of the table again—with his strange tales from Italy, from France, Germany or the Pacific.

But even as the candles are lit and the heaped plates go round, Canadians will pause and remember—remember those family groups that will never be complete—those thousands of desolate and homeless in Europe—that great army of children who have been frightened and hurt and starved by a war not of their making.

Let us therefore make a solemn resolve never again to allow the powers of darkness—greed, selfishness and mistrust—to put out the candles of Christmas, those brave lights that symbolize the warm love and kindness that came into the world two thousand years ago.

COTTAM

Plan to attend the Holy Name Society Keno, North Woodslee, on Friday, December 28th.

United Church Notes.
Services in Cottam United Church will be held at 10.45 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. next Sunday. There will be appropriate Christmas music and messages. The Sunday School lesson is entitled "The Message of Christmas to the World." At the evening service there will be a dramatic presentation of the Christmas Message, interspersed with Christmas Carols. Let us celebrate the birth of the Saviour by worshipping in His sanctuary.

The annual Sunday school Christmas tree and concert will be held in the United Church school room, on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock.
The B.Y.P.U. held its closing meeting for 1945 on Monday evening. They decided to pay $50 to the Organ Fund of the church. Arrangements were made for the annual circuit of carol singing in the village, on Christmas Eve. An open invitation is extended to everyone to join in. The carollers will meet in the United Church school room at 8 p.m. on Monday evening, December 24th.

INMAN

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Morse moved from the Robson farm to Windsor, last week.

Mrs. Wm. Card's brother, Mr. Milne, of Winnipeg, Man., is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Card and Beverly.

Mr. and Mrs. James Neal and Berne, of Windsor, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Upcott and Peter.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Upcott entertained the young people on Saturday evening in honour of their son Peter's 24th birthday. Cards were played and a tasty lunch was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Garry and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oakley, of Detroit, had dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alex Middleton.

The Association of Universalist Women were entertained by Mrs. Harold Thorsen, of Cottam, formerly of Inman, on Thursday afternoon, the new president, Mrs. Stanley Orton presiding. Roll call was answered by "A Christmas thought." Mrs. Harold Thorsen gave a talk on the life of Clara Barton, which was enjoyed by a good crowd.

Seriously Injured.

Miss Rita Montgomery, of Cottam, suffered severe injuries, on Saturday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, when she was struck by a pickup truck driven by Harry Nykyforuk, of Point Pelee, after she had alighted from a Greyhound bus. Miss Montgomery, who works in the office of National Grocers in Windsor, had got off the bus in front of her mother's home, and was standing off the highway waiting for a clear passage across the street when hit by the truck. She was thrown about 10 feet in the air and landed in a snowbank. Eyewitnesses, including a Greyhound bus driver, stated that another Greyhound was approaching, coming from Leamington, and as the Leamington-bound bus had only started up again, the driver of the pickup seeing he could not pass, confused and struck the young lady. She was rushed to Grace Hospital, Windsor, where it was found she had left leg and ankle and a badly bruised right leg, but apparently no internal injuries. She was carrying a large many pieces, a fact which no doubt helped save her from more severe injuries.

Candle Lighting Service.

The Candle Lighting Service at the United Church, on Sunday last, at 4 p.m., was witnessed by 500 people, each of whom received a candle as the church was entered. Tall candles representing the tribes of Israel were placed on the altar table, while a table at the rear of the auditorium carried candles representing the seven churches of Asia.

The ends of the pews each bore a candle, while the organ and the piano, and the windows had their quota of lighted candles when the service began. The choir members carried lighted tapers as they sang the professional hymn "O Come All Ye Faithful." This began a most impressive service conducted by the Rev. I. T. T. lights the altar lights as the congregation sang "Silent Night," while the new lights were lighted during the singing of "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear."

The text of an excellent address was "Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh." The choir, under the direction of Miss M. Allen, rendered six Christmas numbers. The soloists were Murray Kennedy, Miss Marion McIlwain, Mrs. W. Tully, while "O Little Flower of Bethlehem" was rendered by the Misses Margaret and Beatrice Annett. The closing hymn, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," followed the lighting of candles in the hands of the congregation — the light being obtained from the pews lights.

Miss Norma Hill, at the piano, joined Miss Allen at the organ, in playing "Bethlehem" for a prelude, and "Star of the East."

This was beyond doubt one of the most impressive, the most beautiful, as well as the most spectacular service of its kind ever held in the Town of Essex, and would bear repetition.

January 10th Vital Date to History.

The first session of the United Nations organization (U.N.O.) opens January 10th, in London. Since U.N.O. has been created to keep peace, this will be a historic date.

Many bitter problems face U.N.O. They're hangovers from the war. And there has not been peace everywhere since the big shooting stopped last August. From the start U.N.O. will have to go to work in earnest.

This first session is a meeting of member nations will take part. For mechanical reasons the first session will be divided into two meetings: 1. Starting January 10th, the first meeting will last from three weeks to perhaps two months. At this one the members set up the machinery to make U.N.O. a working organization.

2. The second meeting is expected to get under way in April, perhaps in the United States since this country has been selected as permanent headquarters of U.N.O. The selection was made after London had been agreed upon for the January 10th meeting.

No great problems, like the atomic bomb, are on the program of the London meeting although any nation is free to throw in a hot one like that.

So the London meeting may sound pretty dull, much like the San Francisco conference. There delegates gliding over a word or phrase, to whip up a charter.

One of the main jobs of the first meeting will be to elect six small security council. The United States, Britain, France, Russia and China are permanent members.

It's the security council, not the assembly, which will have the real job of preserving peace once it is created. There is plenty of work for the first assembly meeting, however.

But, as noted above, it probably will not appear spectacular. It will have to set up various agencies of U.N.O. and elect officials. There's plenty of that on the program.

Tire Rationing Lifted.

All tire rationing restrictions will be removed January 1st, 1946, Hon. C. D. Howe, munitions minister, announced this week.

This action follows closely the relaxation order which was issued earlier this month.

Mr. Howe emphasized that the lifting of tire rationing does not mean that the present stocks are such that all demands can be met immediately. "Production is picking up steadily, and if the tire buying public will continue to co-operate during the first stages by ordering tires only when normal conditions will be rapidly restored," he said.

Price controls on new and used tires, tubes and retreading services remain in force under the prices board.

Essex Couple Wed 50 Years.

Many friends and neighbours called to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Welsh, Talbot Road, on their 50th wedding anniversary, on Sunday.

Mrs. Welsh, the former Margaret A. Thorpe, was married to Mr. Welsh in Windsor, on December 23rd, 1895. They resided in Windsor until 1932, when they moved to Essex.

With them for their anniversary day were their children, Mr. and Mrs. E. Welsh, of Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Welsh, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Christmas of Painesville, Ohio, and Mrs. Doris Welsh of Amherstburg.

The house was beautifully decorated in many original and artistic designs of gold color and yellow mums were centred with a gold colored square on which were fifty glowing candles. At this table Mrs. Harry Diggle poured tea, and dainty refreshments were served to the visitors.

In the evening, the carollers of the United Church serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Welsh and sang several songs. The happy couple enjoy good health and look forward to many more such joyful occasions.

Former E. H. S. Student.

A former E. H. S. student, now a nurse in France, caring for the wounded, and boys who are too ill yet to come home, is the task of Lieut. Robert Wismer, U.S.A., N.C. Lieut. Wismer left the States for London, England 16 months ago, and was sent to France a few weeks later. She is at present in Le Havre, but an occasional airplane trip lands her in Marseille or the Riviera.

A former E. H. S. student, and Wayne University graduate, Lieut. Wismer took nurse training at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, then went to Camp McCoy, Wis., for a short period. A recent letter to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wismer, 15270 Cruise Avenue, Detroit, informed them that it might be another year before she is able to come home. She is with the 16th General Hospital staff.

Sims-Hick Nuptials.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in Kingsville, one day last week, when the Rev. O. S. Starratt united in marriage Mildred Irene, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Hick, of Windsor, and Collin O. Sims, of Kingsville, son of Mrs. George Sims and the late Mr. Sims, of Nelson, B.C. Mr. and Mrs. Sims are co-publishers of the Kingsville Reporter.

Mrs. Garnet Stockwell, cousin of the bride, acted as matron of honour and William D. Conklin assisted the groom as best man.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents for about fifty guests.

Public School Board Formed.

At the second nomination meeting, held on Friday evening of last week, the five men required to form the new Public School Board, were nominated and signed their declarations of qualification. The Board will be composed of the following:

Ward 1 — Howard Felstead and Clarence Jones.
Ward 2 — Hunter Harrow and Perry Vanstone.

Ward 3 — Len Black and Clair Tully. These six men are elected for a two year term, but as this is the inauguration of a Public School Board, after education in town being in control of a Board of Education the past twenty years, the two men from each ward will have to draw lots to see who is elected for only a one year term and drop off at the end of 1946.

Arsene Reaume Dies.

Funeral services for Arsene Reaume, aged 68 years, who passed away on Wednesday of last week, were held on Saturday morning, from the family home on No. 3 Highway, Sandwich West, to Christ the King cemetery, Windsor.

Surviving are four daughters, Nerthe (Mrs. Alphonse Martin) of LaSalle; Adeline (Mrs. Addie Souliere) of Windsor; Loretta (Mrs. George Pratt) of Windsor; and Hortense (Mrs. Orla Langlois) of River Canard; also two sons, Mr. Edie Reaume, of LaSalle; and three brothers, Yves of Sandwich West; Ernest of Paquette and Tancred, of R.R. 4, Essex.

These are happier New Year tidings than we knew could bring a year ago! So together let's rejoice that Peace is again with us, and make merry from midnight to morning! Happy New Year, folks, and here's to the best of everything for you and yours all year and always!

GEO. R. WELLER and STAFF

We've lit the candle of our New Year's greetings with the brightest of flames; steady, clear and brilliant. It will brighten your way through 1946, and if it brings you everything good you've hoped for it will fulfill our wishes.

Beet Growers Get $1,500,000.

Southwestern Ontario farmers will receive $1,500,000 in sugar beet cheques just in time for their late Christmas shopping. This distribution, it was learned, this week, is already in the mails and represents the second payment on the 1945 beet crop. This sum, plus a larger amount previously paid for beets delivered during October, totals about $1,500,000 paid on the basis of the floor price guaranteed by the Canada and Dominion Sugar Company.

Bonuses still remain to be paid, explained company spokesmen, for all sugar content above 13 per cent. This year's test of 17.2 per cent, equal to the average of the past five years, will afford further returns to the growers totalling about $500,000.

9½ Tons Per Acre.
An agricultural representative revealed that the beet harvest in Ontario this year amounted to the surprising total of over 163,000 tons and is now completed with the exception of a few late deliveries. It was termed a surprising harvest because the total of over 163,000 tons and 9½ tons per acre was not expected from the crop of 17,000 acres after the backward spring and generally discouraging weather that caused serious losses in other crops of this territory.

Larger Crops Next Year.
Interesting figures were noted in the crop this year which promise new developments and an early return to an average sufficient to operate both sugar factories. The general acceptance of the new segmented seed was a big step in reducing hand labour as was the introduction and favourable demonstration of new mechanical harvesters. Newsprint farmers and a scientific mission from Britain saw machines harvest beets at the rate of three acres per day and also witnessed an ingenious and highly efficient loader put beets from the ground into an accompanying truck at a ton a minute. Several orders have been placed for this type of equipment and according to statements made to reporters covering the demonstrations, many growers intend to double their average of beets next year.

Concerning Darwin's Mistake.

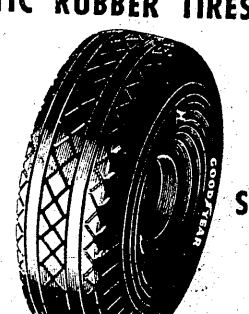

Three monkeys sat on a cocoanut tree.
Discussing things as they're said to be.
Said one to the other, "Now listen you two.
There's a certain rumour that can't be true.
That man descended from our noble race.
The very idea is a disgrace.
No monkey ever deserted his wife.
Started her babies and ruined her life.
And you've never known a mother monkey
To leave her babies with others to bunk.
Or pass them on from one to another
Till they scarcely know who is their mother.
And another thing you'll never see
A monkey build a fence 'round a cocoanut tree.
And let the cocoanuts go to waste.
Forbidding all other monkeys to taste.
Why, if I'd put a fence round the tree
Starvation would force you to steal from me.
Here's another thing a monkey won't do
Go out at night and get on a stew.
Or use a gun, or club or knife
To take some other monkey's life.
Yes, man descended — the ornery cuss.
But brother, he didn't descend from US."

Relief for Gardener in Sight.

The long-suffering gardener can look forward to relief from the back-breaking chore of digging weeds from his lawns, at long last. A revolutionary selective chemical killer of the toughest weeds about which he has had to contend is about to make its appearance on the Canadian scene, according to an announcement from the Nantuck Chemicals division of Dominion Rubber Company, Limited.
The new weed killer will be known as "2-D," a contraction for its proper name of 2,4-dichlorophenoxyacetic acid, and like another product, DDT, promises to arouse considerable interest in the general public. 2-D is manufactured by Dominion Rubber and is used for this purpose. Sprayed over affected areas, it is absorbed through the leaves of the weeds and is carried through its branches into the farthest root tip. Ordinary concentrations do not affect most grasses. Just what happens inside the stem is not known, but apparently it either breaks down the cell walls or paralyzes them so that they can't function. Weeds so treated show signs of trouble within a day, and in the course of time wither and die.

Up to the present it is known that 2-D definitely kills more than 30 varieties of weeds including bindweed, burdock, dandelion, and perennial sow thistle. A white powder in form, it can be dissolved in water, with the aid of a small amount of another chemical. It will be supplied to the general public in liquid form, requiring when used in such solutions at the rate of one to one-and-a-half parts per thousand. Ten gallons of the solution will do a thorough job on 2,000 square feet of lawn. It will not corrode spraying equipment; it is selective in action, controlling the broad-leaved types of grasses; it is non-poisonous to human beings and to animals when used as directed; it will not irritate the skin. Economical, it will fit the public purse. It will not strain or damage clothing. It will not irritate the skin.

2-D is expected to have a wide application for lawns, golf courses, railroad right-of-ways, parks and playgrounds, airfields, dry yards, industrial establishments, orchards, fence lines and as a selective herbicide for small quantities has commenced at the Nantuck Chemical plant of the Dominion Rubber Company Limited in Windsor, Ont., and these will be available on request to organizations interested in horticulture and agricultural research, to colleges and schools, and to other societies. It is anticipated that some 2-D will be placed on the market for general use next spring, and will be made available to users in all probability through established weed killer distributors.

The effect of 2-D on poison ivy is being extensively investigated. Treatment of poison ivy by 2-D kills the permanent treatment will be in this instance. This stage of progress is also true of some woody plants and perennial farm weeds. It is an exhaustive test to find out whether it will be injurious to animals. It cannot, of course, be sprayed on vegetables, flowering plants, shrubbery, trees, on tobacco, cotton, and other desirable types, without damaging them.

Recent trials of 2-D in the Western provinces are evoking considerable enthusiasm from wheat farmers. 2-D is proving a welcome ally in the suppression of weeds in field crops such as wheat, oats, barley, hay and other narrow-leaved grains.
Hays Limited were also the runners-up on the auction, Raymondale Ideal Successor, who sold for $18,000. This is the highest price for a Canadian-bred bull since 1918. His breeder was Senator D. Raymond, Vaudreuil, Que., and his buyer, F. B. Markley, Flint, Mich.

In the first day of the sale 82 head of all ages sold for a total of $86,865, or an average of $1,060 each. The biggest buyer was Ralph Steele, Port Thomas, Ky., who took eleven head. C. E. Kealey, Atwood, bought a half-per cent granddaughter of King Bessie Pride Keeno for $425. A. L. Law, Ingessoll, paid $800 for a Junior Yearling granddaughter of Montvie Reknown, who sold for the Canadian record price of $14,100 in 1942. Hays Limited secured a heifer calf from $252 Montvie Lochinvar daughter at $525 Montvie Posch Lochinvar No. 1, bred by Mount Victoria Farms, went to M. F. Dellinger, Plain City, Ohio, at $2,800.

This is the third time that Montvie Bonheur Pietje B. has sold at public auction for a record price. In 1942, she was sold by her breeder, Mount Victoria Farms, Hudson Heights, Que., for $6,500, a Canadian record price for a female. Her purchasers, Martin D. Butch & Sons, Comstock Park, Mich., resold her last summer to Glenn L. Bancroft for $20,000, which mark has been exceeded since 1920 only by her present price.

PEA MEAL FOR PIGS.

In the feeding of swine, pea meal has been tested in varying quantities as a replacement for meat meal at the Dominion Experimental Farm, Brandon, Man. There are indications that 40 per cent of meat meal can be replaced by pea meal without reducing the efficiency of the ration.

Elect Officers.
Mrs. William Hutchinson was hostess at the annual meeting of both the Women's Missionary Society and the Women's Association of Elford United Church when the Rev. Stephen Duns presided for the election of officers for 1946.

The officers elected by the W. A. are as follows: President, Mrs. Wesley Mulcaster; vice-president, Mrs. Roy Barnett; secretary, Mrs. George Salter; treasurer, Mrs. T. McBeth; chairman, Mrs. Ernest Mulcaster; floral committee, Mrs. Albert Barnett, Mrs. Wm. Taylor, Mrs. C. P. Rhoads and Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. George Bullock; parsonage committee, Mrs. E. Baldwin; pianist, Mrs. Albert Elford; Red Cross general convenor, Mrs. Albert Barnett; sewing conveners, Mrs. Wm. Taylor, Mrs. George Pick and Mrs. George Hutchinson; secretary of Red Cross, Mrs. George Salter; secretary for soldiers' comforts, Mrs. Rhoads.

The president of the W. M. S. conducted the business period and the secretaries presented their annual reports. The treasurer announced that the allocation for 1945 had been met and a bale of clothing had been forwarded to the North.

The following is the slate of W. M. S. officers: President, Mrs. George Bullock; vice-president, Mrs. Albert Elford; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Elkin Anderson; recording secretary, Mrs. Elmer Blair; treasurer, Mrs. Roy Barnett; pianist, Mrs. Barnett; Christian stewardship and finance secretary, Mrs. Salter; temperance secretary, Mrs. T. McBeth; supply secretary, Mrs. Mulcaster; Associate Helpers' secretary, Mrs. William Arps; community friendship secretary, Mrs. L. Jones; Baby Band secretary, Mrs. Lloyd Quick.

Speaking for Ourselves.

By Joseph Lister Rutledge.
There may be theoretical support for the startling statement of Mr. Lister, acting Prime Minister, to the effect that the Crown does not hold its powers by delegation from Parliament. Had he been less reassured, Mr. Lister, whose acute appraisal of public thinking has often stood him in good stead, would hardly have made this statement.

Under the emergency of war, citizens were ready to accept limitations and to submit to dictation that they would not have borne under other conditions. They did so because they were quick to recognize the imperative urgency of the situation and the need for things done promptly even if they were not always done with the fullest wisdom or the greatest economy. In days of war, too, secrecy was a vital factor and reasonable men were ready to admit that a secret known to thousands is in vastly greater hazard than when shared only by a few. Therefore, the public was ready to concede the necessity of permitting Government Cabinet action without ready admission in Parliament. They are still ready to admit that a state of emergency does not necessarily end with the cessation of hostilities. But while the emergency may continue, its character changes. There is no longer the need for secrecy or immediate action.

This change in the general situation serves to set in relief the startling fact that in the six years from September 1939, to September, 1945, no less than 55,492 Acts originated by orders-in-council, or nearly 10,000 for each year. True, a heavy percentage of these dealt with routine procedures that hardly would have justified debate. But many were of the most vital importance to the people of Canada; yet neither the people nor their representatives had the opportunity to consider or debate them before they became law. In accomplishing this practice as a short cut to accomplishment, the people have conceded only so much. They have not conceded that there is an authority above the authority of the people in Parliament. Such statements as that quoted above fill them with some alarm because it suggests that a government may have long after they have ceased to be of first importance.

We doubt if anyone has urged that democracy necessarily results in the most competent form of government. What may be urged is that it is the best method, because it has the support of the whole people who, through their representatives, are aware of the problems of government and can share in deliberations and decisions. Conversely it can be urged that despite government is not necessarily the best of all governments. In the early stages of his career, it is said to have given Italy the best government it had enjoyed in generations. The obvious danger of delegating authority is not first involved with good or bad government; it is involved in the loss of a people that permits them to be led or driven as the people of Germany were driven.

The essence of democracy, then, is that people should be an active party in all the processes of government and should look askance at any words or any action that, with however good intent, tends to limit their sovereign powers. Even granting that we, the people, are not all wise and may not move with the competence of our leaders, let us have at least this wisdom — to make our own mistakes. — Liberty Magazine.

It has been emphasized in Ottawa, in no uncertain language, that Canada has been and is playing a most important role in the greatest drama of our time in what may turn out to be either the destruction of the so-called "new world order" after the war or the construction of such a new existence for the people of the world, with the development of the atomic energy being the basis for intense activities of the leading nations in efforts to harness this newly discovered power for the good of mankind rather than its annihilation. Indeed, Canada has played an amazingly important role in this current drama and time alone will be able to disclose all the facts since, it is said in Ottawa, this country alone has spent over $25,000,000 in this direction. Another interesting highlight, indicated in Ottawa is that "the villainess of the Axis Powers proved their undoing" in the last war since their "racial" laws deprived them of the discovery of atomic bombs.

Dr. Liza Meitner, a Jewess, discovered the secret of atomic fission while working in the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute in Berlin, Germany, and she was forced to get out of that country in 1933. She went to Denmark where she met Dr. Otto Frisch, also a Jew who had been dismissed from Hamburg University, with these two Jews continuing their research in Copenhagen and subsequently transmitting their results to associates in United States. Likewise, in 1934 Professor Enrico Fermi, an Italian physicist, was within 2/10,000 of an inch of the discovery of the secret of atomic fission, using 3/1000 of an inch of an inch in thickness, he would have found the secret five years ahead of the scientists of the United Nations. But the "racial" laws of Mussolini also forced Professor Fermi to leave Italy and he went to the United States where he continued to operate as one of the key men in the War Department amongst the scientists aiming to discover the atomic bomb or explosive.

As one Senator recently put it so well in Ottawa, "it would be well to bear in mind that later on when we take up the problem of our refugees, and this is a most timely thought for all Canadians in this season of 'peace on earth, good-will toward men.'"

Considering the significance of the statement in this capital that "two out of every five persons rely upon export trade for opportunities of employment" in this country, this being asserted lately by a Minister of the King Cabinet, it should not be difficult to understand why the Government in Ottawa seems openly anxious about having even a temporary agreement with Great Britain since it might be weeks or months before trade talks could be accomplished between Canada and the United Kingdom. So far it has been revealed in this capital that trade discussions would follow the loan negotiations between Canada and the United Kingdom.

There is every possibility now that the passage of war brides of Canadian troops abroad will be brought to Canada shortly in ever-increasing numbers. This has been indicated in Ottawa, where it has been pointed out that the hospital ships Lady Nelson and Letitia would be used for such purposes soon, with the Lady Rodney probably engaging in such operations later. It is held that the Lady Rodney could carry about 200 to 300 dependents of this sort each month, while the Letitia could handle about 400. Of course, this would be free of charge for the soldiers since every Canadian serviceman's dependent, such as a wife or child, regardless of nationality, is entitled to free passage to Canada.

Official information in this capital has disclosed that today the Civil Service Commission, supervising a personnel now of no less than 143,000, or a little more, has created a situation whereby the Government of this country is the largest employer of labour in Canada.

Canada's Postmaster-General, Hon. Ernest Bertrand, has stated in Ottawa that wartime bonuses to rural mail carriers have been paid under the authority of the War Measures Act, where the carrier establishes the fact that operating costs have increased due to conditions which could not have been foreseen when he entered into his contract. With the end of the War Measures Act, these wartime bonuses must cease, but provisions will be made to invite public tenders in each case where the carrier is not satisfied to continue at his original contract price.

Since the employment situation for veterans has been described as "more serious" in this country with official reports indicating that at least 23,000 no definite plans, it should be pointed out that in this capital it is expected that veterans are getting their full share of all Civil Service Commission jobs available in Canada. Indeed, from January 1st to October 31st of this year, a total of 7,711 veterans of the Canadian Armed Forces had been appointed to Government jobs so that practically every opening in the public is given to a veteran wherever and whenever this is possible. In the latest report in Ottawa, it is also revealed that pre-discharge interviews in October, 1945, of 97,436

The money has to be "raised", too.

When there's a barn to be raised a man's neighbors... sometimes a whole community... often pitch in and help him do the heavy end of the work.

And as for the money needed for materials, that, too... although few people stop to think about it... often comes from co-operation, too.

Four million or more Canadian "neighbors" pool a part of their savings in Life Insurance. Their premiums add up to a huge sum, part of which is available for farm and town mortgages, so that when a farmer, for instance, wants to build, or enlarge, or renovate, he can raise the money readily.

The Life Insurance business is strictly a "neighborly" business... a great co-operative enterprise which aims at the protection of the people by the people.

A portion of every dollar invested by the Life Insurance companies helps to finance farmers and town dwellers who occasionally need mortgage loans to realize their ambitions and get ahead. The remainder is invested in government and municipal bonds and other securities under government regulations. Every man who owns Life Insurance does more than safeguard the future of his loved ones... he also shares in Canada's progress.

It is good citizenship to own

NOTICE!

TAKE NOTICE that the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the Town of Essex intends to pass a Bylaw, 81 special meeting, at 5 p.m. on the day of December, 1945, to provide for the stopping up, sale and conveyance of all of Wile Street, in the Township of Essex.

AND FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that the Town Council williams that his lands will be prejudicially affected by such Bylaw and so applies to be heard.

Dated at Essex, Ontario, this 27th day of November, 1945.
E. BRETT, Town Clerk.

Up to the end of March 1945, Canadian ships had taken part in the sinking of 23 submarines, the probable sinking of eight more and the probable capturing of seven others.

G. H. S. Dinsmore, who told of a landing field at Waterville, N.S., whose land originally had cost $27,990 and expenditures for grading, smoothing, fencing, installing one runway and boring for water had amounted to no less than $189,885. So far he disclosed the best offer obtained was under $6,000. Col. Moore Cosgrove, Canada's official representative at the signing of the official surrender of Japan on the U.S.S. Missouri, has returned to Ottawa and he has brought with him historic articles of that never-to-be-forgotten ceremony, including "autographed pictures of all the officials."

As far as could be learned in this capital, immigration officials in Ottawa had not received any specific request for the general admission of Jews from Europe where many of these people are destitute. At the same time, Mrs. Lorna Orde Wingate, widow of the famous British soldier who had been killed in Burma, General Charles Orde Wingate, who served on the staff of General Dill, made a stirring appeal for the admission of the world's homeless Jews into Palestine.

The White Paper of 1938, which closed the door of Palestine to 150,000 Jews, will be thrown on the waste heap," she said in part in an address in Ottawa, contending that Palestine was a Christian's problem and a problem for the whole Christian world, hoping that Britain and her Allies would back the Balfour Declaration. The Wartime Prices and Trade Board of Canada, it is reported in Ottawa, has used 555 lawyers and paid $651,370 in legal fees in connection with prosecutions for violations of regulations of the WPTRB. SOUTH WOODSLEE

Mr. and Mrs. A. Murphy wish to thank all on their route for the lovely gifts and cards received during the Christmas season.

Miss Millicent Sevier, of Toronto, spent the Christmas week-end with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Sevier.

Mrs. M. Wright and Jean visited over Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Stan Allison and family, in Windsor.

Mrs. W. A. Kelly, of Woodslee, has been able to return home after spending ten days in Metropolitan general hospital, Windsor. She will still have to stay in bed for two months, during which time her many friends and neighbours wish her a complete recovery and a Happy New Year.

United Church Notes.
Sunday services at Ruscomb and Woodslee were well attended, and special music from the choir was much enjoyed. At Ruscomb the evening service was much enjoyed by all who were able to be out, especially the lighting of the candles and the sharing of the light to others.

The choir caroler's did well on Sunday evening and wish to thank all who responded to their visit. The members were quite disappointed at not being able to get to the village in time to visit all the homes before the retiring hour. After the program of singing, about twenty young people returned to Miss Weaver's, where a dainty lunch was served. All voted it to be the best Christmas carolling thus far.

We heartily invite all our people to worship with us at Woodslee and Ruscomb on Sunday next. This being the last Sunday of the old year, let us give God thanks for the past and ask for His blessing upon the future.

TO THE NEW YEAR
The year's been cut and labelled. And filed for daily use. There's the same amount for everyone for blessing or abuse. We can neither hear nor hide it; We can share it — and divide it; We can LIVE IT — we're INSIDE IT — With fulfillment or excuse. For we mark what we contact With a healing or a scar. And we fill it with a presence Of an earth-worm ... or a star. And -- we leave it bright and lifted Or sodden ... as a cloud. And the world has sensed the passing Of a mortal ... or a god.

All-Canadian Contest for Boy and Girl Calf Club.

Announcement has been made that the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada will again this year sponsor a special Judging Contest amongst Calf Club members throughout the Dominion in connection with the All-Canadian Selections of Holstein cattle. Prizes amounting to $1000 are being offered to the winners. The contest is open to all boys and girls who are this year showing Holstein calves in their clubs.

From amongst the animals nominated for All-Canadian consideration, a committee of judges will select up to six in each class. Photos of these selections will be published in the December issue of the Holstein-Friesian Journal. From these pictures, a committee consisting of the judges at the major shows throughout the Dominion will choose an All-Canadian and a Reserve All-Canadian in each class.

From the published photographs, the competing boys and girls must designate their choice for All-Canadian in each class. Points will be awarded for each decision that agrees with the official version and the prizes will be awarded on the basis of the total points scored.

Children Burned to Death.

Three children were burned to death in the little four-roomed home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Moisson, of Tilbury West, on Christmas Eve.
The house was totally destroyed while the parents attended midnight mass.
Followed Custom.
As has been their custom for many years the Moissons had gone to mass Christmas Eve with their oldest daughter, Jeanette, 11, who sings in the choir of St. Francis Roman Catholic Church, Tilbury.
They left the house at approximately 11:30 p.m., leaving Madeline, 9; Maurice, 4, and Dennis, 2 1/2, years, at home.
One coal fire in the kitchen was all that was left burning to warm the house. The cause of the fire is unknown.
Comber fire department got to the scene over what were almost impassable roads, but the house was too far gone for them to do anything.

Clyde Baker Injured.

Clyde Baker, owner of a storage-battery manufacturing plant at the corner of the Belle River Road and 11th Concession, was painfully burned about the face and hands, on Monday afternoon, when a pot of boiling tar exploded. He was rushed to Essex for medical attention.

Baker had just placed a gallon pot of hot tar on a bench and had partly turned away from it when it exploded, showering the molten tar into his face. There must have been some chemical in the pot, he explained. "I hadn't used the thing for quite a while. When the one I use regularly began to leak I dug up this old one," he added. While he is painfully burned, he is in no danger.

Old Resident Passes.

Mrs. Fanny Ann Greenhalf, aged 75 years, passed away in Metropolitan hospital, Windsor, on Thursday, December 20th. Burial was in Windsor Grove cemetery, on Saturday, with Rev. MAIDSTONE CROSS

A Happy, Happy New Year all through 1946.
Mr. and Mrs. Art McPharlin and family, of Detroit, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. C. Sexton and family.

Word was received last week of the death of Miss Anna White, of West Lorne, Ont., at the home of her niece, Mary (Mrs. Dr.) Hartfelt at Dutton, Ont. Miss White had many friends here and was highly esteemed and her death brought both surprise and sadness.

James Markham still has his arm in a cast.
Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Little entered at a family Christmas dinner. Pte. Cecil Campbell is home on his Christmas leave, from Camp Borden. John McAuliffe had his family all home for Christmas dinner.

We are pleased to report that both Vincent McCloskey and his grandson, Robert Kettles Jr., are progressing favourably and hope both will be able to be brought home from Hotel Dieu the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Florine McAuliffe and Christmas in Detroit with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Costend and family. "Spiri" Brown spent Christmas in Detroit with his sister, Mrs. Roy Holstein, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Holstein.

Compliments of the Season

With sincere Thanksgiving we can, once again, celebrate a Holiday Season, unspoiled by the hardships and heartbreaks of a nation at war.

Though we must now pass through that period of troubled and unsettled time which is the invariable aftermath of all such world shaking events, yet, still, we look forward confidently to a newer and greater era of true Peace, Security and Plenty.

Through an extremely difficult and uncertain twelve months, we have, under relieved restrictions, made our foremost endeavour to anticipate and meet your every requirement. For your co-operation and understanding of this situation, we say — THANK YOU.

We are sincerely grateful.

That your Christmas was happy and may the year to come bring still further relief from our mutual problems, is the wish of the Members and Official of the

The Way.

"I am the way," John 11:5.
When we are about to start out on a journey it may be that we have gone over the road many times, or that it is altogether new to us and quite unknown. In either case it is right and good that there be a road leading in the right direction, a definite destination, and some pleasure in, and zest for, the journey.
The unknown journey upon which we are about to set forth at the beginning of the New Year, faced the disciples, future and one of them said, "Lord, how know we the way?" Jesus, in the future, simply replied "I am the way." But, lofty as that reply was, it brought comfort, and was quite enough for the need.

It must have been arresting to Thomas when he asked concerning the way that he and the disciples should take, to be told by Jesus "I am the way." Yet Jesus knew that he was giving the most complete and satisfying answer possible. For the future is unknown to everybody, no matter what, to walk in the footsteps of Jesus, to act in his spirit. He himself had kept close to God, and he had found it sufficient to do the Father's will and to trust in the Father's care. The way was illumined for him and made unaskably plain. It is enough for us if we can follow Jesus. One of the greatest satisfactions is to feel that there is some reasonable hope of achieving an objective worthy of our effort. When one recalls that "God made man in His own image," and also the high valuation that Jesus set on every individual, he realizes that is in the mind of God himself is good enough. No one can be really satisfied who is content to live for selfish ends. Jesus expressed this great truth in the words "My meat is to do the will of him that sent me and to accomplish his work." To love God, one's fellow man himself, and to live for the setting up of that kind of world, is challenge enough for every one and a certain promise of satisfying reward.

It is a great and thrilling thing to start out on a journey that promises new sights, new experiences and new joys. There may be unseen dangers, should temper and trouble; which should temper our outlook and make us mindful of our dependence on our Heavenly Father's all-loving care. Just full knowledge that God has a place and a work for us, a future rich with new opportunities, new experiences, heights and depths and fullness of living. Dependent on our good Father for all things, we go forth, nothing that is lived unto Him.

"How know we the way?" asked Thomas. Jesus could not, or did not, tell him. No one can tell us what the future may hold for us. But Jesus did say to Thomas "I am the way." And to live in the spirit of the faith and the love and the purpose of Jesus is far better than to be able to look into the future.

May this be a very Happy New Year to all.
Rev. P. E. JAMES.

WHICH WAS RIGHT?

By R. J. DEACHMAN.

In a smoking car not long ago I was more or less a dumb witness to a strenuous argument which dealt with C. M. — General Motors Corporation — one of the largest, strongest business organizations in the United States, in fact in the world. Its products are known everywhere.

Said one of the speakers: "It is a great organization alright, but the big fellows get the best of it, the ordinary working stiff gets little."

"You are all wet," said the other. "I worked for that outfit for two years. They were efficient. The men at the top were efficient. They earned what they got. I wish our organization had had leaders who were just like that."

The scrap went on for some time. Usually one of the combatants turned to me and said: "Do you know anything about this?" I answered, "But I am in a position to think that the last speaker is right."

When I came home I looked up the facts. The figures here given are from the Annual Report of General Motors for 1942, the latest I have on hand.

Not equal to about half the national income of Canada in pre-war days. Cash dividends paid on common stock, $26,992,257.

Invested in the business $67,181,973. Now for the big pay going to the Executive Management Group. This comprises all the "higher ups" so to speak. How much did they get? It was equal to:

(1) 5% of profits earned for stock holders.

(2) 25% of 1% of the total value of business done, or

(3) 1% of total payroll.

How did General Motors use the workers in these years?

Here is what happened in the twenty year period, 1923 to 1942 inclusive:

— Payrolls in 1923 totalled 91,295.

— In 1942, under the impact of war, the number of workers increased to 314,141, and payrolls rose to $359,314,062.

Now, here's the problem: Even if the higher earnings of the executive group had been taken entirely out of wages and salaries it would have amounted to only 1% of total payrolls.

Weren't they worth it? Did labor get less because these men got more? Much of it came out of the consumer or the general taxpayer, for part of the 1942 production was war products which went to the Government, the bills were met by the general tax payer.

Then from 40% to 60% of the special remuneration went back to the Government in income tax, so a good deal less than 1% of the payroll was paid for the services of these leaders.

The real question is this: How much would the workers themselves be willing to contribute to another group who would organize, develop and expand a business until it reached the level now attained by General Motors? Labor could afford to pay a great deal. It has never been seen in paying its own leaders what it thought they were worth. Good leadership in either industry or labor is priceless.

THE ESSEX FREE PRESS, ESSEX, ONTARIO.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES.

By Dean Wilson.

Though it may not possess the popularity of appeal of other outstanding occurrences in this nation's capital, nor the financial and trade discussions which are being whispered about along Parliament Hill at this moment are of the greatest possible importance in the everyday affairs of every man, woman and child in Canada every day.

Their wider implications than may seem to be apparent on the surface, indeed, this may be the "big news" shortly after the arrival of 1946.

Already a financial agreement between the United States and Great Britain for a $4,000,000,000 loan by the former has been arranged and it is expected an even proportionally larger loan may be forthcoming from Canada with these rather innocent financial arrangements bound to influence the trend of economic developments for many years to come and far beyond their importance to the participants, being in the main aimed to establish a new level of prosperity for all mankind than this world has ever seen in the past several centuries.

Behind the condition of these financial transactions, which are easily the most important events under the discussion in Ottawa today, is the frank admission in well-informed quarters in this capital that the British expenditures were proportionally much greater than that of any other Allied nation in 1938 amounting to $88,350,026, but by 1945 it was $212,728,656, this in part, should provide some explanation why the costs of Government in Ottawa have risen to such great heights in the last few years.

It may not be realized by the average person but it is a fact that, whereas in 1938 the total number of employees of the Civil Service in Canada was 11,144, yet the latest information indicates that at the end of September, 1945, it was a total of 150,903. This has been reported in Ottawa where it has been shown that the total salaries in 1938 amounted to $88,350,026, but by 1945 it was $212,728,656, this in part, should provide some explanation why the costs of Government in Ottawa have risen to such great heights in the last few years.

The Divorce Committee of Canada's Senate has recommended the approval of no less than 179 divorces during the past ten years, having been 68 more than in 1944 alone, with a total of 212 petitions being received in 1945, 177 from Quebec and 2 from Prince Edward Island.

Dominion Council of Health has stated in Ottawa that there is a definite danger to small children by the use of radio-active paint or any paint with a lead base on children's toys. It is true that manufacturers do not use such paint, but reports indicate that parents have painted or repainted children's toys with these paints without knowing the poisonous effects these would have on young children who chew it off.

Dr. F. H. Leimborg, oil and fats administrator, has stated in Ottawa that there is a substantial deficit of supplies against requirements. In the light of these facts it is recommended that flaxseed and sunflower germ oil be increased and the rape seed and soybean acreage maintained.

He said, adding that the shortage of land and shortening which is a current complaint across this country, can be traced to a tendency to put too much power in the cabinet and too little power in the rest of us," said in part Senator John T. Hale, in Ottawa, during his comments on Government policy on housing.

It is interesting to note that Finance Minister Hildy had recommended to make any predictions about what might be forthcoming in the next budget, this being his reaction when he was pressed for an answer whether the flat 16 per cent reduction in personal income tax rates in the last budget, precluded any further relief in 1946.

For the first time since 1940, Christmas at Government House in Ottawa will find His Excellency, the Governor General, and Princess Alice celebrating without the presence of their grandchildren who have returned home to Britain.

Notwithstanding all the pessimistic stories circulating about the butter situation in Canada today, yet the latest report in Ottawa shows that creamery butter production in this country this year has been estimated at 294,493,000 pounds as against the 1944 average of 289,026,000.

As I understand it, a person with an income of $2,500 a year would not gain anything and I think there would be fewer applications and a great deal of duplication, effort and cost would be avoided if greater publicity were given to this matter," said G. R. Boucher, M.P. for Carleton Place, in urging the Government to plan for providing all Canadians with a pre-paid system of preventive and curative medical care. Legislation introduced by the House of Commons provides that the health insurance be operated gradually throughout Canada, providing that the provinces co-operate. The Dominion will make sizeable grants to the provinces for planning and organizing. These grants will be in proportion to the value of benefits that the provinces decide to make available to their people.

Most forums decided that such a plan be kept decentralized, so that local hands so as to prevent the unnecessary growth of central bureaucracy, provide a uniform standard of health care for all classes of people all across Canada, complete control by the Dominion is undesirable.

Next Month.

Starting January 7th, the Forums will discuss the value of farm organization on the community, the national and the international levels. The radio broadcast can be heard at 8.30 over CKLW.

Over five miles of trees and shrubs have been planted for demonstrating and testing various types and combinations as hedges at the Forest Nursery Station, Sutherland, Sask. The developed into a very fine and effective six-foot hedge in two seasons of growth.

Officers-Elect, Gesto Y.P.U.

Officers-elect of Gesto Y.P.U. are as follows: President, Harold Hall; vice-president, Evelyn McElroy; secretary, Donald McCallum; treasurer, Ray Calhoun; Fellowship convener, Grace Colenutt; with Bernice Claphy as assistant; missions convener, Jean Hall; with prairie Claphy as assistant; Citizenship convener, Max Calhoun; with Bob Colenutt as assistant; Culinary convener, Gerald Calhoun; with Catherine McCallum as assistant; Recreation convener, Peggy McCallum; with Gerald Calhoun as assistant; Publication convener, with Doris Colenutt as assistant; Social convener, Mary Colenutt; with Hazel Colenutt as assistant; pianist, Doris Elford, with Winnie Oliver as assistant.

The installation of officers will be held the first Sunday in January, in conjunction with the church service. On December 27th the Gesto Y.P.U. will hold a Christmas party at the Gesto Hall. The White Gifty will be given again this year.

In view of the current rise in unemployment in certain sections across Canada, two gentlemen living in Ottawa are of exceptional interest since they are organizing that there is no need having a alarm. In one statement, Lester Mitchell has disclosed in a letter to the capital that the current unemployment situation will likely show a betterment by a large margin by the present season, he has stressed that for the commencement of new projects. Then again, there is a severe shortage of materials in many lines. In another statement made in Ottawa Deputy Minister of Labor, MacNamara offered the belief that the general employment situation would improve during the course of this winter to such an extent that "we may easily have a next spring." In each case, there is to be noted a distinct optimism, the outlook in face of the growing lists revealing more men and women seeking jobs in some localities across Canada than there are jobs available, at least, at the present time.

When and if the government will discontinue payment of the wartime agricultural subsidies to Canadian farmers, people of this country may be surprised to find how much higher may be their food bills. This has been pointed out in Ottawa since lately there have been suggestions that some of these subsidies may disappear in time as more normal conditions of peacetime begin to prevail in this country and after all these are connected with the price control structure of Canada.

It may not be realized by the average person but it is a fact that, whereas in 1938 the total number of employees of the Civil Service in Canada was 11,144, yet the latest information indicates that at the end of September, 1945, it was a total of 150,903. Are Farm People Healthy?

By Alphonse Diemer.

On December 3rd the Farm Forum study groups all across Canada tried to find out just how much truth there is in the saying that farm people are healthier than city people. Their findings may be a bit of a shock to some of you. Forums found that the health of rural people is not as bad as rumors regarding military rejections would lead us to believe. On the other hand, it is not as good as the sentimental admirers of rural living would like to think.

For instance, the 1940 infant death rate in rural areas was 66 per thousand live births, while in urban areas it was only 49 per thousand. The food of farm people tends to be deficient in Vitamins B and C, but is fairly adequate in the other nutrients. Consumption of milk and cheese is lower than it should be, and insufficient quantities of tomatoes and the other Vitamin C foods are eaten to make up for the lack of citrus fruits which are too expensive for many farm families to buy.

Causes and Remedies.

One thing is certain, farm people should be healthier than city people. They spend more of their time in the fresh air and sunshine, although they do not have as efficient medical services as urban dwellers. The farmer does not do his days work in a noisy, fume-filled factory or in a stuffy over-tight office. But such facts seem to tell the farmer into the dangerous attitude that he doesn't need to bother taking care of his health. He forgets that it takes more than fresh air and sunshine to ensure good health.

Most important is a balanced diet, especially for growing children. The proper proportion of the daily diet should consist of protective fruits and vegetables, and high-grade proteins. But the cash-crop farmer, who buys to buy proper amounts of these expensive foods, as a result, an excess of cheap, starchy foods find their way onto the table. His family then suffers a lowered resistance to disease and chronic tiredness. Forums decided that a farmer can ever be excused for cheating his family with a healthful diet because he has at hand the soil and time it takes to raise all the fully-nutritious food his family needs for a balanced diet.

Poor Soils Produce Poor Food.

On the following Monday night, the Farm Forum learned about the close relationship between the quality of the soil and the quality of food grown on that soil. If the farmer is going to grow health-giving food for his family, he must be sure that his soil contains all the nutrients necessary to grow such food. Too many farms have been so badly "mined" by cash-crop farming that they are no longer capable of growing fully-nutritious food. Productivity on much worn-out land is not all right, they may even taste good enough, but a scientific analysis would show that they were lacking in some health-giving vitamins or minerals.

Almost as important as caring for the soil is choosing the right variety of crops to be grown. For example, Superior tomatoes and Northern Spynaps contain more Vitamin C than any other variety. Regent wheat contains almost twice as much Vitamin B as Garnet. Research in this field is just beginning.

The Farmer's Responsibility.

The farmer has the all-important job of growing food for urban people as well as for his own family. So he has the responsibility of seeing that the food he grows has the best possible nutritional value. Farmers can do this by safeguarding against water erosion which carries away valuable minerals from the land, and by planting the most nutritious varieties of seed where these are known.

What About Health Insurance?

On December 10th, the Forums discussed the Dominion Government's plan for providing all Canadians with a pre-paid system of preventive and curative medical care. Legislation introduced by the House of Commons provides that the health insurance be operated gradually throughout Canada, providing that the provinces co-operate. The Dominion will make sizeable grants to the provinces for planning and organizing. These grants will be in proportion to the value of benefits that the provinces decide to make available to their people.

Most forums decided that such a plan be kept decentralized, so that local hands so as to prevent the unnecessary growth of central bureaucracy, provide a uniform standard of health care for all classes of people all across Canada, complete control by the Dominion is undesirable.

It may not be realized by the average person but it is a fact that, whereas in 1938 the total number of employees of the Civil Service in Canada was 11,144, yet the latest information indicates that at the end of September, 1945, it was a total of 150,903. This has been reported in Ottawa where it has been shown that the total salaries in 1938 amounted to $88,350,026, but by 1945 it was $212,728,656, this in part, should provide some explanation why the costs of Government in Ottawa have risen to such great heights in the last few years.

The Divorce Committee of Canada's Senate has recommended the approval of no less than 179 divorces during the past ten years, having been 68 more than in 1944 alone, with a total of 212 petitions being received in 1945, 177 from Quebec and 2 from Prince Edward Island.

Dominion Council of Health has stated in Ottawa that there is a definite danger to small children by the use of radio-active paint or any paint with a lead base on children's toys. It is true that manufacturers do not use such paint, but reports indicate that parents have painted or repainted children's toys with these paints without knowing the poisonous effects these would have on young children who chew it off.

Dr. F. H. Leimborg, oil and fats administrator, has stated in Ottawa that there is a substantial deficit of supplies against requirements. In the light of these facts it is recommended that flaxseed and sunflower germ oil be increased and the rape seed and soybean acreage maintained.

He said, adding that the shortage of land and shortening which is a current complaint across this country, can be traced to a tendency to put too much power in the cabinet and too little power in the rest of us," said in part Senator John T. Hale, in Ottawa, during his comments on Government policy on housing.

It is interesting to note that Finance Minister Hildy had recommended to make any predictions about what might be forthcoming in the next budget, this being his reaction when he was pressed for an answer whether the flat 16 per cent reduction in personal income tax rates in the last budget, precluded any further relief in 1946.

For the first time since 1940, Christmas at Government House in Ottawa will find His Excellency, the Governor General, and Princess Alice celebrating without the presence of their grandchildren who have returned home to Britain.

Notwithstanding all the pessimistic stories circulating about the butter situation in Canada today, yet the latest report in Ottawa shows that creamery butter production in this country this year has been estimated at 294,493,000 pounds as against the 1944 average of 289,026,000.

As I understand it, a person with an income of $2,500 a year would not gain anything and I think there would be fewer applications and a great deal of duplication, effort and cost would be avoided if greater publicity were given to this matter," said G. R. Boucher, M.P. for Carleton Place, in urging the Government to plan for providing all Canadians with a pre-paid system of preventive and curative medical care. Legislation introduced by the House of Commons provides that the health insurance be operated gradually throughout Canada, providing that the provinces co-operate. The Dominion will make sizeable grants to the provinces for planning and organizing. These grants will be in proportion to the value of benefits that the provinces decide to make available to their people.

Most forums decided that such a plan be kept decentralized, so that local hands so as to prevent the unnecessary growth of central bureaucracy, provide a uniform standard of health care for all classes of people all across Canada, complete control by the Dominion is undesirable.

Next Month.

Starting January 7th, the Forums will discuss the value of farm organization on the community, the national and the international levels. The radio broadcast can be heard at 8.30 over CKLW.

Chicken or Turkey?

By Florence Brobeck.
Which will it be for your holiday dinners, chicken or turkey? Both are more plentiful (live, dressed or frozen) in our markets now than at any time since the first year of the war. Both make delicious dinners.

Turkeys seem best when roasted in the traditional American way, although young turkeys are good broiled. Roast chicken is a favourite, too, and there are many other ways to prepare this smaller fowl to make a fine dinner dish.

Low Temperature.
The secret of poultry cookery is low temperature. High temperatures toughen the meat. Regardless of the age and size of the bird and the cooking method employed, a low temperature cooks chicken and turkey uniformly tender and helps keep the juices in the meat. There is less shrinkage, the texture is better and the meat more attractive than when cooked by the old method of high oven searing, followed by moderate oven final cooking.

Preparation.
To prepare a dressed and drawn chicken or turkey for roasting, rinse the cavity with cold water. Unless stuffed and roasted immediately place the bird in the coldest part of the refrigerator wrapped loosely in waxed paper. Do not hold longer than one day.

When ready to roast it, rub the cavity with salt (one-eighth teaspoon for each pound of bird). Place enough dressing in the neck region to fill it out nicely. When using a hot dressing, let it cool before stuffing the bird except when the chicken or turkey is to be roasted at once. Fasten the neck skin to the back with a small wooden skewer.

Stuff the body cavity with dressing, but don't pack it. Fasten the opening by inserting skewers across it and lace it shut with a cord. Shape the wings akimbo style and bring the tips onto the back. Tie the drumsticks together and tie them securely to the tail. Brush the entire bird well with melted butter.

The Roasting.
To roast it place it breast-down on a rack in a shallow can. Cover the bird with a thin cloth dipped in melted butter or margarine. Set it in a preheated oven at the temperature it should have for its size. When about half done, turn the bird breast-side up with the cloth replaced over the breast. Spoon the fat from the bottom of the pan to re-moisten the cloth if necessary during the roasting. Remove the cloth for the last few minutes of roasting. Do not seal. Do not add water to the pan. Do not season outside. Do not cover except with a fat-moistened cloth.

Size. Buying a Turkey.
The ages not necessarily indicate the bird's tenderness of a turkey. Look for clean, waxy, crisp or discoloured skin and no red breast and legs. Well-fleshed appearance. Streaks generally plump skin on the breast. Not under the back, the quantity increases and birds are short body with the breast indicating a meaty bird. Broad show no discoloration. You should see a hen turkey if you want an 8 to 10 pound bird. Hen turkeys mature quickly and are usually better fleshed than toms of the same weight. Buy a tom if you want a 16 to 25-pound bird. They are at their best at this weight and the best choice for a large turkey.

Number of Servings.
Judge the size of the bird you need by the number of servings you want. If you buy a pound of meat per person (dressed turkey weight) you should have enough for two helpings apiece at the first meal and tidbits for a second meal.

Chicken Timetable.

For a chilled dressed and stuffed bird, taken from the refrigerator, follow this schedule:

For a three and one-half to four-pound chicken, the oven temperature should be moderate (350 degrees F.). Allow 40 to 45 minutes per pound, or for the entire roasting time two to two and three-quarters hours.

For a four to five-pound bird, moderate oven (325 degrees F.), 35 to 40 minutes for each pound, total time two and one-half to three hours.

For a five to six-pound chicken, moderate oven (325 degrees F.), allow 30 to 35 minutes for each pound, a total of three to three and a half hours.

To test it for doneness, move a leg by grasping the end bone. If it is done, the drumstick thigh joint breaks or moves easily. Do not pierce the meat with a fork. This lets the juices escape and dries the bird.

Turkey Timetable.
Chilled stuffed turkeys of various weights are cooked five minutes more per pound longer than turkeys which have been at room temperature for some time before going into the oven. Here's a general guide: for an 8 to 10-pound turkey, the oven should be moderate (325 degrees F.), cooking time 25 to 30 minutes for each pound, or three to three and one-half hours for the whole job.

For a 10 to 14-pound bird, use a moderate oven (325 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes for each pound, or three and one-half to four hours for the whole bird.

For a 14 to 18-pound bird, use a low to moderate oven (300 degrees F.) 18 to 20 minutes for each pound or a total time of four to four and one-half hours.

For an 18-pound bird, low oven (300 degrees F.) 15 to 13 minutes per pound, or four and one-half to five hours for the roasting.

For a 20-pound bird, use a low oven (300 degrees F.) 15 to 13 minutes per pound, or five to six hours of total roasting time.

Pointers.
Start the bird about one half hour ahead of schedule, for the turkey may take longer than you think, this also allows time to make the gravy, remove trussing cords and skewers and arrange the birds on the hot platter.

Take the turkey from the oven 20 to 30 minutes before it is to be served. This gives the meat a chance to absorb the juice. Keep it on a hot platter until it is served and limit your don't put the platter or water cress in a heated oven when you want to reheat the turkey; place the turkey in the roasting pan again for this.

Before putting the leftover turkey in the refrigerator, remove all the covering from it and put this in a covered bowl. Wrap the entire bird in waxed paper.

Don't let leftover dressing and gravy stand in the kitchen after dinner. Get them into the refrigerator as fast as possible.

Good Turkey Gravy.
3 tablespoons drippings
3 tablespoons flour
2 cups liquid
Salt and pepper
Pour the drippings from the roasting pan into a bowl. Skim off as much fat as possible; put three tablespoons of the drippings into a saucepan. Measure the flour into the fat, mix and blend thoroughly. Measure milk, hot liquid in which the giblets were cooked, or water, to make the mixture of these and liquid. Cook the fat and flour mixture over low heat stirring constantly, until frothy, then add the liquid. It becomes thick and thickened. Let Season wisely about five minutes, makes about. Serve very hot. This is a good turkey.

Canada Year Book — 1945.

The 1945 edition of the Canada Year Book, published by authorization of the Hon. James A. MacKinnon, M.P., Minister of Trade and Commerce, is announced by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

The present edition continues the policy of giving such space as can be spared to feature articles of special importance. Such articles give additional meaning and substance to the statistical and analytical material. In a very real sense, a perusal of the lists of Special Articles in this and former editions (pp. viii to xii) will show, they give to the Year Book Series an encyclopaedic value apart from its function as a statistical abstract.

Special Articles.
Among the special articles appearing in the present edition are: Physical Geography of the Canadian Eastern Arctic, pp. 12-19; Canada's Growth in External Status and Canada's Part in the Relief and Rehabilitation of the Occupied Territories, pp. 74-85; 225; Changes in Canadian Manufacturing Production from Peace to War, at pp. 364-381; International Air Conference, at pp. 642-644; The Wartime Role of the Steam Railways in Canada, at pp. 648-651; Canada's Northern Arctic, at pp. 705-712; The Democratic Functioning of the Press, at pp. 744-748; and the Activities of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board in Controlling Prices, Rents and Supplies, at pp. 895-903.

All these articles are sponsored by responsible authorities of the Dominion or Provincial Government Services with the exception of that on the press, for which material was supplied by Senator the Hon. W. A. Buchanan, President of the Canadian Press.

Other Features.
Because of public interest in the articles published in former editions of the Canada Year Book, the policy of reprinting such articles as are of continuing value has been approved, and in future a number of these will be made available each year. Information regarding those that can be obtained will hereafter be indicated in the list appearing at the opening pages of each future edition of the Year Book.

The Canadian economy has now definitely entered the transition period from war to peace, for, although the war with Japan has yet to be won, the necessary rigid controls that have marked the past few years already show some relaxation and, in respect of Social Welfare and Reconstruction, definite plans have now been projected and in some cases are in actual operation. Although the statistical lag is necessary such that for most chapters the record still lies in the period before V-E Day, yet the reader is kept abreast of developments by up-to-date textual analyses and discussions. This is more particularly the case in the Chapters on Social Welfare and Reconstruction, where developments such as Family Allowances, Health Insurance, and Post-War Planning for Full Employment are still in the organization stage. Comparable statistics of current operations have been compiled, even on a preliminary basis, such as the case of Family Allowances, these are included.

A five-year review of manufacturing developments for war needs is given at pp. 364-381. This serves as a general background for the Manufacturers Chapter and places in proper perspective the industrial achievements and contributions of the Dominion to Victory.

The External Trade Chapter has been considerably reorganized; several new features; the chapters dealing with primary resources have been brought up-to-date and attention is directed to all major trends; a new Selective Service organization is introduced into the Labour Chapter; Ap-

Lights Aid Egg Yield.

True value of artificial light in increasing egg production is not fully realized by the average poultryman. W. T. Scott, head poultryman at the Dominion Experimental Station at Harrow, states:

Mr. Scott says there are several functions associated with the use of lights in a hen house that are not generally known. Using lights to increase egg production has long been a sound, economical practice with most poultrymen, who have been under the impression that the longer feeding period makes for a greater consumption of food and a heavier yield of eggs as a natural consequence.

However, the true function of the light is believed by Mr. Scott to be the stimulating effect it has on certain glands that play their part in the process of ovulation with the result that more eggs are laid and a greater profit develops as a result of this stimulation.

Resist Disease Better.
Because of this all-round action there is a better resistance to disease and a higher fertility in the eggs that are used for reproduction. These are all important economic features that follow the application of lights in moderation.

Mr. Scott states that during the winter and early spring the active feeding period should be extended by the lighting to about 14 hours every day. Longer periods are apt to offset the advantages obtained.

It has been found by research at the Harrow station that longer periods of light have a tendency to increase broodiness. As a general rule two square feet of floor with the lighting circuit controlled by a clock to insure regular intervals of roosting and feeding.

Public Utilities Commission.

Monday, December 17th.
The Essex Public Utilities Commission met in the Town Treasurer office, at 7:30 p.m., with Chairman S. Francombe and Messrs. Johnston and Hines present.

Minutes were read and adopted. A discussion followed on use of the Water Works Department Electric flensing machine. It was decided that when repairs for same could be procured the fee to be charged would be $1.50 minimum up to one hour, with an additional fee of $1 per hour after. Fees to be paid Mr. Gormley or other town official, in cash.

On motion, the following accounts were passed:

Water Works—Receiver-General of Canada, tax, $21.47; Wm. Truesdale, salary, less tax, $129.89; Wm. Gormley, salary, less tax, $132.07; Canadian Brass Co., account, $27.48; J. T. Wing, account, $31.97; Union Gas Co., account, $16.95; Geo. R. Weller, account, $17.71; R. S. Malott, account, $11.06; Don Wilson, gas, $8.23; S. Francombe, trucking, $8; Essex Free Press, account, $19.38; Essex Hydro, account, $88.72; Essex Hydro, pole rentals, $51.50; N. Voske, labor, $22.10; G. Damm, labor, $22.10; Harvey Rose, labor, $28.60.

Hydro—Receiver-General of Canada, tax deductions, $40.63; Ray Hunter, work, $14.26; Northern Electric Co., supplies, $130.73; Burroughs Adding Machine Co. of Canada, service, $29.65; Bell Telephone Co., wire, $44.66; Ben-Wilcox Electric Co., wire, $44.66; H. W. McGill, salary, $164.15; James Warren, salary, $119.88; Don Hines, salary, $98.50; Gerald Robinson, rent, $15; Town of Essex, share of general expense, $200.

Indices I and II give latest figures on external trade and production available at time of going to press.

By a special concession a limited number of paper-bound copies have been set aside for ministers of religion, bona fide students and school teachers, who may obtain such copies at the nominal price of $1.00 each. Application with remittance for special copies must be forwarded to the Dominion Statistician, Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Ottawa.

Essex Town Council.

Monday, December 17th.
Council met in regular session, in the Council Chamber, at 8 p.m., with Mayor Francotte, Reeve Irwin and Councilors Cascadden, Shaw, Chase and Hutchingson present.

Minutes of last regular and special meeting were read, and on motion of Messrs. Cascadden and Chase, adopted.

Charles Maedel addressed Council to offer he had made some months ago a building of a Boy Scout Hall on town lot at rear of park, on Irwin Avenue. The proceeds from the Rotary house had not been near as high as the club anticipated and as the finances were too low for the undertaking, he asked permission of Council to withdraw his offer.

The Clerk read a letter he had received from the Clerk of Petrolia, requesting that a resolution, passed by the Council of Petrolia, be placed before the Essex Council for their consideration.

The resolution was: "That this Council recommend that Sub. 3 of Section 40 of the Assessment Act, R.S.O. 1937, Chap. 272, be amended to read as follows:

"The Council of any municipality may, without the assent of the electors, exempt a building from taxation, except for local improvement or school purposes, for a period not exceeding ten years, if the building is owned and occupied by officers or ex-officers who were on active service during the war of 1914-18, or war of 1939-45, in the Naval, Military or Merchant Marine forces of Great Britain or Great Britain's Allies."

After a short discussion, during which F. B. Goddard, Town Solicitor, stated he thought something would be done about amending Subsection 3, at the coming session of the Provincial Legislature, which will probably be held in February, the matter was allowed to stand.

Mr. Francotte stated that Mr. Chase had been requested by W. F. Stotts, owner of the Aberdeen Hotel, to request permission of Council to allow him to put a storm porch in front of the main entrance to his hotel. He understands it will take up only about two feet of the sidewalk.

Mr. Chase was given authority to grant Mr. Stotts his request.

The matter of declaring Wednesday, December 20th, Boxing Day, as a Civic Holiday, was brought up and on motion of Messrs. Irwin and Hutchingson, the Mayor was given authority to declare the day a Civic Holiday.

John Chase reported that he had acted on a request from Stewart Rupersmith Road, it had only taken one man four hours.

On motion of Messrs. Shaw and Cascadden the following accounts were passed: W. E. Beaman, salary, less tax, $140; H. Harrison, salary, less tax, $137; Wm. Kennedy, salary, $139; F. Eldridge, salary, less tax, $88.05; Receiver-General of Canada, tax, $65.50; Wm. Kennedy, catch basins, $14; Treasurer, postage, $10; $84; to pay election expenses.

$84; K. E. Brett, salary, B. M. & D. Brokenshire, Scarff Co., audit, $241.23; Essex Free Press, account, $19.38; Essex Farmers Ltd., account, $4.55; J. McLean, police, $10.50; County of Essex, gravel, $10.10; F. Eldridge, labor, $6.25; B. Deveau, labor, $1.50; F. B. Geddes, attendance, 12-day county equalization Court, $300; F. B. Geddes, trip to Toronto, and other expenses, 1945, $64.86; Essex Library, December, $8; E. Wilson, gravel, $7.75; Del Slot, repairing sidewalks, $55.25; Essex Hydro, street lights, $199.64; Union Gas Co., Town Hall, $11.10.

The High Goal.
No one can live a useful and successful life who has not determined a goal or objective for which to strive. The athlete who runs, whether in the hundred-yard dash or the marathon, must know his goal in order to perform intelligently. Similarly, the business-minded man, the politician, the actor, and the humblest labourer must have some definite point of accomplishment set. One may desire to head a business, another just to feed and educate a family, but each has a goal.

The highest aims are those which seek the high goal of perfection. Here challenge everyone, for its attainment comes not through great accomplishments in this material world, but through spiritual understanding and, through the knowledge of God and His spiritual creation, Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 3), "The highest aim must be reflected by man's life."

— else man is not the image and likeness of the patient, tender, and true, the One "altogether lovely," but to understand God is the work of eternity, and demands absolute consecration of thought, energy, and desire."

Others Are Asking?
Q.—Is there any way in which our club may obtain extra rations of sugar and butter for a reception we are having for returning ex-servicemen?
A.—Because of the large number of such receptions being held and the possible heavy demands on already short supplies of both these commodities, no extra allowance is made for such a purpose. If club members wish to contribute part of their own rations they may do so.

Q.—What rationed commodities may a Canadian take into the United States when going there on a visit?
A.—You will require an export permit for most of all kinds and for dressed poultry. Butter and preserves may be taken out to the value of $5, over which an export permit is required. Sugar up to five pounds may be taken without a permit. Applications for permit are made to Export Permit Branch Dept. of Trade and Commerce, 220 Queen street, Ottawa.

Q.—How does a Canadian discharged from the United States armed forces obtain a priority for the purchase of a suit?
A.—At the present time priority suit certificates are being issued only to members of the Canadian armed forces.

Q.—I am invited to a formal New Year's Eve party. May I buy a long dress?
A.—The regulations against the manufacture of long dresses have been removed and they may be made now in any color.

Q.—Last year we had New Year's dinner at a hotel and paid $1.25 for each meal. This year the price asked for the same kind of meal is $1.50. Isn't there any price control on meals?
A.—Yes. This hotel may not increase its price over 1944 level unless it obtains special permission from the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. If you will send the name of the hotel we shall be glad to have the matter investigated.

Penicillin from Canadian Farms.

Canadian farmers will soon be playing an important part in the production of such diseases as typhoid and dysentery. Milk sugar extracted from whey and fed to the penicillin mould from which penicillin is refined, will be used to produce the new wonder drug, streptomycin, the Dominion Department of Agriculture has announced.

Canadian drug manufacturers are understood to be planning full scale production of streptomycin in the near future. This drug is outstandingly effective against diseases caused by gram negative bacteria, comparatively few of which are suppressed by penicillin.

Production of both drugs in Canada has been made possible by the Dominion Department of Agriculture's organizing the collection of whey from cheese factories in parts of Eastern Ontario and Western Quebec. Transported in tank-trucks to a condensary in New York State, the whey is processed into milk sugar and whey powder. Most of this milk sugar and some of the whey powder returns to Canada, the sugar for use in drugs and baby foods and the powder for enhancing the vitamin content of live-stock feeds.

Tens of millions of pounds of Canadian whey have been converted to these special products in the past two and one-half years.

Mines in the Netherlands are mostly government owned.

Feed Brood Sows Well in Winter.

Many inquiries are made by farmers each year about weak and dead pigs in the spring litters and of sows without sufficient milk for their pigs. These conditions generally result from the improper feeding of the brood sows. It is good business to make sure that the brood sows will be well fed this coming winter, says E. B. Fraser, Division of Animal Husbandry, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

The main essential in the winter feeding of brood sows is to supply bone and muscle building feeds in ample amounts to maintain the sows in medium flesh. Bone building material in the form of a swine mineral mixture should be included in the sow's feed unless a mixed protein-mineral supplement is used. Muscle building protein is essential to the development of the unborn litter. The milk by-products, mixed protein concentrate, tankage, and fish meal are all good protein feeds for this purpose. Vitamins are also necessary, and here the most easily available feeds are well cured alfalfa and clover hay. One of the simplest ways of feeding the hay is to give the sows free access to it in a hay rack outdoors. When hay is not available or is of poor quality some other vitamin feed is a feeding oil such as cod liver oil. Then lastly, the major portion of the brood sow ration will consist of common farm grains such as oats, barley, and wheat. A mixture of the grains is desirable and care should be taken not to include too great a proportion of barley and wheat, as these might make the sows overfat and clumsy.

There are many combinations of feeds suitable for the winter feeding of brood sows. The problem in each individual case is to make use of the feeds available and combine with these such additional feeds as are necessary. Literature on swine raising which indicates suitable feed mixtures for swine can be obtained by writing to Dominion Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Wheat Protein.

A revised estimate now places the protein content of the 1945 Canadian wheat crop at 14.2 per cent as compared with the final estimate of 13.9 per cent for the 1944 wheat crop, and the 18-year average of 13.6 per cent.

A DAY THEY'LL TREASURE!

Ontario's ski trails mean fun for hundreds of friendly visitors from the States every year. We want them to enjoy themselves . . . so they'll keep on coming! Let's do all we can to make their visit a real pleasure!

WHAT CAN I DO? The answer is plenty! Here are some of the things anyone can do. These practical suggestions come from a well-known Ontario hotelman:

1. Know the places of interest and beauty spots in your district and tell people all about them.
2. When you write your friends in the States tell them about the places they would really enjoy visiting.
3. Try to make any visitor glad he came to Canada.
4. Take the time to give any requested information fully and graciously.
5. In business dealings, remember Canada's reputation for courtesy and fairness depends on you.
6. To sum it up, follow the "Golden Rule."

IT'S EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS . . . its good business!

Worth his weight in gold! The Province of Ontario profits to almost the same extent from tourist business as it does from the gold mining industry. It is up to each of us to see that it goes on growing.

This diagram shows how everyone benefits from the Ontario tourist income. Every dollar is shared this way . . . 1. Hotels; 2. Stores; 3. Restaurants; 4. Taxes, etc.; 5. Amusements; 6. Garages.

It works both ways! They treat us royally when we visit them . . . we can't do less than return the compliment. Remember that it costs money to take a holiday . . . so let's see they get a good return for every penny they spend.

"Let's make them want to come back!"

Would Prevent Sugar Price Inflation if Controls Lifted

Officials of the Canada and Dominion Sugar Company queried on an item which appeared in a morning paper to the effect that sugar prices "would bounce from eight to thirty cents within three weeks" if price controls were taken off, stated that the expert quoted must have entirely forgotten the fact that sugar is rationed in Canada.

In the opinion of the Sugar Company officials, if price control on sugar were lifted immediately but rationing allowed to remain in effect there would be little or no change in the price of sugar to the consumer unless the Government of Canada increased the prices of raw sugars to the refiners.

Small Increase Desirable.

The officials also stated that an increase in the price of sugar of 1c per lb. would be most desirable from the viewpoint of increased domestic production of beet sugar in Canada. An increase of 1c per lb. of sugar would be equivalent to $2.50 or more per ton of sugar beets. The major share of this, accruing to growers, would prove a tremendous stimulus to production of sugar beets in all areas of Canada where they are grown with the exception of Alberta. The maximum capacity of the factories in Alberta has already been reached so there could be no more beets processed there.

Another thing the expert quoted above seems to have overlooked is that Canada is a member of the Three Nations pool and our country's sugar supply is tied in with that of the United Kingdom and the United States. Boosting prices of sugar in Canada, therefore, could not produce any more foreign sugar out of the pool as Canada's share is allocated along fixed lines based on a percentage of the total sugar available for the three nations.

Sugar Still Short.

Since under rationing no greater supplies would be available to the public if price controls were lifted, there could be no possible inducement for anyone to offer higher prices and thus start a pyramid of inflation with respect to sugar. Furthermore, there would be no greater inducement toward development of black market operations than there is at present. Such operations in sugar up to date have been held to a very low point in Canada.

Officials of the Sugar Company, while they would welcome an increase of 1c per lb. in sugar prices as being of great benefit to the sugar industry, especially the farmers, during this difficult period, point out that the same benefits can be gained through two other means, either reduction of the Excise tax of 1c per lb. or a subsidy of equal amount to be paid out of the stabilization fund which has been built up by the sugar administrator since the advent of the war.

Government Could Help.

So long as world supplies of sugar are short of demand, rationing of sugar is indispensable in order to assure everyone of their fair share. The assistance given to the beet sugar industries of the United States and the United Kingdom by their governments resulting in maximum production are bringing the end of rationing closer every day. Canada would do well to follow the example of her partners in the pool by giving further assistance to domestic beet sugar production sufficient to assure maximum output.

Selecting the Mating Pen.

With the success of the poultry industry in Canada depending upon the quality of the poultry population it naturally follows that the selection of the mating pen is all important. Too often, this phase of the work is neglected with the result that improvement in flock quality is slow and disappointing, says B. F. Tinney, Dominion Experimental Station, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

All birds selected for breeding should have the general characteristics of health, alertness, vigour. Slight over-fat, sluggish birds should be discarded, so that the birds with the most vigour and alertness are those showing any evidence of white or peary eye. A clean-cut face and bright, prominent eye is a good indication of health and vigour and such birds should have preference.

In body type they should be broad with full rounded breasts. Flat or slab-sided birds, also leggy and awkward gaited birds should be avoided. Individual egg records if available assist in selection. Low producers should definitely be discarded also all birds that consistently lay small eggs.

Individual high laying records are not a reliable measure of the worth of a bird as a breeder. A high producing female from a family of low producing sisters is not likely to go far in flock improvement, but a grower of high producing sisters will in all probability produce daughters that will prove their worth from an egg-laying standpoint.

As the male is half of the breeding flock special care should be taken in his selection. He should be free from defects and abnormalities such as sprigs, stubs and split wings. The head is the best single criterion of quality and in the male should show health and vigour as denoted by a bright eye, and alert appearance and should be decidedly masculine in all aspects.

Care exercised in the selection of the breeding stock pays dividends in the resultant progeny and may mean the difference between success and failure to the poultry farmer.

Special Course at O. A. C. has Vacancies.

There is still an opportunity for returned war veterans and farm boys to enrol in the special "catch-up" first year class in the degree course in agriculture at the Ontario Agricultural College. This course in agriculture at the Ontario Agricultural College. This course is scheduled to start early in January, and there are still some vacancies open. It is planned to take in one hundred new students in this special class. The men who enrol now in the "catch-up" first year class will be able to enter their second year at the O.A.C. in September, 1946, and join the class that enrolled in September last, this saving a whole year in their studies at the Agricultural College.

It should be noted that this special class is not confined exclusively to war veterans, but that up to the limits imposed, farm boys with the necessary academic standing will also be accepted. Returned war veterans and farm boys wishing to take advantage of this opportunity are urged to make application at once to the Registrar, A. M. Porter, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

Cayenne Pepper.

Cayenne pepper is a product of a totally different plant from the one which supplies black and white peppers. Cayenne pepper is the ground pods of the different species of the Capsicum plant. Pods of smaller size are used entirely in picking and are known as chillies. What is known as the Guinea pepper includes many garden species, and together with the spur pepper (Capsicum frutescens) are the chief sources of Cayenne pepper, which is named for Cayenne, a town in French Guiana, South America. Originally a native of South America, the varieties of Capsicum are now grown in tropical and other countries both of the New and the Old World.

Ice Cold Water Bad for Live Stock.

In the winter time, as well as in summer, a liberal supply of good, clean water is a necessity for all animals on the farm, particularly dairy cows, but ice-cold water should not be put before them. It is important that the chill be taken off drinking water. Apart from the humanitarian point of view, feeding ice-cold water to farm live stock is bad practice. The animals will not drink enough water and the small amount they may drink clogs natural functions. Constipation, illthrift, and sometimes indigestion follow in the wake.

A heater in the drinking tank will not only avoid much ice chopping but will contribute decidedly to the health and welfare of the farm stock. Dip-water is relaxing and substitutes in part for succulent feed. Half a pail of tepid water has brought many a horse round after an immersion or after a cold hard drive. Swine do poorly on ice-cold drinks. Also many horses suffer from toothache, so that forcing an ice-cold bit between their jaws is an act of unintentional cruelty. Dipping the bit in a bucket of tepid water will obviate any suffering on the part of the horse.

Electric Motors for Use on Farm.

When an electric motor is purchased for any operation on the farm, the proper type of motor should be selected for the work involved. Electric motors are available in various types, each type having special features making them suitable for specific types of work. If the proper type is not selected for a certain job, the results will probably be unsatisfactory and the motor may be severely damaged, says William Kabisch, Engineering Section, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

In electric motors which range from 1/60 h. p. to 1 h. p. that will operate from 110 volt, 25 cycle, single phase, rural power lines, there are three main types of electric motors, namely — split phase, capacitor and repulsion, induction motors which have the following characteristics:

Split-phase: Low initial cost; no brushes; size range 1/20 to 1/2 h. p.; starting ability low due to poor torque for starting heavy initial loads; suitable for use on fans, washing machines, grindstones, corn shellers, grain cleaners or on any other job where the starting load or force is low.

Capacitor: Medium initial cost; no brushes; size range 1/60 to 1 h. p.; starting ability medium to good due to a reasonably good torque for starting under an initial load; suitable for use on cream separators, refrigerators, potato graders, shallow well pumps, fans, milk coolers, concrete mixers, drill presses, spray painters, or on any other job where the starting load of the machine is not excessive or more than twice the load of the machine after it has started to run.

Repulsion-induction: Initial cost is higher than other motors of the same size; starting ability very good due to its ability to produce four times its normal torque while starting a load; brushes on the commutator; size range 1-6 h. p. and larger; suitable for use on milk coolers, corn huskers, deep well pumps, meat grinders, grain elevators, feed grinders, etc., or on any unit where the starting load is heavy.

It is a general purpose motor that can be used on any job but is more costly than the capacitor or split-phase motor.

Hog Scheme Vote Overwhelmingly Behind Scheme.

The result of the voting on the proposed Ontario Hog Producers' Marketing Scheme, announced this week by G. F. Perkin, chairman of the Ontario Farm Products Control Board, shows that 98.6 percent of those who voted on the scheme were in favour of its adoption, and that only 0.7 per cent of the ballots being spoiled.

In all, 31,796 hog producers in the 42 counties of Ontario registered as being eligible to vote, and 29,757 of these actually cast their ballots, this being 93.9 per cent of those who registered. Of the votes cast, 29,353 were cast in favour of putting the scheme into effect, this being 98.6 per cent of those who voted, and 92.6 per cent of those who registered. Only 205 ballots were cast against the scheme, and there were 199 spoiled ballots.

Grey County, with 3,252 votes cast, had the largest number of producers voting. Of these, 3,233 voted in favour of the scheme, five voted against, and there were 15 spoiled ballots. In seven counties, Norfolk, Welland, Northumberland, Peterborough, Prince Edward, Grenville and Renfrew, the vote in favour of the scheme was unanimous in these counties. Huron County, with 21 votes against, had the highest number of ballots opposed to the scheme, with 1,582 voting in favour in that county.

The figures of the voting have been submitted to the Minister of Agriculture for his consideration under the Farm Products Control Act.

Britain Feels Loss of Churchill

By Lewis Miligan.

Letters from friends in England indicate that wartime privations are even worse than they were during the war. A friend who voted for the Labor Government, in admitting that the country was in a bad state, said that the loss of Churchill was a serious mistake. They have made a serious mistake, they are realizing what the loss of a statesman like Churchill, Eden and Lord Woolton means in the decline of national and international leadership. Churchill was a tower of strength and an inspiration to the British people throughout the war, and the mistake that they made was in assuming that they could now forget all about the war and its international consequences and return at once to internal politics. They were misled into believing that the nationalization of the Bank of England and of various industries would at once usher in a new era of social justice. Churchill did not promise them this, but he did promise practical reforms and a rebuilding of world peace and international relations. They were misled into believing that the nationalization of the Bank of England and of various industries would at once usher in a new era of social justice. Churchill did not promise them this, but he did promise practical reforms and a rebuilding of world peace and international relations.

But the British people were worked and hungry, and too many listened to the false prophets of ease and plenty under a socialist order. And they are still hungry. A Canadian friend, who recently returned from a three months' business trip to England, gave a very gloomy account of conditions in London and other large cities. He said the shop windows were all boarded up and that long queues of people, with depression written on their faces, were lined up waiting to get their small rations of food. Often enough, he said, those at the end of the line would find there was no food left for them. They were allowed a small portion of meat per week, and the one egg per month could seldom be obtained. He said there was more need than ever for sending old clothes and food to the Old Country.

Referring to the result of the general election, my friend said that many people voted for the Labor Government in the belief that Churchill would "win too easily" and that they wanted to give the Conservatives a "jolt." Some who admired Churchill as a war leader were afraid that he might develop into a peacetime dictator if he had too large a majority. Now they realize that he should have been left to "finish the job" so far as the peace settlement is concerned. With Churchill and Roosevelt out of the way, Stalin is the sole survivor of the "Big Three," and he is making the most of the personal prestige and power bestowed upon him as a world war leader.

But whatever may be the explanation of present conditions in Britain, the people need more than our prayers or sympathy; they need immediate help in the way of food and raw materials, of which Canadians have far more than they need. They were deeply depressed and disappointed over the United States loan, and they felt that it was a poor reward for all they had suffered in the war. At the outbreak of the war Prime Minister Mackenzie King declared that Canada would "stand at Britain's side," and at this time of economic distress Canadians must again go to the aid of the British people. Canadians have prospered in the war, and they will prosper in the peace by generously supplying the needs of Britain, as well as those of the war-stricken peoples of Europe. "Cast thy bread upon the waters, and thou shalt find it after many days."

MIXING BOWL

BY Anne Allan HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello Homemakers! Starting the New Year with good resolutions is often like admiring a jar full of cookies put on the kitchen table about three-thirty in the afternoon. Fifteen minutes later the children have been in from school, changed their clothes, helped themselves to a cookie or two or three, and then gone out to play. The jar of cookies which you thought would last all week, has been completely emptied!

If you weaken for a day, we trust that your resolutions will be reconsidered, just as the cookie jar has been refilled.

TAKE A TIP.

- The Homemakers' resolution:
- Plan meals around the daily essentials — 1 serving meat or fish or eggs, 2 servings of vegetables, 1 raw vegetable, 1 citrus fruit or tomato juice, 4 slices of whole wheat bread or whole grain cereals, 1 pint of milk or 2 servings cheese and a pat of butter.
 - Acquire that habit of using desirable working procedures.
 - Check on purchases within the family income.
 - Apply nutritive cooking methods for every meal.
 - Develop new serving ideas as well as attain standard products.
 - Show the ability to set an attractive table.
 - Entertain friends simply with ease and pleasure.

THE SUGGESTION BOX.

During a recent visit to Northern Ontario, we exchanged recipes with homemakers who have a high reputation for delicious food. From time to time we are publishing their "pet" recipes. Here are a few:

FUDGE CAKE (Mrs. D. G. S.)

- 2 pkgs. salted peanuts
 - 1 can sweetened condensed milk
 - 2 cups crushed graham crackers or vanilla wafers
 - 2 squares unsweetened chocolate
- Melt chocolate in double boiler. Add milk and blend. Stir in the cracker crumbs. Crush peanuts, spread half in bottom of greased pan, pour on the partially cooked chocolate mixture and press down. Spread remaining nuts on top. Chill to set.

DARK GUMDROP CAKE.

- (Mrs. L. M. K.)
- 2 eggs well beaten
 - 1 cup granulated sugar

Henhouse Floors.

Generally there are three kinds of material used in making the poultry house floor — cement, wood, and dirt. Cement is the best but to prevent winter, it must be insulated from the

- 1 cup butter or shortening
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 lb. gumdrops, cut with scissors
- 1 cup sweetened apple sauce (thick)

- 2 cups allpurpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 3/4 lb. Sultana raisins (boiled 5 minutes in enough water to cover, drain and cool)

- 1 teaspoon soda, dissolved in 1/2 cup boiling water

Mix sugar, butter and well beaten eggs, salt, cinnamon and thick apple sauce, half the flour and drained raisins. Add gumdrops to rest of flour and add to batter. Stir in soda and hot water last. Cook in a covered casserole for two hours at 275-300 degrees. Remove cover last 5 minutes to brown top.

BRAN MUFFINS (Mrs. W. M.)

- 2 heaping tablespoons shortening
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 cup milk (prepared dry milk or whole milk)
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup prepared bran cereal
- 1 cup flour
- 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder

Cream shortening and sugar. Beat in egg. Add milk, sift flour, add baking powder. Stir in flour until it disappears. Pour in greased muffin tins. Bake in electric oven at 400 degrees for 15 minutes.

PRINCESS CAKE (Mrs. C. D. M.)

- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1 cup raisins
- 1 cup thick sour milk
- 2 tablespoons cocoa
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon cloves
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- pinch of salt
- 2 cups flour

Mix soda with milk. Beat eggs, add shortening and sugar, continue beating, stir in sugar and raisins. Sift dry ingredients together and mix into bowl alternately with soda and milk. Pour into greased cake pan. Bake in preheated electric oven at 350 degrees for 45 minutes.

ICING.

- 2 cups icing sugar
- 3 tablespoons coffee
- few pieces of almonds.

Cakes in a Twinkling

By BETTY BARCLAY

That old adage "the longest way round is the shortest way home" does not apply to cake making in 1946! At last — "Mix-Easy" technique which produces a quality cake and no mistake. Only one sifting of flour — no creaming, shortening or of sugar and shortening — no separate beating of eggs. Three minutes of beating in all!

The result — a cake to be proud of — if you obey these simple rules: You must use the special recipe developed for this method — don't try it out on your old style recipes. You must use flour specially milled for fine cake making. Speedeluxe Chocolate Cake PREPARATIONS

Have shortening at room temperature. Grease pans, line bottoms with waxed paper, and grease again. Use two 9-inch layer pans. Start oven for moderate heat (350° F.). Sift flour once before measuring.

Measure into sifter:

- 2 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 cup granulated sugar

Measure into bowl:

- 1/2 cup vegetable shortening
- 1/2 cup buttermilk or sour milk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Have ready:

- 1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
- 2 eggs, unbeaten
- 3 squares unsweetened chocolate, blended with 1/2 cup boiling water

*To sour fresh milk, add 2 teaspoons vinegar or lemon juice to 1/2 cup milk; let stand in warm place for a few minutes.

NOW THE "MIX-EASY" PART

Mix or stir shortening just to soften. Sift in dry ingredients. Add brown sugar — force through sieve to remove lumps, if necessary. Add 1/2 of liquid and the eggs. Mix until all flour is dampened; then beat 1 minute. Add remaining liquid and chocolate mixture, blend, and beat 2 minutes longer. (Count only actual beating time. Or count beating strokes. Allow at least 100 full strokes per minute. Scrape bowl and spoon or beater often.)

BAKING

Turn batter into pans. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 30 minutes for layers. Spread with Sea Foam Seven Minute Frosting between layers and on top.

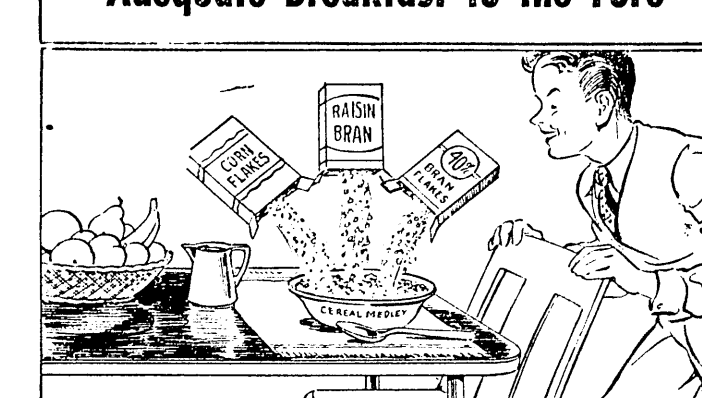

NOTE:

Mix cake by hand or at low speed of electric mixer.

Sea Foam Seven Minute Frosting

Combine 2 unbeaten egg whites, 1/2 cups firmly packed brown sugar, dash of salt, and 5 tablespoons water in top of double boiler, beating with rotary egg beater until thoroughly mixed. Place over rapidly boiling water, beat constantly with rotary egg beater, and cook 7 minutes, or until frosting will stand in peaks. Remove from boiling water; add 1 teaspoon vanilla and beat until thick enough to spread.

Adequate Breakfast to the Fore

By BETTY BARCLAY

Adequate breakfasts are important — very important. Don't forget this Mrs. Housewife and right now, it is part of your contribution to the war effort to see that members of your family start out for school or work with sufficient fuel for an active day. Even if you are one who worries about retaining that girlish figure — so fashionable today although so abhorred by artists and Mother Nature — remember your daily meals should include an adequate breakfast. Be the one who, as you drink your cup of coffee, can truthfully say, "I've had an adequate breakfast. Bring on the day's work!"

To add new interest for your family, did you ever set your breakfast table, buffet style? Have a plate of assorted fruits so that each may take his choice. Also serve a large wooden bowl of assorted breakfast foods so that each member of the family can create a cereal "medley." Later, serve muffins with a whole grain value — tender, delicious, tasty and easy to make. There are such muffins (see recipe below) which take the menu out of the ordinary class.

Breakfast is an economical and delightful way to entertain. Here's a suggestion for a main dish for your next breakfast party. "Salmon Savories." No preparation of bread crumbs is necessary for a crisp crust. Post Toasties will do the trick.

Order, Fertilizers and Take Delivery.

There are several reasons at the present time why farmers should accept immediate delivery of chemical fertilizers in order to ensure an adequate supply for the spring. For one thing, manufacturers have not storage space in their plants to build up supplies to meet the needs of all the farmers at one time, so that it is a wise precaution to take delivery now. Instead of waiting for the spring. Through war necessity, many farmers have demonstrated the practicability of storing chemical fertilizers on the farm during the winter months, and still more farmers are doing that at the present time. For the farmers who take delivery now, the Fertilizers Administration of the Agricultural Supplies Board make the following suggestions:

1. Store fertilizers in any dry building with floor above the ground. Do not store in a stable or in space directly above, or on a concrete or dirt floor. Planks placed on 2 x 4's make an ideal base on which to pile the bags. When possible, cover with dry hay or straw.

2. Stack bags closely together to reduce circulation of air from which fertilizers absorb moisture.

3. Do not store higher than 8 to 10 sacks deep and cover if necessary with such material as dry hay or straw.

4. Keep broken bags separate from the main pile. Loose fertilizer is likely to absorb moisture and damage the good bags.

5. Make separate stacks of mixed fertilizer and each fertilizer material. This makes it easier to clean up any spilled fertilizer and keep it separate. 6. Keep ammonium nitrate and nitrate of soda away from hay, feeds, and organic meals to prevent fire. For the same reason, burn all empty paper bags from which sodium nitrate and ammonium nitrate have been emptied.

7. Keep farm animals away from the storage pile.

8. If fertilizer cakes hard enough, so that ordinary handling does not break it, drop the bag on each edge and both sides from waist height and roll it over a few times.

The extra fertilizer the farmer can get for next spring's crops by ordering and accepting delivery now will more than pay for the trouble of storing it over the winter.

Cotton is Ancient.

Of all products of a sub-tropical climate, Cotton is commercially the most important, and dates back to the earliest times of which there is any record. The first mention of it is found in Indian books written more than 800 years before the Christian era. The first European writer who is known to have mentioned it is Herodotus, who wrote in the 5th century, B.C. He spoke of a tree which he knew by repute as growing in India, and bearing, instead of fruit, a wool like that of a sheep.

Chung-hua-Min-Kuo stands for: Republic of China.

Bran Molasses Muffins.

- 3/4 cup sifted flour
- 2 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 egg, well-beaten
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1/2 cup molasses
- 3 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening
- 1 1/2 cups 40% bran flakes

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Combine egg, milk, and molasses, add to flour mixture, add shortening, then mix only to dampen flour. Fold in cereal. Fill greased muffin pans 2/3 full. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) 15 to 20 minutes, or until done. Makes 8 large muffins.

Fruited Bran Muffins. Add 1/2 cup raisins or finely chopped dates to flour mixture.

Note: 1/2 cup water may be substituted for 1/2 cup milk in above.

Salmon Savories

- 1 cup flaked canned salmon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- Dash of pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon scraped onion
- 1 egg, beaten with 4 tablespoons milk and dash of salt

Post Toasties

Crush 1 1/2 cups Toasties. Add salmon, seasonings, onion, and 2 tablespoons egg mixture, mixing well. Shape into 2-inch cakes. Roll in additional Toasties, slightly crushed; then in remaining egg mixture; and roll again in Toasties. Fry in skillet in small amount of fat, browning both sides. Serve with celery sauce or creamed peas. Makes 8 savories. Makes 4 servings.

Our Independence.

The desire for freedom and independence is universal. The recognition and realization of true freedom and independence can be found only in the realm of spiritual being.

We may have been taught that only Christ, Jesus could do those things that are referred to as miracles, because of his recognized spiritual birth; but what about the proofs the earlier prophets gave, or the early Christians? Because of his purity of heart and loyalty to God, Daniel emerged unharmed from the den of lions into which he had been thrown by his enemies (Daniel 6). He proved his freedom from hate and animality. When Peter was thrown into prison and put in chains (Acts 12) God's power was available to free him. He proved his freedom when he rose at the command of "the angel of the Lord" and found himself without chains, outside the prison walls and able to rejoice his friends.

We find true independence, then, not by struggling to get rid of something or someone, but through the realization of our oneness with God, the divine source of being.

In her principal book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mary Baker Eddy writes (p. 186), "Christian Science discards material beliefs, and the understanding of spirit, and the thoroughness of this work undermines health."

In the Preface of Science and Health Mrs. Eddy writes (p. vii), "Truth, independence of doctrines and time-honoured systems, knocks at the portal of humanity." Christian Science reveals and makes practical the truth of the Holy Scriptures.

This truth understood, acknowledged, and lived, brings independence from all that is evil, debased, and enslaving, and leads to confidence, harmony, health and happiness. A healthy body, a successful business, happy family relations, a wholesome outlook on life, are these not results of gaining the spiritual understanding which frees us from wrong desires, false suggestions and delusive illusions? — Christian Science Monitor.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 4, 1946.

TOWN and VICINITY

—James E. Jones, B.A., of the Department of Finance, Ottawa, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Jones, of Essex, left on Saturday for London, England, as a member of the staff of advisors to the Canadian Delegation to the meeting of the United Nations General Assembly, which opens there on January 10th.

—The I.O.O.F. and Rebekah New Year party, held on Friday night, was a decided success, there being 25 tables of euchre in play. The prize winners were: Ladies, 1st, Mrs. H. Hyland; 2nd, Mrs. O. Bertin; consolation, Mrs. H. Mulcaster; Gentles, 1st, W. Mulcaster; 2nd, Ione hands, D. Niehls; consolation, Thomas Round- ing. Door prize, Walter Anger. Spot dancing prizes were won by Roger Workman and partner, Miss Dorothy McKenzie, and Oliver Rounding and Mrs. Fred Mitchell for the square dance. The two lodges are planning another party for late this month.

—A New Year's dinner and family reunion was held at the home of G. R. Brinacombe, Irwin avenue, on New Year's day. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brinacombe and children, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Brinacombe and children, Miss Verna Hickmott, of Kingsville; Mr. and Mrs. Burton Brinacombe, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brinacombe, of Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Brinacombe, Lee Brinacombe, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gulliver and daughter, of Essex.

—Visitors at Henry O'Connor's for Christmas were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dougherty and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Backer, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Connor, Miss Ciel O'Connor, all of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry O'Connor and family, of Windsor. A Correction.

—In an obituary item of the late Henry Swabe, we stated that the funeral service in town was conducted by Rev. J. H. Whealen. This was an error, as it should have been Rev. F. Wakeling. We are sorry.

—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd DeLine had as Christmas guests, Rev. and Mrs. Ian Bain and family, of Kankakee, Ill.; also Mrs. K. Allen, of Toronto. On Thursday evening last, about twenty friends gathered for a social evening, followed by a short message from Rev. Bain.

—Seaman 1st class Leon C. Davis, who spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Davis, has returned to his U.S.N.R. duties at Great Lakes, Ill.

—Pat Whealen has returned to Western University at London, after spending the holiday vacation with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Whealen. —Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Johnston entertained on New Year's afternoon and evening, to compliment R. J. Cutting and J. D. Cutting, who have recently returned from overseas.

—Christmas week-end guests with S. W. and Mrs. Johnston were Mr. and Mrs. Alton B. Hayward, of Custer, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Britenbecher, of Dearborn, Mich., and Dr. F. H. Hillebrand, of Pontiac, Mich. Mrs. Hillebrand was called to Virginia, Minn., to be at the bedside of her father, who was seriously ill.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Layson have received word from their son, John Jr., of the Canadian Army, that he would arrive in Halifax, on the Mauretania, but would go to his wife's home at Sydney Mines before coming to Essex.

—Ward Steed, for years a mechanic at the Essex Farmers' Garage, has severed his connection with that firm and is now with the Essex Motor Sales.

—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Plant received a telegram on Wednesday, from their son Edwin, of the R.C.A.F., stating he had landed at Halifax, on the Mauretania.

—Tom Plant, a student at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, spent the Christmas holidays at his parental home.

—A small but earnest group representing all denominations, met in the Salvation Army Citadel on Monday at 11 p.m. to spend the final moments of 1945 in thought and meditation. Following the singing of some favourite hymns, a message that provoked much thought of the importance of giving Christ pre-eminence in daily living, for He alone knows the future. Despite the chilly atmosphere all listened attentively to the last song of consecration. Remember to come back again next Tuesday for United Week of Prayer Service. Higher temperature guaranteed.

—A Shooting Accident. —Dan Sutton of Windsor while visiting his friend Jim Rupert over New Year's Day, was shot in the foot when his shot gun accidentally discharged while they were walking along the road. The shot badly mangled the great toe on his right foot, but it is thought the toe will be saved. He will be laid up a couple of months or so.

—Miss Elaine Roberts is on the sick list.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rupert and baby son have returned to their home in Windsor after spending the past three weeks at their parental homes in town.

Hold Annual Family Re-Union.

—The members of Mrs. Charles Roberts family met at her home on Medina avenue on Tuesday New Year's Day for their annual family get-together. Those present were Myron and his wife who live with the mother; Mr. and Mrs. George Buhler, of town, and their daughter, Mrs. Don Murray, and her husband, of Dearborn, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parent, of Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Phelps and their two children, of Chatham; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Queen and two daughters; Mac Robinson and Miss Margaret Steed; Garnet Queen, wife and son, Cayce; and Mrs. James Cordery and baby daughter Lynn; Earl Roberts and son Maxwell; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Rupert and son; Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Roberts and daughters Doris and Mary, all of Essex, and William Fox of Amherstburg.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Connor received a letter from their son Dan, in Oldenburg, Germany, last week. Dan wishes to thank the Ladies' Auxiliary of Essex for the lovely box he received from them just before Christmas.

—The Mission Circle of the Essex Baptist Church will meet in the prayer room of the church on Tuesday, January 8th, at 3 o'clock. All the ladies of the church are invited to enjoy this hour with us.

A Happy New Year.

Last year I said I hoped to be home and wish all my friends a Merry Christmas, and I pretty nearly made it, but am just as tickled to wish all a Happy New Year. It is great to be home, but I haven't got my sea legs yet, but expect to be able to get down town in about three weeks. I am not going to try to express my thanks for all the wonderful gifts I have received during the past five years, nor for all the kindly visits made me while in the San, nor am I forgetting the many organizations and the clergy who were so thoughtfully attentive. My sincere thanks and best wishes to you all for a Happy New Year.

GRANT GAY.

THANKS!

Gordon Townsend, Grace Hospital, Windsor, extends his thanks and appreciation to Central Lodge, A. F. & A. M., Navy Lumber Co. and employees, the Bowling Club, Church groups, friends and neighbours who have so kindly remembered him while confined to hospital. To all I say Thanks, and a Happy New Year. Your kindness will ever be remembered. Hoping to soon be home again, when I can personally say Thanks again.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Laura Myrtle Taylor, who passed away five years ago, January 3rd, 1941.

Peaceful be thy rest, dear mother, It is sweet to breathe thy name, In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same. Her charming way and smiling face, Are a pleasure to recall, She had a kindly word for each And she died beloved by all.

—Sadly missed, but fondly remembered by husband and children.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear mother, and wife, Mrs. Melvin White, who passed away ten years ago, January 4th, 1936.

Sleep on dear mother, it has been ten long years Since you left our hearts filled with sadness and tears; Yours was a heart that was blithe—some and gay, Scattering sunshine all along the way; You know how we loved you, and yes, love you yet, Though God took you from us, we cannot forget.

—Ever remembered by her husband, son and family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Minnie Irene Francotte, who passed away one year ago, January 4th, 1945.

God knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain, He knew you never would get better In this world again.

He saw the road was getting rough, The hill was hard to climb, So He closed your weary eyelids, And whispered "Peace be thine."

And while she lies in perfect sleep, Her memory we shall always keep.

—Fondly remembered by her husband and family.

"Lost Weekend" Top Picture.

New York film critics named Paramount's "The Lost Weekend" as the best motion picture of 1945 this week, and selected its star, Ray Milland, as the best actor on the basis of his performance in the adaptation of the Charles R. Jackson novel.

Billy Wilder received the best-director award for his direction of "The Lost Weekend." The critics voted Ingrid Bergman the best actress for her performance in "The Bells of St. Mary's" and "Spell Bound."

Special awards went to "The True Glory" and "The Fighting Lady" as the best factual films.

The winners will receive scrolls at the critics' 10th annual award party January 20th, and the ceremony will be broadcast over an American Broadcasting Company network.

Right Handers Defeat Southpaws.

On New Year's Day the right handers gained a decisive victory over the left handers, tying the series at one game apiece. It was rather a one-sided contest, in which the right handers stole all the play, winning all three games. Bryce Lickman and Roy Johnston led the winner's attack, both having series of over 500. George Ash, Clarence Wright and Gamet Queen, the other right handers, also had a very good night and their efforts were good enough to take the left's by over 150 pins. Al McDermott led the left handers and was the only man to hit 500.

The leftys are now a bit disappointed today over their defeat, and blame the holiday season but we know different don't we.

Life Insurance Does Its Job.

A NEW YEAR REVIEW.

By John D. Buchanan, President of The Canadian Life Insurance Officers' Association.

"Now that the war is over, the four million or more Canadian life insurance policyholders will naturally be interested in the part played by the companies during the period of hostilities, as well as the present position of the life insurance industry.

Part played in Financing the War. The life insurance companies, realizing that the cost of an all-out war would be several times higher than that of the first Great War, gave full support to the Government through the various War Loan and Victory Loan campaigns. The total amount of policy holders' funds invested in the Ninth Victory Loan was $234,720,000 and for all War and Victory Loans was over $1,500,000,000.

These vast investments were possible only because of the continuous efforts of the companies to carry on their regular business effectively. Throughout the war policyholders were urged to continue saving through life insurance and people were advised to procure insurance coverage where needed, with the result that during this period Canadians placed over $235,000,000 of their savings each year in life insurance, on the average. The amount of life insurance protection in force increased from $6,700,000,000 to nearly $10,000,000,000. Since a great deal of the money paid in premiums would otherwise have entered the spending stream, it is evident that the efforts made by the life insurance companies assisted greatly to keep prices in general under control.

The field staffs of the companies played an important part in the organization of the loan campaigns and in the actual canvassing. About 2,300 life insurance men gave up their full time to the sale of Victory Bonds. Their experience, sales ability, and the spirit in which they entered into this work contributed in no small degree to the overall success of the loans.

National Stability.

When it is recalled that most people who are gainfully employed are insured in one or more companies, it will be realized that the effect on the national economy of payments to policyholders and beneficiaries is considerable. Life insurance money is paid out to homes at times when the need is greatest. This is true not only in death claims, which provide financial support of the wife and family, but in the case of funds utilized by the policyholder when injury, illness and unemployment bring distress, or when he reaches the age of retirement and wishes to enjoy his leisure. In the year 1945 alone, some $160,000,000 was paid to Canadian policyholders or beneficiaries, and for the period of the war, total payments amounted to about a billion dollars. It is impossible to measure the importance of these sums in keeping homes intact, in providing the means for the care of children, in supplying funds for education, in relieving government and charitable institutions of many problems that they would otherwise face, and in preserving the dignity of the individual citizen.

During the war the number of deaths among Canadians totalled over 650,000, and of these more than 37,000 were persons who served in the armed forces. It is interesting to note, however, that the civilian death rate was lower than in pre-war years. This fact may occasion a certain amount of surprise inasmuch as the vast movement of both troops and civilians has a tendency to spread infectious diseases, and a large proportion of the population suffered fatigue from overwork and increased worry. The improvement was due, first, to advances made in medicine, including the increased use of sulfa drugs and penicillin, the greater knowledge of the use of blood plasma and transfusions, and the mass employment of X-rays; second, to the excellent work done by public health authorities in the control of infectious diseases; third, to the steady incomes of the people; and fourth, to the trend towards better care of health on the part of individuals.

Public Health: Nutrition.

The life insurance companies have always endeavoured to make a real contribution of the public health field and they were particularly active in the matter of nutrition during the war. For example, they published and distributed nearly five million copies of several attractive booklets, "Food for Health in Peace and War," "What to Eat to be Healthy," and "What They Eat to be Fit," etc., which had been prepared by a Joint Committee representing the Canadian Medical Association and The Canadian Life Insurance Officers' Association. They hope this and other activities spurred the trend toward better care of health on the part of individuals, and they are confident they have the support of the policyholders in this work.

The Financial Strain of War. When war was declared most policies were free of war restrictions in respect of the life insurance benefit. It was not until the actual outbreak of war that he companies placed war clauses in new contracts. Consequently a large proportion of the men who entered the armed forces had life insurance coverage. The claims paid on account of death from overseas service amounted to about $30,000,000. With the cessation of hostilities, life insurance policies are again being issued by most companies without war restrictions.

Another effect of the war was in the matter of interest rates on life insurance investments. The interest yield on new investments from year to year was much lower than in pre-war years because the companies wanted to give all possible support to the war effort. The extent of this co-operation can be seen from the fact that at the end of 1939 government bonds constituted only about 11% of the total assets, and this figure has risen until it is now in excess of 40%.

Since life insurance contracts cover long periods of time, in which there may occur wars, epidemics and depressions, the companies provide substantial contingency funds for emergencies and generally conduct their affairs on a conservative basis.

There were certain favourable developments which contributed towards the strengthening of the companies' position. One was the lowered death rate among civilians which partly compensated for the large amounts paid in war claims. There was also an improvement in some older investments as a result of increased business activity, which served to offset to some extent the reduced interest rate. In addition with the growth of the business and continuous efforts towards economy of management, the companies have been able to operate at a lower rate of expense. While war represents a time of strain and loss of earnings to the life insurance business, yet, on account of the excellent status of the companies when the war broke out and the favourable factors mentioned above, they have been able to maintain a strong financial position.

Canadian People Want Security.

There never was a time when people were more concerned about security for their families and themselves. A striking evidence of this fact is the rate at which new life insurance has been purchased. These new sales, moreover, have been made in the face of conditions that were not wholly favourable. The ranks of the life underwriters were greatly thinned through enlistments, a large number of men who ordinarily would be in the market for life insurance were overseas; civilians had higher taxes than ever before, were investing heavily in Victory Bonds, and in addition, were contributing substantially to various charities. However, during the year 1945 the total new business issued amounted to over $950,000,000, and during the six years of the war the business in force in Canada increased nearly 50%. These figures do not include the extensive foreign business of Canadian life insurance companies; more than one-third of all the policies in force in Canadian companies are held outside Canada.

It is evident that people are savings-conscious and have developed habits of thrift. Doubtless the six years of campaign for war savings certificates and government bonds, together with the work done by life insurance field men, have contributed a great deal towards the education of the public in this direction. This is a most healthy situation from the national as well as the individual standpoint, and every effort should be made in these post-war years to encourage people to keep their government bonds and war savings certificates and to maintain their life insurance.

This is a most healthy situation from the national as well as the individual standpoint, and every effort should be made in these post-war years to encourage people to keep their government bonds and war savings certificates and to maintain their life insurance.

While the facilities of life insurance have been widely and effectively used by Canadians to provide for their own security, a suggestion has been made in certain quarters that the business would function more effectively if it were nationalized. Governments have attempted on many occasions in the past to carry on the business of life insurance, but never have their efforts equaled in efficiency the results achieved by the present competitive system of life insurance as carried on in Canada. In this connection it is of interest to recall the recent announcement of Sir Stafford Cripps on behalf of the new Labour Government in Great Britain to the effect that the Government did not propose to nationalize the British insurance companies.

The agency system for developing life insurance in the interests of the public was never in higher standing than today. No matter how favourably life insurance is regarded, people rarely buy it voluntarily. To meet the complicated conditions of modern society, life underwriters in Canada today are more highly trained than ever before; the needs of men and women necessitate a broad knowledge not only of life insurance but of business and family problems on the part of the insurance man.

In view of the public's greater quest for security, there has naturally been wide discussions of social security schemes. Many of these plans have a place in modern life, and the life insurance companies will support any plan which is good for the Canadian people. It should be borne in mind that measures for social betterment should be so designed that they do not interfere with the ambition or incentive of people to do good work, since the future of Canada depends both on the quality and quantity of the work done by its citizens. Furthermore, it must be remembered that all social security benefits are paid from taxes raised among the workers of the country and there is, therefore, a definite limit to the amount which can be provided through social security. The individual, by his own initiative and enterprise, must, through personal savings and life insurance, take care of himself and his family above a mere subsistence.

In considering the problems of security for the people of Canada, international affairs assume a greater importance than ever before in history. In this way Canada was spared from bombing and large-scale property destruction and distress to the civilian population. However, thousands of Canadian homes were saddened through the loss of sons and husbands on active service and our sympathies go out to all of the families who have made this great sacrifice, and to all men who will carry war disabilities for years to come.

Men of middle age or over have passed through two great wars. Surely the experience of seeing such terrible sufferings and hardships in the countries ravaged by war, and the great losses sustained by families here in our country, have taught us the need of doing everything possible to prevent another such period of wholesale destruction. People everywhere must learn to get along with their neighbours, and to realize the fact that spiritual values rather than material values are the important things in life. The great business of all of us is to bend every thought and effort to the end that such a scourge as the world has suffered in the last decade will never again be visited on mankind.

All conditions now point to continued healthy development of the life insurance business in Canada. War experiences undergone by so many Canadians increased their appreciation of life insurance as a safeguard and particularly of the strength and reliability of the companies doing business in Canada. The industry now stands ready to increase the protection, and the services it offers to keep pace with the growing prosperity and importance of Canada.

Q. What is the ceiling price I can charge for grade A large eggs?

A. The maximum retail price for the farmer to the consumer for grade A large eggs is 56 cents a dozen.

Q. Can you tell me how much canned meat has been shipped from Canada to European countries recently?

A. The last figures for the present year to the end of November show that Canada has shipped 75 million pounds of canned meat. The United Kingdom received 5,395,296 pounds, France, Belgium and Holland each received 5 million pounds. UNRRA got over 10 million pounds, Greece and Poland over 10 million each. Military supplies and shipments to other countries bring the total to 78 million pounds.

Q. My butcher delivers my meat after I have ordered it by phone. Do I have to give him coupons in advance of the delivery?

A. You may give him the coupons or tokens when the meat is delivered or before. You cannot run a "charge account" in coupons.

A Warning on Brake Fluid.

Warning against the use of certain brands of hydraulic brake fluid, such as a type released in large quantities a year ago by the United States Army Air Forces, has been issued to automobile and truck owners by the Industrial Accident Prevention Association.

The fluid put on the civilian market by the U. S. Army as surplus material for use on military aircraft with synthetic rubber parts, explained the National Conservation Bureau of New York.

"Since automobile and truck hydraulic brake systems have natural rubber parts, such as petroleum base fluid would be ruinous if used in a large quantity," it is known to many motorists, who are advised to use the material in their cars and trucks.

A. Two sugar coupons good for the purchase of either sugar or preserves becomes valid during January. This is in accordance with the new plan combining sugar and preserves ration.

Q. What is the ceiling price I can charge for grade A large eggs?

A. The maximum retail price for the farmer to the consumer for grade A large eggs is 56 cents a dozen.

Q. Can you tell me how much canned meat has been shipped from Canada to European countries recently?

A. The last figures for the present year to the end of November show that Canada has shipped 75 million pounds of canned meat. The United Kingdom received 5,395,296 pounds, France, Belgium and Holland each received 5 million pounds. UNRRA got over 10 million pounds, Greece and Poland over 10 million each. Military supplies and shipments to other countries bring the total to 78 million pounds.

Q. My butcher delivers my meat after I have ordered it by phone. Do I have to give him coupons in advance of the delivery?

A. You may give him the coupons or tokens when the meat is delivered or before. You cannot run a "charge account" in coupons.

Q. I am a teacher in a rural school. Many pupils have their lunches at school during the winter months. Can I obtain extra meat coupons for my purpose of making soup?

A Warning on Brake Fluid.

Warning against the use of certain brands of hydraulic brake fluid, such as a type released in large quantities a year ago by the United States Army Air Forces, has been issued to automobile and truck owners by the Industrial Accident Prevention Association.

The fluid put on the civilian market by the U. S. Army as surplus material for use on military aircraft with synthetic rubber parts, explained the National Conservation Bureau of New York.

"Since automobile and truck hydraulic brake systems have natural rubber parts, such as petroleum base fluid would be ruinous if used in a large quantity," it is known to many motorists, who are advised to use the material in their cars and trucks.

STOP 'N TALK CRO

Feeding Beef Cattle, in Depart-
The art of feeding beef cattle is a learned by years of experience. It demands the best use of crops grown on the same farm as the herd. Returning all the manure to the soil to complete the economic cycle of crops-cattle-meature-crops is necessary. Then the crops should be used to best advantage to reduce the amount of concentrate to be bought. This makes expenses go down and profits go up.

Silage is an important item of feed and is best suited to the early part of the fattening period. In a year when, for some reason or other, corn fails to mature, it makes good silage and is a good substitute for some amounts of hay and grain. Silage, however, mixed with hay or straw, requires some protein-rich concentrate such as cottonseed, linseed or soybean meals or tankage.

Fattening Grains.
Oats in the ration will reduce the concentrate needed and in some respects is even a better fattener than corn. Fall wheat is usually too scarce to be used for feed. Sometimes, due to unfavourable weather, it is of low standard and can better be used as feed to replace corn. Rye has been found to lack some fat-building ingredients and barley frequently causes digestive disorders, mainly bloat. Danger of bloat is less when cattle have access to plenty of straw.

Beet Pulp and Molasses.
Beet pulp, when it is available, should be used because it is a concentrate proven to have high fattening value when fed with any grain, bran or mill feed. Mixed with grain, it is actually good insurance against indigestion or bloat. Experiments show that beet pulp is worth almost a pound of grain and a half pound of alfalfa. The main advantage seems to be that beet pulp keeps animals on their feed every day. This prevents those costly setbacks and days when cattle put on no weight.

Molasses, either from sugar cane or sugar beets, is hard to get right now but when available it is as valuable as corn and can be added to almost any ration. Molasses fits in so well simply because cattle are a lot like people — they don't like a lot of things that are good for them. When molasses is added to some of those foods, just like we cover sour berries with lots of sugar, the cattle seem to like otherwise unpalatable foods and start to put on those valuable pounds. Cane molasses, for instance, is not much good by itself but when added to hay and silage will greatly increase the amount the herd will consume each day.

Root Vegetable Prices.

Effective January 1st, the ceiling prices of root vegetables in Western Ontario were slightly revised. Present controls include the following: Carrots, washed 7c lb., unwashed 6c; fresh top bunch 7c; rutabaga, ordinary 5c, washed or waxed 7c; parsnips, washed 5c, unwashed 4c; turnips, yellow or rutabagas, washed or waxed 4c, unwashed or unwaxed 3c; white turnips, washed or waxed 6c, unwashed or unwaxed 5c; fresh top bunches 7c; beets, washed or unwashed 5c; fresh top bunches 7c.

These prices are the maximum retail prices. However, if the retail dealer buys below the wholesale ceiling prices he must sell below the retail ceiling, basing his price on the market price of the commodities.

Ration Coupon Due Dates.

Coupons now valid are sugar 46 to 67, butter 116 to 135, preserves 33 to 57 and P1 to P25, meat 1 to 18.

Effective January 1st, sugar and preserves rations are combined in the coupon which is good for either one pound of sugar or two pound preserves coupons' worth of canned fruits and sweets. There is no increase or decrease in the total sugar and preserves ration.

"V-E" Day.

By Ed. Byrne.

Dedicated to my friend, 1st Lt. Don C. Tansey, who died in action August 5th, 1944.

I wandered through town
On "V-E" Day,
Watching the crowds
They seemed so gay.

As I stood and listened
To cheer after cheer
I thought of the boys
That will never be here.

Those gallant lads
A great victory have won,
Gave up their lives
Defeating the Hun!

Their bodies now lie
In some foreign plot,
We knew when they left
This might be their lot.

The war in the Pacific
We pray will soon cease,
May God grant the fallen
An eternal peace.

The Place Nobody Goes.

In a memorandum issued this month to industry throughout Ontario, R. B. Morley, general manager of the Industrial Accident Prevention Association, comments on accident causes.

He says one of the odd things about industrial accidents is the number of men and women who are injured in "the place nobody goes." He cites the case of a man caught on a projecting shaft while painting the ceiling of a plant. The argument against using a safety set screw was that nobody ever went up to the ceiling and consequently could not get caught.

Warning industrialists to be doubly careful in "the place nobody goes," Mr. Morley says, "too many are hurt there in just the same way 'unloaded' guns have killed too many people."

Need for Farmers to Keep Records.

Tremendous strides have been made in the last forty years in all phases of agricultural development, states the latest issue of the Economic Analyst. New crop varieties have been discovered, better methods of breeding and feeding live stock have been found, better machinery has been developed, while marketing facilities for agricultural products have been improved and such has been accomplished in great measure.

In spite of all these advances, however, a large percentage of farmers in Canada have not yet realized that the day of the self-sufficient farmer is past and that to make a success of commercial farming the farmer must be an efficient business manager. Farm management research, says the Analyst, provides a basis for the application of the best technical information to farming, in order that the farmer may obtain the highest return from his labour and investment.

Farm management studies carried out by the Economics Division, Dominion Department of Agriculture, during the last 15 years have attempted to show farmers the factors responsible for increased returns. To do this has been necessary for the research worker to collect and analyse information on all phases of farm business and make available information based on farmers' experiences to show what may be accomplished through efficient farm management.

Conditions change from year to year and vary from region to region and by type of farming. It is therefore necessary, if the greatest use is to be made of farm management studies, that more or less continuous records be maintained. Farmers may thus be shown that with proper management, farms can be put on a paying basis, and the higher the efficiency in the use of land, labour, live stock, and capital, the higher will be the net returns.

Meat Tokens Mislead.

The Ration Administration has issued an appeal to housewives to bring out those evidently forgotten meat tokens and use them instead of cashing a coupon each time they visit the butcher shop. During the recent survey it was discovered that tokens are disappearing and the Ration Administration believes the hiding place is chiefly in handbags and on pantry shelves or in kitchen table drawers. The disappearance is creating a problem in that many small dealers find themselves short of tokens when they want coupons to replenish stocks.

To Remove Varnish Before Re-Finishing.

Test the existing varnish for brittleness by pulling a coin along the surface when preparing to refinish with enamel or paint a surface which has been previously stained and varnished.

If the varnish is so brittle that it 'flies,' it should be removed; otherwise it probably can be rubbed down with sandpaper sufficiently to form a bond for paint or enamel. To remove varnish a paint remover is effective, but care should be taken to apply only enough to soften the varnish and allow it to be scraped off — otherwise surplus remover may get onto other surfaces and stain them.

The first coat of the new surfacing should be a tough undercoating, followed either by paint or enamel direct from the can where a high gloss is required, or a mixture of the finish coating and the undercoating to produce a lower gloss. The surface should be sanded lightly between each coat.

Artificial Light Advances Egg Yield.

Much has been written and said regarding the beneficial effects of artificial lights on animals and plant life but it is doubtful if its true value to the farmer-poultryman is fully recognized, says W. T. Scott, head poultryman, Dominion Experimental Station, Harrow, Ont.

If it were possible in Canada to keep birds on range outside in direct sunlight all the year, artificial light would not be a factor of so much importance. When, however, it is necessary to confine the birds to the house for about six months of the year the use of artificial light during the short dark winter days is a sound and helpful practice, he emphasizes.

There are several functions associated with the beneficial use of lights in the hen house that are not generally recognized. Using lights to increase egg production has long been a sound, economic practice with the progressive poultryman, generally under the impression that the longer feeding period allows for a greater consumption of food and the greater yields of eggs is the natural consequence.

Without doubt the increase in the amount of feed consumed is a contributing and important factor in increasing the egg yield but the true function of the light is believed to be the stimulating effect that it has on certain glands that play their part in the process of ovulation and more eggs are laid and a greater appetite develops as a result of this stimulus.

Due to this all round action there is also a better resistance to disease and a higher fertility in the eggs that are used for reproduction, all important economic features that follow the application of lights in moderation.

During the fall, winter and early spring the active feeding period should be extended by the lighting to about 14 hours each day. Longer periods are likely to offset the advantages to some extent. It has been found by research at the Experimental Station at Harrow that longer periods of light had a tendency to increase broodiness. As a general rule two 60-watt lights are required for 400 square feet of floor space and a reliable time clock with timing resistance should be used to ensure regular intervals of roosting and feeding.

COTTAM

Mr. Wm. Bence is south on the coast.

Cottam and Gosfield Red Cross will meet next Tuesday, January 8th.

Thirty-five children, a grand total of a turkey dinner at the home of Mrs. Peter Cottam on Christmas Day.

The Misses Bence and Bence, Armstrong and Margaret King, of Windsor, are celebrating with their family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Parsons had as their guests a couple of days last week the former's brother from Ohio.

Mrs. Margaret Bence and family on Monday have moved back to Toronto.

Mr. Wilfred Bence is treated in hospital.

Mr. Bence has been asked to thank the local Women's Institute for their Christmas party of which he received in excellent condition.

Charles Carter of Windsor spent New Year's Day with his family.

Mrs. Bence and McDonald and family.

New Year's Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Newman were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sargent and family and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Drexler and family.

Company Set. Major Gordon R. McCallum B.M.E. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley McCallum, reported in London today (Thursday) for discharge.

William Hall was removed to hospital, Windsor, on Friday by ambulance, for observation and treatment.

Mrs. Ed. Smith had two of her sons, Ken Hall, of the U.S.N. home after serving 18 months in the South Pacific during which he was in all the late war sea battles, and Pte. Bill Hall, a recent discharge from the Canadian Army. Bill has been confined to Westminster Hospital, London, for some weeks, but it now well again.

Douglas Bowers, of the Canadian Army, stationed at Niagara-on-the-Lake, and Ralph Bowers, of the R.C.A.F., recently home after three years overseas, spent New Year's with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bowers. Bence was unable to get home on Christmas, so New Year's was the first these brothers had seen each other in three years.

The Cottam Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Lewis Clark on Wednesday, January 9th, at 2:30 p.m. Roll call is to be "Suggestions for improving farm homes."

Mrs. Wm. McCallum is to give a paper on "Agriculture," and Mrs. S. Wyatt a paper on "Social Welfare."

Mr. Arthur Cote will give a reading and Mrs. Andrew Neville will be in charge of a contest.

The Junior Institute met at the home of Orpha Stotts, on the 28th, for a Christmas party. Games were played and gifts were exchanged. Refreshments were served by Joy Tully, Mary Johnston and the hostess.

The Lemay family had a close call, about midnight last Friday, when their car, in which Mrs. Lemay and their two children were sitting, was hit squarely by a Windsor car, with such force that the car was driven over a hundred feet through a ditch and then ended up in a field. Mr. and Mrs. Lemay had left their children with friends while they attended the Legion Keno. They were on their way home, along No. 3 Highway, when the children, when the lights on their car went out, Mr. Lemay got out of his car, which he had driven off the pavement as much as possible, and was trying to flag the passing traffic going toward Cottam, with a flashlight. He narrowly escaped being hit by the car which rammed his parked machine. Both autos were badly damaged but none of the occupants appear to be any worse for their harrowing experience. The young baby, which the mother held in her arms in the front seat, ended up on the floor in the back seat.

Municipal Elections — 1946.

To the Electors of the Village of Cottam:

Ladies and Gentlemen:

As I cannot see you personally, I ask you for your support at the polls on Monday, January 7th.

Approved Hog Market Plan.

Hon. T. L. Kennedy, provincial agriculture minister this week announced that the first joint hog marketing scheme in the history of the province, operating under a board of six, will go into effect in January.

The decision was taken after about 3,000 hog producers voted on the proposal and expressed almost unanimous approval.

Result of the vote was announced Friday. Of the 31,796 hog producers registered, 29,757 voted. The vote was 29,353 in favour of the plan, 205 opposed and there were 199 spoiled ballots.

The new hog producers' marketing board is to be named within two or three weeks and will be approved by the council as quickly as possible.

The board will be made up of three producers and three representatives of the packers, chosen by the groups themselves, and will meet monthly to set prices and control marketing of all hogs produced in the province which are sold to processors.

Sale of fresh pork will not be affected.

Col. Kennedy said the plan is expected to stabilize prices and improve quality as well as to provide a means of ironing out difficulties in the industry without government intervention.

Plans call for dividing the province into seven districts. Each county is to have a county committee, each with a representative to the district committee to be named before March 15th each year. Basis for electing representatives to the district committee will be determined later.

Control Production.

Besides controlling prices, the marketing board will be able to control production in various areas according to demand.

All packers and processors of hogs are to be licensed, as well as all purchasers of hogs. Processors and packers are to pay an annual fee of $1, and hog producer two cents on every hog marketed.

Subject to the approval of the marketing board, local boards may appoint marketing agencies.

The scheme will give producers greater control of their industry through their own elected representatives," said Col. Kennedy. "It is hoped it will improve the industry all along the line."

He added that a similar scheme had worked successfully with fruit and vegetable growers but had never before been applied to hogs.

Heaviest vote cast against the scheme was in Huron — 21 opposed and 1,582 in favour. In Grey County the balloting was 3,252 to five in favour of the plan. Seven counties — Norfolk, Welland, Northumberland, Peterborough, Prince Edward, Grenville and Renfrew — voted unanimously in favour.

Council—George Marentette, S. Guilbeault, Wm. Strong, Joseph Daely, Joseph Forbes, David Skidmore, David Byrne, John Wallace.

Clara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLean, of Maldstone, suffered a broken arm.

A banquet was tendered E. J. Gott, M.P., at Cottam, by the Gosfield North Ladies Liberal-Conservative Club.

Andrew Wigle passed away in Windsor.

The weather was extremely cold, the thermometer reaching 8 below.

Ray Jackson, of Cottam, entered Ford Hospital, Detroit, for treatment.

Births — In Hotel Dieu, Windsor, on December 26th, to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Elford, of Colchester North, a daughter; in Maldstone, on December 25th, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter McMurren, a son.

Married.—In Cottam, on December 23rd, by Rev. R. A. Miller, John Carder, of Windsor, and Miss Irene Hillier, of Detroit.

Died.—In Maldstone, on December 26th, Mrs. John Bauer, aged 70 years; in Essex, on December 28th, Nancy Bolton, relict of the late Henry Bowen, aged 85 years.

Charcoal Absorbs Fresh Paint Odors.

The day will probably come when odors will be eliminated from fresh paint — in fact, that time has already arrived as far as some of the new resin emulsion paints are concerned.

However, if you still have fresh paint odor troubles, charcoal can help you out. Try hanging a perforated bag containing a pound or two of charcoal in a freshly painted room, and note how it absorbs the odor.

Colored Doors Identify Rooms

Paint colors as identification media are used on the doors of a new school in Toronto, with the result that youngsters automatically connect any specific room with the color of its door.

Thus, the children moving to classes go to the "blue room" or the "green room" or the "yellow room" instead of the bleaker and less interesting "classroom A" or "classroom B" or "classroom C."

Five Essex Areas Win Tax Appeal.

The following judgment of Judge
Gordon, in the estimation of the writer, will only mean another long drawn-out legal battle for, as we are sure, the municipalities who were raised are not going to take it without the judgment and while this argument is ro-ing on, it's time we were taking part in it, for the Town of Essex has been assessed too high for years, compared with other urban centres in the county.
However, we do think that an equalized assessment can be made, agreeable to all, by the three county assessor, within the next couple of years, if all would have patience and when the new equalized assessment was agreed on, it could be made retroactive, and each municipality, according to what they had paid in county rates, would either have a rebate or a credit on their rate, or would have to pay their just share if they had not been paying their share of the county expense. The tax costs in a long drawn-out equalization court will run into thousands and when all is over no one, as a rule, gains hardly anything.

Five Essex Municipalities last week won a decision from County Judge Albert J. Gordon that $250,000 be removed from their assessment rolls and placed on those of the other 10 Essex municipalities.

Bylaw Upset.

The decision upset the equalized assessment bylaw for 1945 as passed by the Essex County Council last June. Those favoured by the judgment are LaSalle, Riverside, Tecumseh, Sandwich East and West.
Amounts reduced were: LaSalle, $150,000; Riverside, $750,000; Tecumseh, $200,000; Sandwich East, $500, 000; and Sandwich West $750,000.
Those receiving increases were: An-derton, $300,000; Colchester North, $200,000; Colchester South, $500,000;
Gosfield North, $200,000; Gosfield
South, $400,000; Merses, $400,000; Tilbury North, $200,000; Maidstone, $100, 000; Rochester, $100,000, and Malden,
$100,000.

In making his decision, Judge Gordon handed down an eleven page judgment.
The bylaw was passed in county council on June 29th last year by a vote of 22 to 12 after an amendment to the act had been defeated by the same vote.

Although Kingsville and Rochester townships entered into the fight to push through the amendment, they did not enter into the appeal. In Judge Gordon's ruling Rochester had its assessment hiked by $100,000.
The Sandwich East Council took the first step in carrying the measure before Judge Gordon and C. T. Onet, letting township clerk, was instructed to file formal appeal by July 15th.

Band Together.

At the end of July the municipalities of Riverside, Tecumseh, LaSalle and Sandwich East and West had handed together with A. F. Gignac, John Sale, K.C., and Bernard Furlong, K.C., engaged as counsel to represent them.

In September the hearing opened with Wilfred Gravel, county assessor in the witness box giving the methods of assessment used in the county.

In his ruling Judge Gordon wrote:
"The object of equalization is to correct, as nearly as may be, unreasonable and unfair differences in assessments as taken in the various local municipalities, so that the incidence of the county rates may be equitably distributed over the whole of the assessable property in the county."

Herculean Task.

"I believe you will all agree that it is a Herculean task to ask one man to perform, within a very limited time, and I humbly suggest the job might be better done by a board consisting of several members."
"My study would be less onerous (in fact it would be very simple) if a degree of uniformity existed in the method of local assessing. But no such uniformity exists. The alleged rates vary from 50 to 100 percent, but a 100 per cent assessment is more or less a myth."

"Many local assessors admit that, in the performance of their duties, they have no thought of the equalized assessment, but just try to keep things even in their own municipality. I imagine they have in mind the county rate and consequently assess fairly modestly."

"The county assessor and his assistants have done valuable work, but, I respectfully suggest, they should have been permitted to complete the job.
I further suggest that his duty is to work and co-operate with the local assessor and see that they assess uniformly, rather than in making his own assessment."

Wrong Emphasis.

"I think," the Judge wrote, "the county assessor puts far too much stress on his assumption that properties close to Windsor (or Detroit) are worth so much more than those farther inland. I have the thought that if the town of Tecumseh could be transplanted 100 miles or so distant from any larger centre, its merchants and trades people would fare much better."

"In some townships, a fine farm house, a barn, maybe several tobacco barns, and perhaps three or four

Gore Pastor Dies.

Gore Pastors, aged 61 years, a lifelong resident of this district, passed away in Grace Hospital, Windsor, on Tuesday, after a brief illness. Although he had only been hospitalized a week, he had been troubled with a heart ailment for the past ten years.

Surviving are five sons, Francis, of Windsor, Cpl. Hugh, of the Perth
Regiment, just home from overseas;
Gordon, of Essex, and Ray and Roy,
of Gosfield North; and seven daughters,
Dorothy (Mrs. Barrett) of Oxford,
England; Miss Annie, of Leamington; Eva, Ruby, Jean, Janet and Beth, all at home. A son, Pilot Officer Donald, was killed overseas, while his wife, the former Lottie Tofflemire, passed away eight years ago. Also surviving are two brothers, Roy, of Harrow, and Hugh, of Windsor, and three sisters,
Mrs. Lottie Mustard, of Leamington;
Mrs. Ida Dorsey, of Detroit and Mrs.
Annie Liburd, of Windsor.
Funeral services will be held from sex, on Friday at 2 p.m., with burial greenhouses costing thousands of dollars, are likely to be assessed for not more than $300 or $400. In this area, near Lake Erie, I think the land is greatly under-assessed. Surely land selling for $500 per acre or more should be assessed for a lot more than ordinary farm lands in some other locality, but that is seldom the case.

"I think, too, much emphasis is put on the idea that lands in Sandwich East and West have a speculative value and should, accordingly be assessed higher."

"This gets me back to this: that all property should be fairly, honestly and decently assessed for what it is reasonably worth."

"Mr. Gravel's evidence indicates that Riverside's assessment is probably on a higher scale than any other municipality in the county."

At a Disadvantage.
"I feel urban municipalities possessing a few industries are at a big disadvantage, and I think this fact should be recognized. I have in mind Riverside, LaSalle and Tecumseh."

"I find the local assessments in LaSalle, Sandwich East and West and Tecumseh compare most favourably with others in the county. They are, or have been, under government supervision and I am sure their method of assessing has been supervised."

"It is hard to satisfy me that Colchester South with its 34,000 acres and miles of lake front, should be assessed for less than Sandwich East with its 12,000 acres and with no special features."

"Comparison might also be made of Mersea's assessment of 59,000 acres (considerable of unusual value) with miles of lake frontage."

"I can see no reason why Anderdon's local assessment should be $300,000 less in 1944 than in 1942."

"The local assessment on Tilbury
North has decreased $300,000 since 1921 and there is no evidence to warrant it."

"It may be argued that local assessments in the appellant municipalities have considerably decreased in the last 10 years or so, but, we all know,
I think, that their assessments some years ago were based on false and fictitious values—in the boom days.
No one will ever be bold enough to argue, as an example, that LaSalle ever had property worth over $2,000,
($3,376,700). Go., North, $2,173,975
($3,373,875). Gosfield South, $3,204,470

Lost Food Ration Books.

The end of hostilities and the holiday spirit are held jointly responsible for a sudden increase over the past few weeks in the number of persons reporting lost ration books. According to ration officials the number of applications from persons asking for replacement books is now numbered in hundreds monthly in Western Ontario. Ration authorities have issued an appeal for the greater care of books pointing out that books replacing those lost or stolen are "tailored" that is all the valid coupons declared good before the book is issued are removed. In obtaining a new ration book applicants must have a notarized statement. Greater care than ever should be exercised this year, officials point out, because of the fact that sugar coupons good for the purchase of either sugar or preserves are doubled in value and are declared good once a month.

Business Licenses.

An increase in the number of small businesses in Western Ontario is seen in the large number of applications to conduct a business made to the Western Ontario regional office of the War-time Prices and Trade Board. During December 415 applications to start a business or authority to transfer a business have been granted in this region. Since the beginning of December the regional licensing officer has authority to grant a license, a privilege that formerly was exercised only by headquarters of the licensing division in Ottawa. Many of the applications to enter new business or to conduct one already established have been made by returning ex-servicemen.

Hello Homemakers! Did you have a good breakfast? It's not too late to make one resolution that will help you to keep other resolutions. Because a good breakfast wakes up appetites, provides nourishment and energy for the morning's work and lifts the spirit, it's too. A good breakfast looks good, tastes good and is hearty enough to stick to the ribs until noon. Every normal person requires a nourishing breakfast.

An active, growing child needs to break his fast in the morning with foods that keep him healthy by refreshing his physical and nervous systems. People doing heavy work in the factory, on the farm or around the house need a substantial breakfast for the same reasons. Some office workers and others who do sedentary work may need only fruit, whole wheat toast with jam and a hot beverage.

Early people often find their vitality low in the morning and therefore require food to pick them up. What is the right kind of breakfast and how is it planned? The general breakfast pattern can be the same day after day, if given enough variety to add interest appeal. Fruit of some kind makes a good starter, because it is refreshing and appetizing and also because it supplies the Vitamin C everyone needs every day. Citrus fruits and tomato juice are especially high in Vitamin C content. You might vary these with raw apples or applesauce, stewed prunes (without sugar) or grape juice.

For energy-giving food at breakfast the breads and cereals go on the table. And the more wholesome grain used, the better for the family. Prepared cereals save time but in cold weather a cooked cereal is recommended. Try whole wheat cooked in milk, cornmeal porridge served with maple syrup or cold oatmeal gruel and warm milk. Some prefer cold milk and warm milk. Plenty of milk on the morning cereal takes care of part of the daily quota (1 pint per day). It is wise to teach children to enjoy cereal without sugar.

Along with cereals, there is a wide variety of breads that are delightful for breakfast—muffins, biscuits, hot rolls and toast from brown, white or cracked wheat bread, pancakes, coffee, rolls, etc.—all depending on how much time you have to get breakfast. To save time in the morning, partly mix a batter the night before and store it in the refrigerator. Some homemakers have scones and tea biscuits.

Save the Fat.

One role which busy homemakers play is that of "kitchen police," constantly on guard to reduce all waste to a minimum. This is particularly true in the case of fats.

Fat is a necessary ingredient in the preparation of many foods. Fat is a precious commodity. None must be wasted.

Pie shells made from cookie dough are new and interesting. If you serve pies make them open face and save the top crust.

Toast croutons in a dry pan in the oven. Use biscuit dough to cover meat or chicken pie. Never let the fat smoke. Smoke means burning or breaking down which results in waste. Keep all fat cool. If left in a warm place, it will become rancid or sour. Use dripping from roasts, broiled meat or poultry in making sauces for scalloped dishes, cheese dishes or in creamed soups.

A few suggestions for saving fat comes from the kitchen of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture.

BUTTERSCOTCH SLICES.

1/2 cup chicken fat
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 egg
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups pastry flour OR
1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
Cream fat and sugar, then add vanilla and egg. Beat well. Mix in flour sifted with baking powder and salt. Shape in roll about 2 inches in diameter. Wrap in wax paper. Chill thoroughly. Cut in 1/4-inch slices. Place cookies on lightly greased baking sheet and bake in moderately hot oven, 375° F., for 8 to 10 minutes. Makes 3 1/2 to 4 dozen cookies.

MOLASSES CUP CAKES.

2 cups pastry flour
1/4 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 1/2 teaspoons cinnamon
1/2 cup mild flavoured fat
1 egg
1/2 cup molasses
1/2 cup milk
Sift together the dry ingredients, Cream shortening and molasses, add unbeaten egg and beat well. Add milk alternately with dry ingredients to first mixture. Bake in greased muffin pans, in a moderately hot oven, 375° F., for 30 minutes. Yield, 1 dozen cakes.

FRUIT ROLL.

2 cups all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder

cut and in the pan the night before. The pan spends the night in the refrigerator and then is popped into a pre-heated oven.

A substantial breakfast should include a body-building food especially for manual workers — an egg, poached, cooked in the shell or scrambled; bacon, broiled slowly; creamed meat or fish on toast. Ever make a kidney omelet on Saturday and reheat it Sunday morning — or make waffles with pieces of bacon in ready to cook in a few minutes?

Last of all, there is the breakfast drink to consider. Hot tea, coffee and cocoa are standards but since a few new cereal beverages and chocolate powders are available they make a variety. The idea is to serve something warm, cheering and good to taste. Milk is the best drink for children.

So the general pattern for a good breakfast runs from fruit, cereal and bread to eggs or bacon, fish or meat and finally to that hot cup of coffee.

COOKING CEREALS.

Cooked cereals should be well flavoured, free from lumps, not too stiff, not too thin and served piping hot. For correct cooking use measured proportions according to the instructions. We cook cereals: (1) to improve the flavour, (2) to improve digestibility and to soften the cellulose, thus making the texture. Methods of cooking cereals: (1) over direct heat, (2) in a double boiler and (3) a combination of methods.

How to prevent lumping: (1) Fine cereals such as farina or cornmeal should be mixed with enough cold water to make a soft mush, then added to boiling, salted water and stirred constantly. The amount of water used should be deducted from total liquid needed; (2) Flaked or coarse cereals such as rolled oats, cracked wheat and grits, may be sprinkled slowly into rapidly boiling salted water, so boiling will not stop. Scrape the bottom of the pan with a spoon frequently. (3) When reheating cold, cooked cereal, use a double boiler and do not stir the cereal in until it is heated.

Cooking time for cereals:

Fine cereals for servings: 1 1/2 to 2 cup cereal, 2 cups water, and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Time 20 minutes.

Coarse cereals for six servings: 1 1/2 cup cereal, 2 cups water, and 1/2 to 1 teaspoon salt. Time 30 to 35 minutes. Commercial packaged cereals may be warmed in the oven or steamed for variety. The addition of wheat germ adds considerable vitamin value.

Willow, Chokeberries, Hawthorne, Dogwood and other similar shrubs are becoming far too common in pasture fields and along our fence lines and roadsides, says J. D. McLeod, Director of the Crops, Seeds and Weeds Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture. These are objectionable, and should not be tolerated, because:

1. They are lowering the value of pasture lands.

2. They are unsightly to residents and tourists.

3. They harbour injurious insects and fungus diseases.

4. They cause snow to drift and thereby block roads.

5. They hinder mowing and spraying of roadside weeds.

The majority of the brush shrubs referred to will never have any economic value and should therefore be eradicated. This is possible by spraying with a chemical weed killer with a sodium chlorate base at approximately two pounds per gallon of water. The chemical should be applied during the growing season, under pressure until it is dripping off the leaves. A thorough soaking of the crown will ensure a more complete kill.

The cost of eradication can be lowered considerably by cutting down all tall growth during the fall and early winter months and spraying as directed the following year when growth re-rected the following year when growth is two to three feet high. Spraying brush over four feet high is not recommended. This work of cutting down growth to be sprayed next year should be undertaken now. Information in connection with the eradication of weeds and brush with chemical may be obtained by writing the Crops, Seeds and Weeds Branch, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

3 tablespoons mild-flavoured fat
1/2 cup milk.

Filling:

3 tablespoons mild-flavoured fat
3 tablespoons brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup raisins.
Mix and sift together the dry ingredients. Cut in shortening, using finger tips or a pastry blender, until mixture resembles coarse meal. Add milk slowly and mix to a soft dough. Roll to 1/4" thickness in rectangular shape. Spread with mild-flavoured fat and sprinkle with brown sugar, cinnamon and raisins. Roll up like a jelly roll and place in a greased loaf pan. Bake in a hot oven, 425° F., for 15 minutes. Serve hot with pudding sauce. Six servings.

Rations for Poultry and the Effect on Eggs.

The feeds supplied the poultry flock prior to and during the breeding season are important in determining the hatchability of eggs. To obtain the best results the essential feeds for good hatchability should be fed four to six weeks before the eggs are to be saved for incubation. It is the protein, mineral, and vitamin content of the feeds used that influences hatchability. Rations that promote high egg production are not necessarily suited to the needs of breeding birds.

One of two plans may be followed by the poultry keeper in supplying suitable feeds to the breeding flock. He may purchase a commercial hatching concentrate or buy the needed ingredients and mix the concentrate at home. What is most important is to insure the birds are supplied with the required feeds well in advance of the beginning of the hatching season.

Milk powder, fish meal and meat meal containing liver, are superior feeds for supplying protein for breeding birds. A mixture of six pounds of meat meal, four pounds of fish meal and two pounds of milk powder added to each ten pounds of mash is satisfactory. Skim milk and buttermilk are excellent for breeding birds and where other is available for supplying the amount of protein supplement may be slightly reduced. The vitamins of milk should be supplied either in liquid or powdered form.

Green feed and fish oil are the common sources of the other vitamins needed in the rations for incubating birds. Feeding all derived from these sources both vitamin "A" and "D" in the form of well cured alfalfa or clover leaves, sprouted oats, or sun-dried green vegetables that contain much needed action should be fed sparingly.

The density or texture of the shell has an influence upon the hatchability of eggs. A constant supply of oyster shell or other suitable high-calcium mineral should be kept available to the birds and in addition it is sometimes necessary to include two or three pounds of powdered oyster shell, bone meal or ground limestone in each ton of dry mash. To insure a uniform distribution the manganese sulphate should be mixed with the meat meal immediately before the making of the mash is undertaken.

Egg Noodle Surprises

By BETTY BARCLAY

Delightful "surprise" dishes may be prepared quickly from many of the packaged foods that are stocked on the shelves but often overlooked when the menu for the day is being prepared.

Take your box of egg noodles, for example. Here is a rich, creamy, hot, and protein food that blends with meats and vegetables to form many a substantial dish. Draw upon its mass repeatedly during the cold days when our bodies need more fuel than usual.

Here are two surprise dishes. Try one the next time you have company or want to please the family. You'll appreciate the value of that little box of egg noodles when you try either recipe.

Egg Noodle Frankfurter Surprise

5 ounces egg noodles
6 frankfurters
1 cup carrots
1/2 cup peas
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup milk

1. Cook egg noodles in boiling, salted water until tender; drain.
2. Pack hot frankfurters and vegetables, or use left over cooked vegetables.
3. Place a layer of egg noodles in baking pan, then frankfurters, bananas, wise over noodles; more egg noodles and sprinkle with peas and sliced or sliced carrots and salt; continue layers until all ingredients are used.
4. Put dab of butter on top and pour a cup of milk into pan and place in oven until brown.

been found to improve the quality of the shell and increase the hatchability. Four ounces to each one ton of mash is recommended. To insure a uniform distribution the manganese sulphate should be mixed with the meat meal immediately before the making of the mash is undertaken.

With egg noodles in cooking, melt butter in saucepan, add onion and tomato, sauté. Cook gently about 12 minutes. Pour drained noodles into sauce pan, mix lightly and place pan under broiler on which the noodles are to be sized and in 5 to 10 way as to catch the juices from the steak.

Prepare the hamburger steaks for broiling by molding into four patties and rubbing with oil and pepper on both surfaces. Place on broiler rack and sizzle them till they are done to your taste. Serve very hot. Serves 4.

With a little salad and your preferred dessert, you have a meal in a half hour that your family will relish.

As a chance substitute macaroni or spaghetti for egg noodles.

The worth of a State in the long run is the worth of the individuals composing it.—John Stuart Mill.

The true grandeur of nations is in those qualities which constitute the true greatness of the individuals.—Charles Sumner.

Sorry, Mrs. Stewart—they've hung up. And after you've hurried all the way downstairs, too...

MORAL: Please be patient if the party you are calling, like Mrs. Stewart, doesn't answer right away. By waiting at least thirty seconds you often save yourself a second call. And you will save your friend the annoyance of finding no one on the line.

Give the person you call time to reach the telephone!

And please remember these other simple rules of GOOD TELEPHONE USAGE

1. Consult your directory when you're not sure of the number.
2. Answer your own telephone promptly.
3. Hold the mouthpiece close to your lips and talk directly into it.
4. Avoid breakage. Replace the receiver G-E-N-T-L-Y. And keep the instrument away from the table-edges, etc.

They all help to promote prompt, trouble-free telephone service and maximum use of available equipment.

EDGAR MILLS

Eli Galvaes, who underwent a major operation at Hotel Dieu Hospital, Windsor, two weeks ago, is quite improved, and was brought home on Saturday.

One new Reeve, H. C. Neice, and one new councillor, Ditch Market, are both from this section of the township.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blight spent New Year's day in Windsor.

The temperature on Sunday, 63 degrees, was quite high for January.

MAIDSTONE CROSS

The banns of marriage were published for the first time, in St. Mary's Church, for Edward Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hayes, and Bertha Schmitt.

Mrs. Roy Holstein, of Detroit, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kane and had a long distance telephone call from her husband, Sgt. Roy, who had arrived in New York aboard the Queen Mary, and hoped to be home soon.

Pat McLean received a telegram from Traverse City, Mich., on Friday, that his brother Thomas, had passed away.

Another I.O.O.F. and Rebekah card party and dance will be held, in the I.O.O.F. hall, Woodslee, on Friday, January 11th. Cards at 8:30 p.m.

The long telephone operators wish to thank all who remembered them during the holiday season, and wish you and all the best in 1946.

Elmer McCann after two months' leave will get his discharge at London. Sgt. William C. McCann, of the U. S. Army, received his discharge after two years' service overseas.

Sister Mary St. Timothy, of the Order of the Presentation of Mary, died recently in St. Hyacinthe, Que. Deceased was Catherine (Katie) Sullivan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Sullivan, and was born in this parish and resided here until her entry into the Sisterhood, 62 years ago. Two years ago she celebrated her diamond jubilee. Her sister, Miss Fanny Sullivan, of Detroit, survives, and several nieces and nephews, including Ford and Wilfred Halford, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Larkin left the day before Christmas for a holiday trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

JACQUES Proven HYBRID 1157J

- A Phenomenal yielder in its maturity!
- Makes a long, rugged ear that picks easy!
- Makes very dry, mellow-starch kernels that put meat in livestock feed!
- Stands up and holds ears through harvest!

NOW 1157J YIELDS IN COMPARISON WITH OTHER HYBRIDS
In a typical test plot, 1157J was compared with 35 other popular hybrids of well-known brands. It yielded 22.53 bushels per acre and tested 22.4% moisture at harvest. The plot average was 21.42 bushels per acre and 22.4% moisture. Jacques 1157J yielded 22 bushels more than the plot average and the corn was drier!

Jacques Proven Hybrid 1157J is sweeping the country! Demand for it is growing by leaps and bounds! See it right away to make sure you will get your supply for 1946 planting. Don't delay.

Trudell-Damm Nuptials.

A New Year's wedding of local interest was solemnized in the Essex United Church, when Miss Eleanor May Damm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Damm, became the bride of William Trudell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Trudell, of Essex, and the Rev. H. Parr officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white brocaded satin gown cut on princess lines with a short train, a long white net veil, and carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Mrs. Robert Meyer, as matron of honour, wore a floor-length jacket dress of brown and yellow with matching plumes in her hair. She carried a brown velvet muff and wore a corsage of yellow chrysanthemums.

The three bridesmaids, in similarly styled dresses, were Miss Helen Damm in blue with dark blue plumes for her hair, dark muff and a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums; Miss Barbara Rawlins, in rose, carrying blue chrysanthemums, and Miss Gloria Trudell in mauve and purple with bronze chrysanthemums.

The flower girl, Joan Miller, was lovely in a floor-length green velvet dress with a green coronet and a nose-garland of pink carnations. The ring-bearer was Walter Damm, brother of the bride.

The groom was assisted by his brother, Lloyd Trudell, while the ushers were Stan Graves and Jack Trudell, both fellow prisoners of war with the groom, overseas.

First Baptist Church.
Sunday, January 13th: Our Sunday school is pre-eminently a Bible school; we make it so because the Bible is the only book of final authority on the subject of our need of it. He who disregards the message of the book disregards the most important thing in life — for this neglect is fatal to the soul, Heb. 2:3. Jesus said "Ye must be born again." "Not by works of Righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He hath saved us." Titus 3:5. "By the works of the law shall no flesh be justified," but "He that believeth in the Son of God hath life" (present possession) John 3:36. We welcome you to our Bible school at 10 a.m.; Morning Service at 11, pastor's subject, "The Mystery of God's Will in Human Life." Evening service at 7.30. The best gospel hymns which never grow old will be used in a good song service. You may ask for your favourite hymn. Message "The Demoniac." Hear the way of salvation as illustrated through the miracle of this man's deliverance from demon possession. Fireside Fellowship after the evening service. We welcome all to our "Home-like" church.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1946.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES.

By Dean Wilson.

It must be reported at this time that backstage in Ottawa there is no attempt to conceal the truth that the domestic problems of Canada must be solved just as much by internal co-operation as international co-operation must exist for the solution of current problems on the world scene. If peace and plenty are to be the rewards of victory in World War II, with this being the spirit which has been brought into the meetings of the Dominion-Provincial Conferences in Ottawa where another such momentous gathering is starting the year's initial weeks of 1946. In fact, whispers heard in this capital have indicated that a definite settlement of this nation's domestic issues resulting from these Dominion-Provincial discussions, will result in a surprising degree of agreement, though the time and amount of unanimity may indicate some sharp differences of opinion which one estimate has hinted may be as much as $100,000,000 between the offers of the Federal Government and the wishes of the various provincial Governments.

However, it is emphasized in Ottawa that, while Provincial and Municipal needs have been outlined considerably wherever possible in the last few years in order to free as much money as possible for the Federal Government's financial war requirements, yet the outlays of the Federal Government in these crucial years and the "pay-as-you-go" policy during the war have been starting so that the drain on the average man and woman across Canada in taxation has been amazingly heavy. This may have been alright when money was freely circulated and earned in these past few "boom" years but plans indicate that it may be an entirely different story when the "bubble" may burst in their faces and the "dance of the dollars" may become an arduous time, with initial fears of unemployment having already appeared in some sections of this country.

These enormous outlays of the Federal Government can be realized when it is reported that in the first year after Confederation, 1867, Canada's total revenue was $12,687,928, per capita revenue $3.96, total expenditure $11,017,658, per capita expenditure $4.01, net debt at end of year $75,757,125, and net debt per capita $21.58. In the first year of World War II, Canada's total revenue was $502,171,354, per capita revenue $14.57, total expenditure $553,062,906, per capita expenditure $15.78. But in the latest official figures of such matters, it is reported in Ottawa that Canada's total revenue in 1944 was $2,765,181,945, per capita revenue $240.34, total expenditure $5,327,717,737, per capita expenditure $146.25, net debt at end of year $8,710,081,893, and net debt per capita $259.57. These figures are authentic and speak loudly.

During the war years the financial position of the provinces had shown continuous improvement and the most important change in the financial framework of the provincial revenue structure was the stabilization of provincial revenues by the provisions of the Dominion-Provincial Taxation Agreement Act, 1942, whereby each province agreed to vacate the personal income and corporation tax fields during the war and a certain readjustment period hereafter in return for a Dominion subsidy equal to either, first, the province's revenue from these sources during fiscal year ended nearest December 31st, 1940, or second, the province's net debt service cost for same period, with a further provision of the Act guaranteeing provincial income tax revenues at the 1940 level. This, in brief, everyday language, was the basis of the war agreement.

Of course, the effects were tremendous. Indeed, whereas in 1939, collections under the Income Tax Act for fiscal year 1939 were a total of $142,026,138, yet in the latest official figures given out in Ottawa such collections had reached in 1944 a grand total of no less than $1,157,757,255.

From these facts and others obtained in Ottawa, it is not difficult to observe why the Dominion-Provincial conferences, another of which is starting off the 1946 year by meeting in this capital in January are considered to be not only the most important gatherings of this sort but these meetings are evaluated by experts as also largely of the greatest possible likely effect on the everyday lives of the men, women and children of this nation so that the success or failure of these meetings may well decide the success or failure of Canada as a nation amongst nations since no nation, it is held, can accomplish its tasks on the international scene if it is unable to solve its own domestic problems, though it is most fortunate that forecasts predict definite success for these latest Dominion-Provincial meetings in Ottawa.

There are a number of rumours in circulation and some of them have been spiced in Ottawa with official or unofficial explanations. One rumour concerned the quality of coal and coke being sent to Canada but the coal controller himself, E. J. Brunning, declared in Ottawa that there was such a critical coal shortage in the United States that only about 67 per cent of normal imports came into Canada, though he took the occasion to stress that Canada was "getting a fair share of a fuel in short supply." The only reason that the price seems high for such inferior fuel was due, he emphasized, to the fact that freight charges were the same regardless of the type of fuel was being carried. Another rumour has claimed that coffee would be on the rationing list soon but unofficially it is pointed out in Ottawa that Canada has a year's supply on hand so that there is no need for any such policy, with the dealers normally keeping about six or seven months' supply on hand. Still another rumour has concerned sugar but it is stated in Ottawa that sugar supplies in this country depend not merely on conditions here but rather on world sugar supplies. It is revealed that in 1939, the first year of the war, sugar consumption in Canada was about 100 pounds a year per person, but now it is about 71 pounds, with little likelihood of any increased supplies in 1946. The reason is that cargoes usually arriving from the Philippines, Java and other islands of the Eastern Archipelago have been discontinued due to conditions. Instead of sugar plantations, the Japs had planted rice, cotton, etc., so that it will require some time before these areas get back into sugar production, probably eighteen months or more with one forecast being that sugar supplies may be more plentiful by spring of 1947. While sugar-beet production in Canada has helped to an extent of about 16 to 20 per cent of the total, yet such increased supplies may not be obtained until close to the end of 1946.

Out of an estimated 37,000 ex-servicemen who are still out of work after their discharge and who are seeking employment, no more than about 5,000 of them have drawn their "out-of-work" benefits during November, 1945. This has been revealed in the capital where it has been reported that either on account of "false pride" or lack of knowledge of the provisions, such benefits have not been taken advantage of by the men. However, a spokesman for the government has urged that these men should not use up their gratuities under such circumstances both in their own best interests as well as the national interests so that, while seeking employment and unable to get it, these "out-of-work" benefits should be accepted and used properly, these being provided and available for a maximum of one year during the 18 months following discharge. It is $50 monthly for single men and $10 for married men with an additional allowance for children.

It is reported in Ottawa that while thousands of ex-servicemen who served in the United States armed forces have been granted full pardons by proclamation of the President, yet such action has not taken place in Canada. After attending international conferences in Paris, Copenhagen and London, V. C. Phelan, Director of Information in the Department of Labor in Ottawa, has returned to the capital with greater pride than ever in his country which, he asserted, indicates that Canada is given important recognition at all international gatherings. He disclosed that an international labor organization meeting will be held in Canada in 1946. He also stated that the magnitude of Canada's war effort and her success in keeping prices were well-known abroad.

Col. G. G. D. Kilpatrick, Director of Canadian Army Educational Services, told an audience in Ottawa that there has been a terrible degeneration of literature in the past few years so that an epidemic of writers' cramp would be to the benefit of civilization. He remarked that "tons of tawdry, cheap and sometimes obscene writing is flooding the market." Tire rationing has ended and now it is a serious thought in Ottawa what will happen to the great synthetic rubber industry which has been built up at the cost of millions of dollars in both the United States and Canada. If synthetic rubber tires can be produced at quality and prices as good as the natural types, what will become of the great natural rubber tires industry? If, on the other hand, the synthetic rubber industry cannot compete with the natural product, what about the huge investment in this country during the war? The Royal Canadian Mounted Police will soon have an air branch. This has been reported in Ottawa where it has been pointed out that this famous police force will likely use this faster method of transportation especially in such areas as the Northwest Territories and the coast lines.

Labour Saver.

A baler with a pickup attachment has been used for laying operations for the past two years at the Dominion Experimental Farm, Indian Head, Sask. The machine bales the hay directly from the windrows and thereby eliminates much of the heavy labour involved under ordinary methods. The quality of the hay produced is improved by a reduction in the loss of leaves, made possible by less frequent handling of the crop.

Spike-Tooth Harrow.

The spike-tooth harrow is effective in closing the air spaces in spring plowing and in killing small weeds. The quality of the work depends very largely upon the moisture content of the surface soil, the sharpness of the teeth, and the speed of operation. Presently, the use of the spike-tooth harrow causes the spread of perennial weeds where these weeds are present in patches.

STOP 'N TALK CROPS.

Feeding Swine.

In our last two visits we chatted about feeding best and dairy cattle. This week we'll turn to the swine. After all, they are the most economical converter of feed to meat. Perhaps it is because hogs so excel in this class that they come in for so much political discussion whenever their production goes up or down. We don't care to add to the confusion of some of these arguments but will pass along a little information that is not debatable and concerns feeding hogs.

This animal is a great scavenger, so the city pigs, or should we say, those in piggeries near a city, do very well on a diet of garbage. They prefer their garbage raw rather than cooked but in the raw it often contains harmful ingredients. Most garbage is more or less a balanced ration, and requires little supplementary feed but weight is put on faster by adding barley or middlings.

Grain is Good.

Corn, either shelled or on the cob, is most commonly used and one type is just as good as the other as far as building weight. Whole corn has a lot of oil in it and can cause soft pork if fed too liberally. Because corn is low in protein, it requires something like soybean meal with it but no more than 10 per cent because it also contains considerable oil.

Protein Needed.

Hogs grow rapidly and their feed requirements change just as quickly, which means high protein rations are necessary. Plenty of protein is available in tankage, milk products, linseed, soybean, fish and alfalfa meals. Tankage and fish meal also have a supply of minerals. Fish meal does still another step by supplying vitamins A and D but must be used only according to directions — it may taint the meat otherwise. A pork chop tasting like codfish just isn't a pork chop.

Skim milk and buttermilk are both fine for young hogs but not whole milk which, due to its fat content, can cause digestive troubles in young pigs. Grains and protein concentrate are usually low in minerals and vitamins but this can be overcome by feeding about 5 per cent alfalfa or other legume hay.

The "Trinity" mixture makes a very good protein concentrate for pigs and consists of 50 pounds of tankage or fish meal, 25 pounds of chopped alfalfa hay, and 25 pounds of linseed meal. Using this mixture, the hog raiser will have few worries about diseases and lack of minerals and vitamins in his animals.

Others are Asking?

Q—I am a farmer and am getting two ton trucks. Will I have any trouble getting P.C.V.V. licenses for them? What will I have to do to get them?

A—The granting of P.C.V. licenses is not a matter for the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. You apply to the Ontario Department of Highways at Toronto.

Q—I rented a house to a family last June. They were to pay the rent a month in advance. However, they are refusing to pay the rent because they claim the house is leaking. I have a chance to sell this house. Can I give the tenants a notice to vacate?

A—If these tenants are behind in the payment of their rent for 15 days you can take the same procedure to obtain possession of your property as you would in normal times. When any tenant does not pay his rent he automatically removes himself from any protection offered by rental regulations of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Q—What is the difference between the ceiling price for dressed poultry and for drawn poultry?

A—Price regulations give 10 cents per pound above the retail prices for the drawn weight or if drawn after having been weighed and sold it is 10 cents per bird for drawing.

Q—Is meat rationing soon to be discontinued in Canada?

A—Meat rationing is a matter of Government policy. It is administered by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board which has no authority to determine when it may be discontinued.

Anaemia of Horses.

In the past, infectious anaemia of horses has given rise to great economic loss, states the annual report of the Science Service, Dominion Department of Agriculture. The disease was at one time confined to Western Canada but in later years has made its way into the Eastern Provinces and become important, particularly in the lumbering districts of northern Ontario and northern Quebec. There are many features of interest concerning this disease, says the report, and from time to time attempts have been made to immunize against it. Using newer methods of study, attempts have been made to propagate the virus under artificial conditions but it appeared to be one of those who does not lend itself to this purpose. Newer methods of preparing specific vaccines have been employed and these vaccines are at present under critical study to determine their potency.

New Variety of Oats Prove Satisfactory.

The new variety Beaver which was distributed for the first time by the Cereal Division, Central Experimental Farm in the spring of 1945, has, in general, shown up quite well in spite of unusually severe growing conditions says R. A. Derick, Cereal Division, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. A very heavy infection of leaf rust was general throughout Eastern Canada, even in areas normally more or less free from this disease. Severe damage, however, was much worse on the later sown crops. Damage from stem rust was much more localized and could in most cases be traced directly to barberry bushes in the vicinity.

Beaver oats is the result of a cross between Vanguard and Erban and combines the qualities of the two parents. It is medium early maturing, has fair length and strength of straw, yields well and produces a kernel of good size and fair quality. Beaver has the same degree of resistance to stem rust as Vanguard and to leaf rust as Erban. Previous to 1945, the degree of rust resistance carried by the parent varieties as well as Beaver was sufficient insurance against severe attacks of the prevailing races of both rusts in Eastern Canada. The sudden increase in 1945, however, of new races of both rusts to which neither of the parents of Beaver is resistant coupled with the extremely favourable conditions for rust development, was largely responsible for the rust damage to Beaver this year.

Farmers' tests with Beaver numbering over 80 in 1945, were widely scattered in Ontario and reports so far reviewed are, in general, quite satisfactory. Over 1,400 bushels of seed of Beaver oats were distributed to seed growers in Ontario in the spring of 1945 and it is estimated that between 20 and 30 thousand bushels of seed from this source will be available to growers for the 1946 crop.

Keep Your Eyes on the Target

By R. J. Deachman.

Some time ago I wrote a story in which I tried to point out that the proper goal of economic effort is a higher national income — not full employment. I meant by this that we must keep our eyes on the target. Without a high national income we can never be satisfied. We might, however, have full employment with the lowest national income in the world. China is a good example, so also is India. Everybody working, but everybody getting a living, all are desperately poor. Let us be very careful lest in our effort to get what is called "full employment" we get poverty rather than riches.

Then a few days ago I ran across an article in the New York Times written by Henry Hazlitt, a brilliant financial writer, in which appeared these words:

"It would be far better, if that were the choice — which it isn't — to have a maximum production with part of the population supporting its idleness by means of unemployment than to provide 'full employment' by so many forms of disguised make-work that production is disorganized."

Mr. Hazlett is quite right, nothing could be more demoralizing than the provisions of employment on work which is wholly uneconomic.

The task before us is quite clear. Employment of a creative kind consists in the production of commodities which have a use-value, supply a social need, and can be sold on the market; or the provision of services which have a similar value. When we go beyond that there are certain forms of effort which have no value over the long period of the years but not an immediate use-value. Does any man doubt that a thorough study of our forest problem would reveal the fact that we are using up our timber supplies rather rapidly while we have millions of acres of land, some of it now classed as agricultural, with no net productive value as farm land but which could be used for the growing of new forests.

The House of Commons has been discussing recently programs of water conservation. They should have been studied and provided years ago. A start has been made with the Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Act. It has been a success. With relatively small expenditure marked progress has been made, but we have not yet grasped these problems as a whole, and faced them on broad lines as part of our national effort, as a long time approach to the problem of an increased national income. We are eloquent on talks of increased social services but we fail to realize that expenditures on social services are hopeless unless we are prepared to deal with the larger problem of a higher income out of which these obligations are to be met. Otherwise our social services are likely to intensify the problem they are supposed to remedy.

A higher national income should be put at the front of our program instead of in the background, as it is under present circumstances, while competent men ought to know better are trying to support the contention that a redistribution of the national income should be the leading item in our economic program.

Q—Has the farmer any ceiling price for turkeys or geese which he sells to the retailer?

A—Yes. Wholesale ceiling prices apply to all sales to the trade whether by wholesalers or producers.

Whose Security Is It?

By Lewis Milligan.

Labor leaders all over Canada are demanding "Union Security," and that demand is acknowledged to have been the "focal point" of recent labor disputes and strikes.

The Ford strike at Windsor might never have occurred, and it certainly would not have been so long drawn out, but for this demand for "Union Security."

Ten thousand workers lost three months' wages, and 8,500 sympathy strikers lost one month's pay, and the commercial life of Windsor was disrupted and impoverished because of the insistent demand for "Union Security." Most of the other 21 demands could have been settled by negotiation.

What is "Union Security?" What benefits or security did those 18,500 workers hope to obtain from it? Would it give them security in their jobs by promoting the automobile industry and the sale of motor cars? That is the only way in which jobs in any industry can be made secure.

"Union Security" has nothing to do with the security of employment for the workers. That is up to the enterprising industrialist in reducing the cost of production, improving the quality of his product and promoting the sale of his goods at home and abroad. The retail price of a product has a great deal to do with sales, and that price is determined by the cost of production, which in turn is determined by the cost and efficiency of labor. Low prices mean more sales, and more sales mean more and steadier employment for the workers. High prices mean the opposite.

To whom, then, does "Union Security" give security?

The answer is: To the labor leaders and those employed in union organizations.

Who is asked to provide "Union Security," and by what means?

The answer is: The employer, by means of the closed shop and the check-off. The closed shop is a shop in which no one is allowed to get or hold a job unless he is a member or agrees to become a member of the recognized union.

The right of a man to hold a job is important, but the right to get a job is equally important, and any organization which interferes with that right robs him of his free citizenship. The very fact that unions are demanding from employers that they maintain union membership and collect union dues, plainly indicates that many workers are indifferent to the union and are only members by compulsion.

Ontario Can Increase the SUGAR SUPPLY

Here are the production figures in recent years:

1943 — 19,000,000 pounds

1944 — 38,000,000 pounds

1945 — 44,000,000 pounds

1946—This is the BIG question. As '44 doubled the '43 production, '46 can double the '45 production.

ONTARIO CAN DO IT

The Dominion-Provincial Agricultural Conference has set a goal of 85,000 acres of Ontario sugar beets for 1946. This gain must be all in the Southwestern counties which are within shipping distance of the beet-sugar factories at Chatham and Wallaceburg.

AGAIN IT IS UP TO ONTARIO TO PRODUCE THE GOODS

In 1945, beet-growers in Southwestern Ontario did a great job. Despite bad weather and shortage of help, they increased their acreage substantially. In 1946, with the probability of more labour, more mechanization and the hope of better weather, as well as a good price for the beets, it is expected that Ontario will meet the demand and increase the Canadian and world supply of this vital food.

This Company congratulates all sugar-beet growers on a fine job done for themselves and for consumers. Growers should be even more successful in 1946.

We Must Not Be Embittered.

By R. J. Deachman.

Mr. Elmore Philpott, who runs a column in a number of papers across Canada is normally a very fine chap, cultured, kindly, reasonable. Lately he is revealing a sadness of spirit which worries me greatly. Mr. Philpott finds that there is a bitter world trade brewing in the distance, in fact, it is almost here. He is annoyed because Great Britain is cutting down her Canadian purchases despite our generosity in extending credit to her.

Britain has a tough job ahead of her. The question I raise is this: When a nation reaches the stage at which its total volume of exports, whether of goods or services, plus interest upon its investments abroad and certain other incidental earnings, are not sufficient to pay for its former volume of imports, what can it do about it?

Britain, of all countries, will find it difficult to cut down imports, does it only under compulsion, buys now the essentials only, strips even these to the marrow of their bones.

Britain has to start at the bottom, re-build her shipping, find markets lost when she stood almost alone, increase her foreign investments, a slow process, bringing up her exports to the point where they will pay for imports desperately needed. The task would be extremely difficult under a process of bilateral trading — possible only if we move forward, or is it backward to multilateral world trade. This, however, is the thing which Mr. Philpott does not want us to do. He proposes to say to the people of the United Kingdom:

"If you agree to buy from us at least $400 millions worth of goods or services per year, we agree to buy back the same amount from you."

What a suggestion! Suppose the British should turn to past history, we sold them more than we bought from them and then said: "Why this change?" Wouldn't our faces be red?

Here are the figures for four years:

Figures in millions and fractions of millions.
	Imports	Exports
1926	$163.7	$509.2
1927	163.9	448.0
1928	186.4	412.7
1929	194.0	431.6

In every year since 1890 our exports to the United Kingdom have exceeded our imports from that country and now, limit their use to the purchase of goods in Canada regardless of the interests of the borrowing country.

It may be done, but I doubt the wisdom or the fairness of it. Says Sir William Beveridge:

"In terms of convenience for traffic, world-wide multilateral trade may be likened to an elevator, speedy but capable of going out of action. Regional multilateral trade may be likened to a staircase, less speedy but consistent with reasonable comfort. Bilateralism is the fire-escape, clumsy but certain."

Now why, at this juncture, does Mr. Philpott express his preference for the fire escape?

Then he outlines a plan which would rob Britain of further resources. One of the ideas suggested is the purchasing of stocks, bonds and mortgages held by citizens of the United Kingdom, preferably in America. That is Britain is to be asked to sacrifice her capital investments and use the money to buy the necessities of life in Canada.

Then he follows it with another very complex one. He suggests: "Financing of vast research schemes, either in Britain for Canadian benefit, or in Canada by British personnel, who would be paid in Britain." What an amazingly complex suggestion, I wonder what Canadian scientists would think of that program? How would it appeal to the British. Wouldn't they feel like Samson, the blind chap, who grind corn in the mills of the Philistines.

There are two other suggestions: "The establishment of thousands of scholarships in British institutions" and "Organization of mass tours by Canadians to Britain, etc." These, in relationship to the problem, are relatively insignificant and scarcely worth serious consideration.

The concluding sentence of Mr. Philpott's article is: "We see example after example of nations doing uneconomic things which seem ridiculous in themselves, but which are not ridiculous on the level of the monetary battle." Nations can now get rich by doing uneconomic things — they are not ridiculous, "on the level of the monetary battle." We injure each other in war, why not in peace?

So we are going back to the basis of doing evil in the hope that this will make us richer. An economic thing is something which has a profit in it. Something that it pays us to do, pays also the other party to the deal. The new age which was to bring us the blessings of which mankind has dreamed down the centuries is to find us doing unprofitable things because on the level of a "monetary battle" they have virtue in them. On that basis the world is entitled to its misery — plenty of it.

Dairy Farmers Meet In Niagara Falls

When the Dairy Farmers of Canada meet at Niagara Falls, Ont., on Jan. 17, 18 and 19 they will review a year of record production, record exports, record domestic consumption and unsatisfied demand. President R. H. M. Bailey (left), Edmonton, will preside over the convention, for which arrangements are being made by Secretary Erle Kitchen (right), Woodstock, Ont. Three sons operate Mr. Kitchen's big 300-acre dairy farm at Woodstock.

Color in the Schoolroom.

The time-honoured combination of buff and cream for classrooms is on the way out for some 200 New York schools, to be replaced by five new color schemes designed to blend the most soothing shades of the spectrum and provide what is described as "a far more home-like atmosphere, conducive to better work."

The country schoolhouse or the village school is not a metropolitan centre of learning as is a big New York school, but the principles of color are the same wherever they are used, and possibly there is a lesson for small school decoration in the giant repainting job being done in New York.

The description comes from Dr. N. L. Englehart, head of the Division of Housing and Administration of the New York Board of Education. The colors chosen are combinations of blue, rose, silver gray, pale green, blue-green, gray green and yellow.

"Color classrooms," says Dr. Englehart, "were endorsed after a year of experimentation in which the reaction of teachers and pupils to a variety of hues in the classrooms was carefully checked. The five combinations, each including two soft colors for the walls, a black baseboard and white or cream ceiling, were chosen for the best aesthetic effect together with the practical consideration of light reflection and maintenance."

The new painting program is conducive of better work and a new pride in the school room on the part of each child, because the variety of color schemes will do much to dispel the institutional atmosphere and replace it with a home atmosphere — a place where children and teachers will enjoy working together."

The approved combinations call for an array of shades in contrast to the cream walls and buff dados now in use. One combination, for instance, uses a dark silver dado with pale silver walls. A gayer design is that of the yellow room with light blue dado, while a warm cream room with a copy rose dado is almost equally as gay in its appearance. The fifth combination is a light green room with a gray dado.

In each case, the dado is the area rising about four feet above the floor, which takes the brunt of the wear and there is therefore painted a darker shade. The upper walls are done in lighter shades to increase the light reflections as well as to provide the pleasing contrast with the lower walls.

Selection of color schemes is being made by principals and teachers of each school, guided by a report of the Bureau of Plant Operations and Maintenance which outlines aids for selecting the color scheme with a view to exposure, size of room, and the use to which it is put.

There are two other suggestions: "The establishment of thousands of scholarships in British institutions" and "Organization of mass tours by Canadians to Britain, etc." These, in relationship to the problem, are relatively insignificant and scarcely worth serious consideration.

The concluding sentence of Mr. Philpott's article is: "We see example after example of nations doing uneconomic things which seem ridiculous in themselves, but which are not ridiculous on the level of the monetary battle." Nations can now get rich by doing uneconomic things — they are not ridiculous, "on the level of the monetary battle." We injure each other in war, why not in peace?

So we are going back to the basis of doing evil in the hope that this will make us richer. An economic thing is something which has a profit in it. Something that it pays us to do, pays also the other party to the deal. The new age which was to bring us the blessings of which mankind has dreamed down the centuries is to find us doing unprofitable things because on the level of a "monetary battle" they have virtue in them. On that basis the world is entitled to its misery — plenty of it.

Worrying About the National Debt.

By Lewis Milligan.

In one of his pawky patter interludes, Harry Lauder used to tell of how one day he found his out-of-work brother sitting with his head propped on his fist and a worried look on his face, gazing into the kitchen fire. "What are you sitting there worrying about?" inquired Harry. To which his brother replied in a dismal tone, "I was just thinking about the National Debt."

The idea of an "expanding economy" is based upon historical fact. There has been a continual expansion in every direction under the capitalist system. In the past three hundred years, beginning with the expansion of world trade, largely promoted by British explorers and traders, there has been an industrial and commercial expansion beyond anything ever known in the world before. This industrial development called forth the inventive spirit, resulting in the machine age and all the marvels of modern science and mechanics, the latest of which is the atomic bomb.

With this industrial and commercial expansion we have had a steady rise in the standard of living, which in turn called for rises in wages and prices. Between these two latter — wages and prices — there has been a perpetual race, which is the chief cause of most of our labor disputes and strikes. No sooner are wages pushed ahead of prices than prices take a spurt to catch up, and so the race goes on. This race was speeded up during the First World War when both wages and prices pressed ahead without much attempt at control, and they kept a fairly even pace. During the last World War (that should be its perpetual title) wages raced ahead while prices were held back, and now that the war is over Labor is demanding wage increases without increase in prices. This is not only illogical, it is industrially and commercially suicidal.

The market value of any commodity is determined by the cost of its production. The price at which it is sold must cover the cost of labor, plus that of the raw materials, management, distribution, taxes and other expenditures for maintaining and promoting the industry. If the selling price does not cover all these costs, then the industry will go to the wall and unemployment will follow as night follows day. This law of expansion applies whether industry is run under government or private ownership. No socialist theories can change this fixed law of wages and prices and the sooner organized labor realizes and acknowledges that fact the better for labor, for industry and the nation as a whole.

It seems to me that labor is, like Harry Lauder's out-of-work brother, worrying too much about the National Debt and other abstract economic problems when it should be concentrating on the job of ensuring a high and rising national income and standard of living by higher production.

1. On and after January 1st, 1946, all unused sugar coupons in consumers' ration books may be used to purchase sugar or preserves.

2. The sugar coupon will be good for 1 pound of sugar or double the amount of preserves which may be purchased by the present preserves coupon.

3. All P coupons Nos. 1 to 25, all preserves coupons (size 13/16" x 11-16") will be eliminated by expiring them on January 31st, 1946. Up to that time these preserves and "P" coupons may be used to buy sugar or preserves at the old preserves coupon values.

4. Sugar coupons 68 and 69 will become good on January 17th. Sugar coupon 70 and Coupon "S" 1 will become good on February 21st. After that time the "S" coupons will be used for the sugar and preserves rations.

When the supply is abundant enough the ration will be increased. This usually takes place around the first of April.

There will be no change in coupon values, the reduction being effected by missing a coupon every fourth week instead of every eighth week as at present.

Current Sugar and Preserves Rations Will be Maintained.

2. BUTTER. The butter ration was reduced on January 1st, 1946, from 7 ounces to 6 ounces per person.

As in previous years, during the low producing period, we are required to conserve the butter we have on hand, and, as in the past, the consumer will receive slightly reduced rations.

Lindsay Farough Dies Quite Suddenly.

The people of Essex and Maldstone Cross district were shocked when they learned that Lindsay Farough had passed away suddenly on Tuesday evening, before medical aid could reach him.

Mr. Farough had worked hard all day sawing wood and had eaten a hearty supper before being seized with the fatal heart attack.

Deceased, who was 70 years of age, was born in Sandwich South Township, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Farough, pioneer settlers, and had farmed on the 10th Concession all his life.

Surviving are his widow, the former Mabel Bullock, and a daughter Mary (Mrs. Cecil Pomeroy) of Detroit; also a brother Thomas, of Windsor. A brother, William, died a year ago.

Resting at his late home, where a short funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. on Friday, thence to Maldstone United Church at 2.30. Burial is to be in Greenhill Cemetery, Kingsville.

Amos Gammon Passes.

Funeral services for the late Amos E. Gammon, a life-long resident of Cottam and district, were held from the Hicks & Son Funeral Home, on Monday, in charge of Rev. Stanley Johnson. Interment was in Greenhawn Memorial Park, the pallbearers being Earl Pratt, Ern Riley, Lewis Clark Alvin Kay, Stephen Newman and Elton Newman.

Deceased, who was 76 years of age, was born in Gosfield North, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Gammon, and farmed all his life on the North Road, in the township, until retiring and moving into the village about twenty years ago. He had been troubled for years with asthma, but death, at the home of his brother in Essex, was quite sudden.

Surviving is an elder brother, J. H. (Dick) Gammon, of Essex.

Fathers and Sons.

After a lapse of five years, the fathers and sons of the congregation, and friends of the United Church will continue their annual Father and Son banquet. Dr. Albert J. Lindsay, of Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, Detroit, has accepted an invitation to address the ladies and their dads on Tuesday, February 26th. Reserve the date.

New Zone Commander.

John R. Dean, prominent business man of Wheatley, president of the Wheatley branch of the Canadian Legion, was elected zone commander for Zone 1, at a meeting held recently in Leamington. He was the unanimous choice of the 14 voting delegates, two each from the six different branches, after George Brown, of Amherstburg, had resigned due to ill-health.

McNaughton-Goodburn Wedding.

A beautiful candlelight wedding of wide interest was solemnized at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, January 10th, at Essex Baptist Church, when Rev. Fred Wakeling united in marriage Miss Frances Goodburn, daughter of E. J. Goodburn and Robert McNaughton, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert McNaughton.

On motion of Messrs. Lee and Brushett, Wm. Andrew was appointed town representative on the High School Board.

Another matter brought up by the Mayor was the swearing in of the newly-elected Council at an earlier date. This matter was left with the town solicitor.

Mr. Linton reported Miss Elda Ransom had been having trouble with the basement in her home flooding at every rain. She had only been having the trouble the past two or three years, so thought it must be caused by town drain.

Mr. Chase and Mr. Francotte both thought the town drain was o. k. and it was just a case of town tile not being able to carry the water during a heavy rain, fast enough.

Mr. Chase thought something should be done about the Greyhound drivers throwing the bundles of papers on the sidewalk. He thought these papers should be thrown off some other place than right in the middle of the town. He also brought up matter of double parking, especially by Greyhound buses meeting in town. Parking on Alice and Center streets at the Pentecostal Church corner also entered into the discussion, which lasted some time.

Mr. Geddes, town solicitor, reported on Judge Gordon's judgment of County Equalization Court. He stated that while the appealing municipalities were decreased they were still much higher than before, and that the total county assessment is increased over $5,000,000, from $5 million to $5.5 million, with the Town of Essex owing an increase of only about $10,000.

Council decided to meet next Monday evening to try and prepare a budget, and again went into committee of a whole to discuss matters which will pertain to 1946.

Council adjourned.

Essex Town Council.

Monday, January 14th.
Council met, according to statutes, in the Council Chamber, at 7 p.m., with Mayor-elect John C. Linton in the chair, Reeve Frank Irwin, and Councillors Chase, Francotte, Shaw, Lee, Brushett and Pulleyblank present.

All members took their oath of office.

Rev. Mr. Parr, who was present, at the request of the Mayor, congratulated all members on their election and, as a representative of the Essex Ministerial Association, brought felicitations. He also thanked the 1945 Mayor and his Council for the fine co-operation given the Association at the different memorial services and Welcome Home gatherings.

Council opened after a short prayer by Rev. Parr.

Following a few remarks by the Mayor, Council went into committee of a whole and selected the Standing Committees for the year, which were approved, on motion of Messrs. Chase and Irwin, after Council re-convened.

The Committees.

First name in each committee, chairman:

Finance—Shaw, Lee, Pulleyblank.

Police and Charity—Irwin, Chase.

Board of Works—Francotte, Brushett.

Fire and Light—Chase, Francotte.

Sanitation and Health — Brushett.

Drainage — Lee, Francotte.

Property and Park—Pulleyblank, Irwin.

Commissioners — Ward 1, Shaw;

Ward 2a, from south side of Center street to north side of Her avenue,

Chas. Brushett; Ward 2b, from south side of Her avenue, to town limits,

Percey Lee; Ward 2c, from south side of Arthur avenue to town limits, Frank Irwin;

Ward 3b, from north side of Arthur avenue to M. C. R. tracks, Sid Francotte;

Ward 3c, from M. C. R. tracks north to town limits, Earl Pulleyblank.

On motion, the following were chosen "Town Reception Committee for 1946": Earl Pulleyblank, Jack Shaw, Percy Lee.

Mayor Linton reported he had had several matters brought to his attention by different ratepayers in town. First is the need of a bus station in town.

After a lengthy discussion the Mayor and Reeve were appointed a committee to see the District Traffic Manager of the Greyhound Company re-sume.

Another need was a spotlight at the intersection of Talbot, Gordon and Center streets. This light would have a tendency to slow down traffic going through town and would make it far safer for pedestrians crossing Talbot, as well as auto traffic crossing the highway at the angle caused by Gordon avenue and Center street.

Still another was the shortage of doctors in town, there being only two practising today, where there have been as high as six, and for years five. The town is left most of the time without a doctor on call.

The Clerk was instructed to write the Department of Veterans Affairs, Windsor, and the Department of Health, Toronto, and appraise them of this fact.

The Mayor also reported on a bad hole on Medora street, in front of the Thomas Fairbairn property.

Mr. Linton stated that the Council had to make an appointment on the new Essex High School District Board. On motion of Messrs. Lee and Brushett, Wm. Andrew was appointed town representative on the High School Board.

Another matter brought up by the Mayor was the swearing in of the newly-elected Council at an earlier date. This matter was left with the town solicitor.

Mr. Linton reported Miss Elda Ransom had been having trouble with the basement in her home flooding at every rain. She had only been having the trouble the past two or three years, so thought it must be caused by town drain.

James Armstrong Elected as County Warden.

James Armstrong, Reeve of Mervin Township, was elected Warden of the County for 1946 at the inaugural meeting of Essex County Council, on Tuesday. Three other prominent candidates in his favour and he was given an acclamation. The three to withdraw were George Bennett, of Malden; Fred Pettipiece, of Anderton; and Herman Smasac, of Amherstburg.

Cottam Post Office Robbed.

Thieves broke into the Cottam post office, between Midnight Monday and early Tuesday morning, to carry off the 300 pound safe, not touching anything else in the building. Entrance was gained through the front door.

Postmaster Ern Riley reported the robbery to Provincial Police early on Tuesday. The wrecked safe was found later in the morning on the Belle River Road, near North Woodslee. Provincial Constables Ramsbottom, Harold Yule and Bert Tinson investigated, and on Tuesday evening arrested Wilmer Laramie, of Maldstone Township. He was arraigned in Windsor police court on Wednesday on a charge of breaking into the Cottam post office, being remanded in custody to January 24th.

In spite of the fact that Laramie swallowed two fives, a two and a one dollar bill, the Provincial Police saw them long enough to identify them as being money stolen from the safe.

Mr. Riley, at the close of the post office on Monday, had taken down the serial numbers of the paper money he had in his possession and placed in the safe, so it was by these serial numbers the money found on Laramie, but which he chewed up and swallowed, was identified.

Annual Meeting of St. Paul's Women's Guild.

The annual report of St. Paul's Women's Guild showed most gratifying results, both financially and socially. Meetings were held regularly each month, at the following homes: Mrs. Ship, Mrs. Philpott, Mrs. Benton, Mrs. Sadler's cottage at the lake, Mrs. J. A. Nightingale, Mrs. K. E. Brett and Mrs. V. W. Jones. A pot luck supper was held in the parish hall, in September, when the girls of the Junior W. A. were entertained to supper and a movie.

Interesting programs were given at each meeting. A card party was held at the home of Mrs. G. I. Geddes, in January, and one in the parish hall in May. Members were entertained by the ladies of Cottam Guild, in June, by a visit to Mrs. Person's garden, followed by supper and entertainment at the hall.

The Guild catered for the following dinners: Rotary Club, Victory Loan, Sportsmen's Fish Fry, two wedding suppers, banquet in honour of Mr. Mansell, Harvest Home Dinner, Fall Victory Loan, County Library Board, and Bazaar supper.

The outstanding event of the year was the burning of the mortgage on the parish hall.

Officers for 1946 have been appointed as follows: Honorary president, Mrs. A. R. McBrien, honorary vice-president, Mrs. T. B. S. Tweedale; honorary 2nd vice-president, Mrs. Hyland; president, Mrs. K. E. Brett; 1st vice-president, Mrs. J. H. Whealen; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. H. Yule; secretary, Mrs. J. Shaw; assistant secretary, Mrs. J. Barker; assistant treasurer, Mrs. H. W. Hall; diningroom conveners, Mrs. Cascadden and Mrs. Sadler; kitchen conveners, Mrs. Parsons and Mrs. Tallent; committee for coffee, Mrs. Near and Mrs. Alexander; visiting committee, Mrs. Fields; Mrs. Melcalfe, Mrs. Philpott, Mrs. C. Smith; rectory committee, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Cascadden, Mrs. Perrin; program committee, Mrs. Benton, Mrs. Parsons.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 1946.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES.

By Dean Wilson.

Though on the surface it would seem that domestic issues arising out of the Dominion-Provincial Conference are thorny and difficult for the Federal Government to handle at this time, yet it is known behind the scenes in Ottawa that conditions are changing so rapidly and radically on the international scene that problems of world government resulting from the peace after the war are even more vexatious or harassing at the moment. Canada has gained a strong voice in world affairs, a much stronger voice than the average man or woman within this country realizes, not merely as a "go-between" the United States and Britain, but as one of the biggest leaders amongst the smaller nations next to the major powers themselves, with this bringing proportionate responsibilities in world government. Indeed, when the Big Three foreign ministers met in Moscow recently to arrange proposed procedures for the drafting of peace treaties, it was hinted in Ottawa that Canada was being kept well informed. When the Canadian delegation went to London for the United Nations General Assembly Conference, an impressive group of delegates represented Canada, consisting of several Ministers of the Crown under the chairmanship of Rt. Hon. St. Laurent, as well as many advisers, such as Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian High Commissioner in London; Hume Wrong, Associate Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs; Louis Rasminsky, of the Foreign Exchange Control Board; R. A. D. Ford and E. A. Cote, External Affairs Service; J. E. Jones, Department of Finance, and others.

Moreover, the close ties between world government and national administration in this new era is openly discussed now in Ottawa so that it is held that there can be no real peace within a nation if there is continuous strife, hunger, disease and serious obstacles in the path of peace within other nations of the world. Therefore it is emphasized in strong words in Ottawa that this must be understood by everyone in efforts to decipher the changing conditions of the times. In fact, Canada's whole existence depends not only on her own domestic issues being solved but on her ability to fit the solution of her own problems into the wider pattern of world planning for peace, with this nation's role in this dramatic effort having already been witnessed in her activity in ratification of the United Nations charter, at the San Francisco Conference, Bretton Woods Agreements, United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA), Food and Agriculture Organization meeting at Quebec, the Civil Aviation gathering in Montreal, International Labor Organization in Paris, and the United Nations General Assembly Conference in London.

It should be evident why the time and effort of Canada's leaders in Ottawa are so much occupied with world government and its extremely close new tie-up with three main domestic tasks facing the Government in this nation's capital at the present time. This must be understood properly for intelligent observation of nature at affairs in this most critical and unprecedented period of world history after World War II.

A new Canada Medal and Canada Order seem to be on the way as distinctive methods for presenting honours and awards in Ottawa where it is suggested that, before long, such a system of recognition for Canadians may be established and in time replacing all British honours to Canadians whose civilian life was missing in the last of such King's honours at the start of 1946. It is pointed out that the mass of civilians were withheld from the New Year's recommendations to His Majesty for this reason, that is for the reason that later in this year or shortly thereafter a list of civilian war honours may be made, and distinctive Canada medals already authorized, may be given to citizens of this country who rendered services of this kind to the nation.

Of course, Canadians cannot accept titles, which were first banned in Canada in 1919 when Parliament in Ottawa asked His Majesty not to grant such titles to Canadians after such titles had been granted to Canadians in World War I, though in 1939 a majority vote in the House of Commons under Premier Bennett had favoured such titles to be renewed. But when Premier King came to power with a Liberal administration in 1935 such titles were again banned and none have been granted since that time. Now, it is held in Ottawa that before long a distinctive method of honours and awards for Canadians may be established and these may, in time, replace entirely such awards from the Motherland, perhaps, with the exception of wards for gallantry in battle, though even in the latter case there is no certainty of possible changes in the system.

There has been a spotlight lately upon veterans' affairs in the drama of events on Parliament Hill to an unusual extent. One report has shown that there is considerable reluctance on the part of many veterans to enter into training for the building trades and one official has attributed this to the fact that "by and large we have paid too little for the difficult and hard jobs in Canada's" with the disclosure that between April 1st, 1944, and October 31st, 1945, of approximately 16,000 veterans enrolled for training only about 1700 were in the building trades, even if there was a strong demand now for such workers. Another story heard in Ottawa is that there is much dissatisfaction amongst veterans regarding their employment opportunities as these are developing after their return from overseas and discharge from the armed services, including many complaints, in whispers at times, at the salaries offered to jobs far from home, in mines, etc. Meanwhile, another report indicates that since "V-E" Day, Canada's armed services have been repatriated 4,000 men approximately from the navy, about 162,000 the army, and about 45,000 the air force, leaving overseas and away from home about 3,000 navy personnel, approximately 100,000 army personnel, and about 20,000 air force personnel.

It is revealed in this capital that the activities of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA) in Ottawa in concentrating now mainly in seeking Canadian personnel for work in the Far East has only one significant point and this is that the task of recruiting Canadians to work in Europe for this international body is almost ended so that only Canadians qualified for such jobs in the Orient are wanted. There are no other reasons for this change.

In regard to the serious crime wave sweeping across Canada at the present time, it can be stated that discussions between Federal and Provincial Attorneys-General are proceeding with a view of tightening the restrictions pertaining to the possession of guns and otherwise taking essential steps in this regard to help curb the crime wave.

With Rt. Hon. Herbert Morrison, Lord President of the Privy Seal in Britain, and General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Chief of the United States Army Staff as well as former Commander-in-Chief of the Allied armies in Europe, being on the list of prominent visitors in Ottawa, this nation's capital is becoming more and more recognized as a "stop over" for famous international figures and this stresses the growth in stature of Canada as a nation amongst nations. Two prominent officials of the Department of Trade and Commerce, John H. English and C. M. Croft, have been appointed Senior Trade Commissioners to South Africa and Australia respectively, but behind these what may appear to be merely routine appointments is the story that the Canadian Government is entering upon a drive to strengthen vastly this country's representations in the other important British Dominions. Likewise, Canada's Minister of Trade and Commerce, Hon. James A. MacInnon, has come to Britain and on a tour of France, Belgium and the Netherlands, in order to discuss some extremely important import as well as export matters with officials there, with numerous rumours about Canada's trade relations with these countries preceding his departure, especially since many Canadian firms have complained bitterly lately against the almost impossibility of exporting certain articles due to restrictions and other obstacles. While there is a shortage of sugar in Canada as in many other nations, yet public relations counsel, for a group of South American sugar interests has made a statement in Ottawa that "there is no longer any adequate justification for sugar rationing in Canada," though it is pointed out in this capital that South American sugar costs about double that of Cuban sugar. The former Minister of Poland to Canada, Victor Podolski, has returned to Ottawa after an absence of about fifteen months when he served the Polish Government in exile in London. There are great opportunities in Canada for composers since Canadian film makers are bolder and less traditional in their employment of music than other producers. This was the statement in Ottawa of the prominent organist and composer, Eldon Rathburn, who has come to the capital where he will prepare the music for the National Film Board's production, "To the Ladies." Canadian casualties in World War II totalled 104,925, including 41,371 dead, as compared with casualties of 190,092, including 62,817 dead, in World War I. This has been disclosed in Ottawa where it was also shown that of the three services in World War II the Army had the greatest number killed and died, 22,712, with the air force being 16,694 and the navy 1,965.

Red Cross to Establish Loan Cupboards.

Loan cupboards containing a pool of sickroom equipment which will be loaned where needed, will shortly be established in Branch areas of the Canadian Red Cross Society in Ontario. Miss F. H. M. Emory announced at the meeting of the Ontario Division Executive Committee, recently. This project will be under the auspices of the Department of Home Nursing, First Aid, the Reserve, which with Outpost Hospital Department, comprises the Division's most important peacetime program. "There are many homes where a backrest and a wheel chair would make life a lot easier," said Miss Emory. Soon through this department, an important program of teaching First Aid will be commenced throughout the province.

Good Time to Fix Harness.

Except for those now busy at work in the woods, most farmers are able to give their horses a bit of a rest during the winter. And while the harness is not in steady use now, many farmers take this opportunity of getting it in shape.

It is worthwhile to take harness apart and soak it well in warm water and washing soda. After that, borrow the wife's washboard and give the harness a good scrubbing. Then, when it is thoroughly clean, the harness can be soaked in oil.

During the past year it may have been found necessary to make home repairs to harness. There may have been times when it has been mended with nails or wire or a break fastened with rivets or even with binder twine. Those emergency repairs were stop-gaps only and probably would not stand up under the strain of another season's work. Those temporary repairs can now be made permanent by taking the harness to a harness shop before the harness maker is swamped with spring orders.

Successful Battle Against Grain Insects.

The farm wife who is troubled with cuts in her pantry or beetles in her flour barrel is not alone in having insect trouble. Sooner or later every one who stores food is faced with the problem of protecting it from insects. Naturally the biggest problem falls to those who store the largest quantity of food such as the grain elevator operators who store millions of bushels of grain every year.

Few people viewing a grain elevator with its clean walls of thick concrete think of it as being subject to the invasion of insects, yet weevils, beetles, and moths are sometimes busily at work within its bins eating furiously and multiplying as they eat. Into grain elevators in certain parts of the Dominion, the Indian meal moth finds its way and lays its eggs in the bins of golden wheat. The eggs hatch and the larvae select their favourite food, the germ of the grain which they greedily scoop out. The larvae of another pest, the rust-red grain beetle, also burrows into the germ. The immature stage of the granary weevil is not so particular as it hollows out the entire kernel, reducing it to a mere shell.

These troubles developed when Canada was at war and endeavouring to supply Great Britain with as much food as possible, when guns and tanks and planes and men competed with food for space on crowded ships. In normal times, the ever-present insects find little opportunity to establish themselves in Canada's fast-moving grain stores, but with the outbreak of war huge stocks of grain piled up, affording an unusual opportunity for the insect saboteurs.

During the past five years, H. E. Gray, of the Division of Entomology, Dominion Department of Agriculture and B. N. Smallman, of the Board of Grain Commissioners, have been directing the battle against insects entrenched in stored grain. So successful has been their campaign that the insects are now in retreat; in 1943, insect pests were found in a large percentage of the bins examined by these government officials; by 1945, the infestation in these same elevators had been reduced by 73 per cent, and in many of the elevators it was practically impossible to find any living insects.

The entomologists began their campaign by recommending methods of insect control and showing the elevator owners and operators how to apply these methods. Their work was effective, but only to a degree. These two entomologists in the spring of 1945 invited grain elevator representatives to attend a short course in insect control which was held at Montreal, Toronto, Port Arthur, and Vancouver. For four days at each of these centres a total of 260 representatives of 82 different grain storage organizations saw educational films, listened to lectures, examined live and dead grain insects, and asked hundreds of questions.

When the course was over, practically every elevator company had assigned to one of its staff the task of keeping its premises in such clean condition that insects would find it difficult to stay there. This activity has been carried out under the direction of the binfloor man or elevator foreman who is responsible for the inspection and cleaning of the bins and carrying out insect control and other sanitary measures. If severe infestation should develop, fumigants recommended by the government entomologists are used. Several materials are available which are entirely harmless to grain and may be applied at the top of the bins and will penetrate to the bottom, killing the insects as they go. If the infestation is on the surface, as in the case of the Indian meal moth, the insects are destroyed by a fog-like spray of ten per cent pyrethrum in a high grade odorless oil which, on evaporation, leaves no trace on the grain. The knowledge of their value and the consistent use of these modern fumigants and sprays, combined with good housekeeping practices, have largely eliminated the hazard of insect infestation. This work will be continued for the protection of Canadian wheat standards, to the mutual advantage of grain producers, handlers, and consumers.

MacLean-Hunter Names New Vice-President.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of MacLean-Hunter Publishing Company, Limited, this week, Thomas H. Howse, of Toronto, was elected to the board and appointed and appointed vice-president and treasurer.

Born and educated in London, England, Mr. Howse came to Canada 33 years ago and joined the staff of MacLean-Hunter as cashier in 1921, filling successively the posts of chief accountant, secretary-treasurer and lately, assistant to the president.

Mr. Howse is married and has two daughters.

Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Secretaries, Mr. Howse is a member of the Board of Trade, the Board of Trade Club, the Canadian and Empire Clubs of Toronto.

To Clean and Grade Seed Grain.

There are several types of seed cleaning machines used for removing weed seeds and grading cereal and forage crop seeds. Some types of machines are capable of removing many kinds of weed seeds from nearly all grain, grasses, legumes and other cultivated seeds. Other types are limited to separating only seeds of certain sizes and shapes. In general the cleaners that are equipped with sieves separate according to diameter of the kernels. Machines which are equipped with discs or cylinders or angle screens all have small pockets of specified sizes to difference in seed sizes. Machines having in addition controlled suction or wind blasts, separate seeds according to difference in weight.

The most widely used type of cleaning machine is the so-called "fanning mill," states M. J. Kemp, Dominion Experimental Station, Swift Current, Sask. This type of mill is not the most efficient for grading as for cleaning all kinds of seeds. However, it will do a fairly satisfactory job when the right kind of sieves are used and when operated at a steady speed. At the same time, it is essential to avoid crowding the machine beyond its capacity. Engine power is better than hand power. The cleaning capacity of many commercially made machines is frequently rated at according to their ability to clean or "seal" grain to be sold as ordinary commercial grain. When grain is to be prepared for seed purposes, however, the number of bushels per hour that can be properly cleaned and graded by these same machines may be as much as 50 per cent less than the advertised rated capacity. Actually, only two screens are required in a machine to do seed work. A top screen of the right size floats off chaff, unthreshed heads, "white caps," and oversized seeds. The lower screen allows weed seeds and cracked grain to drop through. A controlled wind blast will remove light and shrunken seeds.

Where cereal or forage crop seeds contain a large amount of straw and different kinds of weed seeds or other grains, it is sometimes necessary to run the seeds through two or three machines in order to do a satisfactory job of cleaning and grading. On most farms there is usually only one kind of seed cleaning machine. If a fanning mill is used, coarse screens may be used for the first cleaning operation. In this way the fanning mill will serve mainly as a scalping machine for removing coarse trash and most of the weed seeds. When the seed is put through the fanning mill for the second time, another set of screens can be used for separating the remaining weed seeds and small, shrunken or broken grain. In this way, the fanning mill is used as a seed grading machine in its second operation.

While putting the seed through the same machine twice entails more work, it ensures that the seed will be well cleaned and graded and if this work is done during the late fall or winter months, the time required is not such an important factor. If seed can also be treated for smut with a dust treatment at the same time that the grain is being cleaned, there will be a saving of valuable time and labor when the rush of spring work on the land is greatest.

Canadian Independent Telephone System.

Five hundred and sixty-two independent telephone systems owned by municipalities or private companies (not including the Bell Telephone Co. of Canada) now have a total investment in Ontario, exceeding $12,000,000, says the Canadian Independent Telephone Association.

Officials of the Association state that Financial Statements to be presented at Annual Meetings of these 562 telephone systems, during January, February and March are expected to show an increased overall investment figure. Gross revenues in many of these systems serving rural Ontario have improved during the war years. Due mainly to material and labor shortages of the past few years, most of these systems now, however, anticipate major expenditures during 1946-47 for re-construction and improvement of plant and service facilities.

Because of these necessarily increased appropriations for plant re-habilitation, and to provide improved service to rural subscribers, C.I.T.A. officials are urging greater interest and attendance at Annual Shareholders' meetings.

Biggest political news in the Capital last week was the publication of the Ontario Conservative Provincial Premier's statement on his idea of Ontario's political position and that province's right of taxation. The line Colonel Drew took, if followed, would seriously slow down if not stop Canada's economic progress.

Already seas of editorial ink have been spilled commenting on the Ontario belief, and it has been pointed out that the objections raised by Colonel Drew to the Federal Government Dominion-Provincial proposals are in conflict with the expressed views of national Progressive Conservative leader Bracken.

Commenting on Colonel Drew's statement, Health Minister Chaitin, speaking for the Federal Government, said:

"The Dominion proposals were designed to foster conditions in Canada in which we could have high employment and a high national income. The discussions at the conference so far have shown that the Governments of all provinces, without exception, wanted to secure these objectives."

A survey by pollsters in these parts of Ontario revealed definite public alarm over the Drew proposals. The prospect of making out income tax returns and paying income tax to both Federal and Provincial (and perhaps municipal too) governments is definitely not popular.

Canada and UNO.

The presence in London of Minister of Justice St. Laurent, Agriculture Minister Gardiner, Secretary of State Martin, Canadian Ambassador to Russia Wilgoss, and Gordon Graydon, political lieutenant to Conservative leader John Bracken, has been widely endorsed in Ottawa. These spokesmen for Canada at the first meeting of the United Nations Organization assembly were Government-chosen and representatives of all political parties agree on the wisdom of the selection. These men will do credit to Canada.

Prime Minister King has already emphasized in the House of Commons on behalf of his Government that Canada stands prepared to take her full place with the great nations of the world in the new era of peace. While Canada wants all of the opportunities justly falling to her, she is also willing to assume her obligations fully. The leaders of the other Canada Canadian political parties have endorsed the Liberal leader's policy here.

There is no doubt that Canada will continue, as well, to be the interpretive link between the United Kingdom and the United States. Active understanding and complete cooperation between the United Kingdom and the United States is obviously very important in the years lying ahead.

Distinguished Visitors.

It was there, a happy augury that within a week Ottawa, Canada's beautiful Capital, played host to two distinguished visitors. One represented the United Kingdom and the other the United States. Both were friendly, gracious, and eager to know more about Canada and Canadians.

Most dramatically received was the United States visitor, General "Pete" Eisenhower, every inch a soldier, the military winner against the best brains of the Axis powers could muster.

The general was loudly cheered by American flags, an artillery salute, and a carillon program. Admirable citizens thronged the route of his parade from the station to the noble War Memorial in Confederation Circle at the head of Eighth street, and thence to the Governor-General's residence.

Most political stir was made by Herbert Morrison, Lord Privy Seal and Labour Government Leader in the British House of Commons. Former butcher's boy, Morrison, who has had an Horatio-Alger career, was vigorous and blunt in his dealings with both the press and the public. His press interviews were salty and dramatic, and his speech to the Canadian Club was packed with information about Great Britain and punctuated by lively off-hand remarks.

On both of these occasions, Mr. Morrison paid tribute to Canada's Prime Minister, calling him "a great Commonwealth Statesman" and declaring that Canada's emergency from the war with added prestige in the eyes of the world was not an accident, but "much of the credit went to the Prime Minister of Canada."

Mr. Morrison added: "We look upon Mr. Mackenzie King as a great world citizen and as a great Canadian. His influence in world affairs as the spokesman of the Canadian people is strong and fine."

Political observers in the Capital here are adding up the evidence and concluding that the CCF ship is walloping. Some of the evidence has to do with Mr. Morrison's visit to Canada, in which CCF propagandists made an attempt to exploit his presence to the full, hoping to benefit thereby.

PRIVATE JONES BECOMES PRIVATE ENTERPRISE

Opportunity is knocking for thousands of returned Canadian servicemen and women. With their re-establishment credits, many are starting small businesses, buying farms or completing their education.

Energy, initiative and new ideas will play a great part in the success of these new enterprises, but caution too, is needed.

Imperial Bank of Canada welcomes these new Canadian businessmen and offers them its services. Discuss your problems with us.

headquarters announced meetings between CCF leaders and Mr. Morrison, as well as CCF dinners in honor of him. But the propagandists were lifted sky-high with their own rockets. Alert political editors and commentators teased Laborite Morrison unmercifully for thus meddling, even by implication, in Canada's political affairs.

They suggested he use a very long spoon when eating with the CCF. Mr. Morrison's face got so red he could not refrain from making an off-side remark when his Canadian Club speech was being broadcasted.

Another piece of evidence that the CCF ship is wallowing is the sudden and inadequately explained resignation of the Director-General of Adult Education for the Saskatchewan Government. Watson Thomson will leave the CCF propaganda machine on January 31st. Speculation in the Capital is rife on reasons why Mr. Thomson refuses to play ball with his political boss, Education Minister Watson Lloyd.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of a dear husband and father, John G. Crozier, who passed away January 18th, 1939.
Gone from us, but leaving memories, Death can never take away. Memories that will always linger. While upon this earth we stay.

—Sadly missed by his wife Jane, and son Mervin.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Susan C. Bailey, who passed away six years ago, January 16th, 1940.

Of we think of you, dear mother, And our hearts are filled with pain, Oh, this would be a heaven Could we hear your voice again. You are gone, but not forgotten, Never shall your memory fade, Sweetest thoughts shall ever linger, Round the grave where you are laid.

—Lovingly remembered by husband, Joseph, and family.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of Pte. William Pritchard, 507 Para, Inf., 82nd Airborne Division, who was killed in action one year ago, January 19th, 1945, in Belgium.
The midnight stars are shining Upon your silent grave, Beneath it sleeps the one we loved, And the one we could not save.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last, The world's weary troubles and trials are past. His short life a beautiful memory, His absence a silent grief. He sleeps in God's beautiful garden, In the sunshine of perfect peace.

—Sadly missed by mom, dad, Ed, Bob, Dick, John.

—Fondly remembered by his sister, Geraldine.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Rudolph A. Brush, who passed away one year ago, January 17th, 1945.

We miss your word, your kindly ways, With you we spent our happiest days; We miss you when we need a friend, On you we always could depend.

It is only goodnight, dear father, It is just what we used to say; We will meet again in the morning, At the dawn of a happier day.

—Fondly remembered by wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of a wonderful father, Rudolph A. Brush, who passed away one year ago, January 17th, 1945.

God knew that you were suffering, He knew you were in pain, He knew you never would get better In this world again. He saw the road was getting rough, The hill was hard to climb, So He closed your weary eyelids, And whispered, "Peace be thine."

—Sadly missed by his daughter and son-in-law, Ola and Emerson.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of a wonderful father and grandfather, Rudolph A. Brush, who passed away one year ago, January 16th, 1945.

All through the years, be they many or few, Will be years full of memories dear of you.

—Sadly missed by his daughter Jean, son-in-law Cecil, and grandchildren.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of William Farough, who passed away two years ago, January 19th, 1944.

There is someone who misses you sadly, And finds the time long since you went; There is someone who thinks of you always, And tries to be brave and content. Gene is the face I loved so dear, Silent the voice I loved to hear; 'Tis sad, but true, I wonder why, The best are always the first to die. A beautiful memory dearer than gold, Of a husband whose word can never be told; Alone and unseen, he stands at my side, And whispers don't grieve, dear, death cannot divide.

—Lovingly remembered by his wife Maggie.

Conventions of Agriculturists Set for February.

Dates for the annual conventions of an important group of agricultural organizations of the Province of Ontario are announced by J. A. Carroll and J. D. McLeod of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Mr. McLeod announces that the annual convention of the Ontario Crop Improvement Association will be held at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, on February 11th, 12th and 13th. Coincident with that meeting, Mr. Carroll announces, the Ontario Growers' Association will hold its convention on February 12th, with the Directors' meeting on the previous day. The Class "I" Fair's Association will hold its annual meeting on February 12th, on which day the Directors of the Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies will also meet. The latter association will hold its annual meeting on February 14th and 15th.

Mr. Carroll announces a new departure for the Ontario Horticultural Association, which will hold its annual convention at the General Brock Hotel, Niagara Falls, instead of in Toronto, the dates being March 7th and 8th, with the Directors holding a session on March 6th.

The many live stock organizations, both provincial and Dominion, will hold their annual meetings at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, during the week of February 4th and the various dates for each organization are now being arranged.

The ultimate notion of right is that which tends to the universal good; and when one's acting in a certain manner has this tendency he has a right thus to act.—Francis Hutcheson.
